

The National Goddess Reborn 72-77

Chapter 72: Transfer Student

In the following time, he watched as Nian Yue went from a novice player to the leaderboard in less than a morning.

There was a frenzy in the game forum!

“Boohoohoo, what kind of godly operation is this! Great God, please meet me!”

“God, please guide me!”

“Could it be that he had used a cheat code? How can someone be so powerful?”

“How can I add God as a friend?”

“The Almighty has closed the friend application channel. Give up.”

Nian Yue glanced at the forum but did not find any valuable information. She turned off her phone and prepared to head to the canteen for lunch.

‘As they had played one more game, the classroom was empty. Only two or three students remained in the classroom.

The boy looked at Nian Yue with eyes full of admiration. “Nian Yue, can you accept me as your disciple?”

“Sorry, I don’t accept disciples.”

The corners of Nian Yue's lips twitched as she left the classroom.

There were not many people on campus. Just as Nian Yue and Wang Zhizhi were about to enter the canteen, they were blocked at the staircase landing.

"Nian Yue, stop right there!"

The person who stopped her was Cheng Anran. She had been hit on the head by Nian Yue with a stool earlier on and had just returned to class today.

"Who are you?" Nian Yue raised her eyebrows and her eyes were cold.

"Stop pretending!"

It was not long since the two of them had been at odds and Nian Yue had already forgotten about her!

Cheng Anran felt that she was holding her breath in her heart. It was unbearable.

"What's the matter?" Nian Yue's eyes were filled with impatience. Her voice was laced with frustration.

"Sister Yan Yan hasn't been in school for two days. Were you behind it?" Cheng Anran suppressed her anger and asked.

Although she had not been at school for the past half a month, she had gotten to know what had happened in school from other students.

"Why are you looking for me if she's not here?" Nian Yue scoffed.

“Sister Yan Yan and Brother Yiran are fighting. You must have interfered with them. Why are you so shameless...” Cheng Anran was so angry that her face turned red.

If it was at any other time, she would have already acted recklessly.

However, after experiencing the incident where she was almost beaten to death by Nian Yue and coupled with assault on Cheng Du, she did not dare to do anything rash.

As if she had heard a joke, Nian Yue smirked. “I don’t have eyes for a coward like Chen Yiran.”

She had beaten him up so badly that he could not fight back at all. In the post-apocalyptic battlefield, this kind of man would be superfluous even as a logistician!

“Move.”

Nian Yue could not be bothered to waste any more time on Cheng Anran. She walked past her and entered the canteen.

Cheng Anran was furious, but when she sensed the coldness coming from Nian Yue, she still instinctively stepped back and made way for her.

The other students who were watching the fun took a step back at the same time and made way for Nian Yue.

The cold and aloof girl left without any obstructions.

*

With Nian Yue’s list, Wang Zhizhi ran all over Jiang City but did not manage to find everything. There were a few herbs that were extremely difficult to find. It was not that they were out of stock, but that they were unheard of.

With her last bit of hope, Wang Zhizhi entered the final pharmacy she could find.

“Sir, do you have anything in this prescription?”

The pharmacist was an old man. He took the note from her hand and read it a few times. There was an instant seriousness on his face, but he quickly covered it up. “Yes. Please wait a moment.”

The old man entered the inner room and soon brought the herbs over.

“Thank you.”

Wang Zhizhi heaved a sigh of relief. She had thought that she would not be able to find the prescription given to her by Nian Yue, but was lucky enough to find it at the last pharmacy.

After she left, the old man pushed his presbyopic glasses and said to the man leaning against the door, “Follow her.”

That man was a little sloppy as he held a blade of grass. He crossed his arms and said in a casual tone, “She’s just a young lady. Why do you want me to follow her?”

“She didn’t write that prescription.”

The old man glanced at him and wamed, “Most people don’t know about those medicines.”

After hearing his words, the sloppy man straightened his expression and his eyes darkened. “You mean, those people...”

“Mm.” The elder sighed, his tone deep.

Hopefully, it was someone he was looking for.

In the afternoon, a transfer student came to the class. Duan Yu introduced him on the podium. "This is our new transfer student, Ning Qin."

The boy on the podium looked about fifteen or sixteen years old. He had a baby face and dimples when he smiled.

"Hello everyone, I'm Ning Qin." Ning Qin smiled.

"This little boy looks so adorable. I'm going to fall for him

"I suspect he's only thirteen or fourteen. He's so cute

'When the girls in the class saw Ning Qin, they wanted to run over and pinch his face.

"Ning Qin, go find your seat." Duan Yu smiled.

Ning Qin got off the podium and ran to Nian Yues's seat. "Pretty sister, can I be your deskmate?"

He was cute and had a pair of cute canine teeth. When a normal girl saw him, her heart would melt.

However, the aloof girl did not even raise her head. She changed her posture and continued sleeping.

Ning Qin almost had stars in his eyes. "Pretty Sister is so cool!"

He knew that his taste was.

Lin Nan heard this and looked up. "Are you crazy?"

Why didn't he know when Nian Yue had attracted the attention of such a little boy?

Luckily, Ning Qin was very obedient the whole day. He listened attentively in class and took notes seriously.

It was only when school was about to end that Nian Yue raised her head and realized that there was someone beside her. Then, she said slowly, "Excuse me."

As she had just woken up, her voice was a little hoarse and deep but it was pleasant to the ears.

"Hi, 'm Ning Qin..."

It was only then that Nian Yue noticed that the person beside her should be her new deskmate. When she heard this, she only replied, "I'm Nian Yue."

She then left the class.

Ning Qin looked at her and smiled coldly. He carried his bag and left the class.

There were many luxury cars at the school gate. Among the luxury cars, the black Bentley was not conspicuous.

Ning Qin walked up to the Bentley. The driver looked like he was in his forties and opened the car door for him. "Young Master, Madam has been waiting for you for a long time."

Ning Qin got into the car. Mrs Ning had been waiting for him for a long time. When she saw him come in happily, she smiled. "How was your day?"

"Okay." Ning Qin took out his computer. There was a series of data on it. He couldn't take his eyes off it.

This was the data of Nian Yue's constitution that he had collected in the afternoon.. Every single indicator was abnormally high!

Chapter 73: Esports Competition

These statistics are impossible for ordinary people. Because the human body was like a vessel, the things that one could withstand had a peak value.

However, Nian Yue's speed, strength, and explosiveness far exceeded those of ordinary people.

This was only the data he had gathered from Nian Yue. If he saw Nian Yue take action with his own eyes, how shocking would that be?!

Mrs Ning was used to his data analysis.

"Let's go."

The car started slowly and the black Bentley disappeared at the entrance of No.1 Middle High.

They reached the intersection and saw traffic lights ahead. The car slowed to a stop.

Mrs Ning looked up and saw a familiar figure.

Lu Jiang?

No.1 Middle School's third year was based on self-study for half of its curriculum. This meant that one could choose not to attend school.

'Wang Zhizhi went straight out of the school gate after school in the afternoon. The guards did not even stop her.

The students of Grade 12 Class A had always been an exception. The guards had always turned a blind eye.

Wang Zhizhi went to the sanatorium where Madam Wang was knitting on the bed. When Madam Wang saw her, her expression softened. “Why didn’t you attend evening self-study today?”

“The evening self-study session today is all about Chinese.” Wang Zhizhi came in with fruits. Seeing that she was knitting again, she walked over and took the sweater in her hands. “The doctor said that you need to rest...”

“I feel much better these two days, so I found something to do.” Madam Wang smiled.

‘Wang Zhizhi thought that she was consoling her and did not take her words to heart.

‘Wang Zhizhi spoke to Madam Wang for a while more before leaving the sanatorium for the Wang family.

‘The Wang family?

When she returned home at night, Nian Yue looked at the medicinal herbs that Wang Zhizhi had given her and sniffed them.

At most, they could only be considered as a low-level medicinal ingredients. Compared to the medicinal ingredients that the post-apocalyptic lab had produced after going through rounds of hybridization, there was still a certain difference.

But it was better than nothing.

‘When she thought of this, Nian Yue opened her palm. All the medicinal herbs in the paper bag floated up.

Even the tables and chairs in the room began to float.

Nian Yue ignored the floating tables and chairs. Her supernatural power shifted slightly and the medicinal herbs in her palm were slowly coated with a layer of blue light.

Her power didn't belong to the healing type, so she could only mix it with her wood power to improve the effect of the drug.

After a long time, all the medicine floating in the air turned into powder. Nian Yue withdrew her hand and placed the powder into the bottle.

Half of the glass bottle was filled with white powder.

The tables and chairs floating in the air returned to their original positions. Nian Yue frowned slightly. She still needed to improve her manipulation skills.

Compared to the accuracy of the post-apocalyptic world, the difference was too great.

It looked like she needed to speed up.

Nian Yue took out her phone and dialed a familiar number. "Do you have time tomorrow?"

The next day, Nian Yue applied for leave and did not go to class.

Ning Qin looked at the empty seat and pouted. He came here for Nian Yue. Why didn't she come to class?

At this moment, Nian Yue had already arrived at the Lin Group.

The cold girl was dressed in a white shirt and black pants. Her hair was tied into a bun and she stood there with a cold aura, attracting everyone's attention.

The receptionist saw her and nudged her colleague with her elbow. "That young lady is so pretty..."

The Lin Group was one of the top companies in Jiang City. In the past, there were many noble ladies who came to the Lin Group to discuss business.

However, they had never seen someone as beautiful as the girl in front of them.

Nian Yue had one hand in her pocket and her shirt was buttoned up meticulously. However, one could still see her fair neck. Her voice was slightly cold as she asked, "Where is the general manager's office?"

The receptionist pointed in a direction and Nian Yue nodded slightly. "Thank you."

She walked towards the elevator.

The two receptionists were still in a daze when she disappeared from the elevator.

"Is that girl our general manager's daughter? She's so beautiful..."

"Our general manager is only in his thirties. How could he have such a big daughter? She should be a younger sister or something..." another receptionist said without thinking.

After all, the girl just now was too beautiful and her aura was rare.

It didn't make sense for her to be in a relationship with the general manager.

Nian Yue pushed the door open and entered the Manager's Office. When Manager Zhao saw her, his eyes lit up. "Miss Nian, you're here?"

Nian Yue nodded slightly. "Is the item out?"

Manager Zhao passed the blueprint to her. "We have reached the testing stage. The various data indicators are not up to your requirements..."

After all, the blueprints given by Nian Yue were too out of this world. With the current scientific and technological methods and the Lin Group's research and development team, they could only reach half of her requirements.

And that was the present ideal state.

Nian Yue looked at the blueprint. It was only 30%.

Although she had known that the product would not meet her requirements when she handed the blueprint to Lin, 30% was far from her expectations.

Nian Yue frowned slightly and turned to Manager Zhao. "Bring me there to take a look."

Manager Zhao brought Nian Yue out of the door and the two of them went straight into the office on the top floor.

The top floor office was divided into two areas. One was the research and development area, and the other was the training area.

'The training area was separated by a glass room. It was completely enclosed.

'There was already a group of research and development staff waiting inside. When they saw Manager Zhao coming over, the person-in-charge hurriedly walked over, his face full of excitement. "Manager Zhao, we just did some adjustments. It should be able to reach 31%..."

Although it was only a percentage point difference, the entire technical team had calculated it hundreds of millions of times.

Manager Zhao nodded slightly and introduced the people to Nian Yue. Then, he said to the technical team, "This time, we will be administering the test on a person. You guys control the backstage."

'When the technical team saw that it was a young lady, they were shocked.

They had researched virtual reality technology for more than a month and hired foreign technical experts to obtain the current technology.

They knew how difficult it was to conduct the test.

Even a special forces soldier might not be able to come out unscathed.

After all, the training methods inside had been modified after nearly ten years of training.

They could not believe that Manager Zhao actually wanted a young lady to take the test.

“Bring it to maximum value.” Nian Yue took off her jacket, revealing a white shirt underneath. She warmed herself up, bringing her glasses with her as she entered the grounds.

The aloof girl put on her glasses, as her attitude became serious.

Manager Zhao gestured to the forensics team. The forensics team pressed the start button and stared at the direction of Nian Yue.

The moment the forensics team started, Nian Yue turned around and made an attack. The air seemed to have been hit by something. Nian Yue bounced back and threw another punch.

She was extremely fast. Numbers kept flashing on the computer, and her speed kept changing.

In the end, the number on the computer had reached its peak. The alarm had even sounded, but the girl inside was moving faster and faster.

Her moves were fast, ruthless, and accurate. Everyone in the forensics team was already dumbfounded!

How could a normal person have such speed?!

Most importantly, her moves seemed to have been calculated!

Watching her train was like watching a visual feast!

But this was not the end!

In the next second, the girl jumped and stepped on the glass door before attacking again!

“The machine can’t take it anymore...”

A member of the forensics team said anxiously.

Her strength and explosive power had long surpassed the limits of the machine!

They had thought that the special forces soldiers would not be able to take the 30% she had requested, but judging from Nian Yue’s performance, 30% was not enough!

Looking at the flashing numbers on the screen, the forensics team was so nervous that their hearts were in their throats!

If she continued training like this, the machine would definitely have to be scrapped in the next second!

Beep beep beep

The machine sounded an alarm. The cool girl had stopped.

Nian Yue took off her VR glasses and walked out slowly.

After more than twenty minutes of intensive training, her breathing was steady and there was not even a drop of sweat on her forehead.

Her movements were so relaxed that it was as if she had just returned from shopping.

If the forensics team hadn't witnessed her explosive power, they would have thought that she had just returned from shopping.

"Can you improve it further?"

Nian Yue furrowed her eyebrows tightly. She was indeed surprised that they had used a month to create the things that she had designed.

But the performance was far from what she wanted.

30% wasn't even as explosive as her body.

"It's already peak value..." The person-in-charge wiped the cold sweat off his forehead.

If Nian Yue did not stop just now and the machine was destroyed, all their hard work for the past month would have been wasted.

"Show me the backend."

Manager Zhao brought her to the server room. When she saw the series of numbers, Nian Yue's deep eyes wavered for a moment. She turned to the person-in-charge and said, "Give me the final parameter report..."

The person-in-charge knew that she had a powerful background since she was able to come in with Manager Zhao, who was very respectful to her. Hence, he gave her the parameters.

Nian Yue looked through it thoroughly and then pointed to a few areas. "Improve these and we can raise it by at least five percentage points."

She had been in charge of the research and development of new weapons in the past. These things were not difficult for her.

The few points she mentioned were very vague, but they sounded very meaningful. The person-in-charge quickly noted them down.

Even after she left, the forensics team was still in shock. The explosive power she exuded made them seriously suspect that they had miscalculated human data.

Nian Yue left the Lin Group and returned to No.1 Middle School.

The teacher was giving a lecture on the podium. Nian Yue greeted her and walked in.

Lin Nan and Wang Zhizhi knew why she did not come earlier, so they were not too surprised to see her.

Ning Qin, on the other hand, was shocked to see her.

He could clearly feel that Nian Yue's supernatural power had strengthened.

It wasn't like the day before.

Her body measurements had increased by a level!

Chapter 74: The Competition Begins

Furthermore, there was a tendency for it to continue rising!

The day before, her supernatural power was still very stable, but today, there was a significant leap. What exactly happened in one night?

Ning Qin looked at Nian Yue. He was so absorbed in his thoughts that he didn't come back to his senses until her eyes met his.

"What are you looking at?" Nian Yue raised her eyebrows. Her tone was still casual, but the pressure on her body was getting stronger.

"You're quite pretty..." Ning Qin smiled, showing his cute dimples and canine teeth.

No matter how she looked at it, he was a cute boy.

The corners of Nian Yue's lips twitched. She changed her posture and continued to lean against the wall. Her slender and fair fingers were holding a pen, and she looked rather nonchalant.

Only her eyes looked very cold.

It was time for class to end. A boy stood up and walked to the podium. He said to the audience, "Tomorrow, 'Pugilistic World' will be holding a competition in our school. Does anyone want to sign up?"

None of the students below answered. The boy took a look at Nian Yue and was about to ask her if she wanted to participate, but when he met that pair of cold eyes, he subconsciously felt a little scared.

He could not afford to offend the big boss, so he better not look for her.

The game had become increasingly popular over the past few days. After No.1 Middle School had gone through a nervous mid-term exam, the students welcomed the long-awaited eSports competition.

The bell rang, and all the students filed out. A boy ran in from outside, his face full of excitement. "Hey, hey, hey, today, 'Pugilistic World' is holding a competition in our school..."

The students in the class were busy with their own things, and none of them looked up when they heard this.

“Hey, can you guys have some fighting spirit...”

‘When the boy saw that no one was paying attention to him, he continued to shout, “I heard that there’s a top 100 guru ranking in this school. Maybe he’ll stand out in this competition and be chosen by Mountain Ghost...”

“are you kidding? Really?!”

Upon hearing the words ‘Mountain Ghost’, a boy’s eyes lit up and he could no longer sit still!

“Really! Even the general manager of Mountain Ghost Network is here!”

‘The voices of the other students came from the door. “They even brought their company’s team this time...”

Upon hearing this news, the students who were extremely calm just now all ran out.

“This time, they are using holographic projections and the battle between Mountain Ghost’s gaming geniuses...”

“I want to go! I want to participate in the competition!”

“Me too! I want to fight against those geniuses and be tortured so badly that even my own mother can’t recognize me

There were almost no boys in Class A who did not play games. Upon hearing such tempting conditions, they all ran out.

In an instant, only a few people were left in the bustling class.

Nian Yue, who was sleeping in the last row, finally opened her eyes. As she woke up, her brows were tightly furrowed. The zipper of her school uniform was pulled open, and she looked a little irritated.

Her eyes were cold as she casually leaned against the wall.

“Nian Yue, shall we go take a look?” Wang Zhizhi turned around and asked, her eyes shining.

She had been playing the game for some time now, but she had not made it onto the list yet.

“Yeah.”

Nian Yue nodded and stood up from her seat. Turning to Lin Nan, she said, “Come with me.”

Lin Nan had been working on the company’s financial report for the past two days and was having a headache.

Upon hearing this, he followed her out.

This eSports competition in No.1 Middle School was decided by Mountain Ghost Network at the last minute.

Mountain Ghost Network had a branch company in Jiang City. It had established itself into the top 100 of the country after two years.

‘When Nian Yue and the rest arrived, the school gymnasium was already filled with people.

The format of the competition took the form of a small group match. Each class had to send a few people for a round-robin match to select the final winner.

The boy from earlier ran over and saw the aloof girl sitting on the steps with earphones in her ears. She was looking down at her phone.

One look and he knew the girl was not to be trifled with.

This was his first reaction.

However, when he thought about how he had unintentionally seen Nian Yue's methods the last time, he still wanted to fight for it.

"Nian Yue, are you participating in the competition?" the boy asked with a notebook in hand.

"Hey, Wang Qiong, what are you doing!"

The commissary in charge of studies walked over. "For a competition like this, you have to be experienced to be able to get on the rankings... are you having a monthly meeting?"

She had never liked Nian Yue. The moment she arrived, she had squeezed past Nian Yan and became a prominent figure in No.1 Middle School.

"Nian Yue, have you played the game before?" someone asked curiously.

"Yes, Nian Yue, do you know how to play it? This game is quite difficult..."

A classmate walked over and asked.

After witnessing how she defeated Class B last year, this group of boys had been admiring Nian Yue from the bottom of their hearts.

But eSports was different from sports since it could not be won by brute force.

"Yes, I've played a few rounds before..." Nian Yue nodded her head. Indeed, she did not play much. It had not even been a week.

"Then you shall..." Seeing that she didn't reject him, the boy gave her his name.

"She only played a few rounds. If you let her play, what if she loses?" The commissar of studies was used to being competitive and was obviously not willing to let Nian Yue play at this time.

"If you can play that well, why don't you go?" The boy glanced at her.

“Wouldn’t even—”

“Don’t waste your breath.” Lin Nan rebutted her and said to the boy, “Add me in.”

“Count me in too.” Wang Zhizhi also raised her hand.

“Alright!”

The boy almost cried tears of joy. He had only come here to try his luck, but not only did he pull up Nian Yue, he even managed to sign up Lin Nan and Wang Zhizhi!

Although Lin Nan’s ranking was not high, he had played for a long time!

Not to mention, there was also Wang Zhizhi, who played a super six game!

With these two people around, at least they wouldn’t lose too badly!

“Sister Yue, do you know the rules of the game?” Lin Nan asked worriedly before she went on stage.

He would occasionally see Nian Yue playing other games. ‘Pugilistic World’ was different from other games. He was afraid that Nian Yue would not know about it later.

“Mmm...” Nian Yue yawned, somewhat uninterested. “I understand.”

“That’s good. Just follow me later,” Lin Nan said worriedly.

Nian Yue was too lazy to refute Lin Nan who obviously felt that she was only at the beginner level.

After the results of the draw were out, Nian Yue slowly stood up and walked to the battle stage.

‘When the students from the other classes saw Nian Yue, some of them started discussing.

“Was that Nian Yue who pinned the school hunk Chen Yiran to the ground? Why does she look better than Nian Yan...”

“She’s much prettier than Nian Yan

The girls below were already engaged in a heated discussion. Both boys and girls preferred beautiful creatures.

In addition, having heard about her beating up Cheng Du, many girls had long admired her. Because of his family background, he often bullied people. To have beaten up both Chen Yiran and Cheng Du, Nian Yue’s personality was undoubtedly more attractive to girls.

Nian Yue could not say that she liked such a lively occasion. When she heard the noise around her, she frowned slightly and unzipped her school uniform. With both hands in her pockets, she took her seat..

Chapter 75: Third in the Entire Server!

Lin Nan and Wang Zhizhi followed her.

This was a group match with four people on each side. Nian Yue sat on the main seat, and beside her sat Lin Nan, Wang Zhizhi, and another boy from Class A.

‘The four of them logged into the account together. The others all had their own nicknames. Only Nian Yue had a bunch of numbers. That was the original code given when she first registered her account.

Looking at the string of numbers, Lin Nan was completely convinced. Nian Yue had only registered an account, so she probably hadn’t played much.

Yan Feizheng was sitting on the stage with his laptop in his arms as he dealt with the company's matters. The other team members who had followed him did not even look up as they lowered their heads to deal with their own matters.

Watching such a beginner-level battle was simply a waste of time for them.

What they needed was the team that would win in the end.

The match officially began, and the crowd cheered. Everyone was staring at the projection screen.

Cheers rose from every class.

Although this was an eSports competition held by the school, it was actually a competition between classes.

All the other classes in No.1 Middle School were trying their best to catch up to Class A!

Nian Yue's eyes turned cold. She was a little impatient with the frustrated voices.

She had a cold personality to begin with. Now, because of her impatience, it seemed as though she was shrouded in a layer of ice.

She unzipped her school uniform and put it on loosely. She stuffed both her earphones into her ears.

The competition proceeded in an orderly manner. In less than half a day, the first match had ended. Only ten out of the twenty classes participating in the competition were left.

Another round of matches began. After half an hour was enough, there were five classes left on the field.

As for Class A, there was no obstruction as they fought their way to the end!

'When it was finally time for the finals, Yan Fei looked up from his computer screen and saw a long string of numbers on the projector. He found it familiar.

When he looked again, his eyes widened in shock!

That long string of numbers

It was the third place of 'Pugilistic World'.

'This was the expert who reached third place in a week!

"What's wrong, leader?" One of the team members asked curiously.

The other team members followed his gaze. When they saw the long string of numbers, everyone was so shocked that they couldn't close their mouths!

"Third in the entire server..."

One of the team members swallowed his saliva silently.

They had missed something!

This was the third player in the entire server who had amazing mechanics. Every match could be treated as a textbook case study!

From the beginning to the end, the person who was the most shocked was Lin Nan. He never would have thought that Nian Yue, who had been keeping quiet, would actually be the great god of 'Pugilistic World'!

Throughout the game, they did not need to fight much at all. Under the leadership of Nian Yue, they could totally win!

'As the competition neared its end, more and more people recognized the long string of numbers.

"Ah?! What did I just see? Is that third in the entire server?!"

"That string of numbers! That's the guru who made it to third place in the rankings in a week!"

"Ahhh! So Nian Yue is the Almighty!"

"She's third in the entire server.

The audience went ballistic. If not for the competition, these people's shouts would have penetrated the roof of the stadium!

When Nian Yue was online in the past, the digital system in the middle was hidden by default. This time, it was all exposed and no one discovered it!

Towards the end, they realized that her strategy was getting more and more impressive. It was only then that everyone remembered the number three player in the entire server!

The final outcome was undoubtedly Class A's complete victory!

It was only when the competition ended that Nian Yue slowly put away her phone and walked out of the stadium.

As soon as Yan Feigang finished packing up his computer, he realized that the competitor had vanished.

*

Chen Yiran looked at the cold girl and almost gritted his teeth!

What right did he have to be mocked for being made a cuckold by Nian Yan in school, while Nian Yue was the center of attention!

After all, Nian Yue was a country bumpkin from the countryside back then. She followed behind him every day and was full of admiration for him!

But it had only been a short while since then. No matter where she went, there would be discussions about Nian Yue. She was the center of everyone's attention wherever she went!

Chen Yiran glared at Nian Yue before turning around to leave.

As soon as he left, he heard his classmates discussing behind him.

"This looks like the school hunk, Chen Yiran. Isn't he close to Nian Yan? Why is he alone today..."

"Don't you guys know? I heard that Nian Yan made him a cuckold and the two of them fell out completely..."

"Tsk, tsk, tsk. How can such a scumbag be worthy of Ms. Nian Yue?"

Nian Yue happened to pass by and heard everyone's discussion. Her expression did not change as she walked over.

After being taught a lesson by her the last time, Chen Yiran seemed to have become much more obedient. It had been a while since he acted like a demon.

'The young master of the Chen family and the school hunk was now like a pathetic stray dog.

Nian Yue left the arena and returned to her class.

'The match just now made the audience's blood boil with excitement. Even though many people did not understand the rules of the match, they nearly knelt down when they saw such an awesome operating technique!

Yan Fei looked around, but there was no sign of the aloof girl. He then walked over to the battle team of Class A and asked, "Where's Nian Yue?"

He had taken a look at the registration form and realized that this female student was called Nian Yue.

"She went back to sleep."

Lin Nan turned around and replied.

Nian Yue had a lazy personality and was even impatient when she was playing games. It was probably because she did not sleep well yesterday.

"Are you students from Class A? Are you interested in visiting the Mountain Ghost Network?" Yan Fei invited the students from Class A.

When the crowd heard Yan Feifei's invitation, they couldn't hold back any longer!

"That's Mountain Ghost Network! It's one of the top twenty internet companies in the country!"

"I can't believe this! Nian Yue is the third in the entire server of 'Pugilistic World', and now the general manager of Mountain Ghost Network is here! I can't believe this!"

The group of people were extremely excited, but when they thought about how Nian Yue was expressionless from start to finish and was extremely calm, they were taken aback by her reaction.

They looked at each one another and finally decided to follow Nian Yue back to class.

Yan Fei was speechless.

Since when did Mountain Ghost Network lose its appeal?

“Hi, can you take me to Nian Yue’s class?” Yan Fei asked Lin Nan with a flawless smile.

“She... probably has something on.” Lin Nan shrugged. “You can tell me what you need from her..”

Chapter 76: Underground Casino

Nian Yue returned to class and leaned against the back wall with nonchalance. There was a message from Manager Zhao.

Making VR virtual glasses required a huge amount of funding.

The funds from the Lin Group were not enough.

When she arrived, the bank was still in its operational hours. She handed her bank card to the counter. “I’m looking for your manager.”

That counter staff took her card and placed it on the card reader. After taking a look, she stood up and handed the card to Nian Yue respectfully. “Please wait a moment.”

Nian Yue leaned against the chair, looking indifferent. Her fair fingers were holding onto her phone, and only her eyes were as deep as ink.

The office door was pushed open and a young man in his thirties walked out.

'When the man saw her, he said respectfully, "Hello, can I help you?"

"Yes." Nian Yue nodded slightly. The manager led her to the office. When he saw the amount of money she had transferred, he was speechless.

Nian Yue only took back her card after she was done transferring the money. The manager followed behind her with a radiant smile. "Madam, our bank has insurance policies as well. Do you need them?"

"No, thanks." Nian Yue left with her school uniform.

The manager looked disappointed when she left.

Nian Yue left the bank and took a glance at the sunlight outside. Then, she took out her phone and called Lin Nan. "Where is the biggest casino in Jiang City?"

*

On the surface, the underground casino belonged to Jiang City, but in reality, it had its own rules.

Over the years, the underground casinos had expanded and contributed to half of Jiang City's economy. It was said that the one controlling the underground casinos was the young master of the Zhang family.

As for the background of the Zhang family's young master and what he looked like, no one knew.

This was because that young master had never appeared in public.

It was said that the young boss of the Zhang family came to the underground casino personally to hold the bidding for the collaboration next year.

To be able to establish a relationship with this young master was equivalent to gaining a foothold in Jiang City.

Therefore, other than the wealthy families in Jiang City, people were sent from the capital to engage him.

Even so, there was an endless stream of people in the underground casino.

Nian Yue walked in. She was dressed in a white shirt and black pants. Her hair was casually tied up and she was dressed simply. However, her aura was not to be ignored.

The rest of the people in the underground casino looked over at the same time.

Those who could hang out in underground casinos were all intelligent people with good judgment.

'When they saw that Nian Yue was just a young lady and that the people following behind her were also seventeen or eighteen years old students, they all looked away.

There was no lack of rich people in the underground casinos. It was not uncommon for a few students to come and have fun.

Nian Yue walked in slowly with one hand in her pocket.

Her eyes narrowed when she saw the card table in the innermost room.

Nian Yue walked over, followed by Lin Nan and Wang Zhizhi.

It was Wang Zhizhi's first time coming to such a place. She was a little nervous and subconsciously followed Nian Yue closely.

Nian Yue walked to a table and sat down.

This table was placed in the innermost room. It was also the most honorable place in the entire underground casino.

Those who could sit on this table had assets that were worth over a hundred million.

“Little girl, do you want to play?”

Sitting opposite her was a middle-aged man in his thirties. When he saw her sit down, he narrowed his eyes and smiled.

Logically speaking, a young lady like Nian Yue was not qualified to enter the room.

But not only did she come in today, she even brought two more kids with her.

This situation was rather intriguing.

“Of course.” Nian Yue curled her lips. A black card had already appeared in her hand. Her slender and fair fingers were holding onto the black card, which appeared to be glowing under the lighting.

“Is this wager enough?” Nian Yue raised her eyebrows.

She exerted some force and the black card was already in front of the man.

The man took it and took a look.

Black. The diamond logo.

Almost instantly, ten thousand possibilities flashed through his mind. When the others saw her take out the black card, someone had already laughed out loud. “Little girl, is this your first time here? What’s the use of taking a card...”

“That’s right, little girl. In a place like this, the most valuable thing is always gold and silver

They had thought that she would not understand and explained to her.

Nian Yue was expressionless from the start to the end. She just crossed her arms and looked at the man holding the black card calmly. He was the one with the most authority.

“All of you, shut up!” The man’s expression was obviously not good. He got someone to return the black card to Nian Yue before continuing, “Of course this card is enough. But let me say this first, don’t cry if you lose...”

“Let’s begin.” Nian Yue did not waste any time and said coldly.

She was just a seventeen-year-old girl, but no one dared to look down on her.

Nian Yue was expressionless throughout. Her eyes only glanced at the cards indifferently without any other expression.

‘Wang Zhizhi looked at Lin Nan worriedly. She knew that Nian Yue was good, but gambling depended on luck.

Could Nian Yue win?

Lin Nan gave her a reassuring look.

Only Nian Yue, who was sitting on the main seat, remained expressionless from beginning to end. She even leaned languidly against the seat. Rather than saying that she was here to gamble, it was more accurate to say that she was here to play.

‘When the others saw her like this, they only thought that she was the daughter of some rich family and came to have fun. They did not take her seriously at all.

However, no one expected that the seventeen-year-old girl would win every round.

In the corridor on the second floor, a man dressed in black looked at the girl below and narrowed his eyes. His expression could not be seen clearly, but the aura he exuded was oppressive.

“How long has she been here?” Zhang Heng asked with narrowed eyes.

“About half an hour.” Beside him was a man in his twenties. He wore a pair of golden glasses.

“How many rounds did she win?” Zhang Heng asked.

“Three rounds. Almost never lost,” the man replied, his voice already a little hoarse.

“Three rounds...”

As Zhang Heng read this number, something seemed to flash in his mind. After a long while, the cigarette in his hand burned out and the corners of his lips curled up. “Let Zhang Ran take her on.”

“Him?”

The bespectacled man adjusted his glasses. “He doesn’t fancy...”

She had only won three rounds in a row, so she was unable to meet Zhang Ran’s standards.

“Then get out and don’t come back.” Zhang Heng sneered and slowly threw away the cigarette in his hand. He took a handkerchief and wiped his fingers one by one.

“I’ll instruct him to go over now.” The bespectacled man carried his briefcase and left.

The room was so quiet that only the sound of breathing could be heard. Zhang Heng narrowed his eyes.

Meanwhile, Nian Yue, who was sitting below, suddenly looked up at this moment. Her eyes met his.

Zhang Heng raised his hand and pressed down the curtain. The sky-blue curtain was lowered and their gazes were separated.

The gambling had already progressed to the fourth round. Just as the next round was about to start, a man’s sloppy voice sounded. “I wonder if I can have a bet with the young lady?”

The person was dressed in a black suit. His hair was dyed a wine-red color and he looked unrestrained.

He was only 20 years old, but had a strong presence.

“Young Master Zhang, why are you here?” Someone recognized Zhang Ran and immediately stood up to give him the seat.

Zhang Ran, the second-in-charge of the underground casino, was known as the gambling king.

As long as he was around, he would never lose.

However, this person was unrestrained, especially when he had to compete with a young lady.

After all, everyone in the industry knew that Zhang Ran despised women the most.

With a lollipop in his mouth, Zhang Ran casually sat opposite her. “Little girl, do you want to bet?”

“Of course.” Nian Yue agreed readily. She could clearly see the disdain in Zhang Ran’s eyes, but her face still looked excessively cold.

With the cards between her index and middle fingers, she looked rather nonchalant. “What are we betting on?”

“Since this is the little girl’s first time here, I don’t have high expectations...” Zhang Ran narrowed his eyes and pointed at Wang Zhizhi. “I want her...”

“Don’t even think about it!” Lin Nan said coldly.

Zhang Ran was obviously up to no good. How could Wang Zhizhi, who was still in school, be given to him!

This person was clearly here to humiliate them!

“Look, why are you so nervous...” Zhang Ran narrowed her eyes. “I’m not done talking...”

He slowly took out a lollipop from his pocket and threw it over.

The lollipop was thrown into the air. Someone raised his hand to it!

Nian Yue’s gaze turned cold. “Since we are going to play, let’s raise the stakes. If I win, how about giving your life to me?”

Everyone present gasped at her conditions!

Zhang Ran was a member of the Zhang Clan. The fact that Zhang Ran was still able to remain standing despite having opened the underground gambling den for so many years meant that there was someone of high status backing him up!

Nian Yue was just a young lady. How could she say that she wanted to take his life?!

“Alright.” Zhang Ran agreed readily. “If you lose, give me that card.”

He saw the black card immediately.

That man was the most obsessed when it came to things from the Fu family in the capital. He did not expect the black card to be in the hands of this young lady.

“Sure.” Nian Yue nodded.

“Since you’re here to gamble, why don’t we compete in the simplest way?” Zhang Ran raised his eyebrows. As soon as he finished speaking, someone had already taken the dice over.

“One round to decide the winner.” Zhang Ran smiled seductively. His unrestrained face was even more beautiful than a woman’s.

In his opinion, Nian Yue was able to win three consecutive rounds only because she had some ability. But if he were to come up against her, that would be another story!

“Sure.” Nian Yue smirked and took the dice..

Chapter 77: That Man Again

In the casino, it was so quiet that only the sound of breathing could be heard.

Everyone looked in the direction of the two, afraid that they would miss even the slightest movement.

Everyone knew that Zhang Ran was temperamental. It was harder to see him fight than to ascend to the heavens!

It seemed to be a waste of his ability to compete with that little girl!

The aloof girl remained expressionless, but she did not stop shaking the dice.

The two of them did not do anything else, but the coldness in their eyes could only be understood by each other.

Zhang Ran glanced at her slender and fair wrist before he sneered and put down the dice in his hand.

No one dared to breathe too loudly. They could only hear the two of them shaking the dice.

Finally, the sound of the dice rolling ended.

Everyone's tense heart was beating faster and faster.

This was not Zhang Ran's first time going all out, but it was his first time competing with a young lady.

Especially since this young lady had already won three rounds in a row!

They both reached out and lifted the lid.

'When they saw their points, everyone gasped in unison!

Because their dice revealed the same summation!

No, to be precise, the three dice were all stacked up like a pillar that held up the sky!

"I'll get your card for sure..." Zhang Ran sneered. Nian Yue's dice shattered almost immediately after he spoke!

Everyone on the field was shocked by this for a long time!

All the dice shattered into powder!

This meant that it was zero points!

Compared to one, zero was obviously smaller!

"You cheated!" Lin Nan was infuriated by his actions!

“Lonely said the final result, but I didn’t mention the process.” Zhang Ran smiled impudently. He reached out his hand and hooked it in Nian Yue’s direction. “If you’re willing to bet, you must admit defeat. Hand it over.”

He had been eyeing that black card for a long time.

However, his brother refused to give it to him.

That wouldn’t stop him from using other methods to obtain it.

“Now, you can turn around and look at your dice...” Nian Yue smirked, her eyes as deep as ever.

Zhang Ran turned around and saw that the die, which had been standing tall a moment ago, had been reduced to dust!

The most important thing was that this pile of powder was even more fragmented than Nian Yue’s!

“You’ve lost.” Nian Yue’s lips twitched. Almost as soon as she finished speaking, the brightly lit hall tuned into darkness!

In an instant, screams and screams filled the place!

The moment the lights went off, Nian Yue grabbed Wang Zhizhi and stuffed her under the table. “Don’t make a sound without my order.”

The silver bracelet on her wrist had already assembled into a small silver pistol. Nian Yue’s lips curled up slightly.

At the same time, footsteps sounded behind her, like the sound of military boots stepping on the ground.

Da da da da.

It was as if every step could step on one's heart.

This was.

That man back then!

Before she could turn around, a pistol was pressed against her forehead.

"Little girl in school uniform, it's been a long time since we last met..." The man's slow voice sounded.

He exuded a cold and bloody aura. The smell of blood was very strong, so heavy that it made people subconsciously want to vomit.

He had just killed someone.

"Yeah, long time no see..." Nian Yue's eyes turned cold.

Before the man could react, Nian Yue suddenly exerted strength in her leg and turned sideways. She had already grabbed his wrist!

The moment she touched his wrist, a blue electric current flowed out.

Nian Yue narrowed her eyes. Not only did she not let go, she even increased the strength in her hands!

Sizzle.

In the air, invisible sparks flashed. Even the air was slightly distorted.

Lin Nan, who was watching, was already scared out of his wits. Just as he was about to go over and help, he felt someone grab his shoulder from behind. His waist tightened and a gun was pressed against it.

“Don’t move.”

The cold man spoke coldly.

Lin Nan was shocked. He did not realize that there were people around.

How did this man manage to sneak up behind him?

With a click, the dark hall instantly lit up!

The casino, which was previously crowded with people, was now in a mess. The floor was in a mess and chips were thrown everywhere!

No one would have thought that this was the biggest gold mine.

With a click, the hall turned dark again!

The lights in the hall were already flickering. One moment it was bright, the next it was dark.

The people who were still at the scene felt that their feet were slightly weightless. When they inadvertently looked at the hall, they realized that all the tables and chairs were floating in the air!

Completely weightless!

“Manipulation? Levitation?” The man’s lips curled up slightly as he looked at Nian Yue with interest.

The little girl was giving him more and more surprises.

Other than her electric power, she also had the ability to levitate things!

The tables and chairs floating in the air had slowly gathered together. Then, they aimed at the two of them and charged towards them!

Their target was that man! Just as they were about to touch the two of them, the two of them let go at the same time and retreated together!

All the tables and chairs were back on the floor in a moment!

The small silver bracelet on her wrist had already turned into a small pistol. The cold girl's face was filled with coldness as she pointed the black muzzle at the man!

The hall was completely lit up at this moment. The man in black had one hand in his pocket and a playful look on his face.

"You have to think carefully whether you want to do it or not." The man smiled.

As soon as he finished speaking, another man grabbed Lin Nan's shoulder and stood behind him.

The man was also dressed in black, and his face was completely hidden in the darkness, making it impossible to see his face clearly.

"Name your conditions." Nian Yue's lips twitched. The small pistol spun in her hand and turned into a bracelet.

'As usual, she had one hand in her pocket and the zipper of her jacket was pulled open nonchalantly.

"I want to talk business with you." The man snapped his fingers. The man sat on the chair behind him and crossed his legs.

Dressed in a silver suit, his entire body was exquisite and meticulous. This man was as beautiful as a noble from the western world. His every move exuded elegance.

If only there was no scent of blood on him.

That demon's face was full of playfulness. "You spent quite a bit of effort drawing out the layout last time, right?"

Everything had been carefully calculated by him. Even if the most famous expert came, he might not be able to find them in a short time.

But she only used ten minutes!

He could sense everything!

Nian Yue did not speak. Her eyes were as cold as ever.

"I'm asking you a question!"

The enchanting woman behind the man started to flirt. She had already raised her pistol and aimed it at Nian Yue!

The killing intent on her body instantly appeared!

At the same time, everyone behind the man raised their guns and aimed them at Nian Yue!

The cold girl smiled and slowly walked towards the man.

'As she moved, the people behind her also pointed their guns at her.

"Since it's a negotiation, you have to show some sincerity." Nian Yue's lips twitched and her palm moved slightly. The man's pistol had already made its way into her hand.

[hate it when people threaten me!"]

The black pistol was already pointed straight at the man's forehead!

"I want to see whose gun is faster..."

It was just a casual tone, but the group of people could still hear the threat in it.

"You..."

Fan Mei's face was filled with anger. In this day and age, anyone who dared to point a gun at their boss would already have been killed by them!

"Sigh..."

Mo Yi made a stop sign.

"Boss!" Fan Mei was unwilling, but thinking of Mo Yi's personality, she reluctantly withdrew her gun.

"Your little sidekick's life is still in my hands." Mo Yi's lips twitched. "My terms are simple. Fight against my men. As long as you win, his life will be returned to you."

Nian Yue crossed her arms and glanced at the team behind him.

Any one of the people behind this man could give the City Police Department a headache for a month!

After all, they were not called the world's biggest assassin group for nothing!

Nian Yue's gaze was cold. She put down the pistol in her hand and took off her coat slowly, revealing the black shirt underneath.

Dressed in a black shirt and black pants, she was a peerless beauty.

"Who wants to come first?" Nian Yue asked coldly with a deep gaze.

"Me"

Fan Mei put down her gun and walked over. "Little girl, did anyone tell you that having a beautiful face is a mistake?"

The girl in front of her was too beautiful. Even if she stood there without saying a word, her coldness could make men fall for her.

Especially when even the boss, who was always bloodthirsty and never took women seriously, had a whole new level of respect for this little girl!

She must kill her today!

Nian Yue did not say a word. She just stood there, her eyes as deep as ever.

"Sister Yue, be careful." Lin Nan gritted her teeth, wishing she could go over and help.

"Okay."

Nian Yue gestured to him. Fan Mei took the opportunity while she was talking to punch her!

Fan Mei specialized in close combat and her attacks were impossible to guard against!

The others watched the fight calmly.

There was nothing that could not be solved by Fan Mei!

The two of them were very fast, especially Nian Yue. It was almost impossible to see how she attacked!

In the beginning, Fan Mei still had the advantage in terms of speed, but after three minutes, she was losing!

Nian Yue's speed was too fast and her moves were ruthless. She could grasp the key points in an instant!

Fan Mei's initial attack turned into defense. In the end, Nian Yue gave her a side kick, which knocked her to the ground!

She had used a lot of strength in her kick.. Fan Mei was sent flying a few meters away and fell to the ground!
