

My Life 1431

Chapter 1431: He Who Is Unjust Is Doomed to Destruction! (8)

The video on the phone was indeed the one trending online. The time recorded on the phone which sent the folder was also earlier than the fashion show.

However, the number on her phone was not Mo Kun's!

The call records on her phone only showed an unfamiliar number. It could not prove that this had anything to do with Mo Kun.

"From an unfamiliar number and a video that can be edited from anywhere, you want to frame me for being the mastermind? Are you guys too native?!"

The moment Mo Kun confirmed that Fu Xi did not have other evidence, his attitude became stern.

He slammed his hands on the table and pointed at Fu Xi.

"Speak, who bribed you to spout nonsense here?"

Fu Xi was taken aback. "I didn't! I am speaking the truth..."

"There is only one truth!" Mo Kun laughed coldly as he turned towards Nian Xiaomu. "Nian Xiaomu, you planted her here. Do you really think that based on this weak evidence and a fake witness, you will be able to frame me?"

They were at a disadvantage. Fu Xi did not have any evidence that Mo Kun had contacted her directly. No one would believe her just by her words.

She was so anxious that she was about to cry.

"I am speaking the truth. He is the bad guy!"

"Truth? I think you did something wrong and are afraid that you will be caught, so you accuse someone else instead. Or, someone bribed you to frame me. If you are willing to say who bribed you to do this, I may consider letting you off. Think about it."

Mo Kun hinted subtly.

He was buying her over.

If Fu Xi was to change sides, not only would Mo Kun not be in trouble, he would also be at an advantage. He could say that Nian Xiaomu framed him for the Mo Family master seat.

He could get the elders to expel her!

Nian Xiaomu narrowed her eyes and stared at Fu Xi.

Fu Xi had betrayed her once, but since she dared to bring Fu Xi here. She believed that Fu Xi would not do it again. If Fu Xi really was to betray her again...

“Nobody bribed me. I came here willingly to expose you! You committed so many evil deeds, karma will strike soon!” Fu Xi yelled without hesitation.

There was stubbornness on her face.

She clenched her fist and glared at Mo Kun.

“Although you did not contact me directly, I remember that the person who contacted me was Du Li. He is your trusted man, he has been helping you. You wouldn’t deny that would you?”

Fu Xi thought everyone would be very agitated when she said that.

However, she only saw their lost looks.

Du Li was not an employee of Mo Corporation, he was not even from Mo Family.

He was Mo Kun’s secret guard.

Except for their masters, no one would know about the existence of their secret guards.

Just like Tan Bengbeng. Except for Old Master and Nian Xiaomu, no one else knew about her.

She was like a shadow, leaving no traces.

“You are getting more and more outrageous. I presume that all of you are also getting tired of this. Although this girl is spouting nonsense, she did incite the villagers. Catch her and send her to the police station!”

“Wait a second!”

The moment Mo Kun finished his sentence, the door of the conference room opened.

Fu Jin appeared. “I can prove that my sister was speaking the truth!”

Chapter 1432: He Who Is Unjust Is Doomed to Destruction! (9)

No one expected Fu Jin to appear.

He was wearing handcuffs and there were police following behind him. However, he said his words firmly!

In such a short period of time, Fu Jin was completely different.

When he first met Nian Xiaomu he was tidy and neat, now he was in a mess.

It seemed as though he had not had a good time while he was detained for investigation.

Due to their conscience, people who were guilty would not be able to live well even if they were given good food and living conditions every day!

“Isn’t this the accountant from the clothing factory?”

“He is Fu Jin? This girl is called Fu Xi, are they really siblings?”

“Didn’t Mo Yongheng order him to fake the accounts? Why is Fu Jin out at this point in time?”

Everyone was in discussion when they saw Fu Jin.

“I appealed for him to come out!” Nian Xiaomu answered in everyone’s astonishment.

“Initially, I realized that there was something wrong with the accounts and asked Mo Yongheng to help me investigate. I strongly believe that Mo Yongheng is innocent, or he would have had the opportunity to cover up for himself before the police brought him down for investigation. However, due to Fu Jin’s accusation, we could not find any evidence to prove his innocence until Fu Xi appeared.”

The moment Nian Xiaomu finished her sentence, Fu Xi cried.

Tears started rolling down her face as she tried to explain.

“My brother is not a bad person. He did all of this to protect me. That is why he was threatened. He loves tie-dye and loves the factory... He is not what you guys think...”

Fu Xi ran into Fu Jin’s arms and hugged him tightly.

“I’m sorry, brother!”

“Little fool, everyone I did was what a brother should. Don’t cry.” Fu Jin wanted to wipe off her tears with his hand. However, his hands were still handcuffed. When he lifted them up, Fu Xi started crying more.

They were orphaned from a young age and only had each other.

When they were young, the elders in the village would pity them and give them food.

When they got older, slowly they could earn a living from tie-dye.

Fu Xi was young and her studies were not as good as Fu Jin’s. Hence, she stopped school at an early age and saved up the money for her brother to go to school.

Fu Jin was naturally more sensitive to numbers and he managed to further his studies in the city. He even managed to get into a large company like the Mo Corporation.

However, he always felt indebted to his sister.

He knew that Fu Xi’s results were fine. She said that she didn’t want to study so that he could study.

At first he thought that, through his hard work, he could give his sister a better life.

Who knew that their relationship would become the chip for Mo Kun to threaten him.

“We are orphans. If I did not listen to President Mo, my sister would lose her life. She’s still so young and she has suffered so much for me. I could not let anything happen to her. So, from three years ago, I started to fake accounts for President Mo...”

Fu Jin explained in remorse.

Mo Kun’s face changed.

“Fu Jin, do you know what you are saying?!”

He was about to stop Fu Jin when he was stopped by the nearest elder in the Mo Family.

Chapter 1433: He Who Is Unjust Is Doomed to Destruction! (10)

“He is just saying what he knows. Why are you panicking? Unless you really did something!”

“ ... ”

Mo Kun clenched his teeth and narrowed his eyes.

There was nothing he could do.

If he did anything, it would be admitting that he was involved.

However, if he let Fu Jin continue...

Fu Jin was different from Fu Xi, he had helped him for three years. Fu Jin knew many things.

At first, Mo Kun had Fu Xi. He was sure that Fu Jin would not dare to do anything and asked him to accuse Mo Yongheng.

Who knew that Nian Xiaomu would be able to convince both of them to testify against him!

“That year, Old President Mo was sick and handed the corporation to President Mo. President Mo saw that the clothing factory was profiting a lot and asked me to fake accounts for him...”

“And the fire. He asked me to set the factory on fire when he realized that Vice-President Nian was investigating the accounts. He was worried that the accounts would land in Vice-President Nian’s hands and she would find out that he had been using the factory to hide his monetary transactions with an overseas corporation.”

“And Young Master Yongheng, Young Master Yongheng is innocent. He is loyal to the corporation. President Mo found out that Manager Hong had a copy of the accounts and they had been taken away by Vice-President Nian. He was afraid things were going to be exposed and wanted to find a scapegoat!”

“ ... ”

All the incidents.

Fu Jin started listing all the evil deeds that Mo Kun had done in front of all the shareholders.

“I worked under President Mo for three years and knew that he was not a good person. Therefore, all the illegal accounts that went through me, I kept a copy of. If you take a look at them, you will believe me. I also have a large sum of money in my bank account that was transferred to me by President Mo. I have not touched a single cent, you guys can check that.”

Not only did Fu Jin expose Mo Kun’s evil deeds, but he also brought out Du Li.

Including these years where Mo Kun would send Du Li to get rid of his enemies.

It was chilling to hear!

If what Fu Jin said was true, even a life sentence would be too light for Mo Kun!

There was silence in the conference room.

It was like they were afraid it was all an illusion.

The elder who came back to his senses first, immediately ordered, “Follow the police and go to the place Fu Jin mentioned. Find all the evidence! We must get to the bottom of it!”

The moment he finished his sentence. The policemen behind Fu Jin walked in front of Mo Kun.

“President Mo, you are now under investigation. You have the right to remain silent. Anything you say may be used against you in a court of law!”

“It is not me, I have nothing to do with this! You have no right to arrest me!” Mo Kun got free and tried to escape.

When he was at the door, Nian Xiaomu stuck her foot out.

Mo Kun was tripped by it and fell hard onto the ground!

“President Mo, you are so careless, are you okay?”

Before Nian Xiaomu could finish showing her concern, the police rushed up and arrested Mo Kun!

Nian Xiaomu moved her foot.

“You are just under investigation. President Mo, since you believe that you are innocent, then you will have to believe that we will not let you suffer the injustice. I promise you that I will try my best to find evidence to prove your ‘innocence’!”

Chapter 1434: He Who Is Unjust Is Doomed to Destruction! (11)

She would not let go of this chance to check how much evil Mo Kun had done over the years!

“You!” Mo Kun clenched his teeth.

She did it on purpose!

However, now that he was caught. Nothing he said would help the situation.

“Mo Corporation needs to have a leader since President Mo is under investigation. He may not be back for a while. I propose that while everyone is here, we elect a Deputy President. This way if the reporters ask tomorrow, there will be someone to represent us!”

The elder that had questioned Mo Kun now suggested.

Although he said that it was going to be an election, however, Nian Xiaomu was the only direct descendant of Mo Family. She also had such a good reputation. There was no need for an election.

Everyone looked at her instinctively.

The media had great reviews for this fashion show and Nian Xiaomu had a good reputation. She was the most suitable to represent Mo Corporation.

Everyone agreed immediately when someone suggested for Nian Xiaomu to be the Deputy President.

“I do not agree!

Upon seeing that Nian Xiaomu had replaced him before he even left, he raged.

“Nian Xiaomu must have planned everything today. She wanted to frame me, do not believe her...”

Nian Xiaomu walked up and said sweetly, “President Mo, I am afraid you are confused. You are about to be taken away for investigation. You should worry about yourself first. You don’t have to worry about Mo Corporation!”

Her sweet smile was in contrast with Mo Kun’s blackface.

“Nian Xiaomu, don’t be overjoyed too soon. You have not won yet!” Mo Kun yelled.

His menacing look shocked everyone who were present.

Instantly, the person in front of them had turned foreign.

When Mo Kun realized that he had been tricked by Nian Xiaomu, he wanted to eat her alive.

He was dragged out of the conference room while he was struggling.

Fu Xi and Fu Jin were also taken away as accomplices and witnesses.

Nian Xiaomu walked to them and didn’t know what to say. They could have lived a stable life, but now, because of Mo Kun both of them were going to be jailed.

“Thank you, for being willing to stand up against Mo Kun.”

The sudden gratitude shocked Fu Xi and Fu Xi.

They looked at Nian Xiaomu.

Fu Xi was crying like a baby and Fu Jin’s eyes were reddened.

He slowly muttered, “I still remember that year when I entered the Mo Corporation, Old President Mo was the one who interviewed me. He felt that I was intelligent and hardworking, so he gave me a lot of learning opportunities. After he found out that my family used to do tie-dye, he specially placed me in the clothing factory. He was really nice...”

Speaking of this, he teared up.

Normally, men do not cry easily until it is really significant.

He wiped his face and smiled bitterly.

“I have let Old President Mo down. I have also let down the workers in the clothing factory. I always thought that I had nothing to do with it as I was being threatened. Until I heard that my sister was being threatened and doing bad deeds too, then I realized how wrong I had been from the start.”

“ ... ”

“We should be the ones thanking you. Thank you, for being willing to trust us and for giving us another chance to make up for our mistakes.”

Chapter 1435: He Who Is Unjust Is Doomed to Destruction! (12)

While Fu Jin spoke, he suddenly knelt down in front of Nian Xiaomu.

“Fu Jin, you...” Just as Nian Xiaomu was about to hold him up, he avoided her hand.

“Vice-President Nian, everything is my fault, it is not related to Xixi, she is only an ignorant little girl. Can you please let her off based on the fact that in the end, she tried to save the fashion show for you? She is still so young, if she goes to jail now, her future would be ruined! As long as you are willing to let her go, I would do anything for you!”

“Brother!” Fu Xi cried out and hugged Fu Jin.

“Xixi’s grown up, Xixi can take care of herself... Brother don’t do this, get up...”

“ ... ”

This scene moved many.

Looking at the strong ties between them, Nian Xiaomu couldn’t help but be reminded of her father and Mo Kun.

If every sibling in this world can love each other, how great would that be?

Nian Xiaomu wiped the tears from the corner of her eye and together with Fu Xi, helped Fu Jin up.

“What’s done is done, you will have to bear the consequences. However, I promise you that I will not sue Fu Xi and will ask for a lighter sentence for you on the fact that you turned over a new leaf and stood against Mo Kun.”

This was the best that she could do for the two of them.

“Thank you, thank you so much!”

Fu Jin and Fu Xi were both taken away.

The Mo Corporation officially announced that Nian Xiaomu would be promoted as the Deputy President of the Mo Corporation and would be taking over all of the Mo Corporation’s operations.

The first thing Nian Xiaomu did, after taking over, was to thoroughly check through the accounts of all projects and investigate any mismatched records.

This took the entire day.

From facing the media representatives, explaining the change in appointment of the corporation internal affairs, to getting back into the office and settling all the documents, Nian Xiaomu barely rested and hardly had time to drink water.

Overthrowing Mo Kun and sending him to court was only the first step.

The next step was more important. It was to find the evidence in order to justify the number of evil deeds he had done over the years. Even if it was not enough to get him a death penalty, it would be able to give him life imprisonment.

“Work can never be finished, come over and rest for a while now.”

Yu Yuehan stayed in the Mo Corporation to take care of Nian Xiaomu.

Helping her with some troublesome matters.

Seeing that she was rubbing her brows, he immediately hugged her and asked her to stop looking at the documents.

“I’m alright, I will stop after I finish this document. There is still another important thing today...”

Before Nian Xiaomu could finish, secretary Chen knocked on her office door.

She stood at the door.

“President, you had a call. Miss Zheng Yan wants to tell you that if you are too busy with work, you need not fetch Young Master Yongheng, she will be going over now to help you fetch him.”

At the door of the police station.

A red sports car stopped steadily by the roadside. The moment the car came to a halt, the door opened and Zheng Yan’s beautiful figure could be seen getting out of the car gracefully.

The heels that she wore made her already lean figure look more attractive.

Carrying a handbag, she walked towards the police station with joyous steps.

The smile she had on her face if seen without context, people would think that this was not the police station but a shopping heaven for women.

The lawyer was already here to help Mo Yongheng with the procedures.

“Mo Yongheng!”

The moment Zheng Yan saw the familiar figure, she ran towards him.

In excitement, her heels slipped and she fell full force towards him!

Chapter 1436: I Don't Mind, Do You?

Mo Yongheng stood beside his lawyer, his face expressionless and both hands tucked inside his pockets.

Upon hearing Zheng Yan's voice, his eyes flickered slightly and he instinctively turned to look in her direction. Little did he expect her to charge right into his arms.

Without thinking, he opened his arms to receive her.

Just as he was in shock over her throwing herself at him, he heard her let out a cry of ouch and hurriedly looked at her.

“Where did you knock?”

“Everywhere. Why is every part of you so firm? Luckily my nose is real. Otherwise, it'd definitely turn crooked from such a knock...” Zheng Yan reached out to rub her nose as she complained.

1She seemed to have twisted her leg in the process as well.

Why was she so unlucky?

The moment she saw Mo Yongheng, she could not balance herself properly. Previously, it was Zheng Hao who had enraged her so badly that she sprained her leg. This time, she actually threw herself into his arms... she had no face left at all!

“Xiao Mumu just took over the company. I was afraid she wouldn't be free to come to fetch you, so I offered to come.”

“Umm.”

Mo Yongheng did not really take note of what she was saying but had his focus on her nose.

Actually, not just her nose, but her whole forehead and face was red as well. Her lips had been bitten down by her teeth and had turned red as well.

She actually looked good even when she was in a huff.

“Does it still hurt?” Mo Yongheng reached his hand out to poke her nose.

Zheng Yan flung his hand off and snorted, “Obviously it hurts. Why don't you try it for yourself? It's a real nose okay!”

“Umm.” He muttered while pinching her nose before answering again, “I've tried. It's real.”

He might as well p*ss her to death!

After Zheng Yan snapped back to her senses, she realized the lawyer and a few policemen who were helping with the procedures were laughing.

“Mr. Mo’s girlfriend is really cute!”

Zheng Yan’s face blushed and she simply dragged Mo Yongheng out of the place.

Only when they were out of the police station did she suddenly realize that she should have explained the situation instead of escaping in a panic.

Now that she had dragged Mo Yongheng out like that, everyone would definitely misunderstand their relationship.

“We’re not a couple, should we go back to explain to them? Why didn’t you stop me just now?”

“You were the one who dragged me away first,” Mo Yongheng pointed to her hand which was still grabbing onto his wrist.

“Ah!”

Zheng Yan hurriedly released her grip and awkwardly touched the back of her head in embarrassment.

“It’s a misunderstanding. I was too nervous just now. Actually, I just...”

“Do you mind a lot that others misunderstand our relationship?” Mo Yongheng interrupted her explanation, his eyes fixed intently on her.

Seeing how she did not answer, he thought that she really minded and his eyes sank slightly.

Immediately after, he shifted his gaze to the surroundings and uttered nonchalantly, “Why didn’t Fan Yu spend time with you today?”

“Oh, he’s busy today. I heard he’s helping the siblings Fu Xi and Fu Jin find evidence in order to prove that the things they did were instigated by Mo Kun, so that their sentence will be lightened.”

Zheng Yan’s mind was elsewhere but upon hearing his words, she still replied instinctively.

However, after she was done speaking, Mo Yongheng’s face unexpectedly sank deeper.

So, it turned out that the reason she was free to come and fetch him today was that Fan Yu was not free to spend time with her.

Right. The person she liked was not him anyway. If not out of sympathy, she would not have come to visit him multiple times either.

Perhaps she did not know that ever since he knew that he could be bailed out today, he had been wondering if she would come for him.

Upon seeing her appear at the police station and throw herself into his arms, he could not believe his eyes for an instant.

Even though he realized eventually that she had simply slipped, he was still extremely surprised.

Chapter 1437: The “Surprise” She Prepared

But now, he only felt that he was a joke.

“Let’s go, I’ll take you back.” Mo Yongheng retracted his gaze, the distant feeling he exuded becoming evident as he turned to walk to the carpark.

Just when he had taken a step out, a slender hand grabbed onto the edge of his shirt all of a sudden.

Zheng Yan’s voice was rather low but her tone was meek.

“I wouldn’t mind other people misunderstanding our relationship. Anyway, my reputation has long been ruined almost completely by my brother. I’m just worried that you’d mind. I remember that you’ve never had a single dating rumor with any woman at all...”

His love life was so clean that reporters had even begun to speculate that he was gay.

Mo Yongheng abruptly stopped in his tracks.

A surprised look flashed past his eyes as he turned to look at her.

So, she was intentionally keeping a distance with him as she was worried that he would mind. That’s why she wanted to go back to explain for his sake?

“I don’t mind,” Mo Yongheng muttered without hesitation.

Receiving her look of astonishment, he suddenly realized what he had said and coughed lightly before correcting himself, “I meant, I’m just like you. I don’t care about what others think of me.”

“That’s good then. My car isn’t in the carpark. I parked it on the roadside. Come with me!” Zheng Yan grabbed onto his hand again and pulled him to the roadside.

Upon seeing the sports car, Mo Yongheng was about to open the car door and get in when Zheng Yan suddenly stopped him.

“You just left the police station, you can’t just get in like that. Stand here and don’t move, wait for me a moment!”

Zheng Yan then opened the car door and crept in. The next moment, she took out a huge basin that contained a few pieces of red-colored paper. It seemed like some sort of talisman.

She then placed the basin in front of Mo Yongheng in a serious manner.

“This is the talisman I specially went to get for you. You got locked up all because you’re too pig-headed. Now that you finally got released, you have to step over this fire basin...”

Zheng Yan continued to nag while she used a lighter to start a flame inside the basin with the pieces of red papers.

The glow of the red flame reflected on her porcelain-white face.

She stood up with a wide grin as she hurried him, “Mo Yongheng, what are you waiting for? Quickly step over the fire basin! It’ll get rid of the bad luck and bless you. Don’t turn back to look either, step over it and quickly get into the car!”

“...”

Mo Yongheng had remained at the same spot as he watched the whole process of her carrying a huge basin out of the car. Even his pose and expression remained completely the same the whole time.

Upon hearing that she had specially gone to get a talisman for him, his gaze had flickered slightly.

Looking straight at the fire basin before him and her extremely solemn face, it was as if his heart had been poked by something. It hurt a little but felt completely sweet with happiness...

When his eyes met her expectant gaze, he stepped over the fire basin with his slender legs and lowered his head as he entered the car.

He then looked out of the car window and watched her use a large bottle of mineral water to put out the flame in the fire basin, then used a rubbish bag to throw the whole thing into the bin.

“Right, there’s this as well!”

Once Zheng Yan got into the car, she immediately reached out to take a food container from under her seat.

“I asked the butler, he said that just stepping over a fire basin isn’t enough. You have to eat a bowl of pig trotter noodles. I don’t know how to make it, so I got the kitchen to make one for you and pack it. Hurry and eat it. Even if you don’t like it you have to eat a few bites at least!”

With that, she opened the cover of the food container.

The fragrant pig trotter noodles were steaming hot.

He could tell that she had packed it and immediately brought it here to him.

“Can you use a fork to eat noodles? I might have forgotten to bring a pair of chopsticks, there’s only a fork here...”

Chapter 1438: Don’t Guess A Woman’s Thoughts

Zheng Yan had not finished speaking, when Mo Yongheng took the food container from her hands and had his head lowered as he started eating the noodles.

He ate very quickly and in just a while, he had finished a huge portion of pork trotter noodles.

“Slow down, no one’s fighting with you for it. I’d originally thought that you could just eat a few bites for the sake of it if you didn’t like to eat pig trotter noodles. I didn’t expect that you would like it so much,” Zheng Yan stared at Mo Yongheng who had his head buried in the bowl of noodles and teased happily.

Hearing her words, Mo Yongheng froze in his act of eating the noodles and raised his head to look at her.

His gaze was unfathomable to her.

He wasn't hungry and did not believe that eating pig trotter noodles would get rid of bad luck. It was only because this contained her sincerity.

Mo Yongheng's gaze flickered slightly and he was just about to say something when she suddenly moved closer to him and stared straight at the noodles in his bowl.

"You're savoring it with so much relish. Is it that good?"

She spoke while evidently gulping down her saliva.

Such a genuine and candid side of her easily made one's heart flutter.

Mo Yongheng used the fork to scoop a bite of noodles and raised it near to her mouth. "Do you want a bite?"

Zheng Yan did not say anything and merely lowered her head to finish the noodles he offered her, then pointed to the pig trotters inside the bowl.

"I want one of those too!"

"Alright." Mo Yongheng quickly took the piece of pig trotter and put it into her mouth.

The small piece of pig trotter had been boiled for a long time and was extremely soft and melted inside her mouth immediately.

Zheng Yan even continued to babble on as she ate, "It's full of collagen. Eating this is huge nourishment as it has beautifying effects. It's more useful than eating any beauty capsules!"

"Have more then." Mo Yongheng fed her another piece of it.

When he was about to feed her the third piece, Zheng Yan raised her head and cautiously cast a glance at him. Her dark gaze instantly stunned Mo Yongheng.

"What's wrong?"

Huffing and puffing in anger, Zheng Yan questioned, "Am I not pretty enough? Or do you think that I'm old and the collagen on my face isn't present anymore, so you keep feeding me with pig trotters?"

"..."

Wasn't she the one who wanted to eat it?

The aloof and straightforward man was facing the biggest problem he ever had in his life. That is, not being able to guess what the woman before him was thinking.

Seeing how she wasn't eating it, he lowered his head and finished all the pig trotters inside the bowl.

The noodles had been emptied out by him as well.

Even the soup had been relished until not a single mouthful of it was left.

Seeing how she was still staring blankly at the bowl in his hands, his dark eyes narrowed as he muttered, "Zheng Yan, you're very pretty and you're not old either..."

"I think I just ate your noodles earlier," Zheng Yan suddenly remarked.

It seemed that only at this moment did she realize how intimate they had been earlier.

Her ears turned bright red and her cheeks were flushed as well.

Without waiting for Mo Yongheng to say anything, she reached out to take the food container from him and put it under her car seat.

Following this, she acted as if nothing had happened at all.

She then started the car engine and asked where he was going now.

"I'm going back to the company first. Nian Xiaomu just took over and needs someone familiar with the company's management to help her," Mo Yongheng replied. He could tell she was shy and instantly skipped the subject of them eating from the same bowl of noodles.

Hearing this, Zheng Yan frowned disapprovingly.

"Work is important, but your health is very important as well. You just got released and you're not even returning home first before heading to the company. Aren't you being too hasty? Moreover, you're wearing the same clothes straight from the police station. Even if you don't intend to go back to get some sleep, you should at least get a bath and change your clothes."

Zheng Yan stepped on the gas pedal and drove Mo Yongheng back to his private villa.

Before the Mo family elderly head had gotten ill, Mo Yongheng had always been by his side.

But, the elderly head had in fact prepared a villa for him long ago.

Chapter 1439: The Scene Is Too Beautiful, I Don't Dare to Look!

The place wasn't considered huge and the renovation wasn't luxurious either, but the location was very good.

The style of the villa suited the withdrawn and calm feelings Mo Yongheng gave off as well.

Usually, other than being at the company, Mo Yongheng would be by the elderly head's side taking care of him. He rarely had the chance to come back alone.

But, he would still get someone to tidy up the place from time to time.

So, the moment they stepped into his place, the atmosphere in the living room was so chilly that one couldn't help but tremble.

Without hesitation, Zheng Yan went forward and pulled open all the curtains in the living room, allowing the sunlight to enter.

Under the warm glow of the sun rays, she then stretched out both her arms comfortably.

“This is what I called living. If I hadn’t known you for some time already, I would have thought that I had just entered a zombie pit.”

Once Zheng Yan was done speaking, she put on a pair of slippers and began walking towards the staircase.

After going a few steps up, a thought suddenly came to her and she turned back to look at Mo Yongheng and asked, “You don’t mind if I look around your villa, right?”

“Umm.”

Mo Yongheng had been used to being alone but it wasn’t the first time he had brought someone back either.

In the past, as long as someone entered his villa, he would find it noisy. He even had to get the helper to come and tidy his place when he was not around.

Now, looking at Zheng Yan merrily springing around his house, he suddenly realized that not only did not feel annoyed by her presence, he even... felt like he kind of liked this feeling of being able to see her when he looked around.

When Mo Yongheng had snapped back to his senses, Zheng Yan’s figure had already long disappeared around the stairway.

He retracted his gaze and took brisk steps up the staircase.

Just as he reached the door of his bedroom, he found that she had already finished looking around all his rooms and was standing at his wardrobe with one of his suits in her hand, with a rather distasteful expression.

Hearing his footsteps, she looked up at him.

“The clothes in your wardrobe are either black or grey. Can’t you have more colors in your life?”

“Forget it, forget it. Your brother here can’t save your image as an aloof and straightforward guy, I can only do my best by helping you pick a suit that is more suited to women’s tastes. Go and bathe first, I’ll wait for you outside.”

With a resigned look, Zheng Yan walked to Mo Yongheng with a suit in hand, pushing it into his arms before turning to go back to the sofa to sit down.

Zheng Yan refused to rest, while she could not help but be worried about Nian Xiaomu too.

Thus, it was best for her to simply wait for him to freshen up before sending him to the Mo Corporation.

With such thoughts, Zheng Yan fished her phone out from her bag and started to ask Nian Xiaomu about her situation there.

It just happened that Nian Xiaomu was worrying about Mo Yongheng as well.

The two started a conversation that lasted for quite a while.

As time went on, the focus of their conversation had shifted greatly.

Mu, the one determined to keep a handsome man: "You're waiting outside while Mo Yongheng is bathing? This scene is so beautiful, I suddenly feel quite hot!"

Yan, the invincible vixen: "???There's air-conditioning in the room, I don't feel hot."

Mu, the one determined to keep a handsome man: "I suggest you check if Mo Yongheng remembered to take his clothes into the bathroom. Otherwise, when you hear the sound of the door opening in a while, turn to run away immediately. Listen to me, I'm afraid you'll get a nosebleed!"

Yan, the invincible vixen: "Hahaha... my gut feeling tells me that Young Master Han must do this often. To think that Young Master Han is actually such a person!"

Mu, the one determined to keep a handsome man: "..."

Mu, the one determined to keep a handsome man: "My Yan, all men in this world are the same. Just wait and you'll see!"

Zheng Yan was just about to type that Mo Yongheng was different from Young Master Han and that they weren't a couple either, so he wouldn't...

But before she could finish typing, from the corner of her eye, she spotted the suit she had chosen for him earlier, hanging on the clothes rack.

Before she recovered from her stupor, she saw that the door of the bathroom was suddenly pushed open.

And Mo Yongheng walked out from inside...

Chapter 1440: What If I Get A Nosebleed?

Zheng Yan's body froze instantly!

The conversation she had with Nian Xiaomu earlier, instantly flashed through her mind.

"I suggest you check if Mo Yongheng remembered to take his clothes into the bathroom. Otherwise, when you hear the sound of the door opening in a while, turn to run away immediately. Listen to me, I'm afraid you'll get a nosebleed!"

Her words were so accurate!

Zheng Yan went into a stupor and almost instinctively, she leaped up from the sofa and without daring to cast even a glance at the bathroom, turned to run towards the door.

When she had made it all the way to the door in one breath, she reached out and grabbed onto the doorknob, turning it forcefully.

Just as she was about to make her escape, Mo Yongheng's low and deep voice sounded from behind her.

“Where are you going?”

Zheng Yan stopped in her tracks but did not dare to turn around.

After stammering for a long time, she could not even utter a complete sentence.

Images of how Mo Yongheng would look without wearing any clothes popped up in her head continuously.

She had yet to even turn around to look at him and could already feel the hot sensation of her blood rushing to her brain.

If she were to actually have a look, she would definitely get a nosebleed!

“I forgot to take the clothes you got for me earlier. Can you pass them to me?” Mo Yongheng muttered lightly when he could not get a response from her.

Hearing his words, Zheng Yan’s knees almost went weak and she almost dropped down to her knees at the door.

Everything Nian Xiaomu said had come true!

My Xiao Mumu, you shouldn’t have become a domineering female President. If you changed your occupation to a sorceress, you would probably have gotten rich long ago.

“I’ll go out first. Then when there’s no one else in the room, you can come out and get them yourself.” Zheng Yan rejected without even thinking and was almost about to stick her whole body onto the door.

She was just waiting for Mo Yongheng to acknowledge her comment before she could pull the door open smoothly and slip out.

“My whole body is wet, it isn’t convenient for me to walk out. You can just pass them to me.” Mo Yongheng’s calm and steady voice sounded from inside.

“...”!!

He was using his wet body to entice her?!

She hadn’t suspected someone like Mo Yongheng, who was usually so quiet, would be this passionate on the inside in private!

But, he didn’t actually say anything much but asked her to help pass him his clothes. If she refused to help him with this, wouldn’t that show that she had a guilty conscience?

Zheng Yan took a deep breath and keeping the principle that she would be fine if she couldn’t see anything, she lowered her head and walked forward while staring at her toes.

From her memory, she walked in the direction the clothes rack was positioned.

With a trembling hand, she reached out and took the suit hanging there and turned to walk towards the bathroom.

As she was nearing the bathroom door, her lowered eyes spotted Mo Yongheng's legs in his slippers and she closed her eyes in shock and walked forward with her gut feeling.

Given that she could not see where she was going, her whole body slanted to one side and she knocked right into the wall.

She had barely managed to steady herself before she hurriedly took the suit in her hand and passed it to him. "Here, take it. Quickly take it!"

"Why do you have your eyes closed?" Mo Yongheng frowned curiously but did not reach out to take the suit as he realized that her eyes were closed simply because she banged into the world.

Zheng Yan was still in pain from banging her head and upon hearing his words, she was instantly triggered!

"You still have the nerve to ask me? It's fine that you didn't take your clothes in when you bathed but you asked a young beauty like me to get them for you when you're completely naked, is that appropriate? What if I get a nosebleed?!"

Zheng Yan blurted out all these words in one go.

Only when she was done rambling did she realize what she had just said.

She was just about to cover her face and leave embarrassedly when Mo Yongheng's words instantly left her rooted to the ground.

"You thought I wasn't wearing any clothes?"

"???"

She thought? Wasn't that the truth?

Wait, wait!

Zheng Yan's nerves, which had been tightened by Nian Xiaomu's words suddenly started to loosen up gradually.

When she realized what Mo Yongheng's words just meant, she abruptly raised her head to look at him.
