

The National Goddess Reborn38-43

Chapter 38: Dragon begets Dragon, Phoenix begets Phoenix

– Inside the principal’s office –

Mr. Li pointed at the surveillance camera and trembled in anger. “Principal, are you going to take care of this student or not? She threw a chair at someone’s face in public. She’s going to beat the person to death! This kind of student is so young but already so vicious. If someone really dies, we can’t bear the responsibility!”

The news of Nian Yue smashing someone with a stool had already spread throughout the entire school. When Teacher Li heard about this, he immediately pulled out the surveillance camera.

When he saw the contents, he nearly fainted from anger!

If this method of beating someone to death was really spread to the parents, their No.1 Middle School would be forced to close soon!

Although No.1 Middle School was the best high school in Jiang City, it was actually the incubation base for the rich kids in Jiang City.

Other than those with good results, most of them did not lack money!

Nian Yue’s actions would anger the parents and the principal would be the first to be unable to bear the consequences!

Principal Wang’s expression was a little ugly. He did not expect Nian Yue to be such a thorn. She had only been here for a week, but she could already beat someone up so ruthlessly.

He could not help but wonder if he had made the right decision to let Nian Yue enter Class A.

“Principal, we can’t take such students anymore...” Mr. Li continued to fan the flames.

Back then, when Nian Yue entered No.1 Middle School, he did not think highly of her. Who would dare to accept a country hooligan who only scored 200 marks in the middle school examination?

However, Principal Wang even arranged for her to be in Class A. She even made it to the top 100 this year.

And this was without writing an essay.

Knock, knock, knock...

There was a knock at the door. Headmaster Wang had a headache, but he still said, “Please come in.”

The person who came in was a middle-aged man in a suit. He looked to be in his forties. He rushed in front of Principal Wang aggressively. “Principal Wang, where is the student who hit my daughter?!”

This person was Cheng An Ran’s father. When he found out that Cheng An Ran had been beaten up, he immediately rushed over to settle the score.

– Class A –

Nian Yue was flipping through a math textbook with nothing to do. There was even an earpiece in her ear which was reporting the latest international news.

The classroom door was pushed open from the outside. Someone shouted inside while panting, “Nian Yue, the principal wants you to go to the office!”

The noisy classroom instantly quietened down. Everyone simultaneously looked in Nian Yue's direction.

Everyone had heard about Nian Yue swinging a stool at Cheng An Ran in the canteen this afternoon.

It was likely that the people of the Cheng Clan had come knocking on her door. It was said that the Cheng Family had always been gangsters, and it was only after all these years that they had managed to make their business legitimate.

Nian Yue had offended the Cheng family, and it would not end well for her in the future.

Furthermore, Nian Yue was the one who was abandoned by the Nian Family. Nian Chaoyu would not fall out with the Cheng Family because of her.

When they thought of this, everyone looked at Nian Yue with sympathy.

"Yue Yue..."

Wang Zhizhi's face was full of worry. The Cheng Family was famous for being unreasonable and Nian Yue might not be able to get past this.

"It's fine." Nian Yue got up slowly and rolled up the sleeves of her school uniform before heading straight to the principal's office.

Lin Nan only found out about this when he returned. The first thing he did was to call the Lin family. "Grandfather, the person who won the race the other time was Nian Yue..."

*

When Nian Yue entered the principal's office, there were already people who had heard the news surrounding her.

Father Cheng was furious when he saw her. He walked over quickly and raised his hand to slap her. "Are you the one who hit my daughter?!"

The Cheng family was used to being tyrannical in Jiang City. He never expected that the daughter he doted on would be beaten up so badly in school!

Unsurprisingly, his hand was blocked in midair. Nian Yue's lips curled up slightly and there was a hint of coldness in her eyes. "Yes, I hit her."

It was no surprise that she admitted. Father Cheng was furious, but he could not do anything to Nian Yue.

"Principal Wang, is this the type of students your school nurtures? It's bad enough that you're so young and ignorant, but now that you've beaten someone up, you're still so arrogant! Expel! Hurry up and expel..." Father Cheng stomped his feet in anger, not daring to point at Nian Yue's nose anymore.

The aura she exuded was too strong and he was subconsciously afraid of her.

"Mr. Cheng, don't worry." Principal Wang comforted him. "I've already seen what happened in the surveillance camera. Cheng Anran was indeed at fault..."

"No matter how wrong my An Ran is, she didn't beat anyone up! This girl had beaten her up!" Father Cheng was so angry that he stomped his feet. "She's still in school and she's already so arrogant. What will happen when she goes out into society! This kind of scum will only ruin the reputation of No.1 Middle School."

"Mr. Cheng, what do you think we should do about this?" Principal Wang asked.

"Expel her. If you kneel down and apologize to my daughter, I can let bygones be bygones," Father Cheng said solemnly.

“That’s right, Principal. It’s one thing for a student like Nian Yue to be uneducated and incompetent, but now she even publicly beat someone up. Such a student will only tarnish the reputation of No.1 Middle School. Tell her to get lost quickly...” Teacher Li also chimed in from the side.

He had not been optimistic about Nian Yue’s chances ever since she came over.

She never listened to lessons in class. So what if she scored full marks for everything except Chinese? No.1 Middle School did not lack geniuses.

Besides, how could an idiot who scored only 200 marks in the middle school examination get more than 600 marks in the mock exam?

Who knows where those results came from?!

“Nian Yue, what do you think?” Principal Wang touched his forehead and asked Nian Yue.

He really liked this student from the bottom of his heart. Not to mention how she solved the math questions last time, her answers were already unique in this exam.

There were many rich kids and geniuses in No.1 Middle School. However, she was the only one who hid her talent for 18 years.

“I was the one who beat her up.” Nian Yue raised her eyebrows. She wore her school uniform loosely and leaned against the door indifferently. “It’s said that dragons give birth to dragons and phoenixes give birth to phoenixes. The son of a rat only knows how to dig holes...”

This sentence clearly suggested that Father Cheng was vulgar, and Cheng Anran was not any better.

“You...”

Father Cheng was rendered speechless by her words. However, the cold girl continued to lean against the door casually without any fear.

“Alright, I will handle this matter.” Principal Wang waved his hand. “Nian Yue, go back first.”

Nian Yue slowly walked out the door. When the other students saw her coming out unscathed, their eyes widened in shock.

They knew how shameless Father Cheng was and were stunned to see Nian Yue coming out as though nothing had happened.

Nian Yue had no time to care about what these people were thinking. She walked back to the classroom.

Chapter 39: A Car Without a Plate

The afternoon class passed peacefully. Nian Yue leaned against the wall and played a few games before she felt bored. Duan Yu saw that she finally looked up and smiled helplessly.

To be honest, she thought highly of this student.

Although she was a little lazy, her character and grades were respectable.

When school was finally over, Nian Yue slowly carried her bag out of the classroom. Lin Nan had something on today so she did not send her home. She went back by herself.

The sky was painted red by the setting sun. It shone on her, making the shadows thin and long.

The sky blue school uniform was tied around her waist, and she was only wearing a white shirt.

Her sleeves were slightly rolled up, revealing her slender and fair wrist. That wrist was so white that it was glowing.

There was a black car parked in front of the gate. She didn't know how long it had been there, but it didn't have any plates.

The car door opened and a man dressed in black alighted from the car. His handsome face had a look of indifference, but his eyes seemed to waver when he saw who it was.

Nian Yue walked over with her bag. "What's the matter?"

This was not her first time meeting this man and she did not believe that it was a coincidence that they had met so many times.

Not to mention, her sharp anti-reconnaissance abilities told her that this man's gaze had never left her since she appeared.

He stretched out his hand. In his fair palm lay a pale green jade.

It was the size of an egg and was glowing.

"Yours?" Fu Xiuyuan raised his brows slightly, a smile finally appearing on his devilish face.

"No." Nian Yue's thin lips parted slightly. Since the item had already been sold, it was naturally not hers.

"A week ago, in the Green Forest of Black Mountain..." Fu Xiuyuan said lightly, his long fingers holding onto his phone. There was a photo inside, the moment she passed through the trees.

"Heh..."

As if she had thought of something, the corners of Nian Yue's lips curled up slightly as she chuckled. Her voice was mixed with disdain and coldness. "What do you want to ask?"

"Hold out your hand."

Fu Xiuyuan spoke calmly and Nian Yue was a little impatient. This man was too dangerous and she did not want to interact with him.

Seeing that the man was frowning, Nian Yue reached out her hand. Her fingers were as white as jade and under the light of the setting sun, they shone with a golden glow.

Suddenly, her wrist felt cold, and a silver bracelet was already on it.

The bracelet was as thick as her pinky, making her wrist look slender and fair.

Nian Yue reached out and touched the bottom of the bracelet. There was a small mechanism. She pressed it and the bracelet opened. Nian Yue observed the structure and quickly assembled it into a small pistol.

"Thank you." Nian Yue curled her lips. A pistol was considered prohibited here. Although she had access to it, she could not carry it with her.

This pistol could solve all her problems.

Fu Xiuyuan did not say anything else, but when his eyes glanced at her cold profile, his mood improved a little.

"I'll take you home," Fu Xiuyuan said and got into the car before she could reply.

Nian Yue slowly sat in the front passenger seat and told him her address.

She had a cold personality and was not a talkative person. Once she got into the car, she crossed her arms and stared blankly out of the car.

Fu Xiuyuan caught a glimpse of her jade-white side profile through the rearview mirror, and his deep eyes finally wavered.

The black car left. In a black Maybach outside the school gate, Lin Nan was sitting in the back seat. Sitting with him was an old man with a head full of silver hair. He was holding a walking stick in his hand, but his cloudy eyes were terrifyingly clear.

“That’s a car that doesn’ have a license plate.”

Old Master Lin spoke quietly, his gaze following the black car as it disappeared around the corner.

Jiang City had its own management system and everything had its own rules.

It was the first time he had seen someone who could stand above all the rules and drive a car without a tag.

“Nan, do you know him?” Elder Lin asked.

Lin Nan looked surprised as well. Then, as if he had thought of something, she said, “I saw him once before at the bookstore.”

The man who had a gun in his hand and worked seamlessly with Nian Yue to kill the man in black.

“Is that girl really the Nian Family’s Second Mistress?” Elder Lin continued to ask.

“Yes. Her name is Nian Yue.”

He had feared that Nian Yue would be in trouble, so he specially called Elder Lin over. Principal Wang was indebted to Elder Lin so he would definitely do him a favor.

However, he was a step too late. Nian Yue had already settled this matter herself.

“You’re very lucky,” Elder Lin said. “If you build a good relationship with her, you won’t lose out.”

“I know, Grandpa.” Lin Nan nodded.

“It’s rare to see you so obedient.” Elder Lin smiled.

Lin Nan was the most troublesome one among the younger generation of the Lin family.

He often caused trouble in fights. There were a few times when he almost entered the juvenile detention center, but this time, he was unexpectedly so obedient.

“That’s because I trust her.”

*

At night, Nian Yue came out of the shower. She switched on her computer and sat on the chair casually. The computer screen emitted a faint blue light.

Her slender and fair fingers moved the mouse and there was only a long string of codes on the computer screen.

She pressed her finger against the mouse’s slide and slid it downward. Three minutes later, she pressed the Enter key. Several clippings had appeared on the computer screen.

The silhouette was blurry.

But judging from her figure, her sloppy attitude and the way she stuffed one hand into her pocket, who else could it be but Nian Yue herself?

Nian Yue curled her lips and a cold glint flashed past her cold eyes.

No wonder she felt like she was being watched these few days. It turned out that she was really being watched.

Her fingers flew quickly across the keyboard.

Three minutes later, the computer screen returned to the blue window interface. Nian Yue smiled. She closed the computer and lay on the bed to sleep.

At the same time

– In a laboratory thousands of kilometers away –

With a click, the previously brightly lit laboratory fell into darkness. All the computers were dead.

“What’s going on? The power went out. Where’s the emergency system?!” The man in a military uniform became solemn.

This was a place that was heavily protected, and no mistakes were allowed.

Why did the most basic mistake of a computer blackout occur?!

“General Wen, it’s not a power outage. The technicians have detected that someone has hacked into the base’s system, causing the power outage...” a technician reported.

“Hurry up and fix it!” General Wen’s face darkened.

Everything in the base had been encrypted in 64 places. Who could have hacked into the system without anyone noticing?

Chapter 40: I Will Only Say it Once

Finally, twenty minutes later, the base laboratory returned to normal.

General Wen looked at the black dot on the computer screen and couldn’t react for a long time. “Jiang City?”

“Yes.”

The technician nodded. “The other party doesn’t seem to be afraid of us coming. They didn’t deliberately hide their whereabouts.”

To them, this method of not deliberately hiding their whereabouts was the worst.

This was a place where geniuses gathered. It was one thing to be hacked by someone without a hidden IP address, but it took them twenty minutes before the system returned to normal.

“Zoom in.” General Wen looked at the bright spot on the map and narrowed his eyes.

The geographical location continued to magnify.

Finally, it stopped at Jiang City No.1 Middle School.

“Do you think it’s her...” a technician asked.

It can’t be.”

General Wen shook his head. “She’s not that capable...”

“But...”

“Retrack.” General Wen narrowed his eyes. “It could be her after all.”

That person.

She was the one most likely to enter the base’s protective net for destruction.

*

Nian Yue slept all the way until dawn. As she had stayed up a little late the day before, she was a little tired the next day. She lay on her desk and slept for half a day before she was barely awake.

When she woke up, there was a cup of warm milk tea at the right corner of her desk. The class was empty.

“You’re awake?” Lin Nan looked up from his phone.

Nian Yue stretched out her fingers and rubbed her forehead. Her fair and slender fingers rubbed her temples and her eyes regained some clarity.

“Yes.” Perhaps because she had slept for too long, her voice was a little hoarse.

“Everyone in the class went to watch Nian Yan’s piano performance...” Lin Nan explained when he saw her confusion.

“Yeah.”

Nian Yue stretched and took a sip of the milk tea before her throat felt much better.

At this moment, Nian Yan and Master Zhang were walking side by side in the corridor. There were quite a number of students following behind them. They were all here to witness Master Zhang’s glory.

“This is our class...” When they reached the entrance of Class B, Nian Yan introduced her to Master Zhang.

“But everyone has gone to the music square, so there’s no one...” Nian Yan smiled and explained to Master Zhang.

Zhang Wei was a young woman in her twenties. She wore a dark blue dress and her hair was draped over her shoulders.

“I see.” Zhang Wei nodded her head. She did not have any special feelings for Nian Yan. Although she played well, she felt that something was missing.

While the two of them were talking, two people walked over from the opposite side of the corridor. The girl in the lead was wearing a sky blue school uniform. Her hair was tied into a bun, revealing her smooth forehead. Her school uniform was a little loose. The zipper was only halfway down, revealing a pure white T-shirt underneath.

Only her face glowed.

“Yue Yue...” Nian Yan greeted her when she saw her.

Nian Yan had always been very familiar with the art of putting on an appearance.

Nian Yan did not even spare her a glance and brushed past her.

“Aunt.” Lin Nan stopped and greeted her.

“Are you used to being in school?” Zhang Wei looked at Lin Nan and finally had a hint of humanity on her face.

“It’s alright.” Lin Nan shrugged nonchalantly and glanced at Nian Yan. There was a hint of coldness in her eyes, so quick that it was hard to catch it.

It was only when Lin Nan left that Zhang Wei glanced at the young girl who was about to disappear at the end of the corridor. Nian Yan subconsciously bit her lip and said, “Teacher Zhang, don’t be angry. That’s my sister. She grew up in the countryside and often fought in school. My dad was afraid that she wouldn’t be able to get into university, so...”

Nian Yan did not finish her sentence. When she raised her head to look at Zhang Wei’s reaction, she realized that Zhang Wei’s eyes were fixed on the corridor and did not seem to take her words to heart.

Zhang Wei frowned. She seemed to have seen that girl somewhere before.

*

The afternoon class was really boring. Nian Yue and Lin Nan skipped class and went straight to the internet cafe. Nian Yue looked at the series of codes on the computer screen and smiled.

Then, she set her location at the internet cafe.

Lin Nan saw a series of codes on her computer screen. She was typing on the computer with her head lowered. With the light from the screen on her face, she appear even paler.

Finally, the computer screen returned to normal and reverted to the blue window.

Lin Nan gulped. He thought that Nian Yue was just good at gaming, but he did not expect her hacking skills to be so good.

Nian Yue leaned back in her seat and rubbed her temples. She must have been feeling a little dizzy because she had stayed outside for too long yesterday.

“Listen up, I will only say the following words once.” Nian Yue’s eyes turned cold. It was rare for Lin Nan to see her so formal, so he subconsciously sat up straight.

“The Lin Group has been going downhill for the past half a year. Some of the shareholders have even left their jobs...” Nian Yue narrowed her eyes. Because she was not feeling well, her voice was a little hoarse. However, her words were clear and when they were connected, Lin Nan could not recover from the shock for a long time.

He knew that there was a problem with the Lin family’s development in the past two years. Father Lin and Elder Lin were also looking for a new way out. However, the economic situation in the past two years wasn’t good. The Lin family’s development was getting worse.

Sometimes, he even suspected that they might declare bankruptcy the next day.

But to break through the bottleneck and walk a new path was undoubtedly as difficult as ascending to the heavens.

And what Nian Yue had suggested was something he had never thought about.

“I have the technology. If Old Master Lin wants to collaborate, get him to look for me at Xinhua Bookstore two days later.” After Nian Yue said that, her slender fingers rubbed her temples.

It must be that this body was rejecting her. Otherwise, she wouldn’t have been so dizzy from an ordinary cold.

Lin Nan was so shocked by her words that he could not react for a long time. He swallowed hard before saying, "You... really grew up in the countryside?"

Even as the heir of the Lin family, he only knew a little about these things. Yet, Nian Yue was able to speak of them so clearly.

"Is there a problem?" Nian Yue raised her eyebrows.

"No... I just feel that compared to you, Nian Yan is simply an insult..."

Nian Yan, who had been praised as a genius was insta-killed.

Yet, those people treated her like a princess.

"Ha..." Nian Yue laughed lightly. She picked up the milk tea on the table and took a sip before turning off the computer. Just as she stood up, she suddenly heard voices from outside. There was a strong smell of gunpowder!

"Bang!" A gunshot rang out, causing the previously quiet internet cafe to instantly boil over!

Intuitively, Nian Yue grabbed Lin Nan's wrist and flipped over the table. She opened the door and both of them quickly hid inside!

At this moment, the internet cafe was already in a mess. Screams and cries were mixed together. Another gunshot sounded and a man dressed in black came in from the door.

Chapter 41: Blocked Signals

"I didn't expect the famous Captain Jiang to be hiding in such a small place..." The man in black sneered. His slender fingers revolved the small silver gun in his hand and pointed it directly at the cashier who was preparing to leave.

The man trembled in fear and almost cried.

The man in black pulled the trigger slightly. His red lips curled into a disdainful smile. "Ten minutes. If you don't come out, ten lives will be lost."

The silver pistol was aimed directly at the man at the cashier counter. The man cried. He was only working his shift. Why did he have to suffer such an undeserved catastrophe?

He might even lose his life

Two men walked over from behind the man in black. Each of them was wearing a mask. The difference between them and the man in black was that both of them exuded the aura of death.

'The internet cafe was already in a mess. No one had expected to lose their lives just by playing a round of computer games.

The other two men gathered the people in the internet cafe. The man in black then walked in with one hand in his pocket.

"Since you're not coming out, then I'll search one room at a time..." The man in black smirked and his sharp eyes glanced at the room closest to him.

Then, he walked in that direction.

'When Lin Nan, who was in the room, saw him coming over, he was so nervous that his heart was in his throat.

Even though he had seen with his own eyes that Nian Yue could fight against five people during, that man had a gun in his hand now.

Most importantly, there was a group of hostages outside.

“Contact the military to call the police as soon as possible...” Nian Yue narrowed her eyes and removed the bracelet on her wrist. The bracelet was quickly reassembled into a small pistol.

“There’s no signal on my phone...” Lin Nan muttered as he took out his phone.

“You only have ten seconds. Jump out of the window and find help.” Nian Yue curled her lips. The moment she finished speaking, the door to the room was pushed open.

“Hurry up,” Nian Yue shouted in a low voice. The moment the door was pushed open, she had already made a move. The man seemed to have expected that someone would be there. He dodged to the side and pulled the trigger at Nian Yue!

However, Nian Yue suddenly grabbed his wrist and the pistol missed its target, hitting the window!

The sound of the window shattering could be heard!

The man didn’t expect his opponent to be so powerful. When he saw Nian Yue, his eyes flashed with interest.

“Quite a lovely young lady. If only she didn’t have a gun in her hand.”

It was his first time meeting such a cold and beautiful girl. Her amber eyes were as beautiful as glass beads.

“You won’t find me beautiful shortly.” Nian Yue sneered. In the blink of an eye, she had already grabbed the man’s neck and pressed the small pistol against his forehead.

“Ten seconds...” The man smiled, his dark green eyes as beautiful as a lake.

From the time he came in until he was captured by Nian Yue, it took exactly 10 seconds.

He glanced at the window. The window had been shattered and the boy had disappeared.

Lin Nan used a lot of strength to recover from jumping down from the second floor. Despite that, he was still injured. He ran as far as he could and looked at his phone. There was still no signal.

“Strange, it was fine just now. Why is there no signal

“That’s right. I wonder if there is something wrong with the lousy communication company...”

The pedestrians on the street were shaking their phones with impatience written all over their faces.

All the phone signals seemed to have disappeared!

Lin Nan looked at the passersby around him and realized they had the same problem.

Just then, Wang Zhizhi, who was carrying her school bag, saw Lin Nan and walked over. “Lin Nan, what are you standing here for?”

Seeing that it was her, Lin Nan’s eyes lit up. “Is there a signal on your phone...”

Wang Zhizhi took out her phone, but there was no signal either.

If he wanted to contact the military, it would take him at least half an hour to drive there.

“Wang Zhizhi, the situation is urgent. Listen carefully. If you can do it, nod. If you can’t, shake your head...” Lin Nan’s eyes turned cold. In the end, he made up his mind and described the situation to her.

Wang Zhizhi’s eyes narrowed when she heard that. She immediately opened her bag and sat on the chair beside her. She took out her laptop. “Sure, I’ll try my best.”

She switched on her laptop and went straight to the remote server, her fingers typing rapidly on the keyboard.

The other students walked past them after school. The leader was Chen Yiran. He seemed to be in better spirits, not seeing Nian Yue around Lin Nan.

He had originally thought that Lin Nan and Nian Yue would have a good relationship, but now it seemed like that was all.

He knew it. How could Lin Nan fall for a fool like Nian Yue?

“Hello, Young Master Lin, when did you change your taste? Where’s that idiot from the Nian Family?” a classmate with Chen Yiran asked bluntly.

“shut up.” Lin Nan glared at him. “Don’t block my way.”

His temper was not good to begin with. It was only when he was Nian Yue’s follower that his temper got better.

Chen Yiran’s classmate didn’t expect Lin Nan to be as arrogant as ever. He didn’t manage to utter a single word after being told off and his expression was extremely ugly.

Wang Zhizhi was very fast. In two minutes, she had already contacted the military.

At the military headquarters, the person in the lead was holding a black phone that was the size of a palm. The screen of the phone was not turned off, and one could vaguely see a girl’s side profile. Because of the backlight, he could only see that the side profile was so pale that it was glowing.

“Young Master Jiang...”

Officer Lu was on the verge of tears. He only knew Jiang Jincheng among these two, but judging from their formation, that man’s aura was even stronger than Jiang Jincheng’s, making it hard for him to breathe.

“Is the system down today?” Fu Xiuyuan raised his eyebrows slightly, his eyes fluctuating.

“Yes...” Officer Lu nodded. “We’ve found out that the IP address is near No.1 Middle School, but we haven’t located it yet...”

“Is Jiang Su’s disciple that lousy?” Fu Xiuyuan sneered, his eyes filled with disdain.

Officer Lu's face turned red, but he did not dare to retort.

This man's aura was so strong that one would subconsciously obey him.

"Officer Lu, someone sent us a distress call... It's from an internet cafe near No.1 Middle School..."
Someone rushed over to report.

"The criminals must have entered the internet cafe nearby and taken the hostages. There are no signals within five kilometers of the school.

Hearing that person's report, the man who was sitting on the chair just now stood up and walked out in large strides.

Chapter 42: Bomb Siege

Jiang Jincheng hurriedly followed. "Is it the young lady in the school uniform?"

Other than Nian Yue, he really could not think of anyone that Fu Xiuyuan would take to heart.

"Find out where she is now." Fu Xiuyuan rubbed his forehead with his fair fingers. His slender fingers gripped the steering wheel, his index finger tapping with impatience.

Jiang Jincheng's phone screen quickly displayed the location information.

"A small internet cafe 50 meters away from No.1 Middle School..." Jiang Jincheng gulped.

"Let's go," Fu Xiuyuan said as he drove towards the destination.

Jiang Jincheng observed his expression from the side. That devilishly handsome face was still expressionless, but his collar was not fastened properly, and there was a hint of frustration in his eyes.

At the internet cafe, the hostages were gathered together. No one expected that they would meet with such a mishap when they just wanted to go online and play games.

As school had just ended, most of the students in the internet cafe were from No.1 Middle School.

It was their first encounter with an incident like that. Some students could not help but start sobbing.

‘The two men in black were getting impatient. Their boss had been there for five minutes. Why wasn’t he out yet?’

“Did he find that person? Otherwise, why hasn’t there been any movement after so long?” one of them asked.

“If he had found her, they would be fighting by now...” Another person shook his head.

No one dared to act rashly without their boss’s orders.

Nian Yue was looking at the man under her gun with her usual indifference. “Who are you looking for?”

When this man came in, he knew that there was someone inside. When he attacked, his moves were ruthless and he didn’t seem like a regular ruffian. He was more like a mercenary.

The post-apocalyptic world no longer had any mercenaries. However, she did find out about them some time ago. Moreover, she had met that man when she went to buy books with Lin Nan last time.

The aura of death emitting from their bodies was exactly the same.

‘The man in black smiled and his pale face was slightly flushed “Jiang Su...”’

Almost as soon as these two words were uttered, the sudden explosion shook the entire internet cafe!

“This is my first gift to you.” The man in black smiled as if he didn’t care about the gun on his forehead.

Since he mentioned the first, there had to be the second, followed by the third.

And the location of the explosion was not at the internet cafe. Judging from the sound and vibration, it seemed more like it was at the library.

Nian Yue suddenly thought of something. School had just ended and they were near No.1 Middle School. No matter where the explosion took place, the casualties would be unimaginable!

He planted a bomb near No.1 Middle School. This person wanted to wipe out the youths in Jiang City.

She didn’t care about the other students, but Lin Nan had just left.

“What did you think of?” The man in black smiled and glanced at the small pistol in her hand. There was a small initial, F

‘The Fu Family.

The man in black had an unfathomable and bone-chilling look in his eyes.

While Nian Yue wasn’t paying attention, he suddenly reached out and grabbed her wrist.

“Magn...” The man in black seemed to have been electrocuted as interest flashed across his eyes.

Nian Yue had already pulled the trigger. The target was his head!

“We’ll meet again...”

The man was extremely fast and reached the door in the blink of an eye.

“The young lady in school uniform...”

After saying these meaningful words, the man quickly left.

'The moment he stepped out, the other two men in black were killed instantly!

When the two men in black fell to the ground, their faces were filled with disbelief. It was as though they did not understand why they lost their lives the moment that man left the room!

The door of the internet cafe was kicked open from the outside. A man in military uniform had already broken in.

Jiang Jincheng blew at the sniper rifle in his hands, his eyes full of scorn. "It's 0.1 seconds slower than last time..."

Everyone knew that he was at the top of the pyramid in the Imperial Capital as the young master of the Jiang family. However, few knew that he was also an outstanding sniper.

Fu Xiuyuan walked in and scanned the room quickly but did not see Nian Yue.

The officer who followed him in was about to speak, however he was rendered speechless by his imposing manner.

Fu Xiuyuan's aura was too strong and it made people subconsciously obey him.

After a long while, he seemed to have sensed something and looked towards the lounge diagonally opposite.

With a click, the door opened and a young girl wearing a sky-blue school uniform walked out slowly. As she was not feeling well, Nian Yue's cheeks were unusually red. She yawned and looked rather bored.

The moment their eyes met, Nian Yue's eyes darkened. She walked over with one hand in her pocket and glanced at Officer Lu before asking, "Who's your boss?"

An ordinary person would be surprised to see so many police officers.

Nian Yue, on the other hand, seemed to be a little impatient. Saying anything more would be a waste of her time.

"It's me..." Officer Lu nodded subconsciously; he almost made a military salute.

It was strange. She was just an underage girl. Why would he have such an impulse?

"Six bombs. With No. 1 Middle School as the center, within a radius of two kilometers." Nianyue took out a piece of paper. There were a few locations written crookedly on it. Some were drawn.

It was as if the pen had run out of ink. Some of the words were written intermittently, and one could barely make out what she had written.

"Student, we are currently working on a case. It is illegal to spread rumors..." Officer Lu frowned. The piece of paper in his hand looked like a child's graffiti.

"How did you become an officer?" Nian Yue frowned slightly. She could not be bothered to continue talking to him and left with one hand in her pocket.

The paper that looked like a child's scribble was thrown on the nearest table.

Jiang Jincheng took it and his face, which initially had a smile, turned serious when he saw the contents.

"She's right..."

Jiang Jincheng handed the paper to Fu Xiuyuan. "It's really possible that... there was an explosion just now..."

The places given by Nianyue were all the most inconspicuous places in No.1 Middle School, but she marked every place very clearly.

If all the bombs were to explode, other than No.1 Middle School, which was in the city center, the entire city would be wiped out.

They were going to destroy the entire Jiang City!

Fu Xiuyuan glanced at the blueprint. When he looked at Officer Lu, his eyes were filled with oppression.

Lo

Officer Lu's face turned red. He never thought that the little girl's casual scribble could be taken seriously...