

My Life 441

Chapter 441: This is my boyfriend (3)

Fan Yu took a look at her and caught a hint of concern in her eyes. His eyes flickered, and he did not reject her.

Both of them proceeded to the hospital after they gave simple statements to the police.

In the past, Nian Xiaomu studied nursing and used to look for Tan Bengbeng very often. Hence, she was very familiar with this hospital.

They settled the procedures swiftly and with ease.

When the nurse was bandaging Fan Yu's wounds, Nian Xiaomu stretched her neck out to take a look and repeatedly urged the nurse to go gently on him.

From Nian Xiaomu's expression, it was as if she really wanted to take over the procedure.

"The wound wasn't deep, so there's no need for stitches. However, you still must pay attention to what you do every day and try to keep the wound dry..." After the nurse was done bandaging, she advised him repeatedly before finally looking at Nian Xiaomu.

The nurse passed a prescription to her.

"To get the medication, the pharmacy is right beside the hospital. You can bring this prescription script along and help your boyfriend retrieve his medicine."

"We are not..." The nurse had already turned around and left just as Nian Xiaomu wanted to explain.

Nian Xiaomu pouted her lips, but thought that it did not matter if a stranger had misunderstood.

It would seem very weird if she insisted on heading forward to explain.

Fan Yu, however...

Nian Xiaomu turned around and took a glance at him. He actually did not reveal a single reaction after he heard what the nurse had said. With that gentle expression of his, it seemed like he wasn't at all disturbed by the misunderstanding.

He smiled gently when he saw that she was looking at him.

"There is no need for trouble. Let's head there together."

As he said this, he stood up first and took the prescription from her hands before strolling out.

The aura that he exuded seemed to be different from before.

When he noticed that she did not follow along, he paused in his steps and turned his head around to wait for her.

Nian Xiaomu caught up with him in a rush.

There were a lot of people lined up at the pharmacy.

For a person with such a high status, Nian Xiaomu had always assumed that Fan Yu would have a private doctor or a VIP card for a private hospital.

However, he simply stood calmly among the crowd and did not reveal a single hint of impatience.

His exceptional temperament had attracted quite a number of young ladies. None of them could help it, and they secretly took out their cell phones to take photos of him.

He simply smiled unhurriedly when he realized this.

That smile was like a spring breeze that caressed one's cheeks.

"Ahhh! So handsome!"

"For the first time, I feel like coming to the hospital is not a terrible thing. At the very least, we can't see this kind of top-grade hunk outside!"

"He smiled at me. My legs are wobbly... Support me..."

"He obviously smiled at me!"

"..."

A commotion was about to arise because of a man. After Nian Xiaomu retrieved the medicine, she dragged him away quickly and left.

She realized that he had paused in his steps just after she had exited the hospital.

She turned around instinctively and realized that he was staring at her hand. It was only now that she realized that she had reached out and grabbed the sleeve of his shirt in her haste a moment ago.

She released her grip and started to explain, "There were too many people just now, so I..."

"I feel a little dizzy. Can we look for a place to rest?" Fan Yu suddenly interrupted her and reached out to press against his injured arm.

Blood had oozed out from the freshly bandaged wound.

A light pink color soaked through the gauze.

Nian Xiaomu slapped her forehead in horror!

How could she forget that he had lost quite a bit of blood just now and had not drunk a single drop of water after standing for so long.

It was no wonder that he wasn't feeling well.

"There's a cafe next door, and we can head over there to rest." As Nian Xiaomu said that, she realized that his face had turned pale, so she automatically went forward to assist him.

As Fan Yu glanced at the person beside him who had an anxious look on her face, a smile flashed past his gentle eyes.

The person in front of him seemed to have turned into her younger self all over again.

The girl who would become exceptionally anxious the moment she noticed that he wasn't feeling well...

Unconsciously, he asked her, "Nian Xiaomu, do you really not know me?"

"What?" Nian Xiaomu did not hear him clearly and turned to look at him.

Chapter 442: This is my boyfriend (4)

Fan Yu stared at her with an expression that was filled with confused thoughts. When he realized what he had said just now, he smiled lightly and replied, "Nothing."

The two of them entered the cafe as they chatted.

Nian Xiaomu pulled a chair out and sat at a seat next to the window. After she ordered her coffee, she tilted her head, looked at him, and asked, "By the way, that area was quite secluded, so how did you end up there?"

When Fan Yu heard this question, his eyes flickered as he opened his thin lips and said, "I happened to be passing by. An area of land that a developer and I have agreed upon was nearby."

After he finished his sentence, he looked away to hide the ray of light in his eyes.

He did not tell her that he had been following her right from the start and ever since she had first left the Yu Family villa.

He stepped up his vigilance after he realized that the driver was traveling on the wrong route. Furthermore, he dialed her number, but his call could not get through either.

He hadn't expected that he would eventually lose track of her whereabouts near that area.

In the end, he luckily found her in the nick of time...

"Thank you!" Nian Xiaomu said with utmost sincerity.

No matter what, he was the one who had saved her today.

"No problem. If it was someone else, I would have saved him or her as well." Fan Yu picked up the glass of water and took a sip. Noticing that she still seemed to take the incident to heart, he took advantage of the opportunity and asked, "Answer a few questions of mine if you really want to repay me."

"..."

Fan Yu placed his glass of water down, looked at her, and continued, "It's nothing much actually. I just think that you're really special. As such, I am a little curious about what your family members are like."

Nian Xiaomu heard what he said and replied in a straightforward manner, "I don't have any family members."

Her clear-cut reply instantly left Fan Yu stunned.

No family members?

What did she mean?

Perhaps this straightforward reply was due to the fact that Fan Yu had just saved her and also because the Fan Corporation had not managed to gain anything from her side.

Nian Xiaomu's hostility toward Fan Yu had lessened significantly. Seeing that he seemed to be in shock from the expression on his face, she added, "I used to be alone in the past, but I have a boyfriend now."

Without realizing it herself, a smile formed at the corner of her mouth the moment she thought about Yu Yuehan.

Her smile was sweet, and her eyebrows were curved.

Her originally outstanding facial features became even more lovable and charming.

She was glowing from head to toe with happiness, the kind of happiness which indicated that she could not wait to tell the entire world that she had someone she liked.

Fan Yu: "..."

Without asking, he knew who she was referring to.

He clenched his hands tightly under the table.

Trying hard to suppress the pain and unwillingness in his chest, he continued by asking, "Are you from City H? Have to traveled anywhere else?"

None of her background information could be obtained.

It was very possible that she didn't live here previously.

As long as she said she wasn't from City H, the possibility of her being Liuliu would increase significantly!

"..."

Nian Xiaomu took a glance at him. Even though she wasn't very keen on this topic, she still opened her mouth patiently and answered when she recalled that he had just saved her life, "I don't know. Actually, many things about me were already..."

Before she could finish her sentence, an honorable figure appeared at the entrance of the cafe.

It seemed like the attraction of a magnetic field.

She felt it at the very moment that Yu Yuehan appeared.

Similarly, Yu Yuehan, who was standing at the entrance, had already locked in on her position and was making his way over to her.

With a look of worry behind his eyes, he reached out and pulled her up from her chair. Following which, he examined her from top to bottom.

After he had confirmed that she was fine, he drew her forcefully into his embrace!

He hugged her tightly!

Since Nian Xiaomu was sealed against his chest, she could sense his restlessness and muttered softly, "Didn't I send a text message and tell you that I was fine? Why did you come here so quickly..."

Yu Yuehan tightened his grip. Taking a glance at Fan Yu, who was sitting across from her, he opened his mouth unhurriedly and asked, "Why didn't you answer your phone?"

Chapter 443: Blind date! (1)

"..."

Lowering her head, Nian Xiaomu searched her bag and took out her cell phone. She realized that her cell phone had been set to silent mode.

The scores of missed calls displayed on the phone screen were all made after she had sent him the text message...

Nian Xiaomu chuckled awkwardly. As she thought of Fan Yu, who was still sitting across from her, the quick-witted Nian Xiaomu shifted the topic promptly to maintain her goddess-like image.

"Fan Yu saved me just now. I was in a hurry to send him to the hospital because he was injured."

It would have been better if Nian Xiaomu had not mentioned this at all. The moment she brought up the subject, Yu Yuehan's face turned even darker.

Apart from blaming himself for not doing his job to protect her, he was also feeling gloomy about the fact that Fan Yu was actually the one who had saved her.

His thin lips wavered, opening for one moment and closing in the other. Just when he wanted to speak, the person beside him hooked her arms around him. With a smiling expression, she turned around, looked at Fan Yu, and said, "This is my boyfriend, Yu Yuehan. The one that I mentioned just now."

"..." The depressing feeling in Yu Yuehan's chest vanished instantly without a trace.

What was more comfortable than hearing his own girlfriend introduce him in a tone that indicated "this is my dearest baby?"

What was with the hint of arrogance in her tone though?

She sounded like she had picked up a treasure and didn't behave a single bit like a reserved lady.

It was okay, however. He liked her exactly like this!

Yu Yuehan held her waist gently in his arms and extended his hand toward Fan Yu unhurriedly.

"I haven't thanked Young Master Fan for your help this time. I owe you for this matter and will certainly repay you if there is a chance in the future.

From his words, it seemed like he was swearing on sovereignty.

Fan Yu's expression was a little ugly. As his gentle gaze wavered, he shook Yu Yuehan's hand.

“Young Master Han, your every word carries weight. However, since the person that I saved wasn’t you, I definitely wouldn’t dare to accept your debt of gratitude.”

The upright bodies of these two outstanding men stood facing each other.

Even when they were just standing there, their auras were completely spread out, and they prevented others from approaching.

They were silently matching each other’s strength as they grasped each other’s hands during the handshake.

Nian Xiaomu stood with them for a while, then sat down impatiently. With a glass of water in her hand, she mumbled, “How can two men maintain such a long handshake. They better not be interested in each other. Otherwise, I am going to lose my boyfriend...”

Both men released their grips at the same time right after she finished her sentence.

Both of them sent an annoyed glance at the other before pulling their chairs out and sitting down.

With Yu Yuehan around, Fan Yu would never get an answer to any of his questions.

When the time it took to drink a cup of coffee was up, Fan Yu raised his arm, took a glance at his wristwatch, and said, “I’ll leave first. I have something to settle at my company.”

“Your medicine!” Nian Xiaomu rapidly passed him the bag in her hand and subconsciously reminded him about it.

“The wound will take a few days to heal. The nurse told you to keep the wound dry and to abstain from certain foods. You should consume less seafood and alcohol. It would also be good if you can lower your coffee intake. Oh yes, be careful not to use too much strength when you are changing the dressing in case the wound reopens. Also...”

Before Nian Xiaomu could finish what she wanted to say, a big hand suddenly pressed on her head.

Yu Yuehan shot a chilly glance at her and took over the speaking.

“Young Master Fan is not a child anymore. Others might have suspicions about his IQ if you are so long-winded.”

Nian Xiaomu: “...!”

Yu Yuehan raised his eyebrows. Looking at Fan Yu, he said, “My girlfriend has a kind heart and also treats animals very well. Young Master Fan, please don’t take it to heart.”

“No worries. I like it very much.” The words spoken by Fan Yu had a double meaning behind them.

A smile curled up at the corner of his mouth only after he saw Yu Yuehan’s face begin to sink. Following which, Fan Yu strolled out and left.

In the cafe.

Only the two of them were left.

As Nian Xiaomu snapped back to her senses, she pursed her lips and tugged on the sleeve of his shirt carefully, saying, "Erm, my occupational habits got the better of me just now..."

Chapter 444: Blind date! (2)

"I'm not angry." Yu Yuehan replied coldly as he lowered his eyes to look at the little head in front of him.

Nian Xiaomu wondered, Why does he seem scarier when he says that he isn't angry compared to when he is actually angry?

As Nian Xiaomu thought about whether she should try to coax him, Yu Yuehan reached out to cup the back of her head and draw her into his embrace.

Then, he lowered his head and Nian Xiaomu could feel him kiss her hair.

After that, he laid his head on the side of her neck as he whispered, "Thankfully, you are fine."

Nian Xiaomu's heart tightened!

An indescribable sense of palpitation shot through her body in that instant.

He had not said much, but she understood him.

She understood his worry, his heartache, and how he had been suppressing his jealousy.

Her heart felt touched by it all.

How did she get so lucky and land such a good man like Yu Yuehan?

Nian Xiaomu buried herself in his arms. Just as she lifted her head to give him a surprise kiss, he took a step back, and she ended up kissing the air in front of her.

"Have you offended anyone lately?" Yu Yuehan did not realize that he had missed something as he passed his credit card to the service staff and asked for the bill.

Nian Xiaomu pouted as she answered, "I don't know. I did ask the kidnappers, and they admitted there was someone behind it. However, they refused to reveal who it was."

The culprits had been apprehended, so it was just a matter of time before they would find out who had instigated the kidnapping.

After Yu Yuehan settled the bill, he took Nian Xiaomu to the police station.

The lawyer was already waiting for them at the entrance. When he saw them, he hurried forward and greeted, "Master Han!"

"Have they found out anything new?" Yu Yuehan held Nian Xiaomu's hand as he asked coldly.

A streak of icy light flickered across his face.

“The police are still questioning the kidnapers. What we do know now is that these four people were paid to do this. As for the person behind everything, the kidnapers claim that they have never met their employer before and had only communicated over the phone.”

The lawyer paused for a moment before continuing, “Their employer paid a deposit and sent them a photograph of Miss Nian as well as her daily schedule. They were instructed to abduct her and send over a video before they would be able to collect the rest of the payment!”

“What video?” Yu Yuehan raised his eyebrows.

Hearing this, the lawyer took a glance at Nian Xiaomu and was hesitant to carry on speaking, but eventually elaborated and said, “The employer hired these gangsters to rape Miss Nian.”

Yu Yuehan’s face turned frigid upon hearing the lawyer’s words, and it looked as if he was about to kill someone.

He stepped past the lawyer and walked forward.

When he arrived inside, he saw that the kidnapers were done with the interrogation session and were being led out by the officers.

When they saw Nian Xiaomu, they were slightly shocked. Then, when they saw Yu Yuehan standing next to her, their faces immediately turned pale!

They did not know who Nian Xiaomu was, but Yu Yuehan was a well-known figure in City H. Who did not know of Master Han?

At first, the gangsters thought they were being paid to deal with an ordinary person. However, now that they saw that Yu Yuehan was accompanying Nian Xiaomu in the police station, they were all stunned!

“Yu Yuehan!” Nian Xiaomu was afraid that he would act rashly and held onto his arm tightly.

The detectives in charge of questioning the kidnapers sent them to be taken away before updating Yu Yuehan and Nian Xiaomu,

“These people were hired to do this. To catch the mastermind, we will carry out an additional investigation based on the evidence that they provided. Once we have any news, we will let you know immediately. By the way, we might need to trouble Miss Nian to return to the police station to provide assistance in the case.”

On the other side. In the Wen Family villa.

Smash!!

Wen Yadaï sent everything on the desk crashing to the floor.

With a sinister and vile expression, she gritted her teeth as she shrieked, “Trash! What a bunch of trash! They couldn’t even handle a b*tch!”

Zhang Qi was useless! Now, even the gangsters she had hired were useless too!

Chapter 445: Blind date! (3)

She had spent so much money, yet she did not succeed in destroying Nian Xiaomu!

Now that the matter had been exposed and Yu Yuehan knew that someone was out to harm Nian Xiaomu, he would surely carry out an investigation to the end!

A thought struck Wen Yadaï, and she took out the cell phone SIM card that she had hidden in the drawer. Snapping it into half, she ran into the washroom and tossed it into the toilet bowl.

After flushing it down and watching the SIM card disappear, she let out a long sigh of relief.

She had just returned to her bedroom when the door suddenly swung open forcefully.

Arms akimbo, Zhang Mingyan walked in with an air of arrogance.

Sweeping a glance at Wen Yadaï's luxurious bedroom, her eyes burned with jealousy.

Why did Wen Yadaï have the best things in life when her son could not step even step foot into the door of the Wen family? They were both children of the Wen Family, yet why did her son have to suffer outside all these years?

"What are you looking at? Who gave you permission to come into my room without even knocking first? You're really a woman from a lowly background. No manners at all, you sl*t!"

When Wen Yadaï saw who it was, the expression on her face turned cold.

The entire Wen family was already giving her a hard time because she had offended Master Han, yet her father brought back his mistress during this time...

Wen Yadaï wished to tear Zhang Mingyan apart!

Zhang Mingyan walked forward and snickered. "This is the Wen Family and the man of the household is your father. I am your father's wife so I can go wherever I please."

Hearing this, Wen Yadaï was about to explode in fury.

"The madam of the household is my mother. Who do you think you are?!"

Instead of getting angry, Zhang Mingyan broke into a smile as she gloated, "Well at least I gave birth to a son for your father, and my son can take over the Wen Family business in the future. What has your mother done for the Wen Family? She only gave birth to a useless daughter. Now that you've offended the Yu Family, be thankful that your father hasn't chased you out of the house! He's already done his part as a father. Do you still think you're a treasure to him?"

"What did you say?!" Wen Yadaï tightened her fists and grated her teeth.

Since a young age, she had received the best education, and everything she used was the best in the Wen Family.

Even though her father was not fond of her mother, he doted on her a lot. He used to carry her very often and even told her that as long as she worked hard, he would leave all of the Wen Family assets to her.

When she refused to work for their own family business and insisted on staying in the Yu Corporation, her father wholeheartedly supported her too.

He had even praised her for being so capable...

Throwing a glance at Wen Yadai, Zhang Mingyan's eyes were filled with mockery.

"What I say does not matter. However, your father said that since you cannot win Master Han's heart, do not pester him and annoy him further. Why don't you change your target and meet up with the eldest young master of the An Family, An Li?"

"You want me to go on a blind date? That's your wishful thinking!" Wen Yadai's facial expression changed as she hollered at Zhang Mingyan.

The An Family was not even on par with the Wen Family. An Li, the eldest young master of the An Family, had been sent overseas a few years ago. While it was said that he had gone to further his studies, it was widely known that he was a brat who was out of control, which was why he had to be sent away!

She was the most distinguished young mistress of the Wen Family. How could she go on a blind date with such a man!

"It's true that the An Family could not match up to the Wen Family, but that was in the past, and things are different now. It seems like the An Family will be collaborating on a project with the Yu Corporation. If everything goes well, the status of the An Family will definitely rise in power. Then, it will be your honor to know An Li."

Zhang Mingyan played with her fingertips as she sneered,

"Actually, you have only yourself to blame. If you were like before and in Master Han's good books, why would the collaboration end up with the An Family?"

Wen Yadai: "...!!"

Chapter 446: Blind date! (4)

"I've already conveyed the message. It's your call whether you want to attend. However, your dad has already said that he would arrange to send you overseas immediately if you're not of much use in the country, lest you implicate the Wen Family when Young Master Han sees you."

After Zhang Mingyan finished her piece, she turned around and left.

Only Wen Yadai was left behind with a ghastly pale face. After she heard the sound of the door closing, she fell and sat paralyzed on the ground!

Yu Yuehan had been holding onto Nian Xiaomu's hands ever since she left the police station.

The pressure in the car fell lower and lower as the two of them sat in it.

While Nian Xiaomu sat beside him, the only thing that she heard was him constantly making phone calls. Apart from ordering people to look into the person who had paid money to abduct her, he had also arranged four bodyguards for her—they would be split into two shifts and would follow her around 24/7...

Nian Xiaomu tilted her head and secretly sent text messages to her best friend.

Nian Xiaomu: [Even though I am still a poor wretch, I suddenly feel that my life has become so valuable...]

Tan Bengbeng: [Has Young Master Han decided to keep you as a mistress?]

Nian Xiaomu: [Pooh! Can a goddess be kept as a mistress just like that? He has just arranged for four bodyguards to protect me...]

Tan Bengbeng: [Why are you so happy? You are worth less than a bodyguard.]

Nian Xiaomu: [...]

This was the end of their friendship!

"Who are you texting?" The moment Yu Yuehan put down his cell phone, he noticed that the person beside him was staring at her cell phone with puffed up cheeks.

Nian Xiaomu hid her cell phone immediately when she heard his voice.

She raised her head up guiltily and said, "Nothing much. I was just browsing."

Yu Yuehan: "..."

"Oh yes, has your interview ended?" Nian Xiaomu had originally just wanted to change the topic. In the end, she thought of this subject and immediately dug out her phone in excitement to look at the news on the internet.

Indeed, there was already a preview for the exclusive interview with Yu Yuehan.

Only the written report was available, but a huge group of "auntie fans" were already crazily supporting and promoting his interview on the internet!

"What is there to see?" All of a sudden, Yu Yuehan reached out and blocked the screen on her cell phone.

He got ready to take her cell phone away.

Nian Xiaomu instinctively protected her cell phone. The next second, she seemed to have seen something, and her eyes suddenly opened very wide!

"Wait! Hands off!"

She pressed onto Yu Yuehan. Following which, she snatched her cell phone from his hands and scrolled the page from the top right to the bottom.

She pointed to the photograph at the very bottom.

Only a blurred view of Yu Yuehan's back was revealed, but the female reporter who had conducted the interview was sitting across from him and her entire face was revealed!

She was dressed fashionably and had a delicate face with makeup.

As she sat beside Yu Yuehan, even a blind person could see that her face was filled with admiration!

He even dared to tell her that it would be a male reporter who interviewed him.

Liar!

Hmph!

Nian Xiaomu exited the web page fiercely and stuffed her cell phone back into her bag.

Hugging her own body, she sat in the seat furthest away from him and turned to stare out the window.

"Nian Xiaomu!"

"..." A lying man wasn't fit to call her name!

The moment the car arrived at the Yu Family villa, Nian Xiaomu opened the car door and walked in while huffing with rage.

Yu Yuehan grabbed ahold of her arm just as she reached the living room.

As Nian Xiaomu was still in a fit of anger, she yanked his arm directly and executed a shoulder throw.

An ordinary person would surely have been unable to react in time.

However, Yu Yuehan was only stunned for a second. Before she could manage to throw his body out, he leaned forward and carried her in his arms, causing the both of them to crash onto the sofa together.

Flipping his tall and huge body, he pressed her into his embrace and opened his thin lips.

"Nian Xiaomu, is this domestic violence?"

"..."

Nian Xiaomu stared blankly. Her expression was a little dazed because she seemed to realize what she had done just now.

She bit her lip as the images she had seen previously flashed past her mind.

"Yu Yuehan, I think I just managed to remember things from my past..."

Chapter 447: Coax me, Nian Xiaomu (1)

Startled by her words, Yu Yuehan immediately carried her to sit down on the sofa.

Holding her lifeless face in his hands, he lowered his eyes and asked in a serious tone, "What did you say?"

"..."

For a long while Nian Xiaomu kept silent before shaking her head gently.

"I can't quite put words to it. When I beat up those aholes earlier, a few strange scenes flashed through my mind. Although I don't remember them clearly, they felt familiar, as though I had been through those experiences before."

Nian Xiaomu snuggled in Yu Yuehan's arms and wrapped her arms around his waist, wistfully resting against his chest.

She tried hard to recall the past, but besides the big fire in her memories, she could not think of anything else...

Whenever she attempted to do so, her head would hurt.

The feeling of almost being consumed by the fire made her tremble in fright.

"Forget it if you cannot think of anything. It's already in the past." Seeing Nian Xiaomu's face turn pale, Yu Yuehan spoke in a deep voice as he used his big arms to hug her.

"Maybe you suffered a shock, and that's why you had these hallucinations." Yu Yuehan rested his chin on the top of her head as he hugged her, his heart filled with self-reproach.

Tightening his arms around her, he waited for her to calm down so he could carry her back to his room.

Suddenly, Nian Xiaomu pushed him away with force, turned around, and sat on top of him.

Grabbing a cushion, she pressed it against his chest and declared, "Don't think that you can say a few sweet nothings to me and that I will forget the issue of the female reporter!"

Yu Yuehan: "..."

Where was the gentle and demure girlfriend who had been in his arms earlier? This one might be an impostor?

"She was a substitute reporter. I did not even see her face clearly."

"..."

This answer was worth full marks.

Eyeing Yu Yuehan suspiciously, Nian Xiaomu appeared to doubt his words.

Yu Yuehan lifted his arms nonchalantly and placed them behind his head as he coolly continued, "This issue is nothing compared to how a damsel in distress was saved by a hero."

Nian Xiaomu: "...!"

“And they even had coffee together,” added Yu Yuehan slowly.

Nian Xiaomu: “...!!”

“When it was time to leave, someone even looked back longingly and wanted to leave behind a reminder...” Before Yu Yuehan could finish what he wanted to say, Nian Xiaomu had already reached her hand out to cover his mouth.

With a guilty smile, she said, “Let bygones be bygones! A beautiful and magnanimous woman like me would not be bothered by a mere female reporter. Anyway, there are so many women who like you, so it’s not like I can be jealous of every single one of them. I was only joking just now.”

“Is that so?” Yu Yuehan raised his eyebrow.

Nodding her head wildly, Nian Xiaomu answered, “Yes! I trust you and am not jealous!”

Hearing this, Yu Yuehan grabbed her shoulders as he sat up on the sofa. With his gaze fixed on her, he enunciated each word clearly, “But I am jealous.”

Nian Xiaomu: “...!!”

“Nian Xiaomu, coax me.”

“...”

Was there medicine to take that could cure feelings of regret? Please give her a dozen!

After a moment of contemplation, Nian Xiaomu lifted her head and planted a kiss on Yu Yuehan’s face.

There was nothing a kiss couldn’t fix between lovers.

Even if there was, she could give another kiss!

Nian Xiaomu was about to kiss Yu Yuehan again when he raised his hand to block her.

When her little head was pushed away, Nian Xiaomu stared back at Yu Yuehan with a pair of confused eyes.

That was it.

Was he very mad at her?

Even kisses did not work.

“Nian Xiaomu, girls should have more modesty.”

Nian Xiaomu: “...!!”

Then, Yu Yuehan gestured to the butler, and the butler came forward with a gift box and presented it to Nian Xiaomu.

Looking over at Nian Xiaomu, Yu Yuehan motioned for her to open it on her own.

As Nian Xiaomu opened the box, a chill went down her spine when her fingertips brushed against a cold silky fabric.

Chapter 448: Coax me, Nian Xiaomu (2)

Would he bestow her a piece of white silk and allow her to end her own life in a fit of anger?

Nian Xiaomu's tiny liver trembled. Gritting her teeth, she opened up the box in front of her.

She was slightly stunned when she saw the mini gown inside.

She turned her head and looked at Yu Yuehan.

Was the gown for her?

Nian Xiaomu reached out and picked up the gown the moment she caught sight of his gaze of confirmation.

The black gown was well designed with a nice texture.

One would feel very comfortable when they held it in their hands.

However, why did he give her a gown for no good reason?

As Yu Yuehan walked forward, he reached out and drew her into his embrace. He stroked the tip of her nose with his long fingers and said lovingly, "There's a very important charity auction tomorrow night. Accompany me to it."

He should have said that earlier!

If he had done that, she would not have been in a state of anxiety for such a long time.

Just when Nian Xiaomu was about to heave a sigh of relief for escaping a calamity, the person in front of her opened his thin lips unhurriedly again.

"Since we have already talked about the important stuff, you can start to coax me now."

Nian Xiaomu: "..."

Wasn't she done with coaxing him just now?

Yu Yuehan took notice of her every expression and his eyebrows raised slightly; it obviously spelled, "You are too naive!"

Nian Xiaomu: "...!!"

The next day.

The grand charity auction was held at the International Expo Center of City H.

The guests in attendance were all distinguished personages of the business industry. Apart from that, many socialites and daughters from rich families would also be attending the event as female companions to these guests.

The venue for the charity auction was at a sumptuous mansion.

The lights that shone down set off a contrast to the night, turning the venue as bright as daytime.

A luxurious limousine stopped at the entrance of the auction venue.

The car door opened and Yu Yuehan stepped out of the car gracefully. As he looked at Nian Xiaomu, who was about to alight from the car, he bent over and scooped her out of the car.

“Yu Yuehan!” Nian Xiaomu was stunned and reach out immediately to hold onto his neck.

“It’s still early, so let’s head to the lounge first,” Yu Yuehan explained as he proceeded to walk toward the lounge with her in his arms.

Along the way, Nian Xiaomu was still pondering why she had followed suit and felt jealous just like the others had. In the end, the result of her jealousy was being tormented to the extent that her body nearly collapsed...

When she heard what he said, she lifted her head up and bit on his chin.

Ouch! Yu Yuehan groaned silently.

Narrowing his eyes, he looked at her and said, “Don’t bite my face. I still need to meet other people.”

“I’m not afraid. I’m not the one who will be embarrassed anyway,” Nian Xiaomu muttered coldly in an act of spite.

Yu Yuehan: “...”

As Yu Yuehan looked at her mischievous expression, he hugged her even more tightly in a loving manner and took huge steps into the lounge.

With a gift box in hand, the assistant was a step behind as he followed them in.

He passed it to Yu Yuehan respectfully.

“What is this?” Nian Xiaomu peeked out from his embrace out of curiosity and took a look at it.

It was a black box covered in a velvet material that appeared to look like a jewelry box.

Out of curiosity, she stood up on her feet, but Yu Yuehan had already reached out and opened the box.

A resplendent diamond necklace emitted a charming gloss.

Yu Yuehan took the necklace out of the box. As he proceeded to stand behind her, he coiled her hair up with his long fingers and put the necklace on her.

After that, he turned her body around and lowered his eyes to look at her.

Not only did the black mini gown accentuate her excellent figure, it also enhanced her noble and elegant aura.

The queen-like aura that was originally hidden within her now had a slight tendency to erupt.

Paired with the diamond necklace, it seemed that everything around her would soon lose its splendor...

He had known all along that the woman he had picked was a treasure.

However, he had not known that every aspect of her would surprise him so much.

Without knowing it himself, his gaze deepened and his eyes narrowed at viewing such a refined and beautiful version of Nian Xiaomu.

“Yu Yuehan, have you looked enough...?”

Chapter 449: Coax me, Nian Xiaomu (3)

Nian Xiaomu’s shoulders fidgeted uneasily.

She could not see what she looked like at the moment and could only feel his gaze; it scorched her skin inch by inch, just like a burning touch.

The fine hair on her entire body stood up uncontrollably.

She was unable to bear it and wanted to reach out to cover his eyes.

“I might not get to have enough of this sight in this lifetime.” Accompanied by a deep gaze, the corner of Yu Yuehan’s mouth curved up into a loving smile.

He held her hand and walked over to face a mirror in the lounge.

Her facial features were outstanding, and she had an exceptionally beautiful face.

Her entire body was set off by the diamond necklace that emitted an aristocratic aura; it complemented the black mini gown on her very well, and both items brought out the best in each other.

Nian Xiaomu herself was stunned as well.

She couldn’t speak for a moment as she faced such an unfamiliar version of herself.

After she stared blankly for a few seconds, she reached out subconsciously to remove the diamond necklace on her neck, saying, “It’s too expensive. I can’t accept it...”

Yu Yuehan had already pressed his hand over her hand before she could remove the necklace.

A smile encompassed his eyes as he pinched her serious-looking face with his long fingers.

“If you’re not wearing the item that is meant to be donated at the charity auction later on, should I be the one wearing it then?”

Nian Xiaomu: “...!!”

So it wasn’t a gift for her...

Nian Xiaomu heaved a sigh of relief immediately.

She would definitely not decline a chance to help a charity.

However, she couldn’t help but feel a little disappointed after she had relaxed herself.

Turning around, she took a glance at the man beside her.

Had he really not thought about giving her any presents? What happened to the three promises that the boyfriend was to abide by, one of which was that he must give surprise gifts to his girlfriend every now and then?

Yu Yuehan seemed to have guessed everything that she was thinking and opened his mouth to reply, "Don't worry, I will."

Just when Nian Xiaomu was about to ask him what he meant by that, the assistant headed forward to give them a reminder and said, "Young Master, the auction is about to begin. It's time to head into the venue."

Yu Yuehan lifted his arm up unhurriedly to allow Nian Xiaomu to hold him by the arm. Following which, he left the lounge with her by his side.

The charity auction was split into two sections.

Apart from the banquet, the other eye-catching part of the program was the auction segment that would begin after the banquet.

The guests who would be attending the charity auction were currently exchanging conventional greetings in the ballroom.

They were proposing toasts to each other.

The reflections from the wine glasses were like glistening stars.

Dressed in a well-fitting red gown, Wen Yadaï looked noble and brilliant as she stood among the crowd.

With a pair of 12 centimeter heels on her feet, she had somewhat matched a few of the qualities of a goddess even though her figure wasn't a tall and slender physique in the first place.

She was in no mood to speak to the people around her as she held a glass of red wine in hand. Instead, she kept on stretching her neck out as she searched for Yu Yuehan's figure in the ballroom.

The Yu Corporation had always supported such large-scale charity auctions.

She was the one who had attended these events with Yu Yuehan in the past.

She knew that he tended to skip the banquet segment because he did not like the bustling atmosphere.

He would only enter the ballroom when the auction was about to commence.

However, why was he still not in sight when the auction was about to begin...

"I heard that Young Master An is already here, so why are you looking around here instead of looking for him?" a mocking voice sounded from behind Wen Yadaï.

"..."

Wen Yadaï's grip on her wine glass tightened.

Turning around, she took a glance at the immensely pleased Zhang Mingyan and gritted her teeth.

She had already inquired about that An Li.; he was a good-for-nothing young man from a wealthy family.

It was one thing if he was just loafing around and doing nothing, but he was a gambler and a lecher as well. In the past, he had gotten a woman pregnant and refused to take responsibility for it—that was how he angered the elders from the An Family and was sent abroad as a result.

How could someone like him hold a candle to Young Master Han?

She could never marry such a man...

Never ever!

Today would be her last chance.

She must seize it!

Just as Wen Yadai was pondering this, gasps sounded from the entrance.

Chapter 450: Coax me, Nian Xiaomu (4)

Yu Yuehan's honorable figure strolled in under the focus of everyone.

His black suit set off his defined and perfectly shaped face; he looked extremely charming.

Every strand of his short black hair swayed clearly in the air.

As he raised his chin slightly, one couldn't help but feel a sense of timidity when seeing the sharp look that his dark gaze emitted.

It did not matter if they were virtuous ladies of blue blood or daughters from rich families—all of those present shrieked out loud at almost the same time.

They spontaneously inched closer to where he was at.

The situation that was previously quite orderly had instantly started bustling with excitement!

Wen Yadai could not restrain the look of admiration in her eyes as she tried her best to squeeze to the front of the crowd in hopes of getting near him.

Just when she got a little closer to him, she noticed Nian Xiaomu, who was standing by his side.

Yu Yuehan did not take a single glance at the people around him; he had been staring at Nian Xiaomu right from the start with a gaze that was filled with deep love.

He was holding her hand tightly with their fingers interlocked.

Wen Yadai paused in her steps as the expression on her face instantly lost its composure.

She wanted to head forward and tear both their hands apart so badly!

Just when she took her first step forward, a hand suddenly wrapped around her waist and pulled her backward.

Wen Yadai lost her balance and fell directly into this person's chest.

Just when she was about to fly into a rage, a giddy voice sounded beside her ear and asked, "Are you the woman that my family got for me? You are rather good looking..."

As the man spoke, his hands roamed around her waist.

Wen Yadai recognized the man in front of her as An Li, a man who had an ordinary appearance and was behaving frivolously. Without a second word, she slapped his hands away.

"Behave yourself!"

She was a little agitated and did not lower the volume of her voice.

At this moment, a few of the people around her looked in her direction.

An Li was aware of his embarrassment, and his expression turned dull.

"Don't act so noble and virtuous. Yy (TLC. Not sure if this should be "My" or "Your") daddy has shown a liking for you, and this is an honor for the Wen Family. You can prepare to suffer if you anger me!"

"..."

From a young age, Wen Yadai had never received such treatment.

She was so angry that her heart palpitated violently, but she couldn't utter a single word to scold him.

From the corner of her eye, she saw that Yu Yuehan had already brought Nian Xiaomu into the auction venue. Anxious, she was about to follow them in when she suddenly remembered that she had not brought an admission ticket.

The Wen Family was worried that she would disobey them and had confiscated all of her valuable jewelry.

She had come here empty-handed.

She needed to donate a gift if she wanted to enter the auction venue. Otherwise, someone would have to bring her in...

In a situation like this, even though Wen Yadai did not fancy him, only An Li could help her!

Narrowing her eyes, she held back all of her emotions and tried her best to flash a smile.

"Young Master An, you've misunderstood. I behaved that way just now because I didn't manage to recognize you in time..."

She hooked her arm around An Li's arm as she spoke.

"Young Master An, the auction is about to begin. Let's hurry and enter the venue!"

When An Li heard that, he turned around and took a glance at her; his perverted gaze skimmed over her face that was touched up with delicate makeup.

Following which, a pleased look curled up on his face, and he pointed at his lips with his finger.

“It’s possible for me to stop being angry. Come, kiss me here.”

“...”

The arm that Wen Yadaï used to hook his arm froze, and her face scrunched up completely.

She had saved her first kiss all for Young Master Han.

But now... she would not even get a chance to see Yu Yuehan if she did not agree to this.

Wen Yadaï gritted her teeth and shut her eyes. Leaning forward, she brushed past his lips lightly—as the incoming smell of cigarettes and liquor collided into her face, she retched and nearly puked!

She suppressed her feelings of disgust and followed An Li into the auction venue.

The moment they entered, she saw both Yu Yuehan and Nian Xiaomu. The two of them were sitting in the very first row!
