

MY HIDDEN 91

Chapter 91: Love? Respect?

Gu Weiwei's hand, which was holding the cup, trembled. As she heard Fu Hanzheng approaching her, she sat completely still, petrified.

Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian put down the snacks they were eating, stood up and said to Fu Hanzheng respectfully, "Uncle Fu, we are checking on Weiwei, sorry to disturb you."

Fu Hanzheng's face sank even more. He turned to the girl who was sitting with an unsure expression on her face and sneered.

"Since when did you love and respect me?"

Gu Weiwei let out a dry laugh. "I respect and love you inwardly, Uncle Fu."

He was ten years older than her and it was pretty normal to address him as Uncle Fu.

Fu Shiqin tried to hold back his laughter... it was not an easy thing to do.

The moment Fu Hanzheng entered the room, Luo Qianqian and Ji Cheng turned introverted. They did not dare to speak or eat anything.

They exchanged a look and decided to leave.

"Weiwei, we need to prepare for the test, so we're going to leave now."

"Didn't you say that you will leave after dinner?" Gu Weiwei said.

Ji Cheng let out a bitter smile. President Fu was too intimidating for them, making them unable to even utter a sound, losing all bravery to stay for dinner.

"No thanks, we better go back and practice the piano."

Luo Qianqian put the stack of paper on the table and said, "This is the mock exam, the teacher said that we need to go through all the mistakes. You better hurry up and do it."

Having finished speaking they put on their bags and ran away as quickly as they could.

Gu Weiwei saw the two girls out and then came back into the living room only to see Fu Shiqin leafing through the papers. He looked at her in astonishment.

"Mu Weiwei, apart from English, you have failed in every single subject. What on earth are you studying at school?"

Fu Hanzheng was astonished too. He frowned slightly at the sight of the papers in Fu Shiqin's hands.

Gu Weiwei grabbed back the papers and snorted. "I have not been to school for half a year, it is already an achievement for me to reach such grades."

She scored the highest grade in English throughout the entire year group and failed in everything else.

“Look at your Chinese Subject, you scored 53!” Fu Shiqin said.

Gu Weiwei stared at the red crosses on the paper and sighed.

There were so many classical poems in Chinese subject and it was never a subject studied in A Land, so of course she did not know anything about it.

Math of Hua Land was so damn difficult too.

At the noble school of A Land, she majored in arts and they did not need to go through so many tests either. The questions were not that difficult either.

She had gone into the mock examination with little preparation, and so the scores were of course horrible.

Seeing the distressed girl, Fu Hanzheng approached her and consoled her by patting her on the head, chuckling.

“Need a teacher?”

She had applied for the Film Academy, and she might not be able to enter the school with such grades.

Gu Weiwei thought for a while and nodded. “Get me a math’s teacher, I can handle everything else.”

Maths gave her a headache. As for the remaining subjects, she could pass them with her amazing memory and she could raise the scores herself.

Fu Shiqin asked amusedly. “Handle everything else? Really?”

There were just a few months left before the college entrance exams and she would definitely have to repeat the semester next year.

“Fu Shiqin, what do you mean? Are you saying that I am stupid?” Gu Weiwei glanced at him with displeasure.

Fu Hanzheng said, seeing her annoyance, “He is talking about himself.”

“Huh?” Fu Shiqin just could not believe what his own brother had said.

“Or not?” Fu Hanzheng lowered his tone.

Fu Shiqin could not say anything more under his brother’s pressure.

“Yes, I am talking about myself. I have always been a stupid person.”

Gu Weiwei. “...”

Chapter 92: Damn

Due to the mistakes on the papers, she spent the following days doing tests and exercises.

In the afternoon, Fu Hanzheng got off work early and called out to her when he saw her bending over the desk and writing.

“Weiwei, get changed, we need to visit the hospital.”

Gu Weiwei put down the paper she was working on and went to her room to get changed. She pulled open her wardrobe and found that all of her old outfits were gone, all of them were now the most fashionable outfits from the most famous brands instead.

She opened the door and asked Fu Hanzheng who was waiting for her in the living room. “Where are my clothes?”

So when Aunt Wang talked about tidying up her clothes for her, she was putting these things away.

“Everything in the wardrobe is yours.” Fu Hanzheng said.

“I mean my old ones.” Gu Weiwei asked with anger inside her heart.

Fu Hanzheng leafed over her homework indifferently. “If you don’t like them, I will get them replaced tomorrow.”

Gu Weiwei clenched her teeth and said patiently, “If I wear those clothes to school, people may think that I am being paid to be the concubine of someone!”

Fu Hanzheng thought for a while and said, “I will get some suitable ones delivered to you tomorrow.”

Gu Weiwei went through her wardrobe and found that all of them were dresses. She picked out a blue knitted dress which made her look sweet and pretty.

Seeing her coming out of the bedroom, Fu Hanzheng was amazed and praised her generously, “Very pretty.”

Knitted dresses were made for beautiful people, especially the color blue which didn’t suit everyone, but she looked perfect.

Gu Weiwei flushed and said, “Let’s leave now, the teacher is coming soon, right? I haven’t finished the math paper.”

As the two of them arrived at the hospital, He Chi was examining an old patient. He said to them as he saw them coming.

“I’ll be right there.”

Fu Hanzheng rolled up her sleeves, fearing that He Chi would use too much strength and rip off the bandage.

The old man looked at the two and saw one man and a girl, the former of whom was tall and strong and the latter was small and slender. He subconsciously thought that they were a father and a daughter.

“It is not a common thing that a father can be so devoted.”

He Chi, who was writing the prescription, scribbled on in amusement.

“Sir, he is her boyfriend, not her father.”

But Fu Hanzheng was so old compared to the girl, and add a few years more and he could easily be her father.

Seeing the patient off, He Chi went over to check the wound.

Fu Hanzheng had already removed the bandage and what he needed to do was change the medicine, it would only take a few minutes.

However, Fu Hanzheng looked unhappy. He also showed a very depressed face on the way in too.

Gu Weiwei was amused and asked, "Why are you so angry? Because you are mistaken as my father?"

Fu Hanzheng glanced at the girl who was amused and said with a low voice, "No."

Gu Weiwei found that he did not sound right, so she flattered. "But you are better looking than my real father."

Fu Hanzheng's face turned brighter and he said as he drove into the garage, "Shiqin must have brought your teacher. I have a video meeting, you can do the homework yourself."

Gu Weiwei nodded and followed him into the elevator. Fu Shiqin called out to her the moment she entered the apartment.

"Hurry up, your teacher is here, he is the top student at your school."

Before Fu Shiqin finished speaking, Gu Weiwei had already seen the teacher and she could not help but curse inwardly.

Why was it Qin Lv, her ex, who was her teacher?!

Chapter 93: Running Away

Seeing the two people coming in one after another, Qin Lv rested his gaze upon the pretty girl in the blue knitted dress, whose expression was not quite right.

"Is that you, Mu Weiwei?"

Seeing her name written on the test paper, he found the scribbles resembling hers.

But he still could not believe that this Mu Weiwei was the one that he used to be friends with.

Fu Shiqin glanced at them two curiously. "So you two know each other, that's great."

Damn it!

Gu Weiwei cursed inwardly – what was Qin Lv doing here!

Fu Hanzheng squinted when he saw how Qin Lv looked at her in a curious way.

Qin Lv stopped looking miserable and said, "We used to be... classmates."

He had heard from his family that there was a girl who moved into the Fu Family and constantly courted Fu Hanzheng.

But he had never expected that this girl would turn out to be Mu Weiwei.

Fu Hanzheng looked sideways at the calm-looking girl.

“Classmates?”

But Qin Lv did not look like he was greeting her as a classmate.

Gu Weiwei nodded. Strictly speaking, they were really classmates.

“Lv is the eldest grandson of the Qin Family, a good friend of the Fu Family. He has been a very outstanding student since he was young and he is good enough to tutor you,” Fu Shiqin said.

Gu Weiwei did not object but instead went into her bedroom, changed out of her dress and changed into her baggy pyjamas.

She circled all of the questions she found confusing on the maths paper.

“Explain these.”

Fu Shiqin patted Qin Lv’s shoulders and said with a begging tone, “Teach this girl well, it’s such a face-losing thing when she has a score like this.”

His brother was a very smart person and it would be a loss of face for the Fu Family if his girlfriend was bad at studying.

Seeing her calm expression, Fu Hanzheng went into the study for his work because he has an upcoming video meeting.

There were only two people left – herself and Qin Lv in the living room – after the other two had gone.

Gu Weiwei tossed the math test paper to Qin Lv and started to finish the Chinese paper instead.

Staring transfixed, Qin Lv watched the attentive girl who was leaning over the table, thinking that he had not seen her for half a year.

This pretty girl was quite different from how he had remembered her. She wasn’t smiling that brightly anymore, this time.

“Mu Weiwei, leave Fu Hanzheng.”

“What?” Gu Weiwei looked up – what was this boy doing?

“Fu Hanzheng is not a good man. You will get yourself killed if you are with him!” Qin Lv warned her.

He grew up in the Qin Family which had a close relationship with the Fu Family, and he knew what Fu Hanzheng was capable of and he had even seen some of the things that he had done.

Anyone who had gone against him tended to end up horribly.

She was only eighteen years old and she was not able to deal with Fu Hanzheng. If she irritated him, she might end up being like those previously, who were against him.

“There is no good man in this world.” Gu Weiwei said calmly.

She understood this, be it for herself or Mu Weiwei.

Seeing her being unmoved, Qin Lv said seriously, “Mu Weiwei, haven’t you always wanted to learn to play the piano in Italy? After the college entrance examination, I can take you there...”

Gu Weiwei looked at this sincere-looking young man curiously – was he trying to run away with her?

Chapter 94: My Girlfriend

Having said those words, this sincere-looking boy, looked at this girl in front of him with great hope and waited for her reply.

This boy’s proposal did not touch Gu Weiwei but made her somewhat impatient.

“Master Qin, I have no interest in you or Italy.”

Mu Weiwei had dreamt about studying in Italy, but she was not Mu Weiwei any more.

She was Gu Weiwei, and she was in her 20s, and she truly had no interest in teenagers.

“Mu Weiwei, didn’t you hear what I just said to you, Fu Hanzheng is not a good man, you don’t know him! Staying by his side will...”

“Qin Lv, if you are unwilling to be my tutor, please go.” Gu Weiwei interrupted him coldly.

She had thought that Fu Hanzheng was a tyrant, but when she was reborn as Mu Weiwei, she found that he wasn’t that scary at all.

He had been quite forgiving towards her and the annoying Mu Weiwei who used to pester him in the past.

“Mu Weiwei, are you trying to get yourself killed?”

Seeing her unmoved once again, Qin Lv took hold of her arm, touching her wound.

Gu Weiwei frowned out of pain. “Get off me!”

“I won’t, unless you promise me that you’ll leave him!” Qin Lv did not release her but tightened his grip.

Gu Weiwei felt that her newly-healed wound almost started to bleed again, so she tried to remove his hand yet Qin Lv tightened his grip again, annoying her completely.

“Qin Lv, get off me now!”

In the study, Fu Hanzheng heard the noise and frowned. Then he said to the man in the video.

“Just a moment, please.”

As Fu Hanzheng came into the living room, he saw Qin Lv gripping Gu Weiwei’s wounded arm, so he took hold of Qin Lv’s wrist and bellowed with a low voice.

“Get off her!”

Qin Lv felt that his wrist was at the verge of breaking and when he looked up and saw the lethal-looking man, his grip on Gu Weiwei shook and he let go of her immediately.

In the next second, he was flung away by a large force, and staggered into the wine shelf in the corner.

Gu Weiwei had her hand over the wounded arm and looked at the man who came to her rescue.

“Thanks.”

Unassured, Fu Hanzheng rolled up her sleeves and discreetly revealed the corner of the gauze where he saw the wound was leaking blood. He frowned.

“Put on your clothes, let’s go to the hospital.”

“Let’s... call Doctor He first.” Gu Weiwei said.

She did not think that it was serious enough for her to visit the hospital – this man was making a big fuss out of nothing.

Fu Shiqin waited for Fu Hanzheng for a while in the study and saw that Fu Hanzheng had not re-entered the room again, he came out to urge him back into the meeting when he realized that something was wrong in the living room.

“What is... going on?”

“Tell them to hold the meeting for half an hour. I have something I have to deal with.” Fu Hanzheng said.

Fu Shiqin nodded helplessly and went back to the study to pause the meeting.

With one hand upon Gu Weiwei’s head, Fu Hanzheng brought her to the sofa, he made a call to He Chi and confirmed with him repeatedly about the necessity of visiting the hospital before ending the call.

Then he threw a cold look at Qin Lv next to them.

“You had better give me a proper explanation.”

Qin Lv took a deep breath and mustered up his courage, as he said to this intimidating man, “Uncle Fu, please let Weiwei go, she is my... girlfriend.”

Chapter 95: Pretty

Fu Shiqin heard the words the moment he came out of the study. He looked at Qin Lv transfixed and then at Gu Weiwei.

Mu Weiwei, are you cheating now after a few days at school, with Qin Lv, who has been their friend since they were little.

He had thought that his brother would get furious, but he looked calm and turned to Gu Weiwei.

“Is that true?”

“No.” Gu Weiwei looked equally calm.

Seeing her denying their relationship, Qin Lv continued. "She wrote me a love letter when she was in the third year of junior school. She came to Yingcheng High School because of me too."

Fu Shiqin suddenly thought of something when he heard the words. "So, the heart shaped homemade chocolate you received on your birthday and the love letter read out by Third Brother was written by her?"

Gu Weiwei held her hands against her forehead and explained, "Many people wrote love letters to him, and I was just one of them."

"Just one of them? You wrote for one year, one letter a week, so persistent." Fu Shiqin complained.

Gu Weiwei could feel that Fu Hanzheng was getting very annoyed next to her, so she glared at Fu Shiqin and said, "All teenagers have their dream boys, but he did not become my boyfriend even though I wrote him love letters for one year."

Fu Shiqin looked at his brother's sunken face and said to Gu Weiwei, "You must explain to us what has happened."

"What should I explain?" Gu Weiwei rolled her eyes and snorted. "There are so many men who want to sleep with me, I am pretty, alright?"

Fu Shiqin could tell that his brother's face sank even deeper and then said to Gu Weiwei angrily,

"You were transferred to his school and you claim that he wants to sleep with you!"

Gu Weiwei glanced into Fu Hanzheng's direction – neither of them was her boyfriend, why must she explain anything to either of them.

Seeing Fu Hanzheng standing in silence, Qin Lv mustered up some words and said to him, "Uncle Fu, if you want a woman, there are millions of women in Hua Land who want to be with you." He looked at Gu Weiwei. "Weiwei is too young for you."

Gu Weiwei glared at Qin Lv with annoyance – she was already 25 years old, okay?

"You dumb boy, I can't stand it any more! I wrote you love letters and got myself transferred to Yingcheng High School for you, but you never said yes to me."

"I confessed to you at junior school and three years later, you told me that you are my boyfriend. I have lost interest in you, boy!"

Qin Lv looked at her with a broken heart and asked between sobs, "So, you have changed your heart to someone else? To Uncle Fu?"

Changed her heart to someone else?!

Fu Hanzheng raised his eyebrows and looked at the girl next to him, looking slightly more pleased.

"No one has changed her heart." Gu Weiwei said furiously.

Qin Lv looked hopeful again. "If so, come with me."

"I have not changed my heart to anyone else, but I don't like you either!" Gu Weiwei said seriously.

Qin Lv approached her but stopped his footsteps under the lethal stare of Fu Hanzheng, not daring to move an inch.

“If you don’t like Uncle Fu, what are you still doing here?”

“Alright then, just assume that I like your Uncle Fu. Can you leave now?” Gu Weiwei truly did not want to explain anything anymore and spoke impatiently.

“Mu Weiwei....”

Fu Hanzheng checked the time on his watch and said coldly, “Shiqin, take him back home.”

Chapter 96: Couple in Love

Fu Shiqin patted Qin Lv’s shoulders and interrupted what he was about to say.

“Let’s go now. It is getting late.”

Qin Lv looked at the girl sitting next to Fu Hanzheng, unconvinced, and his two hanging hands clenched into fists.

If she had changed her heart to someone else, he might have been able to get her back. But this man turned out to be Fu Hanzheng, whom he has never been able to catch up to no matter what.

Fu Shiqin pulled the man out of the door and mumbled when they were outside the room.

“You truly frightened me! I had thought that something was truly going on between you two.”

“Weiwei likes me!” Qin Lv affirmed seriously.

She had been interested in him for all this time, but for some reason, she suddenly did not like him any more.

After she had the car accident and left the hospital, he had been looking for her all the time, but he had failed to find her after searching the entire capital!

He had never expected that she had moved into the Fu Family home and lived with Fu Hanzheng.

“Alright, alright, no matter whether it was she who liked you or you who liked her, you have no hope with her any more.” Fu Shiqin patted the young man’s shoulder and consoled him.

“Study hard, and you will get a better girlfriend at university.”

This boy had called him and asked him to find a person for him, sometime in the past, but he had been busy working with the Wilson Group, so he had promised to help him after Fu’s Enterprise and the Wilson Group signed the deal.

He had not expected that it was Mu Weiwei he was looking for.

No matter what had happened between him and Mu Weiwei, he knew that his brother would never give up on the goal he had set his eyes upon.

“I only want Mu Weiwei!” Qin Lv said determinedly.

Fu Shiqin knocked on his head and said, “You are so stubborn! You promised that you would not have a relationship at such a young age. Do you want me to tell your father and grandpa?”

Qin Lv went into the car in silence and said to the driver, “Drive.”

The young man looked at the lit apartment and looked resolute.

When Fu Shiqin returned to the apartment, Gu Weiwei was working on the homework alone whilst Fu Hanzheng was already back in the online meeting in the study.

Fu Shiqin had just finished the plan and was about to go to sleep in his room when Fu Hanzheng pointed out the stack of files on the table.

“Read them, and report the key points to me after you finish them.”

“Isn’t that what you were supposed to read?” Fu Shiqin protested with a bitter expression.

Fu Hanzheng ignored his protest, stood up and went into the living room and called out to the girl who was bending over the maths paper as if she were staring at her greatest enemy.

“Bring me the homework.”

Gu Weiwei was surprisingly glad to see him and brought the paper and homework into the study obediently.

Seeing Gu Weiwei entering the room, Fu Shiqin felt so bitter in his heart – so his brother gave him his work, because he wanted to spare time to be her tutor?

Fu Hanzheng took over the paper and looked at the questions she had circled, explained the points to her and the formulas needed.

Then he asked, “Can you figure them out by yourself?”

Gu Weiwei nodded and started to work over the desk whilst Fu Hanzheng continued to go through the file.

After she had finished her homework, Fu Hanzheng put down the file and circled out the mistakes whilst explaining patiently.

“This is a mistake, let me show you how to do it correctly.”

Gu Weiwei nodded and wrote it down again. “Is this right?”

Fu Hanzheng chuckled with a praising tone and continued to explain the next question for her.

Seeing his brother’s gentle look, Fu Shiqin tidied up the files feeling furious and was just about to leave the chokingly love-filled study when...

“Where are you going?” Fu Hanzheng squinted at him.

“I need to stay away from a couple in love.”

Having said those words, Fu Shiqin carried the files into the living room and continued doing the extra work.

Chapter 97: Flirty

At eleven o'clock, Gu Weiwei finally finished her homework.

Fu Hanzheng checked the homework for her and saw the time.

"It is very late, go and sleep."

Gu Weiwei looked at the files on the table. "You... are still working?"

Fu Hanzheng nodded. "Yes, there are some urgent files I have to handle."

Gu Weiwei put away her things and left the study, she put down what she was carrying in her bedroom and then went to make two cups of black tea in the dining room.

She gave one cup to Fu Shiqin who was helplessly reading through the files in the living room and the other to Fu Hanzheng in the study.

"Thanks for helping me with my homework."

Fu Hanzheng picked up the maroon colored tea and took a sip, and he smiled as the warmth greeted his mouth.

"Thanks for the tea, you can go and sleep now."

Maybe it was because Fu Hanzheng found that it was a lot of fun helping the girl with her homework, so much so, that he left work to go home very early the following day.

But when Gu Weiwei, who should have been home ages ago, still had not shown up by dinner time, he made a call to her.

"Still at school?"

Gu Weiwei lowered her voice on the other side of the phone. "I have enrolled myself into a math class, I'm still here now and will be late home."

Fu Hanzheng stayed silent for a moment. "Alright, continue with your class."

But after he ended the call, his face sunk.

So did she think that he was not good enough for her?

What was she doing at extra math classes?

After the extra maths class, Gu Weiwei came back to Jinxiu Compound at around nine p.m.

"How was the class?" Fu Hanzheng asked indifferently.

Gu Weiwei let out a sigh. "The teacher was good, but she said that she had something to do at home so she ended the classes and refunded me the tuition fees."

Fu Hanzheng frowned. "Then what are you going to do?"

Gu Weiwei sighed. "I will look up other classes. There are quite a few around school."

Fu Shiqin who was also home said, "You can ask my brother to be your tutor, no need to go to any extra classes."

It would be useless for her to seek out any math classes – maybe the math classes around Yingcheng High School would all be shut down the following morning.

Because their existence had stopped the boss from being her tutor.

Two hours ago, he had seen the boss making calls to someone to shut down the class center.

So this man, who kept telling them to be scrupulous in separating public from private interests, was totally doing the exact opposite.

Gu Weiwei shook her head. "It is okay, I can't disturb your work."

"No, you aren't disturbing me." Fu Hanzheng said.

Fu Shiqin added inwardly, "Yeah, nothing can stop you from flirting with this girl."

Gu Weiwei took a look at Fu Hanzheng's amazingly-handsome face and turned him down resolutely.

"I can go to a maths class, it is much easier for me."

She was worried that she would not be able to control herself if she faced this handsome face every single day.

"Alright then, suit yourself." Fu Hanzheng leafed through the files in his hands calmly.

Sure enough, Mu Weiwei found no math classes around the school.

She stared at the man sitting opposite her when she came back home, feeling dubious.

"None of the math classes around school exist any more. Did you do that?"

The weird thing was that all of them were gone, and she was not stupid enough to not feel dubious.

There was only one person around her who was capable of doing this within a short period of a day.

It was him.

Fu Hanzheng chuckled and asked. "I am not that childish to do such a thing."

Fu Shiqin's lips twitched as he bellowed inwardly, "It was exactly this shameless man who did it!"

Chapter 98: Women out for Him

Gu Weiwei suspected that it was him who did it, but she had no evidence.

Fu Shiqin knew that it was him, but he did not dare to reveal the truth.

Without any math classes being open, Fu Hanzheng became her maths tutor.

Every day after school, she would either go over other subjects or learn maths from Fu Hanzheng. In this way, half a month passed extremely quickly.

Ji Cheng came to link her arm with hers in the afternoon after school.

“Goddess, I am going to have my piano test next week, please save me.”

“Alright then, let’s see how well you have practised.” Gu Weiwei nodded and went to meet Luo Qianqian.

The two of them played the five songs for the test one after another. Luo Qianqian was doing well, but Ji Cheng was not following the rhythm.

She showed her patiently one part after another and that made her slightly more proficient.

It was not until eight p.m when she and Ji Cheng left the Luo Family home.

“Goddess, honestly, don’t you have any feelings towards such a good-looking man like Fu Hanzheng?”

“What feelings?” Gu Weiwei pretended to be dumb towards this question.

“Like sleeping with him!” Ji Cheng said excitedly, “There are so many women who try to sleep with him in Hua Land. He is so good-looking and his body is so great. You... don’t you have any feelings towards him?”

Gu Weiwei looked calm. “No.”

“Are you a girl or not?” Ji Cheng looked annoyed.

“Didn’t you just ask me to be your sister-in-law? Now you are telling me to sleep with Fu Hanzheng, so fickle of you.”

“That is the girls of Hua Land’s dream! Mine too! If you reach it, my dream is realized too.” Ji Cheng let out a sigh.

“...” Gu Weiwei was speechless – what kind of dream was that?

Alright, her dream had been realized.

She might not have slept with Fu Hanzheng, but Mu Weiwei had.

“Then I can hook you two up, if you really want to be with him.”

Ji Cheng shook her head. “No, no, I am frightened in front of him. Let’s just make it stay a dream.”

She found it very hard to breathe the other day, when she ended up being in the same room as Boss Fu.

The two were just walking along when Ji Cheng felt her stomach started to ache. She said, “Weiwei, I need to visit the bathroom. You go home ahead of me.”

“Are you alright?” Gu Weiwei asked her worriedly, seeing her turning pale.

“No, it is okay, you can go home now. It is very late.” Ji Cheng said as she went into a cafe to use the bathroom.

Gu Weiwei had to leave alone first. Just when she was about to get on the bus, Ji Cheng called again and asked pitifully, “Goddess, I am on my period, can you buy me some pads and give them to me.”

Startled, Gu Weiwei said, “Okay.”

Then she returned to the convenience store, bought the pads and delivered them to the bathroom in the cafe.

Ji Cheng came out of the bathroom and saw her waiting, she patted her on the shoulders.

“Goddess, what are you looking at? I called your name twice.”

Gu Weiwei smiled. “Nothing, let’s go.”

As they reached the bus station, Ji Cheng left first whilst she herself was left still standing at the bus stop, as she had missed the bus that could take her home.

But if not for Ji Cheng’s reminder, she would not have remembered that she was late for her period for over a month.

And the night when she was reborn into Mu Weiwei, Fu Hanzheng had forcefully slept with her.

And as she thought even further, she suddenly remembered that he was not wearing a condom that night.

Chapter 99: Pregnancy Test

Gu Weiwei stood at the bus stop for a long time before finally calming herself down and leaving the bus stop. She went to find a pharmacy store and bought a pregnancy test.

The moment she came out of the pharmacy, her phone inside her bag rang.

She answered it and the low voice of a man arose on the other side.

“Where are you?”

“On my way home.”

Fu Hanzheng heard the trembling in her voice and he stayed silent for a moment.

“Where are you, I will come and pick you up.”

“No thanks, the car I just ordered is arriving.” Gu Weiwei’s voice trembled even harder as she started to feel a bit unassured.

Fu Hanzheng repeated with a low voice, “Where are you?”

Gu Weiwei felt a bit speechless. Even if she did not say a thing, the hidden bodyguard would report the location to him in the following minute anyway.

So, she told him where she was after all.

A quarter of an hour later, a black Bentley pulled over on the road. She pulled the door open and took a seat inside.

Fu Hanzheng was on the phone and ended the call after a few minutes. Then he sized her up and noticed that she looked a bit distressed.

“Are you upset?”

“No, just a headache from the wind.” Gu Weiwei was nervous and gripped the bag inside her hand even harder.

After saying that, she felt a warm hand over her forehead. It went away when he was sure that she didn't have a fever.

Then he stretched out his hands and held her head over his shoulder.

“There's still some way to go before we are home. You can take a nap.”

Gu Weiwei sat up straight and held onto the bag, which held the test, inside her arms, praying that the result would not be what she expected it to be.

Mu Weiwei was causing her so much trouble and left so many problems for her to clean up after her! If she gave her a child, then she would have a lot of problems!

As the two came back to Jinxiu Compound, Xu Qian pulled the car over, opened the door and helped her out.

Fu Hanzheng got out of the car and saw the girl hurrying away, and frowned.

Gu Weiwei went upstairs first and intended to hide the bag after she came home... but she bumped into Fu Shiqin who was holding a cup of hot cocoa, which splashed all over her.

“Good thing that I had let it cool down, otherwise you would be burnt right now.”

Gu Weiwei patted away the stains on her clothes and saw the glistening donuts on the table.

“It's so weird of you to eat desserts. You are a man!”

“I asked for leave and queued for half an hour before getting them! I had wanted to share two of them with you but now I won't.” Fu Shiqin said as he picked up the donuts on the plate and walked away.

Gu Weiwei went to her bedroom, locked the door and let out an anxious sigh when she took out the pregnancy test.

She was thinking of how to do the test without being discovered, when there came a knock at the door.

“Weiwei, dinner is ready.”

Gu Weiwei put away the test into the bag, zipped it up and placed the bag into her wardrobe.

Then she got changed, opened the door and went out to have dinner.

They were eating dinner whilst Fu Shiqin was eating the donuts by himself and drinking the hot cocoa.

She frowned. Wasn't he worried about diabetes?

Fu Shiqin squinted at her. "If you want to eat them, help yourself. Your cookies were good last time, but do remember to add some more sugar when you bake them for me next time."

Fu Hanzheng squinted at him and Fu Shiqin became startled, and changed his words immediately.

"I mean, when you bake cookies for my brother next time, share some with me."

True, boss has to be the first one to eat the cookies before the subordinates got any.

Silent, Gu Weiwei finished her dinner and went back into her room, then she went into the bathroom with the pregnancy test.

Chapter 100: Pregnancy Test 2

In the dining room, Fu Hanzheng could not help but wonder about Gu Weiwei who was hurrying into the bathroom.

Then he made a call. "Did Qin Lv go to school today?"

The bodyguard who was supposed to keep watch of Gu Weiwei on the sly, answered, "Master Qin was not at school today."

Fu Hanzheng ended the call and frowned deeply.

She was really not being normal today... if it had not been because of her meeting with Qin Lv...

Fu Shiqin took a huge bite out of a donut and asked. "Did Qin Lv and Mu Weiwei meet at school on the sly?"

"No."

"Then why are you so upset?"

Fu Hanzheng said, "She looks a little... nervous and guilty."

"Guilty? Nervous?" Fu Shiqin wiped his hands as he finished the food. "Then maybe some other boys are courting her at school. She is quite attractive to boys..."

Fu Hanzheng looked at him, suggesting that he should continue.

Fu Shiqin wiped his mouth with a napkin and analyzed the possibilities for his brother.

"Just think about it, she is 18 years old, and she likes those young boys of the same age. You might be a little bit too old for young girls her age." He said and as he felt the lethal look of his brother, he shut up and said no more.

But it was true! He was not young and he was very mature... And he was not as sunny and bright as those young boys at school.

Although he had treated Mu Weiwei as his girlfriend, she did not regard him as her boyfriend.

It had been half a month since he started to work extra hours here in the living room, creating a couple space for them.

But he only spent time talking about math problems with her.

He did not have any capability in courting the girl, although he had the intention to.

“Xu Qian will be on business the day after tomorrow, and you can take his place.” Fu Hanzheng said as he got up and went back into the study.

“Brother, please, I am your brother, your own brother...” Fu Shiqin pleaded for forgiveness when the study door was shut ruthlessly in his face.

What was he doing every single day? His elder brother was mistreating him and his younger brother was causing him trouble. What a miserable life he was having.

Half an hour passed and Mu Weiwei was still in the bathroom.

Fu Shiqin needed to visit the bathroom, so he went and knocked on the door.

“Mu Weiwei, have you drowned in the bathtub or fallen into the toilet?”

“Hurry up, I need to take a shower and take a piss.”

....

In the bathroom, Gu Weiwei was sitting on the floor and praying towards the test, mumbling.

“Just one column, please, just one...”

“Mu Weiwei, we are friends by destiny, please don’t cause me too much trouble.”

“You can leave me however much trouble but not with Fu Hanzheng’s child.”

....

After a long time, she still did not dare to open her eyes to check the results.

“Mu Weiwei, any longer, and I will break the lock and enter!” Fu Shiqin urged outside the door.

Gu Weiwei took a deep breath and opened the eyes.

“Anyways, let me face it.”

She picked up the test and checked the result.

Then she wrapped the test and the packaging into her clothes and opened the door of the bathroom.

Seeing her dry hair and unchanged clothes, Fu Shiqin mumbled curiously.

“You are in here for a whole hour, what are you doing when you haven’t even showered or washed your hair?”

“Constipation, alright?”
