

My Life 2391

Chapter 2391: The super genius lurking around (1)

“All of you kids nowadays think that getting into a prestigious university is the end of it. Let me tell you, once you enter society, you’ll know...”

Old Ji was still rambling on, but Yu MUYANG had already memorized what he had said.

Because Old Ji had repeated the same words at least a few hundred times since the start of school.

The students in the class seemed to be used to such situations. A few of the students by the window started to gossip.

Someone asked, “What kind of background do you think Yu MUYANG has? A scumbag actually managed to get into K University. I heard that he actually scored 52 points on his first professional test after transferring here. He didn’t even pass the passing line. Do you guys believe it?”

“Is that for real? If he didn’t pass his professional class, he shouldn’t be able to transfer here so easily. How did he get in? K University is famous for its strict rules. From the looks of it, he doesn’t seem to have any impressive background.”

“Who knows? He goes to class every day and sleeps. After class, he runs even faster than a rabbit. If I didn’t see Old Ji constantly chasing after him and scolding him, I wouldn’t have believed that he was actually in the same major as me.”

“But he’s really handsome. Even if he’s a bad student, he’s still the most handsome guy out of all the bad students!”

“The world that looks at faces is simply shallow...”

The girl who praised Yu MUYANG’s good looks was quickly ridiculed by another boy.

Yu MUYANG didn’t continue listening to the content of their argument.

This was because Old Ji was finally tired of reading and was planning to let him into the classroom.

“If I catch you skipping class or being late again, I’ll have to contact your parents and invite them to come to the school. Please do it well!”

“...”

Yu MUYANG shook his head and walked into the classroom nonchalantly.

Just as he sat down in his seat., he was immediately pulled back by his deskmate GE YUE. “Brother, I heard a few people gossiping about you over there just now. They were guessing what kind of mysterious background you had that could make a black-faced God like old Ji let you off so many times. Just a second before you came in, they were talking about whether you were old Ji’s illegitimate child...”

“PFFT!”

Yu Muiyang had just picked up the bottle of mineral water on his table and took a sip when he choked on Ge Yue's words.

He turned his head to look at the person who was gossiping about him by the window. Finally, he turned back to look at Ge Yue and sat down as if nothing had happened. "Don't play with them in the future. It's easy to affect your IQ if you listen to fools' words too much."

"No!" Ge Yue stretched out a finger and waved it in front of Yu Muiyang.

He was not tall and was a little chubby. He looked very simple and honest.

His short finger had an inexplicable sense of humor. After shaking it twice, he said seriously, "They are not fools. In their eyes, you are the most foolish person in the class."

Yu Muiyang: "..."

Ge Yue: "From this, it can be seen that they are all foolish humans. If they knew that you are actually..."

Before Ge Yue could finish his sentence, Yu Muiyang suddenly covered his mouth with one hand and reached out to button his ears. "I have just been commemorated by the old man for half an hour. Let Me be quiet for a while."

"You are not a brother. You said that you could clearly intimidate the entire finance department, NO, the entire K University. Why did you hide behind me and become a floor-sweeping monk? I can guarantee that with your ability, as long as you move your fingers..."

"Then what? You could shake the entire K University and get my little wife? She doesn't like straight-a students." Yu Muiyang interrupted Ge Yue. She casually opened a book, buried her face in it, and closed her eyes to rest.

Yu Muiyang, handsome and suave, suave and suave.

He was born with a photographic memory and a handsome face that was hated by the heavens. From birth, everything went smoothly. He had everything he wanted, and the only setback he encountered... it was also the biggest setback in his life — Qi Rou.

Qi Rou looked like Qi Yan, but her personality was like Tan Bengbeng's. At such a young age, she was like a little old lady. She kept her pretty face taut all day long, without any sadness or joy.

For so many years, Yu Muiyang had tried his best, but he could not conquer this iceberg.

Due to Yu Yuehan's strict orders, he quickly packed up his luggage and secretly transferred to Qi Rou's university with Qi Yan on his back.

Although they had different majors, they were schoolmates at least in the same school.

In the evening self-study classroom, the surrounding students were all engrossed in their studies. Yu MUYANG lay on the table and did not fall asleep. In her mind, she was thinking about how to let Qi Rou know that he was not a simple childhood sweetheart to her, instead, she was harboring "Evil thoughts".

Yes, what Yu MUYANG was most conflicted about now was Qi Rou's complete trust in him.

They had grown up together, and Yu MUYANG had been chasing after his little wife for quite some time.

Qi Rou was completely defenseless against him.

They had even been alone in the same room together..

Unfortunately, in Qi Rou's heart, he was a "Brother", a brother who was less than a month older than her.

This really worried Yu MUYANG to death.

The most difficult math and programming problems had never given him such a headache before. In this situation, if it was in a television drama, he would be the second most miserable man.

The childhood sweetheart that he had carefully taken care of had never noticed his feelings. In the end, he watched her throw herself into another man's arms while he was secretly sad..

Bang

Yu MUYANG raised her head from the table. GE Yue, who was beside her, was not paying attention and was so scared that he almost fell off his chair.

"What are you doing?" Yu MUYANG raised her eyebrows and turned to look at Ge Yue, who had a guilty look on his face.

Ge Yue finally came back to his senses and sat down in his seat. He bent down to pick up the exercise book that he had thrown on the ground in fear and pushed it in front of Yu MUYANG.

"I just finished a very difficult high math question and couldn't solve the answer. I was about to ask you, but you suddenly looked up and gave me a fright."

"..."

Yu MUYANG's eyes flashed. Seeing that no one around them was paying attention to them, she reached out to pick up GE Yue's pen, glanced at the question on the exercise book, and started to write the answer.

After a minute, he finished the difficult questions Ge Yue had mentioned and pushed the answers back to him.

Ge Yue saw the clear notes in his exercise book and the smooth way of solving the questions. He thought of everyone's misunderstanding of Yu MUYANG and was about to say something when the bell for the evening self-study class rang.

Yu MUYANG did not give him a chance to speak. He was the first to stand up from the table and left smoothly.

He still had to rush to pick up his little wife..

Yu Muiyang's university life was very regular.

He slept during class and picked up his little wife after class.

If he ran into Qi Rou, he would not rush her. He would just wait by the side and send her back to the dormitory after she was done with her work.

This rhythm seemed to have formed a habit, whether it was for him or Qi Rou.

On this day.

"Qi Rou, your brother is here to pick you up. You two are really close." When Qi Rou's deskmate saw the person standing outside the window, he immediately nudged Qi Rou with his elbow.

With both his hands supporting his chin, he stared at Yu Muiyang with a face full of infatuation.

Yu Muiyang was really handsome.

Originally, K University had a campus belle. She was the president of K University's high IQ club. Her name was selection.

Chapter 2393: The super genius lurking around (3)

However, ever since Yu Muiyang transferred to K University, the title of the school's top student was automatically transferred to him. He even skipped the referendum segment and everyone agreed by default.

Qi Rou studied liberal arts. After she went to university, most of the girls in her class were girls.

Every time Yu Muiyang came, it would always cause a group of girls to scream.

Qi Rou was afraid of trouble. Whenever someone asked her about her relationship with Yu Muiyang, she would say that she was her older brother.

As time passed, everyone had a new name for Yu Muiyang — sister complex.

However, wasn't a handsome Prince Charming who loved his younger sister even more charming?

Therefore, as soon as Yu Muiyang came to pick up Qi Rou, there would always be people in Qi Rou's class who would make a fuss and push their companions to ask for Yu Muiyang's contact information.

"You're already an adult. You have to learn to take care of yourself. I Can't always take care of you. Moreover, you're wasting too much time picking me up every day like this." Qi Rou suddenly stopped when she walked out of the teaching building with her book in her arms, she turned around and said to Yu Muiyang who was following behind her.

Yes, from what Qi Rou knew, Yu Muiyang came to pick her up every day not to take care of her, but to take care of him.

Because he was chased out by his father, he was homeless.

In this huge city, she was his only family.

Yu Muyang used this excuse to be a small tail and follow by her side every day.

"I don't think it's a waste of time... Xiao Rou, don't you want me anymore? Are you abandoning me because you find me troublesome?" Yu Muyang squeezed out a pitiful look and moved closer to her.

She was like an Alaska that needed its owner to pat its head.

Coupled with the difference in height between him and Qi Rou, there was an inexplicable contrast between them.

"I didn't..." Qi Rou stared at him and wanted to explain. In the end, she pursed her lips and didn't say anything.

After thinking about it, she couldn't do anything to him and continued to let him follow her.

They had exchanged countless times on the same topic since they were young.

Every time she wanted to reject him to follow her, Yu Muyang would have this weak, pitiful, and helpless expression on her face.

Qi Rou had practiced kung fu before. Qi Yan and Tan Bengbeng were worried that she would be bullied outside by herself, so they had taught her self-defense techniques since she was young. Qi Rou was able to remain calm even when faced with a villain who was twice her size, however, she couldn't face Yu Muyang who was acting shamelessly.

"Suit yourself."

Qi Rou did not know whether she was angry with Yu Muyang or with herself. She hugged her book and lowered her head as she quickened her pace.

Yu Muyang's legs were long, and she followed behind her slowly. She only turned around and returned to the dormitory after sending her to the female dormitory.

K University had strict discipline and management, but the conditions of the dormitory were far ahead of the other universities.

There were two specifications for the male dormitories. One was a four-person room, and the other was a two-person room.

Yu Muyang lived in a two-person room. Besides him, he had a roommate in the dormitory.

When he returned, his roommate was sleeping.

He lay on the bed and stared at the two schedules that he had stuck on the headboard.

One was his professional class schedule, and the other was Qi Rou's.

University classes were not as full as high school classes.

For example, this afternoon, he and Qi Rou had no classes.

It was rare for them to have no classes for half a day during the week.

He reached out and touched his cheek, wondering if he should ask someone out for a date or something.

However, when he went to pick up Qi Rou, he seemed to have heard her teacher giving her a lot of homework. She should be catching up on her homework at this time..

“Brother Yang, you’re back?”

While Yu Muiyang was still struggling with her big plans for her date, her roommate who was sleeping next to him climbed up in a rustling manner.

Chapter 2394: The super genius lurking around (4)

The moment he saw Yu Muiyang, it was as if he had seen his savior.

Hugging the computer on his bed that had not been switched off yet, he suddenly jumped onto Yu Muiyang’s bed.

“Brother Yang, you’re finally back. I’ve been debugging this program for the entire night yesterday, and no matter how hard I tried, I couldn’t get it to work. I’ve seen the Code of the program, and there’s no problem at all. I just don’t know what’s going on...”

Yu Muiyang’s roommate was a computer science student, Fang Ji, who was also known as the “God of computers.”.

He was a top-notch student who had received a national scholarship and was guaranteed admission to K University.

He had won various computer science awards, and together, he could fill up a wall of bookshelves.

Smart people all had their own pride.

Fang ji was the same.

In the eyes of outsiders, Fang Ji was already like a cloud on a mountain peak, so far away that they didn’t dare to touch him.

However, Fang Ji, who was in front of Yu Muiyang, was like a waiter. He handed the computer in his hand to Yu Muiyang and immediately went to pour him some water.

He placed the glass of water beside Yu Muiyang and even warmed his palm to massage his back.

He explained, “This is a group assignment for our department. The requirements given by the teacher were not that difficult. I increased the difficulty myself. I did not find any problems during the design process. For some reason, there were problems during the debugging process. I thought that if I could successfully solve it, it would be a new idea for programming in the future.”

“That’s why you didn’t sleep at all last night and did this?” Yu Muiyang glanced at him from the corner of his eye.

When he saw Fang ji reaching out to touch his head in embarrassment and his sallow face after staying up all night, he lowered his eyes and didn't say a word.

This was the so-called saying, "A smart person is far more hardworking than you."

Behind every person's success, there was a sacrifice that others couldn't see.

Yu Muiyang still admired fang ji.

Fang ji did not have the cold air that the top students pretended to have. He only admired the strong. As long as someone was stronger than him, he would admire them.

Just like Yu Muiyang in front of him..

"Too fast."

Fang ji stood behind Yu Muiyang and saw him typing code on the keyboard with both hands. Even though he was called a "Computer god", he could not react in time.

Watching him operate the computer was simply a form of enjoyment.

Fang ji could not help but exclaim, "It's such a waste that you didn't come to our computer science department."

"..."Yu Muiyang's hands paused, and the corners of his mouth curled up into a smile. "The computer god gave me such a high evaluation?"

"No, no, no. You called me the Computer God. I keep feeling that something is strange, but I'm serious. If you want to transfer to another department, I can help you tell our counselor that with your skills, no one dares to claim to be number one in our computer science department."

As Fang Ji spoke, Yu Muiyang had already helped him debug the program and handed the computer to him.

"Forget it. The computer science department has too much homework, and I'm too lazy to deal with it. The finance department is pretty good. They often do math problems and can even prevent dementia."

Fang Ji:"..."

Fang ji could tell that he was trying to shirk his responsibility, so he did not continue to persuade him.

Others did not know why Yu Muiyang came to k university, but Fang Ji knew.

The reason why he did not want to transfer to another department was definitely not because he liked doing math problems, but because compared to the computer science department, the Finance Department's building was closer to Qi Rou's professional building.

Fang ji hugged his computer and seriously tried out the algorithm that Yu Muiyang had modified a few times. When he realized that the program had really been successfully debugged, he excitedly grabbed him to ask for the solution.

Finally, he turned off the computer in satisfaction and was about to crawl back to his bed when he thought of something and glanced at Yu Muiyang in a daze.

Chapter 2395: The super genius lurking around (5)

“Brother Yang, did you receive any news?”

“What?” Yu Muiyang was just about to wash his hands when he heard his words and stopped in his tracks.

He was a germaphobe. As long as he touched the computer, he would definitely wash his hands before returning to bed. Otherwise, he would not be able to sleep.

“It’s nothing. It’s just that when I was in class today, I heard some rumors in our department.” Fang Ji’s expression was a little hesitant, and his eyes were full of evasions.

He seemed to be conflicted about whether he should follow Yu Muiyang or not.

His gaze finally landed on his laptop. He remembered that every time he encountered a difficult problem, Yu Muiyang would help him think of a way to solve it. The revolutionary friendship was deep.

Fang Ji placed the laptop back on his bed and climbed onto Yu Muiyang’s bed again. He lowered his voice to inform Yu Muiyang, “There’s someone in our department who wants to pursue Qi Rou.”

Yu Muiyang: “? ? ?”

He had already been following him closely every day. He was only one step away from imitating a dog and peeing on Qi Rou to announce to the world that this person was his.

There was actually someone who did not have eyes?

“What’s his name? What kind of person is he?” Yu Muiyang’s eyes darkened, and a hint of anger appeared in his eyes.

Yu Muiyang was always smiling mischievously. This was the first time Fang Ji had seen him angry.

He was a little afraid, trembling, he said, “I can’t say that. Anyway, he’s a big shot. Before you came to our school, someone had paired them up. I didn’t pay much attention to this kind of gossip, but during class today, I accidentally heard someone say that Qi Rou had no classes in the afternoon and wanted to invite her to watch a movie, so i... Sigh, brother Yang, where are you going?”

Before Fang Ji could finish his sentence, Yu Muiyang had already put on the jacket that he had just taken off and walked out of the dormitory.

Fang Ji chased after him to the door, only to see his elegant figure disappear into the corner of the corridor.

Fang Ji finally understood that in Yu Muiyang’s heart, nothing could compare to a Qi rou..

The distance between the male and female dormitory buildings in K university was not too far. Yu Muiyang’s legs were long, so he would not have to walk for more than ten minutes. He would be there in less than ten minutes.

Just as he walked to Qi Rou's dormitory building, he saw a boy with a crew cut holding a bouquet of roses. He was standing at the entrance of the dormitory building and shouting.

"Qi Rou, I like you –"

"Qi Rou, I really like you –"

"Qi Rou, can I pursue you –"

He shouted until his face was red and his ears were red. His voice was hoarse.

There was a circle of onlookers surrounding the boy.

It was a spectacular scene.

Yu MUYANG took in the scene in front of him and narrowed his eyes. He was calculating in his mind whether he could hear Qi Rou's confession on the floor where she lived.

Finally, he walked through the crowd to the boy who confessed and handed the mineral water in his hand to him.

"Brother, you can't hear me. Stop shouting. If you keep shouting, the housemother is coming."

"..."when the confessor heard what he said, he warily turned his head and looked around. Seeing that the housemother had not come out, he pushed Yu MUYANG's water away and continued to shout.

It was as if he would not stop until Qi Rou was called out.

There were already quite a number of people around who had joined in the commotion, wanting to help him call out for Qi Rou.

Yu MUYANG walked over to the Confessor and spoke in a voice that only the two of them could hear.

"Listen to your brother's advice. Stop messing around. It's useless even if you shout for her to come down. She already has a boyfriend."

"Nonsense!"

The confessor was shocked and his lips turned pale. "Qi Rou is single. I've asked around and we were classmates in high school. I've liked her for a few years and it wasn't easy for me to muster up the courage to confess..."

"Bro, look at my face clearly. I'm her boyfriend. How many years have you liked her? Heh, I've liked her since I was born. We're childhood sweethearts and have no guesses, understand?"

Chapter 2396: The super genius lurking around (6)

Yu MUYANG pointed at her own nose.

The bridge of her tall nose glowed under the sunlight.

The confessor was stunned and stared at him in shock. After a while, he finally found his voice. "I don't believe it. Qi Rou never said she had a boyfriend..."

“Why don’t you understand? If she didn’t have a boyfriend, wouldn’t she appear when she heard someone confessing? At the very least, she had to come down and see which Guy had opened his eyes and had such good taste in her, didn’t she? “But look, you’ve been struggling for so long. has she appeared?”

Yu MUYANG analyzed logically.

However, she was sneering in her heart.

Qi Rou’s dormitory was on the top floor. Based on the height and the noise in the surroundings, she might not be able to hear it.

Even if she could hear it, Qi Rou’s character would not care about such things.

She would only pretend not to hear it.

Yu MUYANG was certain that Qi rou would not appear, so she was naturally at ease to take care of the cult herself.

The confessor was also stubborn and insisted on seeing Qi Rou. Yu MUYANG’s patience was exhausted. Just as she was about to use her ultimate move, she suddenly saw a flash of light above her head from the corner of her eye. She quickly dodged to the side.

Splash —

A basin of water was poured down from upstairs, drenching the Confessor’s heart.

“What are you shouting about in the middle of the afternoon? Are you still going to let me sleep? I still have classes in the afternoon. If You Yell at me again, I’ll call the Police!”

An angry scolding came from the second floor.

The surrounding crowd dispersed a little.

Everyone seemed to have remembered that they still had classes in the afternoon, so they did not bother to watch the show and turned around to leave.

The scene instantly became much quieter.

Yu MUYANG took out a handkerchief from her pocket and handed it to the Confessor. She took a look at his hopeless expression, the weasel comforted the rooster by saying, “Wipe it off, I’ll give you the handkerchief. Treat it as a tribute to your dead first love. You’ll start a new life tomorrow.”

The confessor was really hit by the blow. He took the handkerchief, gave an “Mm”, wiped his face, and ran away with red eyes.

Yu MUYANG clapped her hands. She was very satisfied with the result.

At the same time, she wondered if she had been too low-key when escorting Qi Rou. There were actually people who thought that she was single.

Yu MUYANG narrowed his eyes. Since they were already at the female dormitory building, he did not plan to go back like this.

It just so happened that they did not have classes in the afternoon.

He took out his phone and prepared to call qi rou to invite her to watch a movie.

Just as he took out his phone and was about to call her, a familiar figure walked out from the entrance of the female dormitory building.

“Xiao Rou...”

Yu Muiyang was just about to go forward when he realized that Qi Rou wasn't looking at him at all. Instead, she walked straight to the other side of the female dormitory and stopped in front of a male student.

It was the campus Belle from before, the selection.

The president of K University's high IQ club, the computer science department... So, the person fang ji mentioned who wanted to ask Qi Rou out wasn't the guy with a crew cut who confessed to her just now, but the selection?

Yu Muiyang's expression turned bad again.

He had just dismissed a blind man, but in the blink of an eye, another one came.

The crew cut Guy was obviously not high enough. He shouted for a long time downstairs, but Qi rou still could not come down. This selection was quite capable, to actually make qi rou come down to see him personally.

He seemed to be holding a box in his hand, as if he was going to give qi rou a gift.

The second Yu Muiyang saw Qi rou reach out to take it with a smile on her face, her eyes instantly darkened.

Others might not understand qi rou, but he did.

She looked cold and indifferent and was not close to anyone. In fact, she was really cold-hearted and did not pretend to be.

Chapter 2397: The super genius lurking around (7)

Qi Rou was born with a one-track mind, the kind of mind that was good at romance.

The people who had interacted with her had the most opinions of her. They probably felt that she was like a robot and had no feelings for her.

They also never liked to accept other people's things, so they were polite and distant.

But now, Qi Rou actually smiled at the selection and even reached out to take the gift in his hand..

This was simply intolerable!

“Thank you.” Qi Rou had just thanked him and was about to take the box from the selection when a hand with sharp fingers suddenly interjected and snatched the box away in front of her.

Qi Rou was stunned for a second and turned her head to look at Yu MUYANG who was standing beside her. She blinked her eyes and subconsciously asked.

“Didn’t you go back to the dormitory?”

“I haven’t eaten my fill for lunch and I’m hungry again. Do you want to accompany me to eat something?” Yu MUYANG placed the box under her arm and held Qi Rou’s hand as if it was a matter of course. Before Qi Rou could say anything, he added on.

“Let’s go to your favorite restaurant.”

Qi Rou struggled for a second before giving up.

She allowed Yu MUYANG to pull her forward. After walking for a short distance, she suddenly thought of something and turned back to look at the selection who was still stunned downstairs.

The selection seemed to have wanted to invite her to a movie, but Yu MUYANG was here..

Qi Rou was still thinking about something when Yu MUYANG suddenly tightened his grip on her hand.

She frowned in pain and raised her head to look at him.

He, the main culprit, instead asked innocently, “Did I hurt you? I was thinking about how painful it would be for you to forget about that guy called the selection.”

“...”

“Do you like handsome guys? He’s not as handsome as me. If you like handsome guys, I’ll print out a stack of my photos and hang them on your bed. I’ll be the first person you see when you open your eyes every day.”

Qi Rou looked at him blankly for a while and asked seriously, “Do you have a problem with the selection?”

From what she knew, Yu MUYANG was not an unreasonable person.

Although he was arrogant, he was not arrogant.

He would not bully others with his power either.

It was rare for him to be hostile towards a stranger.

Most of the time, he was careless and not serious.

She had never seen such a situation like today.

“No, I don’t know him,” Yu MUYANG denied.

Qi rou asked, “Then how do you know his name?”

Yu MUYANG stopped in his tracks, turned around, and pushed qi rou to the wall. With one hand on the wall, he looked down at Qi Rou, who was locked in his embrace.

There was not a hint of shyness or fear in her eyes, only calmness.

Yu MUYANG sighed. "Don't tell me you don't know that K University's previous top talent was the selection, but now it's me. I've never seen him before, so I naturally have an impression of him after hearing so much about him. Oh, I admit it, I've seen his photos before. There are a bunch of them on the school intranet."

"I don't care about that," Qi Rou said matter-of-factly.

Yu MUYANG couldn't find any fault with it.

After all, this was Qi Rou.

If she were to be like those little girls who would have their eyes lit up at the sight of a handsome man and couldn't move their legs, he would have gotten his wife back long ago.

The women in his family were clearly all about looks. Why was it that when it came to Qi Rou, they were completely useless?

Could it be that all the uncles and brothers in the family were too good looking and Qi Rou was tired of looking at them?

Yu MUYANG let go of her and once again held her hand as they walked forward.

Qi Rou's personality was cold, but she wasn't difficult to get along with.

She was only picky about the food she ate.

She wasn't picky about the food, only the freshness of the ingredients.

She wouldn't eat anything that wasn't fresh.

This was quite similar to the Qi family's daughter. Qi Yan was able to become the medicine king, so his mouth, which could taste a hundred herbs, played a crucial role.

Chapter 2398: The super genius lurking around (8)

Qi Rou had been extremely talented in the pharmaceutical industry since she was young. Qi Yan wanted to groom her to be his successor, but Tan Bengbeng did not agree.

He wanted Qi Rou to go out and see more things. If she still liked this industry in the end, she could come back and inherit the family business.

Yu MUYANG could always follow Qi Rou. Other than pretending to be pitiful, she also had a killer skill, which was delicious food!

"Boss, as usual, we'll open a small private room and make a few dishes with the freshest ingredients." Once Yu MUYANG brought Qi Rou into the restaurant, the boss immediately made an OK gesture.

Yu MUYANG chose the place and ordered the dishes.

Qi Rou only needed to be responsible for eating.

For people who didn't like trouble, it was the most comfortable thing.

Qi Rou sat in front of the table and slowly drank the tea in her hand as she waited for the dishes to be served.

She seemed to be in a good mood.

Yu Muiyang's mood was not as good as hers.

After all, he had just witnessed the two of them confess to the girl they liked one after another, and one of them even gave him a gift.

The box that was chosen for Qi Rou was still in his hands.

Qi Rou did not know if she really trusted him, or if she had completely forgotten about this matter, but she actually allowed him to keep it.

Yu Muiyang passed by the trash can a few times and wanted to throw the box into the trash can.

In the end, he gritted his teeth and held himself back.

"Are you very close to the selection?" Yu Muiyang pretended to be nonchalant as he placed the box in his hand on the table and asked with a smile.

Qi Rou was stunned and put down the glass of water in her hand.

As if she suddenly remembered the box that she had placed at Yu Muiyang's place, she picked it up very gently. First, she wiped the dust off the box, then she carefully opened the box.

After making sure that the things inside were intact, the corners of her lips curled up into a happy smile.

Qi Rou rarely smiled.

Her cold appearance was already beautiful enough. When she smiled, everything around her seemed to become brighter and more beautiful.

Her otherworldly beauty was breathtakingly beautiful.

When she opened the box, Yu Muiyang took a careful glance at it. When she saw that the thing inside the box was actually a medicinal herb, she couldn't help but raise her eyebrows.

He took out a small notebook and wrote it down in his heart.

It seemed that this selection would be a formidable opponent for him in the future.

After so many years, he had dealt with at least 800 love rivals, but no one had ever discovered that Qi Rou liked medicinal herbs very much.

The gifts used to woo her were either roses or chocolate, which were clichés.

Not to mention Qi Rou, even Yu Muiyang was tired of looking at them.

She didn't expect a high-level love rival to appear and deliver a gift to Qi Rou's heart.

Qi Rou was sure that her things weren't damaged, she raised her head to answer Yu MUYANG's question. "I'm not very familiar with them. The Zhen family is in the medicinal herbs business and has dealt with the Qi family before. I wanted a medicinal herb that I couldn't find myself. I tried to contact the Zhen family to help, but I didn't expect the selection to deliver it to me personally."

"..."

Yu MUYANG raised her eyebrows in surprise.

So, she wasn't smiling because of the gift from the selection. No, this wasn't a gift at all.

The selection was just a delivery?

"Why are you smiling so strangely all of a sudden?" Qi rou pointed at the curve of his lips.

Yu MUYANG couldn't suppress the joy in his heart and laughed out loud. "It's nothing. I just wanted to tell you that if you want any medicinal herbs in the future, tell me. I'll sell myself to find them for you!"

Qi Rou:"..."

The Yu family did not deal in medicinal herbs, so who was he going to sell his body to?

Chapter 2399: The super genius lurking around (9)

Qi Rou ignored Yu MUYANG's odd reaction. When she saw the waiter serve the dishes, she picked up a piece of meat with her chopsticks. Just as she was about to put it into her mouth, she thought for a moment and brought it to Yu MUYANG's mouth.

Yu MUYANG looked at her with a flattered expression. She was so touched that tears were about to fall.

His little wife was finally moved by him. was she going to discover her love for her?

"This meat doesn't look very fresh. Try It first." Qi Rou's next sentence made Yu MUYANG's heart, which had just been floating in the air, fall back to the bottom of the valley.

He resigned himself to his fate and became a food tasting slave.

He tried all the dishes once and only let qi rou eat after he confirmed that there were no problems.

Qi Rou lowered her head and stared at the dishes that he had picked up from her bowl. Her sparkling eyes flickered slightly.

This was the first time she was faced with delicious food. She was not in a hurry to taste it. Instead, she was a little lost in thought.

When she saw that he was smiling so happily just now, she actually subconsciously wanted to feed him the food. Later, when she saw his shocked reaction, she found an excuse at the last minute.

From the beginning, that piece of meat was meant to be fed to him..

"Does uncle Yu know about your transfer to another school?" Qi Rou suddenly asked as she ate.

Yu Muyang was planning to specially send qi rou herbs during the selection process. He probably didn't have any good intentions, so when he heard what she said., without thinking, he replied, "My dad knows. He was the one who arranged this. He was hoping that I would be able to... ahem, what I meant was that my dad hasn't liked me for a long time. He was hoping that someone would be able to take me away."

As Yu Muyang spoke, he squeezed out a pitiful expression.

He looked like an abandoned little animal.

Qi Rou's heart ached when she saw him.

She couldn't help but put a piece of meat into his bowl. "Eat more. Uncle Yu is probably just angry. If you behave better, he'll still care about you as his son."

Yu Muyang: "I'm afraid that's impossible in this life unless..."you're willing to go home with me.

Yu Muyang swallowed the second half of his sentence.

After lunch, Yu Muyang was about to take the opportunity to invite Qi Rou to watch a movie. However, before he could say anything, Qi Rou had already dragged him to the library.

"Your grades are too bad. Furthermore, I heard that you always sleep in class. This won't do. If uncle Yu finds out, he'll be even angrier. At that time, he might even cut off your funds and let you starve to death outside."

Qi Rou knocked on the textbook in front of Yu Muyang and said seriously.

Yu Muyang quickly grabbed her hand and said sincerely, "Xiao Rou, you're all I have left. If my father really doesn't give me money, will you take care of me?"

Qi Rou:"..."

She just wanted to remind him to be vigilant and work hard to improve.

Why was his brain not quite the same as others? He just wanted to be taken care of.

Qi Rou was led astray by him and subconsciously replied, "Dad left me a lot of money. I can keep you, but..."

"I'm relieved that you're willing to keep me."Yu Muyang naturally hugged her arm and yawned before getting ready to take a nap in the library.

Qi Rou:"? ? ?"

QI ROU: "Aren't you afraid that Uncle Yu will cut off your funds?"

Yu Muyang: "I'm not afraid. Didn't you say that you would support me?"

The corners of Yu Muyang's mouth curled up into a devilish smile.

He did not tell her that he was no longer spending the family's money.

He had stopped spending a few years ago.

Great-grandfather wanted to trick him into taking over the Mo family's business. He had been threatening and bribing him in an attempt to cut off his funds.

Yu Muiyang was extremely smart. How could she possibly have a fatal weakness in her hands.

Chapter 2400: The super genius lurking around (10)

In the past few years, he had used the red packets he received during the Chinese new year to make some "Small investments" himself. Although he was not considered to have a big business now, it was definitely more than enough to support himself and his little wife.

However, he felt that it was good to have no money now that he had a wife to take care of him.

Being able to stay by her side as a matter of course, his small life was still very happy.

"Even if I can support you, you can't delay your studies." Qi Rou pushed his head away.

Yu Muiyang was afraid that she would be angered, so he accepted his fate and opened his textbook to review this finance textbook that he had read in junior high.

He closed his eyes and pointed at an example question above. He leaned over to take advantage of Qi Rou. "This question is so difficult, I can't understand it. Can you teach me?"

It was fake to ask Qi rou to teach him the questions, but it was real to take advantage of it.

Qi Rou liked to make medicine, and her body always carried a faint medicinal fragrance.

It was very special and also very nice to smell.

Yu Muiyang loved to lean on her shoulder and fall asleep smelling the medicinal fragrance on her body.

There was a feeling that as long as I smelled your body, I felt like I had the whole world.

This was probably how Yu Muiyang felt about Qi rou.

"Wait a moment, let me take a look at the questions first." Qi Rou took the textbook in his hands and started to read the sample questions seriously.

Although she was not a finance major, her grades were really good.

In addition, the Qi family also had businesses that needed to be managed. Qi Rou had come into contact with a lot of knowledge in this area since she was young. It was too difficult for her to understand, but she could still understand simple questions.

Moreover, she was facing Yu Muiyang, who was a scumbag, so it was not difficult for her to explain an example question to him.

Qi Rou was so engrossed in studying the question that she did not notice that the people around her were getting closer and closer to her. The closer they got, the more stable they became. Almost all the weight of their bodies was on her.

“This question talks about the laws of the market economy...” Qi Rou finally finished reading the example question with great difficulty and lowered her voice to explain it to him.

Yu Muiyang’s expression was very serious, but his gaze was not on the textbook, but on Qi Rou, who was focused on explaining the question to him.

The more he looked at her, the more he liked her.

Why was his little wife so pretty?

Her eyes were pretty.

Her nose was pretty.

Her mouth was pretty too.

She had a good personality and was gentle and patient with him.

She was obviously cold to everyone, but it was different for him..

Yu Muiyang was thinking happily when she suddenly heard her ask, “Do you understand what I’m saying?”

Yu Muiyang:” ...”

Who was going to tell him what she had just said?

“I... I don’t quite understand what I’m saying. Can you repeat it again?” Yu Muiyang relied on her strong reflexes on the spot and managed to dodge the bullet.

Qi Rou explained the topic to him again.

This time, he did not dare to be too presumptuous. Instead, he really listened to what she said.

The questions were not difficult. He could do them with just a glance.

However, when he saw that she was holding his pen and seriously marking the difficult points and possible test points for him in the textbook, Yu Muiyang’s heart suddenly moved slightly.

His heart seemed to have been hit by something.

He could not help but call out, “Xiao Rou.”

“Oh?” Qi Rou was taking notes for him when she heard his voice and turned to look at him.

Just as she raised her head, Yu Muiyang lowered her head and kissed her lips accurately.

Qi Rou:” ...”

Yu Muiyang:” ...”

Qi Rou:” ...”

Yu Muiyang:” ...”

The air seemed to freeze at that moment.

After a while, Yu MUYANG let go of her and licked his lips. Just as he was about to apologize, Qi Rou, who had been in a daze, raised her arm and punched his left eye!
