

My Life 1601

Chapter 1601: There Was Something That Needed To Be Resolved! (3)

Mo Yongheng held Zheng Yan's hand tightly, as if he was holding onto a treasure that had been lost and recovered.

"Bang —"

Zheng Mohong slammed the table and stood up.

"Tell me clearly, what exactly is going on? Although Liwei usually couldn't compare to her biological mother, she still took good care of her. How could she do such a thing? "And Hao Hao, according to what you guys are saying, he might also know about it?"

After all, Ling Liwei was his woman and gave birth to another son for him.

After Zheng Mohong recovered from his shock, he still had a trace of doubt.

"Could this be just a misunderstanding?" Liwei's personality was sometimes a little outspoken, but her thoughts should not be so malicious. Back then, Yanyan was still young. When Liwei first entered the Zheng family, she encountered Yanyan's cold and fever. She hugged her and took care of her for an entire day and night. All these years, she could be considered to have been devoted to Yanyan. I Can't convict her just based on your one-sided claims."

"Whether it's just one side of the story or not, uncle Zheng can personally go and ask. This information is the result of the police investigation and has nothing to do with me. If they didn't do it, then let them think about how to prove their innocence to the police!"

Mo Yongheng said impolitely.

He could be considered polite for being able to endure until today for daring to touch his people.

If it weren't for Zheng Mohong's feelings, he would have found the mother and son on the night Zheng Yan was kidnapped.

How could he let them live happily to this day and almost ruined his good deed!

Hearing this, Zheng Mohong seemed to realize that things weren't as simple as he thought. Especially with Mo Yongheng's character, it was impossible for him to fabricate a police investigation report to frame Ling Liwei for no reason.

His gaze darkened as he walked in front of Zheng Yan.

"Yanyan, follow Daddy Downstairs. If what you said is true, I will definitely give you an explanation!"

After Zheng Mohong finished speaking, he took the lead and walked out of the study.

When the four of them walked into the living room, Ling Liwei was still sitting on the sofa, scolding Zheng Hao.

No one could hear what she specifically said. When they heard the sound of footsteps, Ling Liwei immediately stopped and looked back warily.

When she saw Zheng Mohong coming down, she quickly went forward to greet him.

Without waiting for anyone to speak, she said hurriedly.

“How’s the discussion going?” “In my opinion, this marriage is too rushed. There’s really no need to be in such a hurry. Young Master Yongheng might just be on a whim and not really like Yanyan. If he marries Yanyan in such a hurry, if he regrets it in the end, wouldn’t that delay Yanyan?”

If it were any other time, Zheng Mohong would probably think that she was really worried about Zheng Yan when he heard her say such words. Therefore, he would put in a lot of effort to make plans for her.

However, with Mo Yongheng’s words in front of him, no matter how he listened to it now, he felt that Ling Liwei’s words had another layer of meaning. It was as if she was very afraid of Zheng Yan and Mo Yongheng being together.

Zheng Mohong’s gaze darkened slightly as he said coldly.

“I’ve already agreed to the marriage.”

“Mohong, how can you agree so rashly? At the very least, you have to...” Ling Liwei was so anxious that she forgot what she should say and blurted out.

“In short, Zheng Yan and Young Master Yongheng are not suitable for each other. They absolutely can not be together!”

“Young Master Yongheng is not suitable for Yanyan. Then who do you think is suitable? Those few hooligans you hired?” Zheng Mohong stretched out his hand to take the information from Tan Bengbeng’s hands and forcefully threw it onto Ling Liwei.

“Explain it to me. What’s going on?”

Chapter 1602: There Was Something That Needed To Be Resolved! (4)

The information was thrown in Ling Liwei’s face and she was stunned.

She didn’t look at the information, but she heard Zheng mohong’s words.

Her expression changed and she felt a little guilty. However, she quickly pretended to be calm and picked up the documents on the ground.

After a rough glance, he exclaimed in shock.

“Oh my God, in such a lawful society, there are still such hoodlums. These people are too bold! Yanyan, thank God you’re fine. If something had happened to you, what would your father and I do?”

Ling Liwei walked forward with a face full of worry and held Zheng Yan’s hand. She was like a mother who was worried about her daughter and was sincerely concerned.

But in fact, she was already panicking.

She had already felt that something was wrong before those people came to her to ask for the rest of the money.

However, when he sent people to inquire, there was no change in the news outside.

Everything was calm and peaceful. She would never have thought that those people had been caught long ago ...

And now, they've all confessed, saying that they were ordered by someone to do things for money.

In the end, he even found her!

"Mo Hong, you and Yanyan wouldn't suspect that I'm involved in this, would you? I'm innocent! I don't know anything. Why would I hire someone to hurt Yanyan? Yanyan, you have to believe me!"

"Is that so?"

Zheng Yan withdrew her hand coldly, the corners of her lips curved into a mocking smile.

His acting was quite good, but unfortunately, no one believed him.

"Stop pretending. The evidence is conclusive now. The police will come and take you to investigate soon. You can keep these hypocritical words for the police. I hope they will believe you."

"What do you mean? You want to send me to the police station? I'm not going! I'm not going anywhere! It must be you. You don't like me, and you're worried that Haohao will fight with you for the inheritance, so you're trying to frame us!"

Ling Liwei burst into tears and ran to Zheng mohong sadly.

"I know that I'm a stepmother, and everyone will think that I have ulterior motives. But we've been husband and wife for so many years. If I really wanted to deal with Yanyan, I could've done it when she was little. Why would I wait until now?"

Zheng mohong was silent.

Ling Liwei's words were not completely unreasonable.

He used to be busy with work and Zheng Yan had spent more time with Ling Liwei alone than with him. If Ling Liwei had wanted to hurt her, Zheng Yan would not have had the chance to live to this day.

"That's because you never thought that uncle Zheng would let Zheng Yan take over the Zheng Corporation!"

Mo Yongheng heard her excuses and opened his mouth coldly.

"You thought that big families valued men over women. You gave birth to a son yourself and everything in the Zheng family would belong to your son in the future. You didn't care about Zheng Yan at all. She was just a daughter who was given food to feed and raised to be married off. She wasn't a threat to you. However, later on, you suddenly realized that Zheng Yan was quite capable and Zheng Hao wasn't very talented in business. Uncle Zheng seemed to have the intention of grooming Zheng Yan to take over the company, so you started to panic. I can't wait to lay my hands on her ..."

"You're talking nonsense! It was all nonsense! I've never thought of it that way. That's not me!"

Ling Liwei denied it in a hurry, but before she could clear her name, the police had already come in with an arrest warrant!

Chapter 1603: The Birth Of A Drama Queen (1)

“Who is Ms. Ling Liwei? We suspect that you’re related to a paid kidnapper case. Please go back and cooperate with our investigation!” Two police officers stepped forward and showed their IDs.

Ling Liwei’s knees went weak and she almost knelt down when she saw the documents in their hands.

“It wasn’t me ... It really wasn’t me. Someone must have wanted to frame me, so they deliberately framed me. I don’t know those people ...”

Ling Liwei’s face turned pale, and she grabbed Zheng mohong in fear.

“Mo Hong, listen to me. This really has nothing to do with me. It must be young master Yongheng ... He must have ordered someone to frame me. The mo family is so powerful. It must be like this!”

“Then tell me, why did young master Yongheng frame you for no reason?” Zheng mohong grabbed Ling Liwei’s wrist and pulled her in front of him.

Ling Liwei was stunned and blurted out, “He did it for Zheng Yan. Zheng Yan must have said something bad about me in front of him and caused him to misunderstand. That’s why he did it. I’m really innocent!”

“So, in your heart, Yanyan is such a person. For her own selfish desires, she would make people fabricate evidence to frame you for hiring a kidnapper?”

Zheng mohong slowly opened his mouth, pausing after each word.

“Didn’t you always tell me that you took good care of Yanyan, that she’s been obedient and sensible since she was young, and that you liked her a lot? why has everything changed now? Has she changed, or have you been acting from the beginning to the end just to gain my trust and secretly send people to deal with my daughter?”

Ling Liwei was speechless.

Ling Liwei’s face unconsciously flashed with a touch of guilt.

She wanted to explain herself again, but the police officers had already come forward and were about to take her away.

Seeing that there was no way to ask for help, Ling Liwei anxiously turned to Zheng Hao, who was standing behind the sofa, and her eyes lit up.

“Zheng mohong, even if you don’t care about our relationship, you should at least care about Haohao. He’s the only son of the Zheng family. If he has a mother who’s in jail, how can he face others in the future?”

Even if Zheng mohong didn’t care about his son, the other elders of the Zheng family would definitely think about Zheng Hao.

As long as they were concerned about Zheng Hao, they would also be concerned about her.

“Haohao, please help your mother and ask your father to let us go. I’m really innocent ...”

Ling Liwei cried pitifully.

People who didn’t know the truth would really think that she was an ignorant woman and child who was misunderstood by others.

“I would have forgotten if you didn’t mention it. There’s still Zheng Hao.” Zheng mohong turned around and glanced at Zheng Hao.

“The fact that your mother ordered someone to kidnap your sister and wanted to ruin her can no longer be hidden. I only have one question for you now. Did you know about this beforehand?”

“...”

Zheng Hao’s body trembled, and he stood stiffly on the spot.

There was guilt in her evasive eyes.

He knew.

He had tried to stop Ling Liwei when he first heard that she had done so, but he had failed.

Instead, he was lectured by Ling Liwei, who said that he was a yes – man, as timid as a mouse, and that he was destined to be inferior to Zheng Yan.

He was provoked by her words, so he did not insist on stopping Ling Liwei.

He didn’t expect the matter to be exposed so quickly. Not only did it alarm Zheng mohong, but even the police came to find him ...

Chapter 1604: The Birth Of A Drama Queen (2)

“Mo Hong, what do you mean? This had nothing to do with Haohao! He’s your son, and you know how timid he is. He can’t even bear to step on an ant, so how could he hire a murderer to kidnap him?”

Ling Liwei didn’t expect that Zheng mohong not only didn’t let her off because of Zheng Hao, but also took his anger out on Zheng Hao because of her.

For a moment, she was also stunned.

She couldn’t care less about pleading for herself and hurriedly spoke.

“You just want to see me go to jail, don’t you? if you want to arrest me, just do it. Don’t wrong my son. Haohao is my only son. If anyone dares to touch him, I won’t let him go even if I die!”

Before Zheng mohong could respond to Ling Liwei’s words, the police officer on the side spoke.

“Mr. Zheng Hao, we suspect that you’re related to a paid kidnapper case. We would like to invite you back to cooperate with the investigation.”

As the police officer spoke, he stepped forward with handcuffs and cuffed Zheng Hao’s hands.

Zheng Hao's face turned ashen.

"No, don't arrest my son. If you want to arrest someone, then arrest me. I did everything. It has nothing to do with Hao Hao. Why did you handcuff him?"

Although Ling Liwei was usually sharp – tongued and domineering, she also hit and scolded Zheng Hao at every turn.

However, Zheng Hao was her biological son after all. She was still counting on Zheng Hao to inherit the Zheng family and lead a good life for her.

Seeing that Zheng Hao was about to be taken away by the police, she was so anxious that she spoke incoherently.

Since mo Yongheng had already made his move, the police must have already gotten hold of solid evidence. She was afraid that she would not be able to escape and could not drag Zheng Hao down with her.

As long as Zheng Hao was fine, even if she went to jail, she would still have a good life when she was released in the future.

If even Zheng Hao was caught, then she would really have no hope in the future!

Ling Liwei gritted her teeth and admitted to everything.

"Yes, I did it. I bribed those hooligans to capture Zheng Yan and destroy her!"

"Why? You watched Yanyan grow up, how could you be so vicious!" Zheng mohong raised his hand and slapped Ling Liwei's face.

An angry roar.

She was his precious daughter whom he had doted on since she was young. She was almost ruined by Ling Liwei.

Just thinking about that scene made him furious.

She wished she could cut Ling Liwei into a thousand pieces.

"You actually hit me?" Ling Liwei covered her face and looked at Zheng mohong in shock.

Zheng mohong was known for his good temper. Not only did he love his son and daughter, but he was also very generous to Ling Liwei.

As long as it was something she wanted, she would try her best to satisfy it.

Not to mention hitting her, he didn't even say a single harsh word.

At this moment, because Zheng Yan had hit her ...

Ling Liwei's body trembled as she got up from the ground.

Hearing Zheng mohong's words, he suddenly laughed hysterically.

“Can’t you guess why I want to deal with Zheng Yan? Haohao is also your son, but when did you ever have him in your heart? In your eyes, only the daughter of your dead wife is your child. That woman is already dead, but she still occupies your heart. Even her daughter has occupied the position of heir that belongs to my son. I hate her, I want to tear her into a thousand pieces!”

Chapter 1605: I hope you’ll keep your pure heart forever (1)

Ling Liwei’s words were vicious.

It went straight for Zheng mohong’s heart.

He had never thought that the mother he had specially found for Zheng Yan so that she could have a complete family would hate her so much.

All these years, he had no idea how much grievances his precious daughter had suffered.

He had always thought that he was doing this for her own good, but now he suddenly realized that he was wrong ...

“I’ve never thought of you as a substitute for Yanyan’s mother. From the day I got together with you, I’ve told you that I want to find a mother who’s willing to treat her well and take care of her. You were the one who told me that you really like children and would love Yanyan like your own!”

Zheng mohong pressed his hand against his chest, pausing after every word.

He suddenly realized that he had been living alone in a beautiful fantasy for so many years.

The seemingly perfect family was actually full of mysteries.

He didn’t feel anything at all and almost killed his own daughter.

“You don’t like Yanyan at all. You said you’d take care of her for me, but you were just pretending, weren’t you?” Zheng mohong was so agitated that he wanted to go up and settle the score with Ling Liwei. Just as he took a step, his face suddenly changed. He pressed his chest and fell to the ground.

“Daddy!”

Zheng Yan shouted anxiously and rushed forward to help him up.

She turned to the Butler and shouted, “where’s my dad’s medicine?” Bring him the medicine for his heart disease!”

“Yes!”

The Butler was also stunned. When he came back to his senses, he quickly went to find Zheng mohong’s medicine.

He had always had heart disease. Although the condition was not serious, he was old and his body was not as good as before. He had been carefully recuperating, so there would not be any problems.

However, today’s stimulation was too great, and his heart couldn’t take it. His entire face was pale, as if he suddenly couldn’t breathe.

Zheng Yan poured the medicine into her hands, took the water from the Butler and quickly fed him the medicine.

After a while, Zheng mohong's expression finally eased a little.

He only glared at Ling Liwei so fiercely that he wanted to cut her into a thousand pieces!

"Catch her ... If she really did it, don't worry about me. Send her to jail!"

The police quickly took Ling Liwei away. Although she claimed that Zheng Hao had nothing to do with this, her words could not be trusted. Zheng Hao, as a possible insider, had to be taken away for investigation.

In the Zheng family's Villa, there were suddenly two people missing, and the air seemed to have quieted down.

Zheng mohong panted and asked Zheng Yan to help him sit on the sofa.

He used his eyes to signal for the Butler to take the servants in the living room out and slowly said,"

"Yanyan, you're a smart girl. You should've known long ago that Ling Liwei wasn't really good to you. Why didn't you tell dad?"

"..."

Zheng Yan lowered her eyes slightly and passed the glass of water to Zheng mohong, reminding him to drink more water.

After thinking for a few seconds, he said,"

"I thought dad really liked her."

Just like how Zheng mohong had specially found a mother for her so that she could have a complete family environment, in her heart, she also hoped that her father would be happy. As long as her father was happy, she was willing to accept a new mother.

Moreover, Ling Liwei had treated her very well in the beginning.

She had even given birth to a younger brother that she had been looking forward to for a long time.

Zheng Hao wasn't like this when he was young. He was very cute and very attached to his sister ...

The fair and tender little fatty followed behind her and called her "sister" every day.

Chapter 1606: I hope you'll keep your pure heart forever (2)

At that time, she really felt that she was very blessed.

Although she had lost her mother, there were still many people in this world who cared about her.

There was her father, aunty Wei, and her brother ...

But slowly, many things changed.

Zheng Yan had inherited most of her facial features from her mother, who was a natural beauty. When it came to her, she had been a beauty since she was young and would be praised wherever she went.

In addition, everyone knew that Zheng mohong doted on her and would bring her wherever he went, so they were even more obedient to her.

Although Zheng Hao was her half – Brother and the only son of the Zheng family, Ling Liwei was from an ordinary family. She married into the Zheng family just because she was pretty. She did not get along well with the elders of the Zheng family, so she did not like Zheng Hao as well.

People often compared the two of them.

Ling Liwei would naturally hear about it.

Since then, Ling Liwei did not like to play with Zheng Hao.

Every time she wanted to give something delicious to her brother, Ling Liwei would throw it away as soon as she put it in his hands.

Zheng Hao was so angry that he burst into tears. She looked at Ling Liwei with a confused expression.

He listened as she lectured Zheng Hao in a harsh tone.

“Eat, eat, eat. All you know is to eat. You eat whatever I give you. Aren’t you afraid that people will poison you because you’ve embarrassed the Zheng family?”

Little Zheng Hao only knew how to cry.

She looked at her mother and sister pitifully, and in the end, she burrowed into her mother’s arms in fear.

She was still young then and did not understand what Ling Liwei meant.

However, she could vaguely feel that aunt Wei didn’t seem to like her anymore. She didn’t like her brother to play with her either.

At first, she didn’t know why, but she was afraid that her brother would be scolded because of her, so she secretly went to play with Zheng Hao behind Ling Liwei’s back.

However, no matter when she went to look for her brother, Ling Liwei would find out.

After a few times, Zheng Hao would avoid her whenever he saw her.

He refused to eat the things she gave him.

Zheng Yan felt wronged and confused.

She took the rejected gift and wanted to ask her father if she had done something wrong. However, before she could tell him what had happened recently, Ling Liwei told her that her Father’s heart was not in good condition. If she spoke nonsense, she would kill her father.

Hence, she was really frightened.

She did not dare to tell her father.

Later, when she grew up, she knew that Ling Liwei was lying to her, but she also roughly understood why she hated her.

In order not to put her father in a difficult position, she chose not to say anything.

She only worked hard to study and work, hoping to quickly join the company and help out so that her father could have an easier time.

However, in Ling Liwei's eyes, such pure filial piety had changed its meaning and became an ulterior motive.

Her excellence made Zheng Hao seem ordinary.

The higher-ups in the Zheng Corporation only knew that the Zheng family had a young Missy, but they didn't know that the Zheng family had a young master.

From then on, rumors about her began to appear, and then they grew ...

She knew who did it. She chose to bear with it not because she was afraid, but because she didn't think that rumors could hurt her.

What she was really afraid of was how sad her father would be if he found out the truth.

Zheng mohong reached out and hugged her, choking with sobs.

"It's dad's fault ... Dad doesn't know people well. All these years, you've suffered so much because of me. You almost lost your life. Dad has let you down ..."

Chapter 1607: I hope you'll keep your pure heart forever (3)

Zheng Yan: "father, I'm not feeling aggrieved. It's just that I really want to marry big brother now. Why don't you agree to let us hold our wedding immediately!"

Zheng mohong was speechless.

A grown woman should not be kept at home.

He hadn't even said no, but she was already in a hurry to get married.

If he really didn't agree to this marriage, was she going to immediately pack up and run away from home?

"A girl in love has no intelligence. I'm going to test you. I'll tell you the results after I meet the old master." Zheng mohong said in an obscure tone.

Seeing that she had used all her tricks but to no avail, Zheng Yan pursed her lips and did not say a word.

Mo Yongheng wanted to say that he couldn't.

He and tan Bengbeng were outsiders and it was not their place to comment on the Family Matters of the Zheng family.

As for marriage ...

His father – in – Law said that he wanted to test him. If he insisted on holding a wedding at this time, it would prove that he was guilty.

I'm afraid the wife that's in my mouth is going to fly away!

Mo Yongheng's eyes flickered and his thin lips parted slightly.

"Zheng Hao might not have anything to do with the kidnapping, but I'm guessing that he knows something about it. There's one more thing that you might not know. All these years, Ling Liwei was the mastermind behind all the rumors about Zheng Yan, and Zheng Hao was the accomplice. The mother and son kept spreading all kinds of rumors to defame Zheng Yan and lower her position in your heart."

Mo Yongheng could tolerate other things, but someone wanted to hurt Zheng Yan.

Since Ling Liwei had personally admitted that she was the one who had kidnapped and ruined Zheng Yan, he would not be soft – hearted.

Whether it was Ling Liwei or Zheng Hao, they were the ones who did it, so they had to bear the consequences themselves!

"It's actually them ..."

Zheng mohong's face turned ashen, and his tone was filled with shock.

His entire body trembled with anger.

Ling Liwei was fine as she was not related to Zheng Yan by blood. However, Zheng Hao was Zheng Yan's younger brother. How could he do such a thing? was this still his filial and sensible son?

If what mo Yongheng said was the truth, then how hard must Zheng Yan's life have been all these years?

As soon as he thought of this, Zheng mohong felt as if a knife was being twisted in his heart.

His love had harmed his most precious daughter ...

"Investigate! Let the police open a case for investigation. If they really did it, they must be severely punished!"

His words showed that he no longer cared about their father – son relationship.

Zheng Yan's eyes flickered but she did not say anything.

Mo Yongheng's marriage proposal ended in a strange atmosphere.

With so many things happening in the Zheng family, mo Yongheng and tan Bengbeng were too embarrassed to stay and disturb them.

After expressing his intention, mo Yongheng brought tan Bengbeng out.

Just as he reached the entrance of the Zheng family's Villa, Zheng Yan chased after him.

Before mo Yongheng could get into the car, she threw herself into his arms and hugged him tightly.

She raised her head and kissed him on his chin.

“What should I do? I can’t bear to see you leave. If you leave, I won’t be able to sleep. What should I do?”

“...”

Mo Yongheng’s eyes narrowed and a dark light flashed past his eyes. He glanced at the Zheng family’s Villa and said calmly,”

“Don’t close the windows when you sleep tonight. I’ll climb over the wall to accompany you. ”

Zheng Yan was speechless.

There’s such an operation?

Was he planning to sneak into her room in the dark, wipe his pants, and leave?

In your dreams!

She would not open the window for him.

Chapter 1608: I hope you’ll keep your pure heart forever!(4)

“Just pretend I didn’t say anything. I just came out to see you off. You can go now.”

Mo Yongheng was speechless.

In tan Bengbeng’s eyes, the sweet bickering between the two of them was a little strange, but also a little familiar.

It was unfamiliar because it was the first time she saw her brother being so down – to – Earth and trying to be with Zheng Yan, even climbing over walls.

It was familiar because she actually felt that the mo Yongheng at this moment looked very much like Qi Yan ...

Back then, when Qi Yan had been pestering her, he had also used all sorts of methods to stick to her at all costs.

He said that he wanted her to see him the moment she opened her eyes, to look at his good – looking face every day, and not look at anyone else. What a scheme ...

His twisted logic was always one set after another.

No matter what she said, she couldn’t win against him.

Tan Bengbeng got into the car in advance and left some space for the two people outside the car who were reluctant to part with her. She took out her cell phone from her pocket.

She had taken the phone back from mo Yongheng to cooperate with him.

Previously, she had been busy helping mo Yongheng to propose marriage and did not have the time to tell Qi Yan that she already had a phone.

Now that it was quiet, she suddenly missed him very much.

She wanted to see him.

She wanted to know what he was doing now and whether he was listening to her and taking good care of the old master.

Tan Bengbeng bit her lips and could not help but swipe open her phone screen.

She had just typed a message, but deleted it after thinking about it.

She held her phone and thought for a while. Then, she typed another message and sent it out before she regretted it.

As expected, she regretted it the moment she sent the message.

She actually felt uneasy because she missed Qi Yan.

She must be crazy!

What was even crazier was that after that text message was sent, she became even more restless. She kept staring at her phone, waiting for his reply.

However, after waiting for a long time, there was no response from her phone.

Even when Mo Yongheng returned to the car, Qi Yan still did not reply to her message.

Was he busy?

Tan Bengbeng hid her cell phone quietly and peeked at it from time to time on the way back.

She was in a daze the entire day as she did not receive a reply from Qi Yan.

The sky had just turned dark, and after dinner, she said that she was tired and wanted to go back to her room to sleep without taking a walk.

He entered his room, closed the door, and took out his phone to check his messages.

She flipped to the end and even read through the previous messages, but she did not see any reply from Qi Yan.

She bit her lip and was about to call him when she suddenly saw a black figure flash past her eyes from the corner of her eye.

“Who’s there?”

Tan Bengbeng’s vigilance soared instantly. Du Li was still at large and no one dared to be careless.

She put her phone in her pocket and walked toward the floor – to – Ceiling window on the balcony.

She carefully pressed herself against the edge of the glass window and pushed it open ...

In the dim light, she saw a figure standing in front of her, and a hand had already covered her mouth.

“Oh!”

Tan Bengbeng nerve a Rin, a foot just about to kick to that person's crotch, they heard a familiar voice in the ear.

"No, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no!"

Bengbeng:" ... Qi Yan?"

Tan avalanche see clearly before the person is really disappeared one day qiyan, at the same time also saw the bag in his hand.

Qiyan in front of her, the corner of her mouth with her familiar evil smile.

"It's me, Bengbeng, I'm here to take you away!"

Chapter 1609: You love me, don't you?

Tan Bengbeng was speechless.

Elope?

Who said she wanted to elope with him?

She had just acknowledged her brother and sister – in – Law. It was time for the family to reunite, but he was telling her to elope!

"If we don't leave, mo Yongheng will definitely not agree to let us be together. Listen to me, let's leave this place first and return to the island. There will only be the two of us there. There are also disguises around, so no one will find out. In a year or so, let's have a baby. By then, everything will be set in stone. Even if mo Yongheng doesn't agree, he will agree for the sake of the child!"

Qi Yan calculated happily.

He had hidden tan Bengbeng's pregnancy from her because he wanted to use the child to tie her down.

He did not expect an accident to happen.

If their first child was still around, mo Yongheng would definitely not object to them being together.

At the thought of this, Qi Yan wished he could rush into the prison and kill mo kun to be buried with their child!

However, now was not the time for revenge. Mo kun had broken the law, so he would be punished by the law. The most important thing for him now was to get a wife from his eldest brother – in – Law, who did not like him.

Qi Yan calmed down at the thought of this. He narrowed his devilish eyes and stared straight at tan Bengbeng.

She looked delicate.

"Bengbeng, you love me, right?"

Tan Bengbeng was speechless.

Tan Bengbeng said, "your expression makes me want to throw up the dinner I just had."

Qi Yan was speechless.

"If I tell you that I don't love you, will you leave on your own?"

"I won't." Qi Yan said without hesitation.

"Oh, then I don't love you." Tan Bengbeng blinked her eyes and replied calmly.

Qi Yan was speechless.

His heart was broken.

It shattered like glass.

Was there anything more despairing than this in life?

He came to find his wife and eloped with her, but his wife told him that she didn't love him.

What was the point of him living?

"Bengbeng, look at my eyes, can you see the tears in them? Mo Yongheng will definitely not agree to us being together. Desperate times call for desperate measures. As long as our husband has a child, he will definitely agree!"

Qi Yan threw the bag in his hand down and reached out to hold tan Bengbeng's hand as he spoke sincerely.

He had mentioned the child twice in a row, and tan Bengbeng was instantly reminded of the baby that she had already lost.

It was gone before she even knew it existed ...

Her eyes darkened slightly and she was about to lower her head when Qi Yan reached out and pinched her chin, forcing her to look him in the eye.

Tan Bengbeng glanced at him and said coldly.

"I didn't see any tears, but I did see the eye wax in your eyes."

Qi Yan was speechless.

Qi Yan quickly reached out to wipe his eyes.

Tan Bengbeng could not help but smile when she saw how nervous he was.

Her heart started to beat faster.

She didn't see any tears in his eyes just now, but she saw herself in his eyes ... His eyes were full of her.

However, when her gaze shifted to the bag by his feet, she couldn't help but put a hand on her forehead.

Eloping, only he could think of that!

Just as tan Bengbeng was hesitating on how to convince him to go back first, she suddenly heard some sounds coming from outside the door. After listening carefully, she realized that it was the sound of footsteps.

There were no servants in this villa. Other than her, mo Yongheng was the only one left.

Tan Bengbeng's nerves tensed up when she realized this!

"I think my brother is here."

"What?!"

Qi Yan's expression changed. He picked up his bag and turned around, preparing to climb over the wall again.

Chapter 1610: I'm finished, I'm going to die~

Tan Bengbeng grabbed him.

"It's too dangerous to jump down from this height. Brother won't stay in my room for too long. You can hide in the closet first and come out after he leaves."

Just as tan Bengbeng finished speaking, there was a knock on the door.

Mo Yongheng's voice rang out from outside the door and she hurriedly reminded Qi Yan to hide before walking over to open the door.

When she walked to the door, she turned back to take a look. She only opened the door with relief when she did not see Qi Yan.

"Brother, it's so late, why aren't you asleep yet? Are you worried about sister – in – Law?"

Tan Bengbeng blocked the door and did not allow mo Yongheng to enter her room.

"Yes, I do miss her a little. I just realized that it's getting late. I saw that the light in your room was still on, so I wanted to remind you to go to bed early." Mo Yongheng stood at the door in his home clothes. He wore a pair of black – rimmed glasses, which was a rare sight, and he looked like a scholar.

He didn't look like a high – Level executive of a Corporation, but more like a scientific researcher.

His eyes were sharp.

He asked slowly.

"I think I heard someone talking in your room. What happened?"

"..."

Tan Bengbeng's body stiffened and for a moment, she subconsciously stood in front of mo Yongheng, not giving him a chance to look inside.

When she realized what she had done, she quickly stepped aside with a guilty conscience.

"Brother must have heard wrong. There's no one in my room. No one is talking."

“Impossible. I heard it very clearly just now. It was a man’s voice. It’s better to check it.” As Mo Yongheng spoke, he pushed the door open and was about to walk in.

Tan Bengbeng quickly reached out to stop him.

She pursed her lips nervously.

“Brother, I’m a secret guard. How can I not sense if there’s anyone in my room? I’m really fine. I’m a little sleepy, so I’m going to sleep.” Tan Bengbeng yawned as she spoke, proving that she was really sleepy.

Mo Yongheng stopped in his tracks and seemed to think that what she said made sense. He nodded and turned to leave.

After taking two steps, he turned back.

“Bengbeng, you seem especially nervous tonight.”

Tan Bengbeng was speechless.

“Could it be that you’re really hiding someone in your room that you don’t want your brother to know about?” As Mo Yongheng said this, he narrowed his eyes and strode into the room as if he had thought of something.

He pushed open the bathroom door.

He looked around but didn’t see it.

She walked to the balcony and pulled open the curtains.

“Big brother ...”

Tan Bengbeng snapped back to her senses and hurriedly chased after him.

“There’s nothing on this balcony. There’s no way to hide anyone. You’re overthinking it. I’m really tired, so I want to sleep.”

“Is that so?”

Mo Yongheng looked at her suspiciously.

Just as he was about to leave, he caught a glimpse of footprints on the balcony railing from the corner of his eye. His pupils shrank.

Tan Bengbeng followed his gaze and saw the footprint. Her heart skipped a beat.

Before she could say anything, Mo Yongheng had already walked past her and headed straight for the only wardrobe that could hide someone ...

He grabbed the door of the closet with both hands and cast a sidelong glance at the pale – faced Tan Bengbeng.

He slowly opened his mouth.

“I’ll ask you again. Is there really no one hiding in your room?”

Tan Bengbeng was speechless.

“Brother, actually, I ...” Just as tan Bengbeng was hesitating whether she should confess, mo Yongheng’s face had already darkened as he reached out and pulled open the cabinet door forcefully!
