

never divorce 161

Chapter 161: The woman who is willing to marry Dongfang Mo.

"Aunt Gu, what did you say?" Dongfang Mo sat in his wheelchair, his cap still lowered. Although his voice was old and hoarse, he was clearly surprised.

Although he did not go to the office today, he had been busy at home in the office for the whole day. He also used the group chat on the computer to hold a meeting for everyone and arrange the next steps of the Dongfang Group's work and plans.

During dinner, he was the only one in the restaurant. Of course, his wife, Xi Muru, was in the hospital and would not be back until the next day. It was said that Dongfang Jun was going to have a gathering with his classmates. After all, he was going to study abroad. It was normal to have a reunion with a bunch of classmates.

His aunt, aunt Gu, was not at home either. He guessed that she must have gone to the beauty salon or gone shopping. Women, especially a woman like aunt Gu, who was born to love beauty, naturally did not lack these things.

However, he never expected that aunt Gu would come back right after he finished dinner. The moment she came back, she brought him very surprising and shocking news. That was, there was a woman who was willing to marry him.

"I say, the second daughter of the Lin family has returned from abroad. She is willing to marry you as a wife." When aunt Gu said this, her face was filled with incomparable excitement. Her voice was a little excited as she said, "you know Lin Zhenye. He is Mayor Kuang's brother-in-law, the general manager of the Lin Corporation. Although the Lin Corporation is only a stationery company and not a big company, it is not considered a small family. His second daughter, Lin Li, went abroad to study four years ago. She has just returned from abroad. This person who went abroad to study is very knowledgeable. Today, when I talked to her about you, she said that she admires you very much. Moreover, she said that one should not judge a person by his or her appearance. Moreover, the most important thing between husband and wife is to know one's heart. In fact, that kind of thing is not the foundation of maintaining a husband and wife relationship. If you don't dislike her... ". "... "

"Alright, aunt Gu," Dongfang Mo quickly cut off Dongfang Mei's words. His old and hoarse voice sounded emotionless. "I understand what you mean. You want me to marry this Lin Li and chase away Xi Muru, who has ruined the Dongfang family's reputation, right?"

"Ah Mo, I'm thinking of you wholeheartedly," Dongfang Mei sighed heavily. Then, she said earnestly, "Ah Mo, I understand your situation and it hurts. Of course, I understand that you're a person who values friendship and loyalty, but since Xi Muru can do something like this for the first time, it's hard to guarantee that she won't do it again. How many times can our Dongfang family's face be humiliated like this?"

"Then, how does Aunt Gu know that Lin Li won't do the same thing as Xi Muru?" Dongfang Mo's voice was still as hoarse as ever. There was no emotion in it, as if he wasn't talking about his own matters.

“because this Lin Li knows about your situation, and she’s willing to marry you, so she doesn’t need to spend any money from the Dongfang family?” Aunt Gu immediately analyzed with Dongfang Mo. “but mu ru is different. She shouldn’t have married you in the first place, but her crazy parents and sister who despised you forced her to be a substitute to marry you, so she was unwilling and unwilling. She was completely oppressed, and what she did was actually a form of counter-oppression... . . .”

Chapter 162: Everything is for the Dongfang family

“Aunt Gu, it should have been a happy thing for a woman to be willing to marry me,” Dongfang Mo interrupted Dongfang Mei with his old and hoarse voice. At the same time, he reminded her lightly, “but, aunt Gu, you know that our Dongfang family has never done business at a loss. For this Xi Muru, I spent 210 million, and that’s not even counting the cost of the wedding. With so much money, if we let her go just like that, don’t you think that 210 million would be wasted?” “This loss is too great, isn’t it?”

Dongfang Mei was stunned when she heard Dongfang Mo’s words. Then, she thought for a moment before nodding and saying, “that’s true. Say, that Old Fox, Xi Yuancheng, he used a vile creature that he despised since young to come to our Dongfang family. He actually cheated us of 210 million and left.”

Dongfang Mei paused when she said this. Then, she sighed deeply and said, “AH MO, this 200 million is indeed a huge amount, but what can we do “If we don’t spend it, then we’ll spend it. Let’s forget about the losses already. If we chase Xi Muru out of the Dongfang Family, then the Xi family and the Dongfang family will have nothing to do with each other. This will block the way for the Xi family to come looking for money again. Otherwise, Xi Yuancheng will probably come to the Xi family again as your father-in-law to ask for money “If we don’t give it then, we’ll say that the Dongfang family is heartless and heartless. Give it then. Do you think a person like his daughter is worth our money “Moreover, the hole in the Xi family can’t be filled with 350 million?”

Dongfang Mo was silent for a long time before he nodded. His voice was still hoarse as he said, “alright then, listen to aunt Gu and Chase Xi Muru out!”

“Alright!” Dongfang Mei nodded. She seemed to be relieved as she said, “Ah Mo, it’s probably not convenient for you to handle this matter, so let me handle it. Tomorrow, I’ll go straight to the hospital and have Xi Muru go straight to the Xi family. Furthermore, with her dirty body, if she comes back to the Dongfang family, it’s also...”

Dongfang Mo did not wait for Dongfang Mei to finish her sentence before he turned his wheelchair and walked towards the elevator room. Since the matter had already been discussed, he did not want to hear any unnecessary nonsense.

Dongfang Mei looked at the wheelchair that had already entered the elevator, and a smile unconsciously crept up the corner of her mouth. She had settled Dongfang Mo, so the rest was to settle her son, Dongfang Jun..

This Lin Li was found by Dongfang Jun, and it just happened to suit her heart. Of course, as her mother, she knew exactly what her son was thinking.

Her 21-year-old son had just begun to fall in love. The boys nowadays were all different from the past. In the past, men liked those who were pretty, but now, who knew what kind of devilish wind they were blowing? Handsome and handsome boys fell in love with ugly girls as soon as they moved.

If Xi Muru had never married Dongfang Mo, then she might not care too much about who her son liked. After all, Xi Muru used her bangs to cover up her birthmark, so it was not too ugly.

However, Xi Muru had married Dongfang Mo before, and the child in her belly might even be Dongfang Yu's child, so she would never let her son get mixed up with a woman like Xi Muru no matter what.

Dongfang Jun said to let Lin Li marry Dongfang Mo and use this opportunity to drive mu ru out of the Dongfang family. She completely agreed with Dongfang Jun's idea, but if Dongfang Jun wanted to secretly bring mu ru abroad, she would definitely stop him.

Her son was going to take over the CEO position of the Dongfang Group in the future. How could he be destroyed by Xi Muru, who was born as a vile spawn?

Chapter 163 The news of Xi Empire's bankruptcy

December 10th, the most normal day of the year

However, this morning, all the major newspapers and radio stations in Binhai broke a huge piece of news. Xi Empire's major shareholder, the Oriental Group, had completely withdrawn their investment. They were immediately in a state of insolvency, so they did not even have the strength to struggle. Yesterday afternoon, they officially announced their bankruptcy. Until the day they closed down, they were still responsible for 586.29 million... ..

Mu Ru was originally sitting in bed eating the breakfast that Ah Min had bought for her. A Min had brought her pork liver and lean meat porridge, but because Ah Min had turned on the television the moment she entered, she saw this news.

Xi Muru was instantly shocked Xi Empire had collapsed, and the Xi family was finished!

These were the words that kept repeating in her mind. On the television screen, the news host was still saying something, but she did not hear it clearly. She only saw that the screen was a mess, as if there were many people surrounding her father, Xi Yuancheng... ..

"First Madam! First Madam!" A Min saw mu ru sitting there like a statue, so she could not help but push her arm and call her softly.

Mu Ru was awakened by a Min's shout. She jumped up from the bed and frantically went to the wardrobe to look for clothes. The only thought in her mind was to quickly go home and take a look.

"First Young Madam, where are you going?" A Min saw mu ru take the clothes and rush to the bathroom, so she immediately guessed something. Without waiting for a reply, she quickly said, "first young Madam, don't do anything stupid. When I bought you breakfast just now, I heard people talking about your house being surrounded by creditors last night. The situation is very chaotic now, I think..."

A Min had not finished her sentence when mu ru had already changed her clothes and came out. She looked gratefully at a min Then, she sighed softly and said, “a Min, even if the situation is very chaotic, I’m still the XI family’s daughter, right? How can I not care if something like this happens at home?”

After Mu Ru said that, she immediately walked out of the door. When she reached the door, she remembered that she was penniless because when she was sent away by Uncle Liu at the Dongfang family, she did not have a bag with her.

“A min, can you lend me some money?” Mu Ru turned back and quickly explained, “I don’t have a single cent now. I just want to borrow a car fare. I’ll return it to you when I get back.” “Oh, okay.” A Min saw that she insisted on leaving, so she did not say anything more She immediately took out a pink hundred dollar bill and handed it to Mu Ru.

Besides, with such an incident happening at home, who wouldn’t go home to take a look Human hearts were made of flesh and blood. Even though Xi Muru’s father and sister weren’t good to her, no matter how bad they were, they were still her family?

Mu Ru was anxious, so she didn’t go to the public car like usual after she left the hospital. Instead, she hailed a taxi at the hospital entrance. She just wanted to go home as soon as possible.

She arrived at the Xi family home forty minutes later. However, when she arrived, there were no longer any people around the XI family’s entrance. There were only cans, bottles of mineral water, and beer bottles scattered all over the courtyard There were also some convenience food packaging that silently explained that this place used to be very lively.

She got out of the taxi and looked at the floor full of wolves and the unlocked courtyard door. She couldn’t help but lie, and an ominous premonition instantly welled up in her heart.

She pushed open the unlocked courtyard door and walked in. When she saw the black veil hanging at the entrance of the hall, her vision Went Dark. She quickly used her hand to support the door frame before she stabilized herself.

Chapter 164 — misfortune does not come alone

“How is the Xi family doing now?” An old and hoarse voice asked the middle-aged man who stood respectfully behind him.

“before Xi Empire was declared bankrupt, they did not complete their escape plan, so they were blocked at the door by the creditors. Because they owed too much, some of the people who bought Xi Empire’s shares went bankrupt overnight because of Xi Empire’s bankruptcy, so the crowd got excited. Xi Yuancheng was knocked unconscious with a beer bottle, his brain was bleeding, and he died on the spot!” Uncle Liu’s respectful voice was devoid of any emotion Then, he added, “according to the latest news, Madam Xi... No, Miss Xi has already rushed back to the Xi family.”

“got it.” The man’s voice was Hoarse as he looked into the unknown distance. Then, he asked, “how much will the Dongfang Family lose from XI EMPIRE’S COLLAPSE?”

“because the Dongfang family withdrew their investment in time, it’s only around 100 million,” Uncle Liu answered truthfully. Then, he sighed and said, “Xi Yuancheng lost out because he was too greedy. He did something wrong and didn’t want to pay a single cent. Nangong Xun had better reduce it to only 300 million, and our Dongfang family gave him 200 million. If he had been a little more generous and added another 100 million to Nangong Xun, things wouldn’t have happened today... “. ... ..

“Nangong Xun’s methods are too cruel,” Dongfang Mo snorted and said, “on the surface, he is looking for trouble with the Xi family and destroying the entire Xi family. In fact, he is killing the chicken to warn the monkeys. He is doing this for the Dongfang family to see. The current Nangong family is no longer the Qin family. He is going to make a comeback.”

“Then, are we still going to take care of the Xi family?” Uncle Liu asked worriedly. “I’m worried that Nangong Xun has designs on the Xi family’s eldest daughter. After all, that’s the root of his problem. I...”

“Di di Di, di Di di...” Dongfang Mo’s phone rang, interrupting Uncle Liu’s conversation.

Dongfang Mo was stunned for a moment, then he quickly picked up the phone and answered, “Aunt Gu, what’s the matter?”

“Ah MO, Mu Ru is back at one inch mo city’s entrance. She said she wants to see you and at the same time, she wants to lend you money...” Dongfang Mei’s voice came from the phone, her tone completely indifferent.

“Tell Her that I’m very busy and don’t have time to see her,” Dongfang Mo’s old and hoarse voice sounded emotionless. “Also, throw all her things to her and tell her to get lost. The Dongfang family won’t let a woman like her, who ruins the reputation of the family, stay.”

“Then about the matter of her borrowing money...”

“It’s good that I didn’t ask her to return my 210 million yuan. She still has the nerve to borrow money?” Dongfang MO quickly interrupted aunt Gu’s words. Then, he coldly said, “Aunt Gu, I have a lot of things to do. Don’t bother me with these small matters anymore. Just deal with them as you see fit.”

After saying that, without waiting for aunt Gu to reply, he immediately pressed the hang-up button without hesitation. Then, he casually threw the phone to a corner.

“eldest young master, are you really going to let her go?” Uncle Liu carefully picked up the phone and sighed softly, “actually, eldest young madam is a good woman. She...”

“I’m in a very passive situation now. I’m afraid that keeping her alive will harm her.” The old and hoarse voice carried a hint of helplessness. He said in a low voice, “let her go. She shouldn’t have belonged to a wealthy family. The scheming between the wealthy families is not suitable for her personality...”

Chapter 165-“misfortune does not come alone.”

Dongfang Mei hung up the phone and looked at Mu Ru apologetically. She sighed softly and said, “I’m sorry, Mu Ru. Look, aunt Gu originally sympathized with you. You’re a woman, isn’t that right?” But AH MO, this child, had always been proud and arrogant since he was young. His eyes could not tolerate sand. Moreover, he was going to get married in a few days. Oh right, his bride had just returned from studying abroad. Her name was Lin Li. Not only was she beautiful, but she did not mind his appearance and body... “... “...”

Mu Ru looked at Dongfang Mei's mouth opening and closing. The only reaction in her mind was that Dongfang Mo had kicked her out of the Dongfang family, so she could not even get into one inch of Mo city. As for what Dongfang Mei said after that.. She did not need to pay attention to it, nor did she need to listen to it.

When she was in the hospital, before she knew that the Xi family had closed down, she had actually been looking forward to being kicked out of the Dongfang family by Dongfang Mo because if that happened, even if Dongfang Mo exposed her unchastity, she would at most have a bad reputation.. But at least she would be free, right At least she wouldn't have to spend the rest of her life with a eunuch, right?

However, when she found out that the Xi family had closed down this morning, when she returned to the Xi family and saw her father's cold body, when she saw her mother's old and haggard expression, she instantly understood that she couldn't be chased out by the Dongfang family. No matter what.. She couldn't be chased out by the Dongfang family.

This was because the Dongfang family was the richest family in Binhai. Even though the Xi family had closed down and her father was dead, as long as she was still in the Dongfang family, the outsiders wouldn't dare to bully her mother. After all, she was Dongfang Mo's mother-in-law.

Furthermore, the Xi family was left with nothing. Even the villa had been moved by the deadline because it had already been repaid to the family.

As for the other things in the family, whether they were valuable or not, they were all gone. Even the pots and pans had been snatched away. The entire house was empty.

When she returned, her mother saw her and was first stunned. Then, she hugged her and burst into tears In the end, she cried until the sky was dark. “They don't have a single cent left and they don't have anywhere else to go. They don't even have the money to send the funeral parlor's car to pull Xi Yuancheng to the cremation...”

In short, everything depended on her. She was Dongfang Mo's wife, the eldest young madam of the Dongfang family. Even if it wasn't enough, she could still have her father cremated and buried, and her mother and sister could still have a place to hide.

Thus, she couldn't be bothered to comfort her mother. She immediately rushed back to the Dongfang family. In her heart, she only wanted to look for Dongfang Mo. of course, she wanted to kneel down and apologize to him, and then hope that he could lend her some money. She wanted to bury her father She wanted to find a place for her mother and sister to stay.

However, who would have thought that when she rushed to the Dongfang family's entrance, the security guards would not let her in. The person who came out to meet her was Dongfang Mei. She hurriedly told Dongfang Mei about her purpose of coming here. Then, Dongfang Mei said that she wanted to call Dongfang Mo to ask for his opinion.

However, she never dreamed that Dongfang Mei would end up like this after she made the call. Dongfang Mo chased her away and did not want her anymore. In other words, she was no longer Dongfang Mo's wife. She had been abandoned!

Of course, there was an even more ruthless fact. It was impossible for her to get a single cent in the Dongfang family because Dongfang Mo had no relationship with her at all!

Chapter 166: The days of drifting in the wind and rain

"Get lost, I don't want to see you again, the Jinx of disaster!" An angry growl was followed by a bowl of scalding pork liver and lean meat porridge, which was thrown over together with the bowl. It immediately smashed onto the instep of Mu Ru's foot. The pain caused her to hurriedly use her hand to support herself against the wall and jump to the side on one foot. She quickly took off her shoes and socks. Even so, the instep of her foot was still scalded red.

Mu Ru endured the pain on the instep of her foot and endured the body that had just miscarried. Her eyes were filled with tears as she slowly squatted down and took off her other shoe. Then, she put on the pair of rotten slippers at the corner of the wall.

She glanced at her mother who was lying on the bed. She did not say anything to defend herself. Instead, she quietly went to the door and grabbed a broom to sweep up the bowls and porridge on the floor. Then, she turned around and threw them into the trash can in the corridor outside the door.

Xi Empire had gone bankrupt and the Xi family had collapsed. Xi Yuancheng wanted to run away, but he could not. He was trapped at home and smashed to death. All the assets of the Xi family had been robbed and even the Xi Family's villa had been repaid to someone else.

As the old saying goes, good fortune never comes alone. Under the Xi family's dire situation, she was chased out by Dongfang Mo. She didn't even get to borrow a single cent.

That day, she begged Dongfang Mei at the Dongfang family's a Min's city gate. She wanted to see Dongfang Mo, but all she could do was ask Ah Min to throw her things out.

She had very few things. She only had a few normal clothes, some books, brushes, and of course, a recording pen and a designer bag.

The voice recorder was given to her by Dongfang Jun, and the designer bag was given to her by Dongfang Yu on the day she returned to Ning city. However, her real husband, Dongfang Mo, had never given her a single thing in the three months she had been his wife.

No, he had actually given her many things, such as a male simulator, a finger with a TT, locking her in the detention room, and... ..

The things that Dongfang Mo had given her were actually a verb, and that verb was "to humiliate."

That day, when she had taken the bus from the Dongfang Family home to the Xi family home, she had immediately been busy with her father's funeral. She didn't have any cash, but the bag that Dongfang Yu had given her had only been used once, so she had taken it to the famous brand shop in Wanxiang city. The bag that was originally worth more than 30,000 yuan had been exchanged for 3,000 yuan.

As for her younger sister, Xi Muxue, she hadn't seen her since she had returned to the Xi family home. She didn't know where she had gone, but when she asked her mother, her mother had just been lying on her father's corpse and crying nonstop. She had cried so much that the sun and moon had dimmed, and she hadn't said a word. She did not know if she had gone crazy from the shock.

Therefore, she was the only one who supported this dilapidated family. Even though she did not have a good impression of her father, after all, his father had never treated her as a daughter.

However, in the end, she was still Xi Yuancheng's daughter. In the end, she still grew up in the Xi family. In the end, the blood of Xi Yuancheng and Lin Xinyue still flowed in her body.

She used a car to call for the funeral home to drag her father over and set up a simple mourning hall there. However, Xi Empire had closed down and the Xi family had gone bankrupt. Not to mention her former acquaintances, even those who were related to the Xi family had gone into hiding. She was afraid that the moment she appeared, she would be targeted by the Xi family's creditors, and she would be implicated.

Chapter 167 added insult to injury

Therefore, she knelt at the funeral home for a day and a night, but no one came to pay their respects. In the end, she had no choice but to ask the funeral home to cremate her father. Then, she bought a few hundred yuan urn to put her father in because she didn't have the money to buy a cemetery. She could only bring her father's ashes home.

However, when she brought her father's ashes back to the Xi family's villa, she realized that her mother was sitting at the entrance of the courtyard like an idiot. Sometimes she cried, sometimes she laughed, and then her hands kept shaking the iron gate of the courtyard. Of course, she really wanted to go in. This was because subconsciously, this was still her home.

When she saw this scene, she could not help but feel a hint of heartache. Her mother was a traditional woman. Ever since she married her father, she had treated him like a mountain. In her life, she had never gone against her father's wishes. The only time.. Was when she did not throw her into the river to drown. Instead, she threw her to the maid, mother Wang.

Her mother went crazy. When she saw her return with the urn, she immediately came up and snatched the urn. Then, she hugged it tightly in her arms, as if she was hugging her father.

Everyone had their strengths and weaknesses, no matter if you were a great person or an unpardonable evil person. Therefore, Xi Yuancheng was a selfish and greedy person. In Mu Ru's heart, he did not even have the least bit of responsibility and humanity as a father.

However, in Lin Xinyue's heart, Xi Yuancheng was a perfect husband. Although Xi Yuancheng was also addicted to gambling, he was not at the level where he was as good as his life. And in Lin Xinyue's heart, Xi Yuancheng's greatest strength was probably the Gu family. At the same time, he did not have any mistresses or wild children outside.

Xi Yuancheng was Lin Xinyue's heaven. With Xi Yuancheng Dead, Lin Xinyue's heaven was also over. Therefore, her eyes were glazed over and she went crazy, completely losing the ability to take care of herself.

The Xi family was completely destroyed. There was nothing left. They even had to find new places to stay because the other two houses of the Xi family were also occupied by the creditors.

After Mu Ru cremated Xi Yuancheng, she only had a little more than a thousand yuan. Of course, this little money could not be used to rent a house in the bustling downtown area, so she could only go to the village in the city to find the cheapest house to live in.

After renting a room and a living room, the rent and the deposit were almost used up. A room and a living room were enough for the mother and daughter. Their mother lived in a room while she lived in the living room. Now, they no longer had any relatives or friends She did not have to think about the living room being used to entertain guests.

She did not have to think about entertaining guests, but she had to think about her mother's life and their future financial sources because she already had no money to spend.

And the worst part was that Lin Xinyue suffered a serious blow. She seemed to be sick. She did not eat or drink all day and hit her every now and then. She was a little afraid of her.

Therefore, under the persuasion of her neighbors, she had no choice but to take her to see a doctor. The doctor said that her mother not only had mental problems, but her body also had heart problems. It was just that she had been taking medicine in the past, but now she had stopped taking medicine all of a sudden She had to be careful of a relapse of her heart disease.

When she heard the doctor's words, she was stunned. In fact, she had heard about her mother having heart problems from mother Wang a few years ago. However, she had always lived with mother Wang, so she had never seen Lin Xinyue taking medicine Hence, she forgot about it.

Chapter 168 — it's all your fault

When her mother was sick, she needed money for food, rent, water, and electricity. Therefore, Mu Ru could not care less about her miscarriage for only ten days and went out early in the morning to look for a job.

However, she did not have a degree. She was only in university for a few days and only had a high school diploma. At the same time, she did not have any work experience, so most companies would not hire her.

Of course, it was not that any company would not hire her. In fact, those small factories also hired ordinary employees. Ordinary wages were low, but the requirements for ordinary workers were also low. She applied for the job immediately.

Unfortunately, it was useless even if she applied for the job, because the other party wanted to hold down a month's salary. That was to say, the January salary would only be given to you in March. In such a situation, she definitely wouldn't be able to accept it.

Not to mention holding down a month's salary, even if the month's salary was given at the end of the month, she wouldn't be able to endure it. This was because she only had less than 200 yuan in her hands, and her mother's medicine had only been taken for a week. After a week, she still had to go to the hospital to help her mother get her medicine. Yet, taking one medicine cost more than 500 yuan.

She walked outside for a day, but of course, she couldn't find a suitable job. In order to save money, she wasn't even willing to drink a bottle of water. She only bought two steamed buns by the roadside to satisfy her hunger when she couldn't take it anymore.

When she came back in the evening, she thought about how her mother hadn't eaten lunch at home, so she bought a bowl of pork liver and lean meat porridge from a small restaurant at the entrance of the city village.

However, who would have thought that her mother would take the porridge she bought and not eat it? She even threw the Porridge and bowl over to her. This not only wasted her porridge, but also burned her feet.

Her mother hated her because she believed that she was the cause of everything that happened to the Xi family. Firstly, she had an ominous birthmark on her forehead when she was born. Secondly, the real reason why the Xi family went bankrupt was because Nangong Xun was behind it. And five years ago.. She was the one who saved Nangong Xun.

"If I knew the Xi family would end up like this, I would have listened to your father and drowned you in the river 19 years ago!" Lin Xinyue sat on the bed and looked at Mu ru who was preparing to cook dinner for her. She did not feel satisfied, so she continued to curse viciously.

"Mom, do you want to eat noodles or dinner?" Mu Ru walked out of the kitchen and looked at Lin Xinyue who was sitting beside her bed. She said softly, "the doctor said that your medicine must be taken after dinner, so you must have dinner tonight. Otherwise, taking medicine on an empty stomach is not good for your body..."

"Don't pretend to be hypocritical in front of me?" Lin xinyue quickly interrupted Mu Ru. Then, she cursed viciously, "Xi Muru, don't think that I don't know how you were chased out by the Dongfang family. The day Mu Xue came home, she said that you couldn't stand the loneliness in the Dongfang family and went out to mess around with a b * Stard, so you were chased out by the Dongfang family. You're a jinx, but you're already like this. Why haven't you learned your lesson? Why did you do such a shameful thing? Not to mention the Xi family falling apart, even if the Xi family didn't fall apart, you'd probably lose all of your face. How can you still have the face to live in this world? "Why don't you go die?"

"Then, mom, I'll help you cook noodles, okay?" After Mu Ru said that, she turned around and walked toward the narrow kitchen. She filled the pot with water and turned on the gas.

She did not refute her mother's scolding, nor could she refute it because her mother was not only suffering from heart disease but also mental illness. Most importantly, her mother's scolding was the truth.

It was true that she was kind enough to save Nangong Xun five years ago, and she was chased out by the Dongfang family because she was pregnant, so she could only listen to her mother's scolding.

Chapter 169 Xi Muxue left with 10 million yuan

Mu Ru left early in the morning because she desperately needed to find a job, and it was best if it was a job that could pay her in a short period of time. Unfortunately, this kind of job was not easy to find. In any case, the company factory that she went to two days ago could not give her this kind of treatment.

Last night, Lin Xinyue poured out the porridge that she bought back. Then, she did not eat the noodles that she cooked and pushed them onto the dining table. She said that the noodles that she cooked had no seasoning at all, and they tasted terrible.

She knew that her mother had lived in the Xi family for twenty years and did not know what it was like to live a hard life. On the other hand, she had lived by the servants' side for nineteen years, so she knew what it was like to live in the lower class.

Her mother poured the noodles onto the table. She was not willing to throw them away. Instead, she put them in a bowl and chopsticks before taking them to the kitchen to eat secretly.

Last night, at midnight, Lin Xinyue's madness flared up. She suddenly ran out of the room and pulled the sleeping Lin Xinyue out of the bed. Then, she yelled crazily, "Mu Xue, where's the ten million you took? Why don't you take it out and let us rent a better place to live? Why do you want to live in this broken and smelly place?"

She only found out from her mother's crazy nagging that the day Mu Xue was rushed back to the Xi family by the Dongfang family happened to be the day before the Xi family closed down. On that day, Xi Yuancheng had given her ten million and told her to quickly go out and hide.

However, the Xi family had been bankrupt for so long. Xi Yuancheng had been cremated for a few days, but Xi Muxue had never appeared. Even when she helped Xi Yuancheng set up the funeral hall at the funeral home, Xi Muxue had never come to offer her condolences.

Xi Muxue left with ten million yuan, and no one knew where she went. She asked Lin Xinyue, but Lin Xinyue was so crazy that she couldn't explain it clearly. She even called her Xi Muxue from time to time.

After being tormented by Lin Xinyue last night, she didn't sleep well either. In the morning, she bought Lin Xinyue some sausage powder and a cup of soy milk for her. Thankfully, Lin Xinyue didn't get sick in the morning, so she was quite normal. Thus, under her coaxing, she ate her breakfast. She ate her breakfast obediently.

Mu Ru waited for her mother to finish her breakfast and medicine before she left. She was really at a loss about work. As she was new to society, she had no experience at all, so she didn't dare to ask about some things in a daze.

She received a call from Cheng Feier at noon. Fortunately, there was still some phone bill left in her phone, so it was still barely usable. Thus, Cheng Feier was still able to find her.

"Xi Muru, what's going on? Aren't you Dongfang Mo's wife? Why is Dongfang Mo getting married again?" Cheng Feier's voice swept over like a machine gun. It was filled with surprise and speed, and it shook her ears so much that they buzzed.

“I’ve already been chased out by Dongfang Mo.” Mu ru took the phone slightly away from her ear and then said softly, “I’m no longer Dongfang Mo’s wife, and I didn’t need to marry him in the first place, so...”

“Then where are you now?” Cheng feier was an impatient person. She didn’t wait for mu ru to finish her sentence before asking again.

“I’m here...” Mu ru quickly scanned her surroundings and then said to Cheng Feier on the phone, “I’m near the new city square. I’m looking for a job now...”

“Then I’ll come right away.” Cheng feier quickly cut her off and then added, “Xi Muru, wait for me there. Don’t leave. I’ll be there in about half an hour.”

Chapter 170: An unlucky child

Mu Ru looked at the phone in her hand and smiled bitterly. Cheng Feier was still as hot-tempered as before, but she wouldn’t wander around now because all the companies and factories were closed at noon. She had to go to work after two o’clock in the afternoon to find a job, so she always found a place to sit down and rest at noon.

In fact, she went to the East Gate in the morning because there was a domestic service company hiring hourly workers or something. She heard on the bus in the morning that hourly workers seemed to pay on the same day.

Hence, she rushed to the domestic service company to apply for the job. However, the manager of the domestic service company laughed when he heard her words. After all, he was not born in society. He did not know anything. How could the domestic service company settle their wages on the same day? Weren’t they all settled monthly?

Mu Ru was extremely disappointed. Hence, when she left the domestic service company, she could not help but ask, “then, is there any kind of job in this society that does not settle wages on the same day?”

The manager of the domestic service company was an aunt in her fifties. She probably felt a little pitiful for her. Then, she kindly told her that it was not that there was no such job. Actually, there were also such jobs. They usually settled their wages every few days, but the work was very hard.

Mu Ru quickly said that she was not afraid of hard work. As long as she could get the money in the short term, it would be enough. She urgently needed money now. If she did not make money quickly, she would not even have the money to drink water in a few days.

Therefore, the auntie manager of the Household Management Company told her that there were two types of jobs that could get money in the short term. One was to help someone put up an advertisement for psoriasis. It was said that putting up an advertisement would cost fifty yuan a day, but this was a little risky. Because psoriasis was the target of the city management, they were worried about the possibility of being caught at any time.

Another type of job was to help some companies distribute flyers, such as training institutions, real estate companies, etc. . When they were about to open or when they were about to open for business, they needed to do a lot of flyer-like publicity Moreover, this was only a short-term job. Usually, it would take a few days, and once the job was done, they could receive money immediately. This was called temporary work.

When Mu ru heard the manager's words, she immediately asked where she could find such a job. The manager's aunt said that there were training institutions and real estate company offices in the new city square, so she could come over to take a look, so she came over.

Cheng Feier was indeed a swift and decisive person. She said that it would take half an hour to get there, and it really did take half an hour. When she saw mu ru in her old clothes, she was stunned for a moment before she recognized her.

"Aiya, Xi Muru, where did you come from? You're black and thin, and you're dressed like this. I almost thought you were a beggar!" Cheng feier shouted when she saw her.

Mu Ru looked down at herself, then smiled bitterly and said, "don't I walk outside all day looking for a job? The city is very dusty now. After walking for half a day, I'm covered in dust. I'm not like a beggar anymore."

"You're looking for a job?" Cheng feier's eyes widened as she looked at her. "Then, you're not going to study?"

"I don't even have money to eat now, so why would I study?" Mu Ru shook her head. University? She probably had no fate with her in this lifetime, right?

"Aiyo, Mu Ru, why do you think you're so unlucky?" Cheng feier got angry when she talked about her. Therefore, she said unhappily, "you've always been treated as a servant in the Xi family. When did your parents treat you as their daughter? Only when they wanted to use you did they remember that they had a daughter like you."