

Chapter 191, whether or not to get married

Mu Ru did not know if her mother would have a good life soon because Xi Muxue had never appeared. At the same time, she did not have any contact information.

However, she knew that her life was getting harder and harder. Firstly, no matter what kind of surgery her mother did, she would not be able to gather enough money. Secondly, for some reason, the flower shop suddenly abandoned her.

Her search for mother Wang was not successful because she used to look for mother Wang in the servants' room of the Xi family. Now that mother Wang had left, she did not even know where mother Wang's hometown was. Furthermore, mother Wang's contact number had become an empty number.

She could not find mother Wang, and she had lost her job. Lin Xinyue's surgery was imminent, so she had no choice but to pawn the bracelet at the pawnshop. In the end, she only managed to get 3,000 yuan back.

On Sunday, Cheng Feier came to see her and heard about the current situation. She supported her head with her hand and thought for a long time. It was best if she said gloomily, "if you really can't do it, why don't you take your mother to get married?"

Mu Ru was shocked when she heard this. She looked at Cheng Feier and asked after a while, "can you get tens of thousands of yuan from getting married?"

"PFFT..." Cheng Feier laughed when she heard her. Then, she knocked her head with her hand. "Xi Muxu, are you thinking about tens of thousands of yuan all the time in your mind?"

"Yes." Mu Ru took a sip of the Pearl milk tea that Cheng Feier brought. She sighed deeply and said in a low voice, "to be honest with you, I've been dreaming about where I can get tens of thousands of yuan even in my dreams."

"Then, Xi Muxu, you really should just marry someone." Cheng Feier stopped joking with her after hearing her words. Instead, she said seriously, "there are a lot of leftover men in this society, and you're still young. You're only 19 years old. You might not be married to a rich man, but you should be able to marry someone who can fork out tens of thousands of yuan to treat your mother's illness, right?"

Mu Ru rolled her eyes at her, then smiled bitterly and said, "Cheng Feier, if it were any other girl, there probably wouldn't be a problem, but it's me, Xi Muxu. Look at me, who would like me?"

"Mu Ru, you don't look ugly." Cheng Feier quickly used her hand to pull mu Ru's bangs down. "actually, you just have a birthmark."

Mu Ru smiled wryly when she heard her words. She shook her head gently. "Fei'er, maybe you don't care about birthmarks because you're my friend and you're used to it, but it's because I have this birthmark that my parents don't like me. In this world, what man would like me?"

“Mu Ru, you don’t have to be so pessimistic.” Cheng Feier saw mu Ru’s expression Hence, she quickly tried to persuade her. “actually, not every man in this world only cares about looks. Maybe if you go on a blind date, you’ll meet someone who doesn’t care about looks.”

Mu Ru fell silent when she heard this. She did meet someone who didn’t care about looks. That person was Nangong Xun. However, she and he had long missed their destiny because she had replaced Xi Muxue to marry Dongfang Mo..

“Fei’er, thank you for thinking on my behalf.” Mu Ru looked at her good friend She sighed and said, “it’s just that what you’re saying is unrealistic because my mother will be hospitalized next Wednesday. Today is already Sunday. Even if she goes on a blind date to get married, it’s already too late.”

“Why is it too late?” Lin Xinyue, who had been sleeping in the bedroom, woke up at some point in time. She walked out of the bedroom and glanced at Cheng Feier Then, she stared at Mu Ru and said coldly, “I think what your classmate said is right. The landlord downstairs told me yesterday that he asked if you would marry her nephew. The betrothal fee is 200,000 yuan. As long as you agree, you can get married tomorrow.”

Chapter 192 whether to marry or not

Lin xinyue wanted mu ru to marry the landlord’s nephew, the son of the village chief in the city, Pang Dahai. He was short and stout like the Wu da from ancient times, because Mu ru did not care about her appearance After all, her former husband, Dongfang Mo, also looked like a ghost. He looked scary, but at least Pang Dahai did not look scary.

Of course, if Pang Dahai looked like Wu da, it would not be bad if he was as hardworking as Wu da. After all, Wu da also knew how to sell pancakes and live at home.

However, Pang Dahai did not know anything. Every day, after he had his fill, he would wander around the village in the city. When he saw anyone, he would smile and talk to everyone. No one would talk to themselves. He was already in his twenties, and he needed someone to look for him even when he ate three meals a day.

When she first came to live in the village in the city, Mu Ru had seen Pang Dahai a few times and thought that he was a child. It was clear that he had big hands and feet. She only wondered if he was sick or something.

Later, she heard that not only was he short, but he was also a fool. He was already in his twenties, but he did not dare to walk out of the village in the city now because he would not be able to find him if he walked out.

His mother wanted her to marry him. Wasn’t that pushing her into the fire pit?

Of course, she did not agree. Even though she had a birthmark on her forehead and she did not look good, she was not a fool after all?

However, Lin Xinyue said that if you don't want to marry Pang Dahai, then you want me to die, right My illness was originally fine, but it only relapsed because of the collapse of the Xi family and your father's death If you don't want to marry Pang Dahai, then return the Xi family to me and your father to me?

Mu Ru knew that Lin Xinyue's words were out of anger. Perhaps it had something to do with her hysteria, because people with hysteria were prone to hallucinations. There were even a few times when Lin xinyue would suddenly get out of bed at night and open the door alone She kept muttering that she had returned from a long distance. I heard the sound of his car.

He was going to be hospitalized on Wednesday. The Pang family said that if mu ru was willing, they would get married on January 9th, which was Tuesday. After the wedding, they would transfer 200,000 yuan to Mu Ru's account the next day and ask her to send Lin Xinyue to the hospital.

"Of course I can't marry that idiot," Cheng feier heard Mu Ru's description She said angrily, "Mu Ru, your mother is really something. is She even human?" "She never treated you as her daughter before. Now, you're the only one left by her side. She still doesn't treat you as her daughter and wants to sell you for money. Why don't you just ignore her and move into my house alone?"

Mu Ru listened to Cheng feier's words She smiled bitterly and said, "Fei'er, it's not that I haven't thought about what you said. There are a few times when she hit me and scolded me, I thought of leaving and leaving her. It's not difficult for me to support myself, but..."

Mu Ru sighed and said, "but she's my mother after all "furthermore, she's still sick and mentally unstable. Her heart attack has relapsed. If I really leave, she won't be able to live on her own. She doesn't know how to do laundry or cook. She's been Miss Lin for 20 years and Mrs. Xi for 20 years. She's simply a person who can do whatever she wants... "... "

"If you can't bear to leave her alone, then are you really going to marry that Dwarf, Pang Dahai?" Cheng feier interrupted Mu Ru She glared at her fiercely and said, "If I were you, I'd rather be someone else's mistress than marry a stupid dwarf like Pang Dahai."

Chapter 193 difficult choices

Mu Ru ru was at the hospital in the afternoon. On the way there, she was still thinking about how Cheng Feier had told her that she would rather be someone else's mistress than marry a silly dwarf like Pang Dahai.

When she thought about Cheng Feier's words, she could not help but feel sad. If it was another woman, perhaps someone would want to be the mistress of a rich man. However, for a woman like her who had a birthmark on her forehead, even if she were to be someone else's mistress, they might not necessarily want her.

However, Cheng Feier was right about one thing. No matter what, she could not marry Pang Dahai because once she married him, she would probably never be able to turn things around in her lifetime. Pang Dahai's father was the village chief of the city village. He could be said to be a local tyrant He could not afford to offend him.

“Why are you here alone?” Zheng Yifan looked at mu ru. Seeing her pale face, he could not help but ask with concern, “is it difficult to gather money? How much more is there?”

Mu Ru looked at him and forced a smile She said in a low voice, “I only have a few thousand yuan. The difference is very big. So, do you think my mother’s surgery can be delayed? Give her some medicine to stabilize her condition first. In a few months, when I think of a way to earn money, I will help her with the surgery?”

Zheng Yifan pondered for a moment He thought for a moment and said, “your mother’s condition hasn’t reached its most serious stage yet. If she was mentally normal and knew how to recuperate, she wouldn’t have a problem delaying it for a year or so. But the crux of the problem now is that her mental state is extremely poor, which is quite disadvantageous to her condition, so... .. If you want her to recover, the sooner the better.”

When Mu ru heard this, her heart, which was originally holding a glimmer of hope, instantly sank to the bottom. She bit her lips lightly and nodded after a long while. She said in a low voice, “I understand. Then the surgery should be carried out on Friday. I’ll bring her to the hospital the day after tomorrow.”

“Didn’t you say you didn’t have money?” Zheng Yifan looked at her with a puzzled gaze. “Can you raise tens of thousands of yuan in two days?”

When Mu ru heard this, she felt extremely bitter. How could she raise tens of thousands of yuan in two days Besides selling herself, what else could she do?

When Zheng Yifan saw that she did not say anything, he immediately felt that something was not right, so he quickly asked, “what happened? Did something happen?”

Mu Ru shook her head and tried to force out a smile. However, before she could do so, her tears fell first. At this time, she really could not smile no matter how hard she tried.

“I can only marry someone.” Mu Ru’s voice was choked with sobs as tears rolled out of her eyes uncontrollably. “Doctor Zheng, you can arrange the surgery. I will pay the money the day after tomorrow...”

“You are very unwilling to marry that person, aren’t you?” Zheng Yifan interrupted Mu Ru’s words and handed her a few tissues He then said softly, “marriage is a major event in life. Since you don’t like it, why force yourself to marry someone? Don’t you think so?”

Mu Ru wiped her tears with a tissue and lowered her head without saying a word. There was a high chance that life would not go according to one’s wishes. Moreover, she had never encountered anything that would go according to her wishes.

“How about this? Your mother’s illness can not be delayed. This is for sure.” Zheng Yifan saw that she had calmed down a little and said, “I have 50,000 yuan on hand. You take it first and perform the surgery on your mother first...”

“How can this be?” Mu Ru looked at Zheng Yifan and quickly rejected him. “Doctor Zheng, we are not related. How can I take your money?”

Chapter 194 had finally gathered the money

"I'm lending this to you." Zheng Yifan smiled at her and said softly, "anyway, this money is free money. There's not much interest money in the bank. You can use it to treat your mother's illness first. When you earn money in the future, you can return it to me, right?"

"What if I can't pay it back?" Mu Ru asked in a daze.

"If you really can't pay it back, then you can marry me with your body." Zheng Yifan's words were purely a joke, but it still made mu ru blush.

"Okay, Xi Muru, go back quickly." Zheng Yifan saw that mu ru's face was so red that she wanted to find a hole to hide in, so he quickly put away his joke and said softly, "remember to bring your mother to the hospital the day after tomorrow. I'll pass the money to the hospital."

"thank you!" Mu Ru bowed deeply to Zheng Yifan. That sincere action was only short of kneeling down and kowtowing three times.

"Don't thank me. Hurry up and leave. I'm going to the ward for ward rounds." Zheng Yifan stood up, pulled her arm, and walked out of the consultation room with her.

Mu Ru went home in a happy mood. Perhaps because she was in a good mood, when she passed by the vegetable market in the city village, she especially went to buy half a catty of scrawny and a stalk of lettuce.

The people in the vegetable market all looked at her with different gazes. She didn't care, but when she returned home and saw the "Xi" sign on the door, she finally understood what the people in the vegetable market were looking at.

"Mom, I haven't agreed to marry Pang Dahai yet. Why are you putting the "Xi" sign at home?" Mu Ru looked at Lin Xinyue who was putting the "Xi" sign on her bedside and asked impatiently.

"If you don't agree to marry him, then you won't let me have the surgery?" Lin Xinyue replied impatiently, and then she roared angrily, "you're determined to kill me, aren't you? Are you unwilling that I'm not dead?"

"Mom, what are you saying?" Mu Ru was very unhappy when she heard her mother's words She also roared, "How am I going to kill you For Your Life, for your body, I've been doing things like an ox. Haven't you seen me pick up cans and bottles of mineral water every day when I go out "Don't you just want to sell them for a few dollars "But I've already worked so hard and put in so much effort. Why are you still scolding me "Your precious baby, your precious baby who left with ten million dollars, why didn't you go look for her "I haven't seen you scold her at all. "

Lin Xinyue was slightly stunned when she heard this, but she immediately burst out in anger She couldn't help but roar, "is it useful for me to scold her "She's not in front of me, so it's useless for me to scold her. She can't hear me, so I want to go look for her, but the point is, I don't know where she is Do you think I'm willing to follow a useless person like you If you didn't bring harm to this family, if you didn't... ..

“Okay, okay, it’s all my fault, okay?” Mu Ru quickly interrupted Lin xinyue’s words and sighed deeply. Finally, she said, “mom, I’ve already borrowed the money, so you don’t have to worry about my marriage with Pang Dahai. You can go to the hospital the day after tomorrow, and the surgery will continue as usual. That should be enough, right?”

“What?” Lin xinyue stared at Mu ru with wide eyes, thinking that she had heard wrongly, so she couldn’t help but ask, “Mu Ru, what did you say just now? You borrowed the money? Who did you borrow it from?”

“I borrowed it from my classmate.” Mu Ru did not want to tell her mother about the matter of borrowing money, so she said plainly, “it was Fei’er who helped me borrow it from more than twenty classmates. Each of them received two to three thousand. After borrowing it for a day, I finally have enough.”

Chapter 195: An unexpected disaster

Mu Ru thought that she had borrowed the money and that her mother’s hospitalization was settled, so there was no need to care about her marriage with Pang Dahai.

However, in reality, she was too naive. The next morning, the Pang family’s wedding car arrived. Pang Dahai was dressed in red and green, like a clown. He smiled foolishly and came to welcome the wedding.

Mu Ru did not know what was going on. Of course, she did not want to go with them, but they said that the marriage was already agreed upon. Moreover, Mu Ru’s mother, Lin Xinyue, had personally agreed. Moreover, she had received the Pang family’s 50,000 yuan dowry yesterday afternoon. Therefore, Mu Ru had to marry Pang Dahai.

Of course, Mu Ru didn’t agree. She asked her mother to quickly take out the 50,000 yuan. Although Lin Xinyue was sometimes confused and sometimes sober, after knowing that her daughter had already borrowed money, she still stood by her daughter’s side. In a flurry, she took out the 50,000 yuan that she had already counted into a pile of scattered notes.

However, the Pang family didn’t want to do it. They said that they were playing with them. They had already accepted the dowry and agreed to the wedding. They had prepared everything. The wedding banquet set up by Guang Da Hotel and the wedding preparations by the wedding company had all cost more than 200,000 yuan. If Mu ru did not marry Pang Dahai, she would have to compensate them with 300,000 yuan.

When Mu ru heard this, she was stunned. She had never agreed to the marriage with Pang Dahai. Moreover, the Pang family had never talked to her. They had only talked to her mother. How did it become that she had to compensate the Pang family?

Of course, Mu Ru was not willing to compensate them. Lin xinyue seemed to have recovered from her madness. Especially when she saw Pang Dahai’s short, thick, and silly look, she felt that her mu ru could not marry such a dwarf-like fool no matter how bad she was.

She saw the Pang family standing at her door making a racket. At the same time, a few people reached out to pull mu ru, wanting to pull mu ru downstairs to get into the wedding car. The maternal love that had always been hidden in her heart suddenly burst out She ran into the kitchen, took a kitchen knife, and directly swung it at Pang Dahai.

The Pang family members who came to welcome the bride were immediately frightened. They immediately let go of Mu Ru to protect Pang Dahai, but because they were one step too slow, Lin Xinyue's knife landed on Pang Dahai's arm, and blood immediately came out.

This completely infuriated the Pang family. Three men quickly went forward and pushed Lin Xinyue down. Then, they started to beat her up, completely ignoring whether she was a lunatic or a patient.

Mu Ru was forcefully pulled by someone at the side. She could not jump forward to help. Of course, even if she really did jump forward, she would only be beaten up.

This was a village in the city. Mu Ru was next door to a bunch of foreigners who lived in rented houses. Seeing that such a big thing had happened here, some kind-hearted people secretly called 911.

The police arrived half an hour later, and 120 from the hospital also arrived half an hour later. However, by the time they arrived, Lin Xinyue had already been beaten to the point of dying on the ground.

Mu Ru cried as she followed 120 into the car. She did not care about the Pang family. She only thought about whether she could still send Lin Xinyue to the hospital as soon as possible. She thought about whether her mother still had a chance to survive.

The ambulance was sent directly to the emergency room. While Mu ru was still in the car, she called Zheng Yifan, hoping that he could arrive at the entrance of the emergency room. Because her mother was suffering from a heart disease, she reckoned that the heart surgery would have to be carried out ahead of time.

Chapter 196 Lin Xinyue died

Lin Xinyue was not rescued in the end. She died during the rescue operation. Zheng Yifan said that someone had kicked her in the heart, causing her to bleed and cause a heart attack.

Lin Xinyue died just like that. Before she died, she did not say a word to Mu Ru. Mu Ru only remembered the way she looked at her when she was in the ambulance. Her eyes seemed to be filled with apology.

Lin Xinyue died. Her marriage with Pang Dahai was lifted because of the intervention of the police. The Pang family's request for a compensation of 300,000 yuan was also considered unreasonable by the police. At the same time, Lin Xinyue was beaten to death, but those people pushed the blame to Pang Dahai Pang Dahai was a fool, so they just let it go.

Mu Ru did not hire a lawyer because she was penniless and could not afford a lawsuit. At the same time, village chief Pang had power and influence. Even if she really did file a lawsuit, she probably would not win. She might not even know how she was killed.

Her mother was dead, and she did not even have a memorial hall. Because the Xi family had closed down, no one remembered Madam Xi, and no one would come to pay their respects, so the memorial hall was just for show.

She used the 3,000 yuan from her mother's jade bracelet to cremate her mother. There was a farewell ceremony on the eve of the cremation. Originally, it was for her family to bid farewell, but she was Lin Xinyue's only family. Therefore, she circled around her mother's body.

After circling around, she realized that Zheng Yifan had come. She could not help but feel a sense of warmth in her heart. Although Zheng Yifan had only met her a few times, she felt that this doctor was really good. At least he had medical ethics. Moreover, before her mother died.. He had even said that he would lend her money.

Zheng Yifan had accompanied her to cremate her mother. Then, she spent more than 1,000 yuan to buy a luxurious urn and put her father's ashes in it. This way, her parents would finally be reunited.

Zheng Yifan said that it was not a good idea for her to carry a large urn alone, so he lent her 20,000 yuan and went to buy a relatively remote cemetery for her to bury her parents in a cemetery.

With Lin Xinyue dead, Mu Ru could no longer live in the city village that she had rented. Zheng Yifan also stopped her from renting a house in the city village. In the end, he said that his house was spacious, with two bedrooms and a living room. Mu Ru could stay at his house until she found a place to live.

Mu Ru originally did not want to stay at Zheng Yifan's house because Zheng Yifan was a young man after all, and she was a young woman. Even if there was nothing between them, she was afraid that people would gossip.

So she called Cheng Feier and wanted to stay at Cheng Feier's house, but Cheng feier regretfully told her on the phone that her cousin had come two days ago and was staying at her house to look for a job, so she wouldn't be able to move out anytime soon. She would have to wait for a few days for her cousin to find a job and move out before mu ru could move in.

In the end, Mu ru decided to stay at Zheng Yifan's house for a few days since she didn't have anywhere to go. She thought that it would be better if she found a company that provided a dormitory.

However, Mu Ru wanted to find a job as soon as possible, but her body was unable to fulfill her wish.

Lin Xinyue died, and Mu Ru's life seemed to have lost its focus. Before she could find a job, she collapsed on her own.

It made sense. Xi Empire went bankrupt, the Xi family went bankrupt, and she was chased out of the Dongfang Family by Dongfang Mo a few days after the abortion. Then, she led her crazy mother, who had heart disease, to live a life without food.

The mental pressure, the pressure in her life, and her physical strength were pushed to their limits. When Lin Xinyue was alive, her body felt like a string was taut, reminding her every moment that she could not fall because she had a mother who needed someone to take care of her.

Now, the person who needed her to take care of was gone. Her life seemed to have lost its support point, so she fell just like that.

Chapter 197 unexpected encounters

Mu Ru stayed at Zheng Yifan's house. She stayed in the guest room. Initially, Zheng Yifan wanted to let her stay in the master bedroom, but mu ru refused no matter what. She said that she was a guest, so how could she stay in the master bedroom?

Zheng Yifan gave in to her and said that he would let her rest at his house for two days. Then, he would see if the hospital needed a nurse or something. He would help her find a job at the hospital. Although it was hard, it was simpler.

However, the night that Mu ru arrived, she fell ill. She had a high fever, and she was in a daze from the fever. She had nightmares and kept shouting, "mom... I really didn't do anything wrong... mom... I don't want the Xi family to close down either..."

Thankfully, Zheng Yifan was a doctor and his hearing was very sensitive. He heard her screaming in pain in her room at night, so he used the key to open the door and came in. When he saw that her face was red from the fever and she was cramping, he rushed to send her to the hospital.

Mu Ru had a high fever of 41 and her fever had turned into pneumonia. She stayed in the hospital for a week before she was discharged. The already thin person looked even more pale and haggard because of her illness.

When Mu Ru was discharged from the hospital and returned to Zheng Yifan's house, it was already January 20th. February 1st was the New Year. Seeing that the new year was approaching and many companies were on holiday, it was not easy to find a job.

Zheng Yifan said to her, "then let's wait until the Chinese new year before looking for a job. Anyway, I'm alone, so the Chinese New Year is quite quiet. With you staying at my house, the Chinese New Year is more or less lively for the two of us."

Mu Ru knew that Zheng Yifan was from Hong Kong when she stayed at his house. His parents were both in the United States, and Hong Kong only had one sister. His sister was married and had her own family, so he would only go to his sister's house in Hong Kong for one day during the Chinese New Year He would stay in Binhai for the rest of the day.

Because Mu ru did not have to look for a job before the Chinese New Year, she helped Zheng Yifan clean up and cook. In fact, Zheng Yifan was a doctor, and doctors loved cleanliness to begin with. Moreover, he had hired a part-time worker, who would come to clean up every two days.

So she just helped him wash his clothes and then help him cook. Because Zheng Yifan always ate fast food when he was alone, her kitchen was as clean as a showcase of a cabinet company.

In the morning, when Zheng Yifan went to work, he accidentally mentioned that he hadn't eaten honey shrimp for a long time. He said that the last time he ate it was at his sister's house in Hong Kong during the New Year. A year had passed, and he probably had to wait until he went to his sister's house to eat it.

Mu Ru knew how to cook honey shrimp. In the past, when she was at the Xi family's house, she always worked in the kitchen, so she could cook a lot of delicious food. So after Zheng Yifan left, she washed the clothes and took the bus to buy the shrimp.

There was a supermarket near Zheng Yifan's apartment, but small supermarkets usually did not sell prawns, so they had to go to a global chain supermarket. There were fresh prawns inside.

The chain supermarket indeed had prawns, and there were many ingredients that the small supermarket did not have. Mu Ru pushed the shopping cart to choose some ingredients that could be stored in the refrigerator for a few days. She thought it was rare for her to come this far every day to buy them.

When she bought the bill and walked out of the mall with two shopping bags, she saw a slightly familiar car driving over. Coincidentally, there was a parking space next to her, and the car was parked in that parking space.

She lowered her head and walked forward. However, just as she was about to pass through this car, Meng heard a slightly familiar yet unfamiliar voice shouting behind her, "Hey, are you Xi Muru or Xi Muxue?"

Mu Ru turned around and saw Kuang Yingying's extremely smug face. The driver's door opened, and Dongfang Yu elegantly got out of the car.

Chapter 198 unexpected encounters

She looked at them indifferently and distanced herself from them. "I'm Xi Muru. I'm sorry to disappoint Miss Kuang."

Mu Ru turned and left immediately. She did not even look at Dongfang Yu, who was beside Kuang Yingying. There was no need to waste her gaze on him.

The Xi family no longer existed and she had been kicked out of the Dongfang family. The relationship between the Xi family and the Dongfang family, the entanglement between her and Dongfang Mo and Dongfang Yu, had completely ended. They would never cross paths again.

Dongfang Yu stood by the car and looked at the figure that had already walked away. Ever since his engagement ceremony with Kuang Yingying, he had never seen her again. In less than twenty days, she seemed to have lost a lot of weight, and she looked much more haggard.

She was here to buy ingredients, and she was carrying vegetables in the basket. She should be living nearby, but wasn't she renting a village in the city with her mother? Everyone in this neighborhood said that it was a high-end community. Could she afford to rent it?

"Yu, we should go in and buy something. It's aunt Gu's birthday tonight, so we have to prepare a decent gift." Kuang Yingying saw that Dongfang Yu's gaze had been following Xi Muru, and the weeds of jealousy grew wildly in her heart.

Xi Muru, an ugly woman with a birthmark on her forehead, was actually able to attract Dongfang Yu's gaze. It seemed that she had underestimated this woman.

She had always regarded Xi Muxue as a formidable opponent because that woman was indeed too perfect. Moreover, she was learning dance at an art school. Her figure was soft, so she could win the favor of men on any occasion.

Now, Xi Muxue had been completely defeated by her. Binhai had long lost track of Xi Muxue, but this ugly freak, Xi Muru, was still wandering around Binhai. Moreover, she had actually attracted Dongfang Yu's gaze.

Dongfang Mo of the Dongfang family was not only completely unrecognizable, but he was also a eunuch. Such a man obviously did not have the ability to impregnate a woman, but according to the information she had received.. Xi Muru had been driven out of one inch Mo city by the Dongfang family because she was pregnant with a bastard child.

If Xi Muxue was pregnant with a bastard child, she would not find it strange at all because that woman Xi Muxue had always been fooling around with men.

However, Xi Muru being pregnant with a bastard child was puzzling. This was because she had been high school classmates with Xi Muru for three years. Although they had never been friends, they had always been fierce enemies because Xi Muru always surpassed her in ranking This made her, the daughter of the mayor, unable to get first place in the grade.

The Xi Muru she knew was a person who did not pay attention to the outside world and only focused on reading the sage books. In the three years of high school, she had never had a boyfriend, and she had never even gotten close to a boy. Such a woman.. How could she possibly be pregnant with an illegitimate child in just three months after marrying Dongfang Mo?

Even if she was really pregnant, then it would definitely not be an illegitimate child. It should be the other two Dongfang brothers, Dongfang Yu or Dongfang Jun..

She carefully analyzed Dongfang Yu and Dongfang Jun and felt that the possibility of Dongfang Jun was very low. Dongfang Jun was always in school, and he was busy taking the toefl test to study abroad, so he almost did not have the time and energy to pester Xi Muru.

Then, the remaining person was Dongfang Yu. Moreover, from Dongfang Yu's reaction to Xi Muru the last two times, she was sure that Dongfang Yu and Xi Muru must be having an affair.

Fortunately, Xi Muru knew her own limits and did not pester Dongfang Yu. Otherwise, she might have to spend more effort on her.

Chapter 199: Can you be my date

Mu Ru bought some ingredients and was about to use the key to open the door when Zheng Yifan opened it for her. When he saw that she had bought so many ingredients, he quickly reached out and took it.

"Don't you have to work this afternoon?" Mu Ru couldn't help but ask curiously when she saw that he was no longer wearing his white coat.

Zheng Yifan wouldn't come home at noon if he went to work. Although the doctor had a two-hour break at noon, he was a doctor in the inpatient department, so he was afraid that there would be a temporary patient situation, so he always took a nap after work in the afternoon.

"I was supposed to go to work in the afternoon, but because I have to attend my aunt's party in the evening, I took a leave of absence." Zheng Yifan sorted the ingredients in his hands into the refrigerator and said with a smile, "it just so happens that I don't have a female companion tonight. Can you be my female companion?"

"Me?" Mu Ru pointed at herself with her finger, then quickly shook her head and said, "No, no, this definitely won't work. I don't know how to dance, and I don't have any experience in attending a party..."

"What kind of experience does this require?" Zheng Yifan interrupted her, then left out the ingredients for lunch. As he walked towards the kitchen, he smiled and said, "Mu Ru, if you don't know how to dance, then we don't have to dance. It's okay, you just have to follow me. Anyway, I don't want to hear my aunt constantly nagging me about getting married."

When Mu Ru heard Zheng Yifan's words, she understood. Zheng Yifan's aunt probably had a lot to do with his marriage. However, Zheng Yifan put his career first, and his parents were far away from abroad, so this aunt was worried.

She really did not want to go, but since Zheng Yifan had asked, and Zheng Yifan said that he did not have a girlfriend, he usually knew the nurses in the hospital. If she asked a nurse to help, it would be troublesome if the nurse took him seriously. So she asked her to help.

She thought about it and felt that since Zheng Yifan had helped her so much, it was okay to be his female companion to attend a banquet with him. Wasn't it just to help Zheng Yifan lie to his aunt?

Therefore, Mu Ru and Zheng Yifan cooked lunch together at noon. Mu Ru thought that Zheng Yifan should follow the principle of a gentleman's distant kitchen and not enter the kitchen.

However, when she was cooking lunch, she found out that Zheng Yifan was not like that. Although he did not know how to cook Chinese food, he was very good at Western food, especially the fried beef steak.

Lunch passed peacefully. Zheng Yifan was a typical modest gentleman. His habits and eating habits were good, and his speech and behavior were very gentlemanly.

"Mu Ru, you said last time that you were only 19 years old, right?" Zheng Yifan stood at the kitchen door and asked the little woman who was washing dishes softly.

"MMM." Mu Ru nodded and turned to look at him.

"Then why didn't you go to university?" Zheng Yifan found it strange. Mu Ru was so young, yet all she thought about every day was looking for a job.

"I was originally a freshman at Bin University, but because my mother got sick, I dropped out of school." Mu Ru had simplified her own matters to the minimum. She didn't mention anything about the XI family closing down, her being chased out of one inch Mo city by Dongfang Mo, or anything like that.

Of course, if mu ru knew who was going to attend the dinner party tonight, she would probably tell Zheng Yifan everything about her, but she didn't know.

Chapter 200 boyfriend and girlfriend

In the afternoon, Zheng Yifan drove mu ru to buy a dress. Because he said that it was his aunt's birthday party and it was a buffet style, he had to wear a dress.

This was the second time that Mu ru wore a dress in her life, and the first time was on the day that she married Dongfang Mo..

Of course, on the day that she married Dongfang Mo, not only did she wear a dress, but she also wore a wedding dress. She used to think that it was the most beautiful day of her life.

However, that beautiful day did not bring her good luck. Instead, it brought her completely destructive luck, causing her life to drift from one place to another.

Zheng Yifan brought mu ru to a dress shop called romantic spring. The owner of the dress shop, Lin Qiluo, was a woman in her thirties. Not only was she beautiful and had a good figure, she was also very passionate and generous.

Mu Ru's figure was originally very good, but because of the recent changes in her life, she had lost a lot of weight. Her face also looked a little too thin and Pale.

Lin qiluo probably knew Zheng Yifan before When she saw Mu Ru, she could not help but tease, "Aiyo, Yifan, this Miss Xi is too thin. Your boyfriend didn't do anything at all. Raising a girlfriend like this, it really doesn't make sense. "

Zheng Yifan laughed when he heard Lin Qiluo's words. He did not argue and just went along with her. "Sister Lin is right. It looks like I have to work hard to earn money. Otherwise, if I can't support my wife well in the future, won't I be scolded to death by you? "

When Mu ru heard Zheng Yifan say this, she felt a little apologetic, so she quickly explained, "Miss Lin, you misunderstood. Actually, I'm not... "

"Mu Ru said that she's actually not a beauty, " Zheng Yifan continued mu Ru's words Then, he purposely said in a reproachful tone, "Mu Ru, I already said that the birthmark on your forehead isn't an ugly symbol. You don't have to mind it. Moreover, if you cover it with BANGS, you won't be able to see anything. "

Lin qiluo nodded with a smile and agreed with Zheng Yifan. "That's true. Besides, even if you don't use your bangs to cover it up, that birthmark can still be painted into a peach blossom. It's also very beautiful. Moreover, it won't look good if you use your bangs to cover it up. It's easy to make people think that you're Xi Muxue, the former Mrs. Dongfang. You look like Xi Muxue, but your face is thinner and Paler than hers. "

When Mu ru heard this, her heart was filled with smoke. She couldn't help but feel lucky that the past few months of her life had changed her, so she was now somewhat different from the Beauty Xi Muxue who used to have a standard figure Everyone could tell from her figure and her face.

It was good to have a difference. Xi Muru was an unknown one, so no one would have thought that Xi Muru was the Xi family's Miss. Because in the eyes of Binhai public, there was only one miss of the Xi family, and that was Xi Muxue.

Not only was Lin Qiluo's dress design good, but her makeup skills were also top-notch. She originally wanted to comb mu Ru's bangs and paint her birthmark as a peach blossom, but mu ru didn't want to. She said that she sweated easily, and if she painted her face.. Once she sweated, the painting would be ruined, and the makeup would be even uglier than the birthmark.

Thus, in the end, she still used bangs to cover up the birthmark on her forehead. Lin Qiluo said that her face shape was suitable for a retro style, so she picked out a Qipao for her and then combed her hair with Feng Cheng's hairstyle from "Shanghai beach.
