

My Life 711

Chapter 711: Stand Right There and Don't Move

"Are you sure he is Mr. Cardi? You don't have the wrong person?" Nian Xiaomu's hand tightened around her coffee cup.

She was so anxious that she nearly shattered the cup.

Shangxin took another look at the photo on the cell phone and replied with certainty, "Even though the person in this photo looks slightly different to when I saw him, it is indeed him. Even his clothing is exactly the same as the day when he picked you up!"

He wore a black formal suit with a gentleman's tie around his collar.

He had the same air about him too.

Shangxin was certain that she had not mistaken him for someone else, and this was the man she had seen outside the school gate back then.

"You called him Mr. Cardi just now. Do you remember this man?" Shangxin asked.

"He was the one who helped the remaining members of the Xing Family settle down after they met with an accident. He even provided financial assistance to them for seven years." As Nian Xiaomu leaned against the back of the chair with her coffee, she seemed to be a little confused.

She hadn't expected to receive such an important piece of information when she had originally only gone to send Shangxin off.

In her mind she pieced together all the bits and pieces of information that she had heard today...

She had originally thought that she was adopted by the Xing Family.

However, everything that she had been told by them, had proved that the Xing couple did not simply treat her as an adoptive daughter.

Also, who was the one who had picked her up before the fire started in the Xing Family residence 10 years ago?

She hadn't been able to get an answer to this question.

One reason could be that she wasn't an abandoned child after all. Rather, she had been placed in the care of the Xing Family by her biological parents since birth, and was only fetched home when she was a teen.

And so, the benefactor who had appeared at the Xing Family's residence after the fire might be part of her parents' arrangement!

Where did they take her that year?

What about her biological parents?

What's with her memories of the fire?

Mr. Cardi disappeared three years ago, and she had collapsed somewhere outside the hospital with serious injuries... How exactly were these two events linked?

She always had the feeling that the truth was in her grasp, but there was always something stopping her from seeing it clearly...

In the end, she would still have to rely on Xing Li for the answers.

As long as Xing Li could tell her who had picked her up back then, or tell her what her real name was.

In any case, she could still use the information of her time at Angel as a basis, and then find out everything.

Nian Xiaomu put her coffee cup down and spoke. "Shangxin, I've got to leave now, I have something urgent to attend to. What time is your flight tomorrow? I will head over to see you off."

Shangxin's eyes flickered. Hiding the reluctant-to-part expression in her eyes, she said, "10 o'clock in the morning."

"I will be there." As Nian Xiaomu stood up from the chair, she lowered her head and planted a kiss on Shangxin's forehead. "Take care of yourself, cutie-pie."

"...!!"

By the time Shangxin turned around, the person who had kissed her, had already left the cafe with her phone in her hand.

Just as she was about to reach the exit, Nian Xiaomu received a call from Yu Yuehan.

"Where are you?"

A hint of unhappiness that resulted because of her abandonment lingered in his deep voice.

Nian Xiaomu could almost imagine him holding his phone and tugging at his necktie at this very moment.

Smiling, she answered sweetly, "Are you done with your meeting? I am about to head to the police station now, do you want to accompany me?"

"Stand right there and don't move. I'll come and pick you up." Yu Yuehan replied.

He hung up the call right after he finished speaking.

"..."

Stand right there and don't move? She wasn't a puppet...

Chapter 712: The Second Wife!

Would a goddess be so obedient?

Of course not!

Nian Xiaomu pouted her lips and carried her bag, strutting towards the roadside.

She bought herself a stick of candied fruits, and ate it while she waited.

However, she had only managed to eat a few of the candied fruits, when a luxurious, black car stopped in front of her with a “Vroom!”

Nian Xiaomu tilted her head in an attempt to chew off one of the candied fruits in her hand. She couldn't even be bothered to lick the syrup off the corners of her mouth.

As the car window rolled down, Yue Yuehan's devastatingly handsome face appeared before her.

He stared at the saliva at the corner of her mouth with a look of disdain, as if to say “Look at you, a stick of candied fruits is enough for you to show your true colors. You still dare to call yourself a goddess...”

“...”

Was it too late for her to throw away the candied fruit now?

From the contemptuous look he gave, it seemed like it was too late.

Besides, as a foodie she did not agree with wasting food.

Nian Xiaomu pursed her lips and stretched her hand, ready to open the car door.

After trying the handle a few times, she realized that the car door was locked.

Nian Xiaomu muttered vaguely, “Yu Yuehan, you forgot to open the door.”

Yue Yuehan said, “Nian Xiaomu, do you know that a car is a man's second wife? Throw away that thing in your mouth. It will dirty my wife.”

“...!!”

He wouldn't even let her eat a stick of candied fruit. Did he believe that she could make him single immediately, and he could go on to stay with his car, his wife?

A silent war had occurred during the short span of time where they had locked gazes.

In the end, Yue Yuehan was defeated and allowed the assistant to open the car door.

Nian Xiaomu gleefully climbed into the car with her candied fruits.

Just as she settled into her seat, she bit off a piece of the candied fruit and asked, “Didn't you just call? How did you arrive so quickly?”

At this speed, it would be more probable that they came by plane instead of car.

Yu Yuehan's eyes flickered and he replied coldly, “I happened to be nearby.”

“Wait, this doesn't make sense. You hung up so quickly that I didn't even manage to tell you the address. How did you know where you were supposed to pick me up? Yu Yuehan, did you tail me?” said

Nian Xiaomu as she swallowed the piece of candied fruit in her mouth. She stared at him as she thought of this possibility.

“You sent me a message in the cafe. It showed your location.”

“...”

She had indeed forgotten about that.

She snuggled into Yu Yuehan’s embrace in an attempt to please him. Pretending as if nothing had happened, she rubbed her head against his chest and continued eating her candied fruits.

“...”

Yu Yuehan lowered his eyes, staring at her delicate profile. The soft light that fell on her made her seem like an illusion.

As he pulled her closer to him, a complicated flicker of emotion flashed across his eyes.

Recalling what happened recently, he felt a little insecure. Perhaps, he should seriously consider installing a GPS system in her phone, in case he lost her...

Zoom!

The car had arrived at the police station.

Xing Li had been taken for investigation. According to standard procedures, visitors should be allowed

After hearing the purpose of their visit, the staff at the police station were apologetic and said, “You’re too late. Xing Li is no longer at this police station. She has been transferred to a hospital, and we’ve had the news that she has been diagnosed with PTSD. She is unable to accept that she was the cause of her biological parents’ death and has gone crazy.”

Chapter 713: Daily dose of sweetness

Crazy...

Nian Xiaomu had noticed a long time ago that Xing Li was not in a good state of mind, but it had never crossed her mind that she could have gone crazy.

A look of surprise flashed past her face instantly and feeling worried, she glanced over at Yu Yuehan.

On the contrary, Yu Yuehan appeared to be at ease, and he seemed to have this. Holding on to her hand, he turned around and they left the police station.

He instructed the chauffeur to drive off the moment they got onto the car.

Turning round to face him, Nian Xiaomu asked, “Where are we going now?”

“To the hospital.”

“Hospital? Do you think that Xing Li is abusing the loopholes in the legal system by feigning craziness?” Nian Xiaomu was stunned as she thought of this possibility.

Based on everything that Xing Li had done previously, if they persisted on prosecuting her she would be sentenced to a few years in jail at the very least.

It would be better if she was found to be crazy now.

If this was the case, all the rumors that she had spread would be forgotten. They couldn’t possibly prosecute a lunatic for spreading rumors, could they?

But did this mean that she might really have feigned her craziness?

Nian Xiaomu thought about this.

“I don’t think Xing Li has faked her PTSD after I saw what she was like. Also, the doctors are so professional, it would be impossible for them not see through her act if she was pretending. It would be very hard for her to bribe the doctors based on her abilities.”

The moment she finished her sentence, she heard Yu Yuehan’s light laughter.

People who do not enjoy laughing possess a very terrifying power when they actually laughed. His lips curled upward and his originally stern looking face turned gentle immediately, and his deep eyes gleamed.

Even though his thoughts could not be seen, one would unknowingly stare into his eyes—it was as if those eyes would reveal something the very next minute...

When Nian Xiaomu realized that she was distracted just by looking at his beauty, she awkwardly let out two light coughs.

The next second, his hand suddenly reached out and stroked her forehead.

“Nian Xiaomu, have you turned dumb after having too much of sweet stuff?”

“Speak properly, don’t do any personal attacks!” Nian Xiaomu swatted his hand away.

“If Xing Li isn’t crazy, we have to visit her at the hospital. If Xing Li is crazy, we have to visit her even more.” As Yu Yuehan spoke, he stretched out his long legs and leaned against the car seat lazily. As he propped his head up with one hand, he looked her way.

With a look that said, “Your heartthrob has already dropped you a hint; it all depends on your IQ whether you are able to comprehend it.”

Nian Xiaomu held back her question immediately when she saw his gaze.

She would be admitting that she had got a low IQ if she asked him about it now.

This goddess would not concede defeat!

As Nian Xiaomu removed her heels, she propped her legs up on the car seat and started to seriously ponder over the things that he had just said.

Her fair toes were exposed in midair twitching restlessly.

For some reason, the action of her scratching her head appeared to be a little adorable...

She seemed to be muttering something as her lips moved about...

Her lustrous lips were glossy and moist.

Yu Yuehan's gaze deepened as he lowered his head and leaned toward her. Just when he was about to kiss her, she suddenly jumped up and squatted on the car seat. As she grabbed onto his shirt with both hands, she shrieked excitedly.

"I knew it, I knew it! You must be thinking that if Xing Li is really crazy, we could try to worm the facts out of her and perhaps retrieve information about my family background, right?"

After she finished speaking, she happily planted a kiss on his thin lips and obediently sat down before him. She stared expectantly at his big, round eyes and waited for him to praise her.

"..."

He hadn't heard anything that she had just said.

But, could he have another kiss?

Chapter 714: Well, That's Something Impressive!

When Nian Xiaomu snapped back to her senses and realized what she had done, her face turned a gorgeous shade of red.

Yu Yuehan's face showed a dazed expression.

Could he be angry with her for taking advantage of him just now?

Yes, she had indeed given him a sudden kiss, but they were about to get engaged. He didn't seem to be so petty that he would disallow a mere kiss...

Perhaps she should apologize to him?

But this would destroy her reputation as a goddess. Furthermore, the goddess usually ran away after flirting—he had already been very kind by sitting here and waiting for her.

Should she give him another kiss?

"Yu Yuehan..."

Just when Nian Xiaomu was about to say something, the chauffeur suddenly stopped the car and reported respectfully, "Young Master Han, we have arrived at the hospital."

Nian Xiaomu only remembered then, that Yu Yuehan had not answered her question.

Furthermore, the way he gazed at her was still very weird...

“You get out of the car first.” Yu Yuehan spoke suddenly.

Without a second word, Nian Xiaomu reached out and got ready to open the car door.

Before her fingers could come into contact with the car door, Yu Yuehan had already pulled her back. He threw a chilly look at the chauffeur sitting in the driver’s seat and said, “I mean, you get out of the car first.”

“...”

The chauffeur got out hastily.

Now, there was only the two of them in the narrow rear seats.

With her body pressed against the car door, Nian Xiaomu looked at Yu Yuehan, who was suddenly behaving in a strange manner.

Could he really be angry with her for taking advantage of him just now?

What a petty man.

He could simply kiss her back.

“I merely gave you a kiss, I won’t do it in the future if you don’t like it...”

“Kiss me again.”

He suddenly said in a low voice that was slightly hoarse.

It sounded exceptionally alluring.

However, the key point was the meaning behind his words...

Had she been flirted with instead?

Hadn’t he looked reluctant earlier on, and acted like he didn’t want her to kiss him?

Must the goddess kiss him now that he had requested for it?

The goddess was a very proud person.

“I’m not kissing!”

Yu Yuehan raised his eyebrows and said, “Give me a kiss, I’ll buy you a stick of candied fruits later on.”

“10 sticks! I want to eat nine sticks and take a stick back for Xiao Liuliu.” Nian Xiaomu replied without hesitation.

“...”

She was indeed her biological mother.

She was still able to save a tiny little stick for Xiao Liuliu.

Nian Xiaomu noticed the taunting look in his eyes and explained in a deadly earnest manner, “Alright, I am not being petty here. Everything that I do is for the good of Xiao Liuliu. She is still young and she can’t have too much sweet food. I am a grown up and it’s fine even if I eat a little too much.”

After she had finished speaking, she stared at him with a subservient look and waited for his reply.

“Two sticks.” Yu Yuehan opened his thin lips and said, “Too much sweet food isn’t good for your health.”

“Eight sticks!”

“Two sticks.”

“Six sticks!”

“Two sticks.”

“Four sticks! Nothing less than that!” Nian Xiaomu was on the verge of entering into a state of panic.

He didn’t even want to let her have candied fruits—did he still want her as his fiancée?

As Yu Yuehan took a glance at her little face that was puffed up from anger, he opened his mouth steadily and said, “Two sticks.”

“...!!”

Nian Xiaomu shot him a glare before she pushed open the car door and got ready to get out of the car.

Yu Yuehan raised his eyebrows immediately and said, “Fine, four sticks it shall be.”

“...”

“Six sticks then?”

“...”

“Nian Xiaomu, it’s a little overboard to have six sticks. You only have three seconds to consider.” Before Yu Yuehan could threaten her again, Nian Xiaomu had already flung his hand away and jumped out of the car.

She turned around and whipped out a hundred dollar note from her pocket.

“I suddenly remembered that the goddess has got money, I can buy them myself!”

Chapter 715: I Need a Hug

“...!!”

He hadn’t expected that all of his previous efforts would go down the drain.

So did he have to control the goddess’s wallet in the future, just to get a kiss from her?

Before he could return to his senses, Nian Xiaomu had already waved her hands and walked towards the hospital.

With a long face, Yu Yuehan stepped out of the car, walked over to her, and they headed into the hospital together.

They followed the information, and managed to find Xing Li's ward in no time.

The ward was stark white in color.

Xing Li was lying on the hospital bed. All her limbs were tied down so tightly by a special type of cloth, that she was unable to move at all.

The nurse who had followed them over explained this to them immediately.

"Ms Xing was very agitated and she kept on struggling; she did not cooperate with us for her checkups either. Afraid that she would hurt others as well as hurt herself, the doctor had no choice but to inject her with a tranquilizer to limit her mobility."

"Can we go in and see her now?" Nian Xiaomu asked when she saw Xing Li, lying lifelessly on the bed.

The nurse nodded her head in a friendly manner and said, "Ms Xing has already calmed down, there shouldn't be any problem. However, try not to talk about anything that might agitate her. I'll be outside, just call if there's a problem."

After Nian Xiaomu thanked the nurse, she pushed the door to the ward open and walked inside.

Even though Xing Li's eyes were wide open, she kept her gaze completely fixated on the ceiling—you couldn't tell if she was awake or sleeping.

The burnt part of her face was covered with her long hair, and there seemed to be an additional hint of gentleness on the side of her face that was revealed.

Her life would have been completely different if she had not walked this extreme path...

Nian Xiaomu still felt some empathy toward Xing Li, perhaps because she heard how well the Xing couple had treated her.

She would not send Xing Li to jail if she didn't have to destroy her.

"Who? Who are you guys?" The person, who was silently lying on the bed a moment ago, seemed to have heard the footsteps. She suddenly widened her eyes and looked in their direction.

It chilled one's heart to see her blood-thirsty gaze.

Yu Yuehan pulled Nian Xiaomu behind him to protect her.

When he remembered Xing Li's restricted mobility it set his mind at ease. As he released his grip on Nian Xiaomu's hand, he watched as she walked step by step to Xing Li.

"I heard that you have been wanting to see me."

"..."

Xing Li's gaze suddenly softened when she heard Nian Xiaomu's voice.

Struggling, she sat up on her bed.

Her arms fidgeted and it seemed like she wanted to do something. However, she realized that she was wearing a special kind of hospital gown and could not move at all.

She could only lift her head and look at Nian Xiaomu. Raising her eyebrows, she smiled.

“Xingxing, you are here to see me? Elder sister misses you very much. Come over, let me hug you...”

“...”

“It’s all elder sister’s fault, I shouldn’t have been jealous of you. Daddy and Mummy were nice to you for a reason; that was because you are the benefactor of the Xing Family, the benefactor...” Xing Li appeared to have been possessed; it seemed like she was speaking to Nian Xiaomu, but judging from her expression, she appeared to be muttering to herself instead.

Nian Xiaomu was stunned.

Just when she was hesitating, she suddenly thought of Yu Yuehan’s reminder in the car before they came.

He had said that if Xing Li had indeed gone crazy, they should visit her more.

A normal person would lie.

A lunatic wouldn’t.

“Elder sister? Are you even my sister? You wanted me to die right from the start.”

As Nian Xiaomu collected her gaze, she pulled out the chair and sat beside the hospital bed. Then, she crossed her legs and asked in a chilly tone, “You said that I am the benefactor of the Xing Family. Tell me then, how did I become the benefactor of the Xing Family?”

Chapter 716: A Man and a Woman

When Xing Li saw her cold and detached reaction, she looked on in bewilderment.

She opened her mouth slightly and thought over her question—it seemed like she had started to doubt whatever she had said earlier on.

Even though Nian Xiaomu felt nervous, she didn’t show her emotions, and stared at her as if she was perfectly fine.

Other than Xing Li’s reply, she also wanted to see if she was truly crazy or simply pretending to be a lunatic!

Xing Li raised her head and answered with all seriousness, “It’s real, I am not lying. The Xing Family will have a lot of money if you are there at the Xing Family residence...”

It seemed that she was very pleased with herself for thinking of this reply, as a happy look took over her face.

“Yes, that’s what happened. It wasn’t true that my parents didn’t love me, the reason they were so nice to you was because you were very important. They did love me... They loved me the most because I am their only biological daughter...”

Xing Li could not let go of this sore point, even when she had already gone crazy.

She knew very clearly that there was a reason why the Xing couple treated Xing Xing well. However, she could not control the jealousy in her heart.

One false step could ruin everything. The huge fire had burned her biological parents to death...

However, Nian Xiaomu still did not understand the meaning behind her words.

What did she mean by saying the Xing Family would have a lot of money if she was there at the Xing Family residence?

“Who gave them the money?” Nian Xiaomu raised her head abruptly and asked.

Xing Li shrunk backward as her tone suddenly turned angry.

Staring at her with widely enlarged eyes, she said, “You are not my sister. My sister has got a good temper and she always gives in to me. She would never raise her voice at me; she didn’t even allow me to address her as Miss, and told me to address her as Liuliu... However, daddy and mummy did not allow it, they would get angry. I couldn’t anger my parents, they would not abandon me if I didn’t anger them...”

As Xing Li spoke, she started to sink into the state of muttering to herself yet again.

However, Nian Xiaomu caught the main point amongst her words.

Liuliu.

So her name was really Liuliu.

At the very least, it seemed like this wasn’t a name that she had randomly made up.

Otherwise, everyone whom she was close to would not have called her by this same name.

However, there wasn’t a surname to it, and it sounded like a pet name for a child.

In that case, what was her full name?

Nian Xiaomu took in a deep breath and tried to remain calm. As she put on a nonchalant expression, she asked, “You said that my name is Liuliu. Why should I believe you? You don’t even know my surname, so how would I know if whatever you have said was all lies?”

“It’s real!” Xing Li sat upright all of a sudden. Muttering to herself, she moved closer to her.

She started to whisper and acted as if she was telling her some sort of secret.

“I am the only one who knew about it, apart from my daddy and mummy, I heard with my own ears as the two people who visited you called you Liuliu. You looked very happy too...”

“Two people?” Nian Xiaomu could no longer control her body and she started to tremble lightly.

Her instincts told her that she wasn’t an abandoned child.

The people who visited her at the Xing Family were very likely her biological parents.

“Yes, two people! A man and a woman, they were very good looking. I have never seen such good looking people in my life. However, daddy and mummy would chase me away and they forbade me from getting near whenever they came. I could only take a secret peek... Every time they came, lots of people in black clothes would appear in the house. Apart from adults, there were kids wearing black clothes too. They were around the same age as us...”

Kids who were around the same age as them.

Wearing black clothes.

Some sort of information flashed past Nian Xiaomu’s mind.

Could they have got it wrong all along? Maybe Xing Fang wasn’t the girl in black who loved to follow her around?

Chapter 717: Not a Benefactor, but a Cheat!

“You lied to me again.” As Nian Xiaomu stretched her legs calmly, she shot Xing Li a slightly chilly glance and said indifferently, “You told Fan Yu last time that Xing Fang was the one who loved to follow me around, but now you said that the kids in black were other people instead. Do you think that I would still believe your nonsense?”

“Xing Fang, it’s Xing Fang. That slut must have liked Young Master Fan too, and so she followed you around secretly all the time... No, she wasn’t wearing black clothes, her dress was the same as mine. Mummy had bought the dress for me, but she said that she liked it and got another one for herself...”

Xing Li’s expression turned thoughtful.

It was as if she was starting to doubt herself too.

“It was Xing Fang. No, it wasn’t Xing Fang, that person did not look like Xing Fang... But Xing Fang was the one who followed you...”

Xing Li seemed to have stopped at a magic barrier as she kept on repeating the same sentence.

Nian Xiaomu did not continue probing on the question when she saw that her expression didn’t seem quite right.

“Tell me first. What did the man and woman look like? Do you know their names?”

Xing Li turned speechless instantly.

All of a sudden, she smiled at her with a playful expression in her eyes.

“You’re a fool, I said that they were very good looking. This means that they must have looked very good, hahaha!”

“...!!”

“What’s their name? Oh yes, what’s their name?” As Xing Li struggled with her thoughts, she reached out and tried to pull her hair. When she realized that she couldn’t move her hands, she was in such discomfort that she banged her head against the headboard.

Nian Xiaomu stopped her from doing so. Then, she took out her cell phone from her bag and opened up the photo gallery.

“In that case, you should still remember Mr. Cardi, right? He’s the Xing Family’s benefactor.”

“He isn’t the Xing Family’s benefactor, he’s a cheat!”

Unlike the others, it seemed that she did not like Mr. Cardi.

“Why do you say that he was a cheat? He helped the Xing Family out for so many years.”

With a look of disdain, she scoffed, “He wasn’t the one who helped the Xing Family. The ones who helped the Xing Family were obviously the two very good looking people, he’s only a butler!”

“...”

Nian Xiaomu stood up from the chair all of a sudden, and turned around to look at Yu Yuehan.

Yu Yuehan’s expression changed slightly too.

They had been guessing the identity of Mr. Cardi all along, as well as his reason for helping the Xing Family.

This sentence of Xing Li’s had answered all of their doubts.

Things had become very clear now.

Nian Xiaomu was neither an abandoned child, nor a child that the Xing Family had adopted. Instead, she had been placed in their care.

There were people who went over to visit her frequently too.

It seemed that her family members were the ones who had picked her up from the Xing Family residence 10 years ago.

As such, Shangxin was able to meet Nian Xiaomu in school.

In addition, as the Xing couple had once helped to raise Nian Xiaomu, Mr. Cardi appeared at the Xing Family and helped the remaining members of the family settle down after the Xing Family met with a mishap...

Nian Xiaomu could no longer conceal the emotion in her eyes.

“What else do you know? If you don’t remember the names of the two people, then you should at least remember their surname, right? Or rather, what was Mr. Cardi’s full name?”

"I don't remember, I don't remember anything."

All of a sudden, Xing Li shrunk into a ball on the bed and shook her head with all her might.

"Daddy and mummy said that this was a secret that could not be told to others. They would not love me anymore if others knew about it..."

"They only loved Xing Xing the jinx and no longer loved me..."

"Xing Xing is a jinx. If not for her, my daddy and mummy would not have died. She is a jinx, I will never forgive her in my entire lifetime..."

Chapter 718: An Unconventional Kind of Heartache

Xing Li appeared to have sunk back into her crazy state, as she started to curse at Xing Xing maliciously.

It seemed as though she wanted to drink her blood and gnaw at her flesh, with that sinister expression of hers.

However, she didn't seem to recognize Nian Xiaomu at all, even though she was standing right in front of her.

All she did was rant on.

"Think carefully again. Didn't you hear anyone calling them by their names, you have met them so many times?" Nian Xiaomu couldn't contain her cool any longer. Walking forward, she grabbed onto Xing Li's arm and questioned her closely.

Even though they could roughly guess what happened, there were still many points that could not be clearly explained.

For example, why was she placed in the care of the Xing Family?

Since her family members had already picked her up, why did she appear in City H three years ago with a body full of wounds?

How did she get pregnant with Xiao Liuliu, and who was the one who had sent Xiao Liuliu to Yu Yuehan?

All of these questions could only be answered after she found her family members along with her own identity.

"I don't remember them. You're hurting me..." Xing Li struggled with all her might to avoid her grip.

When she couldn't manage to get out of her hold, she lowered her head and bit onto Nian Xiaomu's wrist.

"AHHH!!!"

Xing Li bit her hard as she was crazy.

By the time Nian Xiaomu returned to her senses, there was already a bloody bite mark on her wrist.

Diving forward, Yu Yuehan pinched Xing Li's chin and forced her to let go of her bite.

He quickly pulled Nian Xiaomu into his arms, and lowering his gaze, he stared at her face which had gone pale.

Nian Xiaomu met his worried gaze and said gloomily, "I'm fine. I was bitten because I was too agitated and lowered my guard."

The moment she had finished speaking, the nurse, having heard the screams, pushed open the door and entered the room.

When she saw that Xing Li had curled up into a ball on the bed looking terrified, she walked forward immediately and comforted her.

"Ms Xing is not in a good state right now, I am afraid that you guys might have to take your leave."

Yu Yuehan took Nian Xiaomu out of the ward after the nurse finished speaking.

He held onto her hand and got ready to take her to the doctor's.

Nian Xiaomu grabbed his arm immediately and said, "I was merely bitten, it's just a trivial matter..."

"I have never bitten you." Yu Yuehan suddenly shot a reply.

He gritted his teeth with displeasure as he stared at the bloody bite mark on her wrist with a darkened gaze.

"..."

Was he angry because Xing Li had bitten her before he could do so?

This man really has some desire for possession...

Before Nian Xiaomu could finish despising him in her heart, a huge hand patted her forehead and said, "Nian Xiaomu, put that despising gaze of yours away. My kind of heartache is unconventional okay, you ungrateful woman."

"..."

In the end, Nian Xiaomu was dragged away to bandage her wound.

In Yu Yuehan's words, it was a must to at least disinfect the wound since Xing Li wasn't in a great condition.

Mental illness is not contagious, but that is not the case for insanity. He had finally found himself a wife and he could not allow her to go astray before he even married her...

To prevent his mighty and cold impression from crumbling her heart, Nian Xiaomu was very quick and got the doctor to bandage her wound on her own accord before he could finish his words.

Just when he was asking the doctor if there was a need for the rabies vaccine, she pulled him, with some dragging and lifting, out of the hospital.

Nian Xiaomu turned around and stared at him with all seriousness the moment she got onto the car. “Yu Yuehan, are you hiding something from me?”

The man who was dragged out of the hospital extremely unwillingly had just sat in the car at this point.

He was leaning against the backseat lazily with his long legs stretched.

When he heard her voice, he cast her a sideways glance, raised his eyebrows, and said, “For example?”

Chapter 719: How Old Are You, Nian Xiaomu?

“Obsession with cleanliness.”

“Nitpicking.”

“Obsessive-compulsive disorder (OCD).”

Nian Xiaomu stretched her fingers and listed a few in one go. Just when she was about to continue listing more, she noticed that the atmosphere in the car had changed.

It felt a little chilly too.

Her hand and body had plastered themselves onto the car door and she was now holding onto the handle tightly.

She was prepared to escape by pushing open the car door and running away, just in case he wanted to punch her.

“Childish. How old are you, Nian Xiaomu?” As Yu Yuehan straightened his body calmly, he raised his head slightly and leaned against the side of the car seat.

His voice sounded hoarse and it seemed like he had caught a cold.

However, Nian Xiaomu knew that this was a prior indication of his evil tongue.

This man would usually disguise himself as a harmless person whenever he was about to unleash the brutal side of himself. As such, people would let down their guard, and then successfully land themselves in his clutches.

Afterward, he would crush you with a single blow while you weren’t paying attention!

Til there was nothing left of you.

As Nian Xiaomu stared vigilantly at his lazy appearance she said, “I am not childish at all. At least, I wouldn’t run to the doctor to ask if I needed a rabies vaccine after I was simply bitten by another human. Unless...”

Nian Xiaomu intentionally paused before adding, “Unless you were the one who had bitten me.”

“...”

“Hmm.”

Yu Yuehan did not explode in anger after she had spoken sarcastically to him, he just slowly cast a glance in her direction.

Lifting his head, he instructed the chauffeur to drive off, and dashed her hopes of escaping from the car.

Following which, he looked at her with his dark eyes and said, "Do you dare to repeat whatever you have said just now one more time?"

"...!!"

As Nian Xiaomu saw the passing cars on the road, she silently calculated her percentage of survival if she were to jump from the car.

She appeared calm but her emotions were in fact tempestuous on the inside when she came up with a negligible number.

In the end, she reached out gracefully and adjusted her hair under his provoking gaze.

"Did you say something to me just now? I didn't hear it."

"..."

"Forget it, don't worry if you can't remember. I am a little sleepy and I want to take a short nap. Don't wake me up until we are home!"

Before he knew it, Nian Xiaomu had shut her eyes and was fast asleep in a second.

She was originally pretending to be asleep, as she was afraid that she would be thrown from the car by a particular someone.

However, Nian Xiaomu really did fall asleep after the person beside her didn't speak for a long time.

Her long and regular breathing was as peaceful sounding as he looked at her beautiful face...

It seemed that she was dreaming of delicious food too, as a drop of saliva had circled around the corner of her mouth numerous times along with her breathing...

No, she was not childish.

She merely did not graduate from kindergarten.

As Yu Yuehan propped his head up with one hand, he tilted his body to the side and stared at her harmless, sleeping face that looked like a baby. Instantly, his dark and soulful eyes turned gentle.

After he instructed the chauffeur to drive at a slower speed, he sat his huge body beside her. As she nestled herself into his embrace to seek for warmth, he reached out with much satisfaction and massaged her head.

"Nian Xiaomu, only a childish person would sleep like a pig."

"..."

Nian Xiaomu was asleep and could not hear what he said. However, it was different for the chauffeur who was driving at the front.

When he saw his Young Master hugging onto Nian Xiaomu tightly and lovingly, just like how one would carry a child, he seemed to have witnessed a wonder of the world and kept on staring with bulging eyes

Young Master, being sarcastic to a sleeping person doesn't seem like something a mature man would do.

You are behaving in such a childish manner, are you betting on the fact that I would not tell Miss Nian about it?

Chapter 720: Was He Really... Not Here?

Yu Yuehan seemed to have detected the chauffeur's gaze as he lifted his eyes gradually and met his eyes in the rear mirror.

The chauffeur immediately shuddered all over and said, "Young Master, my eyesight is bad and I didn't see anything just now. Same for my ears, I am hard of hearing!"

It was only then that Yu Yuehan looked at him with satisfaction, he continued to lower his head and stared at the person nestled in his embrace.

Yeah, he didn't do anything in the first place, he merely cast a polite look at the chauffeur.

Warning? That wasn't even his style.

Nian Xiaomu had a deep sleep.

She even had a dream.

In the dream, she returned to the courtyard that she frequented when she was young.

There were many strawberries, and there was a swing there that she loved to sit on to do her drawings.

A good looking boy, that she had once seen, was on the drawing board...

She loved to sneak out to play too.

If her carer did not allow her to go out, she would climb over the walls.

The fences were extremely high, but that wasn't a problem to her—she was very skinny and she could squeeze through them.

She could do it until one time, when a man with an air of royalty, suddenly walked up to her as she was squeezing out of the fences. He called out, "Liuliu"; she was so shocked that she got stuck there...

She could not squeeze out of the fences no matter what.

Just when she wanted to get a closer look at the man, a fire started behind her.

It was a huge fire and it kept on burning.

When she turned around to shout for the members of the Xing Family to run away, she realized that the image behind her was no longer the courtyard that she was familiar with. There were only four parts of white walls instead...

Someone kept on shouting beside her as well: "Liuliu, hurry and run, run..."

"Ah!"

Nian Xiaomu was roused from her sleep by a cell ring tone suddenly sounding.

Alarmed, Nian Xiaomu turned around to look at her side, but realized that Yu Yuehan was no longer there.

Instead, the butler seemed to be standing guard at the door.

When he heard the movement in the room, he knocked on the door and only entered when he heard her permission to do so. "Miss Nian, Young Master has gone to the office. He instructed me to tell you not to head there in a hurry as you haven't had much rest over the last few days. He also said that he will help you with leaving the company."

"..."

Nian Xiaomu sat on the bed and gripped onto her blankets—her face had turned slightly pale.

Her entire mind was stuck in the dream and she remained zoned out.

As she took a look at the time, she realized that she didn't have any recollection of falling asleep after she got out of the car and headed to the room to tie up all the existing leads with Yu Yuehan.

She had not expected herself to sleep through till the next morning.

The dream earlier on...

It had been a long time since she had such a dream...

Soon after, she thought of something and jumped off the bed.

Nian Xiaomu changed into another set of clothes as quickly as possible, she grabbed her bag and called a cab to the airport.

The moment she walked into the departure hall, she saw numerous fans of Shangxin carrying fan boards as they huddled together in a crowd.

Shangxin, who looked awesome in any outfit she wore, was decked in casual attire. Sandwiched in the middle of all her fans, she was giving autographs and taking photos with them.

Her manager and bodyguards were dutifully controlling the crowd.

All of them had assumed that Shangxin was merely going for an overseas trip and would be back very soon.

All her fans were smiling excitedly and no one could read the sadness beneath her eyes.

Nian Xiaomu was the only one who knew that Shangxin had been hurt very badly, and that there was a high chance she might not return...

All of a sudden, Nian Xiaomu paused her steps, and scanned her surroundings in the bustling departure hall.

She was reluctant to accept the fact that she did not see Tang Yuansi, and looked around again.

Tang Yuansi must have heard the news that Shangxin was leaving the country.

Was he... really not here?
