

My Life 571

Chapter 571: Breathtaking! (1)

“...” Nian Xiaomu looked up at her with an astonished expression.

This was her first time hearing something like that from Tan Bengbeng.

Tan Bengbeng had a cold personality, but even if she did not like to interact with strangers, she also would not say something bad about someone else so readily.

Why did it seem like she seriously disliked Fan Yu even though she did not really know him?

“Bengbeng, you...”

Tan Bengbeng seemed to have realized what she had just said and felt a little strange as well. A ray of light flashed across her face and she explained, “Since you are already together with Young Master Han, it would do you no good if you continued to have unexplained relationships with other men.”

“...”

“Furthermore, the Fan Corporation is a competitor of the Yu Corporation. Misunderstandings might arise if the media got wind of it.”

As she said this, she lifted up her coffee cup with both hands and took a gentle sip.

The look on her face had regained its original calmness.

The gaze she directed toward Nian Xiaomu was no different from her typical gaze.

However, her words seemed to make sense.

She was totally thinking about the situation from Nian Xiaomu’s shoes.

Just when Nian Xiaomu wanted to say that she would be mindful of her behavior, her cell phone rang.

Her eyes lit up when she saw that the call was from a particular green-eyed monster!

His call came just when she was thinking about him.

There was no other appropriate time to answer his call but now!

Nian Xiaomu picked up the call swiftly.

“Where are you?” Yu Yuehan’s low and deep voice sounded from the other end of the phone.

It was merely three simple words, but for some reason, it brought about a tinge of inseparable love when he said them.

As Nian Xiaomu held onto her cell phone, the corners of her lips curved up unconsciously, and she said, “I am near the mall. I just finished shopping and bought a lot of things, but I can’t carry them any longer...”

Nian Xiaomu intentionally paused halfway through her words.

The actress within her had been activated; she couldn't wait to put on the act of "the delicate fiancée who could no longer carry on walking and was pining for her fiancé to come over."

Tan Bengbeng, who was sitting right across from her, nearly spat a mouthful of coffee on Nian Xiaomu's face when she witnessed this!

With this tactic, Yu Yuehan might just lose his fiancée if he still refused to come over and fetch her...

"Sit down and don't move. I'll come over and pick you up now," Yu Yuehan replied swiftly.

He was about to end the call after he finished this sentence. However, Nian Xiaomu quickly interjected out of concern and asked, "Are you done with your work? If you're still busy with work, then there's no need for the trouble. I can flag a cab and head home myself."

Even Tan Bengbeng could sense her hypocritical tone, let alone Yu Yuehan.

The person on the other end of the phone call stayed silent for nearly three seconds before he slowly said, "No need. I want to head over personally and see which actress has possessed my fiancée."

Nian Xiaomu: "...!!"

Young Master Han, do you know what it means to "see through, but not expose it?"

This was the end of their love!

They ended the call.

As Nian Xiaomu thought of a particular someone who was currently on his way to pick her up, she grabbed ahold of her cell phone and smiled like an idiot.

Tan Bengbeng took in all of her reactions and shook her head in disgust.

"If every woman who was in love ended up like you, I would rather stay single for the rest of my life."

"What do you know? This is called love appeal!" As Nian Xiaomu placed her cell phone on the table, she propped both of her hands on the table and shot a few glances at Tan Bengbeng.

Tan Bengbeng's face collapsed.

"Are you sure that this is love appeal and not pretentiousness?"

"What's wrong with being pretentious? What do you know about being in a relationship?" Nian Xiaomu slapped the table and stared at her with a resentful look, indicating her disappointment in not seeing any improvement in Tan Bengbeng.

"Being in a relationship means that one must drag another party into doing the same thing together when it could in fact be done alone."

"..."

"For example, eating a meal. For example, watching a movie. For example ..."

Nian Xiaomu's eyes scanned past the shopping bags by their feet. Beaming with all smiles, she said, "Carrying the bags!"

"Let me put out a disclaimer first. I did not torture him, I just missed him and wanted him to come pick me up. In this case, I would get to see him ASAP and would not have to wait until I got home. I think my lovesickness is acting up again. Since you don't have a boyfriend, you would not know that being a day away from your dear one is akin to not seeing him for three seasons..."

"Enough! Shut up!" Tan Bengbeng was about to vomit from all the reminders that hinted about her single status. Reaching out, she directly covered up Nian Xiaomu's mouth, which had great power to wound.

The next second, she saw that Nian Xiaomu had cast a glance at her.

Even though she could not utter it out in words, she hinted at Tan Bengbeng with her gaze and expressed: See, I have already mentioned it before. A single person like you would never understand the sweetness of being in a relationship.

Tan Bengbeng: "...!!!"

She felt all the malice in this world!

When Nian Xiaomu saw her stunned look, she pushed Tan Bengbeng's hand away and said, "Bengbeng, don't stay in the operating room all the time. Go out and find a guy to date!"

"..."

Dating...

Tan Bengbeng seemed not to have thought about this aspect of her life, and the expression in her eyes turned vacant instantly.

She stared at Nian Xiaomu blankly.

"What do you mean by staring at me like this? Haven't you ever thought about getting married, having a child, and forming your own family one day?" Nian Xiaomu reached out and pinched Tan Bengbeng's face.

Tan Bengbeng only snapped back to her senses when she felt the pain from her face.

However, her gaze toward Nian Xiaomu became a little downcast.

Getting married.

Having a child.

She had never once thought about these issues...

“Enough from you. There are countless of patients, but being ill doesn’t stop them from dating. You’re a doctor, but you live like a nun all day long. If everyone was like you, I’m afraid that the medical colleges would not be able to recruit any students.”

Nian Xiaomu couldn’t help it and nagged at Tan Bengbeng when she saw that Tan Bengbeng wasn’t speaking.

“Look at me. I am someone who once rose from the dead, yet I have already found my true love and am about to begin my new life.”

“New life...” Tan Bengbeng muttered softly and seemed to be pondering over the meaning behind this phrase.

Immediately after, she smiled gently.

All of a sudden, a relieved look appeared on her usually expressionless face as she looked up slightly.

“You are right, the life that we are living now is perhaps far more important than anything else.”

Tan Bengbeng reached out and tightly took ahold of both of Nian Xiaomu’s hands. Just like someone urging a family member, she said, “Xiao Mumu, you are someone who once rose from the dead. You must work hard for your own happiness from now on!”

“...”

Nian Xiaomu stared blankly for a few seconds; she was in the middle of enlightening Tan Bengbeng, but all of a sudden, the roles were reversed and Tan Bengbeng was advising her instead.

Tan Bengbeng had already released her grip on Nian Xiaomu before she could regain her composure. Sticking her finger out, she pointed at the glass window and said, “Goddess, your fiancé.”

Nian Xiaomu: “...”

She turned around and looked out through the window without hesitation when she heard that Yu Yuehan was here.

When she recognized the car that was parked at the roadside as well as the man who had alighted from the car, her eyes lit up instantly!

She waved her hands hurriedly and gestured for the service staff to come over to settle the bill.

Then, with large and small bags in hand, she walked out with Tan Bengbeng.

Just when she reached the entrance of the cafe, she bumped into Yu Yuehan, who was on his way in to pick her up.

As Yu Yuehan took the bags from her hands, he saw the emerging perspiration on her forehead and reached out to wipe lovingly wipe it away. Then, he pulled her to his side.

He opened his mouth indifferently and asked, “What did you buy?”

Immediately, Nian Xiaomu set her small lips apart and answered, “It’s a secret! I’ll surprise you when we get back.”

Her pair of animated eyes sparkled in a charming manner when she said the word “surprise.”

It so badly made one have the urge to pull her into their embrace...

Yu Yuehan’s eyes sparkled. As if he were acting on instinct, he lowered his head and planted a kiss on her lips.

He didn’t care about any surprises now; all that he cared about was when she would be done with her period!

Chapter 573: Breathtaking! (3)

Nian Xiaomu wasn’t angry even though she had been taken advantage of. After Yu Yuehan took the bags from her, she turned around immediately and got ready to help Tan Bengbeng with her bags.

“It’s alright. Since we’re not heading in the same direction, it’ll be more convenient if I flag down a cab and head back on my own.” Tan Bengbeng avoided Nian Xiaomu’s incoming hands.

She nodded her head lightly at Yu Yuehan when she saw that he was looking in her direction.

After they exchanged greetings with each other, she carried her things and left.

She seemed unwilling to become a third wheel and walked away at a very fast speed. In the blink of an eye, she had already reached the roadside and had already left in a cab.

As Nian Xiaomu watched Tan Bengbeng’s figure disappear from view, she couldn’t help it and muttered, “I really don’t know what kind of guy Bengbeng would like with that character of hers...”

Hearing this, Yu Yuehan’s eyes flickered.

He followed her gaze and stared in the direction where Tan Bengbeng had departed.

All of the members of the Tan family seemed to be antisocial and did not like to interact with others.

However, Tan Bengbeng still had Nian Xiaomu as a friend. From this, she could be considered a rare existence in her family.

Someone like her was really hard to fathom.

If he had not sensed that Tan Bengbeng did not have any evil intentions toward Nian Xiaomu, he would never allow a person like her to come near Nian Xiaomu.

Both of them got into the car.

The moment the chauffeur started driving, Yu Yuehan took out his laptop and started to browse through his documents.

As Nian Xiaomu sat in the seat near the door, she stared at the man who had instantly ignored her and let out two light coughs on purpose.

When she saw that he did not react to this, she coughed two more times and made sure to do so loudly this time around.

Yu Yuehan turned and cast a glance at her, then said, “Drink more water if your throat feels unwell.”

After he spoke, he turned back again and started to browse through his emails on his laptop.

Nian Xiaomu: “...!!”

What was he looking at that was actually more important than her?

Nian Xiaomu couldn't help it as she moved closer to him and stole a glance at the email on his laptop.

It was a list of names.

It was simply the names of a bunch of people—What was there to see?

Just when she was still feeling puzzled about it, Yu Yuehan suddenly looked at her with a sideways glance. Opening his thin lips, he explained, “This is the guest list for our engagement party.”

The guest list for their engagement party.

Their engagement party.

All of a sudden, Nian Xiaomu's face turned red as she threw herself into his embrace.

AHHH! She still felt that it was like a dream the moment she thought about the fact that they were announcing their engagement!

“Yu Yuehan, pinch me. I want to see if it hurts.”

“Why don't you let me bite you?” As Nian Xiaomu said this, she opened her mouth and bit on his chest.

“Ouch!” Yu Yuehan groaned quietly and lowered his gaze to look at the hairy head in front of his chest.

She had really bitten him!

“And so this is real...” Nian Xiaomu only lifted her head up when she heard his quiet groan and flashed a wide smile at him.

His anger vanished instantly upon seeing her silly-looking face.

Idiot.

It had been such a long time since he had proposed—What was there to be suspicious about?

Just when Yu Yuehan was about to reach out and hug Nian Xiaomu, she suddenly sat upright and moved her body to the side.

She moved her body away until she reached the car door and said, “Umm, the guest list is very important. You don't have to worry about me. Take a close look at the list!”

“...” Yu Yuehan felt a sense of emptiness in his embrace.

He took in her reminder even though he wasn't very happy about it.

In fact, he would have taken a close look at this list even without her reminder about it.

He would duly invite all the guests.

It would be best if he could tell the whole world that she would be his in the future.

Yu Yuehan's dark eyes narrowed as a flash of light flickered across his eyes!

Nian Xiaomu had no idea that the big bad wolf was plotting against her. When she thought of something, she dug out her cell phone from her bag and gave Shangxin a call.

Nian Xiaomu did not have many friends.

Apart from Tan Bengbeng, the other person whom she badly wanted to invite to her engagement party was Shangxin.

Chapter 574: Breathtaking! (4)

In a concert hall.

Shangxin adhered to the meeting time and had arrived at the concert venue. As she held her concert ticket, she matched the seat numbers and searched for her seat.

All of a sudden, her cell phone rang.

She placed the concert ticket in her hand into the pocket of her coat and dug out her cell phone from her bag.

When she saw that Nian Xiaomu was the one who was calling her, her eyes flickered as she picked the call up in no time.

Upon hearing that Nian Xiaomu had specially called to invite her to attend her engagement party, the corner of her mouth curved up into a warm smile and Shangxin said, "Okay, I will definitely attend it."

When Nian Xiaomu heard her certain reply, she couldn't help it and asked another question, "How have you been lately? I saw Tang Yuansi outside the restaurant as well the last time that I saw you..."

Shangxin tightened her grip on her cell phone when she heard that name and interrupted Nian Xiaomu gently, "Xiao Mumu, I am at a concert hall. The performance is about to start, so I'll hang up the call first if there's nothing else."

After she finished speaking, she hung up the call before Nian Xiaomu could say anything.

As she rummaged through her coat pocket and took the concert ticket out again, a self-mocking smile appeared at the corners of her lips.

She seriously had no idea how she should explain everything to Nian Xiaomu.

Trying her best to forget about someone was so painful...

Shangxin reached out and patted her face. Just as she lifted her head up, she saw a suave and elegant young man walking toward her.

A look of surprise flashed past his eyes when he saw her.

He smiled and asked, "Are you Shangxin? I am Wang Chen. I almost could not recognize you—I didn't expect that you would be so much prettier in real life than in the photos."

The man who introduced himself as Wang Chen extended his hand out politely after he finished speaking.

"I am really glad to meet you. It really did not cross my mind that such a pretty girl like you would need to go on a blind date as well."

"..."

The smile on Shangxin's face froze slightly as she listened to his words of praise.

She reached out and shook hands with him.

At the same time, she studied the person in front of her.

Wang Chen was the second blind date partner whom her parents had arranged for her.

He was a rich second-generation heir.

However, it was said that the Wang family had a strict family tradition. As a result and unlike his fellow wealthy second-generation heirs, Wang Chen did not develop a character that was as frivolous and restless. Instead, he was instead more gentle in his behavior.

Shangxin was stunned when she heard that he had decided to meet her at a concert hall.

However, she seemed to understand the reason why when she saw his refined and gentle look.

Actually, everyone who stood before her would all seem the same, as long as they were not Tang Yuansi...

She turned around and took a scan around the concert hall when she thought of that person.

The lights in the concert venue were all lit up because the concert had not started yet.

From the position where she was at, she would be able to spot him instantly if he appeared.

However, Shangxin did not see that familiar figure after a round of searching.

It seemed that he had finally thought it through and would not stop her from going on blind dates anymore...

What exactly was she looking for?

As Wang Chen followed her gaze and stared in the direction that she was looking, he asked her curiously when he did not see anything, "Are you searching for someone?"

“Nothing, I was just casually looking around.” Shangxin collected her gaze and hid the disappointment in her eyes.

She followed Wang Chen and walked to their seats.

Both of them had booked seats in a booth since they knew that they were going on a blind date.

The VIP area, which was specially segregated with two seats combined for each set, looked no different from typical couple seating.

The concert was about to start just when Shangxin had taken her seat.

The lights in the hall dimmed instantly.

The lights that suddenly lit up on the stage caught everyone’s attention.

She did not see that a handsome figure was silently sneaking in from the entrance...

Chapter 575: Breathtaking! (5)

It never crossed Tang Yuansi’s mind that the day would come when he would need to act stealthily in a concert hall and sneakily avoid being seen by anyone.

He walked through the inner aisle toward the front seats.

When he reached the first row, he could easily spot Shangxin and Wang Chen, who kept smiling at her!

Wang Chen was very young and the same age as Shangxin. While he didn’t exude the charm of a mature and dependable man, he had the disposition of a cheerful young man.

Tang Yuansi could not figure out what Wang Chen was saying to Shangxin, but very soon, Shangxin suddenly smiled back at him.

She even picked up the bottle of water next to her, twisted the cap open, and passed the drink to him!

Seeing this scene unfold before him, Tang Yuansi’s eyes narrowed!

How long have they known each other? Why were they behaving so intimately?

It’d be game over for him by the end of the concert!

The key point was that by the time he found out about the concert and ordered his secretary to buy tickets, it was already too late.

The tickets for the seats near her seat were already sold out.

The seat that Tang Yuansi managed to get was in the front row, but was ten seats away from Shangxin!

Unless he had bionic ears, there was no way for him to hear what they were talking about...

Narrowing his eyes, Tang Yuansi clutched his ticket tightly in his hand. Seizing the chance to take action before the concert started, he walked in Shangxin’s direction and gestured to a person in the row right behind hers. Whipping out a wad of cash from his wallet, Tang Yuansi handed over the money and his ticket to this person.

Taken aback at first, this person very quickly understood Tang Yuansi's intention.

Double checking that Tang Yuansi wasn't fooling around, this person readily accepted the offer and gave the seat to him.

Before he walked away, this person even turned to take another look at the "oddball."

Tang Yuansi: "..."

After clearing a series of obstacles, Tang Yuansi finally managed to get a seat near Shangxin before the concert started.

This seat was in the row right behind hers, but two seats away from hers.

It wasn't directly behind her.

Even if she were to turn around, she would not be able to spot him easily.

However, he could clearly see her pretty profile from where he was sitting.

She had tied her hair into a bun, exposing her cute ear lobes.

As they glowed in the dim lighting, Tang Yuansi was very tempted to pinch them...

Her ear lobes were her most sensitive spots.

Whenever he touched them, she would pounce into his arms and beg him to stop...

Tang Yuansi's gaze became dark at this sudden thought. His eyes that were fixated on her were filled with emotion.

Sensing that someone was looking at her, Shangxin suddenly turned around and looked behind her.

When she saw that the person behind her was a stranger, she turned to the side, but the lights in the concert hall suddenly grew dim.

Even the lights on the stage were dimmed.

The entire concert hall plunged into darkness.

Tang Yuansi heaved a sigh of relief. Then, he heard Wang Chen's voice say, "The concert is about to start. Why are you looking backward instead of at the stage?"

"No, it's nothing. It's just that it feels like someone is watching me..." This familiar feeling was very strong, and Shangxin was determined to find out who it was.

However, the lights had gone out in the venue.

Shangxin could only make out shadows in the dark and could not see anything clearly.

Suddenly, a ray of light shone upon the center of the stage...

The curtains on the stage drew open slowly.

“Wah...”

As the performance began, a resounding applause broke out among the audience.

Shangxin subconsciously followed the source of the audio and looked toward the stage.

Just when she was about to ask Wang Chen about the first performance, she felt the person next to her lean over...

Chapter 576: Breathtaking! (6)

Watching from behind, Tang Yuansi shot up from his seat when he saw what was happening!

Clenching his fists tightly, he couldn't stop to think before plunging forward to beat up Wang Chen, who was trying to get handsy with Shangxin!

Just as he took a step, he saw Wang Chen's face stop just millimeters away from Shangxin's face.

He leaned toward her ear, and whispered something before moving away...

As Tang Yuansi's eyebrows furrowed together, he froze and stood rooted to the ground.

His sudden movement caused a slight commotion among the audience. They reminded him to sit down.

When he snapped back to his senses, he noticed that the noise had caught Shangxin's attention. Before she could turn her head to check what was going on, Tang Yuansi dropped back into his seat and covered his face with the ticket in his hand.

When he realized that he was overreacting, he hastily put his hand down and sat up nervously!

This was the first time he felt the urge to crawl and hide under a chair...

Thankfully, the concert had begun.

The lights on the stage brightened and dimmed periodically, so it was difficult to see anyone clearly.

Shangxin had just turned to see what was going on behind her, but turned back very quickly.

It seemed as if she had discovered something, so she leaned toward Wang Chen and whispered something. Wang Chen broke into a smile and looked very happy judging by the curled sides of his lips.

To Tang Yuansi, all these images were stinging to his eyes!

From the beginning up until now, Tang Yuansi had no idea what was happening onstage.

The focus of his gaze did not leave Shangxin, who was just a short distance away from him.

He watched as she listened to the music quietly and turned to whisper to Wang Chen at times.

Then, Wang Chen placed the bottle near her mouth, causing Tang Yuansi to freeze again. Gripping the armrests of his seat, Tang Yuansi willed himself not to rush forward.

In his heart, he was hoping that Shangxin would push Wang Chen's hand away.

It would be even better if she felt that he was too frivolous and flung his hand off angrily...

However, his wishful thinking did not come true. Instead, Shangxin leaned over and took a sip from the bottle of water in Wang Chen's hand.

Tang Yuansi could not see her expression, but he could guess that right now, she was smiling at Wang Chen...

This was because Tang Yuansi could clearly see that Wang Chen had suddenly smiled too...

They had just met for the first time, but were acting so intimate already.

Tang Yuansi had never seen Shangxin chatting so well with a stranger.

The two of them were in discussion with each other throughout the performance.

Sitting alone behind them, Tang Yuansi stared so hard that his eyeballs were about to pop out of their sockets.

If sharp looks could kill, Wang Chen would have died many times...

During the intermission, when Tang Yuansi saw Wang Chen get up to go to the bathroom, he hurriedly stood up and followed him from behind.

Then, he watched him walk out of the concert hall and dial a number on his phone.

Sensing that there was something amiss, Tang Yuansi refrained from rushing forward.

Instead, he stood a few steps behind Wang Chen and observed him while he was on the phone.

"Dad, it's me. I was in the concert hall earlier and didn't hear my phone ring because it was too noisy."

"Shangxin? Very pretty... Yes, yes, yes, I know her family background. I will not offend her..."

"Dad, don't worry. I know what I'm doing. You should have more faith in your son. When have I disappointed you before?"

"..."

While Wang Chen was still on the phone, the look on Tang Yuansi's face had turned dark.

At the thought of how Wang Chen was plotting to get close to Shangxin to make use of her, Tang Yuansi's calm gaze started to stir.

Marching forward, he tapped Wang Chen on the shoulder.

At the instant that Wang Chen turned his head, Tang Yuansi landed a punch on his face!

Chapter 577: Breathtaking! (7)

With a thump, Wang Chen was beaten to the ground.

The cell phone in his hand had flown out as well, and one could still vaguely hear the instructions that sounded from the cell phone.

“It is good that you know what kind of person she is. In short, you must never offend her...”

Tang Yuansi nearly foamed at the mouth when he heard those words.

Before Wang Chen could regain his composure, Tang Yuansi walked forward and grabbed ahold of the collar of Wang Chen’s shirt. As Tang Yuansi lifted him up, he swung another two punches at Wang Chen’s body!

Wang Chen was beaten to the extent that he saw stars dancing before his eyes.

The moment Tang Yuansi thought of how a scumbag like Wang Chen had approached and wanted to use the precious girl who Tang Yuansi had cared for dearly ever since he was young, he couldn’t wait to kill Wang Chen!

Just when he wanted to send another strike, he saw a familiar figure heading over in his direction from the corner of his eye.

Stunned, Tang Yuansi released his grip immediately as he turned around and left.

Soon after, he heard Shangxin cry out in alarm near the bathrooms.

“Wang Chen!”

Shangxin had merely gone to the bathroom for a short while; she obviously had not expected to see Wang Chen lying on the floor after receiving a beating.

She rushed forward and helped him up.

Turning around, she took a glance at the surroundings, but did not see anybody else around.

Wang Chen was beaten to the extent that his cheek bones had swelled up.

Squinting one of his eyes, he pressed against Shangxin’s hand when he saw that she was about to call for an ambulance.

“I am fine. I merely got punched a couple of times.”

“What happened?”

He was perfectly fine before he went to the bathroom, but now he was beaten up.

He was viciously pummeled.

Wang Chen’s face was on the verge of being ruined from the assault.

Who exactly had such hatred and desire for revenge?

Wang Chen looked like a gentle and refined person; it didn’t seem like he would offend others either.

“I also don’t know. I was on the phone when a crazy guy suddenly rushed out and gave me a beating without a second word. His actions were too fast, and I didn’t even get to take a close look at what he looked like... Ouch!" The moment Wang Chen opened his mouth to speak, he exacerbated the wounds on his face and grimaced in pain.

Shangxin frowned and asked, "Did you offend someone?"

How could a crazy person emerge out of nowhere from the concert hall and beat someone up?

Furthermore, this was near the bathrooms of the concert hall.

Only ticket holders could come here.

"Let's file a police report for the sake of safety." As Shangxin said this, she whipped out her cell phone and got ready to make the phone call.

Wang Chen grabbed ahold of Shangxin's hand, smiled, and said, "Don't! For a true man, getting a couple of beatings does not matter. This is the first time you have gone out with me, and it would be so dampening if we ended up at the police station. I am fine—I will just treat this as if I was bitten by a mad dog."

Shangxin grinned as well when she saw his cheerful smile.

As Tang Yuansi stood at a corner, his eyes narrowed when he saw what was happening.

His hands silently clenched into tight fists.

With the gaze that he directed toward Wang Chen, he looked like a devil who had just emerged from hell.

A dreadful aura surrounded his entire body...

"Even if we don't file a police report, I can't just leave you in this state either. Let's forgo the concert. I saw a clinic downstairs when I came just now, and I'll accompany you there to get your wounds treated." Shangxin stood up and helped him up from the ground.

She told him to wait for her here because she wanted to head to the bathroom first.

"I am fine, you go ahead. I promise that I will not go anywhere. I will stand here obediently and wait for you to come back." Reaching out, Wang Chen covered the wounded half of his face as he smiled and assured her.

He cursed softly again as his curved lips aggravated his wound.

After he saw that Shangxin's figure had disappeared through the entrance of the bathroom, he was about to walk up to the wall and lean against it to rest for a the moment. However, he heard a strange series of footsteps coming from behind his back.

These footsteps sounded too familiar...

His nerves turned cold as he turned around immediately!

Before he had time to return to his senses, a fist swung toward the other part of his face—the part that was not wounded!

“Ah!”

Chapter 578: I'll turn crazy for you, I'll turn into a demon for you

When Shangxin came out from her short trip to the bathroom, it never crossed her mind that she would see Wang Chen being pinned to the ground and getting beaten up yet again.

As the fierce and ruthless punches rained down, it seemed like the attacker was really hitting Wang Chen as hard as he could!

When she recognized that Tang Yuansi was the attacker, she was instantly stunned...

Tang Yuansi was actually so mad that he had gone mad!

He didn't have the power and wasn't in the position to stop her from going on blind dates.

If Wang Chen really liked her, no matter how unwilling Tang Yuansi was, he could only endure it.

However, the moment he remembered that Wang Chen had a motive for getting close to Shangxin and had even had thoughts about making use of her family background, Tang Yuansi could not control his rage!

Jerk!

He actually had the guts to put on a pitiful expression in front of Shangxin.

He did not want to file a police report, right?

He insisted on continuing the date, right?

Tang Yuansi would make sure that Wang Chen would have a date with a doctor at the hospital!

Tang Yuansi wasn't sure if he felt furious or jealous as he grabbed ahold of Wang Chen and rained ruthless punches down on him.

He seemed to have detected something and stiffened slightly when he realized that someone was staring at him from behind. Then, he turned around to look in the direction of the bathroom...

The expressions on both of their faces changed immediately as their gazes met each other.

Tang Yuansi's body froze as he stopped the fist that was already beside the tip of Wang Chen's nose.

Wang Chen, who was beaten silly, finally regained his composure. As he reached out to push Tang Yuansi away, he crawled up and scrambled in Shangxin's direction.

“Shangxin, quick. Call the police to arrest this crazy guy!”

“...”

Shangxin stood rooted to the ground and did not move a single inch when she heard what Wang Chen said.

She had even forgotten to help Wang Chen up.

All she did was stare fixedly at Tang Yuansi, who had appeared in front of her with an evil and foreboding air emanating from his entire body.

She had never seen him in such a state before...

Even though he was a domineering person, he treated everyone in a gentle manner and rarely had disputes with others, let alone lay his hands on them.

Even when he was crowded out in the orphanage, he merely cast a cold glance at the other party and proceeded to find a quiet spot to sit down.

With a look that seemed like he was about to murder someone, this was her first time seeing him in such a furious state...

Was this just because Wang Chen went on a blind date with her?

As Wang Chen covered his face that was as swollen as a pig's head, he scurried toward her and shouted her name anxiously, "Shangxin, Shangxin...!"

When Shangxin finally recovered from her thoughts, she saw that Tang Yuansi was walking toward her as well.

However, he wasn't looking at her—he was staring at Wang Chen, who was standing behind her.

Wang Chen was truly afraid after being beaten so severely. The moment he saw Tang Yuansi walk over, he was so intimidated that he hid directly behind Shangxin's back and got ready to scream for help.

"Xin'er, come over here." Tang Yuansi's eyes sank when he saw that Wang Chen was hiding behind Shangxin.

A man who couldn't protect her and instead required her protection—how useless could he be?!

Wang Chen was struck dumb when he heard Tang Yuansi's voice.

He opened his mouth slightly, stared at her with a look of disbelief, and asked, "The two of you know each other? Did he beat me up because..."

As Wang Chen squinted his eyes that were on the verge of swelling shut, he twisted his head to and fro, taking turns to stare at the two of them.

Soon after, he realized that the man before him looked a bit familiar.

He seemed to have seen him somewhere...

"You are, you are the new CEO of the Tang Corporation, Tang Yuansi!"

When Wang Chen saw that Tang Yuansi was walking toward him after he had just recognized who Tang Yuansi was, he felt so threatened that he hurriedly said, "President Tang, words will do! Even if I have done something to offend you, could you please clarify the issue before you lay your hands on me? At least I will know the reason why before I die!"

Before Tang Yuansi could speak, Shangxin had already positioned herself in front of Wang Chen with a chilly look on her face.

Anger seeped through her gaze.

“Tang Yuansi, have you had enough?”

“No! I will make him a paralyzed man today if you dare to get together with this scumbag!”

Chapter 579: Afraid of being silenced for knowing too much

“Scumbag?”

Not understanding what Tang Yuansi was trying to get at, Shangxin frowned and turned to look at Wang Chen, who was cowering behind her and scared out of his wits.

Although Wang Chen was the same age as her, his personality was more like that of a big kid. What did Wang Chen do to offend Tang Yuansi for Tang Yuansi to call him a scumbag?

Tang Yuansi narrowed his eyes and pursed his lips. He did not answer immediately because he did not want Shangxin to know what he had heard Wang Chen say earlier.

“Tang Yuansi, speak up if you have something to say. Are you a man or not?” Shangxin berated Tang Yuansi when she noticed that he was hesitating to give an explanation.

Hearing this, Tang Yuansi furrowed his eyebrows.

However, he did not seem bothered by Shangxin’s rebuke. Instead, he walked toward her and stroked her head as he answered, “A girl shouldn’t lash out at people so easily.”

“...”

“Anyway, don’t you know best whether I’m a man or not?”

“...”

As soon as the words were spoken, Shangxin froze in shock while Wang Chen’s eyes widened in astonishment. It was as if he had overheard a great secret.

He wanted to find out more, but was afraid he might be silenced for knowing too much.

“Shangxin, why don’t the two of you continue to chat while I leave first?” stuttered Wang Chen nervously.

This situation was too stressful for him to handle!

Clutching his face that was stinging painfully with his hand, he turned to leave. However, Shangxin reached her hand out to stop him and ordered, “You aren’t allowed to leave! If anyone should leave, it should be him!”

Shangxin pointed at Tang Yuansi.

Wang Chen was the person she was going on a date with. Not only did Tang Yuansi crash their date, he even beat Wang Chen up and tried to chase him away. How could he be so unreasonable?

“Are you chasing me away?” Tang Yuansi knitted his eyebrows as his expression turned cold.

Seeing that she was siding Wang Chen, he thought of the previous conversation that Wang Chen had with his father.

This pair of father and son were obviously trying to get close to Shangxin because they were targeting her distinguished family background.

Tang Yuansi could hardly restrain himself from bashing Wang Chen up again.

However, when he met Shangxin’s infuriated glare, he couldn’t bring himself to get mad at her. A light flickered past his eyes as he said calmly, “I will not leave.”

“...”

Tang Yuansi’s stubborn response almost made Shangxin spit out blood.

This was a public place after all, and Tang Yuansi had bought a ticket to attend. If he didn’t want to leave, she had no right to force him to.

“Fine. If you don’t leave, I will!” Shangxin retorted through gritted teeth as she glared at Tang Yuansi.

Then, she reached her hand out to Wang Chen, but just as her fingers touched his clothes, Wang Chen got a fright from Tang Yuansi’s icy stare and hastily stumbled backward.

“No, no, it’s fine. I can walk on my own.”

He didn’t want to get beaten up again for no rhyme or reason...

Shangxin: “...”

Shangxin and Wang Chen walked ahead while Tang Yuansi followed behind them.

The three of them left the concert hall and entered the clinic one floor down. When the nurse on duty saw Wang Chen’s bashed up face that was bruised and swollen, she thought that she had seen a ghost!

“Please attend to his injuries. Thank you,” Shangxin said as she walked over to the nurse.

The nurse nodded at Shangxin’s words, then shifted her gaze toward the three people and thought in her mind that this must be a love triangle.

While her nosy expression was clear for all to see, she held herself back from asking Wang Chen if he had tried to seduce someone else’s girlfriend and if that was why he got beaten up...

As soon as the nurse dabbed Wang Chen’s face with an alcohol swab, Wang Chen let out a loud shriek.

“Be gentle! It’s so painful...”

The nurse continued dabbing on his wounds as she lectured, “If you’re so afraid of pain, why weren’t you afraid just now when you were fighting? Of all people to like, why did you become a third party and pick someone who has a boyfriend?”

Chapter 580: It was only because she had always loved him

Wang Chen felt wronged, but could not clarify the misunderstanding.

He had been beaten up for no reason, and now, he was being discriminated against...

The nurse who was attending to him probably hated third parties who broke up other people's relationships. During the treatment, her face was dark as she savagely applied the medication on his wounds.

It hurt so much that Wang Chen felt like dropping to the floor and rolling around in pain...

While waiting outside the room, Shangxin's face was filled with concern when she heard the shrieks coming out from inside.

Seeing the worried expression on her face, Tang Yuansi walked over and turned her around to face him. In a low voice, he said, "You can like anyone except for Wang Chen!"

"..." What a crazy guy.

Shangxin rolled her eyes and ignored him, turning back to face the clinic.

Tang Yuansi did not give up and walked in front of her. Grabbing her shoulders, he exclaimed, "Wang Chen is not a decent person! He doesn't deserve you!"

"..." He must be out of his mind.

Refusing to look at Tang Yuansi anymore, Shangxin walked toward the rest area and sat down to wait.

Surprised by her lack of reaction, Tang Yuansi followed behind her and sat down next to her. In a gentle tone, he said, "I won't stop you if you want to go on blind dates, but at least find someone who is sincere. Wang Chen has an ulterior motive..."

"Are you done talking?"

Shangxin cut Tang Yuansi short, stood up, and walked over to Wang Chen when she saw him walk out.

After the treatment, Wang Chen's face was almost completely bandaged up.

Seeing Tang Yuansi again gave him a big fright!

"Let's go." Shangxin could see that he was still trembling in fear. Without saying too much, she held his arm and helped him to walk out of the clinic.

By the time they reached the exit, Tang Yuansi had caught up with them.

Wang Chen hastily retracted his hand and stood as far away as he could from Shangxin.

"What do you want, Tang Yuansi?" Shangxin's face turned dark.

Tang Yuansi had said that he would not stop her from going on blind dates, yet he kept disrupting every blind date that she went on!

“I said he won’t do!”

Tang Yuansi’s face turned dark as he said through gritted teeth, “I heard with my own ears as he reassured his father over the phone that he would coax you even if he did not like you and that he would surely not offend you... This scumbag isn’t true to you. He only wants to make use of you!”

Unable to hold it in anymore, Tang Yuansi decided to expose Wang Chen.

In that instant, the air seemed to freeze, and the three people plunged into a strange silence.

The first person to regain their composure was Wang Chen.

Hearing Tang Yuansi’s words, Wang Chen hurriedly tried to explain himself and said, “Please don’t get me wrong, Shangxin. I only told my father that because...”

Seeing Shangxin’s face turn pale, Tang Yuansi raised his hand to punch Wang Chen again.

Just as he was about to strike out at Wang Chen, Shangxin’s hoarse voice spoke out.

“Then do you know why I was willing to go on a date with him?” Her gaze was clear and intense as she slowly turned toward Tang Yuansi.

Next, her eyes started to well up with tears.

“...” Tang Yuansi was taken aback.

The next second, Shangxin enunciated every word clearly and said, “It is because before we met, he told me that he already has someone he likes and that he will not take this blind date seriously.”

Tang Yuansi: “...!!”

“Are you satisfied now, Tang Yuansi?”

Then, Shangxin turned to apologize to Wang Chen and hailed a taxi, leaving without another word!

“If you really like her, then you should go after her! If the person I like likes me that much, I would never let her go...” Wang Chen nudged Tang Yuansi as he watched him become trapped in a daze.

Immediately, Tang Yuansi snapped back to his senses and turned to get his car!
