Chapter 121 co-habitation 1

"I'm fine," Mu ru quickly made another statement. Her face instantly returned to its usual indifference and estrangement. The little woman's playfulness and gentleness disappeared in an instant.

Dongfang Yu's face darkened. D * MN It, why was she putting on this deadpan expression again? Why was he making her so uncomfortable?

"Are you coming over or should I?" Dongfang Yu's voice had already sounded dangerous.

Mu Ru was stunned when she heard his voice. Her eyes stared at him vigilantly, but she tried her best to appear natural and relaxed as she said, "No, actually, I'm a little nauseous and want to throw up. I..."

"Do I make you so uncomfortable?" Dongfang Yu's expression immediately turned cold and dark when he heard Mu Ru's words. "You feel nauseous when you see me and want to throw up?"

"It's not like that." Mu Ru quickly waved her hand and explained, "actually, I'm not feeling well..."

"You mean I didn't make you feel comfortable the last time?" Dongfang Yu did not have the patience to listen to mu ru finish her sentence. Hence, he quickly reached out and grabbed mu Ru's arm, pulling her into his embrace A deep and cold voice sounded above her head, "then I'll make you comfortable now!"

Mu Ru struggled hard to break free from his embrace, but Dongfang Yu's body squeezed over and trapped her petite body between his chest and the car door. More than half of his strength was pressed against her body A thick and ambiguous aura emanated from the surroundings.

Mu Ru's heart instantly pounded like a little rabbit that had rushed into her, and her entire body couldn't help but tremble. Her voice trembled as it came out of her mouth, "Dongfang Yu, I'm your sister-in-law. You can't treat me like this. What we're doing is incest..."

"It's already been incestuous once. What's the harm in doing it again?" Dongfang Yu didn't let go of her. Instead, he tightened his arms and trapped her in his arms.

"It was different that time," Mu ru quickly explained. Seeing his thin lips pressing down on her, she covered his mouth in panic Then, she hurriedly said, "Dongfang Yu, if you dare to do it again, I'll call for help. Don't forget that we're on the road. There are cars passing by outside at any time."

"Hehehe, do you think I'm afraid?" Dongfang Yu shrugged as if he wasn't threatened at all. His eyes were full of smiles He said softly, "If you want to shout, then shout. Let's see if others find out that you're the one who's embarrassed or I'm the one who's embarrassed. After all, I'm just a figurehead. It doesn't matter if I add another sentence, but you..."

"Then I'll tell Xi Muxue!" Mu Ru carried Xi muxue out in a panic and then quickly reminded him, "Don't forget that Xi Muxue is already pregnant. She's pregnant with your child..."

“Do you think I care about her very much?” Dongfang Yu’s voice was full of disdain as he said coldly, “don’t even talk about telling her. So what if you let her see it? You know very well who’s the one who suffered in the end. It’s definitely not me!”

When Mu ru heard this, she even felt like dying. Xi Muxue, that woman, had always bullied the weak and feared the strong. Even if she knew about her and Dongfang Yu, she would definitely not dare to do anything to Dongfang Yu And she would definitely make her suffer terribly behind her back.

“Then I’ll go back and tell Dongfang Mo!” Mu Ru could not think of anyone else in her panic, so she blurted it out. After she said that, she was stunned. So when she was in danger, she could actually think of him.

Chapter 122 co-existence in a car 2

Dongfang Yu was stunned when he heard Xi Muru’s words. The hand that was originally controlling her finally slowly loosened, and a faint smile appeared at the corner of his mouth He said teasingly, “If you tell big brother, then tell him. I told him that you couldn’t resist loneliness and seduced me.”

Mu Ru was so angry when she heard his words that she almost spat out a mouthful of blood. She had seen shameless people before, but she had never seen such shameless people. She seduced him How could he say it?

“SHAMELESS!” Mu Ru’s mouth trembled for a long time before she managed to squeeze out these two words from between her teeth. She had seen shameless people before, but she had never seen such shameless people.

“shameless?” Dongfang Yu was in a great mood when he heard this. His face once again moved closer to her little face His teasing voice was obviously filled with ridicule. “It’s not like you don’t know that I’ve always been shameless. Moreover, that night on that yacht, I was even extremely shameless! Do you want to experience how shameless I was to you again?”

When Mu ru heard this, she felt like dying. She used both her hands to push him away, and her voice lowered again. She looked at him and begged, “Dongfang Yu, I beg you, please let me go, okay? You have so many beautiful wives and women, why do you have to...”

“Are you jealous?” Dongfang Yu quickly cut off mu RU’s words. The corners of his mouth curled up into a smile. “Are you jealous of my beautiful wives and women?”

Mu Ru was slightly stunned when she heard Dongfang Yu’s words. Then, she was completely rendered speechless by him. So, she hurriedly said, “I’m not jealous. You can follow whoever you want with them. I just...”

“Why aren’t you jealous?” Dongfang Yu obviously did not want to hear her continue, so he quickly cut her off before she could finish.

Mu Ru was completely stunned when she heard Dongfang Yu’s words. She looked at Dongfang Yu with a strange gaze After a while, she said, “Dongfang Yu, you’re not sick, right? Why would I be jealous if you’re with another woman? I’m not your wife. Why would I be jealous?”

“You mean — ” Dongfang Yu looked at her with a meaningful gaze and said slowly, “if you were my wife, you’d be jealous, right? ”

Mu Ru felt bored after listening to his words, so she simply didn’t continue to dwell on this question with him. She shouted coldly, “Do you want to let me go? ”

“What if I don’t? ” Dongfang Yu was obviously not threatened and seemed to be wasting time with her.

“You don’t want to let me go? ” Mu Ru was stunned again. Then, she clenched her hands into fists and mustered up her courage to say, “If you don’t want to let me go, then so be it. At worst, I’ll just run to the middle of the road and let a car hit me to death. Anyway, living is so tiring. It’s fine if I marry a ghost-like husband, but I’ll still be bullied by my brother-in-law... “. “...”. “...”

Dongfang Yu did not wait for mu ru to finish speaking and immediately let go of her. Then, he quickly moved to the side and said indifferently to her, “big brother is indeed lucky to marry you. He’s already like that, yet you’re still keeping your virginity for him. ”

Mu Ru was stunned when she heard this. When she turned her head, Dongfang Yu had already pushed open the car door and got out of the car. She could not help but feel a wave of sadness and sadness in her heart.

She wanted to keep her virginity for Dongfang Mo, but she did not have to. She lost her virginity on her wedding night. Then, she was kidnapped by Nangong Xun the last time. After she was drugged, she had sex with Dongfang Yu again.

Dongfang Mo just did not know about these things. If he knew, he would definitely not think that marrying her was a blessing. He would probably think that she was a jinx just like her father, Xi Yuancheng, right?

Chapter 123. A pregnant woman whose mother relied on her child

A few minutes after Dongfang Yu alighted from the car, the oil was delivered. As for who delivered the oil, Mu Ru did not know because she did not look out of the window.

Very soon, Dongfang Yu got into the driver’s seat once again and started the car to drive towards Dharma Temple. This time, it was very smooth. About fifteen minutes later, the car smoothly drove into Dharma Temple.

Dongfang Mei and Xi Muxue had been waiting for a long time. Seeing that they had just arrived, Xi Muxue’s face was full of suspicion. Dongfang Yu had just alighted from the car when he ran to his side and asked a little unhappily, “Yu, why are you guys so slow? There doesn’t seem to be any traffic jam on the road? ”

“there was indeed no traffic jam on the road, ” Dongfang Yu’s expression and voice were very calm. He looked at aunt Gu and said, “but big brother’s car probably hasn’t driven for a long time. Uncle Liu forgot to fill up the car yesterday, so the car ran out of gas. I took a taxi to the gas station to buy gas, so I was delayed for a while. ”

Aunt Gu heard Dongfang Yu's explanation. She immediately nodded and said, "MMM MMM, this car, ah Mo, really rarely drives. Because this car hasn't been modified, his wheelchair can't fit. Uncle Liu accompanied ah Mo back very late last night, so he didn't have time to fill up the CAR."

Xi Muxue heard Dongfang Yu and Dongfang Mei say this, so she didn't pursue the matter any further. Hence, the Group of people held incense in their hands and started walking towards the Dharma temple halfway up the mountain.

Dharma Temple was halfway up the mountain, and there were stairs all the way up. Xi Muxue was a pregnant woman, and she had only taken a few steps when she cried out that she was tired. Then, she panted heavily, looking very weak. In fact, she wanted Dongfang Yu to support her.

Of course, at this time, Dongfang Yu should have shown his husband's concern and consideration. It was only right for him to support Xi Muxue, but Dongfang Yu was a born bad person. On the way up the mountain, he met many beautiful women. Many beautiful women were flirting with him. He was so engrossed in looking at the beautiful women that he had completely forgotten that he had a pregnant wife.

Xi Muxue was finally unhappy, so she could not help but shout at the back of the man who had already walked a few meters in front of her, "Dongfang Yu, I can't walk anymore!"

Dongfang Yu only stopped when he heard Xi Muxue's shout and turned around. When he saw her like that, he frowned and said, "alright, if you can't walk, then don't go up. Anyway, the mistress of our Dongfang family is Mu Ru. She can just go up and petition. It doesn't matter whether you go or not."

Xi Muxue was so angry that she stomped her feet. She wanted to throw a Tantrum at Dongfang Yu, but Dongfang Yu had already continued walking forward, completely ignoring her.

Xi Muxue's face was red with anger. She turned her head and saw mu ru right behind her, so she could not help but shout, "Xi Muru, come and help me up. I can't walk anymore!"

Mu Ru was stunned when she heard this. She frowned and said, "Second Madam, can't you just let second young master help you up? Isn't he in front?"

"Xi Muru, don't forget that I'm pregnant with the Dongfang family's child now. Big Brother promised to let you take care of me. Now that I need to be taken care of, you're still refusing?" Xi muxue vented all her anger on Mu Ru. "If I fall or something, can you bear this responsibility?"

Mu Ru was both angry and amused when she heard her words. Xi Muxue could not find a place to vent her anger, so she turned to her again, just like in the Xi family before.

If Xi Muxue had told her properly, she would have just helped her up. However, Xi Muxue just had to shout and shout. There were many pedestrians passing by, so when they heard Xi Muxue's shout.. Everyone could not help but look at the two of them. How could she possibly go over?

Even if she was indeed responsible for taking care of her in one inch ink city, this was no longer one inch ink city, was it?

Chapter 124: I can't walk anymore

Hence, she said plainly, "I'm sorry, Second Madam, I can't walk anymore either. This Dharma temple is so high up on the mountainside. Why don't I accompany you to rest here for a while? Let Aunt Gu and second young master go up and burn incense to pray for blessings. We'll wait for them here. What do you think?"

Xi Muxue was stunned when she heard Mu Ru's words. Then, she glared at her fiercely. She yelled angrily, "you have to rest here alone. Today, you came to Dharma temple mainly to pray for the child in my belly. If I don't go up, how am I supposed to pray for blessings?"

Xi Muxue continued to walk up as she cursed. Perhaps it was because she was in a hurry to go up to look for Dongfang Yu, so her footsteps were actually a little faster now, and it was in direct proportion to her inability to walk just now.

Mu Ru could not help but laugh behind her. It seemed like even if she married, it was still better than staying in the Xi family. If she was still in the Xi family, she could not resist whatever Xi Muxue asked her to do.

This was because if she resisted, she would go back and complain to Xi Yuancheng, saying that she had bullied her again. Xi Yuancheng would always believe Xi Muxue's words and would never listen to her explanation.

Xi Muxue walked up, so she naturally followed very quickly. Even though Dharma temple was a little high, the steps were quite good, so it was not difficult to walk.

When Mu Ru walked into Dharma temple, Aunt Gu, Dongfang Yu, and Xi Muxue were already waiting for her in the Temple Hall. Seeing that she had arrived, Dongfang Yu handed her the three incense sticks in his hand, gesturing for her to kneel on the Futon in front of her.

Mu Ru admitted that there was a hierarchy in the temple. When ordinary citizens came to offer incense and pray, they could only kneel outside the temple hall. When the Dongfang family came, they could enter the temple hall, and there was even a brand new futon waiting for them. From this, it could be seen that the Dongfang family had donated a lot of money to this temple.

Perhaps Mu Ru had never been to such a sacred place before, so she always felt that the smell of this place was not good. Especially the fragrance that lingered in the air, she did not want to stay a second longer.

Therefore, she took the three incense sticks and quickly knelt down on the FUTON. She did not know how to offer incense and pray for blessings, just like the ancient costume dramas that she had seen on television. She kowtowed three times and handed the incense to the monk beside her before quickly walking out of the temple hall.

She only realized that Aunt Gu, Dongfang Yu, and Xi Muxue had yet to come out after she walked out of the hall. It was probably because the process of offering incense and blessing was not as simple as she had imagined.

She thought about it and decided to forget it. Anyway, she had already run out, because she really could not stand the smell of smoke inside. It was too strong, so much so that her eyes and nose could not stand it, and tears rolled down her cheeks.

She stood outside the door for a while, but Dongfang Yu and the others had not come out yet. She did not know what they were up to. Anyway, she was not on the same team as them, so she did not feel uncomfortable walking together with them, so she simply walked down the mountain. It was the same when she thought about waiting for them by the car below.

The three cars of the Dongfang family parked in the parking lot were particularly eye-catching. She went to the car and leaned against the door to wait for the three people. She did not expect to attract the attention of many people. Everyone looked at her with disdain and ridicule.

She was slightly stunned before she realized that she was leaning against the car of a Rolls-Royce. Everyone naturally thought that she was someone who had never eaten pork before and had never seen a pig run. Obviously, they thought that her actions were undoubtedly money-worshipping.

Chapter 125, heavenly human realm

Mu Ru was embarrassed by being looked at, so she looked at the road sign not far away. There seemed to be an Arrow pointing at the place in heavenly human realm. She only thought that this name sounded very nice, so she thought that she might as well go to heavenly human realm to take a look.

With this thought, she turned around and walked towards heavenly human realm. After about ten minutes, she finally arrived at the so-called heavenly human realm, but what she saw greatly disappointed her.

Because this so-called heavenly human realm was actually on a slope, on a green grassland, planted with red plants according to the strokes of the words 'heavenly human realm'. Standing at the foot of the mountain, looking from afar.. It was heavenly human realm.

Alright, this was the same effect as the map of China on the opposite slope that was planted with plants. It was a feast for the eyes, but it did not feel good to the touch.

Mu Ru came down from heavenly human realm absent-mindedly and found that the road sign was pointing to a place called the desert plant area. She was wondering if she should go to the desert plant area to take a look when her phone rang.

Of course, it was a call from Dongfang Yu. He asked where she was and told her to hurry back to the car. He said that he had finished burning incense and praying and was going home.

Mu Ru immediately gave up on the idea of going to the desert plant area. She quickly turned around and walked back to the car. Only then did she realize that Dongfang Yu, Dongfang Mei, and Xi Muxue were already standing by the car waiting for her. Furthermore, Xi Muxue was carrying a cloth bag in her hand. She did not know what it was.

When Aunt Gu saw that she had returned, she said with a slightly unhappy expression, "Mu Ru, what's wrong with you? You didn't even finish burning incense and praying. Why did you leave? You didn't even draw the lot. Ah Mo originally wanted you to help him draw a lot?"

When mu ru heard Dongfang Mei's words, she realized that she had been too careless with the incense and praying for blessings. She reckoned that she had only burned the incense. As for the praying and praying for blessings and drawing lots, they had all been skipped because she had run out of the palace hall.

"I couldn't get used to the fragrance inside," Mu ru said truthfully. She looked at Dongfang Mei and said apologetically, "I'm sorry, aunt Gu. The cigarette smoke made my eyes tear up. I really couldn't stand it, so I ran out."

"You couldn't get used to the smell?" Aunt Gu's expression shifted slightly, and then she glanced at Mu Xue without a trace. She said indifferently, "Oh, it's fine. It's probably because you rarely come to places like the temple since you were young. Next time you come, you can't just run away."

"Okay, I got it," Mu ru quickly replied. She thought to herself, let's talk about the next time. If there was really a next time when she came to the Dharma Temple to offer incense, she might as well just pretend to be sick and sleep at home. Who would come to this place to get smoked for no reason?

It was still Dongfang Yu who helped her drive back, but the journey back was very smooth. The car did not break down, so the journey was smooth and unimpeded back to the Dongfang family's one inch Mo city.

Mu Ru went to the temple and was fine, but Xi muxue complained of dizziness when she returned to one inch Mo city. Dongfang Mei said that it might be because the Dharma temple was halfway up the mountain, and Xi muxue caught a cold from the mountain wind.

Mu Ru did not know why Xi Muxue felt a little dizzy. She only thought that she might be a pregnant woman who caught a cold from the wind, so she seriously flipped through a book. In the end, it turned out that it was best for a pregnant woman to not take medicine for a small cold. She was afraid that it would affect the fetus in her stomach.

Chapter 126: Prenatal Medicine

Mu Ru told Xi muxue about the results of the book she had read, but Xi muxue rolled her eyes at her. She then threw the cloth bag that she had taken back from the temple to her and said, "go boil this for me to drink. The eminent monk said that this is for prenatal medicine."

Mu Ru frowned when she heard Xi Muxue's words. Then, she pointed at the contents of the book and said to her, "the book says that if there's nothing else, don't take prenatal medicine. The child in your stomach is fine, why would you take prenatal medicine?"

"Are you bored?" Xi Muxue leaned on the Sofa because she was dizzy. She looked at Mu ru very unhappily. "Does the eminent monk know more or do you know more?" Aunt Gu said that in the past, ah Yu's mother was pregnant with the two brothers. Even if she took the fertility pills from the eminent monk, I still want to take them. I'll try to have twins in one go. We're both twins anyway, so the chances of having twins are very high."

When Mu ru heard Xi muxue's words, she did not say anything else. Since Xi Muxue insisted on taking them, and since aunt Gu also insisted for her to take them, what else could she say. Moreover, she was a 19-year-old girl and had never been pregnant before. She knew nothing about these things, so she could not just negate the words of the eminent monk and aunt Gu based on what she read in the books, right?

When she thought about how she had never been pregnant before, she did not know why, but she felt nauseous again, as if she was going to throw up. She instinctively thought that this cloth bag was too smelly, so she instinctively took it away a little.

The things in this cloth bag were indeed smelly. She did not know what kind of plants they were. On the way to boil the water, Mu Ru could not stand it anymore, and she even ran to the kitchen's sink to throw up.

"First Young Madam, what's wrong?" Mother Liu saw that she was vomiting blood, so she could not help but ask her with concern.

She shook her head and said with a slightly Pale face, "I don't know. I think I caught a little cold at the temple today. Then, I brewed this medicine for second young Madam, and it's too smelly. I can't get used to it. I feel like throwing up just by smelling it."

Mother Liu's nose twitched and she looked at Mu Ru. "The smell of the medicine is a little unpleasant, but it's not as smelly as you said. It's probably because your sense of taste is too sensitive."

Mu Ru nodded. Because she had vomited twice and her stomach felt uncomfortable, she did not say anything more to mother Liu. She just continued to watch over the medicine and brewed it for more than two hours according to Xi Muxue's instructions.

Finally, when she finished brewing the medicine, Xi Muxue was no longer on the sofa. Instead, she went upstairs. She frowned slightly, then used a tray to bring the medicine up for her.

She pushed open Xi Muxue's room door and hesitated for a moment before walking in. Only then did she realize that Xi Muxue's room was similar to her room's layout. The only difference was that Xi Muxue's room was decorated in red and pink. It looked cheerful.

Her Room was decorated in black, white, and gray. It looked cold and stiff, typical of a man's room. Therefore, every time she walked in, she would only feel an incomparable chill, unlike Xi Muxue's room, which gave people a warm feeling.

"The medicine has been brewed. I looked at the time. It's been a full two hours," Mu ru placed the tray with the medicine on the bedside table. She looked at Xi Muxue who was lying on the bed and said plainly.

"Oh, put it there." Xi Muxue opened her eyes to take a look. Then, with a bitter face, she muttered, "I'm not feeling well now. I'll drink it after it cools down."

Chapter 127 Xi Muxue had a miscarriage

That afternoon, Xi Muxue did not come down from upstairs. Mu Ru enjoyed the peace and quiet. There was nothing else to do in one inch ink city, so she secretly took out her paintbrush and paper. She found a remote corner in one inch ink city and began to draw.

Ever since she was caught by Dongfang Mo in her room last time, she had not dared to draw for a long time. Dongfang Jun was the one who told her about this remote corner because very few people came to this corner. Moreover, there was a shed built in this corner. Although it was simple and crude, it could at least shelter her from the wind and rain.

That was indeed the case. Moreover, this place was very quiet and no one would disturb her. Whenever Mu Ru was free, she would come here to draw, and at the same time, Dongfang Mo would not notice her.

Today, because it was getting late, she could not draw a large-scale painting. Therefore, she sketched on the spot. That was to choose a scenic spot in her own reality, and then she would draw what she could see on paper.

She sketched for about two to three hours, and the light gradually dimmed. It should be evening. Just as she was about to put away her paintbrush and prepare to go back, she vaguely heard a min calling her, "first young Madam, First Young Madam!"

"What is it?" She quickly replied, and then quickly put away her paintbrush and paintbrush. At the same time, she replied, "I'm here."

"First Young Madam, it's not good!" A Min ran over, panting, and looked at her. She was out of breath as she said, "Second Young Madam had a miscarriage. I don't know where second young master has gone. First Young Master and aunt Gu are scared out of their wits. They want you to hurry over. The Dongfang Family's family doctor has rushed over. Second Young Master is back..."

A Min rambled on and on, but mu ru did not really hear much. The only thought in her mind was that Xi Muxue had a miscarriage. Dongfang Mo and Dongfang Mei wanted her to hurry over.

A min quickly stuffed her paintbrush into a min's hands and then quickly ran towards Mo Garden. As for why she had to run and what use it would have, she did not have any more time to think about it.

When she ran into Mo Garden's main hall, she immediately saw that Xi Muxue had already been moved into the main hall. At this moment, she was lying on the Sofa, and there was a white cloth under her body. However, most of the white cloth was stained with blood.

Mu Ru was completely stunned. Before she could react, she heard an old, hoarse, and cold voice. "Xi Muru, tell me, why did you do this?"

Mu Ru was shocked by this rebuke. She turned her head to look at Dongfang Mo, who was still wearing a very low cap and looking down on his face. Then, she looked at Dongfang Yingwu and Dongfang Mei's questioning eyes before she finally reacted.

"I didn't do anything," Mu ru defended herself almost instinctively. "I only went to the temple with them today to offer incense. After I came back, I only helped her brew the medicine according to Second Young Madam's instructions. In the afternoon, i..."

"What did you add to the medicine?" Dongfang Mo's old and hoarse voice quickly cut off Mu Ru's words. He did not want to hear her continue to speak.

"I didn't add anything?" Mu Ru felt that it was strange when she heard this. Then, she looked at the people around her and said instinctively, "I took the cloth bag from Mu Xue and went to the kitchen to brew the medicine. At that time, mother Liu was also in the kitchen..."

Chapter 128: Who Gave Xi Muxue the medicine

“has mother Liu been in the kitchen the whole time?” Dongfang Mo coldly cut off Mu Ru’s words once again.

“I haven’t been there the whole time,” mother Liu stood far away and looked at Mu ru before answering truthfully, “I’ve only been in the small kitchen cooking rice and making soup. From time to time, I have to go to the big kitchen to help the chef wash the vegetables or something.”

When mother Liu finished speaking, she looked at Mu Ru, meaning, “I’m sorry, first young Madam. Although I know you need a witness, I can’t lie, right? Besides, the chef over there knows that I went to the big kitchen to help wash the vegetables or something.” This could not be lied to.

Mu Ru knew that mother Liu was telling the truth, but she really did not add anything to Xi Muxue’s medicine. This could be seen by the heavens, but the heavens could not open their mouth to testify for her.

“Liu Hao, what did second young madam add to the medicine?” When Aunt Gu saw that Xi Muru did not speak, she immediately turned to look at the family doctor, Liu Hao, who was giving Xi Muxue an IV drip.

“there’s job’s tears, Hawthorn, Ginseng.” Liu Hao looked at the medicine residue and frowned, then added, “the rest are the medicine from the eminent monk’s prescription.”

“anyone with a little common sense knows that Hawthorn, Ginseng, and Coix seed are used to promote blood circulation and remove blood stasis. It is forbidden for pregnant women,” Dongfang Yingwu, who had been standing by the side, said faintly. He frowned and looked at mu ru with a puzzled gaze “First Young Madam, what do you mean by adding these to second young Madam’s medicine?”

“I didn’t add anything.” Mu Ru still insisted on her words. She looked at Dongfang Mo and said firmly, “and why did I add something to her medicine?”

“You didn’t add anything. Could it be that mother Liu added it?” Dongfang Mei was obviously very unhappy with Mu Ru’s words, so she snorted coldly and said, “there were only the two of you in the kitchen. Could it be that those things flew in by themselves?”

“You can say whatever you want. In any case, I didn’t add anything, so I didn’t add anything.” Mu Ru flew into a rage. The rebellious factor hidden deep in her heart suddenly came out She couldn’t help but raise her voice and say, “all of you are just guessing. What evidence do you have to prove that I added those things to her medicine To convict someone, you must first have sufficient evidence. Do you have any evidence “Who saw me put something into that medicine?”

Everyone was stunned when they heard Mu Ru’s words. Then, they turned to look at Nanny Liu who was not far away. It was obvious that when Mu Ru was brewing medicine for Xi Muxue, only nanny Liu had gone in.

Nanny Liu shook her head and quickly said, “even though I didn’t stay in the kitchen the whole time, when I was inside, first madam didn’t add anything into the medicine. I can guarantee that.”

“Just because no one saw it doesn’t mean you didn’t do it!” Dongfang Mei’s voice was not loud, but it was very forceful. She said calmly, “Mu Ru, you’ve been taking care of Mu Xue all this time, and you’ve read a lot of pregnant women’s books. I’m sure you know very well what ingredients pregnant women eat can cause miscarriage...”

“The second young Madam’s bleeding can’t be stopped. I think we should send her to the hospital immediately,” the family doctor, Liu Hao, shouted from the side, interrupting Dongfang Mei’s words at the same time.

“Then send second young Madam to the hospital as soon as possible.” Dongfang Mo glanced at Xi Muxue who was lying on the SOFA, then glared at Xi Muru who was standing at the side. Then, he said in a deep and hoarse voice to the security guard outside the door, “lock first young madam up in the basement and let her reflect on her vicious behavior. When she honestly tells us about her crimes, when she will be released!”

Chapter 129 cold ice that can not be warmed

Mu Ru ru was dragged away by two security guards. When the security guards pulled her away, she kept shouting,

“Dongfang Mo, I didn’t add anything to that medicine!”

“Dongfang Mo, you have to believe me!”

“Dongfang Mo, I really didn’t add anything!”

“Dongfang Mo, you can’t accuse me without any evidence...”

Unfortunately, her loud shouts were useless because Dongfang Mo did not stop the security guards. She was still dragged to the basement of a building nearby.

The so-called basement of the Dongfang family was actually a cellar-like place. To be more precise, it was the Dongfang family’s wine cellar. Below it were all the Dongfang family’s aged wine.

Because of the need to put the wine in, there was always a pile of ice underneath. Mu Ru was pushed in by two security guards. With a clang, the door was locked from the outside, and she sank into the ice cellar.

It was so cold. She had not been wearing much clothes to begin with, and now that she had entered such a cold and gloomy place, she was so cold that she shivered. She reached out her hands and groped in the darkness. With great difficulty, she found a single-seater Sofa that looked like a chair. She curled up on the single-seater Sofa and slowly closed her eyes in the darkness.

It was so tiring. She had never felt so tired before. Not just physically, but also mentally!

Dongfang Mo, the husband that God had given her, she had treated him with all her heart. She had never even looked down on him, and she had always thought of him. Even when he humiliated her, she had endured his bitchy heart.

She had always thought that human hearts were made of flesh. As long as you treated him well, over time, he would slowly treat you better.

Back in the Xi family, mother Wang had often told her, “Mu Ru, as time goes by, people will naturally develop feelings for each other. Even a rock will eventually warm up. “.

However, today, she finally understood that Dongfang Mo was not a rock, but a thousand-year-old piece of ice. She only had the ability to warm up a rock, but she did not have the ability to warm up ice.

Late at night, in a special room in the basement of Mo Garden, a man in a peaked cap sat in a wheelchair. Behind him stood a middle-aged man.

“How is Xi Muxue’s woman doing now?” A deep and hoarse voice rang out, but she did not turn her head.

“Liu Hao called. He said that it was fortunate that he was sent to the hospital in time. It was not easy for him to save his life, but one of his ovaries was cut off. It will probably be very difficult for him to have another child in this lifetime,” Uncle Liu told the truth behind him.

“has everything been investigated? What exactly happened to her miscarriage today?” Dongfang Mo’s voice was still cold and calm. There was no emotion in it.

“I’ve investigated everything. The things in the medicine must have been added by Xi Muxue herself,” Uncle Liu said truthfully “However, Xi Muxue didn’t expect that the few fragrances she held in her hand when she offered incense today were musk, so the dual effects of the medicine were too strong, resulting in her miscarriage causing massive bleeding...”

“I understand,” Dongfang Mo cut off uncle Liu’s words coldly He scoffed coldly and said, “looks like Xi Muxue’s pregnancy has stimulated some people. They’re worried that the Dongfang family will have an heir to give birth, so they can’t wait any longer. Although their methods are brilliant, they’ve also revealed their Fox tails.”

Chapter 130 the warmth of a dream

Mu Ru lay in the cellar of the basement. A cold aura assaulted her. She only felt extremely cold, as if the temperature on her body was gradually disappearing, as if it was going to freeze her into a popsicle.

Cold, so cold. Because it was too cold, she did not sleep honestly. In her daze, she seemed to hear some sounds, but it was also as if there were footsteps. However, the cellar was dark. Not only did she close her eyes, even if she opened them.. In fact, she could not see anything.

Perhaps it was an illusion, or perhaps it was a dream. She did not open her eyes. Then, the footsteps seemed to have disappeared again, and there seemed to be something on her body. It was soft, soft, and very comfortable.

It was really very comfortable. She adjusted her body almost instinctively and quickly used her hands to wrap this soft and soft thing around her body. The cold aura seemed to have been isolated The cold and stiff body seemed to have been softened by this soft thing.

Perhaps it was because it was not so cold anymore, or perhaps it was because the thing wrapped around her body was very soft and comfortable. Gradually, her eyelids became heavier and heavier, and she slowly fell asleep.

Dongfang Jun returned to one inch ink city after his exams in Hong Kong. He bought a set of French oil brushes for Mu ru in Hong Kong, but from noon to evening, he did not see any sign of Mu Ru Therefore, he could not help but ask a min who was watering the plants, "where's the first young madam? Why hasn't she been seen for a day? Has She gone to school? "

A Min glanced at Dongfang Jun and then looked around Then, she whispered to her, "third young master, during the few days that you were not around, something big happened in the Dongfang family. The Second Young Madam's child was miscarried. It was caused by the pregnancy-protecting medicine that the first young madam brewed for her. Thus, the first young Madam was suspected of drugging the second young Madam, so she was locked up in the wine cellar by the first young master for a day and a night. "

"What? " Dongfang Jun was shocked. He looked at a min and asked with some doubt, "is this true? What about second brother? What about my mother? Is there no one to uphold justice for Mu Ru? "

A Min shook her head and sighed. "I don't know how the eldest madam was convicted back then. After all, I'm just a servant. I can't eavesdrop in the hall. You'd better go ask Aunt Gu. " Dongfang Jun listened to a Min's words He immediately turned around to look for his mother. At this time, aunt Gu was not in one inch ink city. Aunt Liu said that aunt Gu went to the hospital to see Xi Muxue.

Dongfang Yu was not in one inch ink city either. Of course, he did not count on Dongfang Yu. If Dongfang Yu was not in Xi Muxue's ward at this time, then he should be at some woman's place or in the casino Anyway, he was just a lazy young master.

"Nanny Liu, where's the key to the wine cellar? " Dongfang Jun decided to go to the wine cellar himself. A day and a night in such a cold place would not freeze people to death, right?

"The key to the wine cellar is not with me. " Nanny Liu shook her head and smiled bitterly. "Then the key is probably not with aunt Gu but with the eldest young master. You'd better ask them to go. "

Hence, Dongfang Jun walked helplessly towards the entrance of the ink garden's hall. He only wanted to call his mother to ask, but before he could take out his phone, he saw two cars drive in from the courtyard. One was Dongfang Yu's The other one was his mother, aunt Gu's.
