Chapter 13

/ Never again by Malgorzata Uchto

Mr Ara' lurrall, I told Ethan about my discovery. He w hesitant in the beginning, but eventually believed me. We searched a room in an attempt to find some hidhin clues she might have let, but it was til. We didn't find ything

"What if she didn't know anything? Ben asked after checking her desk. We had tumed the whole mom almost upside down. "What is wanted to talk to you about something else like mybe finding her mate?" He questioned me.

I closed the drawer I was clicking and looked at him, surprised. Maybe he was right, but something told me that was not the kasut. If she knew something, we would find it. I looked at the sweater I had given her, and a little pain hit my heart. Brushing off the negative thoughts, I focused on Ben's words.

She was trying to tell me something. H it were her finding a mate, wouldn't he have come here to check on her?

He must have felt the pain of the bond breaking. It had been three days since her funeral. A week after the attack. He would have come by now, rightOr maybe she had been rejected, and that's what she wanted to tell me? No.

Definitely not. Her scared and meaningful eyes had told me a diferent story

"No Ben, I don't think it was about her mate. Her eyes at the barbecue are way like she was afraid of something

And he wolf was so adamant to not enter the sale foon, I think she knew the traitor. And that's what she wanted to tell me." I was confident in my suspicion.

"I think..." I paused unsure if I should say it aloud. "I think it was the traitor who killed her, not the reque." They were shocked. Ethan sat on Aria's bed, shaking his head in denial

Ben and Peter widened their eyes in disbelief. I suppose they hadn't thought about that possible scenario. No leader wants to hear about his loyal member's betrayal

I closed the drawer i was checking and sat at the floor beside Peter. I explained everything from the supposed mate matter and his abseno ta being eliminated by the traitor.

They were silent for a moment, thinking about it.

Finally, Peter pulled himself together and asked the first question. "If that's true, why didn't she tell us in private or mind link any of us?"

That was a good question. I hadn't thought about that before. She was a werewolf she could have done that without anyone noticing

"Maybe she was threatened?" I asked, unsure. She must have had a good reason. She was very shy, maybe someone did something to make her keep her mouth shut.

"Maybe he was buildi's lose the truth, me the web withhaven't recebidany notes, which me something." Ethan announced, looking me sady

"Are you Sucesting she was the traitor?" I asked, dumbfounded at his cusation..

I couldn't believe he said that, it couldn't be true. It w not her; I knew it. I shook my head in denial. We discussid all the pros and cons for a while, still with no results,

"Ok, we don't know who the traiter was, we have no proof for any of our theories. Let's keep going and try to investigate it further." Ben endöd our conversation and stood up, taking Pater with him. I did the same. Offering my hand ta Ethan, he sighed and accepted it. We left her room and proceeded with our duties

"Luna"

I heard someone calling me, and I turned around to see Hillary, an Omega who took over Aria's duties. She was a nice and friendly woman.

*The Alpha asked for your presence in his office, it's urgent." she informed me seriously. Nodding my head at her,

I instructed my helpers on how to arrange the furniture in the living room. Double checking everything. I left them alone and went to Ethan's office. We had to order almost everything to arrange the living room after the damage

It worked, he embraced me and put his head in the creak of my neck, inhaling my scent

What happened?" I asked no one in particular.

After hesitating for a moment, Ban handed me a note. Gulping, I took it and read.

"Sorry for your loss, she was beautiful, surrender or möre people will dia. See you soon, Luna!

My heart stopped for a moment. I knew they wanted me, and I was ready to give myself up, but I was still nervous.

was I really ready to do that?

"Did someone get hurt?" I looked at Ben, hoping nothing had happened to any of our pack members.

"I was knocked out during the patrol and when I retained consciousness, I found myself in the infirmary."

Brian explained, embarrassed, avoiding eye contact.

"Are you hurt?" I asked him concerned, he shook his head. Good, I didn't want another pack member to suffer because of me. Reading the note again, I felt a little relief. The note proved Aria's innocence. But the traitor was still on the loose.

"Dar w where should any information about the place or time?" I and determined. This "Ok, so what do we do now?" I was waiting for some Guess my fate was sealed.

"What about the traitor, do you have any idea who that might be?" Colin spoke for the first time. We all thought for a moment.

"What about the older couple from party? They are still hostile towards me." I suggested, remembering their harsh words and cold demeanor.

"Brian," Ethan finally decided to join the conversation.

H#turned to Peter.

“You worked with Mandy in IT find everything about they are not involved in this. We can’t make any mistakes.” Hawkserki. Puterilo nodded and left, not before sending reh .al resturingsmile:

I was still sitting in Ethan’s lap, hugging him with my byes closed, inhuling his heavenly went. He put his face into my hair and kissed my head.

“I’m scared.” He whispered, shocking me.

“Of what?” I asked, trying to look at him but his hald didn’t let mm.

“Of lasing you.” That broke my heart. I didn’t know what to say. I cupped his face, brushing my thumbs over his cheeks, waiting for his eyes to open. Once he did, my heart broke even more. What show was not a powerful and brave Alpha I saw a broken man, afraid of losing his woman.

“You will not lose me. We have time to prepare a plan.” I started. With the guys" help, we'll be good. Don't be afraid, I'm not planning to have you." I insured him and sealed in with the kiss. It was slow and sweet. He didn't hesitate to kiss me back. We poured our love into the kiss, assuring one another that we would not give up on our love

The time was limited, and we tried our best to gather as much information as we could. At the end of the first day.

Ben and Calin reported about the location. They hadn't found much, only that it was abandoned which we already knew and there was nothing suspicious about the whole area. A few rogues were spotted but they didn't seem to be dangerous, they simply used the building to sleep and next day they left. Surrounding packs didn't help either, saying that they hadn't had any rogue problems in a few years. That made us wonder if this was just a trap we were supposed to fall into

Peter also produced nothing. He confirmed that Charlotte left Andrew's pack as he had said. She went back to her brother's pack and few days later she left to visit her friend in Europe. Since then, no one had seen her. Andrew left his pack with a mysterious woman, I guess his Luna and were currently staying in one of his hotels, far away from our territory. This was getting more and more confusing. Who wanted to hurt me?

The only matter left was Mr. and Mrs. Barrow. I finally knew their names, Meryl and John Barrow. Brian informed us that they had to pieces, they didn't talize within in elementary school. They are devoted workers and had a girl reputation in the pack. Nie ontrar complained about them. Their only flaw was a different opinion about humus joining the pack. This seemed harmless but Brian had noticed secret phone calls with someone. They tried to hide every time they received one

“Do you know who they might be talking with?” Ethan huffed in anger. The thought of one of his pack members conspiring against him, right under his nose, made him pissed.

“Not sure Alpha, they didn’t tell me anything.” Brian answered in a trembling voice.

No one wanted to disrespect an angry Alpha.

“Ethan, please calm down you’re scaring him. This is not helping” I pleaded with him, brushing my hand over his arm. The sparks did the job and after a few moments, he composed himself and he was able to ask calmly.

“Did you notice anything more than the phone calls?”

“Yes Alpha, I spoke with few Omegas, and they informed me that they saw them leaving the pack a few times for a whole day, and when they came back, they seemed to be satisfied.” He said and handed Ethan a few pictures he took Cansund, Brian left the office. He did the same with Colin leaving only the four of us. We stood there, waiting for him to explain what happened but we heard a knock at the door so none of us said anything. When the doors opened, none other than Mr. and Mrs. Barrow entered the office. I exchanged looks with Ben and Peter, but they were just as confused as I was. Guess we needed to wait for Ethan.

"You called us, Alpha?" Mr. Barrow asked, but his eyes were scrutinizing me. His wife's gaze sent daggers my way.

Pretending that he didn't see it, Ethan asked them the dreaded question.

"Are you so displeased with your Luna that you plan to get rid of her?" His cold voice sent shivers through my body.

Goosebumps appeared on my arms. I got a little nervous. He was in full Alpha mode. The couple gulped and exchanged nervous looks.

"N-no, Alpha." Mrs. Barrow answered, stuttering almost in a whisper. I watched their reactions, and they were nervous. Sweat started to form on their foreheads and they slightly pale

"I know you don't accept her. I know what you think about her being the Luna of this pack." Ethan continued kime questions in front of him, they weren't so brave say all the insults they had said to me. They denied every accusation of their hatred towards me. This was totally different behavior. Were they innocent or were they simply good actors

"Are you helping someone hurt my Luna?!" Ethan roared the question at them. His wife trying to get out, his eyes turned darker, his fists hit the desk making a little dent.

He was pissed. I made a move to reach him, but Ben stopped me, bringing me to his side.

"Let him do his job, we need answers

." He whispered into my ear. I nodded a little nervous, what if he killed them!

"We don't know what you're talking about, Alpha!" Mr.

Barrow cried, scared shitless. Mrs. Barrow was sobbing holding her mate's hand, clearly terrified.

"Maybe you don't care about my Luna, but you let them kill Aria, is this how we care for each other Ethan stood up and walked in front of the desk, facing the couple. His intimidating aura was radiating so strongly, even Ben and Peter were slightly trembling beside me.

The couple only shook their heads in denial and pleaded for Ethan to not hurt them.

Everything happened in the blink of an eye. The man was pinned to the wall, his body dangling in the air, Ethan wrenched his throat cutting all his arteries. Mr. Barrow ully trying to pry Ethan's hand away. His skin turned purple. He was screaming. Mrs. Barrow knelt on the Floor and started to beg her husband for help, Ethan donated the claws of his free hand and brought them to the man's chest, piercing shallowly into the flesh over his heart. Mr. Barrow screamed in pain and blood started to flow staining his shirt. I froze and brought my hands to my mouth, holding my scream of horror. This was not what I expected to see. I didn't know what to do. Help the man or let Ethan continue?

"Please Alpha, we didn't do anything against Luna." Mrs. Barrow's broken voice filled the room, catching our attention.

"Please!" she begged.

"Then what did you do?" Ethan asked through gritted teeth, not loosening his hold on the man's throat.

"Please Alpha, let him go and I'll tell you!" Mrs. Barrow answered, sobbing

Ethan waited a few seconds, deciding his next move, and finally let the man go. He fell to the floor with a loud thud, coughing and gasping for air. The blood from his wound stained the floor. Mrs. Barrow crawled to her husband and hugged him in relief. Ethan stood over them with his claws still out, waiting for answers.

"Please Alpha Simmons to let us join his pack.

Harrow a nd in a horse voice, i didn't expect that I

Ethan stood there unaffected. "And you expect me to believe that?" he scoffed.

The couple nervously asked him to call Alpha Simmons to confirm their words. Which was exactly what we did. To our surprise, he confirmed it. They had been talking about it for two weeks. Knowing that Ethan and Alpha Simmons were business rivals, they wanted to keep it secret untill

Everything was finalized. Their new home was prepared, work organized for both of them, and the last thing was asking Ethan for approval of the change, which they had planned to do tomorrow.

"I don't know what to say. I know that a simple apology will not suffice for my actions, although I'm sincerely sorry for the pain caused you, Mr. Barrow." Ethan apologized, ashamed. As an Alpha, he was supposed to protect his pack, not hurt them.

"Tunderstand Alpha, if it was my mate, I would probably do the same." As Barrow replies How I'd like to ask for Permission to leave the pack ground tonight." Hr. Harro took a steps forward and when I reached Exhun, I put my hand at his back. He shivered but didn't turn around of way anything. "Ethan, are you alright?" I whispered.

Fara iwwseconds, he was silent. Finally, he took adap breath and shaking his head he answered, "No," Without even lange my way, he walked out of the office turned to Ben for answers.

He just smiled at me sadly and engulfed me in a hug.

"Give him time, he needs to be alone right now." Suddenly we heard a sad howl from the woods. I knew it was him. I felt tears gather in my eyes. Ben noticed it also.

"It's not your fault, he'll do anything for you." He stroked my head to comfort me, bringing me to his chest. I felt awful, it was all my fault. A few tears left my eyes and !

quickly wiped them away.

"He just hurt an innocent pack member; he must feel like a shitty Alpha. Give him time." He explained and I noded. After I calmed down, we left the office, I went straight to Blake's room. He was sound asleep, holding a pillow to his chest. That made me feel a little better. I took a quick shower and putting on one of Ethan's t-shirts with shorts, crawled into bed beside Blazer. Hearing his small body to mine, he kissed his forehead and closed my

Give him time. But the problem was, we didn't have much time left. With that thought I fell asleep.

I was holding the lifeless body of Blake. A huge hole in his chest was bleeding, his heart ripped out, laying inches away. I was holding him tight to my body, screaming and trying my heart out. We were somewhere in the woods, wolves fighting around us. I heard heavy footsteps approaching me, with blurred visions Ethan, huffing in anger. His eyes were fixed on me

"it's all your fault" he roared and guttural voice.

"No!" I shook my head sobbing, holding Blake's body

"You killed him, bitch!" Ethan's voice became downright murderous. He took a predatory step toward me and I

"Mandy?" A tiny weak voice caught my attention, looking down I saw Blake, his green eyes dull, blood coming out from his mouth. I cupped his cheek and smiled at him.

"It's your fault!" he whispered before closing his eyes.

Shaking my head. I tried to wake him up but he was not moving. Sniffing. I looked up just in time to see Ethan's law plunging into my chest...

I wake up drenched in sweat, gasping for air, my hands automatically went to my chest feeling my erratic heart. : was just a nightmare.

Sund, I looked to the left. Blake was peacefully sleeping beside me with his mouth slightly open, snoring. I let out a relieved breath.

Dear God, what was that? I checked the time, it was 5 am. Climbing out the bed, I went to the kitchen for a little water. The cold liquid caressed my dry throat. I looked around the apartment, it was silent, like no one was living there. Condemned about Ethan I went to his bedroom, but it was a disaster and the bed was cold. He never came back. Not thinking for a second, I put on my oversized cardigan and went to his office

A few feet away, I saw the door slightly ajar. The dim light confirmed that someone was inside. Slowly approached the door and opened it carefully: Ethan was sitting in his chair, head resting on the chair back his eyes were closed. On the table, I saw a halfempty bottle of whiskey. The glass in his hand was empty.

Tcarefully tiptöed to him and took the glass from his hand, the movement made him snap his eyes at me.

“Hey, it’s morning and you didn’t sleep in your bed.” I cupped his cheek and he leaned into my touch, savoring the sun. He shook his head, “I know, I know,” he apologized.

Placing a kiss on his forehead, I told him to go to bed for a few hours. He obeyed. We went to his bedroom, holding each other. I helped him to undress, he looked so absent-minded. On his head hit the pillow, he fell asleep.

When I was about to leave the room, he suddenly spoke,

“Promise me you’ll never leave me” his voice sounded almost broken

“I promise. I love you, Ethan.” I answered truthfully.

With that, I left his room.

I couldn’t sleep at all. Every time I closed my eyes, the view of Blake’s lifeless body invaded my mind, so I showered and dressed myself up and went to Ethan’s office. The blood stains were still visible on the floor where Mr. Barrow had been lying. I shrugged off all the negative thoughts and lost myself in work. I checked the bills to pay, requests for admission to our pack and even the personal data of our current members. One caught my eye. No reason to leave the previous pack. All family members with unblemished opinion, high rank with no complaints. Why move so far if your future is so prominent? There must be something they were hiding. I decided to ask Ethan when he woke up.

Who are you, Neil Tyson?

I didn't know how the time flew so fast trying so hard to figure out the next step and who the mysterious Neil is, I puffed. I left all the paperwork and turned to him.

What's the matter honey?"

He sent me an irritated look his eyebrows knitted in a frown. "You haven't played with me for three days. He stated, huffing suppressed my laugh at his accusation. He sounded adorable.

"I'm sorry Blake," he apologized, "Lately we have had some issues to solve, and I simply wanted to help."

I explained but his expression didn't change. He mumbled something to himself and opened his mouth in an attempt to object, but the office door opened again, and Ben, Peter, and Brance entered.

"Where is Ethan?" Ben asked confused at not seeing his

Alpha but me

"He was up all night, so I let him sleep longer." I smiled a little, hoping he would get my message. He nodded his head and sat in the chair on the opposite side of the desk. We talked about the pack's needs and problems to solve. An hour later, Blake was irritated and bored, so I suggested we stroll over to the lake, and he agreed, smiling like a Cheshire cat. His smile was contagious, and I automatically smiled back.

I informed Ben that Ethan would discuss the more stopped us and to come along. We agreed.

Reaching the lake shore, we sat down on the grass and enjoyed the peace. Blake was running around picking up stones to throw into the lake. Brian and I were watching him, "What will you do tomorrow?" Brian's question caught me all guard. Honestly, I didn't know what to do and I told him that "I don't know who is trying to get me, we ran out of all the options, so I guess...I trailed off sighing. I honestly didn't know. "I guess I have no other option but..." I didn't finish my sentence because Blake's terrified scream resounded in the air Immediately, I jumped up and ran in the direction of his scream. Scared about his safety. I didn't pay attention to my surroundings. I was so focused that I didn't feel the little prick on my neck. Suddenly, my sight became blurry. My limbs felt like jellö, and I fell to the ground. Laying on my back, I saw a silhouette approaching from afar. Voice muffled, hands gesturing hurriedly. I felt myself being lifted

1. up. The last thing I heard before I lost consciousness was the satisfied laugh of my captor “Tell the boss we’ve got her.”

Andrew's POV

Is everything ready?" I asked my informant and he answered affirmatively

"Good, don't get yourself caught." I said and cut the call. Smiling to myself, I sat on the bed and threw my phone at the pillow, hitting something

"Hey, why did you do that?" an irking voice asked from behind me. I closed my eyes. I forgot about her. Goddess why is she still here.

"I simply haven't noticed you." I stated and walked to the bathroom to take a shower.

"You weren't so indifferent last night when you were fg me!" she yelled after I entered the shower. Rolling my eyes, I turned on the water.

She was so annoying I didn't even know why I agreed to this. Maybe being drunk has something to do with that. She wasn't even half as good as my mate.

"Ex-mate," my wolf reminded me, "You rejected her. he said sullenly. I blocked him out. I didn't want to hear his displeased whining about my plan. He disagrees with me.

Shorin, I thought about the recent that in my life.

AFL Charlie asked for permission to come, I didn't know what to do, we hadn't seen each other for two years

And I was glad about that, she was an irritant piled brain, not mention a major hurt. But when you're in need, she spreads her legs. She was that easy.

When she came to my pack, pissed that some Alpha rejected her mating proposal and banned her from stepping on his territory, I wasn't surprised. I was contemplating doing the same thing. She was constantly whining about some human girl that the Alpha was interested in, and she was livid. That was funny to watch, her tantrums and childish behavior entertained me. I didn't know how her brother could stand to deal with her. But when she told me the girl's name and described her vaguely, it definitely drew my attention. She sounded familiar, so alluring and I did my investigation

When my informant called and confirmed my suspicion, it was my turn to be livid. It was her, it was Amanda. What shocked me the most was not that she was that Alpha's second chance mate but the fact that she was Deacon Henderson's sister. That meant power. She had more power than I ever imagined. And that was what I wanted, more power. I didn't care that she has a mate, having her would give me Deacon's alliance and so much more, maybe even a position in the werewolves' council. So, I had to have her, by

Coming out of the bathroom I didn't see Charlie, eod. would deal with her when I saw Amanda. I quickly dressed and went to the affio in the hotel. I'm currently staying at to not arouse ambane's suspicions, I intended to make sure everything goes as planned

"Alpha?" I heard a frightened and almost inaudible voice behind me. Turning around, I saw the little human slave brought here with me, shaking with fear, looking down at her feet. Good, this is how they supposed to react. Fuar me Smirking. I took three long strides her way. Reaching her, I sniffed the air. More fear, I loved that smell. She was petrified. "Yes?" I asked, putting a loose strand of hair over her ear. She's beautiful, almost as gorgeous as Amanda.

"Emaman is asking for you, sir he said it's important." She stuttered. I smiled and tilted her head up.

her eyes still not meeting mine. I brushed my thumb over her full lips and my dk got hard remembering those lips around my hard ck sucking it, her eyes releasing big tears. Oh, I want that again.

Not now, later I scolded myself and cleared my throat.

"Send him to my office, sweetheart." I answered while she nodded her pretty little head and almost ran away, I laughed at that

“Alpha, everything is done, we’re only waiting for your that annoying bitch.

"Hi handsome, mind if I join you?" Charlie said in her overly sweet voice and took the opposite chair, not waiting for my response. I smiled at her, keeping my play in action.

"Sure. what would you like to drink babe?" I asked and she didn't expect that.

"But i thought that you would let me teach her a lesson for what she did to me?" she whisper-yelled, offended.

"No, as I said, I need her unharmed. You won't touch her." I said and continued to eat. She was about to say something, but the waitress carne with her order, and she angrily began to eat in silence,

"I got the girl and a little boy as a bonus." I explained and her smile beamed. She didn't like the kid and was always trying to get rid of him. I shook my head in disagreement.

"No sweetie, you are out of this, I'll deal with them inlammed my Beta that the mission was a total success. And of course, I had a little fun with my toy. After the meal shared with Charlie, she checked out from the hotel and disappeared without a word. I guess she got pissed for not being involved in the rest of my plan. Stupid bitch couldn't see that it was better for her, if at any point she was connected with the kidnapping, she's doomed. Guess she's not smart enough. I was in my car driving to the location Amanda was being kept. My lovely slave accompanying me.

When I parked the car at the entrance of the building a few rogues came outside to greet me and take the luggage from the trunk, shamelessly eye fg my slave. I growled at them and threatened them to not touch her. They quickly nodded their heads and went to take the suitcases out.

Once I stepped into the house, I headed upstairs to see my Amanda. Reaching the door of her room I heard a muffled screams and a man's moans, Pissed, I quickened my steps and kicked the door, the view I saw made me enraged.

"L..... wanted to teach her a lesson." she stuttered, and I slapped her ugly face, making her fall to the floor with a pained scream.

"Now I'll teach you a lesson," I said and dragged her out of the room by her hair, she screamed to let her go but I was not going to leave her without punishment. When we descended the stairs. I saw my slave and ordered her to take care of Amanda, whatever she needs must be provided. She hurriedly nodded and ran upstairs. When me and Charlie hit the ground floor, I saw a few rogues discussing security measures. When they saw us, they immediately stopped. I halt my steps in front of them, Charlie sobbing, begging me to let her go.

"Who help her to torture Amanda?" I ordered them to speak. They were terrified but gave me the answer.

"Sean and David." said the one on my left.

"Is something wrong Bass" he asked nervously.

Tstopped inches away and looked into his eyes. He was scared, terrified actually.c* my head right, I asked him a question in a cold voice.

"Did you touch her?"

He gulped and hung his head low in defeat. "Timni sorry."

He whispered but it was futile to apologize. I elongated my claws and plunged them into his chest, ripping his heart out.

He fell onto the tiles, bleeding out, his eyes wide open. I threw the heart I clenched in my hand into the sink and went out, ordering the rogues that were standing nearby to clean it up. Charlotte was not around, I guessed they took her somewhere else to "k.

Hurriedly I ascended the stairs to Amanda's room just to see her sleeping, hugging a little boy's body tightly to her chest. Her back showed full display, scars, fresh cuts, and where Wut' bumped into her back. I was furious. I took the car out of the bathroom with a wet towel, and she

*Tell me everything I demanded.

"She was whipped yesterday, and today also, she has three branding marks, on her hips and back, few cuts on her thighs, stomach and chest and..." she trailed off but I already knew, "...and was raped, but the boy is fine." She finished her report. Breathing heavily, I ordered her to stay the night with Amanda and help her with her injuries. She simply nodded her head, went to Amanda and put the towel at her back, making her hiss and hold the boy even tighter. I walked out of the room and headed to mine.

Warning

The next morning. I found Charlie in the living room bruised, blood covering her thighs, laying naked on the couch unconscious while a man pounded into her mercilessly, chasing his release. Once he did, I told him to let her go and put her into the empty room right next to mine. I hoped this would teach her to never fk with me again. She disobeyed my orders, it's something even my Beta knows to never do. Not feeling any remorse for my actions, I entered the kitchen and poured myself a cup of coffee.

"End of scene

Preparing a healthy meal for Amanda and the kid, I love!

I thought about my strategy. I had to gain her trust in order for me to gain the power. If it meant to act all lovey-dovey, so be it. After putting away all the meals I prepared for her. I went upstairs and entered her room.

When I opened the door, Amanda was limping to the bed with the girl's help. The boy was still sleeping in bed, When they noticed me, they froze in panic. I had to move slowly. I put the tray on the table and turned to them. They were still standing in the same spot.

"I'm not going to hurt you," I said and gestured for the tray. "I made breakfast for you, you need to eat, this will help you to heal."

She looked at me, contemplating what to do. Seconds later she nodded and without a word she limped to the table and carefully sat down. I dismissed the girl and took the chair opposite Amanda. Although she was bruised and injured, she was so beautiful, even more gorgeous after the past five years. She looked at me warily. I sighed and explained everything

"I'm sorry for what you had to endure, as you saw yesterday, I punished them all, especially Charlie, she will not hurt you again." She reached for the glass of water and took a few sips. Clearing her throat, she asked one question.

"Why"

I looked at her for a moment before answering, carefully picking my words.

Ve

"I made a huge mistake the safe. My father always told me to pick a strong she-wolf Luna, to not repeat his mistakes." I paused and faked a face to make my story believable, "My mother died when I was little, she was defenseless. I believed him, that's why I rejected you. Believe me, saying all those cruel words to you broke my heart that day." I sighed again and shook my head in shame. She was silently listening

"I know that I can't turn back the time, but I can make it all up to you now." I reached for her hand, but she hid them under the table. Stupid bitch.

"All I want is a chance to try again, please." I begged her, so not my style. It had to work. She turned her head and looked off in the distance,

"If it's a sincere apology you're too late, I forgot about that night already, as for the recent pandured..." she paused and looked at me with resentful eyes. "I will never forgive you." She spat. I had to control myself to not slap her.

She was not going to make it easy for me

"So, stop whatever you're doing and let us go. I will never accept you." she added, her gaze sending daggers at me. I sighed and left the room. Closing the door, I sent her apologetic smile and went to my room to come up with a plan.

I didn't go back to her room the entire day. I let her heal

She was furious, on the verge of shifting, her body shaking. She let out a loud and angry scream and collapsed on the floor crying. I just sat in my chair watching: Not so

"Why?" she asked between her sobs, lifting her head up and showing her broken face. I stood up and walked to her, hands in my pockets. I stopped in front of her and crouched down, scanning her body with my cold gaze. When I stopped at her face, I answered her question,

"I told you that you're not involved anymore, I also told you to not fg touch her, but you had to disobey. This is the consequences of your stupid actions." I said and clicked

After my third glass of bourbon, I decided to finally call my informant. Taking the phone out of my pocket, I dialed his number. No one answered. I tried again, still nothing.

I tried four times but every time there was no answer.

He was probably in Ethan's office right now gaining more information for me.

Waiting another hour, I tried again, still no answer, but this time it didn't ring either. The phone must have been turned off or had no signal. I started to think something might be wrong. Just when I was about to call again, a knock on my door stopped me. I allowed the person to enter my room and I saw one of the rogues nervously scratching the back of his neck. I rolled my eyes at him. What now, did Charlie do something stupid again? But the information he gave me was not about Charlie, fk.

"They found out about Neil."
