

MY HIDDEN 811

Chapter 811: Spoiled

Due to the mild concussion, Gu Weiwei had to stay in the hospital for 24 hours of observation.

Fu Hanzheng stayed with her, so Fu Shiqin and Xu Qian had to send the documents to the hospital after work.

Gu Weiwei, on the other hand, was eating happily in bed from the plate of fruits that Fu Hanzheng had just cut.

Fu Shiqin finished sharing the report with his brother, dragged a chair and sat down next to the bed. He started trying to persuade her.

“Sister-in-law, can’t you care about your life and stop tormenting my brother? Because when you torment my brother, you are tormenting us.”

If she was injured, his brother would have to leave his work to keep her company because he was worried, and so his brother would leave his work to him.

But now, she was sitting in bed and leisurely eating fruits, while they were too busy to eat dinner.

“I am very concerned about my life,” Gu Weiwei argued and said, as she looked at the plate, “The apple is gone, cut another one for me.”

Fu Shiqin gritted his teeth and took out an apple to peel as he tried to persuade her again.

“You must know that you are about to get married, so don’t get yourself into trouble.”

“What can he do to me?” Gu Weiwei glared at him.

Fu Shiqin surrendered and made sure to peel an extra apple for himself as he mumbled, “My brother can’t do anything about you, but if you keep interfering with the Gu Family and the Dorrans Family because of Yuan Shuo, my father and grandma will be displeased.”

Yuan Shuo’s grudge with the Dorrans Family was because of Gu Weiwei, who was already dead.

But the Fu Family should not be involved so much, especially when she was about to marry his brother and become Mrs. Fu.

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips and threw a look at Fu Hanzheng, who was telling Xu Qian about work on the sofa not far away from them, and whispered, “Fu Shiqin, if I am too deeply entangled with the Gu Family and the Dorrans Family, will your brother... break up with me?”

“Break up?” Fu Shiqin took a bite of the apple and asked, “Does my brother’s dictionary even contain such a phrase?”

Gu Weiwei smiled bitterly. Every time she wanted to tell him, she always just wanted him to like her more.

That way, if he knew about her secret, he would not leave her.

“He has found his wife, so even if you make him unhappy, what else can he do apart from spoil you?”

Fu Shiqin threw a look at his sister-in-law and then at his brother and said, “But if you do upset him, make sure it’s not too serious. Yuan Shuo, the Gu Family and the Dorrans Family are their own business, don’t get involved.”

Gu Weiwei smiled and continued to eat the fruit.

Seeing her staying silent, Fu Shiqin looked a little weird. He leaned forward and whispered, “Sister-in-law, are you trying to break up with my brother?”

“Is that even possible?” Gu Weiwei glared at him.

“True, you have already taken the wedding pictures and we are just waiting for you to get married after your birthday,” Fu Shiqin mumbled.

His brother had made a very tight schedule for the wedding.

Mu Weiwei’s birthday was next week and the wedding was next month.

“You won’t have the chance to get a new sister-in-law for your brother,” Gu Weiwei said with a smile.

“Since when did I want to exchange you?” Fu Shiqin threw a look at his brother and snorted. “If Dad and Grandma had not insisted that you pick a lucky day for the wedding, my brother would have planned to get married the very next day after your birthday.”

For the past six months, his brother had been counting the days, waiting for her 20th birthday.

Chapter 812: Happiness

Gu Weiwei stayed silent and looked at Fu Hanzheng.

When she thought of the secret she could no longer conceal, would they be able to live happily ever after once he found out?

“Sister-in-law, I have a question I want to ask you,” Fu Shiqin said curiously after he finished the apple.

“What?” Gu Weiwei threw a look at the gossipy man.

“Sister-in-law, you are only 19 years old, aren’t you too young to be this successful?” Fu Shiqin asked.

“Ha?” Gu Weiwei raised her eyebrows. What was this man curious about?

“I mean, look at who became an actress and director at the age of 19 and became an A-list movie star. You did not learn these things in high school, did you? So where did you learn them?” Fu Shiqin mumbled.

Although she looked like a lovely 19-year-old girl, she had shown a great deal of strength and excellence.

“Can’t I be a self-taught genius?” Gu Weiwei glanced at him and said, “Not everyone has the same IQ.”

“Sister-in-law, don’t attack me!” Fu Shiqin was displeased.

He was just curious, why did she say that he was not as smart as her.

Fu Hanzheng finished the work with Xu Qian, got up and said, "You can go home now."

Hearing that they could leave, Fu Shiqin stood up and asked, "Are you coming to the company for the meeting tomorrow morning?"

Fu Hanzheng threw a look at Gu Weiwei who was lying in bed and was about to turn him down when Gu Weiwei spoke up first, "No need, you can go to the company, I will stay at the hospital, you can pick me up after work."

Fu Hanzheng thought for a while and said to Fu Shiqin, "I will go to the company tomorrow."

"Okay, I am leaving now." Fu Shiqin carried the files and left with Xu Qian.

Fu Hanzheng sat down by the bedside. "Does your head still hurt?"

"It doesn't hurt anymore, can't we just go home?" Gu Weiwei was getting impatient.

"You can go home tomorrow afternoon." Fu Hanzheng insisted on staying at the hospital.

He Chi said that some wounds did not show any effects at first and would not show any symptoms until some time later, especially because it was a head injury, so she had to be observed for 24 hours before she could be discharged.

Gu Weiwei gave him the apple she had asked Fu Shiqin to cut. "Here, I asked Fu Shiqin to peel it for you."

Fu Hanzheng took it and asked, "What do you want to say?"

She was trying too hard to please him, so she was either going to do something wrong or asking for his help.

Gu Weiwei chuckled and said, "It is like this, there is a shareholder meeting the day after tomorrow on Monday, and the board of directors is going to be changed. I may need to go there."

Fu Hanzheng nodded. "Trouble?"

"Since Li Jiacheng and Zhou Meiqin have been managing the company for the past two years, the management staff and the major shareholders would definitely want to kick me out of the board of directors. I have been studying music and film for years, but I have not been learning how to manage the company. So I am afraid that I will not be able to control them during the meeting the day after tomorrow." Gu Weiwei confessed her worries.

Even when she was at the Gu Family, she had never asked anything about the company, so she had no experience in managing the company.

But Longsheng Enterprise belonged to the Mu Family after all, and she could not just give it away, just because she could not manage it well.

Fu Hanzheng thought for a while and said, "You can go there with a hidden microphone and earpiece, and I will teach you how to do the meeting."

Gu Weiwei nodded. "Then I will ask Yang to go to you tomorrow and tell you about the company."

Chapter 813: Anywhere

Fu Hanzheng agreed to her request and said as he looked at her, "You are very smart, if you want to learn how to manage the company, it is very easy."

Gu Weiwei waved her hands. "The company is too boring, I am not interested."

Fu Hanzheng thought for a while and realized that she was only able to learn fast because she was interested in those things.

"But if you take over Longsheng, the agent can't always manage the company."

"Is there any way for me to not have these meetings but still keep the management of the company?" Gu Weiwei asked.

Fu Hanzheng thought for a while and said, "Fu's Enterprise can acquire Longsheng. You will still be one of the shareholders of Longsheng, but the management will be decided by Fu's Enterprise."

"Can I do that?" Gu Weiwei frowned.

Fu Hanzheng got up, poured her a cup of water and continued.

"When your grandfather was still alive, the Fu's Enterprise did talk with him about an acquisition, but before it was confirmed he had passed away, Li Jiacheng managed the company and offered some unreasonable conditions, so the Fu's Enterprise gave up the acquisition of Longsheng."

Gu Weiwei took a sip of water and thought about the current situation of the company.

"The management of Longsheng Enterprise is in chaos and the stock price is falling. It is time for the Fu's Enterprise to take over."

"Go through the process and get rid of the current managers. When Fu's Enterprise takes over, Longsheng will be yours," Fu Hanzheng said.

"It doesn't matter if I have it or not, you can't possibly lie to me about the properties," Gu Weiwei said with a smile.

A small enterprise like Longsheng was nothing to Fu's Enterprise, and he did not like it either.

Fu Hanzheng checked the text on the phone and said to her, "Mother asked if she can keep you company at the hospital tomorrow."

"Sure." Gu Weiwei nodded.

Fu Hanzheng texted Mrs. Fu and said, "She wants to design the wedding site, so she might be coming to tell you about it. If you like it, you can say yes. If not, you can tell me."

Hearing his words, Gu Weiwei sat up, reached out for him and whispered, with her chin upon his shoulder, "As long as I marry you, I can marry you anywhere."

Fu Hanzheng kissed her forehead. "But I hope that you will marry me in a way that you like."

"I am so happy that my future mother-in-law cares so much about our marriage," Gu Weiwei said with a smile.

He Chi came over and saw the two of them hugging each other the moment he entered the room. He coughed to show his presence.

However, Fu Hanzheng showed no intention of releasing her.

Fu Hanzheng squinted at him. "What is it?"

He Chi glanced at the girl in his arms and said, "Ask the patient if she is feeling unwell."

Gu Weiwei released her hands and sat up straight in bed.

"I have no headache or dizziness, and there's nothing else."

He Chi asked, "Are your ears ringing?"

Gu Weiwei said, "No."

He Chi asked, "Is your vision blurry?"

Gu Weiwei said, "No."

He Chi threw a look at Fu Hanzheng. "There's no problem."

Fu Hanzheng

was always the one who made a fuss out of nothing by sending her here. They were always showing off their love in front of him.

"Can I go home now?" Gu Weiwei asked.

He Chi shook his head and said as he flipped through the checkup list, "You had a blood clot in your head before and now you have a concussion. Can't you protect your head from now on? If you get injured one or two more times, I will have to operate on you."

Gu Weiwei thought for a while and realized that Mu Weiwei must have been injured when she died. But after she was reborn, she did not show any symptoms.

Chapter 814: Marrying into the Fu Family

Since she had to stay in the hospital for 24 hours, Fu Hanzheng spent the night with her.

It was not until the morning when he finally rushed to the company for a meeting.

"What happened? What happened to you?"

"Nothing serious, just a slight concussion. I can go home in the afternoon," Gu Weiwei said with a smile.

Mrs. Fu asked someone to bring her porridge and sat down by the bedside to check the wound on her head.

“If you want to go out in the future, ask the driver to drive you. Luckily, you are not seriously injured, otherwise what will happen to the wedding next month?”

Gu Weiwei held the bowl and ate the porridge without saying a word.

It seemed that Mrs. Fu only knew that she was in a car accident and did not know that she and Yuan Shuo were going after Yuan Bao.

“What about staying at the old mansion after you are discharged from the hospital? We can discuss the wedding with you,” Mrs. Fu suggested.

“Well...” Gu Weiwei thought for a while and said, “There is a shareholder’s meeting at Longsheng tomorrow and I need to go there, so I need to make a lot of preparations tonight.”

“You are still injured, why are you still going to the meeting? Hanzheng will get someone to take your place,” Mrs. Fu said.

Gu Weiwei drank the porridge, put down the bowl and said, “It is a very important meeting and I must attend it myself. Also, the public doesn’t know about us yet, so it is not convenient for Fu’s Enterprise to take over the management.”

Hearing her words, Mrs. Fu did not stop her and asked the servant to bring the tablet over.

“I have asked someone to design a few wedding decorations that would suit Chenis Castle, see which one you like first.”

Gu Weiwei took over the tablet and saw the proposed photos of the wedding layout, all of which were beautifully designed.

“This one is more suitable for the castle.”

Seeing her choice, Mrs. Fu smiled.

“I like this style too, classical and elegant.”

“Then this one will do,” Gu Weiwei said with a smile.

Mrs. Fu showed her the detailed decorations of the wedding site and showed her the pictures of the bridesmaid’s gowns.

“Who are the bridesmaids for the wedding?”

Gu Weiwei thought for a while. “Luo Qianqian and Ji Cheng.”

“Okay, Shiyi and Shiqin are the best men, you can ask your friends to try on the gowns and see if they fit...” Mrs. Fu said.

Gu Weiwei chuckled. “Aunt, you don’t have to go through so much trouble.”

Mrs. Fu explained to her, “Weiwei, please don’t think that I find it troublesome. When I was pregnant with Shiyi and Shiqin, I had thought that I would have a daughter who I could marry off in glory. But in the end, I gave birth to those two brats.”

“It is not a blessing to send a daughter off in such a grand way, but we must let the daughter-in-law of the Fu Family be married in, in such a grand way.”

“I am just worried that you will be exhausted,” Gu Weiwei said with a smile.

“No worries, we have nothing to do at the old mansion anyway, so we can be happy with such a joyful occasion,” Mrs. Fu said with a smile.

Due to her old age, the Old Lady spent most of her time at home, if she wasn't at the retreat in the south.

Fu Shengying had an operation a few years ago, so he retired and stopped managing the company, so he could live a retired life at home.

They did not have much to do, so it was quite interesting that they were now busy preparing for a wedding.

Chapter 815: Single Men

Fu Hanzheng went to the company and Mrs. Fu spent the entire day with her in the hospital, discussing every detail of the wedding.

Since she was going to become a director that worked behind the scenes, Jolin had two newbies with him.

“How are the newbies doing?”

“Stop asking, they are not good enough yet. They have constantly been asking me when you are going to make the next movie,” Jolin said furiously.

The movie Sleepless had made her the first Movie Queen in Chinese history that was worth tens of billions. Song Yu, the male lead, had already been nominated for Best Actor at several film festivals, and Qiu Ling, the second female lead, was also very popular. She now had a lot of resources.

Now, the investors who were trying to invest in their company's new movie were coming one after another.

When these two newbies were given to him, they wanted to be able to get close to him, so that they could star in her next movie.

“It is a good thing that they are ambitious. Anyways, I don't have any work to do these days, so take good care of them.”

With a ball of red yarn in her hands, Gu Weiwei was knitting something to pass the time.

“If only one of them would not cause me so much trouble.” Jolin sighed. He had been so lucky when she was the only star he was handling.

She was good-looking and capable, and she rarely caused him trouble. He would not meet another artist like her.

“What’s happened to you?” Gu Weiwei asked with a smile.

Jolin threw a look at the woman, who was braiding with the red yarn on the bed. “Look at you, you are so good-looking and you are so good at acting. Isn’t it a waste of God’s gift for you to work behind the scenes?”

“I do want to continue with acting, but do you think your boss agrees?” Gu Weiwei asked.

Fu Hanzheng was already very busy with work, and if she kept doing promotional work, they would not be able to meet for one or two months at a time.

Being the director was what she wanted to do and she could spend more time with Fu Hanzheng.

“Forget it, forget it,” Jolin said when he thought of the matter. “Oh yes, Luo Qianqian contacted me today. She seems to have something to tell you, but she can’t reach you.”

“My phone was left in the car because of the car accident, I will contact her when I get home,” Gu Weiwei thought for a while and said.

Luo Qianqian and her father were involved in the music and theme song of Sleepless, so they are quite famous now. Recently, she has been composing albums and songs for some artists from Shiyi Culture.

She wanted to talk about the wedding next month with Luo Qianqian and Ji Cheng, so that they could be the bridesmaids.

“Alright, I need to attend an audition with those two little ancestors, I am leaving now.”

Seeing the time, Jolin said goodbye to her.

After Gu Weiwei saw off Jolin, she spent hours braiding and knotting the yarn while waiting for Fu Hanzheng to pick her up after work.

Fu Hanzheng finished his work early and went straight to the hospital. He asked He Chi to do an MRI scan for her and did not leave the hospital until he was sure that everything was fine.

The moment she got into the car, she said to Fu Hanzheng, “Give me your left hand.”

Without saying anything more, Fu Hanzheng gave her his hand.

Gu Weiwei removed his watch and tied the braid to his wrist.

“For you.”

Fu Hanzheng looked at the red string on his wrist and then at the one on hers.

“What is it?”

Fu Shiqin could not help but laugh when he saw the red string on his brother’s wrist.

“Sister-in-law, do you want my brother to wear this when he goes out?”

Gu Weiwei put on the watch again and said, after covering the red string, "This is the Three-Lives Rope that has become very popular online these days. It is made up of three different kinds of yarn and it means that you are fated to be together with your love for three lifetimes."

"If you wear a rope, you will be destined to be together for three lifetimes... Do you want to go to the Yuelao Temple to have some fun?" Fu Shiqin asked with amusement.

Gu Weiwei glared at the man who was raining on her parade. "You are a single man, shut up if you don't know how to be romantic."

Chapter 816: Cayman's Suspicion

Yuan Bao's kidnapping passed by without further incident, but Will Dorrans was a totally different story.

"Failed?" When Will heard that the mission failed, he asked in disbelief, "You failed to bring back a three-year-old?"

"I had succeeded, but Fu Hanzheng got his men to take control of the airport and rescued the child," His men honestly reported the situation.

"Fu Hanzheng, Fu Hanzheng again."

Hearing the name, Will Dorrans looked sinister.

"The plan went well. Yuan Shuo was lured to the port and the other two were about to board the plane with the child, when Fu Hanzheng's men came and took the child away."

Normally, no one would have expected that the child was not Yuan Shuo's.

Yuan Shuo himself did not notice it, but Fu Hanzheng did.

"Alright, we have failed. It is useless to say anything more."

Will Dorrans looked cold and did not want to hear any more useless explanations.

He had reminded them repeatedly to be careful so that Fu Hanzheng would not find out, but these idiots were not only discovered by him but also rescued by him.

"Boss, there is something more troublesome," The subordinate looked at Will Dorrans and said.

"What is it?" Will Dorrans lit a cigar and asked unhappily.

"The men we arranged to catch Yuan Bao in Hua Land were caught by Fu Hanzheng and he... sent them to Cayman and Matthew." Having said the words, the subordinate lowered his head and did not dare to utter another word.

Will Dorrans gritted his teeth. This bunch of incompetent people.

He had asked his men to catch Yuan Shuo's son so that he could walk right into the trap.

But they were sent to Cayman instead.

"Why are you only telling me about such an important matter now?"

“They were just caught and we were trying to save them, but they were sent to Cayman today,” The subordinate said with his head still lowered.

Will Dorrans took a puff of the cigar impatiently. “Who sent them there? Yuan Shuo?”

“No, it is Fu Hanzheng’s men,” The subordinate said.

“Alright, get out.” Will Dorrans felt a bit uneasy.

Cayman Dorrans must have started to suspect him.

He was just thinking when a subordinate came in and said, “Boss, Watson wants to see you.”

Will Dorrans knew that Cayman would contact him when he found out, but he did not expect him to arrive so soon.

“Call him in.”

Watson was Cayman Dorrans’s trusted aide, so he must have come to deliver the message for Cayman.

Watson entered the office and said straightforwardly, “Will, Cayman wants to see you.”

“I have an important meeting to attend, after that I...” Will Dorrans wanted to buy some time to figure out what Cayman was up to.

“Cayman wants to see you now,” Watson reminded him with a low voice.

Even if those people were delivered to him, he only suspected him and had no evidence.

The day he laid hands on Gu Weiwei, he knew that one day, he would become his enemy.

And he had been prepared to be his enemy all these years.

Cayman was already old and the Dorrans Family was not a place where he could control everything.

Watson took him to Cayman Dorrans’s place and brought him to the study.

There were a bunch of Chinese people standing in the study, all of whom were sent by Will Dorrans to catch Yuan Bao.

Chapter 817: Cayman’s Suspicion 2

Will Dorrans walked into the study, glanced at the group of people Fu Hanzheng had delivered and calmly greeted Cayman Dorrans.

“Uncle, what is it?”

Cayman Dorrans sized up the man who came in and pointed at the dozen people standing next to him.

“Are these your men?”

“Probably.” Will Dorrans admitted frankly.

Since he was already here, there was no point denying it.

“The Fu Family sent them here and said that you asked them to kidnap Yuan Shuo’s son.” Cayman Dorrans’ tone was so calm that no emotion could be seen.

Will Dorrans nodded in agreement.

“Yes, I did.”

Cayman Dorrans asked, “Why?”

Will Dorrans said, “Yuan Shuo betrayed the Dorrans Family, shouldn’t he come back to apologize?”

Cayman Dorrans chuckled. “That seems to be none of your business. If I want to bring him back, do I need your help?”

He had never asked Yuan Shuo anything.

But this time, he suddenly sent someone to Hua Land to catch Yuan Shuo’s son, just to threaten him.

The real purpose of this was worth thinking about.

“I wanted to bring him back because Uncle is worried about him.” Will Dorrans found an excuse for himself.

Cayman Dorrans had given the order to bring Yuan Shuo back, and it was a bit far-fetched for him to send someone to catch him, but it was still a reasonable excuse.

They were just talking when Matthew received a call and whispered something to Cayman Dorrans.

Cayman Dorrans looked at Will Dorrans as if nothing had happened. “Not long ago, Yuan Shuo went to Barcelona and took away a woman from the hands of the Swedish Prince Anthony Gustav. You were in Madrid, which was very close to them, and soon after that... you arranged for someone to go to Hua Land. Can I ask who this woman is?”

“A woman?” Will Dorrans asked in astonishment. “What woman?”

“A woman named He Linna,” Cayman Dorrans said.

Will Dorrans thought for a while and smiled.

“I remember that the woman I found in Madrid is not called He Linna.”

Yuan Shuo did not ask Fu Hanzheng to bring He Linna here, could that woman be dead?

If she really died, it would save him a lot of trouble.

But whether she was dead or alive, he had to play dumb in front of Cayman.

“So you don’t know her.” Cayman Dorrans sighed with a faint smile.

Will Dorrans spread out his hands and said helplessly, “I have been with many women and I don’t remember all of their names.”

“Forget it if you don’t know her,” Cayman Dorrans did not ask further and said to Watson, “Go to Hua Land and meet Yuan Shuo. Tell him... that I want to meet him and He Linna.”

“Yes,” Watson replied and left the study.

Will Dorrans smiled casually, looking indifferent about Cayman Dorrans sending his men to find Yuan Shuo.

After a long while, he asked, “Uncle, if there is nothing else, I have an important meeting to attend.”

“Okay, go and take your men away too.” Cayman Dorrans pointed at the group of people Fu Hanzheng had delivered to him.

Chapter 818: Old Fox Cayman

Will Dorrans smiled at Cayman Dorrans and left with his men.

He did not ask until they were out of the mansion and in the car.

“What did Cayman ask you?”

“Nothing,” The leader said.

Will Dorrans got into the car and left Cayman Dorrans’ place.

Standing by the window of the study, Cayman Dorrans and Matthew looked at the group of people leaving, with dark expressions.

“Cayman, you suspect that he has other motives?” Matthew said.

Cayman Dorrans sat down on the sofa with his cane. “Of course not!”

It was something that Will would never care about, but now he was showing such extreme concern.

Then it could only be that Yuan Shuo had discovered something, something that Will did not want anyone to know.

That was why he sent his men to catch his son and threaten Yuan Shuo.

But what he had not expected was that Fu Hanzheng would save him and send his men to him.

“Could Fu Hanzheng have sent them here on purpose, so that we would suspect Will?” Matthew thought for a while and questioned.

Cayman Dorrans smiled meaningfully and said, “Fu Hanzheng sent them to me on purpose, but Will must have his own reason for sending his men to catch Yuan Shuo’s son. After all, Fu Hanzheng did not force him to do it.”

Matthew frowned and mumbled, “Will has never cared about Yuan Shuo all these years, and it is indeed very important that he is doing this now.”

“Keep Will here, he might do something,” Cayman Dorrans said.

Matthew turned pale. “Are you saying that Will is betraying you?”

“He has never been truly loyal to me, so it can’t be counted as betraying me.” Cayman Dorrans took a sip of tea, his thoughts unpredictable.

Matthew said, “But he has been very obedient to you all these years.”

“Being obedient does not mean being loyal. His father died in my hands,” Cayman Dorrans said.

Matthew looked at his unfathomable friend and asked, after a moment of silence, “So you suspect that Will is looking for Yuan Shuo because of the woman Yuan Shuo found in Barcelona?”

“Most likely,” Cayman Dorrans said.

Matthew said, “Cayman, you did not mean to bring Yuan Shuo back, did you?”

If he really wanted to bring him back, he would have done the same to his son and forced him to come back.

But he had only sent a portion of his men after him, and if they failed, he would have no other plan.

“What is the point of capturing him? He might bring different news.”

Startled, Matthew followed him and teased him.

“You are such an old fox.”

Cayman Dorrans sighed. “Unfortunately, no matter how careful and cautious I was, I never expected that Weiwei would leave before me.”

The woman he loved most died because of him and his only daughter was gone too. He did not even know why he was still at the Dorrans Family.

“Isn’t the six-month deadline Gu Siting mentioned coming soon?” Matthew reminded him.

“Yes.” Cayman Dorrans came downstairs one step at a time and said to Matthew, “So you have to keep an eye out for Will these days. I have to go to A Land in a few days. No matter what, it is time to bring Weiwei home.”

It was almost time to find out if that half a year mark was a real holy day.

If it was true, it would be great if he could see her again.

But if Gu Siting was trying to buy time... he would take her away from the Gu Family regardless.

Chapter 819: Longsheng Shareholders’ Meeting

In the capital city of Hua Land.

Since she was going to attend the shareholder meeting of Longsheng Enterprise the following day, Gu Weiwei decided to go home and learn about Longsheng Enterprise as well as some information about the other shareholders.

But despite gathering all the business reports, she had still not finished reading them.

“It is late, let’s take a rest.” Fu Hanzheng urged her to take a rest when he saw her yawning.

“I am not done yet, what about the meeting tomorrow?” Gu Weiwei said as she brought over a pile of files.

Listening to her question, Fu Hanzheng took out a contract for the acquisition of Longsheng Enterprise, as well as a set of remote monitoring equipment and placed them on the table.

“Take these with you tomorrow, Xu Qian will go with you, everything will go smoothly.”

Gu Weiwei put away the contract and equipment and chuckled.

“It feels so good to have a golden thigh[1] to cling to”

“Come to the company with Xu Qian after the meeting tomorrow.” Fu Hanzheng stressed to her.

“I am afraid I can’t. I have arranged a meeting with Luo Qianqian and she seems to have something to discuss with me. I am going to ask her and Ji Cheng to be my bridesmaid next month,” Gu Weiwei said.

After the movie was completed, she devoted herself to the promotion of the movie and never met with Luo Qianqian again. She only knew from Jolin that she was writing songs for several singers from Shiyi Culture.

“Alright, you can go home after you are done,” Fu Hanzheng said.

The following morning, Fu Hanzheng went to work at the Fu’s Enterprise and she went out to attend the shareholders’ meeting at Longsheng Enterprise.

Yang was waiting for her at the company.

“Miss. Mu, Manager Zhou and Director Zheng colluded with several directors for this meeting.”

Gu Weiwei thought of the files she had read last night and realized who they were.

Manager Zhou was Zhou Meiqin’s brother and Zhou Hong and Zhou Linna’s father.

As for Director Zheng, he was Li Jiacheng’s brother-in-law.

Zhou Meiqin and Li Jiacheng were in a cell, but their family was still in Longsheng.

“How long until the meeting starts?”

Yang checked the time and said, “It has already started.”

In the meeting room, Zheng Ming was speaking passionately to the company.

“Longsheng Enterprise was left behind by Mr. Mu Longsheng, but now, Longsheng Enterprise is no longer the Mu Family’s company. It concerns everyone in the company. How can we leave the future of the company to a 20-year-old girl?”

“Also, she has never shown her face and only sent an agent to give orders. How could such a person manage the company well...”

The door of the meeting room was opened from the outside and a young girl dressed in a professional suit walked into the meeting room and sat down in the center seat.

Zheng Ming was stunned when he saw the woman.

Gu Weiwei sat down and reminded him with a smile, "Director Zheng, what are you looking at me for? Continue with your speech."

Zheng Ming calmed himself down and said straightforwardly, "Since you are here, I will tell you what the shareholders think. Although you have Grandpa Mu's will, you are too young and unfamiliar with the company's business to be able to manage the company."

"So?" Gu Weiwei asked with a sweet smile. "You want me to leave?"

"What everyone means is that you can continue to hold the company's shares, but don't interfere with the management of the company," Zheng Ming said.

Even though Li Jiacheng and Zhou Meiqin were sent to jail, she would not be able to take over the company so easily.

[1] Someone powerful looking after her

Chapter 820: Longsheng Shareholders' Meeting 2

Gu Weiwei listened with interest and said with a smile, instead of being angry, "To put it nicely, you want me to leave and be satisfied with the money, but to put it bluntly, you want me to leave."

Zheng Ming looked at her and confidently said, "You are too young and you are working in the entertainment industry. You have no time or experience to manage the company."

Seeing Zheng Ming speak, Zhou Hong followed suit.

"It is irresponsible for the company and the shareholders to have an outside agent manage the company. Therefore, we are holding a shareholders' meeting today to change the board of directors and re-establish the management of the company, as well as the future direction the company will grow in."

Gu Weiwei was still calm and asked them, "So, do you have a plan for the future development of the company?"

"Of course," Zhou Hong said.

Gu Weiwei texted Xu Qian the location and asked, "Then tell me the plan, if it can bring the company considerable benefits, I am willing to leave."

Zheng Ming and Zhou Hong exchanged a look. Zheng Ming then asked someone to turn on the projector and play the PowerPoint presentation.

"We have reached an agreement with the Wei Family of Far East Enterprise and we will be involved in their foreign trading, which will bring great benefits to Longsheng Enterprise."

Zhou Hong had finally reached an agreement with Wei Ziting through his niece Li Xing'er.

Since Li Jiacheng and Zhou Meiqin were in jail and the company was in a mess, the shareholders would definitely side with them if they decided to collaborate with Far East Enterprise.

As for Mu Weiwei, she should have been kicked out long ago.

The shareholders started to discuss among themselves.

The Far East Enterprise had progressed well these past few years. If they could work with them, they could definitely turn the company's current losses around.

Zheng Ming and Zhou Hong had been working exceedingly well in the company these past few years. If they were able to collaborate with Far East Enterprise, they might be able to save the company.

After all, Mu Weiwei was just a silly girl who would never lead the company out of trouble.

"Manager Zhou and Director Zheng have made a great proposal, and it is a great opportunity to work with Far East Enterprise."

"It is true that the company should not be left to a young girl."

"This is such a big company, we can't leave it to a little girl."

"This is the biggest project Far East Enterprise have invested in this year, it is a rare opportunity for us to work together."

After the discussion, someone suggested, "Since there is nothing else, let the selection of the board of directors begin."

Gu Weiwei finished reading over the blueprint for the company and curiously asked, "As far as I know, the company has been incurring losses these past few years. May I know how much capital is needed for the collaboration with Far East Enterprise and where the funds are coming from?"

Zhou Hong instantly said, "You don't have to worry about that, President Mu. We will deal with it ourselves."

Gu Weiwei sighed and worriedly said, "If it were anyone else, I might have left without worrying about it, but you and Director Zheng are just too much."

"What do you mean?" Zheng Ming looked defensive.

Sitting there lazily, Gu Weiwei nonchalantly said, "Li Jiacheng and Zhou Meiqin murdered my mother and took over the company. As their relatives, I don't need to say anything more about how you two got into Longsheng."

The two men entered the company because Zhou Meiqin and Li Jiacheng were trying to kick her out of the company.

Was she a pushover just because she was young?
