

The National Goddess Reborn

Chapter 10: To Have Stalked all the Way Here

The second-generation heirs of Class A were used to being lawless, but even this group did not have the guts to cause trouble in the PE teacher's class.

"Okay."

Nian Yue went into the washroom to change her clothes and came out. A girl rushed out from the washroom. "Hey, I heard that the school bully is playing basketball with the school hunk. Let's go and take a look!"

"Chen Yiran and Lin Nan?" A girl's eyes lit up.

"Right, no matter who wins, I'll get excited just watching the two of them play basketball!"

"That bastard Chen Yiran is challenging our class again!" Wang Zhizhi was furious when she heard their conversation. She pulled Nian Yue to the field. "Nian Yue, come with me!"

Without any explanation, Wang Zhizhi pulled Nian Yue straight to the field! As she looked at her wrist that was being held, a deep look flashed past her cold eyes.

When the two of them arrived at the field, it was already surrounded by a group of people. They stood outside and could see that the people in the field had already split into two groups.

A group of sports students in school uniforms stood at the front. It was Chen Yiran, the school hunk who always fared well with the girls.

On the other hand, Lin Nan was sitting on the stairs with a pair of ear studs on his left ear, eating gum. This sloppy appearance was most popular among girls.

Wang Le crossed his arms and glanced at Lin Nan. "The transfer student is here too."

Lin Nan followed the direction he pointed. As expected, he saw the girl in school uniform in the crowd.

Thinking about how Nian Yue had not even looked at him since she arrived, Lin Nan kept his phone and walked towards Nian Yue. "The transfer student who slept peacefully for two periods... is there anything you would like to thank me for?"

When the girls at the side saw Lin Nan walk towards Nian Yue, their eyes turned red with jealousy!

Although Lin Nan from Class A was not the most handsome boy in school, he was still the de facto leader in the entire school.

He usually didn't even bother to talk to girls. Why would he take the initiative to talk to Nian Yue?

"How can the new transfer student be so shameless! She even seduced Lin Nan!"

"I heard that she even went to the Li family's banquet yesterday to chase after Chen Yiran! In the end, she was kicked out of the event. Everyone in the upper-class society knows that!"

...

The girls around them were discussing non-stop.

When Lin Nan heard the discussion, he frowned. Just as he was about to speak, he heard the person opposite him shout, "Are the people from Class A still coming? Don't tell me they're scared even before we start?"

"I think you are the ones who are truly afraid!"

When Wang Le heard this, he nearly exploded in anger. "You bunch of little brats, I'll bash you until you cry for your parents!"

Everyone in No.1 Middle School knew that Class A and Class B did not get along.

Class B looked down on Class A's group of spoiled brats. Not only did they have good grades, everyone had their own areas of expertise.

Class A naturally looked down on the bunch of fools from Class B, who were simple-minded but brawny.

They depended on sports to pull them through their exams.

It wasn't easy for two classes to rush to the gym class together, so how could they be harmonious and loving classmates?

"Wait."

Lin Nan frowned and went straight to the stadium.

Wang Zhizhi pushed her glasses up her nose bridge and subconsciously heaved a sigh of relief. "Why are you so close to Lin Nan?"

Lin Nan and Wang Le had always hated girls. They were usually impatient when talking to girls.

Nian Yue had just arrived and had no relatives or friends here. Wang Zhizhi was really afraid that she would offend Lin Nan and that group of second-generation heirs.

"I don't know him." Nian Yue's thin lips parted. She was not interested in the basketball match between the two parties. She turned around and left.

"Hey, don't go..."

Wang Zhizhi subconsciously went to pull Nian Yue away, only to realize that she was already at the edge of the field.

It hadn't even been two seconds. How was she so fast? A hint of doubt flashed past Wang Zhizhi's eyes, but she focused more on the basketball court.

At this moment, the two groups of people on the basketball court were engaged in a fierce battle. Nian Yue wasn't too interested. She casually found a shady spot and took out her phone.

Cell phones in this era were not as developed as those in the post-apocalyptic era. There was only some simple operating software.

She logged into an app to invest in stocks and registered an account. She wanted to make some investments but realized that the Host didn't have any money.

That made sense. How could she have forgotten that this body came from the countryside and only had a few hundred dollars in total?

She reckoned that she would have issues paying for her meals next month.

Nian Yue narrowed her eyes at this thought.

Her priority was to earn some money first.

– On the other side of the field –

In the beginning, Lin Nan and Wang Le could still rely on their height advantage to snatch more points, even though they were always intercepted halfway.

In the second half of the game, Class A's students could not even snatch the ball. All of them fell into Class B's hands.

The students who had been clamoring to teach Class B a lesson at the start now had ugly expressions on their faces.

Finally, the last ball was snatched away by Class B and placed in the basket!

The match ended!

Class B crushed Class A with a score of 15 to 1!

The students of Class A were all dejected. They had thought that Lin Nan would be able to defeat Class B no matter what, but they were mistaken!

In terms of physical sports, they could not compare to the simple-minded and well-built students from Class B!

The bell rang and Nian Yue stood up. She put her phone in her pocket and flipped over the railing.

Her movements were neat and tidy. Coupled with her sky-blue school uniform, she looked somewhat dashing.

"Nian Yue!"

Nian Yue had just steadied herself when she heard an angry voice behind her.

Nian Yue turned around and happened to see a few boys in school uniforms walking over. The boy in the lead had a tough looking but handsome face.

Nian Yue frowned. Then, she remembered that it was Chen Yiran.

The person the Host was chasing after yesterday was the school hunk who was fighting with Lin Nan on the field today.

She did not care about them. Hence, when she saw a group of boys coming over, her eyes were still cold. "What's the matter?"

It was the end of class at this time. The students in the physical education class were preparing to return to the classroom in twos and threes. When they saw Nian Yue being surrounded by a group of people, some students stopped to watch the commotion.

Chen Yiran sized her up from head to toe. He could not hide the disgust in his eyes. "Wasn't it embarrassing enough to be thrown out of the banquet yesterday? You actually managed to get into No.1 Middle School?"

In Chen Yiran's eyes, he was the reason why she came to No. 1 Middle School.

After all, she had taken the risk of being bullied by Xiao Qingqing and her gang yesterday and even went to the Li family's banquet to look for him.

It was a given that she had gone to No.1 Middle School for him.
