

My Life 2291

Chapter 2291: Ding! Death warning from father-in-law (31)

She pursed her lips and was about to break the silence when Brahman's phone suddenly rang.

In the car, his ringtone was echoing. It was her favorite song.

His ringtone seemed to have never been changed. Ever since she could remember, it had always been this song. It had been so long that Fanny could not tell if it was because he used it as a ringtone because she liked it, or if it was because he liked it, so she liked it too..

"Help me answer it." Fan fan held the steering wheel with both hands and said calmly.

His phone was connected to the car's stereo. Fanny heard what he said and quickly reached out to answer the phone for him.

Before she could look at the caller ID on the phone screen, she heard Zhong Rui Shu's voice coming from the phone.

"Where have you been? Are you going back to the hospital?"

"..."

Fanny's body stiffened. She slowly retracted her hand and sat quietly in her seat. A hint of disappointment flashed across her lowered eyes.

Then, she tried to take a deep breath to prevent her emotions from showing on her face.

However, her ears still perked up involuntarily, waiting for Fanny's reply.

"It's raining. Xiao Ni doesn't have an umbrella with her. I'll send her back first. I'll be back soon."

After fan fan finished speaking, the other end of the phone went silent for a second. Zhong Rui Shu seemed to be stunned. When she came back to her senses, she quickly replied, "Okay." She also reminded him to be careful on the road and not to rush over. Safety first.

When fan ni heard these words, her heart felt like it was being stabbed again.

Zhong Rui Shu was actually very nice. She could feel that Zhong Rui Shu had a very good personality. She looked gentle and weak, and she had a good temperament. She was more worthy of fan fan than a wild girl like her.

Now that she heard Zhong Rui Shu's concern for fan fan, Fanny felt that compared to Zhong Rui Shu, she was like a child who would never grow up. She could only let others worry about her.

It was no wonder that he did not like her like this.

She suddenly felt a little disgusted with herself.

"It's not safe for you to stay in a hotel alone in City A. Uncle Mo and the others are also here. I'll send you to his place. Your two sisters will be very happy to see you." Fan Fan drove the car to the main road and opened his thin lips slightly.

Fanny was stunned. She looked up and her eyes were clear. She no longer looked as depressed as before.

“I’m not going to Uncle Mo’s house. Qi Qi is in the hospital and his house is empty. I’m going to stay at his place. I heard that he has five dogs. I can help him take care of his dogs.”

“You take care of dogs?” Fan Fan’s brows were furrowed and his face was filled with disapproval.

Fanny puffed up her cheeks. “What’s the meaning of that expression? Don’t look down on me. Although I’ve never raised a dog before, I can still help take care of the dog for a few days.”

“...”fan fan glanced at her and chose to remain silent.

The car turned around and drove towards Tang Qianqi’s residence in City A.

Tang Qianqi’s house was not considered luxurious, but the location and layout were very good.

The small house had a courtyard facing the sun. It was not big, but it was decorated warmly and brightly.

Unfortunately... it had been ruined by the excavator. Now, it looked like the courtyard was in ruins.

In order to let the dogs take a walk in the courtyard, Yu Liuliu immediately ordered people to repair the gate and the fence of the courtyard. Although it did not look that bad, it still looked a bit desolate after being severely damaged..

In addition, Tang Qianqi didn’t arrange any servants to take care of the dogs. Since Fanny lived here, it meant that she had to take care of not only herself, but also the five dogs.

Chapter 2292: Ding! Death warning from father-in-law (32)

Can She Do It?

“I’ll send you to Uncle Mo’s place...” just as fan fan opened his mouth to speak, Fanny had already pushed open the car door and got out of the car. She returned the coat she was wearing to him and carried her backpack as she walked inside.

“Fanny!” Fan fan frowned and shouted.

Fanny did not turn her head. She waved her hand behind her back and stood still at the main door. She bent down and took out a key from the crack of the door.

This was the place where Yu Liuliu had told her to hide the key in advance.

Fan Ni took the key and quickly opened the door to enter. She closed the door behind her, blocking fan fan’s line of sight.

Fan Fan pushed open the car door and wanted to go in to take a look. However, he realized that the door was already locked and he was still unable to enter.

This girl..

Did she think that a door like this would be able to stop him?

Fan Fan was just about to climb over the wall when his cell phone in his pocket rang again.

He took out his cell phone and glanced at the caller ID. When he saw that it was fan yu calling, his eyes lit up and he quickly picked up the call.

“Dad.”

“Xiao Ni went to city a, did you know?” Fan Yu’s slightly anxious voice came from the cell phone.

Fan fan raised his head and looked at the door in front of him. He told the truth, “I just found out and I’ve already seen her. She’s doing very well now.” It was just that her temper was still as stubborn as ever, and no one could do anything about it.

Fan Fan did not say the last sentence, but fan yu could hear his helplessness.

He teased with a smile.

“At first, I was worried that she would run out and get cheated. It seems that she only missed you. She knew that you were in city a, so she ran to city A to look for you to play. With you, her brother, taking care of her, I’m very relieved.”

“...”

“Oh right, forget about the rest. Xiao Ni has a wild personality and has listened to you since she was young. You have to keep a close eye on her and make sure that she doesn’t fall in love at a young age. Once she finds out that something is wrong, be it those that she knows or those that she doesn’t, give her a beating First!” “I just heard that Xiao Liulu was cheated away by Tang Qianqi. It’s really heartbreaking to hear it, and I even made a phone call to mock Yu Yuehan. Don’t let me be slapped in the face right away. Xiao Ni is still young and she definitely can not fall in love so early!”

Fan Yu warned Chunchun.

“I got it.” Fan fan held his phone and did not tell fan yu that fan ni had locked herself out of the door just a second before he called.

The last thing she wanted to hear right now was what he had to say.

“How are you getting along with the little girl from the Zhong Family?” “Although this marriage was arranged by the elders, I have seen that little girl from the Zhong family before. She has a good temperament and treats people well. She just doesn’t like to talk much. I see that you have been tortured by little ni quite badly and you don’t like it when it’s too noisy. So when you heard that the girl arranged by your great-grandfather is a gentle and obedient girl, you agreed on your behalf. Do you still get along well?”

After fan Yu was done caring for his daughter, he did not forget to take care of his son.

Speaking of which, among his brothers, Fan Yu probably had a son, and his son was especially caring.

Since he was young, he would never spoil his plans, and the relationship between the father and son had always been good.

He did not neglect his son just because he cared about his daughter.

“Zhong Rui Shu is very well, we are dating now.” Fan Fan hesitated for a second and said faintly.

Fan Yu believed him, he smiled happily. “Your great-grandfather has always been worried that you might be suffering from some hidden illness. Now, it seems that you haven’t met the right person. If you have time to tell him the good news, he will definitely be very happy.”

“Yes, I will.” Fan Fan chatted with Fan Yu for a while more before he hung up.

Chapter 2293: Ding! Death warning from father-in-law (33)

In just a few minutes, his body seemed to be in a cast and was very stiff.

His hands that were hanging down were tightly clutching the phone in his hand. If someone were to open his hands at this moment, they would find that his palms were already full of sweat.

The light in his eyes was extremely complicated.

His emotions were all suppressed in his heart. He took a few steps back and raised his head to look at the courtyard in front of him again.

He could easily climb over that short courtyard wall with just a light leap.

But at this moment, it looked like a mountain that he would never be able to climb over.

The first thing Fanny did when she walked into the house was to throw her backpack on the ground. Then, she walked to the sofa in the living room and sat down.

Her posture was standard, like a primary school student who was about to be examined by a teacher.

Her eyes were fixed on the direction of the door, as if someone would come in the next second.

One minute passed.

Two minutes passed.

After waiting for a full ten minutes, it was still so quiet outside the door that no sound could be heard.

As a result, the house was exceptionally quiet.

Only the five dogs in the kennel were staring at her as if they were wary of strangers. Hachi even revealed his canine teeth and let out a low “Woo Woo” sound.

The four puppies all followed their mother and stood up from the kennel in unison.

When Fanny walked up, poured dog food into the bowl and called their names one by one, the attitude of the five puppies changed.

Although they did not say that they were close to her, they were at least friendlier.

Fanny followed the way Yu Liulu had taught her and got familiar with eight and the four puppies. At last, she was no longer ostracized.

When she came back to her senses, half an hour had passed.

Fanny thought of something and turned to the door. She opened the door and looked out of the yard.

The car that had sent her back had long disappeared.

The person she liked had also left.

He did not come in..

He even said that he was worried that she would not be able to take care of herself, so he did not even want to come in to take a look.

Fanny sniffed, trying to suppress the sourness in her heart. She closed the door again, turned around, and walked to the kennel. She looked at Hachi, who was eating dog food, and said indignantly.

“Men are all hypocrites. They say one thing, but they are actually doing another thing. I will never believe their words in the future!”

“Woof, Woof!”

Hachi ignored her, but little twelve thought that his mother had been yelled at, so he barked at her twice.

Fanny:”...”

She was really a fool. She was a fool, but she still had to bring her dog along.

What did they know.

She actually hoped that the dog could comfort her.

“I’m going to take a shower. From tomorrow onwards, I’ll be independent and self-reliant. I’ll forget about these scumbags!”Fanny secretly set up a flag. She turned around and picked up her backpack that she had thrown on the ground. She found the guest room and locked herself in the bathroom.

The sound of water soon came from the bathroom.

It had been ringing for a very, very long time..

When Fanny opened the bathroom door again, she was only wearing a bathrobe. Her long hair was wet and casually draped over her shoulders.

Her cheeks had been flushing for a long time, and they were a little pale.

Her eyes were frighteningly red.

It was obvious that she had cried, but her emotions had already calmed down. She would even go to the kitchen to pour water for herself. After drinking it in one gulp, she suddenly remembered something very important.

She put down the cup and walked to the front of the kennel.

The five dogs had not showered for a long time and looked a little dirty. Yu Liulu specifically asked her to help the dogs bathe, but she would not..

At this moment, her phone rang.

Fanny walked back to the sofa and took a look at her phone. It was a call from Fanny.

She hesitated for a few seconds and picked up!

– Fanny

Chapter 2294: Ding! Death warning from father-in-law (34)

“Brother,” Fanny called out.

“Are you used to living alone? If you regret it now, I can pick you up now and send you to Uncle Mo’s house.” On the other end of the phone, Fanny’s indifferent voice sounded.

At first glance, it sounded like she was mocking Fanny.

After all, she was seventeen years old, not seven years old. How could she not even know the basic life skills.

But Fani knew that he was not mocking her.

Ever since she was young, with fan Yu as her daughter’s lover and fan fan as her sister’s lover, Fani was a typical bully in the fan family.

She was the King!

She did not need to do anything she wanted, eat or drink.

Fan fan would always take care of her.

Over time, she seemed to have gotten used to his care.

In fact, when she was very, very young, Fanny knew that fan fan was not her biological brother.

Fan Fan had told her this himself.

It was the spring festival, and all the houses were brightly lit. Every house had couplets and colored lights hanging outside their doors.

At night, when she stood in the yard, she could see the sky full of fireworks when she looked up. They were dazzling.

She was just a little girl then. She sat on the grass in the courtyard and leaned against his chest. She was not looking at the fireworks, but complaining to him that when her father went out in the morning, he only kissed her mother and did not kiss her little face, did he not love her anymore.

Fan fan indulged her very much and listened to her muttering quietly.

She could not remember how long she talked. She only remembered that when she looked up, she saw his lost and lost face.

His dark eyes were like beautiful obsidian, staring at her without blinking.

Seeing that she was stunned, he even reached out to touch her head and told her seriously, "Daddy will love you, and so will mommy."

"Daddy and Mommy also love brother!" She thought that fan fan's disappointment was because she thought that Daddy and Mommy Loved Her more than they loved him, so she said it very obediently.

Who knew that fan fan would hear her words? He lowered his eyes and answered softly, "Yes, I know."

She did not like to see her brother unhappy. Just as she was about to coax him, fan fan suddenly asked, "If I wasn't your biological brother, would you still be like this? Would you still like your brother?"

"I do!" She answered without thinking.

At that time, she still did not understand the difference between a "Biological brother" and a "Brother". She thought that since her brother loved her so much, of course she would like him.

The next morning, in order to figure it out, she went to ask her mother if her brother would leave them if he was not her biological brother. She could not bear to see her brother leave.

After she asked that question, she saw her mother's expression change.

Then, she saw her brother who came out of the room and was stunned behind them..

From that moment on, she understood that she had accumulated good karma in her previous life, which was why she had such a good brother in this life.

Speaking of which, she was really like a child raised by her brother.

"I just finished bathing and was about to help the dogs bathe." Fanny stared at the five dogs in front of her and said as if nothing had happened.

It sounded like she was taking good care of herself.

"You're helping the dogs? Do you need help?" Fanny asked incredulously.

Fanny almost could not contain herself when she heard his concern. Suddenly, she thought of Zhong Rui Shu, who was waiting for him at the hospital.

He had a girlfriend to take care of now. She needed to learn how to take care of herself.

"No need. I'll go back to work."

Fanny hung up the phone in a hurry. When she looked up, she saw five pairs of dog eyes filled with distrust when they heard that she was going to help bathe..

Chapter 2295: You are the best gift (1)

Fanny's heart sank.

She was really not that bad. Her IQ was very high, but she lacked some practical experience.

Fanny put down her phone, cleared her voice, and mustered up the courage to communicate with the dogs.

“Well, although this is my first time, I have checked the procedures for bathing the dogs, and I guarantee that I will give you a bath. Which one of you is willing to go first?”

“...”

The five dogs didn't know if they understood what they were saying, but none of them made a sound. They all took a step back at the same time and stuck to the edge of the kennel.

They stared vigilantly at Fanny, who was about to reach out her “Devil's Claw” at any moment.

“You're the youngest, so it's up to you.” Fanny ignored the collective disdain of the dogs and hugged the youngest, twelve.

Pick the soft persimmon and pinch it.

Twelve was the smallest, so it was definitely the easiest to wash.

“Woof Woof!”

Eighty was gentle. Seeing that Fanny was only carrying twelve and did not hurt it, it barked twice and quieted down.

Although it was unwilling to let its dog baby be carried away, it still followed Fanny closely.

At first, twelve struggled a little, but Fanny smoothed its fur. Immediately, it shamelessly snuggled into her arms and raised its head to lick her chin.

Fanny immediately smiled proudly.

Sixth sister really didn't lie to her. Little twelve was the most shameless and cute, so it was the easiest to get along with him.

Fanny carried the dogs into the private bathroom. The four little puppies were still young, so they could use a bathtub.

There was a small bathtub specially prepared for them by Tang Qianqi in the bathroom. Fanny poured water into the bathtub as she recalled the steps mentioned in the guide for bathing dogs.

She avoided the dog's eyes and protected its ears. Then, she put little twelve into the bathtub and wetted him before giving him a dog-specific shower gel..

“I'm such a genius!”

Fanny could not help but sigh when she saw little twelve, who was so comfortable that his eyes were half-closed. He asked her to help him bathe.

This was the first time she had helped a dog bathe, and it was so perfect.

Her brother had underestimated her. He was actually worried that she would not be able to handle it alone. She really should have asked him to come over just now and let her see her excellent operation. He would definitely be dazzled!

Fanny finished scrubbing twelve. She was just about to carry him out of the bathtub and rinse him with running water. She didn't expect that when she picked up twelve, little eight, who was waiting at the side, thought that it was his turn to wash. He kicked his leg and.., jumped into the bathtub.

"Splash –"

The bubble water that filled the bathtub splashed all over Fanny's body.

There was also a ball of foam that splashed on top of her head, fluttering in the wind... it slowly turned into water and flowed down from her forehead..

Fanny was stunned.

Eighty, who had done something wrong, was also stunned. Its big body was squatting in the small bathtub. Its head looked left and right as if it was wondering why the bathtub could not fit it.

The worst thing was that this time, eighty had led the few puppies behind it astray.

All of them were flailing around the bathtub, trying to climb into the bathtub.

"It's not your turn yet. You guys wait first. I have to come one by one. Don't be like this..."Fanny held twelve, who had not been washed clean yet. She did not have time to change into her wet clothes and hurriedly maintained order.

She wanted to chase the three little dogs out of the bathroom first, but eighty was squatting in the bathtub. How could the three little dogs leave?

Fanny was careless, and twelve jumped out of her hand. Just as he stood firm on the ground, he immediately shook the dog's head and then his body again..

Fanny was shocked!

Chapter 2296: You are the best gift (2)

"Wait..."she had just opened her mouth when it was already too late. Little twelve shook the floor full of foam and also gave her a mouth shake.

"Bah! Bah! Bah!"Fanny spat out the foam that floated into her mouth and looked at the messy five dogs in the bathroom. Her face was full of despair.

"Ding Dong!"

The doorbell rang.

Who Was It?

Fanny's heart was filled with doubt. Then, she thought, could it be that Yu Liuliu was worried about her bathing the dogs alone, so he came back to visit her with Mercy?

Fanny happily took a tissue and wiped her face casually. She turned around and ran out of the bathroom, running straight to the door.

She opened the door forcefully. "Sister Liuliu, the dog that you and Qi Qi raised is too naughty. I'm alone..."

Fanny's words were choked when she saw that it was Fanny standing outside the door.

She widened her eyes in a daze and looked at the person who suddenly appeared at the door.

"Brother, why are you here?"

"..."

Fanny was silent as she looked her up and down. Then, her gaze fell on the bathroom door and looked at the five dogs that had followed her out because of her.

One of the puppies was still wet, and there was foam on its body that had not been washed properly.

Its mother was half wet. When she ran out of the bathroom door, her body shook and water droplets fell all over the floor. The puppies behind her slipped and fell..

They were about to run onto the sofa.

The scene was really messy.

"Lil'eight, wait a minute. You Can't get on the sofa like this!"Fanny was so scared that she rushed forward and hugged Lil'eight tightly.

However, she could hold Lil'eight, but she could not hold the four little dogs behind Lil'eight.

Especially Lil'twelve who was still covered in foam. Wherever he went, it would be the scene of the disaster.

Just as Fanny was at a loss, Fanny had already walked to the kennel. She reached out to open the cabinet next to her and took out a pack of dog snacks from it.

The bone-shaped biscuits were cute and smelled delicious. They were the favorite of dogs.

When they smelled it, not only the four little puppies, but Hachi also struggled out of Fanny's arms and ran to Fanny, wagging his tail at him.

"You have no moral integrity!"Fanny looked at the five dogs that he had tamed in one second and was so angry that she cursed in her heart.

It was just some dog biscuits. She had just fed them dog food. Why were they wagging their tails at her? Why were they so angry at her?

"Which one did you take a bath with?"Fanny steadied the five dogs and looked sideways at Fanny.

He was not wearing a suit, but only a white sportswear. However, his tall and straight body stood beside the kennel, and he still had the air of a leader.

Before Fanny had time to think, her mouth had already answered automatically, "I only washed twelve. When I was Flushing, eighty went into the bathtub to cause trouble."

She did not say which dog twelve was. Fanny glanced at the five dogs in front of her and already got the answer.

Fanny handed the dog biscuit in her hand to her, her thin lips slightly opened.

“Dogs can’t eat too many dog biscuits at once. You feed them, control the rhythm, and try to play with them. I’ll go and help this little one finish bathing.”

“...”

Fanny held the dog biscuits in her arms. When she looked up, Fanny had already carried twelve into the bathroom.

Soon, the sound of water came from inside.

She touched her nose and stood where she was, whispering, “I can actually handle it. I didn’t ask for your help. You were the one who insisted on helping me. Don’t laugh at me for not being able to handle a few dogs later.”

Chapter 2297: You are the best gift (3)

Fanfan really has a way.

From his appearance, Fani’s status was instantly reduced to assistant, watching him take the dogs one by one into the bathroom, wash them one by one, take them out of the bathroom, and hand them to her, teach her how to help the dog blow-dry.

He washed one, she blew-dry one, the two of them worked very well together.

After half a day, the four little puppies and their mother had all been washed. They were lying on the ground with their eyes closed and stretched comfortably.

“Achoo –”

Fanny suddenly sneezed and rubbed her nose. She suddenly remembered that she had forgotten to change her clothes after being wet by Hachi.

After wearing it for so long, it was almost dry.

She seemed to have caught a cold..

She had been busy blowing the dog’s fur and had not noticed it. Now that she had stopped, she suddenly felt a chill coming from her body.

Remembering that Fanny was still there, Fanny was worried that she would be scolded. She subconsciously pretended that nothing had happened and reached out to pick up Lil’twelve who was lying on the ground.

She stroked its little head and looked at Fanny with a smile.

“I didn’t expect them to be so good-looking after they were cleaned. Don’t you think it looks like a little fox with such a special fur color?”

“Oh right, I forgot to ask. Why did you suddenly come here?”

“Thank you for your help. Eighty and the puppies have already showered. If you have anything to do, you can leave first...”

Before Fanny could finish her last sentence, a coat had already covered her head.

Her vision went black and she was shocked.

She hurriedly pulled the coat off her head and found that it was Fanny’s coat.

His body temperature was still on the coat.

Fanny was stunned. She held the coat in her hand and looked up at him in a daze.

When she met his angry eyes, she felt so guilty that she couldn’t say anything.

“Put on your clothes and take a hot bath. I’ll Cook a bowl of Ginger Soup for you,” Fanny said in a low voice. A trace of self-blame flashed across her eyes.

She seemed to be blaming herself for being careless and not noticing that her clothes were wet at the first moment.

“I’m not actually feeling bad,” Fani muttered as she stared at his back.

Just as she finished speaking, she sneezed again.

This time, without waiting for Fanfan to look back at her, she had already turned around quickly and returned to her room.

After she finished showering, she changed into a set of clothes and came out. In the living room, there were only five dogs strolling around like a king patrolling his territory.

On the dining table, there was a bowl of hot ginger soup.

There seemed to be a note under the bowl.

Fanny walked forward, took out the note and glanced at it.

It was fan fan’s handwriting.

He had been practicing good calligraphy with fan yu since he was young. The handwriting on the pen looked like it was written in calligraphy, and it was very lively.

There was only one simple sentence: drink all the ginger soup.

It was an indisputable tone.

“The real culprit.” Fanny stuck out her tongue and picked up the ginger soup in front of her.

She did not like the taste of Ginger. She always felt that ginger tasted exactly the same as a certain Chinese medicine formula. Fan Fan knew that she did not like it, so he had specially left her such a note.

Fanny pinched her nose and took a sip.

She stuck out her tongue in discomfort.

She could not stand the smell anymore. She turned around and searched the living room. Finally, she went to the kitchen to make sure that Fanny had left. A hint of disappointment flashed across her eyes.

She then looked down at the ginger soup in her hand. Suddenly, a hint of resentment appeared in her eyes. She only took a sip and pretended that she had finished it. She put the bowl into the sink and added water..

Chapter 2298: You are the best gift (4)

“Achoo!”

Fanny sneezed as soon as she walked out of the kitchen.

She bent down and picked up twelve, who had run to her feet. She rubbed its little head and asked, “Why didn’t you catch a cold when you were running around wet?”

“...”twelve licked her chin attentively and wagged its tail as a sign of goodwill. Both of its eyes were filled with the desire to eat snacks.

“No, why should I drink medicine? You can eat snacks, no!”Fanny carried him to the sofa and sat down. She grabbed the remote control and turned on the television.

She said that she would not give him snacks, but in the end, she gave little twelve snacks that he could eat.

As she fed the dog, she wondered what Fanny was doing in such a hurry to leave.

It was so late. He must have gone to pick up Zhong Rui Shu, right?

Since they were in a romantic relationship, they would probably have dinner together.

What about after dinner?

A movie date or going home..

As fan ni thought about it, she did not know if she was feeling unwell or not. She sniffled, put twelve down, and turned around to go back to her room.

She got into bed and wrapped herself up tightly. Not a single strand of her hair was exposed.

She even received a phone call midway.

It was from her classmate Lin Haolin. He asked her if she wanted to study abroad after her college entrance exam.

They were members of a practice group. Although Fanny had been well protected by her father and brother since she was young, she was not spoiled at all in school.

She had excellent academic results, and she had done her homework well. She also spoke fluent English.

Before the college entrance examination, many foreign schools had already offered her an olive branch.

Lin Haolin asked her if she wanted to go abroad, but it wasn't a casual question. They were both "Rich second generation", so Lin Haolin was a veritable underachiever. He was a burden in Fanny's practice group.

But his family was really well-off, and he was the only child in his generation. He was even more golden than a golden lump.

The blessings accumulated by his ancestors were all enjoyed by Lin Haolin.

If he wanted to study abroad, his family could donate a huge sum of money to the school and arrange for him to get out.

He and Fanny were simply the two extremes of the "Rich second generation"!

When Fanny was in the practice group, she was often angered by him to the point of blowing her beard and glaring at her.

At this moment, she was feeling uncomfortable when she received a call from him, he was not polite at all. "Lin Haolin, look at your smug face with the blessing of your ancestors. Don't you feel ashamed? "If you have the ability to get a place to study abroad, come and ask me this question again. I might tell you when I'm in a good mood."

"Don't be like this. If you have money, you don't have to use it. Why do you need to go through so much trouble..."

Before Lin Haolin could finish his words, Fanny could no longer listen and hung up on him.

Worried that he would call again, she muted her phone and threw it to the side.

When she was half-asleep, she seemed to hear footsteps outside.

But then she thought about it. She was the only one in the house now. Where did the footsteps come from? It must be the dogs' movements.

Fanny felt a little warm on her body. She turned around and kicked away the blanket, then went back to sleep.

While she was half-asleep, she seemed to hear someone talking to her.

She tried her best to open her eyes, but her eyelids were so heavy that she could not open them. Her body was also on fire, so hot that she could not help but pull at her clothes.

Fanny did not realize that her half-opened clothes were exposed in the eyes of Fanny, who was about to feed her fever medicine. What kind of stimulation was that!

Chapter 2299: You are the best gift (5)

"Fan Xiaoni, don't move!" Fan fan cursed under his breath and reached out to hold her hand that was tearing her clothes.

She had a fever, not because she had worn too much. What was the use of tearing her clothes?

"Hot..." fan fan's reminder received a reply.

He was stunned. He looked up and saw that the person on the bed had woken up. She was staring at him with a pair of innocent eyes, as if asking him why he did not take off her clothes when she was hot.

Sanskrit.

She grabbed her arm and helped her up. "Open your mouth and take the Fever Medicine."

"Who are you? You look a little like my brother, but you are much more fierce than him. My brother has never been willing to be fierce to me." Fanny stretched out a finger and poked his handsome face. Her elk-like eyes were filled with innocence.

She was sincerely complaining. Fanny wanted to cooperate with him and smile, but she could not.

Was He very fierce now?

He had only left for an hour and bought some things nearby. When he came back, he found that she had poured out the ginger soup and covered herself with the blanket. Shouldn't he be angry?

"The more you look at me, the more you look like my brother. Handsome, is it convenient for me to ask your name? Leave a contact number or something. It's fate that we meet. We'll keep in touch in the future... Mmm!"

Fanny's flirtatious words were covered up by fan fan's fever medicine.

She did not have time to defend herself and almost choked on the Fever Medicine. She took the cup from fan fan's hand and gulped down the entire cup.

Then, she returned the cup to fan fan, her eyes widened. "How are you? I was just talking to you when you suddenly fed me something and almost choked me to death... Oh right, what did you feed me? The taste is a little bitter."

"Poison." Fan fan remembered that she was sick and still had the mood to ask for contact information from a strange man. His face darkened as he got up and was about to leave.

Fanny lay in bed, still a little confused.

She stared at his back and shouted, "Hey, where are you going? I'm going to be poisoned later. Can you call an ambulance for me? My parents love me very much. If I die, they will definitely be very sad."

Fan Fan: "..."

He wanted to use a pillow to suffocate this retard so that his parents would not die of anger.

"Why is this person not speaking again? Is there something wrong with his brain? What a waste of a handsome face..." Fanny was still mumbling behind him. Fan Fan took a deep breath and tried his best to stay calm.

He turned around and walked back to the bed. He stretched out his hand and pressed her back onto the bed.

"Lie down and don't move. If I see you getting off the bed later, you'll be hungry."

“Handsome, how old are you? You talk like a little old man and you like to threaten people. Do you want to add me on wechat? I’ll introduce you to a partner who will definitely be compatible with you. He’s my brother... Ouch!”

Fanny’s head was pressed down by the pillow.

She pushed the pillow away and there was no one in front of her.

She smacked her lips and thought that she was dreaming. She rolled up the blanket and continued to sleep.

Outside the door.

Fan Fan’s handsome face was covered with layers of haze.

His ears were slightly red from a certain someone’s teasing. It was hard to tell if it was because of the teasing or because of the anger.

The person who was clearly in a daze with a high fever was fan ni. At that moment, his chest was so stuffy that he could not breathe. He tugged at the collar of his shirt in frustration.

He never thought that in his heart, he was an existence like a little old man.

He did not like to talk, had a problem with his brain, and liked to threaten people... her evaluation of him really made him “Surprised”!

Chapter 2300: You are the best present

Van Gogh walked into the living room and looked at the five dogs who were sleeping in the kennel after eating and drinking. His eyes flashed.

She had arranged the dogs well, but how come they didn’t know how to take care of themselves?

He cooked the ginger soup and couldn’t find the spare cold medicine in the room. He looked at the empty kitchen and thought that if he didn’t buy any food, he would have to order takeout for dinner.

So, he left a note for her, reminding her to finish the ginger soup and go out to buy medicine and ingredients.

But when he came back..

The person who was fine before he left had already been burned into a “Little lunatic”.

He only knew how to speak nonsense.

With his ability to take care of himself, he still dared to say that he could do it alone in front of him.

Fan fan rubbed the space between his eyebrows as he felt a headache. He walked into the kitchen to deal with the ingredients he had just bought.

Fan Ni had not eaten dinner. If she slept like this, she would definitely wake up hungry in the middle of the night.

Fan fan took out the fish and prepared to stew it. Just as he was about to put the ingredients into the pot to stew, his phone rang.

He glanced at the screen and picked up the call.

“Are you done?” It was Zhong Rui Shu’s voice.

Fan fan stared at the fish soup that was not ready yet. He thought of the little lunatic in the room who had been burnt to a crisp. The corners of his lips curled up into a self-deprecating smile. “I’m afraid it won’t be that soon. I’m sorry to have let you take a taxi home alone today.”

“It’s alright. Is Fanny Alright? I heard from your tone on the phone just now that she seemed to be sick?” Zhong Rui Shu asked concernedly.

Fan fan sighed and did not avoid the question. “She caught a cold. She’s a little feverish now. I’ll have to stay behind to take care of her for the next two days.”

“I understand. I’ll tell the elders at home that you’ve been busy with work for the next two days. I also have to hand in an assignment, so I don’t have time for a date,” Zhong Rui Shu said considerately.

Fan fan replied, “Thank you.”

Zhong Rui Shu smiled graciously. “You don’t have to be so polite. Didn’t we agree to help each other out? I’ll look forward to your guidance once my drawing is done.”

“Alright.” Fan fan smiled. After confirming that Zhong Rui Shu was fine, he hung up the phone.

Just as he was about to put his phone on the shelf next to him, he suddenly felt that something was not right behind him.

He turned his head and saw that the person who was supposed to be sleeping on the bed had somehow floated behind him. She was blinking her eyes and staring at him.

Fan Fan’s heart skipped a beat.

He was not sure how much fan ni had heard just now and how much she had understood.

Just as he frowned slightly, he saw that she was stepping on the cold tile floor barefooted. He immediately frowned and walked forward.

“Didn’t I tell you not to get out of bed and wait for me on the bed?”

The sudden anger shocked Fanny. Her red face turned pale.

Fanny was annoyed.

She softened her tone, “Why didn’t you wear your shoes when you came out?”

Fanny licked her lips and finally found her voice, “I’m thirsty. I want to get up and have a glass of water...”

Fanny’s voice was trembling.

She was still in a daze.

Her mind was trying to figure out if the person in front of her was a dream or if it was real.

If this was real, then what about what she saw in her dream?

It was the one she had flirted with earlier..

Fanny swallowed hard. She wanted to ask something, but when she saw Fanny's expressionless face, she felt that it was more important to save her life.

She decided to play dumb.

She turned around and ran back to her room, closing the door with a bang.

The second she got into bed, she suddenly remembered that she had gotten up to drink water, but she hadn't had it yet..
