

My Life 431

Chapter 431: The news is fake

In the Yu villa.

Nian Xiaomu stood rooted to the ground the moment she received the news, and she stared at the butler, shocked.

“What did you say? Tang Yuansi is getting engaged...”

She had just left Shangxin a moment ago. Since it was such a short period of time, it might be possible that Shangxin had not seen Tang Yuansi yet.

Could she be the one who was getting engaged to Tang Yuansi?

Nian Xiaomu dug out her phone hurriedly and opened up the news application.

She became panicked the moment she saw the high resolution photos on the internet!

“Shangxin wasn’t the one who announced the engagement with Tang Yuansi. Damn! Something bad will surely happen to Shangxin if she goes to look for Tang Yuansi at this point in time...” Nian Xiaomu picked up her bag in a flurry and ran out.

Reaching out, Yu Yuehan pulled her back and said with sunken eyebrows, “Calm down!”

“Let go of me first—you didn’t see what Shangxin looked like today. Tang Yuansi merely went on a blind date, yet Shangxin already reacted so poorly to it. If she happens to the news by any chance... I need to look for her now!”

Nian Xiaomu was about to struggle away from his grip as she said that, but Yu Yuehan had already pulled her forcefully into his embrace.

“Yu Yuehan...”

Anxious, Nian Xiaomu wanted to push him away, but his deep voice rang beside her ears all of a sudden.

“The news is fake.”

Nian Xiaomu was trapped in a trance.

Blinking her eyes, she leaned against his chest and forgot how she should react.

After a while, she lifted her head up gradually and stared at him in confusion.

How did he know that it was fake when the media had already announced news of the engagement?

Could he be consoling her...

“Tang Yuansi knows Shangxin’s temperament better than you do. He would not use this method to force Shangxin to let go unless it was absolutely essential!” Yu Yuehan understood her doubts and explained indifferently.

He dragged her back to the sofa and placed her there.

Immediately, Nian Xiaomu crossed her legs and asked anxiously, "Why is it absolutely essential to do this now?"

Yu Yuehan shot her a glance the moment she finished her query.

He took the cell phone from her hand and scanned through the news.

"The Tang Family is not an ordinary family. If the President of the Tang Corporation wanted to announce news of his engagement, he would not pick such an inconspicuous tabloid magazine." He took a sideways glance at the butler the moment he finished his words.

"Send someone to ask around and find out the source of the news. Put your focus on the woman who went on the blind date with Tang Yuansi."

Instantly, Nian Xiaomu seemed to have understood things properly the moment she heard this.

She took back her cell phone from him and read the news again.

Indeed, it was merely a small-scale and inconspicuous magazine publisher that had announced the news.

It wouldn't have attracted the attention of so many people if not for the shocking aspect of the news.

Furthermore, judging from the angle, the photographs were obviously taken in secret!

Why would the Tang Family use such photographs if they wanted to announce an engagement...

The moment the butler left, Nian Xiaomu threw herself into Yu Yuehan's embrace and asked anxiously, "We nearly misunderstood even though we were merely spectators, but Shangxin might not be able to see through this if she sees the news!"

Shangxin undertook great difficulty before she had finally mustered the courage to look for Tang Yuansi. Wouldn't it be like a bolt from the blue if she saw the news at this point in time?"

It would still be alright if Tang Yuansi bothered to explain. However, what would she do if he did not explain and admitted to it instead?

No, she needed to give Shangxin a call!

She had to at least be certain of her current wellbeing.

Nian Xiaomu grabbed her cell phone and dialed Shangxin's number.

Yu Yuehan hugged her and did not stop her when he saw the anxious look on her face.

The call went through in no time.

However, it took a moment of ringing before someone finally answered the call.

Nian Xiaomu could not be bothered about other things and quickly asked, "Shangxin, where are you? I'll head over to find you now..."

Chapter 432: Have they reconciled?

“No need for that—I am with Tang Yuansi. Let’s talk on another day if I have any issues.” Shangxin hung up the call right after she finished saying her piece.

Her voice sounded very calm, and she did not seem to be agitated.

As Nian Xiaomu held the cell phone, she instead felt a little shocked when she heard the sound of the disconnect tone on the phone.

Shangxin had met with Tang Yuansi?

Both of them were together as well...

Have they reconciled?

What’s with the news of the engagement then?

On the contrary, Yu Yuehan seemed to be at ease as he took the cell phone out of Nian Xiaomu’s hand and headed upstairs with her in his arms.

“Except for Tang Yuansi, no one else in this world would be so concerned about Shangxin. She will be fine.”

“But...” Just when Nian Xiaomu wanted to say something else, she lifted her head up and realized that he had brought her back to his room. She felt a shock run through her body instantly!

The door to the room had already been shut by the time she turned around and prepared to run away.

With arms crossed, Yu Yuehan leaned against the door and stared at her with raised eyebrows.

Nian Xiaomu: “...!!”

—

On the other side.

Shangxin hung up the call and dropped her cell phone into her pocket.

She lifted her head up and glanced at Tang Yuansi, who stood in front of her.

He had been staring blankly and had not reacted in any way right from the moment that she had made her demand.

He only stared fixedly at her with a chilly gaze. It was as if he was about to see through her body and peer into her heart just to find out what her exact thoughts were...

There were still no changes in his expression even when she bent over to pick up her cell phone or after she had answered the phone call from Nian Xiaomu.

The only changes were that his gaze had turned even more chilly. A gloomy look that had never been present in the past seeped through his eyes.

It was unknown how long the both of them took as they stood facing each other.

After he had confirmed the fact that she didn't say those words out of spite and that she was not kidding, a hint of anger floated up from his eyes, and he gnashed his teeth fiercely.

"Have you had enough?"

How was it possible that he would abandon her after all the experiences that they had shared?

To him, she was someone whom he wanted to care for dearly—someone whom he would exhaustively protect.

"It's alright if you are unwilling to do it. In that case, I will look for someone else." Shangxin curled her lips and gave him an indifferent glance. Following which, she turned around and got ready to leave.

Just when she took her first step away, Tang Yuansi reached out and grabbed ahold of her.

"What did you say just now?"

What did she mean by looking for someone else? What exactly did she want to do?!

Ever since Tang Yuansi was young, he knew that he was different from the other kids—he had no parents and was just an orphan.

There were too many others who were just as pitiful as him in the orphanage.

No one would pay attention to his emotions because the most important thing to do was to stay alive. Thus, he was a lot more cold and detached when compared to other people.

He had always hidden his emotions well.

She was the only one—the one whose every action would have an effect on the nerves in his body.

The one who could trigger him so easily!

When Shangxin heard what he asked, she responded with a sneer and said, "Didn't you ask me not to pester you? Why do you even care about what I'm doing?"

She flung his hand away. Moving her legs that were a little frozen, she took laborious steps and made her way to the roadside before entering her car.

Her car drove away from the Tang Family villa.

As Tang Yuansi looked at his empty hand and her figure that was gradually disappearing from view, everything she had said just now rang incessantly in his mind.

Damn it!

His fingers clenched into a balled up fist silently. All of a sudden, he hopped into his car, turned on the ignition, and chased after her!

Tang Yuansi knitted his eyebrows when he saw that her car was parked outside the entrance of a bar.

Without a second thought, he parked his car and headed inside.

Bustling music poured out just when he reached the entrance of the bar.

It was deafening.

It was a very well adjusted atmosphere with rotating lights that flickered.

Due to the honorable aura and the outstanding looks that Tang Yuansi possessed, he had attracted the attention of many others the moment he appeared.

However, he could not be bothered with staying low profile and walked in directly to search for Shangxin, who had entered before he did.

Chapter 433: Puffed up with anger!

He was already surrounded by a bunch of women before he could find her.

“Sir, are you alone? Do you want to have a drink together?” A daring lady was already leaning against his body and stroking his chest.

Before she could move her hand up to his chin, Tang Yuansi had already grabbed that hand.

He flung it away forcefully and warned coldly, “Don’t touch me!”

The people surrounding him were instantly intimidated by that chilly attitude of his; none of them dared to head forward as they held their wine glasses in their hands.

The woman who had wanted to seduce him just now tried her best to balance herself. Following which, she lowered her head and left in total embarrassment.

Tang Yuansi was not at all bothered by all of this because he was swarmed with the thought of finding Shangxin, who had left angrily and out of spite.

She had been very obedient when she was young and would not disobey him by doing anything that he frowned against.

However, he knew that she actually had a very stubborn temper.

She was definitely not threatening him with the words that she had said just now.

If he did not hurry and find her, she might just do something that she would regret for the rest of her life!

Tang Yuansi searched all of the seats at the small tables, but did not see her. Just when he was about to search the private rooms, he seemed to have caught a glance of something from the corner of his eye. Pausing in his steps, he turned around and looked in the direction of the bar counter.

Shangxin’s frail body was sitting right on a high stool in front of the bar counter.

Other than wearing a baseball cap, she had a scarf wrapped around her face and was sitting near a pillar by the bar counter; one would surely not notice that someone was seated there if they did not look closely.

Tang Yuansi heaved a sigh of relief instantly and did not head forward.

He watched her from a short distance away.

Due to the fact she was sitting quietly in front of the bar counter with a slightly confused look on her face, she might not have been to such places before. With that obedient sitting posture of hers, she did not fit in with the crowd here at all.

When Tang Yuansi saw this scene, his chest seemed to be struck by something, and he suddenly felt unwell.

He was in so much pain that he wanted to bend down.

The next second, he saw that she had picked up the wine glass in front of her and was getting ready to drink.

Before Shangxin's lips could touch the wine glass, a hand stopped her.

She turned around and only now realized that someone was beside her.

Tang Yuansi almost didn't have any hint of hesitation as he downed all the alcohol in the glass. After he placed the wine glass on the bar, he grabbed her hand and said, "Come back with me!"

Shangxin was slightly stunned in the moment that she saw him.

Soon after, her gaze returned back to normal.

"Who are you to me? Why must I listen to you?"

She sat back at the bar counter and ordered another glass of alcohol for herself.

She gave him a taste of the indifferent attitude that he had given her before.

Tang Yuansi narrowed his eyes. Picking up the wine glass in front of her, he drank on her behalf again.

He sat beside her without a word.

He did not speak any further and simply sat there.

As long as she ordered alcohol, he would drink it all.

Shangxin simply sat there blankly; she was puffed up with anger, but could only turn around and glare at him.

However, Tang Yuansi remained unmoved and allowed her to glare at him.

With him around, as well as the cap and scarf that Shangxin wore to cover most of her facial features, no one dared to come forward and hit on her.

In the end, Shangxin was unclear if she was the one who was acting out of spite toward him or if he was the one who was acting out of spite toward her.

She paid the bill angrily and headed straight out of the bar.

Surprisingly, the cool wind that blew directly against her face calmed her agitated mood down.

Just when she was about to reach out and wrap her clothes around herself more tightly, a coat was draped over her body.

She was taken aback and recognized that it was Tang Yuansi's coat when she lowered her head to take a look. Without another word, she removed it and threw it back to him.

The corner of her mouth curved into a sneer when she saw his slightly pale face.

"Don't you worry, I wouldn't wallow in degeneration. You can leave. I am heading home to sleep now."

Chapter 434: Betray everything except for deep love

She turned around and entered her car the moment she finished her piece. Just when she was about to start the engine, someone suddenly opened the passenger door.

Tang Yuansi sat in the passenger seat and automatically buckled the seat belt for himself.

With a sideways glance, he looked at her and said, "I can't drive because I had some alcohol. I'll send you back."

Shangxin: "..."

What a tactic to send her back...

Why did he not directly say that he did not believe what she had said and hence wanted to continue monitoring her until he had made sure that she went home?

Shangxin looked away to hide the disappointment in her eyes.

She started the engine and drove off toward the direction of the hotel.

When the car came to a stop outside the entrance of the five star hotel, she saw the changes in his expression very clearly, and a smile of self-mockery appeared at the corner of her mouth.

"You don't have to look at me like that. I am taking a vacation now and have been staying here for a period of time. I wasn't planning on bringing you to a hotel just so I can have sex."

"..."

Tang Yuansi's eyebrows remain knitted and he pursed his thin lips tightly.

He stared fixedly at her and did not explain himself.

He followed and got out of the car with her. However, he reached out and massaged his chest as he stepped out of the car. He didn't look good.

He did not drink alcohol very often and did not have a high tolerance for liquor.

Shangxin was in a fit of anger just now and had asked for hard liquor for every single one of her drink orders just now. One glass was fine, but the the delayed effect turned out to be very strong after he drank a few glasses continuously.

The color on his face transformed from a ghastly white to a blushing red.

His breathing turned rapid as well.

As he followed her and walked into the hotel, he reached out to massage his temple every now and then so that he could remain sober and send her back to her room safely.

His handsome figure stopped in its tracks immediately when she swiped the door lock and opened the door to her room.

He looked away in an attempt to hide the reluctant-to-part expression in his eyes.

He watched as her figure disappeared by the side of the door...

The next second, she walked out again and lifted her head up to look at him.

An inconceivable sadness swarmed her eyes. She seemed to be bidding him farewell for the very last time as she asked, "Brother Xiaosi, could you hug me one more time? Just like how you did when we were young. One time will do..."

"..."

As Tang Yuansi stared at her delicate and pretty face, scenes that the both of them had shared flashed past him.

She laughed and cried.

Her gracefulness and craftiness...

Everything about her seemed like a documentary movie, one that was well-preserved in his brain.

He knew that he shouldn't do it, but his body seemed to be out of his control as he walked forward. Reaching out, he grasped the back of her head and shoved her into his embrace forcefully.

He hugged her tightly and wanted to push her right into his body so badly!

He froze when he sensed that his chest had become wet.

She was crying silently. However, she could not hold back her tears as her shoulders trembled incessantly...

Tang Yuansi's heart seemed to be strangled by a huge hand, and it was so painful that he couldn't breathe.

All of a sudden, he reached out and cupped her face in his hands.

"Don't cry, my Xiao Xinxin..."

As he stroked her face lightly with his coarse finger, he was so gentle that he seemed to be wiping some priceless treasure clean.

He was mumbling softly to console her, but at the same time, it seemed like he was talking to himself as well.

Shangxin broke down completely when he said those words that she knew so well in such a loving tone.

Her tears poured out like a streaming waterfall...

He couldn't finish wiping away those tears no matter what.

Lowering his head, he planted a kiss on the corner of her eye.

And then, on her face.

Bit by bit, he kissed away all the tear stains on her face. However, he did not shift his thin lips away and sealed her lips instead!

The suppressed feelings within him were just like the surging Yellow River—they got out of hand.

Her sweet look seemed like a drug.

He got addicted to it at the very beginning when he first met her.

Tang Yuansi's eyes were overflowing with deep love as he fixed his gaze on the person in front of him.

Lifting her up in his arms, he took big steps into the room...

Chapter 435: Daily dose of sweetness (1)

On the top floor of a skyscraper.

In a minimalistic and elegant office.

Fan Yu was holding a glass of red wine as he stood in front of a French window.

His dark brown eyes listlessly looked out of the window at the moonlight. There was no emotion on his handsome face.

He had not even drunk any of the wine

Holding the glass in his hand, he stared out of the window.

However, there was an air of lonesomeness and desolation about him, as if he had been abandoned by the entire world and was only left with the moonlight...

The image of the person who used to love calling him "Brother Fan Yu" flashed past his mind.

When they parted, her eyes were red, but she did not cry.

She only pointed to the moon and smiled at him, saying, "When Brother Fan Yu misses me in the future, just look up at the moon. No matter how far apart we are, it will be like we are together."

Fan Yu tightened his grip on the wine glass.

The moon remained unchanged, but without her by his side, admiring a beautiful moon was meaningless to him.

The door of his office was pushed open, and his assistant walked in.

Hearing his voice, Fan Yu turned around and looked up slowly. He had resumed a composed expression on his face as he asked, "Have you looked into Nian Xiaomu's background?"

"Our investigators have returned from their task, but..." The assistant hesitated to continue speaking as he stepped forward and walked toward Yu Yuehan.

Seeing the odd reaction from the assistant, Fan Yu raised his eyebrow and demanded, "What's wrong? Explain it clearly to me."

"Our people carried out the investigation, but did not manage to find out any information about Nian Xiaomu." The assistant had a face filled with resignation.

The Fan Corporation might be new in City H, but their prowess was not to be underestimated.

It was unthinkable that they failed to find anything about a person's background!

This just wasn't right!

The assistant passed the only bit of information he had to Fan Yu.

"We only managed to find out that Nian Xiaomu attended a nursing course previously. After she graduated, she coincidentally landed a job as a nurse in the Yu Family villa."

"As for how she managed to join the Yu Corporation and even become the manager of their public relations department, it appears that Yu Yuehan recognized her abilities and gave her the opportunity to rise up in the ranks. The staff in the Yu Corporation were too tight-lipped, so we do not have the details."

It was clear for all to see how capable Nian Xiaomu was in her work.

Even as an outsider, Fan Yu was aware that Nian Xiaomu was different from other people. Naturally, Yu Yuehan would be able to tell the same since she worked under his leadership.

"What about her family? Has she lived anywhere else before?" Fan Yu walked to his desk, pulled out a chair, and sat down.

He was not interested to know how Nian Xiaomu and Yu Yuehan had gotten to know each other. What he wanted to find out was whether Nian Xiaomu was his Xiao Liuli.

Why didn't she have any reaction when she met him?

"We were unable to find out..." the assistant replied meekly. Then, a thought struck him, he lifted his head, and he added, "What we can be certain about is that someone has covered up the information about her background!"

It was impossible to be unable to dig out information about a regular person.

Nian Xiaomu's background was a mystery only because someone was safeguarding it.

"It must be Yu Yuehan," said Fan Yu.

In City H, besides Yu Yuehan, he could not think of another person who might do this.

Was Yu Yuehan guarding against him?

“Did you get the roses and chocolates delivered to her?” Fan Yu picked up the documents in front of him as he asked nonchalantly.

The assistant nodded and replied, “Yes, we sent them to her. It seems like Miss Nian was very delighted. She must have liked the presents.”

Hearing this, the sides of Fan Yu’s lips curled upward, and his gaze became warm.

She was still like before. When she was young, even though she had everything she wanted, she would still be thrilled to receive presents from him.

Chapter 436: Daily dose of sweetness (2)

Yu Family villa.

The curtains in the master bedroom were tightly drawn, and the room was dimly-lit.

Nian Xiaomu was still groggy in her sleep when she suddenly felt Yu Yuehan hugging her from behind. Instinctively, she flipped over and snuggled into his embrace.

She laid on top of his chest and got ready to go back to sleep.

Her reliance toward Yu Yuehan resulted in a loving smile curving up from the corner of his mouth as he stroked her hair with his big hands and kissed her ears with his thin lips.

His voice was filled with magnetism since he had just woken up.

“Wake up and eat breakfast with me.”

“It’s still early now. Let me sleep for a while longer!” Nian Xiaomu sniffed and buried her face into his chest.

Just like a kid who was dawdling in bed, she was bargaining with him.

However, Yu Yuehan scooped her up directly. Carrying her in his arms, he sat upright and carried her into the bathroom without wasting a word.

Placing her down on top of the basin, he squeezed some toothpaste out and filled a cup with water.

Nian Xiaomu squinted, revealing a crack in her eyes. Taking a glance at the toothbrush that he had brought forward to her, she heard his bewitching voice just when she wanted to refuse it.

“Do you want me to help you?”

“...”

She had a feeling that this sentence was a trap.

In the end, Nian Xiaomu took the toothbrush obediently and brushed her teeth after she hesitated for a few seconds.

When she had finished brushing her teeth, a warm towel had already been prepared, and he helped her to wipe her face.

From his seasoned actions, he seemed to have practiced this a thousand times in his heart because he absolutely did not put on airs like a Young Master.

After he was done tidying up, he carried her back into the room so that she could change her clothes.

Nian Xiaomu finally snapped back to her senses when she saw that he was about to remove her clothes. Reaching out, she covered her chest.

“You don’t have to do this—I can do it myself!”

If she had really allowed him to help her with this, she might just get eaten up by him before she could even eat breakfast.

Yu Yuehan loosened his grip and allowed her to do it herself.

Turning his aristocratic body around, he took out a suit from his closet and changed into it unhurriedly.

However, he passed a necktie to her in the end and said, “Tie it for me.”

It was a known fact that a wife would help her husband put on his necktie before he headed out, and this was done to remind him to return home as his wife had already tied him up.

Nian Xiaomu stared at the necktie in front of her. Afraid that he could see her thoughts, she gave a light cough at once and took the necktie from him while pretending not to take the matter seriously.

Yu Yuehan was very tall.

Although Nian Xiaomu had the golden height of a goddess, she was still significantly shorter when she stood in front of him.

She had to go on tip-toe if she wanted to tie the necktie on him.

Her body swayed. At the very next second, his warm hands had already circled around her waist as he drew her gently into his embrace.

Nian Xiaomu’s felt a little wobbly as she leaned on him and sniffed the cool scent on his body.

She suppressed the thought of taking advantage of him and tied the necktie swiftly.

Following which, she took two steps backward and said, “I’m done! Let’s head down to have breakfast!”

She ran away the moment she finished speaking and did not wait for Yu Yuehan’s reply.

The butler had already prepared breakfast in advance when she entered the dining room.

In the beginning, Nian Xiaomu had assumed that she was feeling sleepy because she was simply too tired. She only realized that they were indeed up very early and that it was totally not time for work after she happened to catch a glimpse of the time.

She turned her head doubtfully and looked at Yu Yuehan. He was just one step slower than her in coming downstairs.

Yu Yuehan adjusted the cuffs of his sleeves as he walked in.

Pulling out a chair, he sat beside her and said dully, "I have an interview with a finance magazine today. Since I have a meeting in the afternoon without any breaks, I moved the interview forward to the morning."

"Is it a male or a female?" Nian Xiaomu stared at him with a vigilant look.

"What?" Yu Yuehan was taken aback.

Nian Xiaomu assumed that he was trying to change the topic. As she placed her cutlery down, she grabbed his arm and asked, "Is the reporter who will be interviewing you today a male or a female?"

Chapter 437: Daily dose of sweetness (3)

Yu Yuehan was initially taken aback by her question, but very quickly, the sides of his eyes lifted up.

He grinned and replied, "Make a guess."

Nian Xiaomu: "..."

It's over!

Generally speaking, when a man replies with "Make a guess" to his girlfriend after he is asked a question about the opposite sex, it usually means that he does not want to give an answer.

On the other hand, perhaps he feels guilty and wants to avoid the question!

Nian Xiaomu's face fell. Pouting as she glared at him, she exclaimed, "Yu Yuehan, do you not remember that you have a girlfriend?! Shouldn't people in a relationship maintain a distance from the opposite sex?!"

"This is work." Yu Yuehan raised his eyebrow.

"Using work as an excuse to play the field is even more disgusting!" Nian Xiaomu emphasized in a serious tone.

Seeing that he was not responding, she secretly pinched herself under the table so hard that her eyes turned red.

Her stern expression immediately changed. Now, she looked pitiful.

"It's true that men do not cherish their women once they succeed in winning them over. Look at you. You are the perfect example. Last night, you still told me that having me in your life was enough. Now that you put on a suit, you changed your tune so quickly! What a jerk!"

Nian Xiaomu pretended to dab away some tears from the corners of her eyes as she spoke.

For people who had no idea what was going on, they would surely imagine that Yu Yuehan had cheated on Nian Xiaomu if they witnessed this scene.

Yu Yuehan: "..."

She had not even seen the shadow of a female reporter. How did he end up becoming a jerk?

Nian Xiaomu did not bother with his look of alarm. She walked over and sat down on his lap, then reached out to undo his tie and proceeded to take off his clothes.

Yu Yuehan asked, "What are you doing?"

"You look too handsome in this suit. When I was putting on your tie for you just now, my legs turned to jelly just from looking at you, and I almost couldn't resist kissing you! I thought about it and decided to play it safe. I cannot let other women see you like this! You better get changed into something uglier. Anyway, it's just a written article, so you don't need to appear in front of a camera. What's the point of looking so suave?"

Nian Xiaomu reasoned it out with him.

Seeing her get so jealous, he couldn't help but laugh.

Everything she did was so straightforward and sincere in his eyes.

She was forthcoming in expressing her love. She would not let anyone take a second look at, not to mention snatch, that which belonged to her.

He was delighted by this side of her.

Yu Yuehan wished he had a magic pouch that he could keep Nian Xiaomu in so that he could go everywhere with her.

Yu Yuehan reached out to pinch her cheek dotingly as he teased, "Should I get changed even if it's a male reporter?"

"Stop talking to me now. Change out of your outfit first..." Midway through her sentence, Nian Xiaomu suddenly caught herself and raised her head to look at Yu Yuehan.

What did he say just now?

Male reporter... male?!!!

For a long while Nian Xiaomu remained frozen in the same position as she stared at him blankly, totally unable to respond to him.

She had just thrown a tantrum at her boyfriend only to find out that she had made a mistake. What should she do now?

If she were to apologize, would that damage her image as a goddess?

Nian Xiaomu rubbed her nose awkwardly and redid Yu Yuehan's tie for him.

She even thoughtfully pressed down the creased collar of his business suit.

Blinking her animated eyes innocently as if she had not heard what he said, she let out two coughs and spoke out in a magnanimous tone, "Now that I think about, let's just let this pass. Since you have such good taste and fell for me, you obviously will not be interested in other types of flirtatious women. It doesn't matter what you wear when you go out!"

“...”

“I’m serious. You don’t have to comfort me. Am I so petty? After all, it’s only a business suit. It’s good to be smartly dressed. This shows that you respect the interview crew! I can understand!”

Nian Xiaomu walked back and sat down in her chair as she blabbered on. Then, she grabbed a slice of bread and stuffed it into her mouth, acting as if she was busy eating and wasn’t free to chat.

Chapter 438: Daily dose of sweetness (4)

When they finished eating their breakfast, Yu Yuehan stood up from his seat, the butler handed him a windbreaker jacket, and he took it unhurriedly.

The dark colored windbreaker further defined his long and slender figure and made him look exceptionally charming.

Besides that air of nobility, he also seemed very distant and unapproachable.

As Nian Xiaomu sat in her chair with her hand propping up her chin, she tilted her head and looked at the image in front of her. In her heart, she silently cursed, What an evildoer!

It was lucky that she had claimed him for her own. Otherwise, nobody would know how many young girls he would be destroying.

She accompanied him out after he had put on his jacket.

Just when Yu Yuehan was about to enter the car, he paused in his steps and took a sideways glance at her.

A devilish aura seeped through his pretty and flirtatious eyes as he stared at her silently.

For some reason, Nian Xiaomu understood what he meant by this. Standing on tiptoe, she planted a sneaky kiss on his thin lips and warned him in a domineering manner, “You are my man once you have obtained my stamp of approval. Don’t even take a glance, much less flirt, with the wild flowers outside!”

“How is this enough?” Yu Yuehan’s lips curled up as he drew her into his embrace and gave her a deeper kiss.

Yu Yuehan left, but Xiao Liuliu had not gotten up yet.

As Nian Xiaomu took a look at the Yu Family villa that had quieted down, she suddenly felt a little lonely.

She headed upstairs to change her clothes and headed to the office early.

She did not trouble the chauffeur to send her there. Instead, she flagged down a cab at the roadside and told the driver the company’s address.

The moment she got in the car, she started to nod off because she had gotten up too early.

Leaning against the backseat of the car, she rested for a while and only opened her eyes when she felt that they were arriving.

She felt that something was wrong the moment she opened her eyes.

Turning to the side, she looked out of the car window and realized that the streets looked unfamiliar—this wasn't the route to the Yu Corporation.

She asked subconsciously, "Driver, did you drive in the wrong direction?"

After she finished her sentence, the driver did not reply and instead drove at a faster speed!

Something was not right!

There must be something wrong!

Nian Xiaomu lowered her head hurriedly and checked her cell phone, but found out that it was not receiving any wireless signals.

The car must have had a device installed that blocked out any signals. Furthermore, the surroundings looked very secluded.

"Who are you? What are you planning to do?" Nian Xiaomu tried to open the car door, but realized that it was locked.

She lunged forward and grabbed ahold of the cap that the driver was wearing.

She only realized that the driver was also wearing a mask when the cap fell off!

He obviously came prepared.

She was being targeted. Was this a robbery? Or a kidnapping?

Or were there other things they were planning to do?

"Stop the car!" When Nian Xiaomu saw that the car was about to enter a small alleyway, she made up her mind and directly lunged over to grab ahold of the steering wheel.

BAM!

The car crashed into a tree at the entrance of the alleyway and came to a stop.

Both of them were a little dazed by the impact of the collision.

As Nian Xiaomu pressed against her dizzy head, she reached out immediately, pushed open the car door, and climbed out before the driver could react to anything.

"Don't run!" The driver was a step slower in returning to his senses. When he saw that she was about to run away, he reached out and grabbed onto her ankle.

Nian Xiaomu used all of her strength and gave him a kick. Seizing the opportunity, she crawled out from the car door.

Before she had the time to steady her steps, a few people in the alleyway heard the commotion and made their way out swiftly.

Their eyes revealed an ominous glint the moment they saw her!

They were all part of the same gang.

The driver screamed at them the moment he wiggled out of the car and yelled, "She's running away! Hurry up and catch her!"

The group of them surrounded Nian Xiaomu in the blink of an eye.

Just when someone reached out and tried lunging forward in Nian Xiaomu's direction, she turned around and subsequently sent a kick at his crotch. The impact so violent that he knelt down immediately and called for his daddy.

The remaining three men stared at each other. In a uniform manner, each of them took out a folded blade that was hidden in their pocket.

They threatened her and said, "You won't be able to run away today. I would advise you to be obedient. We few men here might be very reckless with our actions—I'm afraid that you won't be kept alive if you resist!"

Chapter 439: This is my boyfriend (1)

Nian Xiaomu retreated a few steps backward. As the back of her body pressed against the tree by the roadside, she lifted her head up and studied the several men in front of her.

They looked very unfamiliar.

Judging from their appearances, the fact that they wore masks, and their way of talking, they didn't seem like people whom she had had contact with.

"Who ordered all of you to abduct me? What are you all planning to do?"

Nian Xiaomu twisted her head around and had already taken a scan of the surroundings while she was questioning them.

It was very secluded here with no pedestrians. There was only thick, accumulated snow present on the road that had not been swept away in time.

She had dropped her bag and cell phone in the taxi as well. There was nothing she could do apart from trying to save herself..

However, there were four people here; even the man that she had kicked just now had already suppressed his pain and was back on his feet. As he rubbed his fists and wiped his palms, he seemed ready to head forward and teach her a lesson.

Nian Xiaomu was clenching her fists, but the look on her face appeared to be very calm.

Perceiving that the man who had threatened her was the leader of the other kidnapers, she looked at him directly and said, "As long as you tell me who paid you guys to abduct me, I will pay you double the offered price!"

"..."

A few of their eyes sparkled simultaneously the moment they heard that they might be paid double.

They had already been paid a hefty reward to do this job.

Furthermore, they could actually get double the amount now...

It would be difficult for one not to be tempted by this kind of offer.

However...

“We won’t be swindled so easily. If you’re sensible, then listen to us obediently and we will all be more gentle to you later on!” As the person who led the gang said this, he stared at Nian Xiaomu’s delicate and pretty face with a perverted look.

None of them had expected that the person whom the other party had asked them to deal with would be such a beauty.

For a beauty like this, they would still profit even if they were not paid for the job!

When the leader of the kidnapers sent a look at his brothers, a few of them started to advance toward Nian Xiaomu, surrounding her.

It seemed like they were not planning on letting her go...

Nian Xiaomu bit the bullet and found a better direction to escape. While the first person was lunging toward her, she avoided him by dodging and sprinted away!

However, they caught up to her after she had only taken a few steps away!

They grabbed her shoulders forcefully and pulled on her entire body from behind.

Instinctively, she flipped around and grabbed the arm of the other party. With a shoulder throw, she flung the person violently onto the ground.

Her entire set of actions was executed in a swift and direct manner.

Not only had she shocked the other three men, she had shocked herself as well. Nian Xiaomu lowered her head and took a glance at both of her hands.

She snapped back to her senses and could not be bothered to think further. Immediately, she turned around and ran off!

The expressions on the kidnapers’ faces turned fierce and malicious when they realized that she knew self-defense skills. Without another word, they chased after her with their blades in hand

It was a one versus four situation. Even if one of them was down, the other three were still around.

Even though Nian Xiaomu wasn’t very sure of the outcome, she did not reveal a single hint of fear on her face.

“You won’t be able to escape!” The kidnapper who led the pack blocked her way in no time.

You won't be able to escape...

This sentence rang in her mind again. Reaching out, she pressed against her head as an image seemed to flash past right before her eyes.

The image flashed across before she could see it clearly.

A ray of light flickered in her eyes as she lifted her head up and stared at the kidnappers in front of her who had ferocious gazes in their eyes.

Clenching her fists tightly, she sent a kick at the person in front of her and knocked him flat on the ground immediately!

She seemed like a fish that was at a critical impasse while a dangerous aura exuded from her entire body...

The remaining two kidnappers paused in the steps instantly and were so intimidated that they dared not continue forward.

They stared at each other.

Why did no one tell them that this woman who looked so gentle and frail actually knew quite a few moves?!

Since she wasn't sensible, she shouldn't blame them for being hard on her then!

Chapter 440: This is my boyfriend (2)

Both of them threw a glance at the other and charged forward together!

Nian Xiaomu's body tightened, and her face revealed a somewhat extraordinary and pale look.

Before her, the snowy view of the streets seemed to have turned into a large, raging fire that was engulfing every single bit of her surroundings...

The clusters of flames had surrounded her, and she could not run out of it no matter what!

All of a sudden, Nian Xiaomu could not see anything before her. As she hugged her head with both hands, she squatted down and shouted out painfully, "AHHH!!!"

In the blink of an eye, the two kidnappers had already rushed to her side.

She watched helplessly as the blades in their hands were about to stab into her body.

At this very crucial moment, a handsome figure suddenly stood in front of her and defended her.

He raised his arms and protected her!

Swish!

As the razor-sharp blade slashed Fan Yu's arm, bright red blood dripped onto the snow.

Bloody plum flowers blossomed on the snowy ground.

However, Fan Yu did not seem to feel the pain as he drew Nian Xiaomu into his embrace and asked anxiously, "How are you feeling? Are you hurt?"

"..."

The person in his embrace was still hugging her own head.

With a painful expression on her face, she stared blankly and appeared to be at a loss.

When she saw that the person who had appeared in front of her was Fan Yu, her jaw dropped, but she could not utter a single word...

"Let's go quick! Quickly!" When the two kidnapers saw that someone had come, the both of them dragged each other and got ready to run away

As Fan Yu stared at the lifeless Nian Xiaomu, he heard the sound of movements coming from behind. All of a sudden, his dark brown eyes turned very chilly.

He turned around coldly and stared at the few people who were planning on running away. As he took a step forward, he reached out and grabbed the leader who was in charge of giving out orders. With a sweeping leg movement, he sent the lead kidnapper crashing directly to the ground and stepped on his chest!

"AHH!!!" The ringleader vomited blood instantly from the stomps he had received.

One by one, Fan Yu dealt with remaining few who had wanted to run away.

All of them ended up twitching on the ground!

Fan Yu had called the police, so help would arrive soon.

However, he could not be bothered with others. Instead, he walked directly toward Nian Xiaomu and looked at her anxiously.

A perplexed look was present in his gaze at the same time.

Just now, two of the men were already lying on the ground when he first showed up.

If Nian Xiaomu was indeed Liuliu, her self-defense skills would have personally been taught by Fan Yu. With the guts that she possessed, she wouldn't have been frightened to such an extent even if the odds of success in a one versus four situation were uncertain.

Fan Yu frowned. Just when he wanted to say something, he realized that her gaze was fixated on his injured arm.

He had lost quite a lot of blood even though the cut wasn't very deep.

Even though the wound had already been briefly taken care of, one would still feel apprehensive when they saw the dried blood stains.

"Was it painful?"

She reached her hand out carefully and pointed at his arm.

Fan Yu heaved a sigh of relief when he saw that she had finally spoken and replied, "It's just a minor wound. Let's talk about you instead. How did you get yourself involved with those ruffians?"

"..." Nian Xiaomu withdrew herself from thinking about the image that had flashed through her head.

She still looked a little helpless.

Unfamiliar images had always popped up in her mind, but no matter what, she could not see them clearly.

The more she thought about them, the more her head hurt.

She decided not to think about them first. Lifting her head up, she looked at Fan Yu.

"I don't know either. I wanted to head to the office, but the taxi driver suddenly drove me here..."

She did not know any of the four kidnappers.

If Fan Yu had not stood in front of her and defended her earlier, she would have been the one who was currently injured.

She had always treated Fan Yu as her competitor, but he had just saved her.

The scene of him disregarding everything and using his body as a shield for her was still wavering in Nian Xiaomu's mind.

Pursing her lips, she said, "Umm, you will need to bandage the wound on your arm. I'll accompany you to the hospital!"