

My Life 521

Chapter 521: You are my everlasting love (9)

Tang Yuansi grabbed her finger with force as he stared back at her with an expression that she could read, but did not wish to read.

Shangxin wanted to withdraw her hand, but Tang Yuansi would not let go.

The look on his face became harsher as he demanded through gritted teeth, "Take back your words!"

"No!" Shangxin wanted to fling his hand away, but Tang Yuansi was very strong beneath his lean figure.

The force that she was exerting felt more like a tickle to him.

Then, her whole body was pressed down on the sofa.

Her svelte body laid against the sofa while his feverishly hot body was in front of her.

"I will say it one more time—take your words back!" His voice was filled with displeasure and intimidation.

"I won't! I... Mmm!"

Shangxin's lips were sealed by Tang Yuansi, who started kissing her like he was punishing her and did so without any warmth or affection.

"Didn't you say that you didn't mind spending one more night with me? What are you afraid of now?" taunted Tang Yuansi when Shangxin tried to push him away.

"..."

Her body stiffened.

Shangxin looked up and stared at him.

The two pairs of eyes met, and both of them refused to be the first to give in.

The mood in the air started to become strange.

Shangxin wriggled uneasily and tried to escape from Tang Yuansi's arms, but he scooped her up and carried her toward the bed.

After throwing her onto the bed, he pressed his lips against hers and started a night of hot passion.

Yu Family villa.

Under the night sky, the lights shone so brightly that it was as if it were daytime.

Yu Yuehan led Nian Xiaomu directly to the study room.

The assistant was already waiting at the entrance. Standing next to him was a middle-aged man whom Nian Xiaomu had never met before.

He had a pair of sharp and alert eyes while his face was covered with a full beard.

Clad in a gray and white coat and hat, he covered himself fully.

When the two men saw Yu Yuehan, they instantly turned and greeted, "Young Master!"

Without speaking a word, Yu Yuehan held Nian Xiaomu's hand and entered the study room. After sitting down at the desk, he drew Nian Xiaomu into his arms.

Then, he turned to the assistant and asked, "Have you found that woman?"

Hearing his words, Nian Xiaomu's nerves tightened as she started panicking like an ant on hot bricks.

On the way home, she had tried to find a chance to confess to Yu Yuehan.

However, whenever she brought up the topic of Xiao Liuliu's mother, Yu Yuehan would assume that she was acting jealous and insecure and would not let her talk.

Instead, he would kiss and hug her.

When she insisted on discussing the topic, he almost wanted to do the deed with her in the car to prove that she was the only one in his heart...

Nian Xiaomu had absolutely no chance to tell him the truth.

Upon hearing the question he had asked the assistant, Nian Xiaomu's heart felt like it was going to explode!

"We found a photograph from back then!" The assistant cued for the private investigator standing next to him to take out the photograph from his pocket.

The private investigator walked forward and passed it to Yu Yuehan.

Hearing that they had found a photograph of her, Nian Xiaomu was so shocked that she almost fell off Yu Yuehan's lap!

After steadying herself properly, she leaned over to take a peek at the photograph when it was handed to Yu Yuehan.

"What are you anxious about? Sit down."

Yu Yuehan thought that Nian Xiaomu was reacting this way because she was troubled by the existence of Xiao Liuliu's biological mother. He patted her little head and hugged her in his arms.

Taking the photograph from the private investigator, Yu Yuehan took a look at it and narrowed his eyes.

It was unclear if he was angry or not.

"Let me see!" Seeing that something was not right with the expression on his face, Nian Xiaomu snatched the photograph from him and took a look too.

When she saw the figure in the photograph, Nian Xiaomu was stupefied as well.

Chapter 522: You are my everlasting love (10)

Only a view of a woman from behind could be seen in the photograph.

Plus, it wasn't a complete rear view either.

How could they determine that this was Xiao Liuliu's mother when they couldn't even see her side profile?

Astonished, she lifted her head up and looked at Yu Yuehan.

However, Yu Yuehan's eyes looked a little dark, and he asked, "Is there only one photograph?"

"It has been too long. At the time when Little Miss was sent to the Yu Corporation, we had already sealed the scene immediately and inspected the area, but did not manage to detect any clues. This image was accidentally discovered by the owner of the photograph when he was clearing up the photos on his cell phone."

The assistant walked forward and pointed at a blurry spot on the photograph.

"This piece of cloth in the photo looks very similar to the clothes that Little Miss was wearing at that time."

If they could verify that Xiao Liuliu was the child in this woman's embrace, then this person had a very high chance of being Xiao Liuliu's mother!

"Continue to investigate. Since someone had managed to take an image of her leaving the Yu Corporation, then there is a possibility that other photos were also taken." Yu Yuehan opened his mouth coldly and said this as he threw the photograph to the assistant.

"Yes." The assistant picked the photograph up and hurriedly left with the private investigator.

It was a false alarm.

Nian Xiaomu broke out in a cold sweat and laid sprawled out in his embrace.

No, she could not drag this matter on any longer.

She needed to quickly find a good chance to confess to Yu Yuehan and strive for a lenient sentence before he found anything!

The door to the study room was pushed open once again.

A hairy little head popped in from outside the door.

When she saw the two individuals who were hugging each other, she pushed the door wide open immediately and ran toward them swiftly with her tiny legs.

"Xiao Liuliu wants a hug too!"

She ran toward Nian Xiaomu with her cuddly body and stretched her arms out in front of her.

Nian Xiaomu was still feeling flustered. However, she carried Xiao Liuliu immediately when she saw her sweetheart.

The three of them were like a human pyramid again.

Yu Yuehan hugged Nian Xiaomu while Nian Xiaomu embraced Xiao Liuliu...

When Xiao Liuliu realized that she was sitting at the top of the pyramid, she chuckled happily.

The heavy atmosphere in the study room became joyous with her sweet laughter.

Yu Yuehan pinched her tiny face and said lovingly, "Mischievous."

Nian Xiaomu's heart jerked when she heard that.

Hugging Xiao Liuliu tightly in her embrace, she turned around, looked at him, and asked, "Did you realize that Xiao Liuliu actually resembles me?"

"..." Yu Yuehan cast a glance at her and did not speak.

However, he scanned her and Xiao Liuliu twice with his gaze.

Opening his thin lips, he said, "Yeah, she is as mischievous as you."

Nian Xiaomu: "...!!"

Couldn't they chat nicely?

Was being mischievous her only trait?

Shouldn't it be lively and cheerful; beautiful and easy-mannered?!

Nian Xiaomu didn't want to argue with him. As she leaned her face close to Xiao Liuliu, she said, "Take a look again. Take a close look. Don't we really look alike?"

"..."

"I am not talking about our appearances, I am talking about the aura. Aura, you know what that is, right?" Nian Xiaomu was so anxious that she was sweating buckets.

There was no choice. The man in front of her remained unimpressed.

Just when she was about to lose her cool, he reached out and patted her on the head. Taking his time to open his mouth, he replied, "Don't talk about things that you don't have. That's too extravagant."

Nian Xiaomu: "...!!"

Yu Yuehan, did you know that speaking in this manner could very easily result in you becoming single?

Endure!

She must endure it!

Nian Xiaomu took in a deep breath and asked, "You really don't feel that Xiao Liuliu's character resembles mine? Everyone says that she's just like a photocopy of me..."

Chapter 523: Oriental or Western (1)

Before she could finish her sentence, Yu Yuehan had already narrowed his eyes and sized her up seriously.

She suddenly became a little nervous when she saw his concentrated gaze.

Pursing her lips, she waited for him to discover the truth or open his mouth to ask her if she was Xiao Liuliu's mother.

The next second, the corner of his mouth curved into a sinister smile.

"Nian Xiaomu, you couldn't possibly give birth to such an adorable daughter."

Nian Xiaomu: "...!!"

That was the end of their love!

She didn't want to say anything else now!

Go and investigate on your own then! Let's see who's the one who gave birth to such an adorable daughter after you've found out the truth!

Nian Xiaomu was burning with anger as she carried Xiao Liuliu and walked away.

"Xiao Liuliu, let's go. I'll accompany you to bed tonight!"

Yu Yuehan: "..."

The next day, Nian Xiaomu received a call from the police station the moment she reached the office.

It had already been a while since the kidnapping incident.

Nian Xiaomu had assumed that it would be hard to find out any other clues. As such, she was taken aback when she suddenly received the phone call.

After she hung up the call, she briefly told the secretary about it and headed out.

The moment she reached the ground floor, she bumped into Yu Yuehan who had just stepped out of another elevator.

Just when she wanted to ask him where he was heading to, Yu Yuehan walked to her and said, "There are clues regarding the person who paid those thugs to kidnap you. I'll accompany you to the station."

Nian Xiaomu nodded her head and followed him out.

At the police station.

The lawyer was already there waiting for them. When he saw the both of them, he walked forward to them immediately and said, "Young Master Han, I've clarified everything. At this moment, the police cannot release any clues that they have discovered. They have just locked in on the suspect and need Miss Nian to provide some information. They are hoping that she could help crack the case."

When Yu Yuehan heard this, he turned around and looked at Nian Xiaomu.

Nian Xiaomu smiled gently at him and said, "In that case, I'll head in alone. You can wait for me outside for a little while."

As Nian Xiaomu spoke, she followed behind the police officer who was in charge of collecting evidence.

The police only wanted her to narrate the entire incident one more time, including the people whom she had seen as well as the things that she had heard.

Nian Xiaomu's memory had always been excellent.

Even if it had been a while since the incident happened, she could still remember it very clearly.

"I suspect that the other party had been plotting it for a very long time and that it must have been an acquaintance of mine who did it. Technically, I had almost always commuted to the office in my boyfriend's car and would only hail a cab occasionally. However, it just so happened that there was an issue with the cab that I boarded. As such, I suspect that they had been spying there for more than a day just to wait until I boarded the cab."

Nian Xiaomu analyzed the situation from that day.

After she realized that there was a problem with the cab, she had wanted to call Yu Yuehan for help immediately.

However, the signal from her cell phone had been blocked.

It was very obvious that they had plotted to use the cab to kidnap her long ago. As a result, they installed the signal jamming device.

The police officer who was taking down the transcript asked, "Miss Nian, did you offend or get into an argument with anyone around that time?"

Nian Xiaomu thought about it carefully when she heard this.

She had actually thought about this question umpteen times.

There were only two people that she had gotten into conflicts with back then.

"Zhangqi, the entertainer, and Wen Yadai, the Wen Family's Elder Miss."

She had swapped Zhangqi away because of her haughty actions.

Zhangqi had also needed to compensate a large sum for the penalty fee for breaching the contract.

Ever since then, she had harbored hatred in her heart.

It was said that everyone had been scolding her for a very long time since that incident.

It was definitely possible that she had paid to kidnap Nian Xiaomu.

As for Wen Yadai...

There wouldn't be anybody in the entire world who had a stronger urge to see Nian Xiaomu with a ruined reputation other than Wen Yadai.

Furthermore, Nian Xiaomu was in a relationship with Yu Yuehan, so it seemed that Wen Yadai was more likely to be the one who had found and hired a few men to destroy Nian Xiaomu's innocence.

Chapter 524: Oriental or Western (2)

However, this was only her deduction.

She would need the help of the police to get to the bottom of the matter.

"I've recorded down what Miss Nian has said today. Thank you for your cooperation. Later on, if you recall anything else, feel free to provide us with the information."

"Thank you for your hard work."

When she walked outside, she saw Yu Yuehan's tall figure standing on the street next to a tree.

The barren branches were filled with snow.

The ground was covered in snow too.

When the wind blew across her face, it felt extremely cold.

While subconsciously pulling her coat more tightly over herself, Nian Xiaomu wondered why Yu Yuehan wasn't in the car. Then, she saw that he was on the phone.

It was rare to see an expression of resignation on his aloof face.

With one hand in the pocket of his trench coat, Yu Yuehan leaned against the tree trunk as he spoke.

"Grandma, there's no need to go through the trouble... No, I'm not saying that you're troublesome..."

"Chinese or Western style—both are fine... Yes, yes, yes, we don't have any opinion..."

"Page boy? We don't need one. Xiao Liulu is enough..."

"It's not that I disagree with you. Don't get angry, Grandma... Alright, alright, we will listen to you..."

"..."

It was out of the ordinary to hear Yu Yuehan coax someone.

Nian Xiaomu did not need to know what had transpired over the phone call, but could guess that his grandmother must have reprimanded him.

She was on Grandma's side and when she secretly snickered gleefully by the side, Yu Yuehan caught her in the act.

Pulling her into an embrace, he lowered his head and bit her on the tip of her nose.

"Ouch!" Nian Xiaomu yelped out in pain.

At that moment, Matriarch Yu overheard the shriek, and Nian Xiaomu could immediately hear her chiding Yu Yuehan over the phone.

"You little rascal, what did you do to my Xiao Mumu? Did you bully her again? How many times have I told you that you have to dote on your wife, not bully her. Why don't you listen? Sooner or later you will chase your wife away. It'll be too late to regret it by then!"

"Grandma, I didn't bully her!"

"Grandma, he bullied me!"

Both of them answered at the same time.

"Be honest."

Nian Xiaomu got pinched on her waist and cried out in pain.

Leaning toward Yu Yuehan's cell phone, she protested pitifully, "Grandma, he even used violence..."

Yu Yuehan: "...!!"

Before his grandmother could react, Yu Yuehan hastily hung up the call.

"Hey, you're cheating! How can you hang up Grandma's call?" When Nian Xiaomu saw what Yu Yuehan did, she quickly reached out and tried to snatch his phone.

Yu Yuehan pulled her into his arms and locked her tiny waist as he looked back cheekily at her raging eyes.

"Did I bully you, Nian Xiaomu? Used violence too?"

"Hee hee... We are a couple after all. Let's not be too calculative over certain matters. What did I say just now? I can't remember anymore." Nian Xiaomu pushed Yu Yuehan's hand away and anxiously tried to take a step back.

However, he refused to let go, so she could not move an inch.

Even if she shifted backward, she was pulled forward immediately.

"It's a misunderstanding! What happened just now was a misunderstanding! By the way, why was Grandma calling you? I heard something about Chinese and Western style..." Nian Xiaomu pressed her hands against his chest meekly.

"Wedding ceremony."

Yu Yuehan's eyes sparkled as he spoke.

His gaze became tender after saying those two words.

“Do you like Chinese style or Western style?”

“...” Nian Xiaomu did not expect them to be discussing this matter. She had only just started dating Yu Yuehan, and it felt like a dream that they were getting married so soon.ss

Chapter 525: Oriental or Western (3)

“As long as it’s you I’m getting married to, it doesn’t matter what style the ceremony is.” Nian Xiaomu blushed as she hurled herself into Yu Yuehan’s arms.

Yu Yuehan’s heart throbbed with delight as he hugged Nian Xiaomu tightly. It was as if he wanted to trap her in his body.

Seeing Yu Yuehan’s emotional reaction, Nian Xiaomu secretly gave herself a thumbs up in her heart.

There could not be any girls more quick-witted than her.

She had used just a few words to appease the iceberg.

Just when she was about to celebrate her narrow escape, a voice whispered in her ear, “Nian Xiaomu, now that the touching moment is over, shouldn’t you give me a proper explanation about the violence you were talking about?”

Wen Family villa.

Wen Yadaï ran straight into her room from outside and locked the door.

Then, she opened the wardrobe and pulled out a large suitcase. Opening up the suitcase, she hastily stuffed clothes into it.

She had just received news that the police were focusing their suspicions on her.

If she did not run now, she would not be able to escape if she were found out to be the mastermind behind Nian Xiaomu’s abduction!

Coincidentally, her father had arranged an overseas trip for her, so she could make a getaway immediately!

After throwing some clothes into her suitcase, Wen Yadaï remembered something and ran over to her vanity table.

She looked through everything in her jewelry box, but all her valuable pieces were gone!

Who had taken her things?

Her father had only confiscated her most valuable jewelry, but she had been allowed to keep the ones that she used on a daily basis in the box.

As a thought struck Wen Yadai, she gritted her teeth and shut the jewelry box. Then, she walked out toward the main bedroom and pushed the door open. Immediately, Wen Yadai saw Zhang Mingyan sitting at a vanity table while dolling herself up with Wen Yadai's own earrings!

Wen Yadai fumed with rage and stomped over to grab her earrings back.

"Are you shameless or what, Zhang Mingyan? Those are mine!"

"Oh, I was just wondering who it was. So it's you, our young mistress." Zhang Mingyan did not react to the earrings being snatched away. Instead, she turned and faced a furious Wen Yadai with a gloating expression on her face.

"It's only a pair of earrings that I'm borrowing. Why are you so petty over it? If I asked your father to buy this knick-knack for me, he would buy a truckload of them for me."

"You!"

Wen Yadai's face turned red from rage.

However, she did not want to pick a losing battle with Zhang Mingyan. Clutching the earrings in her hand, she stretched out her other hand and demanded, "What about the other jewelry in my room? Did you steal them too? Return them to me!"

"Steal? I don't know what you're talking about. Anyway, this is the bedroom of your father and I. You barged in without even knocking. Don't you have any manners at all?" Zhang Mingyan answered as she fixed her hair. She had maintained her appearance very well and looked like she was in her early thirties.

She had a pair of expressive eyes and was meticulously dressed. Compared to Wen Yadai, she looked even younger.

Standing up from the vanity table, Zhang Mingyan eyed Wen Yadai from head to toe with her hands on her hips. Her eyes were filled with scorn as she sneered, "Does the great Miss Wen remember what she said to me the first time we met? Let me return those words to you today."

"..."

"I don't welcome you here. Get lost!"

"..."

Wen Yadai stared at the gleeful Zhang Mingyan across from her and wished that she could tear her apart.

However, when she considered her current situation, she could only bear with it.

Since Zhang Mingyan refused to return the jewelry to her, she would look for it on her own!

Wen Yadai's gaze shifted to the vanity table.

Narrowing her eyes as she recalled that Zhang Mingyan had taken out the earrings from those boxes, Wen Yadaï swiftly picked up one of the jewelry boxes on the table.

Chapter 526: Oriental or Western (4)

When she opened it up, the jewelry that was missing was indeed all inside!

“Zhang Mingyan, what do you have to say now!”

Zhang Mingyan only took a slight glance at the jewelry box that Wen Yadaï was holding.

“So what if I was the one who had taken them? Your dad instructed for all this to be done. Since you are about to head overseas, you will not be able to help out the Wen Family in the future—It’s natural that you will not have a chance to use such nice jewelry. Instead of just wasting them by placing them in a corner, why not give them to me—I can dress up more nicely, and your dad will be happier when he looks at me.”

“Even if I don’t have a use for them, I would rather throw them away than give them to you!”

Wen Yadaï grasped the jewelry box in her hand tightly and nearly gnashed her teeth to pieces.

“Plus, even though I am heading abroad, it will be a temporary thing. Dad will surely miss me when he has cooled down and will certainly allow me to return. You won’t stay haughty for long!”

Zhang Mingyan seemed to have heard some sort of a joke.

All of a sudden, she laughed out loud.

As if she were looking at a fool, Zhang Mingyan walked forward and stared at Wen Yadaï.

“Do you think that you still have a chance to return? Will you be able to change anything after you have returned? Everyone in high society knows that Young Master Han is about to get married to Nian Xiaomu, and they have already started to prepare for the wedding ceremony. Who the hell are you?”

“...”

“Indeed, since you might not be able to afford these luxury goods in the future, you should be the one keeping all of this jewelry. I have already discussed this with your dad. You are already an adult, so apart from paying for the procedural fees that you need for traveling abroad, the Wen Family will not pay a single cent for any other costs that you incur overseas. You will need to earn the money yourself!”

“What did you say?”

Wen Yadaï’s expression changed at once, and she reached out to grab ahold of Zhang Mingyan’s arm.

“You’re speaking nonsense! I am my dad’s biological daughter and will be the one inheriting the Wen Family’s assets in the future. How could he not care about me!”

“My advice to you would be to save those thoughts of yours. Why are you still dreaming about this impractical stuff when you are in such a situation? The assets of the Wen Family will belong to my son in the future. As for you, you can just wait for your time to come until you die of old age overseas!”

Zhang Mingyan pushed Wen Yadai’s hand away and watched as she fell to the ground. Then, she turned around and walked to the vanity table.

She took out a pearl necklace from another jewelry box and walked over to Wen Yadai.

Lifting her hand up, she threw the pearls at Wen Yadai’s face.

Zhang Mingyan squatted down gradually and laughed coldly.

“Don’t complain that this stepmother of yours doesn’t love you. If you want to blame someone, you should blame yourself for making no allowances in whatever you do. You ended up doing harm to yourself when you inflicted suffering on others. Today, I shall return to you all the humiliation that you imposed on me back in those days. However, I am much more benevolent than you are. Taking into account that you are your dad’s daughter after all, your dad and I won’t let you starve to death as long as you stay obedient while abroad and don’t do anything that might implicate the Wen Family. You can take this necklace as a parting gift from me to you.”

When Wen Yadai saw the pearl necklace in front of her, she reached out and grabbed it.

She grasped the pearls tightly in her hands.

The words that Zhang Mingyan said just now kept ringing in her ears.

Young Master Han was really getting married to Nian Xiaomu...

They were really getting married.

Nian Xiaomu would never pardon the people who had kidnapped her once she became the lady of the Yu household.

If she managed to find out that Wen Yadai was the one...

Wen Yadai tightened her grip and grasped the necklace in her hands firmly. Lowering her head, she stared at the item that Zhang Mingyan had given her. It was like alms given to a beggar.

Why?

Why must everyone snatch her things?

Young Master Han was hers!

Everything in the Wen Family belonged to her as well!

If she couldn’t have them, she would rather ruin everything than let others have them!

Wen Yadaï stared at the necklace in her hands fiercely. Like an insane little devil, she gripped the necklace firmly with both of her hands and pulled it forcefully.

Chapter 527: Oriental or Western (5)

As the thread snapped, the round pearls fell all over the floor...

Wen Yadaï let go of the broken necklace and slowly took out her cell phone from her pocket to make a phone call.

When the call was picked up, she instructed over the phone, "I have a very important piece of information. I want to see Master Han!"

The Yu Corporation.

A car stopped outside of the towering skyscraper.

Wen Yadaï put on her sunglasses, then took out a mirror to check her appearance.

When she was satisfied with the way she looked, she reached out and opened the car door.

With a bag slung over her shoulders, she walked straight into the building.

This used to be a place she was familiar with.

Without the need to ask for directions, she could easily find her way to the president's private elevator.

When the people in the lobby saw her appear in the building, many of them looked on in bewilderment.

Everyone was well-aware that Wen Yadaï had been personally sacked by Yu Yuehan.

He had even ordered her never to step into the Yu Corporation or the Yu Family villa again.

This was as good as cutting her off from the Yu Family.

Who would have guessed that she would have the gall to appear and even enter...

Seeing everyone's eyes were on her, Wen Yadaï relived the feeling of being the center of attention.

Adjusting the sunglasses on her face, she coolly entered the elevator.

Ding!

The elevator stopped on the floor of the president's office.

The assistant was already waiting at the elevator door for her. When he saw her, he gestured to her and said, "Master Han is waiting for you in the office. This way please, Miss Wen."

Upon hearing that Yu Yuehan was waiting for her, Wen Yadaï's spirits were lifted immediately.

They hadn't seen each other in such a long time. Perhaps he was not angry anymore.

If he were to forgive her, her father would not insist on sending her overseas.

The door to the president's office opened.

The assistant entered first and walked straight to the desk. "Master Han, Miss Wen is here."

"Master Han..."

When Wen Yadaï saw Yu Yuehan, she could not help but stare.

Walking forward without hesitation, she looked intently at him.

He was still so aloof and distinguished. Anyone who stood before him and looked him in the eye would be too frightened to speak.

He was so elegant and godly.

He was supposed to be hers...

It was all because of Nian Xiaomu!

A streak of sinister light flickered past Wen Yadaï's face.

Very quickly, she calmed herself down.

She wasn't here to seek revenge today. She had more important matters to handle...

"You should know why I would be willing to meet you." Yu Yuehan put down the document in his hand and looked up slowly. His eyes swept past Wen Yadaï, who was standing in front of him, and his expression was cold and penetrating.

"You have only one chance. If you were to tell any lies, I will not only get back at you, but the entire Wen Family!"

Wen Yadaï's body trembled all over!

In the past, if she were to hear that Yu Yuehan might pick on the Wen Family, she would not dare to try anything funny.

However, things had changed.

She had nothing left. Even her father had abandoned her. What did she have to lose?

Clenching her fists, Wen Yadaï stepped forward.

"I'm telling the truth. I know who Xiao Liuliu's mother is. If you give me 10 million yuan, I'll bring her to you right away!"

10 million yuan was enough for her to start a new life overseas.

Even if Master Han took revenge on the Wen Family in the future, what would it matter to her?

It was every man for himself!

They had forced her into this!

“Why should I believe you without any proof?” Yu Yuehan maintained an indifferent expression as he answered coolly.

Chapter 528: Oriental or Western (6)

“Everything that I have said is the truth. Believe me, Young Master Han, I would never dare to lie to you even if I had ten times the guts!” Wen Yadaï’s gaze grew urgent as she propped both her hands up on Yu Yuehan’s office desk.

When she saw that Yu Yuehan did not believe her words, she blabbered out the things that she had prepared long beforehand.

“I didn’t believe what that woman had said previously, but I’ve seen her behaving suspiciously outside the Yu Family villa a couple of times and hence stopped her. I only knew after asking that she missed Xiao Liuliu after leaving her with you. As a result, she would sneakily head to the Yu Family villa to look for her daughter whenever there was a chance.”

Wen Yadaï paused in her words, but saw that Yu Yuehan was only staring at her coldly.

It seemed like he wasn’t sure whether he should believe her.

She continued speaking when she saw that he did not interrupt her.

“I didn’t believe all of this in the beginning either. However, that woman has a DNA report of herself and Xiao Liuliu. I’ve seen it, and Xiao Liuliu is indeed her biological daughter...”

As Wen Yadaï lifted her head up carefully and looked at Yu Yuehan, she suddenly sobbed.

She stared at him pitifully.

“I know, I know that I’ve made a lot of mistakes, and it makes sense for you to not believe me. However, I’ve already learned my lesson. The Wen Family’s business was implicated because of me and is steadily deteriorating—I feel really guilty when I hear my dad sighing every day. As such, the reason why I revealed the truth was because I simply want a sum of money to save the Wen Family’s business—I really am not a swindler!”

Wen Yadaï knelt down in front of him as she spoke.

As she crawled toward him, she reached out and grabbed onto the hems of Yu Yuehan’s trousers.

She spoke in a tearful voice.

“Young Master Han, we grew up together and I once saved you. Please take all of this into account and trust me this time.”

“...” Yu Yuehan did not express any comments as he looked at Wen Yadaï, who was crying vigorously.

He cast a sidelong glance at his assistant.

The assistant understood his gesture immediately; he exited the president’s office and instructed his men to check on the Wen Family’s current business situation.

They got a reply shortly after.

He walked over to Yu Yuehan swiftly and nodded his head lightly.

The things that Wen Yadaï had said were not purely lies.

The Wen Family's business had indeed fallen into difficulty after she had been fired by the Yu Corporation.

Even though President Wen had tried very hard to avert the desperate crisis, he couldn't battle the pragmatic people in the business industry.

Everyone knew that the Wen Family had offended the Yu Corporation.

At this point in time, no one would take the risk and help the Wen Family. Even though the Wen Family was unlikely to go so far as to declare bankruptcy, it was still in imminent danger!

It was no wonder that Wen Yadaï would look for Yu Yuehan in such a rush and wanted to exchange her news source for money.

However, it wasn't guaranteed that she would pump the money into the Wen Family's business.

Apart from collecting information on the Wen Family's current financial situation, he had also heard of some other news.

He heard that President Wen had already fetched the son whom he had raised outside back home—Wen Yadaï might not be living such a good life at home.

It was very difficult to determine if she would render good for evil and be so kind as to take the Wen Family into regard...

"Where is that woman then?" Yu Yuehan opened his thin lips and spoke with a pause after every word.

"This..." Wen Yadaï's eyes flickered as she gritted her teeth. She seemed to be worried that Yu Yuehan would not give her the money after he had met the woman.

"She's worried that Young Master Han would not let her off and refused to come with me no matter what. I took great pains before I finally managed to pacify her. I will bring you to her immediately as long as you're willing to give me the money!"

Yu Yuehan's lips curled up into a mocking smile when he heard what she said.

Reaching his hands out slowly, he flung her hand off his arm and asked, "Wen Yadaï, do you think that I would give you 10 million yuan just by depending on the work that your mouth does?"

Wen Yadaï: "..."

“Sure, I can give you the money. When you think it through carefully, bring that person here or let me know where she is. Once we confirm that this woman is Xiao Liuliu’s mother, I will give you every single cent you ask for.”

Yu Yuehan looked away and sat down on his seat.

Hearing this, Wen Yadaï’s lips quivered as she tried to say something, but she bit her tongue and held it in.

She merely looked up at him, yet Yu Yuehan did not even want to see her. He coolly said, “Go back and think about it. Let me know your answer.”

“...”

Knowing that Yu Yuehan would not trust her so easily, Wen Yadaï clenched her fists and crawled up from the floor.

She gave him one final look before turning to leave.

As soon as she left, the assistant rushed forward and asked, “Master Han, can we trust Wen Yadaï’s words?”

They had been investigating this matter for such a long time, but Wen Yadaï had actually found the woman first.

If she was not lying, then she must have hit the jackpot.

“Send someone to follow her, and we will know soon,” Yu Yuehan looked up and answered indifferently.

A sinister light flickered past his eyes.

Wen Yadaï had better be telling the truth. Otherwise, she would only live to regret it!

The assistant regained his composure and replied, “I’ll work on it now!”

Wen Yadaï walked out of the Yu Corporation.

Standing by the road, she turned around to look at the skyscraper, clenching her fists in indignation.

Everything here that had belonged to her was gone.

Now, Yu Yuehan did not believe a single word that she said anymore.

To him, 10 million yuan was nothing at all.

However, he was so vigilant toward her that he would not give her the money without seeing the person and checking that person’s identity!

Since he was so heartless, she would be the same!

After the two lessons learned, Wen Yadaï exercised extra caution this time. Heading straight back to the Wen Family villa, she did not go anywhere else after leaving the Yu Corporation.

The butler of the Wen Family had already packed her luggage for her. It was a matter of time before settling the administrative details and sending her away.

Wen Yadai's eyes narrowed when she realized that she did not have much time left.

She had to get ahold of the money before leaving!

Picking up the phone after making sure that no one else was in her room, she walked to the balcony and dialed a number.

"Listen, follow my instructions tomorrow..."

The afternoon of the next day.

Nian Xiaomu had clocked out of work earlier than usual and went to pick up Xiao Liuliu from kindergarten without waiting for Yu Yuehan, who was still in a meeting.

As the car stopped outside the school, Nian Xiaomu pushed the door open and got out. As she was walking toward the entrance of the kindergarten, Xiao Liuliu caught sight of her and ran excitedly toward her.

"Pretty Mommy!" Xiao Liuliu called out as she threw herself into Nian Xiaomu's arms.

"Go slowly! Be careful not to trip!" Nian Xiaomu reached out to give her a hug and lowered her head to plant a kiss on Xiao Liuliu's forehead.

This was her biological daughter and part of her flesh.

Nian Xiaomu wished she could give her heart to Xiao Liuliu.

Just as she was about to ask Xiao Liuliu to call her "Mommy," a woman suddenly dashed out from the crowd and pounced on them.

Nian Xiaomu instinctively tried to carry Xiao Liuliu away from her, but she was pushed aside and fell forward.

Then, Xiao Liuliu was snatched away from her by the woman who had crashed into them!

"Xiao Liuliu!" Nian Xiaomu cried out as the bodyguards next to her swarmed over and surrounded the woman who was holding Xiao Liuliu hostage.

However, Xiao Liuliu was in her hands, so the bodyguards did not dare to move closer.

"What do you want? Return the child to me. I'll give you anything you want!" Nian Xiaomu anxiously inched forward, but the woman retreated with Xiao Liuliu in her arms.

When the woman looked up, Nian Xiaomu was shocked to see her face.

This woman looked a lot like Nian Xiaomu...

Be it her face or her figure...

No, not the same.

At first glance, they looked alike. However, upon closer inspection, they were completely different.

Who was she?

Why did she snatch Xiao Liuliu?

Nian Xiaomu's head was flooded with questions in that instant.

Before she said anything, the woman suddenly lowered her head to look at Xiao Liuliu, who was in her arms.

"Xiao Liuliu, my Xiao Liuliu! I am Mommy! Look at me, I am your mommy!"

"..."

When the bodyguards saw this scene, they were all shocked.

Nian Xiaomu's eyes narrowed!

If she did not already know that Xiao Liuliu was her biological daughter, Nian Xiaomu might have been just as stunned as the rest and unsure how to react.

However, Tan Bengbeng had confirmed the DNA results between Nian Xiaomu and Xiao Liuliu. The report was in her room, and she had looked at it countless times.

No one knew better than Nian Xiaomu who Xiao Liuliu's biological mother was!

Hearing the woman's words made Nian Xiaomu's anxious heart calm down instead.

Waving the bodyguards away, Nian Xiaomu stepped forward.

Seeing that Xiao Liuliu was shocked and trapped in a daze, Nian Xiaomu maintained her composure and looked up at the woman.

"You're scaring Xiao Liuliu. Who are you? What do you want? You can talk to me. Let's have a good discussion. First, put Xiao Liuliu down..."

"I don't want anything! I just want my daughter!" Appearing to be provoked by Nian Xiaomu's words, the woman carried Xiao Liuliu and took a few steps back.

Seeing that she was surrounded, she cried out, "Where's Master Han? I want to see him!"

"You need to calm down! You can see anyone you like. Don't get agitated. Take care of Xiao Liuliu!" Nian Xiaomu could not bear to see Xiao Liuliu trapped in that woman's arms and wished she could rush forward to snatch Xiao Liuliu back from her.

However, for Xiao Liuliu's safety, she had to stay in control of the situation.

Hearing that the woman wanted to see Yu Yuehan, Nian Xiaomu instructed the bodyguards to contact him while she continued to appease the woman.

“We have called Master Han. There are too many people here. Why don’t you follow me back? You can say what you want to say when we reach the Yu Family villa.”

“...”

“When you get to the Yu Family villa, you can see Master Han!”

Hearing that she could meet Yu Yuehan, the woman finally calmed down, but refused to let go of Xiao Liuliu.

When the bodyguards drove the car over, the woman cautiously held onto Xiao Liuliu and refused to let anyone come near her as she entered the car.

Perhaps it was because she looked quite similar to Nian Xiaomu or maybe it was because she had claimed to be Xiao Liuliu’s mother, but Xiao Liuliu stopped crying after a short while. She sat quietly in the woman’s arms and tilted her head to look at the woman.

Her pale face was filled with fear.

She only calmed down after she saw Nian Xiaomu subsequently get into the car.

Blinking her big, round eyes at Nian Xiaomu, she pleaded with Nian Xiaomu to carry her.

Nian Xiaomu’s heart ached badly as she comforted Xiao Liuliu, “Don’t be afraid, Xiao Liuliu. We will arrive home soon.”

Very quickly, the car left the kindergarten and headed back to the Yu Family villa.

In the crowd, Wen Yadai had watched the entire scene unfold while standing in an obscure corner. As she walked out of the shadows, her lips curled upward into a sinister smile.
