Chapter 53: I Think I've Found My Kindred

Nian Yue's behavior was much worse than before.

'When she first came, she was timid and sloppy. When she appeared in front of him, she was trembling with fear. When had she ever been so confident?

On the contrary, after she returned from the Li Clan's banquet, she seemed like a completely different person and actually wanted to kill him!

Nian Chaoyu had lived for more than twenty years. He clearly knew that the murderous intent in Nian Yue's eyes was not fake!

She really wanted to kill him! Those eyes were so cold that every time she looked at him, he felt like he was looking at a dead person.

Nian Chaoyu shuddered uncontrollably when he realized this.

He could not sit back and do nothing. He had to get the inheritance rights of the Nian family in advance. He had to find a way to make her disappear without anyone knowing.

Nian Yue walked into her room. Her computer screen was still lit up. She switched it on. It was a document sent by Wang Zhizhi.

It was some entertainment news when Li Shu was pregnant with her. The photo showed Nian Chaoyu holding Wang Meihua, who was pregnant, walking around the mall together.

Nian Yan and Nian Yue were less than two months apart, and Nian Yan was even two months older than her.

What did that mean?

Nian Chaoyu had already cheated on Wang Meihua before Li Shu got pregnant.

The father of this body was really not an ordinary scumbag.

The rest of the information was about Li Shu when she was giving birth. After she gave birth, Li Shu had a massive hemorrhage and died. She was pushed out of the emergency room by the doctor.

The video was from more than ten years ago. It was a little blurry.

Nian Yue stared at the video, as if she had discovered something, and finally pressed pause.

The doctor who entered the operating theater at the beginning was different from the doctor who came out later.

Nian Yue narrowed her eyes and zoomed in. The video was too blurry and she could not see anything clearly.

“Can you help me check on this person?” She took a screenshot and sent it to Wang Zhizhi.

‘Wang Zhizhi replied quickly, “Sure, but because it’s so old, it will take time.”

The video from almost twenty years ago was not clear to begin with.

Furthermore, the files of personnel were all paper copies, making it even harder to investigate.

“Okay, thank you.” Nian Yue replied and narrowed her eyes.

However, when she thought of another matter, Nian Yue's slender and fair fingers rubbed her temples, feeling rather helpless.

She had fallen out with Nian Chaoyu right from the start.

She wasn't afraid that Nian Chaoyu would make things difficult for her. She had a hundred ways to make that man suffer.

It was also a good thing for her to fall out with Nian Chaoyu now, so that she would not have to split her attention to deal with the Nian family.

Thinking of this, Nian Yue called Lin Nan. "Do you have a house in Jiang City? Do I need to find a house."

"Did Nian Yan bully you?" Lin Nan asked.

He knew the Nian Family better than anyone else.

If Nian Yue wanted to move out of the house, he could not think of anyone else being responsible other than Nian Yan who loved to create trouble.

"She doesn't have the guts." Nian Yue sneered.

After all, Nian Yan had been threatened by Nian Yue with a fruit knife.

"I bet she wouldn't dare."

Lin Nan subconsciously heaved a sigh of relief. "What do you want? Do you have any requests? I'll get the butler to help you find it."

"Move in condition..." Nian Yue thought for a while. In this era, this seemed to be the name. "Simple decor and quiet environment."

She had more than enough money to buy a house.

Moreover, she had already taken 20% of the Lin Group's shares. There were some paths she needed to take.

"Okay."

Lin Nan agreed readily.

It was the weekend and there were no classes. Hence, Lin Nan brought Nian Yue to see the house he found.

It was an exquisitely renovated house in the city center. It was about a hundred square meters. "This one is about a hundred square meters. The renovations are all done in a European style. It's simple and grand. The subway and public transport are a short distance away. The security in the neighborhood is tight. Even a dog can't enter..."

Lin Nan started praising it non-stop.

This was the first time Nian Yue had troubled him to do something. Naturally, he had to do his best and complete it beautifully!

"Not bad."

Nian Yue nodded and took a look at the decorations of the house. "Other than being a bit over decorated, there's nothing wrong with it."

She was used to living in a place like the post-apocalyptic era where resources were scarce. Apart from survival necessities, everything else in the house was a hindrance to her.

"This is too much for you?" Lin Nan was in disbelief.

Apart from the coffee table, sofa, air conditioner, there wasn't even a console for the television. Yet she had thought that it was too much.

Would a bed have sufficed for her?

"How much is this house?" Nian Yue raised her eyebrows and asked.

"About... this number..." Lin Nan gestured.

"Sure."

Nian Yue nodded and signed the contract swiftly.

At the same time

In another dark basement

Aman in a black coat with leather gloves was playing with the small black pistol in his hand.

On the big screen in front of him was the scene in the Internet cafe's surveillance room that day.

The girl in the sky-blue school uniform had a lazy expression. She casually took a piece of paper, took a black pen with her left hand, and started to doodle on it.

"Bomb layout?"

The man pressed pause and looked at the side profile of the cold girl on the screen.

The girl's eyes were cold and only her tightly furrowed brows showed her impatience. Her slender and fair fingers were so white that they were almost glowing.

"six bombs at the same time. I'm starting to suspect that you're from the mercenary group. Little girl..." The man narrowed his eyes.

He had personally planted the bombs. No one knew better than him which places in No.1 Middle School were suitable to place these things. With the bureaucratic style of the police, they could not even find the shadow of one bomb in half an hour.

"Sir."

A woman in a military uniform walked in wearing long boots. She was holding a report in her hand. "This is the magnetic field interference from back then... Within ten minutes of your departure, the magnetic field around you was severely disturbed. The bomb was cut off at the same time."

"At the same time?" The man smirked. "Have you been sleeping on the job?"

"Sir, please forgive me!"

Fan Mei knelt down on one knee with fear written all over her face. "All the bombs had the most advanced technology, but that person's methods were mysterious. All the power sources were cut off at the same time..."

Power source.

The man mulled over this for a long time. As if he had thought of something, his lips curled into a bloodthirsty smile.

"think I've found my kindred, little girl..."

It was that kind of ability.

He didn't seem lonely anymore.

“You mean...” Fan Mei seemed to have thought of something as her eyes were filled with shock.

“Don’t worry. Rest and recuperate.” The man glanced at the big screen. The girl’s cold side profile was beautiful. “Little girl, I’m looking forward to meeting you again.”

He had been alone for so many years. Since he had met a girl of the same kind, of course he had to have some fun..

Chapter 54: The Greatest Shareholder of the Lin Group

After Nian Yue signed the contract, she was thinking about when to move things over when she saw Lin Nan pick up a call. His expression was a little ugly. “Sister Yue, I have something to do at home. I need to go back.”

“Do you need help?” Nian Yue raised her eyebrows, her eyes looking deep.

Lin Nan hesitated for a moment, but in the end, he gritted his teeth and said, “It’s because the Lin Group’s development has been getting worse in the past two years, causing many shareholders to prepare to leave. This time, there’s a large-scale departure, and the Lin Group doesn’t have any funds to settle in, I’m afraid that in a short period of time, we will suffer great losses...”

He had a thorough understanding of the Lin family’s situation over the past few days. However, he was still in school, so he couldn’t help but feel helpless when faced with such a problem.

“Is 20 million enough?” Nian Yue raised her eyebrows.

“There’s no need...” Lin Nan shook her head. “I’m really sorry, Sister Yue. You can easily earn a lot by investing this amount in any other company. The Lin Group, on the other hand...”

He had seen the things that Nian Yue had given to the Lin Group. As an outsider, he knew that as long as they were able to produce, the Lin Group would definitely earn a lot.

But now that the Lin Group had encountered such a situation, it would be a tall order to commit to mass production in a short period of time.

“Did you think I don’t know what was going on before I asked to collaborate with Lin Group?” Nian raised an eyebrow. “Take me there.”

She originally wanted to let the Lin Group develop for a period of time before giving her plans. But now, it seemed that some people were starting to lose their patience.

“But...”

“Bring me there.” Nian Yue spoke again. There was already some pressure in her voice.

Lin Nan didn’t dare to reject anymore and drove Nian Yue to the Lin Group.

At this moment, he believed from the bottom of his heart that no matter what happened, it would be resolved as long as Nian Yue was around.

Almost as soon as the two of them left, a devilish-looking man wearing a pair of gold-rimmed glasses, sat in a black unmarked car and was holding a document in his hand.

“You’ve been reading this document for two days. Did you discover anything?” Jiang Jincheng crossed his legs and asked.

He had followed Fu Xiuyuan to Jiang City for that stone.

In the end, that stone was nowhere to be found, and Fu Xiuyuan seemed to have been rooted there.

The man's slender and fair fingers had already closed the document. He pushed his glasses up the bridge of his nose and said slowly, "What is the reason behind the growth of the Nian Family?"

"think it's the Li Family." Jiang Jincheng thought for a while and said, "I heard that Nian Chaoyu was also a playboy when he was young. At that time, the scale of the Nian Family was just average. After he married Li Shu, the Nian Family's development was like a hack. On the surface, Old Master Li cut off all ties with Li Shu, but in private, he spent a lot of money on the Nian Family. In the end, Nian Chaoyu really thought that Li Shu was a poor country woman and cheated on her when she was pregnant. She bled a lot and died on the operating table... tsk tsk..."

Jiang Jincheng sighed. "But there seems to be a Li family in the capital..."

"Go to the Lin Group," Fu Xiuyuan instructed lightly.

"Alright." Jiang Jincheng nodded. "Do you have any other instructions?"

"Encrypt information about Nian Yue. Reports regarding her constitution are sealed."

At this time, in the conference room of the Lin Corporation's upper echelons.

The group of people had grave expressions. The economic situation in the past two years had been bad. Many people adopted a wait-and-see state.

They had thought that the Lin Group would be able to successfully transform and usher in a new dawn.

However, the Cheng Corporation withdrew their investment and the Lin Corporation's development was not as good as before. Many shareholders and employees left one after another.

Even the rest were fresh graduates with little work experience.

“Old Master, did you ask us to gather here because you have something important to announce?” someone asked Old Master Lin, who was sitting at the head of the table.

The Lin family was a huge family, but because of their poor development in the past two years, some of the Lin family members had gradually left the Lin family.

Lin Nan had no parents since he was young. He was brought up by Old Master Lin.

But he was still underage and a student. It would not have mattered if he had the abilities.

In the hands of this group of old directors, they might end up with nothing.

“I’m going to announce the latest strategy...” Old Master Lin said slowly. He got someone to switch on the slides and continued, “VR has been emerging for the past two years. Some companies and supermarkets have reached the application stage. The Lin Group is preparing to take this path...”

“No!”

Before Old Master Lin could finish, there were already voices of objection.

“VR costs a lot of money, the risks are too high, and the production ratio has been set. We can’t take such a huge risk!”

“The funds of the Lin Group are starting to run out. If we invest a large sum of money into virtual reality, we will perish.”

The voices of opposition were endless. Old Master Lin rubbed his temples. “I’ll think of a way to get the funds. We have to start this project...”

“No!”

The voices of opposition became louder and louder. “The Lin Group can’t even protect itself now. If another new project comes, we won’t be able to turn the funds around. We might as well wait to close down!”

“If we knew that it would close down, why did we stay here? We should have left earlier!”

“That’s right! Maybe if we leave late, not only will we not get any dividends, but we will also be covered in debt!”

With a number of people saying this, the few shareholders could no longer sit still.

‘When Old Master Lin arrived, he knew that there would be people objecting. However, he didn’t expect the opposition to be so strong.

He rubbed his temples and was still thinking of how to reply when the meeting room door was pushed open from the outside.

The girl in white and black pants had one hand in her pocket and the other holding her bag. Her eyes were cold.

The girl scanned the crowd. The conference room was a little empty. Less than ten people were left behind.

“Yue Yue.”

Old Master Lin’s eyes lit up when he saw her.

Nian Yue had told him that she would come over.

But he hadn’t expected her to arrive so promptly.

The cold girl walked into the meeting room, followed by Lin Nan.

Everyone saw an underaged girl walk in slowly. However, this underaged girl exuded an aura that could not be disregarded.

“Nian Yue, the largest shareholder of the Lin Group,” Old Master Lin said.

Nian Yue had taken 20% of the Lin Group’s shares. In addition, the directors of the Lin Group had been leaving one after another.

“Put the USB flash drive in,” Nian Yue instructed.

Lin Nan took the USB flash drive from Nian Yue without hesitation and inserted it into the computer.

“Let me introduce myself. I am Nian Yue, the largest shareholder of the Lin Group.” Nian Yue curled her lips. In an instant, her entire body emitted an imposing aura. “I’m very happy that you guys are still here. As for your intentions to leave, it’s not too late to make a decision in five minutes.”

Almost as soon as she finished speaking, the powerpoint was displayed... “This is the project report of the Lin Group for the past three years

Chapter 55: A Historical Breakthrough

The cold girl spoke unhurriedly and did not even glance at the PowerPoint from beginning to end. However, the numbers aligned exactly to what she said.

Initially, these people were still mocking her. They did not believe that a young lady like her could do anything.

However, as time passed, everyone’s expressions became more and more serious. Finally, someone started taking notes.

Even Lin Nan did not come back to his senses for a long time. Nian Ye’s slides were done on the road with him and it took less than 20 minutes.

She had only made a general outline. There was nothing particularly detailed on the slides but she could remember it perfectly.

Finally, she finished her presentation and the audience erupted in thunderous applause.

Old Master Lin looked at the girl in white and black pants with tears in his eyes.

“Miss Nian, you are right. However, the Lin Group doesn’t have that much money to invest...” someone said.

“The Lin Group is basically running an inflated profit now. The funds and manpower needed to start this project are simply insufficient...”

“100 million, is that enough?”

The aloof girl put one hand in her pocket and spoke.

Lin Nan looked at her. She was clearly just standing there, but the aura she exuded made people subconsciously want to submit to her.

“100 million...”

One of the shareholders laughed, but there was more mockery in his smile. “Where did you get so much money at such a young age?”

From the moment she introduced herself, these people vaguely felt that she was the Second Mistress of the Nian Family.

Everyone knew that she was brought back from the countryside by Nian Chaoyu. Where did she get the money to finance the Lin Group’s capital?

“How about I add another 200 million?”

The moment the shareholder finished speaking, a man in a suit walked in slowly.

When the shareholders saw who had entered, their faces were filled with disbelief!

“Young... Young Master Jiang...”

This was the man who stood at the top of the pyramid in the Imperial Capital!

Usually, the media would not be able to find any information about him because no one would dare to release any information about him!

The wealthy families in Jiang City were trying their best to get close to him just because they heard that he was coming! But he had actually appeared in their meeting room!

“300 million, is that enough?” Jiang Jincheng slowly raised his eyebrows, his face showing his unrestrained playfulness.

The conference room exploded!

‘They originally thought that the Lin Group was going to live on like this, but now that they had Jiang Jincheng, what else did they need to worry about?!

Nian Yue looked at everyone indifferently.

“This project will be a historic breakthrough for the Lin Group.”

She spoke slowly.

At this moment, the shareholders present did not doubt that what she said was true! This young girl had made people subconsciously submit to her just by standing there!

“I will send over the details of the follow-up project.” Nian Yue scanned the audience. “I believe everyone here will not regret their decision today.”

Everyone was shocked by the girl in front of them for a long time.

“Her ideas are very advanced... Maybe we can try it out,” a shareholder said with a smile.

“As a layman, I can understand what she is talking about. I believe that this time, the Lin Group will really make a breakthrough in history...”

Another middle-aged man, who looked to be in his forties, had bright eyes. The Lin Group had been on the recovery track for too long. Perhaps they needed a chance, a chance to look down on the masses again.

Nian Yue carried her bag and left immediately. Those left in the room did not come to their senses for a long time.

Old Master Lin asked Jiang Jincheng, “Young Master Jiang, thank you for supporting the Lin Group at this moment...”

Jiang Jincheng only scoffed when he heard that. “I just trust her...”

He believed that she could lead the Lin Group back to its peak. Ignoring the reactions of the people left in the room, Jiang Jincheng left.

Nian Yue carried her bag and walked downstairs. Some people accidentally caught a glimpse of the aloof girl and secretly took out their phones to take photos.

The cool young girl had an unconcerned expression. Her coat was casually tied around her waist, revealing her thin waist. It was so slender that it seemed as if it could be held with one hand.

Nian Yue loosened her collar and looked a little impatient. "Come out."

From the moment she'd entered Lin's building, she'd felt like someone was following her. She'd been out, but those people hadn't given up.

The two men who had been hiding in the dark looked at each other, unsure if she was referring to them.

"30"

The cold young girl opened her thin lips and leaned lazily against the car. "2"

Her voice was light as she played with a black phone in her hand. Her fingers were long and fair. "1..."

"Miss Nian, our captain is inviting you to meet him."

Two men in black walked out from the darkness. They looked to be in their twenties.

"Not going."

Nian Yue pursed her thin lips tightly.

The two of them looked at each other. "Miss Lin, please don't make things difficult for us..."

The two of them were on the verge of surrounding her.

"So you guys are here to make things difficult for me?" Nian Yue raised her eyebrows.

"No..." The two of them did not know what her attitude meant. They looked troubled. "If you don't go, we don't mind using force..."

“Let’s go.” Nian Yue sneered. “Lead the way.”

The two of them had yet to react. Just a moment ago, she had looked like he would rather die than submit, but now she was actually leading the way!

The two of them did not dare to drag things out any longer, afraid that she would go back on her words. One after another, they brought her into a black Volkswagen.

Nian Yue took her time to get into the back seat. The man who was following her raised the partition and said, “Miss Nian, please forgive me.”

‘They were managed by the imperial capital and had little to do with Jiang City. The location had to be kept a secret.

“Remember to be quick. I don’t have much time to dawdle with you guys.” Nian Yue crossed her arms and leaned against the seat with her eyes closed.

She was resting with her eyes closed.

The two men who were about to bring her back looked at each other in confusion.

If it was an ordinary girl, she would have been frightened to tears when she saw such a scene. However, Nian Yue was extremely calm and even closed her eyes to rest.

Both of them had seen the video of her taking action at the internet cafe, but they were still shocked to see her today..

Chapter 56: An Invitation

The car drove on a gentle road, and the two of them didn't dare to let their guard down. This girl's mind was different from that of ordinary people, and she couldn't be treated like an ordinary person.

After driving for half an hour, they arrived at a remote training ground.

Nian Yue closed her eyes. She was not worried about her location. She could also calculate the distance from the center of the city based on the information broadcast and the car numbers.

The car finally stopped. Nian Yue reached out to open the window but was stopped by the soldier. "Miss Nian, you can't!"

Crack! It was the sound of bones breaking!

Before that person could come into contact with Nian Yue, his arm was already grabbed by Nian Yue. With a forceful tug, his arm was broken!

That person's expression changed immediately from the pain. When the person who had just gotten down from the driver's seat saw the scene behind him, his expression darkened instantly. "Miss Nian, you're going too far..."

"Going too far?" When Nian Yue heard these few words, it was as if she had heard a ridiculous joke.

"You guys were the ones who brought me here without distinguishing right from wrong, right?"

"You..."

That person was speechless.

However, his face had been extremely gloomy for a long time. Without any explanation, he supported the other person and turned around to leave.

This meant that he would leave Nian Yue behind.

Nian Yue got out of the car and looked around.

She seemed to be in a military camp. She could hear the whistle in the distance and the sound of a uniform march.

The aloof girl put a hand in her pocket and slowly walked forward.

On the way, she bumped into a few soldiers in camouflage uniforms. They didn't even pay any attention to her.

Nian Yue, on the other hand, did not mind. She continue walking, stopping at times to suss out the place.

In the meantime, Officer Lu was observing her in the monitoring room.

"Officer Lu, how long are we going to leave her hanging?" someone asked.

"Ten minutes." Officer Lu's eyes darkened.

Given the girl's unrestrained personality, he had no doubt that she would paralyze their network system after ten minutes.

Nian Yue walked forward for about ten minutes. She had an earpiece in her ear and had one hand in her pocket. Those who did not know might think that she was here for a vacation.

The sky in the distance was somewhat gloomy. The sun had already begun to set.

Nian Yue narrowed her eyes. Suddenly, a strong gust of wind came from behind her. As though she had already expected it, Nian Yue dodged sideways!

However, that person was relentless and attacked her again.

It was a tall man who looked like he was 1.9 meters tall. His attacks were fast, ruthless and lethal.

Nian Yue grabbed his wrist and kicked him hard in the abdomen!

The two figures clashed very quickly. They were so fast that the officer standing in front of the surveillance room almost didn't see how the two of them attacked.

Finally, the man was thrown to the ground!

Nian Yue knelt on one knee and placed the person's hands behind his back with one hand. Her tone was cold as she said, "You've lost."

After the fight, the man was already out of breath.

Almost as soon as Nian Yue finished speaking, she felt a chill on her forehead. A black gun was pressed against her forehead. "Little girl, you've lost now..."

The other man spoke slowly and looked at Nian Yue with slight contempt.

He was holding a small and exquisite pistol in his hand. Once he pulled the trigger, Nian Yue would immediately lose her life.

Only then did Nian Yue slowly let go of the hand that was restraining the person on the ground.

"Heh..."

Nian Yue sneered. She still had an unrestrained personality. Because of the fight just now, there was a thin layer of sweat on her forehead. Two of the buttons on her shirt were loose, but it still could not stop her from exuding magnificence.

"What are you laughing at..." The man gripped his gun tightly.

"I'm laughing at you. You're overestimating yourself!"

As soon as she finished speaking, she grabbed the man's wrist and snatched the gun from him with her other hand!

She was so fast that one could only see a silhouette. She snatched the pistol and pulled the trigger. Bang! It was the sound of a bullet!

In an instant.

The air was so quiet that only breathing could be heard.

Nian Yue's lips curled up slightly, but her eyes were looking at the camera closest to her. That smile seemed to be mixed with mockery.

Officer Lu could no longer sit still. The moment she snatched the pistol, he had already run over!

He should not have underestimated this girl!

She was wild and unrestrained. She could draw out a bomb layout in a short period of time and call him brainless. How could such a young girl be a simple person?!

The big guy was also scared silly by the scene in front of him. He only reacted after a long time. "Did you really pull the trigger?"

"Why? Are you the only ones allowed to attack me and I'm not allowed to retaliate?" Nian Yue sneered. She still spoke slowly, but the coldness in her voice made people shudder unconsciously.

"Nian Yue..."

Officer Lu rushed over and saw a cold girl playing with the pistol in her hand. Her headphones were still on her ears as she leaned against the pillar slowly. There was a sinister look on her face.

"Why? Isn't it enough to be stupid once? Are you planning to do it a second time?" Nian Yue raised her eyebrows. She twirled the pistol in her hand and pointed it at Officer Lu!

The girl's voice was cold, but just by standing there, her aura made people subconsciously submit to her.

"What are you waiting for? Hurry up and call the ambulance!" Officer Lu was already drenched in cold sweat.

This girl's eyes were too cold. He didn't know what would happen if he was the next one who made her unhappy later. No one would be able to bear the consequences if someone died.

"He won't die..."

Nian Yue sneered and pulled the trigger!

Seeing Nian Yue's actions, Officer Lu's heart was in his mouth!

Officer Lu closed his eyes. The pain he imagined did not come. Nian Yue spun the pistol in her hand and threw it to him.

"He

Officer Lu looked at the person lying on the ground and asked with difficulty.

"He won't die. I didn't aim it at him."

Nian Yue had one hand in her pocket and there was a sinister look in her eyes.

Officer Lu could only believe half of her words. He quickly got the military doctor to come over to take his man away.

"What's the matter?" Nian Yue raised her eyebrows and asked.

This was the first time Officer Lu had appeared in front of her since the incident at the internet cafe.

To think he still used such a method to invite people..

Chapter 57: Moving out of the Nian Family

The military doctor came and examined the two men." They are alright. There were just some superficial wounds."

It was just that these superficial wounds looked a little serious.

"It's not a big deal..." Officer Lu coughed dryly and looked around. Seeing that there was no one around, he continued," I called you over to ask you about the layout of the bomb last time..."

"Don't you know better than me if I drew it?" Nian Yue raised her eyebrows.

Officer Lu must have investigated her inside out several times before he invited her here. He must have watched the surveillance footage from that time no less than ten times.

"Of course I know that you drew it. I just wanted to invite you to join us..." Officer Lu spoke incessantly. Back then, he had given Nian Yue a bad first impression, causing Nian Yue to look at him differently no matter what he said now.

Not interested." Nian Yue shook her head almost without thinking.

She had her own things to do. She was not prepared to relive a life in the military again.

"Don't think about rejecting my offer so soon..." Officer Lu tried to persuade her." The situation in the Nian family is unstable now. You are just a girl in the Nian family. The danger is still unknown..."

He had investigated the situation of the Nian Family several times.

Nian Yue was a girl from the countryside. She had no power or status. He thought that if she were to run in with Wang Meihua, she would definitely be eaten up.

“You’ll be safe with me. And you don’t want your talent to be buried just like that.”

For a genius like Nian Yue, if more people found out about her talent in the future, they would definitely go crazy over her.

Officer Lu had his own selfish motives. He didn’t want the talent he discovered to end up in someone else’s hands.

Nian Yue crossed her arms and looked like a ruffian. It was unknown how much she had heard from him.

Officer Lu felt uncertain since Nian Yue was expressionless. Even her eyes were frighteningly calm.

Unknowingly, this girl’s aura had already surpassed his.

“Are you done?” Nian Yue raised her eyebrows.

“I know you’re investigating what happened to your mother. With the military involved, some things are easier to do.”

This was akin to coercion and bribery.

If Nian Yue wanted to investigate the incident at the hospital 17 years ago, she would be able to find some clues. However, it was clear that she would not be as fast as the military.

There was no guarantee that the information would be more complete than what the military could yield.

“I will consider it.” Nian Yue smirked.

This was the biggest guarantee she could give Officer Lu.

Officer Lu subconsciously heaved a sigh of relief. As long as Nian Yue did not reject him, there was room for negotiation. Everything else could be discussed later.

“Do you have a car?”

Before leaving, Nian Yue raised her eyebrows and asked.

“Yes, but they are all military...” The officer replied reflexively. Perhaps he did not realize that when he faced Nian Yue, he had subconsciously treated Nian Yue as his leader.

“I’ll give you my own car

Officer Lu quickly took out his car keys and gave her the license plate number. “Use it as long as you want. I don’t need it in the military...”

“Thanks.”

Nian Yue took the car keys and found the car in the parking lot. She stepped on the accelerator and left.

Seeing that the car was running so fast that there wasn’t even any exhaust, the officer couldn’t help but wipe the non-existent cold sweat on his forehead.

It was really strange. When he was talking to Nian Yue, he actually felt an inexplicable pressure.

Nian Yue drove back to the Nian Family home and it was already night time.

When Aunt Liu saw her, she subconsciously heaved a sigh of relief. “Second Miss, Old Master isn’t back yet. Don’t be stubborn later...”

She was really afraid that Nian Chaoyu and Nian Yue would fall out again.

“Aunt Liu, I came back this time to move out.” Nian Yue’s lips twitched as she walked upstairs.

There was nothing in the room on the third floor to begin with. Nian Yue took the laptop and a few personal items over and placed them in her bag before carrying them downstairs.

‘When she reached downstairs, Wang Meihua and Nian Yan came out when they heard the commotion.

“Sister, are you really planning to move out after packing up like this?” Nian Yan looked as if she was making a fuss over nothing. “You don’t have any money at all. Where are you going to stay then?”

No matter how much Nian Yan fussed over it, she could not hide the smugness in her heart.

She would only feel better if Nian Yue moved away quickly!

This would save everyone from misery!

She had snatched the role of Zhang Wei’s disciple and Nian Yan had yet to settle this score with her!

“That’s right. Yue Yue, if you leave, your father will be angry again...” Wang Meihua chimed in.

The two of them echoed each other. Without Nian Chaoyu around, the two of them couldn’t even be bothered to act.

Nian Yue did not even lift her eyelids. She couldn’t be bothered with them.

‘When Nian Yan saw her like this, she was so agitated that she almost jumped up.

That expression again!

“Nian Yue! What are you so cocky for? Without the Nian Family, you are nothing...” Nian Yan was indignant.

'When Nian Yue heard this, she only raised her eyes and her lips curled into a mocking smile. When her eyes landed on Nian Yan, Nian Yan's back stiffened subconsciously.

Those eyes were filled with a coldness that was mixed with bloodlust.

She had no doubt that Nian Yue would come over and break her neck if she said another word!

Nian Yue could not be bothered with the two of them as she grabbed her bag and headed out.

After spending so much time with those two retards, she seriously suspected that her 1Q would be pulled downwards as well.

Nian Yue drove back to the house she had bought. She placed her bag in the living room and realized that there were very few things inside.

There was new bedding and mattresses in the bedroom. The other places had already been renovated, so she could stay here with her bag.

'What she wanted was simplicity and speed. She laid out the mattress and cleaned up the general area. As Nian Yue stretched, she realized she hadn't eaten all day. She was a little hungry.

There was nothing she could cook in the fridge.

At the thought of this, she remembered that there was something in this world called takeout.

Nian Yue found the application and clicked on it. After ordering a few dishes, she placed her phone on the table and went to take a shower.

'When she came out of the shower, she heard the doorbell ring. Nianyue walked over and opened the door. She saw Jiang Jincheng's magnified handsome face. "Sister Nian Yue, you didn't even tell me that you were moving, That's so mean..."

“How did you know I was here?” Nian Yue raised her eyebrows.

She had just found a house today. The contract was signed less than 24 hours ago, and Jiang Jincheng had come looking for her.

“Because I’m your new neighbor...” Jiang Jincheng smiled brightly and pointed to the opposite side. “Please take care of me in the future.”

“on!”

Without another word, Nian Yue closed the door.

Jiang Jincheng was not angry even after being refused entry. He said to Fu Xiuyuan, who had yet to appear, “This young lady is quite unfriendly.”
