

Chapter 101: Breaking away from the usual practice for her

As soon as she spoke, the pressure in the air suddenly dropped.

The air became still and freezingly cold.

Nian Xiaomu felt a shiver go down her spine, quickly picked up a piece of braised meat, and put it onto his plate. "Here, a piece for you."

Seeing that, the assistant felt all the nerves in his body tighten in horror!

His boss was a hygiene freak and would never eat food from someone else's bowl, yet Nian Xiaomu actually had the gall to put her food on Yu Yuehan's plate.

The assistant was so nervous that he could feel his heart pounding in the back of his throat.

On the other hand, Nian Xiaomu did not put a stop to this behavior and even used her hands to cover her own braised meat when she saw that Yu Yuehan did not respond. "I'm only left with these few pieces."

"..."

Yu Yuehan stared at the braised meat on her plate, then at her. His lips curled into a sinister smile when he saw how anxious she looked.

"Don't you want your end-of-the-month bonus, Nurse Nian?"

Seeing that she had fallen into a daze, he picked up his chopsticks and calmly transferred the braised meat, piece by piece, from her plate into his own bowl.

After that, he leisurely sent them into his own mouth before he slowly chewed and swallowed.

Seeing her shocked face and her inability to vent her anger, he felt that the braised meat in his mouth tasted even more flavorful.

Not only did he finish the food on his plate, he also ate up the meat on her plate.

In the end, the one who had a vegetarian meal was Nian Xiaomu!

This turned out very differently from what she had thought at first...

"The chef of the employee's cafeteria did a good job. Give him a bonus for this month," Yu Yuehan said as he placed his chopsticks down and used a napkin to clean his lips deliberately.

"What about me?" When Nian Xiaomu heard the word "bonus," her eyes lit up.

She had led him to the employees' cafeteria and could be considered the one who had recommended the place to him. If the chef got a bonus, would she get her bonus back too?

Furthermore, she had even sacrificed her braised meat.

As if she were looking at a glowing tycoon, Nian Xiaomu looked at him eagerly.

“Not for you,” Yu Yuehan looked back at her and enunciated every word clearly as he put his napkin down.

Seeing how her face fell in that split second, his lips curled into a delighted smile.

“It’s time for the next meeting, Young Master,” the assistant reminded from the side.

A flash of light flickered in Yu Yuehan’s eyes, and he looked toward Nian Xiaomu. “You can accompany Xiao Liuliu and take a tour around the office. When she gets tired, send her back to my lounge.”

Seeing Nian Xiaomu nod her head obediently, he retracted his smile and resumed his frosty look as he got up from the dining table and turned to leave.

At the dining table, only Nian Xiaomu and Xiao Liuliu were left.

Children tended to eat their meals more slowly.

Nian Xiaomu did not hurry her, but kept her company as she ate slowly.

When Xiao Liuliu was done, Nian Xiaomu wanted to use a napkin to clean her mouth, but she realized that she had run out them.

She raised her head and was about to ask where she could buy napkins when a nearby staff member immediately delivered a packet of new napkins to her.

“How much is it?” Nian Xiaomu asked.

Who knew that before she could finish speaking, the other party was already waving her hand at her. “It’s only a packet of napkins. You don’t have to pay!”

“Thank you.” Although Nian Xiaomu felt rather perplexed, she thought that a packet of napkins was inexpensive after all, so she did not take it to heart.

After she cleaned Xiao Liuliu’s mouth, she carried her up and left the cafeteria.

She had absolutely no idea that the news of her eating together with Yu Yuehan at the employees’ cafeteria had already bombarded the company’s intranet...

[President appeared at the employee’s cafeteria to have lunch with a mysterious girl and even shared a set of braised meat!]

This mind-blowing headline was accompanied by a photograph of Yu Yuehan picking food from her plate!

Chapter 102: Madam President

“Oh my goodness, my heartthrob ate at the employees’ cafeteria today. Why didn’t I go? Grrr...”

“Shouldn’t the main point be who that woman was?”

“I can’t see, I can’t see! I turn a blind eye to all my rivals in love. Master Han is mine alone!”

“Wake up! Since when have you seen Master Han eat the employees’ cafeteria and even eat from someone else’s plate? According to my analysis, they must have had something going on for at least a year...”

“Why don’t you just say that that woman is Little Miss’ mother?”

“I was just about to say that...”

“Am I the only person who noticed that Little Miss is so clingy with that woman? Although their features do not look alike, their eyes and eyebrows do have some resemblance.”

“Although I don’t want to say it, I think we are about to have a Madam President...”

On the main page, there were all kinds of discussions popping up incessantly.

The discussion spread like wildfire.

Nian Xiaomu had no clue that her appearance had created such a huge impact and was walking around with a stuffed Xiao Liuliu.

When they arrived at the human resources department, there was an ongoing interview session, and the room was filled with people.

She could not resist stopping to take a look.

A second later, an employee walked toward her and offered, “Miss Nian, please come in here. I’ll get you a cup of tea.”

“There’s no need for that. I’ll be gone as soon as I take a look...” Before Nian Xiaomu could finish what she wanted to say, she had already been dragged into the human resources department and served a hot cup of tea.

The service was simply too good.

However, how did the human resources department employees know that her surname was Nian?

Nian Xiaomu was about to ask them when Xiao Liuliu climbed into her arms.

Her soft and cuddly body straightened up like an interviewer as she looked earnestly at the interviewees.

Her look was so adorable.

Nian Xiaomu was attracted by her actions and forgot what she had wanted to ask.

Carrying her, they watched the people who had come for the interview.

The most critical link of a corporation’s operations was the employees.

In this aspect, the work that the human resources department handled was very important.

As Nian Xiaomu listened to the interviewer's questions, her mind kept analyzing the people who had come for the interview.

She felt a sense of inexplicable familiarity toward a few scopes of employment.

She could even accurately guess the interviewer's questions.

As she watched the interview, there was a kind of déjà vu in her mind...

It made her head feel heavy, and after she sat in a trance for a short while, she left.

The same thing happened in the next few departments that she visited.

Wherever she appeared, the people there would be welcoming and courteous toward her.

No matter how slow-witted she was, it was plain to see that something was not right after these few departmental visits.

Was it because she had brought Xiao Liuliu along?

That's right. Xiao Liuliu was Yu Yuehan's daughter. It was only natural the staff at the Yu Corporation were very hospitable toward her.

She had only enjoyed Xiao Liuliu's privilege.

In the public relations department.

Wen Yadai sat in her office going through the discussion pages on her cell phone. Her eyes narrowed as she read through everyone's comments.

"Sister Yadai, who is that Nian Xiaomu? She could actually eat together with Master Han at the employees' cafeteria? She looks like a vixen!" Xie Jingjing, her trusted subordinate, spoke vehemently.

It was her who had passed the cell phone to Wen Yadai.

In her heart, although Yu Yuehan was someone who was unattainable for her, she wasn't going to just let any other woman get him.

Hearing her words, Wen Yadai nonchalantly put the cell phone down onto the table.

"Everyone was only making trivial jokes. Why do you take it so seriously?"

Chapter 103: What was she doing?

"It was shown clearly in the photograph. I was at the cafeteria at that time and saw with my own eyes that Master Han picked up the meat from her plate to eat!" Xie Jingjing grabbed her cell phone to download the photograph from the company intranet.

Then, she placed the phone in front of Wen Yadai.

The photograph was taken secretly from a distance away.

It did not capture Yu Yuehan's full face, only his side profile. However, from the action in the photograph, he was definitely taking food, and he was taking food from Nian Xiaomu's plate.

At the same time, Nian Xiaomu, who was sitting opposite him, was staring hard at him with her cheeks puffed up incredulously.

The photograph was rather blurry and could only show a limited degree of what was going on. However, it was enough to prove that what Xie Jingjing said was not a lie.

Indeed, Yu Yuehan had changed his usual habits for Nian Xiaomu.

Not only did he visit the employees' cafeteria, he also shared a dish with someone else.

"Even if Master Han has special feelings for this Nian Xiaomu, what can we do about it? We have no right to interfere with Master Han's personal life." Wen Yadaï subconsciously clenched her fists, but continued to wear a smile on her face.

Xie Jingjing, however, grew more irate at Wen Yadaï's words.

"If Master Han really should be with someone, I would rather it be you, Sister Yadaï. You are so competent and from a distinguished family. What does this Nian Xiaomu have? She must think that with her bit of good looks, she can go around seducing men. Master Han didn't even say anything, but she's already using Little Miss to broadcast and show off their relationship!"

Wen Yadaï looked away, her smile still gentle and composed.

She reached out to poke at Xie Jingjing's forehead and said, "Hey you, it's okay to talk nonsense in front of me, but do not go around repeating it. I have only respect for Master Han, and we don't even know what kind of person Nian Xiaomu is, but I think she has a refined disposition. Who knows, she might be from a more prominent family than mine."

"How's that possible! She looks more like a vixen! I don't believe that she could be a lady from an eminent family!" Xie Jingjing retorted, feeling miffed at being chided.

"Jingjing!" Wen Daiya furrowed her eyebrows.

"All right, all right. I won't say anymore. I'll go back to work." Xie Jingjing bit her lips defiantly and silently tightened her grip on her cell phone.

It seemed like she had to get to the bottom of this matter otherwise she would not be at peace.

As Wen Yadaï watched her leave, her lips curled in satisfaction.

The higher the pedestal, the harder the fall.

Nian Xiaomu was now so popular because no one knew her identity.

Once everyone found out that the person who was trying to leech off of Master Han was merely a lowly nurse, they would...

Wen Yadaï looked away to hide the sinister gleam in her eyes.

She picked up her own cell phone and logged into the company intranet.

Looking at the photograph for a second time and in the absence of other people, she could not control the jealousy in her eyes.

In the meeting room.

As Yu Yuehan listened to the reports from various departments, he restlessly tapped his slender fingers on the table.

He thought that he was already used to such long and boring meetings, but when he thought of Nian Xiaomu's lively and animated face, he could not help but break out into a smile.

He was curious to know what that easily distracted person was doing with Xiao Liulu right now.

Yu Yuehan's eyes revealed that he was deep in thought. Then he slightly turned to the assistant who was standing next to him.

The assistant immediately bowed respectfully and left the meeting room.

Just as he reached the entrance of the president's office, he saw a few secretaries standing close by, nudging one another forward.

"You go ask."

"Why don't you go first..."

Chapter 104: For everything to go well and smoothly

The assistant stepped forward and asked with a frown on his face, "What is the matter?"

When they saw that someone had appeared, and it even turned out to be Yu Yuehan's right-hand man, the secretaries felt that their savior had arrived. They rushed forward and asked, "Miss Nian brought Little Miss into the room with her. We were thinking if we should go in to ask if she would like anything to drink."

The secretarial department had always dutifully recorded the preferences of all the important guests.

However, this was Nian Xiaomu's first visit, so they did not know what to prepare for her.

Actually, if they had not been informed, the secretarial department could let it be and simply carry on with their usual work. However, now everyone knew that Master Han, who rarely set foot in the employees' cafeteria, had actually done so to accompany Nian Xiaomu for lunch.

The two of them had even shared a set of braised meat.

With this kind of relationship, how could they afford to be negligent?

That was why the few people on duty today were conflicted.

"Little Miss can only drink milk. As for Nian Xiaomu... Please wait, I will ask her for you." The assistant thought about it and pushed open the door of the president's office.

When he entered the room, he saw the two people on the sofa.

Xiao Liuliu had raised her arm and was waiting patiently for Nian Xiaomu to remove her bandage and to change her dressing.

Scabs were beginning to form on the wounds and were causing some itching. Nian Xiaomu was worried that she would use her hands to scratch them, so she kept chatting with her to distract her.

“Xiao Liuliu, how did you get your name?” At first Nian Xiaomu was only casually asking. However, when the question was blurted out, she felt a strange sense of curiosity and wanted to find out more.

An adorable name like Xiao Liuliu did not seem like Yu Yuehan’s style.

Could it have been Matriarch Yu?

Matriarch Yu had a cheeky streak in her, so it was quite likely to be her.

“Grandma! She said that it means for everything to go well and smoothly (liù liù dà shùn),” Xiao Liuliu said with her head tilted. When talking about her own name, there was a visible excitement on her face.

Liù liù dà shùn...

So did this mean that if Yu Yuehan were to have a son in future, his name would be Dashun?

Dashun...

This name flashed past her head, and Nian Xiaomu laughed out loud.

It was too auspicious!

She could almost picture in her mind the horrified look on Yu Yuehan’s face if he were to find out that his son was going to be named Dashun!

When she heard footsteps behind her, she turned to take a look.

Seeing that it was the assistant, she had a slight shock.

She looked past him cautiously, afraid that Yu Yuehan might have heard her laugh.

“Young Master is still at the meeting and was worried that Miss Nian would not be able to cope with looking after Little Miss, so he sent me here to take a look.” The assistant offered a simple explanation, and she heaved a sigh of relief.

Seeing that, the assistant candidly asked her what she would like to drink.

After he walked out to inform the secretaries, he returned to the sofa.

By the time Xiao Liuliu’s dressing was done, she had leaned against Nian Xiaomu and fallen asleep.

Her soft and cuddly body curled into a ball and tucked herself into Nian Xiaomu’s embrace.

The sight was very heartwarming.

The assistant stepped up and whispered in a low voice, “It wasn’t Matriarch who gave Little Miss her name.”

“...” Startled, Nian Xiaomu looked up at him in surprise.

The assistant nodded his head earnestly.

“So it was Young Master...”

“It wasn’t him either.” The assistant appeared to contemplate about something. After hesitating for a few seconds, he said, “When Little Miss was sent to Young Master’s side, she already had a name. It’s a taboo in the Yu household to discuss this matter. You must not bring this up in front of Young Master.”

Everyone knew that two years ago, Yu Yuehan suddenly had a daughter.

However, not many people knew that when Xiao Liuliu appeared, there had been a DNA report as well.

At the end of the DNA report were the words: “Yu Liuliu”.

Chapter 105: Major movements from all the departments!

They had all assumed that Yu Yuehan would give Xiao Liuliu a change of name, but he did not do so.

Thus, she was known by that name all the way to the present.

Xiao Liuliu’s biological mother had not appeared after all these years. As a result, what happened during that time gradually became a secret.

Everyone in the Yu Family knew that anything related to that woman would enrage Yu Yuehan.

Out of kindness, the assistant was informing Nian Xiaomu of this.

“So Xiao Liuliu’s mother was the one who named her...” Nian Xiaomu was finally enlightened.

A feeling that could not be expressed swept past her heart.

Xiao Liuliu, six-six...

Was there any special meaning behind it?

Nian Xiaomu glanced down at the tiny and adorable face of the soft figure. Unable to bear it, she lowered her head and gave Xiao Liuliu a kiss.

She carried Xiao Liuliu into the lounge and placed her on the bed after she was sound asleep.

“Little Miss visits the company very frequently and is very familiar with this place. Don’t be too worried.” The assistant became increasingly polite toward Nian Xiaomu because he had noticed that she genuinely adored Xiao Liuliu.

When she heard this, Nian Xiaomu’s eyes sparkled, and she raised her head. “Can you help me look after her for a while? I want to take a look at the other departments of the company.”

The Yu Corporation gave her a strong feeling of familiarity.

However, she had not been here before. She deeply wanted to know where this feeling originated from.

“Sure.” The assistant nodded his head lightly.

The only condition was that she had to leave behind her contact details and report her whereabouts to him.

It was such a simple request—Nian Xiaomu agreed without hesitation!

She wrote her cell phone number down at top speed and headed out.

Just as she reached the door, she bumped into the secretary who was walking toward her with a tray of drinks.

“Miss Nian, this is the fruit juice that you had requested. I was about to send them over to you,” the secretary greeted her politely when she saw her.

Nian Xiaomu blinked her bright eyes. She lifted the fruit juice up and gulped down the contents in one shot. Then, she placed the empty cup back onto the tray, smiled, and said, “Thank you. Can you also tell me how to get to the planning department?”

“Go downstairs, then turn left once you exit the elevator.” Shocked, the secretary stared at the empty cup and answered Nian Xiaomu with wide eyes.

When she lifted her head, Nian Xiaomu had already disappeared from view.

She came back to her senses, ran back frantically with the empty cup on the tray, and informed her colleagues about her encounter using the company’s phone extension.

“Yes, yes, yes. She has entered the elevator and is on her way down now. It looks like she is conducting an inspection on behalf of Young Master Han. All of you better be prepared!”

Yet another message appeared on the company’s intranet with an attachment of Nian Xiaomu’s disappearing silhouette.

[A mysterious lady appears to be conducting an inspection of the various departments on behalf of the president!]

All the departments seemed to be undergoing some kind of turmoil for some period of time.

The planning department, which had just received the notification via phone call, was the most anxious department of all.

The moment he heard that Nian Xiaomu was about to visit their department, the manager of the planning department gathered all of the employees immediately and stood by the entrance to await her arrival.

While in the descending elevator, Nian Xiaomu was still worried that she would be stopped outside the door. However, she saw a dark mob of people just when she reached the entrance of the planning department.

“Miss Nian!”

The resounding greeting shocked Nian Xiaomu, and she stumbled a few steps backward.

She plastered her entire body flat onto the noticeboard—she suspected that she had experienced a hallucination.

What kind of situation was this?

At the same time, there were also major movements from the public relations department on the same floor of the building.

With a phone in hand, Xie Jingjing rushed into Wen Yadai's office once again and asked, "Sister Yadai, why are you still sitting here? That Nian Xiaomu tried to assume unwarranted authority on the basis of some pretext and is actually inspecting the various departments under the name of Young Master Han. The public relations department could be the next one up!"

Chapter 106: Attack using the strength of another

"What are you talking about?" Wen Yadai was stumped for words. She placed the documents down and looked at her in astonishment.

"Nian Xiaomu is touring the planning department now. According to the company's intranet, she is very likely to be conducting an inspection on behalf of Young Master Han. Furthermore, we are so close to the planning department..."

"Pass me my cell phone," Wen Yadai interrupted her and took the cell phone from her. She scanned the message on the screen and knitted her eyebrows.

"Sister Yadai, what should we do now? I heard that the manager of the planning department actually gathered the whole department just to welcome her! Shouldn't we prepare something as well?" Xie Jingjing was still clear-headed even though she was unwilling to submit—she was the head of the public relations department after all.

All the departments had taken this situation seriously and done some preparation; they would obviously be courting death if they were the only department that neglected her.

Xie Jingjing had thought this through. She would put her personal grudges aside, inform those from her department, and deal with Nian Xiaomu first.

However, before she had the chance to voice out her thoughts, Wen Yadai had already placed her phone down and said calmly, "You don't have to do any preparation."

"What?" Xie Jingjing was stunned.

She had thought that Wen Yadai would be the one who became anxious since Nian Xiaomu was already at the department next door.

She had never expected her to say that they did not have to do any preparation...

"This is not the first or second day since you started working at the Yu Corporation—when have you ever seen someone conducting an inspection on behalf of Young Master Han?" Wen Yadai lifted the cup of water and drank a sip of it to cover the cold look behind her eyes.

However, she had in fact underestimated Nian Xiaomu. How dare a nurse inspect the various departments just by borrowing Young Master Han's name?

Had Nian Xiaomu assumed that she was the Madam President because no one was clear about her status?

"Regarding Nian Xiaomu..."

"Work-wise, I have to say that the public relations department has been making an all-out effort, so we don't have to be afraid no matter who the guest is." Wen Yadai placed the cup down as a look of distress appeared on her face. She grabbed Xie Jingjing's hands after a period of hesitation.

"I didn't wanted to reveal this originally, but Nian Xiaomu has indeed gone overboard by tarnishing Young Master Han's reputation like this. I really don't know whether I should tell you this..."

"Sister Yadai, do you know something? Tell me about it quickly!" Xie Jingjing stamped her feet with anxiety when she saw that Wen Yadai was holding something back at the tip of her tongue.

"In that case, you must promise me that you won't let it slip and won't make a big deal out of it. Do you hear me?" Wen Yadai instructed Xie Jining repeatedly and finally talked about it after she agreed. "From what I know, Nian Xiaomu is not related to Young Master Han in any way. She is just Xiao Liuliu's nurse."

"Nurse?" Xie Jingjing stared blankly.

Yu Yuehan ranked first on the list of rich young men in City H.

He was well-respected, noble, and so handsome that no one could be compared to him.

There were tons of young ladies from prestigious families who had wanted to get close to him, but none of them could find a chance to do so.

However, a nurse actually had wishful thoughts regarding the Prince Charming of everyone's eye and was inspecting the departments under the name of Young Master Han!

"If the staff on the company's intranet knew about this matter..."

"Jingjing! Have you forgotten everything that I said earlier?" Wen Yadai pretended to get angry and roared in a low voice.

Xie Jingjing was so shocked that her neck shrunk; it was rare for her to see Wen Yadai lose her temper.

"Okay, I won't talk about it."

She took the cell phone and headed out unwillingly after she finished her sentence.

Her entire mind was flooded with what Wen Yadai had said just now.

For what reason could a lowly nurse get close to Young Master Han?

Just because she had a slutty face?

She would instantly feel the pain of falling down from high above the moment everyone learned about her identity!

Xie Jingjing hated that she could not spread the news on the company's intranet.

And personally reveal Nian Xiaomu's true colors!

Feeling indignant, Xie Jingjing walked to her seat. The moment she reached her seat, she heard a loud greeting from the planning department, which was next to her department. Her eyes narrowed.

She seemed to have thought of something, and a smile appeared at the corner of her mouth. Whipping out her cell phone, she sent a message to her colleagues in the planning department...

Chapter 107: I am going to expose her...

In the planning department

Nian Xiaomu was seated in the manager's office, was staring at the fruit platter and drinks in front of her, and felt rather confused.

Even if she did not have any experience working at a large corporation, she knew that such a situation was definitely abnormal.

Every department in the Yu Corporation had been too welcoming toward her.

They were so friendly toward her that she felt very uncomfortable.

Was it really because she was Xiao Liuliu's nurse?

"Look, Miss Nian. Are you satisfied with what we have prepared for you?" the planning manager placed his hands by his side and asked politely.

There was a sense of reverence in his tone.

Nian Xiaomu hurriedly got up from the sofa and replied, "You're too kind. I was only curious about what each department does and that was why I came over to take a look. I hope I didn't disturb anyone. These things... are actually not necessary..."

Nian Xiaomu tried to think of the most tactful way to decline his offer.

Although Yu Yuehan had said that she could go around the company with Xiao Liuliu, she knew that it would be wrong if she disturbed the people at work.

She was aware of what was appropriate to do, and what wasn't.

"If Miss Nian is interested in taking a look, it is the honor of the planning department. Let me show you around the department," the planning manager said enthusiastically.

At this, Nian Xiaomu quickly turned down the offer. "No need, no need. I can just look around on my own and won't trouble you."

Only a super VIP would enjoy the privilege of being shown around by a department manager.

“All right. I happen to have work that is on a deadline. I’ll ask my secretary to show you around.” The department manager thought that she wanted to keep a low profile and did not try want to overly fawn over her. Then, he threw a meaningful glance at his secretary.

The secretary stepped forward immediately and gestured to her, “Miss Nian, this way please.”

When they disappeared from the manager’s office, someone in the planning department received a text message from Xie Jingjing and hurriedly approached the manager.

“What did you say? A nurse? Is the news accurate?” The planning manager looked up, the color on his face changing instantly when he heard the update.

The person who had entered the room quickly nodded. “It seems like she is a nurse who was specially hired to look after Little Miss after Little Miss got into a car accident. Although there is no hard proof, it is not a stretch from whole truth.”

When he heard that Nian Xiaomu was only a nurse, the planning manager’s face turned black.

The entire department had actually gone out to welcome and also prepared so many things for a mere nurse...

If word spread to other departments, they would surely be humiliated to death!

“This Nian Xiaomu is too loathsome. Manager, I am going to expose her now...”

“Stop right there!” called out the planning manager in a low voice as he dragged her back. “Don’t you think it’s already very embarrassing? Let’s just pretend that we do not know about it. If she wants to take a tour, we will send her off once she’s done here.”

Since there was no hard proof, there was a possibility that the news could be inaccurate.

After all, the planning manager was an old hand in the industry and was experienced in handling tricky matters.

Since everything had been prepared, they should proceed accordingly.

So far, not everyone knew about Nian Xiaomu’s identity. The others still assumed that she was conducting an inspection on Master Han’s behalf.

If they were to expose her, it would surely turn ugly.

“All right, just follow my instructions.” The planning manager returned to his work desk and got back to work.

The news spread very quickly in the planning department.

Only Nian Xiaomu was still unaware of what was going on. However, she felt that everyone’s attention was on her all of a sudden.

Plus, their expressions were strangely fishy.

Chapter 108: The hero comes to the beauty’s rescue

Ding! A cell phone text message alert sounded.

Nian Xiaomu instinctively looked at her cell phone, but realized it was the secretary who was giving her a departmental tour that had received a text message.

After the secretary took a look at her phone, her expression changed instantly.

When she looked up at Nian Xiaomu, her eyebrows furrowed together.

“If you are busy, you can just leave me be. I can walk around on my own,” Nian Xiaomu said politely. She thought that the secretary had received new work orders.

Nian Xiaomu had originally only wanted to walk around casually, but it turned into a very formal tour.

When the secretary heard Nian Xiaomu’s words, the smile on her face froze, and it took a moment for her to speak. “It’s nothing, Miss Nian. Let us walk this way. The meeting room where the planning department staff gather is over here.”

The secretary continued to lead her to the next area.

She described in detail, “The planning department is one of the most critical departments in the company. Although we do not have the largest amount of staff, the employees who are recruited into our department are top performers in the field. Here is where everyone spends most of their time. Many outstanding proposals were drafted here...”

When the secretary was done, Nian Xiaomu courteously greeted the people in front of her.

However, she realized that they were all looking at her in an odd way.

Looks of suspicion, disdain, and fury...

Taken aback, she wondered what exactly was happening. Then, she heard someone snicker behind her, “She thinks that she can use Master Han’s name to rise in status. She should be clear about where she stands!”

“I say that our manager is too nice. Fakes should be thrown out with no mercy. She should know that she does not deserve this!” an audible female voice replied.

The comments did not seem to make sense, but the entire planning department hushed in silence at these words.

The surrounding atmosphere became still.

Most people were just looking at Nian Xiaomu and waiting for the drama to unfold.

It was understood that in their hearts, Master Han was like a god to them.

Even if they could not get together with him, they would not easily allow anyone else to get close to him.

In everyone's eye, Nian Xiaomu was only a nurse. She did not deserve to like Yu Yuehan or even be allowed stand next to him.

Thinking of the comments about them being together from the company intranet, everyone looked at Nian Xiaomu with scorn and contempt.

They saw her as a manipulative girl who had intentionally brought Xiao Liuliu around with her to boost her status.

She was trying to transform herself into a phoenix...

"What are they talking about?"

Nian Xiaomu was taken aback and could not figure out what was happening.

She wanted to clarify what this was about, but those two people were not talking to her, so she felt that it was easier to ask the secretary than to confront them.

The secretary had not expected anyone to talk like that and could only awkwardly smile back while changing the topic. "Miss Nian, you have visited most parts of the planning department. If there is nothing else, let me send you out."

"... All right." Nian Xiaomu could sense that she was being ostracized by these people and did not persist in staying.

Nodding her head in agreement, she followed the secretary out.

When they reached the door and were about to step across the threshold, someone suddenly appeared with a glass of water from the pantry and flung the water onto the ground in front of her.

Before Nian Xiaomu could react, one foot had already stepped over onto the slippery floor. Her foot slid over the wet patch, and she fell forward!

"AHHH!!!"

Everything happened at the speed of lightning.

Just when everyone thought that she would definitely fall flat on her face, a regal figure suddenly appeared in front of her and pulled her into his arms!

Chapter 109: Master Han was very angry, and the consequences were dire

Ever since the assistant left the meeting room, Yu Yuehan continued to get distracted in his seat.

This was the umpteenth time he had looked at his cell phone.

When the screen lit up, he swiped the phone screen without hesitation.

When he saw the message, his eyes brightened.

It appeared that while he was not present, she had brought Xiao Liuliu around and had a good time together.

They moved from one department to the next, as if they were taking a tour and admiring the scenery.

After Xiao Liuliu had fallen asleep, she did not take a break and visited the planning department.

The meeting was still ongoing, but his thoughts were all focused on his cell phone.

He kept reading the updates from his assistant regarding her every move...

When the meeting finally ended, he instantly got up from his seat and left the meeting room. Instead of returning to his own office, he went straight into the elevator and headed to the planning department.

He tried to imagine what the look on her face would be when they met.

The corners of his mouth lifted uncontrollably.

However, he had not expected such a scene when he reached the entrance of the planning department...

“Are you okay?”

Yu Yuehan tightened his grip around her waist as he held her close and reached out to lift her chin to look for himself.

The magnetic voice betrayed a tinge of concern.

Hearing his voice, Nian Xiaomu blinked a few times to look carefully at the person who had descended from the skies and landed in front of her. Her little face drew a blank.

When she regained her composure, she pursed her lips and shook her head.

She could sense the anger in him and instinctively wanted to back down. However, he did not release his hand from around her waist and walked into the planning department instead.

“Young Master Han...”

No one had expected that Yu Yuehan would appear at this moment.

Everyone spontaneously bowed and greeted him.

Recalling what had just happened, the eyes of the employees revealed their panic and guilt.

This was especially the case for the person who had intentionally spilled the water.

Seeing Yu Yuehan’s eyes land on her, her whole body trembled in fear. The water glass slipped out of her hands and dropped to the floor.

“Master, Master Han, I did not do it on purpose. I was careless...”

She had simply been outraged that Nian Xiaomu, a mere nurse, had gotten close to everyone’s heartthrob.

She thought that Nian Xiaomu was the sort of woman who do not know any better and needed to suffer some embarrassment in order to know her place.

She thought that Nian Xiaomu was only a nurse and that it was no big deal even if she offended her.

She did not think that Yu Yuehan would suddenly appear and even reach out to hold Nian Xiaomu in front of so many people!

“You could not even hold a glass of water properly. It appears that you would not be able to handle the challenging work of the planning department.” Yu Yuehan let go of Nian Xiaomu, put a hand in his pocket, and slowly stepped forward.

His regal aura and imposing stature was similar to that of an emperor. It caused everyone to hold their breaths.

It was a simple sentence, but it drained the blood out of the culprit’s face.

Was she... being fired?

She wanted to plead for forgiveness, but Yu Yuehan did not even look at her again. His menacing eyes swept across the room.

At that moment, the rest of the people in the planning department froze in fear.

They were afraid that they would be the next one to be fired...

“Master Han.” The planning manager rushed out of his office when he got the news.

When he saw a displeased Yu Yuehan standing at the door, his tubby figure trembled slightly. His heart turned cold when he took in the situation.

“Master Han, I can explain...”

Yu Yuehan threw him a frosty stare and replied, “I’ll let this go and consider it an accident this time. If there is a next time, I will get rid of you, the manager, first.”

Chapter 110: The power of a boyfriend!

When Yu Yuehan was done speaking, he did not bother to look at the people whose faces were aghast with fear. Instead, he walked toward Nian Xiaomu.

After he eyed her up and down to make sure that she was fine, he nonchalantly said, “Follow me.”

Then, they left, one following behind the other.

In the public relations department.

Wen Yadaï had everything calculated and executed according to her plan. She relished watching Nian Xiaomu fall into a pathetic situation after her identity was exposed.

She crossed her arms and waited to see the drama unfold.

Who would have guessed that Yu Yuehan would appear at that time?

Her eyes narrowed at the very instant that he held Nian Xiaomu in his arms!

She was so infuriated that she leaped out of her seat.

She rushed to the window and glared at the two people who were in an embrace.

Her fingers curled into tight fists, and she gritted her teeth in fury.

Before she could digest the situation in front of her eyes, she heard that he fired an employee and even gave a warning to the planning department manager.

It was as if he was consumed by anger and taking revenge for his woman.

Yet, Nian Xiaomu was only a nurse.

How could she deserve this?!

When Nian Xiaomu left the planning department, she was still in a daze.

She followed behind him, her little head bowed, and did not know what to think.

Sensing that she was in a trance, Yu Yuehan stopped in his tracks and turned around to look at her.

The very next second, she did not even raise her head and crashed straight into his chest!

“Ouch!” Nian Xiaomu rubbed her forehead since the collision was too strong. She took a step back and looked up, meeting his deep gaze.

“Do you have something to say?” Yu Yuehan stared at the contemplative look on her face and asked indifferently.

Nian Xiaomu had always spoken her mind, so she did not hesitate when she heard his words.

“Earlier, were you angry because of me?” she asked while pointing at her nose.

Hadn't he considered her an eyesore all this time? If it hadn't been for Xiao Liuliu, who insisted that she be her nurse, he would have fired her long ago.

However, the domineering aura he had exuded just now was really too cool for words.

When she was being held in his arms, her little heart pounded like crazy.

If she had not noticed that there was something wrong with his reaction, she would have indulged in it...

Hearing that, a flash of light flickered in Yu Yuehan's eyes, and his gaze swept past her conflicted face.

Then, he coldly looked away.

His thin lips parted and said, “You overestimate yourself.”

“...”

“I take a serious stance on any matter that might affect the general ethos of the company. I would have done the same for anyone else.” Yu Yuehan looked at her and asked indifferently, “Any other questions?”

“...” A case of self-flattery.

It was so awkward that she did not know how to carry on talking.

Nian Xiaomu hurriedly shook her head and wished that she had not opened her mouth at all.

Looking at her embarrassed little face, Yu Yuehan's hand that was in his pocket clenched into a tight fist.

His heart was not as calm as he looked.

When he saw her almost fall over, he did not think twice and just reached out to hold her.

At that point in time, there really had been an inexplicable anger in his heart.

Yu Yuehan shifted his gaze and was about to turn around when the corner of his eye caught a glimpse of her swollen ankle. He stopped for a moment.

"What happened?"

Nian Xiaomu followed his gaze and looked at her ankle. Pouting her lips, she said, "I twisted my ankle when I slipped just now. It shouldn't be serious. I'll just go back and apply an ice pack to it..."

She was still speaking when she felt the surrounding air turn chilly.

She looked up and saw that he was staring at her./ boxnovel.com

Before she could react, he had already stepped forward and bent down to swoop her up into his arms!
