

The National Goddess Reborn 313-318

Chapter 313: Top Secret Information, Enrollment

Jin Xuan looked at the phone that had turned to ashes and suddenly laughed.

“It’s fine. The quality of the phone isn’t good.”

He did not expect this man to be so vengeful. He has only taken a few more glances at Nian Yue.

The administrator looked at the pile of ashes on the ground with a complicated expression.

Which phone was this? It was too terrifying when it exploded.

Lin Nan, who had been eating at the banquet, finally found Wang Zhizhi in the corner.

Wang Zhizhi was holding her computer and typing something.

Her computer screen was very advanced and was filled with holographic projections.

At this moment, the screen was filled with codes that Lin Nan could not understand.

“Zhizhi, did you receive a new job?” Lin Nan asked curiously, still holding a piece of cake.

Although Wang Zhizhi was from the special forces, she specialized in technology.

Therefore, she did not train with them most of the time.

In addition, the special forces did not force everyone to have their own private lives because they joined the special forces.

Therefore, Wang Zhizhi would take on some private jobs to help her family.

“Mmm...”

Wang Zhizhi took out the lollipop from her mouth and glanced at him. “Yue Yue asked me to help hack into a system.”

“What system?”

Lin Nan was interested and looked at Wang Zhizhi typing on the keyboard excitedly.

“The hacker alliance’s S+ encrypted information...”

Almost as soon as Wang Zhizhi finished speaking, her fingers had already pressed the enter button.

A photo had already appeared on the holographic projection.

The photo showed a woman who looked to be in her twenties.

The woman looked very gentle and her eyes were as clear as a spring.

“What a beautiful lady...”

Wang Zhizhi couldn’t help but praise, “She looks like Yue Yue!”

“You mean Boss?”

When Lin Nan heard her words, he lowered his head and prepared to observe carefully.

However, the moment he lowered his head, the photo suddenly disappeared!

In an instant, the screen turned bright red!

Then, the computer sent out an alarm!

However, Wang Zhizhi was already used to this.

She ate her lollipop again and started typing on the keyboard.

“What a pity...”

Wang Zhizhi shook her head as she typed in the code. “Why did such top-secret information only appear for 30 seconds...”

Even so, Wang Zhizhi had already taken a screenshot and sent it to Nian Yue the moment the photo appeared.

Jiang Jincheng, who had been drinking in the corner, was holding a glass of red wine in his hand and looking over subconsciously.

Wang Zhizhi still had a pair of wide black-framed eyes on her face. She hugged her computer and looked small.

If not for the fact that she was a technician from the special forces, he would have thought that she was an ordinary young lady.

“Young Master Jiang, have you never seen such a young lady?”

His female companion saw that he was distracted and asked curiously.

Although it was a gala held at the Imperial University, there were still people coming in from outside.

Furthermore, a golden bachelor like Jiang Jincheng would attract a group of people wherever he went.

Jiang Jincheng finished the red wine in his glass and smiled. “I’m just curious because I’ve never seen it before.”

He did not dare to reach out to such an obedient girl.

After all, there was still Nian Yue behind her.

* *

The last farewell banquet at the Imperial University was specially for the special forces team.

The next day, the group of people had already embarked on their journey to the Federal University.

Federal University was located on the other side of the world, the furthest place from Country Z.

And every year, July was the month when Federal University accepted new students.

As a global university, Federal University was extremely strict in recruiting students.

Other than passing the necessary classes, one also needed an invitation from the Federal University.

Of course, he could not rest easy with an invitation. If he wanted to really enter the Federal University, she had to complete the entrance examination before entering.

Every year, there were all kinds of questions.

Inside the president's office, the few people in charge were discussing what kind of mission they had for the new students.

"In my opinion, we should just let them go against the mercenary group."

The person sitting on the left was called Zar. He was the vice-principal of the Federal University and also the deputy commander.

"No, no..."

The man sitting on the other side shook his head. "Although those who can catch the eye of the Federal University are all outstanding people from various countries, the mercenary group kills without batting an eyelid..."

He did not want these children to die halfway before they entered school.

"If this doesn't work, then why don't you think of a feasible method?"

Zar was discouraged.

After all, there was a special assessment every year before school started.

“I have one here...”

Mundi suggested, “We can let this group of children try the bounty issued by the country to catch the human trafficking organization.”

“No.”

Zar was the first to shake his head and refuse. “We won’t participate in the country’s family matters!”

It was just a small country, and no one from that country had ever been able to enter the Federal University.

Now, they actually wanted to deal with human trafficking organizations shoulder to shoulder. They must be dreaming!

“It’s not just about the country...” Zar frowned.” The human trafficking organization has been around for nearly twenty years. They haven’t surfaced before because they restrained themselves. Now that Espers from all countries have disappeared, this isn’t just about one country!”

Furthermore, from the information he had obtained, the human trafficking organization had been very arrogant recently.

Espers from all over the world disappeared one after another.

In the beginning, only people with simple superpowers disappeared. Now, some superpowers that had been activated were also missing.

If the human trafficking organization wanted so many superpowered people, they definitely had ill intentions.

If so many Espers were gathered to form an army, it would be a fatal blow to any country.

“So what?”

Zar did not think much of it. “Don’t tell me you want the new students to destroy the human trafficking organization? The International Alliance has already interfered with the matters here, but we still have no clue. Furthermore, this group of new students...”

“I think so.”

Ya Jia, who had been sitting at the head of the table, said.

He was the commander-in-chief this time. He stood up from his seat and looked around before continuing, “Among the new students I specially recruited this time, there is a special forces team...”

“Special forces?”

The few people below the stage looked at each other. “Is it that internationally famous special forces which completed almost every mission?”

Chapter 314: It’s Not Certain Who’s Playing Whom!

“Yes.”

At the mention of this, his eyes were filled with admiration. “It’s been a long time since we’ve recruited such an outstanding person.”

“Outstanding?”

As if he had heard a joke, Zar laughed. “I say, are you seeing things? I remember that the special forces team is from Country Z. How outstanding can they be?”

Furthermore, since the establishment of the Federal University, there had not been a single person from Country Z. Didn’t this mean that there were no outstanding talents in the country?

Perhaps this so-called special forces team was also supported by the country.

“Zar, you’re too biased against the country...”

When Ya Di heard him, he smiled. “How bad can someone who can be personally accepted by the president be?”

Everyone knew that although the president looked aloof from worldly affairs, he could see things clearer than anyone else.

A student who could receive a personal email from him was definitely not bad!

“Hmph!”

Zar was clearly not convinced. “In that case, let’s make a bet. Let’s see who wins.”

“Alright, you said it!”

Zar made the final decision. “Whoever loses will agree to one condition!”

“Okay!”

Ya Di agreed readily.

While the two of them were chatting, an assistant walked in from outside. "Teachers, almost all the students are here!"

"Okay."

Ya Di nodded, then took the remote control and turned on the big screen in the meeting room.

The screen showed the surveillance cameras at the entrance of Federal University.

At this moment, it could be seen on the surveillance camera that many people had already gathered at the entrance of the Federal University.

They were all new students who had come to register at the Federal University.

The most eye-catching thing was the few people sitting in the outermost circle. They were playing games on the ground.

The girl in the middle did not even raise her head from the start to the end. She had a lollipop in her mouth and was holding her phone with both hands, quickly swiping it around.

The other students were waiting nervously.

When some students saw these few people, they could not help but complain, “These few people are so casual. Could it be that they can’t find anyone in some country and came to find a few people to make up the numbers...”

“Not necessarily. Those who can come to the Federal University have all been investigated in advance by the teachers of the Federal University...” Another student shook his head and started analyzing.” It’s said that the Federal University has already started the assessment the moment we arrived at the entrance of the university. Could these students be teachers from the Federal University who are pretending to be sloppy...”

After he said that, the more the others looked at them, the more they felt that it was possible.

After all, all the surrounding students were very nervous. Which classmate would report to the Federal University as if it was their own home?

Just as they steadied themselves, they suddenly heard a strong voice in the air. “Good afternoon, everyone. Welcome to the Federal University.”

The group of students looked up at the same time and saw a black drone circling in the air.

The sound just now was coming from the drone.

“As everyone knows, all new students have an alternative exam before entering the Federal University. Only when you pass the exam can you officially enter the Federal University!”

There was a pause in the drone’s voice. On the other side of the surveillance camera, Zar had been paying attention to the situation of the new students at the door.

Most of the new students stood upright and listened attentively to the words coming from the drone.

Only the few people sitting under the tree did not even raise their heads.

Through the surveillance camera, he could not even see the girl’s face clearly.

Zar was a little angry and even raised his voice. “And your goal this time is to find the human trafficking organization and destroy it! One week! I will grade you according to your performance! Students who perform too badly, I’m sorry, you don’t even have the qualifications to enter the Federal University!”

Almost as soon as he finished speaking, a black jeep had already stopped at the school gate.

The car door opened and more than ten men in military uniforms alighted.

“Each of you will have a brocade bag! Inside are the information of all the human trafficking organizations and walkie-talkies! During the operation, all your actions will be recorded!”

Almost as soon as he finished speaking, the soldiers in military uniforms had already taken out their brocade bags.

All the students rushed to get the brocade bag.

However, when they opened the brocade bag, they were stunned!

“What does this mean? There’s only one piece of paper!”

The person who opened the brocade pouch first was filled with disbelief when he saw the contents.

There was only a piece of paper and a small walkie-talkie inside.

The contents of the paper were very simple. It introduced the time and location of the human trafficking organization.

There was nothing else.

“How can anyone achieve anything with so little information?”

“That’s right. Is Federal University joking this time! Are they playing with us?”

“It looks like Federal University is not going to accept new students this time!”

...

The students’ discussions lingered.

Lin Nan, who had just taken the brocade bag, wanted to curse when he saw what was on it. “Sister Yue, I think Federal University is playing with us...”

If they did not accept students, they could have said so in advance.

Why did they have to give each of them a brocade bag?

“That’s right...”

When the group of people saw the piece of paper Lin Nan was holding, their expressions turned uglier.

Before they came, they had heard that there was a new student test at the Federal University. However, they never expected that the school would give such a hellish test before they even stepped into the Federal University.

“Play?”

Nian Yue chuckled and slowly stood up from the ground.

She still had that cynical attitude. Because it was July, the weather was a little hot. She took off her jacket and tied it around her waist.

She was only wearing a white vest, revealing her clear abs.

She was wearing loose work pants.

She looked beautiful and cool.

“It’s not certain who’s playing whom.” Nian Yue sneered and glanced at the drone slowly.

“Have you guys forgotten that you just interacted with a human trafficking organization half a month ago?” Nian Yue raised her eyebrows.

“It will only take a few minutes to find them now.” Nian Yue asked Wang Zhizhi, “Have you found the trajectory map of the human trafficking organization?”

“I found it!”

Wang Zhizhi walked over with her computer. “The last time, that man called Qu Lang came to the International Alliance after leaving the country. I checked his information in the database and found out that he’s from the Qu family in the capital. However, he left the Qu family at the age of five and is now the boss of a shooting club...”

Chapter 315: Experience Life!

“No...”

After Wang Zhizhi finished speaking, she shook her head in denial. “These rich people are all using living people as targets...”

After Wang Zhizhi finished speaking, she pulled out a few photos.

The photos were all high-definition and were filled with blood. A few people were aiming their guns at the target.

The nearest target that the person had aimed at was already lying in a pool of blood.

The man's eyes widened as if he had died with grievances.

His pupils dilated in fear.

The rest of the photos were still the same. The people in in the photos died in all kinds of ways.

Some were shot in the head, while others had a few holes in their bodies and were bleeding profusely.

There were also people covered in blood, their faces filled with helplessness and fear.

Every photo looked creepy.

Even if they had been on missions for a long time and had seen all kinds of situations, they felt their blood run cold viewing these photos.

"This person is simply a demon!"

Wang Yang gritted his teeth in anger!

He had been in the underground boxing ring for the longest time and had suffered the humiliation and teasing of the rich.

However, he did not expect these demons to still exist on the other side of the ocean.

Nian Yue's face was expressionless.

When she was in the post-apocalyptic world, wars happened every day.

And those who died every day because of the war had all kinds of tragic situations.

As the highest-ranking commander, protecting the country was her most basic responsibility!

No matter where her citizens were, they should not be trampled on!

"Let's go to the club." Nian Yue lowered her cap, her expression unclear.

"How are we going to get there?"

Li Yi was in a dilemma. It was at least a day's drive from Federal University to the shooting club.

To them, they only had seven days to complete the mission.

"There's a helicopter."

Almost as soon as Nian Yue finished speaking, she saw a helicopter parked beside them.

The pilot got out of the car and strode up to Nian Yue. "Miss Nian, the helicopter you wanted has arrived."

"Thank you very much."

Nian Yue nodded and led the special forces into the helicopter.

The other new students from the Federal University who had yet to leave were stunned when they saw the helicopter.

"Am I seeing things? What kind of treatment is this? The new students actually have a private jet?"

“Those who can come to the Federal University are all outstanding people from every country. There’s no lack of nobles from some country.”

“But don’t you think this helicopter looks familiar? It looks like the latest Z15 developed by the country...”

“Z15? That’s the helicopter used in the country’s military, right? Now, they’re actually here to pick up a few students. Who are those people?”

...

Just as the new students of the Federal University were discussing fervently, a sharp female voice suddenly interrupted.

The girl who spoke was wearing a black training uniform and a black cap. She looked high-spirited.

“Maybe it’s some rich lady coming here to experience life.”

Li Xiangru sneered with disdain.

As the daughter of the Li family, she had seen all kinds of things over the years.

“I see...”

When the student heard her words, he felt that it was possible.

After all, money made the world go round. If a wealthy family wanted to buy a helicopter for their children to play with, it would make sense.

“Miss...”

The other students had already left in a scattered manner, but at this moment, someone walked over respectfully to Li Xiangru. “This is the mission list this time. I’m still getting someone to investigate the base of the human trafficking organization...”

“I know.”

Li Xiangru was expressionless. “How’s the research on the potion going?”

“The drug you want to treat cancer has already been bought at a high price. The ingredients have also been analyzed. I believe it won’t be long before a new drug is developed.”

The bodyguard said respectfully.

“Back to the Li family.”

Li Xiangru instructed coldly. The bodyguards had already sent a car over.

Li Xiangru got into the car, the figure in her mind still lingering.

“Help me find out the identity of the person who got into the helicopter was.”

Her instincts told her that that person was not as simple as she thought.

The car drove on the smooth road for about twenty minutes before reaching the Li family manor.

The Li family’s house was very big, covering thousands of square meters. The trees on both sides of the road were lush and filled with all kinds of expensive plants.

When the car stopped at the entrance of the villa, Li Xiangru got out of the car and walked in quickly.

In the villa, there was only an old lady with white hair reading the newspaper on the sofa with a pair of reading glasses.

“Grandma, how many times have I told you not to use your eyes for too long?”

Li Xiangru walked over and took the newspaper from her hand. Her tone sounded a little coquettish.

When Old Madam Li saw that it was her, she immediately laughed. “I was wondering who was so bold. It’s you!”

“Other than me, the other servants don’t dare to stop you.”

Li Xiangru sat beside her and continued, “Where’s my uncle and the others? Why are you the only one at home today?”

“You know how busy they are at work.”

Old Madam Li shook her head. “By the way, weren’t you invited by Federal University to take the assessment? How was the assessment?”

“Not bad. It’s not difficult.”

Li Xiangru clearly did not take this assessment seriously.

She was the eldest daughter of the Li family. As long as she gave the order, someone would do anything for her.

It was just a human trafficking organization. She could buy it with money.

“You!”

Old Madam Li shook her head helplessly, but the affection in her eyes could not lie. “She’s a girl. It’s one thing if she doesn’t like to sing and dance! Why does she have to like people who dance with knives and guns!”

“Grandma, I want to enter Federal University to investigate my mother’s whereabouts.”

Li Xiangru seemed a little disappointed when she mentioned this. After all, Federal University had the most complete database in the world.

What could not be found in the outside world could be found in Federal University with a 99% chance.

“You...”

Old Madam Li seemed a little helpless. "You're as stubborn as your mother. When I brought you back from the countryside, I knew that you were extraordinary..."

"That's because you're outstanding!"

Li Xiangru smiled and said. Then, she stood up and went to the kitchen to bring over the Chinese medicine that had been brewed long ago. "Grandma, this is the Chinese medicine that I have improved on. Try it..."

Chapter 316: Entering the Shooting Club

Old Madam Li was also a strong woman. Because she worked too hard when she was young and used her eyes too much, her eyes were always sick. Now, it was so serious that she was about to lose her sight. The glasses on her nose bridge were specially designed for her.

"I'm already half-dead..." Old Madam Li sighed helplessly, but still took the medicine and drank it in one gulp.

The Li family had plenty of money. If she had a choice, she did not want to lose her light for the next few decades.

"Grandma, don't say that."

Li Xiangru advised her, "I'm still studying medicine for your eyes. I believe that your eyes will recover soon."

“You...”

Old Madam Li looked helpless, but she was actually happier than anyone else. Li Xiangru had diligently studied the medicine to treat her eyes, which meant that she had not doted on her granddaughter for nothing.

“Grandma, let me help you to rest. Only by resting immediately after drinking this medicine can it maximize its value.”

Li Xiangru was very sweet. In just a few words, she had made Old Madam Li happy.

“Alright, I’ll listen to you.”

Old Madam Li was helped to rest.

When Li Xiangru returned to her room, she had already made a call to Manxi. “Manxi, give me Xiuyuan’s physical statistics during this period of time.”

Manxi was Fu Xiuyuan’s personal doctor and had all his physical statistics.

“Miss Li, you know that other than Xiuyuan, no one else can take his physical data.”

Manxi rejected her bluntly.

“Manxi, we haven’t seen each other for only a few days. Why are you talking to me so officiously...”

Li Xiangru smiled sweetly. “I saw a bracelet when I was shopping a few days ago and thought it suited you very well, so I bought it for you. You should receive the package later...”

“Xiangru...”

Manxi seemed a little helpless. “You know that Xiuyuan’s physical data has always been kept secret.”

She had signed a confidentiality agreement. If she broke the contract, she would never be able to afford it.

“Of course I know.”

Li Xiangru looked very easy to talk to. “I definitely can’t make things difficult for you. But as you know, I’m at the Federal University, so he will definitely come over. His physical fitness has never been good, so I want to specially research some potions for him...”

“I think I should ask Xiuyuan about this.”

Manxi kept her mouth shut.

Li Xiangru saw that she could not get the information she wanted from her and hung up.

Manxi sighed helplessly when she saw that the call was suddenly cut off.

The eldest daughter of the Li family...

She did not want to follow Teacher Su’s path.

* *

Li Xiangru hung up angrily, her expression still a little ugly.

If not for the fact that Manxi had Fu Xiuyuan’s physical statistics, how could she have deigned herself to ask such a lowly doctor for a favor?

At this moment, the bodyguard knocked on the door and entered. "Miss, I've found the information you wanted."

Li Xiangru took the information and glanced at it.

When she saw the contents, the disdain in her heart intensified.

She had thought that the person she was investigating was the eldest daughter of some wealthy family, but she did not expect her to be the eldest daughter of the Nian Family in Jiang City.

Jiang City was a small second-tier city that could not even be called by its name.

Was the daughter of an upstart so arrogant these days?

At the thought of this, Li Xiangru no longer had the mood to continue watching. "Let's go to the human trafficking organization's destination! At the same time, hurry up with the herbs I asked you to find."

* *

At the entrance of a huge bar, a few delinquents had just gotten out of their sports cars.

The girl in the lead looked to be around 18 or 19 years old. Her hair was tied into a high ponytail and she was waving her sports car keys in her hand. She looked sloppy.

The few people following behind her also looked like hooligans, especially the boys. Their tattoos were almost all over their bodies.

Their hair was dyed in various colors.

And this group of people was the special forces.

The person in the lead was Nian Yue. She was still chewing gum and looked sloppy. However, there were at least seven digits to the price tags of the clothes on her body.

Nian Yue walked in first and took out a black card before throwing it on the table. "I heard that you have a special game here. I want to play it."

The waiter at the bar had been working for a long time.

Almost as soon as the group of people reached the door, he started sizing them up quickly.

She was dressed in branded clothes and walked arrogantly. She was probably a child from a rich family.

With some money, she could do whatever she wanted. He felt no threat from such a brat.

At the thought of this, the waiter's face was immediately filled with smiles. "What do you want to play? Can you shoot? If not, we have a professional teacher who can teach you!"

"Cut the crap and bring me in."

The girl in the lead did not even bother to look at him. She glanced at him with undisguised disdain.

"Alright, I'll bring you in now!"

The waiter was even more certain of what he was thinking and hurriedly brought a few people in.

The waiter brought a few people to the shooting range.

Everyone was given a gun.

Nian Yue took the gun and weighed it in her hand.

However, because the gun was too heavy, she almost fell.

When the others who were practicing shooting saw her actions, they all laughed.

“I didn’t expect you to be so weak!”

“Hahaha! I’m dying of laughter! If you can’t even hold a gun steadily, how can you shoot!”

“With her small body, forget about shooting. In my opinion, she should learn how to hold a gun first!”

...

Nian Yue glanced at the few of them expressionlessly before taking out her gun again and aiming at the bullseye.

Then, with a bang, it hit the bullseye!

Bang! Bang! Bang!

The next few shots were all aimed at the bullseye!

The group of people who had been mocking her immediately stopped laughing.

However, this made others even more certain that Nian Yue was just the daughter of a nouveau riche.

She had probably been unable to carry a gun since she was young. But she could hit the bullseye only because she had learned some techniques. After all, this was not a difficult thing to master.

“It’s just a simple hit on the bullseye. I just said that I want to play something exciting...” Nian Yue glanced at the waiter coldly.

The waiter shivered under her gaze and hurriedly smiled. “But this money...”

“Our boss doesn’t lack money!”

Lin Nan threw him a black card. “This is your tip.”

Chapter 317: Tycoon

That black card could be used all over the world.

Usually, even the richest second-generation heir might not be able to get his hands on one.

In the end, this rich lady actually treated it as a tip!

The group of people at the side were dumbfounded!

This was a global black card!

They might not be able to get it no matter what!

Rich, she was really too rich!

It was inhumane!

When the waiter saw the black card, he was so excited that his legs went weak. "Okay, okay. Follow me."

This was a black card, a black card that he would never dare to think about in his life!

The few of them had already followed the waiter in.

The shooting range was huge. The group of people walked for a few minutes but did not come out.

The girl in the lead was sloppy and was still chewing gum. She seemed to be tired after taking a few steps. Instead, she leaned against the wall and picked up her phone.

The waiter did not dare to rush her. After all, this was someone who could even take out a black card to tip. Her family must be rich!

If he offended her, he might not even know how he died!

“I say, how can you treat guests like us like this!”

“That’s right! Do you look down on me?”

Lin Nan spoke rudely from the side, his voice filled with disdain.

Li Yi and Wang Yang chimed in.

They could not do anything else, but they were better at cheering than anyone else.

Furthermore, they were all better at acting as second-generation heirs.

“I’m sorry, everyone. I really didn’t think it through!”

The waiter’s face turned red from their words and he hurriedly went to prepare the car.

The moment he left, Nian Yue had already raised her hand slightly. At the same time, the camera in the corner that was still spinning suddenly lost its signal.

The girl who had been sloppy finally became serious.

“You have to familiarize yourself with the surroundings.” Nian Yue lowered her voice and her aura became inexplicably strong.

It was suffocating.

“Don’t worry, Boss.”

The few of them had already quickly familiarized themselves with the terrain.

They were not here to play today.

Their ultimate goal was to eliminate the human trafficking organization.

* *

At the end of the club was a huge villa, surrounded by barbed wire. It was obvious that there was an important person inside.

On the top floor of the villa, Qu Lang, who was dressed in luxurious clothes, was lying on a recliner. The big screen in front of him was filled with surveillance cameras.

There were actually hundreds of them.

Suddenly, the surveillance camera in the lower right corner of the big screen went black.

Qu Lang's eyebrows twitched and surprise flashed across his eyes.

"Is someone here to cause trouble again?"

After all, they were in the club. Over the years, there were always people who were blind.

“Young Master, the voltage is unstable,” the butler following behind him said respectfully.

“But why do I smell something different?”

Qu Lang chuckled. “I remember that the entrance examination this time is to find a human trafficking organization.”

As the head of the club, nothing could be hidden from him.

Furthermore, if the Federal University did not make a big deal out of it and secretly told the new students the mission, it would be boring.

Only when the exam was filled with difficulties and obstacles could one prove one’s ability, right?

Qu Lang laughed impudently. “Let’s go down and take a look.”

He wanted to see who had the guts to cause trouble in his territory!

“Qu Lang, why are you so impatient compared to before?”

The sound of military boots came from the door.

Tap, tap, tap. Every step was extremely rhythmic, as if it was stepping on one’s heart.

The person was wearing a black combat uniform. His hair was a rare golden color, but his sky-blue eyes had turned dark brown.

“What a rare guest!”

Qu Lang suddenly clapped his hands and sat down again. He stretched out his hand and made an inviting gesture. “The famous mercenary group leader has come. I’m truly honored!”

“Put away your boring bureaucratic pleasantries.”

Mo Yi sneered. The two of them were old friends. Who didn’t know the twists and turns in each other’s hearts?

Mo Yi sat opposite Qu Lang and leaned casually on the leather sofa.

“How boring. Why don’t you like our pleasantries? We’re clearly on the same side.”

Qu Lang smacked his lips. “However, I remember that the regiment commander is busy every day. Did you come to me today to relax?”

“Of course...”

Mo Yi lengthened her tone and then sneered. Even her voice sounded playful. “No. I just found something fun and came to laugh at it.”

He and Qu Lang had a plastic friendship to begin with and could see the joke clearly.

As soon as Mo Yi finished speaking, his eyes had already glanced at the surveillance camera on the big screen.

* *

The waiter was very fast and had already driven a few cars over.

The few of them got into the car like second-generation heirs and crossed their legs, looking very satisfied.

With the car, they were much faster this time.

In just three minutes, they had arrived at their destination.

“Dear customers, the guns in your hands are real guns. When you’re playing games, remember to protect yourself. After all, if anything happens here, we won’t bear any responsibility.”

Before the waiter left, he slowly reminded them.

The gate opened. What greeted their eyes was the huge forest and the sound of gunshots.

There was also the strong smell of blood.

Someone drove over in a car. Everyone had a gun in their hand. When they saw their unfamiliar faces, they kindly came over to explain, “Yo, new faces? There’s actually a young lady...”

After all, in the shooting club, it could really stimulate one’s beastly desire.

Therefore, most of the people who came were men.

“Why? Do you look down on me?”

Nian Yue sneered lightly, her tone wild and arrogant.

She even looked a little irritable.

“Then how did...”

The person hurriedly waved his hand. “Hey, you guys don’t know yet, right? Almost all the prey that entered the door have been killed by us. It will only be exciting if we enter. Are you interested in taking a look?”

“Of course.”

Nian Yue snapped her fingers and a car followed behind.

“Please bring us there.”

That person saw the luxury car she had brought and the branded clothes she was wearing.

He could not help but smack his lips.

He wondered which rich family's daughter was so rich!

And that person did as he said. In a short while, he brought a few people to the innermost area.

There were still a few people wiping their guns and the blood around them had been wiped clean.

"Come, let me introduce you to everyone. This little girl just arrived today. She wants to compete with us. Who will hit the most prey?"

That person glanced at Nian Yue maliciously.

Chapter 318: Bullet Collision, Headshot!

A silly and rich young lady like Nian Yue was the easiest to fool in the shooting club!

He had already heard that she had thrown a black card at the waiter the moment she arrived at the shooting club!

She was simply a fool!

“Sure!”

Nian Yue agreed readily. “Tell me, what are we competing in?”

Her voice was wild and arrogant. At this point, one had to believe that the girl in front of them was the daughter of a rich family who had come to have fun!

At the thought of this, the man pointed at the innermost part of the forest.

“Do you see that? It’s filled with prey. We’ll see who hits the most prey within half an hour!” That person suggested!

They were all weak little girls. After they were killed by him, wouldn’t they be able to play with them however they wanted?

“What if I win?” Nian Yue continued to raise her eyebrows and ask.

“What if you win?”

As if he had heard a joke, the person said, "If you win, I'll give you my family! If I win, give me all your black cards!"

He did not believe that Nian Yue only had that black card!

Nian Yue probably had a lot of black cards in her pocket!

Silly girls from rich families like Nian Yue were the easiest to fool!

"Deal!"

Nian Yue agreed readily.

She was still holding a gun and looked like she had nothing to do.

"You guys have to be witnesses!" the person said to his companions.

"Of course!"

The others hurriedly nodded. They were all here to have fun. If there was something entertaining, why wouldn't they enjoy it?

Seeing how readily Nian Yue agreed, that person could not wait to take his gun and chase after his prey.

And Nian Yue seemed to be a little uninterested. She simply found a tree and lay on it.

The tree was very tall. Standing on it, one could almost see the entire forest.

As for Lin Nan and the others, they had already entered the forest silently while she was betting with a group of people.

Seeing that Nian Yue had actually fallen asleep on the tree, the others laughed out loud!

"Oh my god! This young lady actually climbed onto a tree to sleep!"

"Could it be that she doesn't dare to kill?"

"Hahaha! Maybe she just doesn't dare to kill! I think she's holding a gun in her hand and hasn't moved!"

“I knew it. How could such a delicate girl dare to come to the shooting club!”

...

The few of them discussed louder and louder, not having the slightest awareness of badmouthing her.

“There’s no one here anyway. Why don’t we...”

The few old foxes looked at each other and had crooked thoughts.

At the thought of this, the leader picked up his pistol and aimed it at Nian Yue.

He did not want Nian Yue’s life. As long as she was injured, wouldn’t he be the one to decide what happened next?

At the thought of this, the person narrowed his eyes and pulled the trigger!

“Bang!”

“Bang!”

Two gunshots rang out in succession.

Blood was already flowing out of that person's head!

He had been shot in the head!

Then, he fell straight down!

His eyes widened in disbelief. He probably did not know about how he died in the end!

The aloof girl then lightly jumped down from the tree.

In her eyes, the uncle who seemed to be more than 2 meters tall did not seem to exist.

She had a small silver pistol in her hand and one hand in her pocket. Her eyes were extremely cold.

"Oh, the first one..." Nian Yue chuckled and looked at the others." Who will be the second? "

“Is there something wrong with your brain! I told you to hunt, who asked you to hit us! Hurry up and call 120!”

That person’s companion was so angry that he almost jumped up!

“In my eyes, you’re my prey!” Nian Yue sneered!

Then, she aimed at the second person!

People like these who treated living people as prey deserved to die!

“Alright! Do you have to come and find trouble! Then let’s see who wins!”

That person was so angry that his face turned pale. He raised his pistol and aimed it at Nian Yue!

His companions also aimed at Nian Yue.

Those who could come to the shooting club were all capable.

Someone even called Qu Lang.

However, just as the phone was placed in front of his ear, she saw Nian Yue raise her hand slightly. The phone beside his ear suddenly exploded!

“Then, one by one.”

Nian Yue sneered and pulled the trigger.

The others were not to be trifled with either. They aimed at Nian Yue!

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Gunshots rang out!

However, the aloof girl seemed to be able to predict where the bullets would hit every time and could easily dodge them!

“Damn it!”

Some people were so angry that they even took out another pistol!

Two pistols were aimed at Nian Yue at the same time!

Unless she had extraordinary abilities, she had to die here today!

Bang! The bullet was already out of the sheath!

It was aimed at Nian Yue's glabella!

"You overestimate yourself."

Nian Yue sneered and raised her hand slightly. The bullet was actually grabbed in her palm!

"What? She caught the bullet with her bare hands!"

Ordinary people might not even be able to see the direction of the bullet, but she could actually catch it lightly!

"I'll return it to you next."

Nian Yue raised her hand slightly. It looked like she did not use much force.

The bullet pierced into that person's heart!

It was fair!

The others were dumbfounded. No matter how stupid they were, they knew that they could not afford to offend Nian Yue. They ran!

The aloof girl was still slow and expressionless but her pistol was aimed at a few people.

With a few gunshots, the few people who had run just now all fell to the ground.

"Ten."

Nian Yue sneered.

Then, her figure moved slightly and she was already ten meters away.

And on the other side, the person who had made the bet with Nian Yue had just aimed at a prey.

It was a sickly young lady who looked to be in her teens.

Her clothes were tattered and she was skinny. She looked like she had not eaten for a few days.

Her calf had already been shot. Her leg was bright red, but because it had not been treated for too long, her wound was already suppurating.

There was a fly on it.

“Oh, such a young girl is more interesting!”

That person’s finger moved slightly and pulled the trigger!

The little girl seemed to have noticed his presence and ran! However, her leg was already injured, so how fast could she run! And that bullet was shooting straight at her!

“Bang!”

In the blink of an eye, another bullet had already raced over at an extremely fast speed and the two bullets collided!
