

MY HIDDEN 721

Chapter 721: The Mysterious Swedish Man

Seeing the expressions on Lei Ning and his sister-in-law's faces, Fu Shiyi quickly dialed his brother's number.

Before the call went through, one of their tires burst.

Lei Ning drove for a while and did not stop until she reached the intersection.

"Get out of the car, I will cover you. You guys go on ahead and head towards Queen Island Palace."

The Queen's Island Palace was the residence of the royal family of Sweden and there were important royal activities going on there.

It was safer for them to go in that direction.

Lei Ning got out of the car and left the engine running as a cover, searching for the other party.

When they both got out of the car, she led them to the street.

"Third Master, have you contacted Boss?"

Fu Shiyi gasped. "I went to get the gun and left my phone in the car. Where is your phone, sister-in-law?"

Gu Weiwei said, "I left the bag in the car."

With one hand holding the gun, Lei Ning gave her the phone.

"Before Third Master leaves, call Boss and tell him where we are."

"Before I leave?" Fu Shiyi's hands shook.

Although he had practiced shooting a gun before, he had never experienced such a situation before.

"There is no danger ahead, just go." Gu Weiwei urged.

They had changed their direction at the last minute, so there was no ambush ahead; the danger came from the people chasing them.

Lei Ning urged them as she kept an eye on the back.

"Did you get through?"

Gu Weiwei shook her head. "No signal."

Yuan Meng had also arranged for someone to follow her secretly, so when these people started to do something, her men would know about it too.

If Yuan Meng and Yuan Shuo were to investigate this matter, Fu Hanzheng must not muddy the water by getting his men involved so soon.

So she did not make the call.

“Let’s go first, we will talk when we are in a safe place.” Lei Ning led them through the deserted streets of the old town.

Bullets from silencers flew at them from time to time. Luckily, Lei Ning was smart enough to find a place to hide.

But as they kept retreating, fewer and fewer people came after them.

“It seems that our men have finished dealing with the people behind us and are here.” Lei Ning speculated.

Gu Weiwei did not speak. She knew that it was not the other bodyguards, but Yuan Meng’s men.

“For safety’s sake, let’s go within the vicinity of Queen’s Island Palace and return after we contact Boss.” Lei Ning said and urged them to leave.

Gu Weiwei also took out Lei Ning’s phone and was about to contact Fu Hanzheng.

However, there was really no signal this time.

When the three of them were approaching the Queen’s Island Palace, a Bentley and three Land Rovers stopped in the street and blocked their way.

The window of the Bentley was opened and the face of the man inside could not be seen clearly, but Gu Weiwei could feel that the man in the car was looking at them.

More accurately, he was looking at her.

She could feel that the man was sizing her up.

Since they were outnumbered, the three of them did not dare to act rashly.

After a while, the man in the car said something in Swedish.

Lei Ning and Fu Shiyi did not understand, but she did.

“That is her, bring her to the car.”

Having said these words, a few armed men came over and took Lei Ning and Fu Shiyi into the Land Rover.

One of them opened the door of the Bentley and urged her in English.

“Get in!”

Gu Weiwei got into the car and frowned at the Swedish man who was dressed in a tuxedo. She suddenly realized where she had seen his face before.

“You are...!”

Chapter 722: Anthony Gustav

“Anthony Gustav.” The Swedish man introduced himself with a smile.

Anthony Gustav, a member of the Swedish royal family and the third heir to the crown.

Gu Weiwei remembered who he was because Yuan Meng had once read an article about the members from European Royal families, it was called "Forbes Sexy Royalty Ranking".

Anthony Gustav was on the list, but she had forgotten what rank he was.

Anyway, Yuan Meng had been drooling over his looks and figure.

Also, she had met him at the royal charity ball in A Land.

Gu Weiwei recognized him as a member of the Royal Family of Sweden, so she understood that they were not in a very dangerous situation.

So she said in Swedish, "Mr. Gustav, I don't think we know each other."

"You are right, Miss. Mu Weiwei." Anthony Gustav said.

Gu Weiwei gritted her teeth. "Then why are you taking me and my friends away?"

Seeing her guarded expression, Anthony Gustav showed a friendly smile on his handsome face.

"I mean no harm, I am just inviting you to a ball. I was going to invite you to the banquet, but I ran into you on the way."

Gu Weiwei frowned and gasped inwardly.

Could this be the person from Sweden that Yuan Meng had reminded her about?

She had a feeling that this ball was not going to be a good thing. Luckily, Lei Ning's phone was still in her hands, so she placed the phone by the car door and texted Fu Hanzheng.

However, before the text was finished, Anthony Gustav had already noticed it and said, as he stretched out his hand, "Give me the phone, if you don't want your two friends to be in danger."

Gu Weiwei gritted her teeth and handed over the phone.

"Mr. Gustav, we are just doing normal business in Sweden, why have you captured us?"

"Not captured, but invited." Gustav smiled and corrected her.

"..."

There had been so many people surrounding them and pointing guns at them as they got into the car. Was that an invitation?

Since they were already near Queen's Island Palace, within ten minutes, Gustav's car drove them into the private palace of the royal family of Sweden.

The moment Gu Weiwei got out of the car, she saw Lei Ning and Fu Shiyi being taken out of the car.

"Miss. Mu Weiwei, if you want your friends to leave here safely, I would join me at the ball tonight."

"Did you have to bring me here because you can't find a date, Mr. Gustav?" Gu Weiwei was a bit annoyed. She had thought that Yuan Meng was teasing her, but she had been right.

"I had one, but she ran away." Anthony Gustav looked at her and said with a smile, "I saw you in the newspaper a few days ago, the beautiful Asian girl."

Gu Weiwei did not want to beat around the bush with him any more. "Will you let us go if we attend the ball?"

"You can't leave, but they can." Anthony Gustav said to his servants. "Have Miss. Mu Weiwei change into a new gown and bring her to the banquet hall."

Gu Weiwei threw a look at Lei Ning and Fu Shiyi and followed the servant inside.

No matter how much she had planned, she had never expected that a prince of Sweden would come after her.

But she still wanted him to release Fu Shiyi and Lei Ning. As for how she was going to leave this place? She would think of something else.

Chapter 723: Another Man

At Queen's Island, Sweden.

Gu Weiwei and the other two had their guns and phones confiscated; all contact with the outside world had been cut off. They even asked her to attend the Royal Ball for some reason.

"I need to speak with them."

Anthony Gustav threw a look at Fu Shiyi and Lei Ning and said, "The ball is about to start, you only have two minutes."

"Thanks." Gu Weiwei walked towards Fu Shiyi and Lei Ning after getting permission.

Seeing her approaching, Fu Shiyi asked, "Sister-in-law, you know that guy?"

He must be one of the members of the Royal Family of Sweden.

But it seemed that this was not the first time they had met.

"No." Gu Weiwei denied it. They barely knew each other when she was in the Gu Family.

"Then why did he bring us here?" Fu Shiyi asked. Obviously, he was not in cahoots with the men who were after them.

Gu Weiwei did not have much time left and she was too lazy to explain it to him.

"He promised to let you go tomorrow morning, so don't do anything tonight."

After all, this was Sweden and the palace of the royal family, so the security must be tight.

If they made a move now, they would be in even more danger.

"If you let us go, what about you?" Lei Ning understood what she meant and questioned her.

Gu Weiwei sighed. "I can't leave yet, you can leave first. Contact Fu Hanzheng and think of a way. I will be safe for the time being."

“Then I am not leaving either. If my brother knows that we left you alone with a Swedish man, he will kill us both!” Fu Shiyi instantly said.

In his brother’s eyes, his wife was much more important than his brother.

“So what will happen if you two stay here?”

Gu Weiwei countered with a question. She could only leave this place as soon as possible, after they left and told Fu Hanzheng what had happened here.

If Anthony Gustav did not release her, she would not be able to leave Sweden until they cooperated.

“Then what does he want you to do now?” Fu Shiyi asked.

He had just taken her into his car and now he was going to send him and Lei Ning elsewhere, and take his sister-in-law away.

“Just let me accompany him to the ball and I will protect myself. You two will go tomorrow morning and you can leave without any trouble.” Gu Weiwei said straightforwardly.

Fu Shiyi got annoyed, when he heard that she was going to attend a ball.

“No, no, my brother will be furious if he knows that you are dancing in another man’s arms.”

His brother was so jealous that any man who approached his sister-in-law would not have a good ending. Yet now there was a Swedish man, who was going to dance with his sister-in-law. What was going to happen?

“Do you still want us to be able to even leave this place?”

Gu Weiwei gritted her teeth. She had been counting on them to contact Fu Hanzheng and help her to quickly get out of here, and now he was telling her all of this nonsense.

“I...” Fu Shiyi felt wronged.

He was afraid that this Swedish man would steal his brother’s girl because she was pretty.

Gu Weiwei could not communicate with him, so she said a few words to Lei Ning and was then forced to part with them, under the urging of Anthony Gustav’s servants.

Fu Shiyi and Lei Ning were led to another place by a group of guards from the Swedish Royal Family, who were subtly pointing their guns at them. As they walked, they looked back at the woman, who was being taken away by Anthony Gustav.

“That man is so lecherous, he must be up to no good.”

“That is Prince Anthony of the Swedish royal family, the third heir to the crown.” Lei Ning said.

But she just could not figure out why a member from the Royal Family of Sweden, had approached Mu Weiwei.

Chapter 724: Royal Ball

Fu Shiyi and Lei Ning were taken to another place to keep watch, whilst Anthony Gustav's servant brought Gu Weiwei and Anthony Gustav to a classical European room.

Then someone brought her a champagne-colored gown and high-heels, and asked her to put them on.

She had changed her clothes and shoes and someone had touched up her makeup and tidied her hair.

When everything was ready, Anthony Gustav's servant came and said, "Please follow me."

She had to lower her head and be obedient when she was under someone else's roof, so Gu Weiwei followed him out of the room and went into the banquet hall.

She was Chinese, so she was definitely going to attract attention with her features that were different from the majority of the crowd's.

Anthony Gustav, who was dressed in a tuxedo, was talking with someone with a champagne glass in his hand. He was wearing an exquisite black bow tie and his dark brown natural curls did not reduce his masculinity. Instead, he looked very charming because of the European straight nose and deep eyes.

He saw the servant bringing her over and walked towards her, sizing her up.

The champagne colored gown was elegant and beautiful. Together with the girl's exquisite face, she looked like someone from a painting.

"Beautiful Miss Weiwei, will you dance with me?"

"No." Gu Weiwei turned him down.

Anthony Gustav made an inviting gesture, but his words were threatening.

"Beautiful Miss Weiwei, do you think you can turn me down now?"

What he meant was that he still had her people in the palm of his hand.

"I don't know how to waltz." Gu Weiwei said straightforwardly.

The Gu Family's education was rather diverse, so of course she knew how to dance these social dances, but she did not want to dance with him.

Although it was just a simple waltz, she knew that Uncle Fu would easily get jealous.

He had always been easy to please, but when it came to men, it was very difficult.

"It is very simple, I will teach you." Anthony Gustav still stretched out his hands.

Gu Weiwei gritted her teeth, reached out for his hand and they walked onto the dance floor.

The elegant and smooth waltz music resonated across the banquet hall and everyone was dancing.

Gu Weiwei played the role of someone who did not know how to dance, and every step she took hit the other party's feet accurately.

Anthony Gustav gasped with a frown after being stepped on by her multiple times.

"You really don't know how to dance?"

She did not know how to dance, but she was very good at stepping on his feet.

“Really.” Gu Weiwei said seriously.

If he still wanted to dance, she would make him unable to walk comfortably tomorrow.

Sure enough, Anthony Gustav took her away from the dance floor, so that he would not have to suffer any more.

“Sorry, I told you that I can’t dance.” Gu Weiwei explained.

Instead of continuing to dance, Anthony Gustav raised his left arm and asked her to hold his arm.

“We need to meet some people.”

“It is just a meeting, no need to be in contact with one another like this.” Gu Weiwei said.

Anthony Gustav said, “You can refuse to dance, but if you keep refusing, men will lose their patience. If I lose my patience, I won’t know what to do with your two friends.”

Gu Weiwei gritted her teeth, took hold of his arm and showed a fake smile.

“Mr. Gustav, are you satisfied now?”

Anthony Gustav led her over to his family, who had arrived late to the ball, the Princess of Sweden, Silvia, as well as his brother Ryan and his sister Victoria.

“This is my girlfriend, Mu Weiwei from Hua Land.”

Chapter 725: Boyfriend

“...” Startled, Gu Weiwei removed her arm.

What the hell?!

An hour ago, he had brought the three of them to his home because he had the advantage of numbers, and now he was telling his family that she was his girlfriend?

Sylvia elegantly sized up Gu Weiwei and asked her in English, seeing the astonishment on her face, “Are you really dating Anthony?”

Gu Weiwei got so annoyed that she said straightforwardly, “I was kidnapped by him an hour ago. I have a boyfriend and we are getting married soon. I don’t know Mr. Gustav, let alone dating him.”

“Anthony, she already has a fiancé, you are being rude.” Ryan lectured with a sunken face.

Instead of taking her words seriously, Anthony Gustav said, “I believe that she will break up with that man and become my Princess Consort.”

Be it status or power, being the Princess Consort of Sweden was better than being a wealthy lady in Hua Land.

Gu Weiwei felt that it was pointless speaking to him, so she gave up talking with him and explained to the Princess Consort and the others.

“My colleagues and I came to Stockholm for business and ran into some trouble. Then Mr. Gustav brought us here and limited our personal freedom, asking me to attend the ball...”

Before she finished, Anthony Gustav interrupted her and said to them, “You promised that as long as I bring her back, I can get married to her.”

“I...” Gu Weiwei got really annoyed.

She had been captured by a man and brought to his home and now she was getting married?! How could they get married in this way?

“But you can’t bring someone else’s girlfriend home.” Silvia said.

“She can break up with him.”

Anthony Gustav smiled confidently. He was better than her boyfriend in terms of appearance and status.

“I will not break up with him.” Gu Weiwei said resolutely.

“Okay, tonight is my birthday party, let’s not talk about these unhappy things.”

Anthony Gustav did not want to argue any more and changed the topic.

“Anthony, you should release her and her friends.” Princess Consort Sylvia said.

“You promised me that you would not control what kind of person I am looking for. You promised me.” Anthony Gustav countered.

Princess Sylvia and Ryan exchanged a look and said to Gu Weiwei.

“Sorry, we promised not to arrange his girlfriend, and we don’t want his birthday party to be too unpleasant, but we will keep you and your friend safe.”

Gu Weiwei sighed. She had thought that she could leave this place if she met someone reasonable.

“So you are allowing him to restrict our personal freedom.”

Standing next to her, Anthony Gustav leaned forward and lowered his voice.

“Because of what happened when we met you and the fact that you were carrying guns, you will all be arrested as terrorists. This place is much more comfortable than the prison in Stockholm.”

“You...” Gu Weiwei was furious.

“I will not hurt you or your friends. I am just trying to create an opportunity for you to get to know me better. You will discover my strengths and make the right choice.”

Anthony Gustav smiled in a friendly way and gave her a glass of champagne.

“Of course, if your boyfriend can bring you back from Queen’s Island Palace, I am willing to quit.”

Chapter 726: Handsome Boyfriend

“Okay, let me contact him first.” Gu Weiwei said.

She believed that as long as she told Fu Hanzheng what was going on here, he could help her return home.

Now, Yuan Meng and the others might have found the clues, but she had cut off all contact with the outside world.

Anthony Gustav sipped his champagne and chuckled.

“Sorry, I don’t want anyone to ruin the joy of my birthday party. When your friends leave tomorrow, won’t they help you contact him?”

Gu Weiwei resisted the urge to punch him and asked with a fake smile, “Then, Mr. Gustav, you have many women to choose from. Why me?”

Anthony Gustav thought for a while and raised his glass at her.

“Love at first sight, right? I fell in love with you when I saw your picture in the news. Then I checked some information on you and realised that this is the Princess Consort I want to marry.”

“But I don’t want to marry you.” Gu Weiwei gritted her teeth.

Anthony Gustav chuckled. “You don’t want to now, but you will in the future. I believe that I am quite charming.”

“Just because you are from the royal family, you think women want to be your Princess Consort?” Gu Weiwei countered with a sneer.

This frivolous man was way too confident.

Apart from Fu Hanzheng’s, she was immune to any other man’s charms.

Anthony Gustav raised his eyebrows. “Isn’t that enough?”

Gu Weiwei swirled the champagne in the glass and said nonchalantly, “Your royal identity can indeed attract many girls to fall in love with you, but what they fall in love with is only your identity, not you.”

“You are a noble, but you are... annoying.”

Anthony Gustav looked at the woman who was talking and chuckled.

“Weiwei, you are more interesting than I thought, but isn’t wealth and status the key to winning love?”

“No, only true love is enough.” Gu Weiwei said resolutely.

Anthony Gustav smiled and said, “A few years ago, an Asian girl said something like that too.”

Gu Weiwei frowned. “Really?”

“An Asian girl who lives in A Land, but her true love seems to have not been reciprocated.” Anthony Gustav sighed.

Gu Weiwei stayed silent. It seemed that he was talking about her.

But did she ever say such a thing?

She did not have it in the past, but now she had everything she had desired, including love.

“Weiwei, are you not going to wish me a happy birthday?” Anthony Gustav reminded her unhappily.

Gu Weiwei smiled coldly. “Sorry, I am not in the mood to congratulate you.”

But they had only met once at the royal banquet in A Land and she had not expected that he would remember her.

Anthony Gustav shrugged helplessly and changed the subject with a smile.

“You seem to have just arrived in Stockholm, let’s go on a date tomorrow.”

Gu Weiwei looked at the man next to her as if he were an idiot.

“Do you think that I am in the mood to date you?”

“Didn’t you say that only true love can be won? I just want to express my true love.” Anthony Gustav said.

Was her boyfriend better-looking, richer and more suitable to be her boyfriend than him?

She had come to the Queen’s Island Palace and yet was not surprised or pleased by his royal identity.

Chapter 727: Brother

Although she had been restricted and forced to attend the ball, Anthony Gustav did not make things difficult for them.

The following morning, he asked someone to drive Fu Shiyi and Lei Ning away.

The moment they left Queen Island Palace, Lei Ning contacted the bodyguards, who came with her, to investigate what happened the night before, whilst Fu Shiyi called Fu Hanzheng and reported the situation.

Fu Hanzheng received the report from the bodyguards that they had been attacked and that they had lost contact with the three of them.

He had arranged for Lei Meng to track them down and he was arranging who would take over the work at the company, so that he could go to Stockholm.

The moment Fu Shiyi made the call, he furiously spoke of the situation to his brother. “Brother, Sister-in-law has been detained by the Swedish Royal Family.”

Fu Hanzheng frowned. “Not injured?”

“We made it out of danger last night and we were not injured. But a guy named Anthony Gustav from the Swedish Royal Family showed up and took us to Queen’s Island Palace. He detained me and Lei Ning and asked sister-in-law to accompany him to the ball!” Fu Shiyi had one hand holding his phone and the other on his waist.

Hearing his words, Fu Hanzheng asked, “Where is she now?”

“Lei Ning and I were released, and sister-in-law was detained at Queen’s Island Palace.” Fu Shiyi thought of what happened the night before and angrily said, “Safety might not be a problem, but that man is so perverted. I think he is trying to steal her away from you.”

He was not trying to kill her, but he had detained her at Queen’s Island Palace. He must have fallen for his sister-in-law because she was young and pretty.

He had just finished speaking, when he heard a cold silence from the other end of the phone. He could tell that his brother’s face was very dark.

It was not until a long time later that he heard his brother’s voice, which sounded much colder.

“I understand, I will be there soon, ask Lei Ning to investigate what happened last night.”

“Then what about sister-in-law?” Fu Shiyi became afraid as he thought about it.

He mumbled, “That man asked sister-in-law to get in his car last night and asked her to attend the ball with him. It’s worrying!”

“What did she say to you in the end?” Fu Hanzheng did not want to listen to his nonsense and asked straightforwardly.

Fu Shiyi said, “Sister-in-law asked us to contact you as soon as possible, because she can protect herself.”

But one night had passed and they had not seen her, so they did not know how she was doing in the palace.

“I will contact her.” Fu Hanzheng said and hung up.

After hanging up the phone, he was about to leave for the airport, when Fu Shiqin rushed into his office in a hurry. “Brother, brother, look at this news!”

“I am in a hurry.” Fu Hanzheng grabbed his coat and was about to leave, not caring about the news.

Fu Shiqin instantly said, “It is news about sister-in-law!” He said as he showed the phone to his brother.

“The news report says that Prince Anthony, of the Swedish Royal Family, attended the birthday banquet with a mysterious female partner and announced that she is his new girlfriend.”

“This is my sister-in-law and this is your girlfriend. How did she become his girlfriend?”

Next to the text, there was also a picture.

In the picture was Anthony Gustav dancing with his sister-in-law, in a waltz position.

His brother, the real boyfriend, had not even been introduced to the public, so how did this Swedish prince suddenly claim that his sister-in-law was his girlfriend?

Chapter 728: My Girlfriend

Fu Hanzheng said nothing as he read the report on the phone, but he looked very intimidating.

Fu Shiqin continued, "This is just a local report in Sweden. If we don't control it in time, the entire country will know that our sister-in-law has become the girlfriend of the Swedish Prince Anthony Gustav."

Especially now that his sister-in-law was so popular, the news would spread like wildfire and everyone would know about it.

Fu Hanzheng threw a cold look at him. "Get someone to deal with it, I don't want to see such a report in this country."

She was at the peak of her popularity and if she had anything to do with the Royal Family of Sweden, she would become the center of attention.

"I know, brother, you better go now. If you are late, they might even release the news about the wedding." Fu Shiqin urged.

Could his sister-in-law really have found a love rival for his brother? Although there were some who were related to her in the past, they were all dealt with before they could have a proper fight with his brother.

This was not a small thing and the ball was obviously in the royal palace, which was not a place for the paparazzi to enter.

So the news might have been released by the royal family.

Fu Hanzheng, with a cold face, went downstairs and urged Xu Qian to drive.

Then he made an international call in the car.

"Anthony Gustav took my girlfriend away. I need to make sure she is safe. Now!"

It was not a call to a random person, but to Prince Ryan of the Swedish Royal Family, the second-in-line heir to be the Crown Prince and Fu Hanzheng's alumni, who used to study abroad.

It was already afternoon in the capital, and it was still morning in Stockholm, which was six hours away from the capital.

The members of the royal family were having breakfast, when Ryan saw the news of Anthony Gustav attending the birthday banquet with his girlfriend, on the local morning paper.

Last night, the other party had already said that she had a boyfriend, yet this guy still spread such news.

The other party was a public figure, and if he released this news, it would definitely cause a huge sensation.

"She has not broken up with her boyfriend yet, and you are spreading such news?" Ryan asked the man sitting opposite him with a frown.

Anthony Gustav was sitting opposite him in a casual outfit with a vague smile on his face, looking a bit frivolous.

"If the journalists want to write it, they can't say that I released it."

“There were no journalists at the ball last night. You asked someone to release the pictures.” Ryan saw through his trick and scolded him unhappily.

Since Mu Weiwei did not want to break up with her boyfriend, he was going to create a rumor and force them to break up.

Although they promised not to interfere with what kind of girlfriend he had, as long as they got married within two years, he could not use such an underhanded method to steal someone else’s girlfriend.

They were just talking when the servant delivered the phone.

“Prince Ryan, you have a call.”

Ryan put down the knife and fork, wiped his lips and answered the phone.

The moment the call went through, he heard a familiar voice.

“Anthony Gustav took my girlfriend away. I need to make sure she is safe. Now!”

“Your... girlfriend?” Ryan could not believe what he was hearing.

Sweden had business dealings with the Fu Family’s military industry and Fu’s Enterprise also had a branch company in Sweden, so he was quite familiar with this alumni.

Fu Hanzheng said with certainty, “Yes, my girlfriend, Mu Weiwei.”

Chapter 729: Fu Hanzheng in Stockholm

Ryan looked at the newspaper in astonishment. He had not expected that Anthony would fall for his alumni friend’s girlfriend.

“I am very sorry, we did not know that she is your girlfriend. I want to promise you that she is safe in Queen’s Island Palace.”

Fu Hanzheng said, “I am on the way there and they were in some trouble. Please tell Fu Shiyi to bring his men to stay with her.”

Although Ryan had assured him that she was safe in Queen’s Island Palace, he was not assured that she would be safe with Anthony Gustav.

Therefore, he would be more assured if Fu Shiyi was there.

Ryan ended the call and was about to tell Anthony when he realized that the person sitting opposite him had disappeared.

He held the phone and asked the servant.

“Where is Anthony?”

“He said that he is taking his girlfriend out on a date.” The servant said.

Hearing these words, Ryan was no longer in the mood for breakfast. He called Anthony and asked his servant to find someone.

How dare he bring her out on a date? He must have known whose girlfriend she was!

However, the phone kept ringing. At first, Anthony Gustav did not answer it, but then he turned off the phone.

He was not the only one who was not answering the phone, even his servants were not answering.

Fu Shiyi received his brother's order and came to Queen's Island Palace to meet Ryan.

"Where is my sister-in-law?"

"She... went out with Anthony and will be back soon." Ryan laughed dryly.

His brother was too frivolous and had never taken the royal rules seriously.

He had not been able to get married, so the royal family had arranged a political marriage. They had told him that if he was not willing to accept it, he had to find himself a partner.

Who knew that he would find Fu Hanzheng's girlfriend.

"Out?" Fu Shiyi felt his forehead and said, "Don't tell me that they are on a date?"

"No, Anthony is just showing Miss. Mu Weiwei some scenic spots in Stockholm." Ryan answered in Chinese.

"Isn't that a date? Find her now!" Fu Shiyi almost broke down.

This was too much. His brother had not seen his sister-in-law for a long time but now, that pretty boy was going on a date with his sister-in-law. He must find her before his brother arrives.

How was he going to explain to his brother, when he didn't see her?

"We are already looking for him, she will be back soon." Ryan stopped Fu Shiyi patiently.

With his hands on hips, Fu Shiyi anxiously said, "Let me tell you, my sister-in-law is my brother's darling. If he doesn't see her, you can explain to him what your brother has done, by yourself!"

If his brother failed to meet her and found out that they were on a date, he would be furious.

However, even after searching for hours, Ryan still could not find the two people who had left Queen's Island Palace.

Fu Shiyi suddenly thought of something and asked Ryan, "Did your brother kidnap my sister-in-law and elope?"

Otherwise, why were they unable to find them and why have they not been able to get through to them on the phone either? It was obvious that he did not want anyone to find them.

"No, no, Anthony is not like that." Ryan explained.

"No, no, he kidnapped my sister-in-law last night!" Fu Shiyi bellowed.

They were just arguing when Ryan's servant came over and asked, "Mr. Ryan, there is a Mr. Fu here to see you, do you want him to come in?"

Ryan felt his forehead. He had not found his girlfriend yet, but he was here already.

“Let him in.”

Chapter 730: Fu Hanzheng in Stockholm 2

Hearing these words, Fu Shiyi knew that his brother was here.

Damn, how was he going to explain to his brother that they hadn't found sister-in-law?

He and Ryan walked out of the palace and saw his brother's car driving into Queen's Island Palace.

The flight from the capital was eight hours long, so Fu Hanzheng took his own private jet and saved a lot of time. Within six hours, they arrived in Stockholm.

Fu Hanzheng glanced at the group of people coming out of the palace through the car window and his face sunk.

Ryan was here and so was Fu Shiyi, but she was not.

Also, Anthony Gustav was not here either.

The car stopped and Fu Hanzheng got out of the car with a cold face. Although he had already guessed that she was not here, he still asked, “Where is she?”

“She went out early in the morning and has not been found yet.” Ryan said apologetically.

When he received his call in the morning, Anthony had left with his men before he could tell him.

Also, his phone was switched off, as he did not want him to find them.

“Gone out?” Fu Hanzheng asked with a faint smile. “Gone out with Anthony Gustav?”

“Well...” Ryan looked at his alumni whom he had known for years and it was the first time he had seen such a cold expression on his face. “When you called, he was already gone. We sent someone to find him but his phone was turned off, so we have not found them yet.”

Hearing his words, Fu Hanzheng threw a look at Fu Shiyi.

“Brother, we did look for her, but we don't know where she is,” Fu Shiyi said honestly.

During the past few hours, people had been sent to search for any possible place that Anthony Gustav might go in Stockholm.

Fu Hanzheng pursed his lips. So Anthony Gustav had been missing with her for hours.

Seeing that Fu Hanzheng was really angry, Ryan tried his best to explain and apologize to him.

“I am very sorry, but Anthony did not know that Miss. Mu is your girlfriend, so he started to court her.”

If he had known that the Asian girl was his girlfriend, he would have stopped Anthony with all his might.

Fu Shiyi got annoyed. “That is not courting, it is kidnapping!”

His sister-in-law would never accept his pursuit. He must have threatened her.

Fu Hanzheng did not want to hear their arguing anymore, so he said to Ryan, "If your men can't find her, then please allow me to arrange my men to find her."

After all, this was Sweden. If he wanted to find someone, he would have to ask for permission.

Ryan thought for a while and felt that he was making a big fuss just to find someone.

"They should be back soon, no need to look for them."

"Then if my fiancée gets hurt because of Anthony Gustav, will you be responsible?" Fu Hanzheng asked coldly.

She had not seen her for more than a month because of the promotional work.

Finally, when she was about to finish her work and go home, she was pestered by Anthony Gustav.

Now, he was starting to regret agreeing to her working in the entertainment industry because she was too dazzling, and too many people coveted her.

He and Ryan were just in the middle of talking with each other about sending more men to find them, when Fu Shiqin saw several cars coming towards them from afar. He recognized them as the cars of Anthony Gustav, who had captured them the night before.

"Brother, they are back."
