Elsa's thoughts

I woke up when I heard my sister run inside I was so freaking happy that she was okay and of course I had to thank Jack... shit saying his name made me shiver... anyways a er that he gave us time to talk I told her eveything and honestly it kinda bothered me seeing her drool over jack.. she's amazing she has a nice personality and a nice body I can see her with him.... but still I feel jealous...for the first time jeez elsa... anyways a er that jack came and called her so they can talk I already know that he will tell her the rules so I was fine with it but then a bit tooooo much time passed and she didn't come back a lot of questions popped out like -- what if they're having sex? Is she pleasuring him? What if he likes her more? -- god this is driving me crazy...

few minutes later

Jack:*walks down stairs and sees elsa *princess? *walks to her sitting down*you okay?

Jack:*chuckles*okay I'm coming! *looks at you*you can try it you want stands up

Elsa:n-no Im okay runs in the bathroom instantly going in the shower

Elsa's thoughts

I've been avoiding Jack the whole day and when we got home I ran in my room closing the door well duh of course I was embarrassed, he was spanking me and I actually liked it but then he knocked and I had to let him in I told him I liked the spanking and that my ass hurt he suggested to rub in cream and I agreed he told me to get naked and I did... I waited for him to come and when he did I asked him if I can lay on his lap when he said yes my heart skipped a beat I just got turned on... I layed on his lap and raised my ass opening my legs I have to be honest I did that to tease him but when he started rubbing my ass with the cream my heart flipped I could feel my heartbeat in my pussy and it started itching... I don't know why, Im a virgin a er all so I sat up covering and I told him he asked me few questions and I answered them... now he knows I'm a virgin and just when he was about to touch me Ariel yelled apparently someone was calling him... I ran in the bathroom and got in the shower I tried touching myself but couldn't...All I could think of was his hands touching me...
