Chapter 231, a strange place

Mu Ru did not know how long the car would take because Leng Leiting did not feel much pain when he hit her on the head. However, after she got into the car, the bag on her head started to hurt.

Working at the flower market these few days was very tiring. Two days ago, she stayed in a small hotel and could not sleep well in the basement. Last night, she moved to the staff dormitory and could not sleep because it was someone else's bed. However, today, because she was busy, she did not even have a few bites of lunch. At night, she moved two pots of Phalaenopsis.

The most unfortunate thing was that she actually met Xi Muxue's creditor who forced her to pay back the money!

She was tired, hungry, and in pain. She was also covered by a black cloth bag, so she fell asleep in her daze. She did not even know how long the car had been driving for.

She woke up when she was carried and thrown to the ground. She was in so much pain that she wanted to scream. Only then did she realize that there was still a towel stuffed in her mouth. With the sound of the door closing, she immediately knew that she had been thrown somewhere.

Fortunately, those people did not tie her hands and feet. Perhaps they were certain that she did not have the ability to escape, so she immediately used her own hands to pull the black cloth bag that was covering her head.

Fortunately, it was not difficult. Although there was a rope tied to the back of her neck and a dead knot tied to the back of her head, she still fumbled around and slowly untied the Dead Knot. She took off the black cloth bag and pulled out a towel that was stuffed in her mouth.

However, she soon discovered that the situation of taking off the black cloth bag was similar to not taking off the black cloth bag because everything before her eyes was pitch-black.

Her Eyes blinked a few times, and it took her a few minutes to get used to it. The room was pitch-black and cold, and at the same time, it was dark and damp. She did not know if the room was built in the basement or in some wild mountain.

It was very cold. The clothes inside were soaked with sweat because of the flowers. Now, who knew how many hours had passed. The sweat-soaked clothes had been sticking to her body inside, so cold that her whole body trembled.

The 29th day of the 12th lunar month, the end of the year, met with rain again, so the winter at Binhai was also cold. Mu Ru tried her best to stabilize her trembling body. Her feet were very numb because she had not exercised for too long and curled up in the car. She almost could not take a step.

She had no choice but to sit down in the dark. The cold floor was so cold that her already shivering body could not help but curl up, trying to preserve the last bit of warmth in her body.

Finally, after her eyes adapted to the darkness in the room, she gradually realized that there was actually not a single ray of light. This was because there was a small window in the room that was probably used for ventilation, and there was starlight shining through that window. Although it was extremely weak, it was still better than no light at all.

With the help of the weak starlight, she slowly moved her head to observe the dark, damp, and cold room. It turned out that the room was empty except for her.

No, it was not really empty. With the help of the weak starlight, she found a few old newspapers piled in a corner of the room. She did not know when the newspapers were from, and even more so, she did not know how the newspapers came here.

She did not think too much about it. She just crawled over to the few newspapers with trembling hands and shook them open. Then, she fumbled with her hands and stuffed the newspapers into her back, separating the foundation that was already soaked with sweat. She thought that as long as the wet clothes didn't stick to her body, it shouldn't be so cold.

However, it was still cold. The newspapers had been here for God knows how long. They were dry and hard. It was like stuffing a piece of wood into her clothes. It was painful to cut them.

Chapter 232, the critical moment

Mu Ru endured the discomfort of stuffing the old newspaper into her clothes. She shook off the remaining newspaper and spread it on the floor. Then, she sat on it, thinking that if the floor wasn't so cold, it shouldn't be so cold anymore.

However, it was still very cold. The old newspaper stuffed into her back and the old newspaper used to cushion her seat didn't seem to have any effect. She curled up on the newspaper, still so cold that her teeth were chattering non-stop.

Why was it so cold? She had lived in Binhai for 19 years, and it was as if she had never encountered such a cold winter. She seemed to feel that her heart was so cold that it didn't beat much.

I don't know if there are fewer stars in the sky outside, but the light in the room, which was originally still there, gradually dimmed. Coupled with the incomparable cold, she suddenly felt as if she had gone to hell. And the bull-headed horse-faced with a smile came to her.

She kept rubbing her hands, trying to add a little warmth to herself. Her numb feet kept moving, trying not to fall asleep again, because she was afraid that once she fell asleep, she would never wake up.

Her numb feet gradually became numb because of the movement. She slowly stood up, rubbing her hands and continuously tap dancing. In her heart, she kept saying: I don't want to die, I don't want to die. I'm only 19 years old, I still want to go to college. I want to be a painter, and, I don't even have a warm home. If I die like this, I WON'T BE SATISFIED!

Perhaps it was because of her strong thoughts, cold, hungry, tired, and thirsty, she kept moving, but just tap dancing seemed to not be able to warm her body up. She had to do a little more exercise.

So she began to do intense aerobics, but she did not dare to let go of the darkness around her. She was afraid that she might accidentally bump her head, so she could only move her hands and feet a little bigger.

However, she was already weak from hunger and exhaustion. Now, her body simply could not bear the physical exercise of aerobics. Therefore, after less than two minutes, she felt dizzy, as if the surroundings were spinning nonstop. Her hands and feet were still cold, but her forehead was getting hotter and hotter. The bag on her head did not seem to have disappeared. As she danced, the pulse in the bag seemed to be beating faster and faster.

In the dark, she used her hands to support herself against the wall. She stabilized her body that was about to fall down and slowly walked towards the small window that was used for ventilation. Because her body was close to the wall.. Meng ran suddenly felt as if there was something in the bag that was hard against her chest.

She was slightly stunned. Then, she quickly reached for the clothes under her chest coat. When she touched a long cell phone, Meng ran realized it was a cell phone. It was the cell phone that she had not turned on for a long time.

Ever since she moved out from Zheng Yifan's place, she had turned off her phone because she didn't want Zheng Yifan to find her again, and she didn't want to cause Zheng Yifan any more trouble.

Later on, when she worked at the flower market, she would leave early and return late every day. At the same time, she didn't need to contact anyone, so she slowly forgot about her phone.

The coat she was wearing was the maid's uniform she wore when she was at the Xi family's house. There was a small pocket inside the coat, so she kept the unused phone in this pocket that she usually didn't remember.

The phone was indeed useless normally, but now it was a life-saving Straw. As she took out the phone, she kept praying in her heart, hoping that there was still electricity and that she could still make a call.

Chapter 233 late-night phone calls

The phone was indeed still charged. In fact, it had been charged in the morning at Zheng Yifan's house. It had been turned off after leaving in the afternoon. Although a week had passed, the battery was still full when it was turned on again.

The phone showed that it was more than two o'clock in the morning, but at this moment, she did not know who to call. Was it her classmate Cheng Feier or Zheng Yifan?

She thought for a moment and finally called Cheng Feier. She thought that it was her best friend. Knowing that she was in trouble, she would at least think of a way to save her, right?

However, after the call was made, a sweet female voice rang out from the phone: The number you have dialed is turned off, please try again later!

Turning off the phone, that was true. It was past two in the morning, and most people were used to turning off their phones to sleep. After all, the phone had radiation, so it was not surprising that Cheng Feier's phone was turned off at this time.

Therefore, she had no choice but to call Zheng Yifan. Zheng Yifan's number was actually not stored in her phone, but he was the attending doctor in charge of her mother. At that time, because of Lin Xinyue's illness, she often called Zheng Yifan. And she had a good memory, so after a few more calls, her brain would remember that set of numbers.

It was already the 29th day of the twelfth lunar month. No, it was now early in the morning, and it was already the 30th day of the Lunar New Year. She did not know if Zheng Yifan was still in Binhai, because he said that he would go to Hong Kong for two days during the Lunar New Year.

However, this was her only hope, so she decided to give it a try.

Therefore, she used her cold and long-winded hands to enter Zheng Yifan's number on the phone, then pressed the answer button. The phone was not turned off, and the call was quickly picked up. She was delighted and could not help but secretly sigh in relief.

However, very soon, she was disappointed because the phone rang for a long time, but no one picked up. She had no choice but to cut off the call and replay it again, but it was the same. The television kept ringing, but no one picked up.

After repeating this for more than ten times, Mu Ru really could not hold on any longer. It seemed that the heavens wanted to kill her. If she did not think of a way to escape tonight, who knew how Leng Leiting would deal with her tomorrow?

Of course, there would be no good things waiting for her. She might be sold to a casino or a place of debauchery in a fit of anger. Wasn't that what the movies and television wrote about the bad guys?

No one picked up the phone. Mu Ru was finally disheartened. She threw her phone aside and sat down on the cold floor. She hugged her knees with both hands and cried in the end.

How could she be so naive and muddle-headed? She was the one who secretly ran away from Zheng Yifan's house. Moreover, Dongfang Yu would definitely warn Zheng Yifan if he came to warn her. Zheng Yifan probably didn't want the Dongfang Brothers to misunderstand. Therefore, he had completely cut ties with her after she left.

Therefore, it was normal for Zheng Yifan to not pick up when she called him. He probably did not want to get into a fight with the Dongfang brothers because of her.

Zheng Yifan was woken up by the ringtone of his phone. He had actually just started his holiday yesterday and was planning to go to Hong Kong at dawn today. After all, it was the 30th day of the Lunar New Year. No matter what, he had to go and spend the New Year with his only sister.

However, the phone woke him up. However, he did not reach out to grab the phone in the drawer of the bedside cabinet. Instead, he turned over, pulled the blanket over his head, and continued to sleep.

This was because the people who usually called him at this time were probably people who dragged him out to eat ghost food. Perhaps it was doctor Lin, who was on the night shift in the hospital. Presumably, there were not many patients in the ward these two days. There was nothing much going on in the middle of the night, so they just wanted to have supper. Therefore, they deliberately made trouble and called him to harass him.

Chapter 234 Xi Muru, where are you

He did not pick up the phone. He did not like to be disturbed in the middle of the night when he was sleeping soundly. On the other hand, Doctor Lin and the rest loved to play such meaningless games. It was as if he would be happy if they disturbed his sleep.

Unfortunately, the phone kept ringing. It was as if he would not stop until he picked up the phone. Therefore, not only did he cover his head and hug himself with the blanket, he also covered his ears with his hands under the blanket. He just wanted to not hear the ringtone that disturbed his sleep.

Finally, after about ten minutes, the ringtone that had been ringing stopped. The Room was quiet again. He pulled his head out of the blanket and wanted to close his eyes and continue to sleep.

However, he soon found that he could not fall asleep after being woken up. Perhaps it was because the ringtone had been ringing for too long, but he was not sleepy at all.

He stretched himself and sat up. It was very painful to not fall asleep in the middle of the night. He turned on the bedside lamp and opened the drawer, thinking of finding a cigarette to smoke.

However, when his hand reached for the cigarette box, he accidentally touched the phone that was on standby. The screen lit up because of his touch, and the picture on it was clearly visible.

15 missed calls, all from the same number — Xi Muru!

Xi Muru Xi Muru called him?

He immediately stood there for a few seconds, staring at the bright screen until the screen dimmed again. Only then did he react. He immediately grabbed the phone, pressed it, and looked again. It was indeed Xi Muru!

His hands trembled and his heartbeat accelerated instantly. He did not have time to think and immediately pressed the replay button to call Xi Muru.

However, the phone kept ringing, but no one picked up. He could not help but panic. It had been a week since Xi Muru had left without saying goodbye. Her phone had been turned off, and he had made countless calls but never got through.

He thought that the reason why her phone was turned off was because she used to be Dongfang Mo's wife. By right, she should be his first cousin-in-law, so she wanted to avoid him, so she stopped contacting him and did not want him to find her.

However, what happened today? She actually called him?

This was not right. Something was very wrong. Xi Muru's personality should be very strong. She did not think that she would call him just because of a small matter. She must have encountered some problem that she could not solve on her own.

As he thought about this, his heart grew more anxious. He quickly turned on the light and went into the wardrobe to find some clothes to wear. Then, as he ran out of the door, he kept calling Xi Muru's number, hoping that she would pick up. He hoped that she could tell him what was going on.

After a long time, there were nearly ten calls. When he had just entered the elevator, the phone was finally picked up. Then, he heard the sound of a shuffling body and a slight sucking sound coming from the phone.

"Mu Ru, is it mu ru?" Zheng Yifan pressed the elevator door button with his hand as he shouted anxiously into the phone, "Mu Ru, where are you? Why aren't you saying anything? Did something happen?"

There was still a rustling sound like an animal crawling and a faint sucking sound coming from the other side of the phone, but there was still no Xi Muru's voice.

He became more and more anxious. The elevator had just reached the underground parking lot, and the moment the door opened, he darted out. As he ran towards his own car, he kept shouting into the phone, "Mu Ru, say something. Where are you?"

Chapter 235 Xi Muru, where are you

When Zheng Yifan opened his car door and got into the car, Mu Ru's voice came faintly from the other end of the phone. If he didn't listen carefully, he wouldn't be able to hear her clearly. He pressed the phone tightly against his ear. Only then did he hear her voice clearly. "Yifan... I'm so cold... so painful... so dizzy..."

"Mu Ru... where are you... Mu Ru... quickly tell me where you are... Mu Ru... what happened... Mu Ru... quickly tell me... so that I can drive over..."

Zheng Yifan's voice was getting louder and faster. He could barely hear Xi Muru's voice, but he felt that his voice was also very low and mu ru might not be able to hear him clearly.

Mu Ru didn't answer his urgent questions, but she didn't hang up because he could hear the rustling on the other end of the phone. At the same time, Mu Ru was using all her strength. His heart couldn't help but tighten. What happened to her? Did she encounter something?

Thinking that something might have happened to her, he kept blaming himself in his heart. Although she had left quietly, he should have gone to find her. Although her phone was switched off, as long as she was in Binhai, as long as he put his heart into it, there was no reason why he could not find her.

It was all his fault. He even thought that since she had made up her mind to leave, she probably did not want to have any entanglements with him. Perhaps she was worried about the Dongfang family, so she did not want to continue to have anything to do with him.

He held the phone in one hand and turned the steering wheel to drive his car out of the building. Zheng Yifan was hesitating about which direction to drive in when Mu Ru's voice came from the phone again.

"Yifan, I don't know where this is... I only know that I'm in a dark room... there's a small window to get some air... but the window is very small... it's only about the size of a head..."

Mu Ru's voice was still very weak, but she was probably much more awake now because she could describe everything around her more accurately, but what she described.. It didn't have the slightest relation to where Zheng Yifan drove the car.

So.. Zheng Yifan anxiously said to Xi Muru on the other end of the phone, "Mu Ru, think of a way to climb to the window. Try to stick your head out a little and see if you can find out what's going on outside. Because I have to judge the location of your room based on the characteristics of the outside, and what's in your room doesn't help me at all. You've already driven out now... "... "..."

When Mu ru heard Zheng Yifan's words, she immediately got up from the ground with all her might. She touched the wall and came to the window. Then, she stood on her tiptoes. Fortunately, she was not short. She was 165, so after standing on her tiptoes, she could stick her head into the small vent Then, she could see some of the scenery outside.

"Yifan, I can see it. There is a narrow alley outside the window. Not far from the middle of the alley, there is a lampstand that is either an electric pole or a light bulb that has been broken. At the end of the alley, there is a sign for a small restaurant. It says the old place. This old place is about 300 meters away from where I am. On the other end of the alley, there might be a store, but it is very far away from me. I estimate that it is more than 500 meters away, so I can't see clearly... . . ."

Chapter 236: I see you

Mu Ru had done her best to describe the situation in detail to Zheng Yifan with the help of the faint starlight and the light from the distant lamps She only prayed that Zheng Yifan would be able to find her current location based on the little clues she had provided.

After listening to Mu Ru's description, Zheng Yifan had a rough idea of the situation. The alley was about 1.5 meters wide. Such a narrow alley was probably only built thirty years ago Only the Old City area, which had not been demolished yet, would have such a phenomenon. Even the newly built village in the city would not have such a situation.

Binhai was a city very close to Hong Kong. It had been more than 30 years since the reform and opening up. Now, Binhai was filled with high-rise buildings and spacious roads. Only one place still retained its original appearance, and that place was Binhai's Old City area.

"I got it, Mu Ru. Don't be anxious. I'll drive over now. By the way, try to keep your phone on. I'll call you when I arrive..."

Zheng Yifan hung up the phone right after he finished his words. He had to drive to the Old City district, which was an hour and a half away from the city center.

It was only early in the morning, so the cars on the streets were rarely deserted, so they didn't prevent him from driving fast. Therefore, he was so anxious that he stepped on the gas pedal to the maximum. He didn't care about whether he would be fined or deducted points for speeding anymore.

It took him only seventy minutes to get there in an hour and a half with such a crazy speed. The Old City district wasn't big, but there were more than one narrow alley.

Fortunately, Mu Ru provided him with the name of a small restaurant called the old town. He parked his car in a relatively spacious area outside, took a flashlight, and got out of the car to search for the signboard of the old town in one alley after another.

The lights in the old town were dim, probably due to the lack of management. The dirtiness and messiness in this place was very thorough. Many of the alleys did not even have street lights, so he had to rely on the light of the flashlight to walk.

Finally, when he reached the last alley, he saw the restaurant called the old town. However, the restaurant was already closed. Well, it was already four o'clock in the morning, so it would be strange if it did not close.

He couldn't help but feel excited. Then, he walked along the alley. The old and old walls were in disrepair. As he walked through the alley, he was worried that the wall would suddenly fall off.

He remembered that Mu ru told him that the room she was in was about 300 meters away from the old place. So, after walking for about 200 meters, he took out his cell phone and called Mu Ru.

As he dialed, he walked forward. The phone rang for a long time before it was picked up. Then, Mu Ru's weak voice was heard. "Yifan, are you here?"

"Mu Ru, I'm already here. I'm in the alley you mentioned. Quickly stick your head into the ventilation window you mentioned so that I can see you..." Zheng Yifan's head looked at the ventilation window on the wall beside him. Because the building had ventilation windows, he was not sure which floor she was on.

"okay, I'll be right there..." Mu Ru's voice was heard. This time, it was a little louder. It was probably because she heard him say that there was hope. Then, Mu Ru's voice was heard again. "Yifan, I see you. Come a little closer, walk a little further..."

Chapter 237 Mu Ru, you have to hold on

Zheng Yifan put down his phone and looked up. Sure enough, he saw a hand reaching out from a window on the first floor of the building in front of him. It was waving at him non-stop. Mu Ru's voice came out from the air vent as well. "Yifan, I'm here..."

Zheng Yifan shone his flashlight at the back of the building. If he wanted to come out, he would have to go to the front. However, since Mu ru was in the room, someone must have locked the front.

"Mu Ru, wait a little longer. I'll go to the front door and see if I can find a way to break the door open," Zheng Yifan shouted at Mu Ru, then quickly ran to the front door of the building.

This was a very old residential building. It only had two floors. He didn't know if there was anyone living on the second floor, but the front door of the first floor was indeed locked, and it was a new anti-theft door. Moreover, it looked like the anti-theft door with a very advanced anti-theft system, and he was completely clueless about picking locks.

If he were to find a lock-picking company to pick locks, he would probably have to provide the owner's property certificate or something. Moreover, if he were to find someone from the lock-picking Company to Pick Locks, the commotion would be big, and it would be troublesome if Guan Mu ru was alerted.

With this thought in mind, he immediately gave up looking for a lock-picking company and went to the back of the building again. Looking at the small window that Mu ru had stretched out her hand to, his heart stirred.

These buildings had been in disrepair for a long time, and they were already in a state of dilapidation. Moreover, the walls were probably not very solid anymore. With this thought in mind, he quickly ran back to the car and took out a screwdriver and an iron hammer from his toolbox.

"Mu Ru, stand by the corner. I'm going to hit the window with the hammer to see if I can make the window a little bigger, and then you can come out from the window..."

"Oh..." Mu ru answered from inside, and then quickly walked to the corner away from the window in the dark. Perhaps because of Zheng Yifan's arrival, she felt as if she had become stronger.

Zheng Yifan swung the hammer and knocked hard on the wall by the window. As expected, it had been dilapidated for a long time. The white ash outside fell with one hit, and the red bricks inside had long loosened due to the long time. In just a few moments, the window had become several times bigger.

"Mu Ru, come over quickly. I'll pull you out." Zheng Yifan shone his flashlight into the room and saw mu ru curled up against the corner of the wall. He called out to her loudly.

The light from the flashlight was a little dazzling. Mu Ru quickly used her hand to cover her eyes and then quickly walked towards the window. Perhaps because she got up in a hurry, her vision turned dark and her head felt dizzy. She shook her body twice to stabilize herself, but in the end, she could not stabilize herself and slowly fell to the ground... "...".

"Mu Ru, Mu Ru," Zheng Yifan saw that she had actually fallen and called out anxiously from outside the window. Seeing that there was no response, he quickly jumped into the large window that he had knocked out.

Under the light of the flashlight, he saw the person lying on the ground. Her small face was as pale as paper, and her haggard face. His heart almost contracted in an instant. He immediately squatted down and reached out with both hands to pick her up from the ground. He quickly hugged her tightly in his arms... ..

Her body was cold as if she had walked out of an ice cellar, but her forehead was so hot that it could burn people's skin. She opened her mouth and breathed out hot air, proving that she still had a trace of human life.

"Mu Ru... you have to hold on... Mu Ru... I'll bring you back now!" Zheng Yifan shouted at the woman in his arms, then hugged her and climbed out of the room where mu ru was locked up.

Chapter 238 news about Mu Ru

The Chinese New Year's Eve was a traditional day for Chinese people to have a big reunion. On this day, people, no matter where they were, would usually try their best to rush home.

In the eastern part of Binhai, in one inch ink city, which was close to the mountains and the sea, Dongfang Mo woke up punctually at seven o'clock in the morning as usual and went to his special study room to read.

In the morning, it was time for him to read. From seven to eight o'clock in the morning, he absolutely did not allow anyone to disturb him. The Dongfang family also knew about this rule of his, so during the one hour he read in the morning, no one dared to knock on his door. Even the most important things had to wait until after eight in the morning.

Because it was the day of Reunion, Dongfang Jun, who had originally gone to the United States to study, also returned. Perhaps due to jet lag, he also woke up early in the morning.

Uncle Liu received a call from Leng Leiting at 7:30. He said that he was looking for Dongfang Mo, but he did not dare to disturb Dongfang Mo at this time, so he could only walk to and fro outside the hall to wait for time.

It just so happened that Dongfang Jun came over from the bamboo garden. When he saw uncle Liu walking to and fro, he could not help but frown and say, "Uncle Liu, what's wrong? You woke up so early today. Could it be that big brother has to go to work today?"

Uncle Liu was in charge of Dongfang Mo's daily activities. He could also be said to be Dongfang Mo's special assistant. Today was the New Year's Eve. Uncle Liu should be on holiday, but he had been wandering around here since early in the morning.

"Oh, nothing much. I'll go pick up the eldest young master at eight o'clock for breakfast." Uncle Liu smiled at Dongfang Jun. Of course, it was not convenient to tell Dongfang Jun about this kind of thing.

Seeing that Uncle Liu did not say anything, Dongfang Jun did not ask any more questions. Then, as he walked into the hall, he asked, "by the way, did second brother come back last night? I saw him go out yesterday afternoon."

"This, I don't know." Uncle Liu shook his head and explained with a smile, "My job is to take care of the eldest young master. As for the second young master's matter, it's not convenient for me to ask about it, is it?"

Dongfang Jun nodded and didn't ask any more questions. Just as he walked into the hall, he saw the elevator door by the side open. He wore a cap that was pressed very low on his head and a white mask on his face. Dongfang Mo, who was wearing a turtleneck shirt and a scarf, had already turned his wheelchair and walked out.

"Big Brother, you're so early today." Dongfang Jun warmly waved at Dongfang Mo. Then, he pointed at the door of the hall and said, "Uncle Liu is waiting for you. He probably has something to say."

“Oh, ” Dongfang Mo replied. His voice was still slightly hoarse. Then, he did not say much to Dongfang Jun and directly wheeled his wheelchair out of the hall.

When uncle Liu saw Dongfang Mo come out, he immediately went up to welcome him. He reached out to take his wheelchair and pushed him towards the long corridor not far away.

“What happened so early? ”Thee old and hoarse voice sounded under theCAPp.Becausee of the mask, it was even more unclear.

“Well, Leng Leiting called. ” Uncle Liu pushed Dongfang Mo as he reported in a low voice, “he said that the chain with the word ‘Mo’ is in his hands, and that a woman named Xi Muru is also in his hands... ”

“What does he mean? ” Dongfang Mo’s voice was still old and hoarse, but it had already increased by a few decibels. “A woman like Xi Muru also provoked him? ”

“Xi Muru didn’t provoke him initially. It was Xi Muxue... ” Uncle Liu briefly relayed the situation that Leng Leiting had told him to Dongfang Mo..

“since Xi Muxue owes him money, he should ask Xi Muxue for it. ” Dongfang Mo’s voice was still old and hoarse However, it was also cold and cold. “Leng Leiting, you even dared to capture my Dongfang Mo’s woman. You must have eaten the guts of an ambitious leopard, right? ”

Chapter 239: Dongfang Mo’s thoughts

Uncle Liu was stunned when he heard Dongfang Mo’s words. Then, he quickly asked, “then, young master, how do you think we should handle this matter? ”

“Doesn’t Aunt Gu always feel that I didn’t ask third brother to do anything? ” “Then, let ah Jun handle this matter. Let him bring a few people to get Xi Muru back. No matter what, I have to give third brother a chance to show off his abilities, don’t I? ” Dongfang Mo said calmly Then, he motioned for Uncle Liu to push him into the hall.

When uncle Liu heard Dongfang Mo’s words, he was even more puzzled. Xi Muru’s matter, he actually said to leave it to Dongfang Jun to handle?

However, he did not say anything more and quickly pushed Dongfang Mo into the hall. Anyway, whatever decision Dongfang Mo made, it was his own decision. And although he was his special assistant, following him all day long, sometimes he still could not understand his thoughts.

At 9 am, Leng Leiting was about to get someone to call Dongfang Jun’s special assistant again when there was a knock on the door. A man in black ran in and whispered in his ear, “boss, that Kid Dongfang Jun is here? ”

“Dongfang Jun? ” Leng Leiting was stunned for a moment before he understood. He nodded and stood up, “HURRY UP AND INVITE HIM IN! ”

As soon as he finished speaking, Dongfang Jun had already walked in. He frowned when he saw him and went straight to the point, “my brother said that you’ve arrested my ex-sister-in-law. Where is she? ”

“Dongfang Jun, aren’t you being too arrogant?” Leng Leiting was furious when he saw Dongfang Jun’s expression. “The person I’m looking for is Dongfang Mo. Why isn’t he here?”

“What? Is such a small matter worth him coming forward?” Dongfang Jun had a disdainful expression. He smacked his lips and said, Leng Leiting, don’t talk so much nonsense. Hurry up and hand over the person and the chain.”

“Hehehe, I also want to hand over the person and the chain to you guys, but” Leng Leiting looked at Dongfang Jun and snorted coldly. “could it be that your brother didn’t tell you that Xi Muru...”

“Xi Muru doesn’t owe you money,” Dongfang Jun quickly cut off Leng Leiting’s words. The corners of his mouth curled into a mocking smile. “My big brother said, whoever owes you money, go find them. Don’t bite people like a mad dog. Otherwise, if you bite too many people, be careful that your teeth will be knocked out.”

Leng Leiting felt uncomfortable when he heard this. Although Dongfang Mo was indeed rich and overbearing in Binhai, Leng Leiting had opened a Four-star Hotel and a high-class Casino. Why did the Dongfang family have to squeeze him everywhere?

Hence.. He said coldly, “third young master, I don’t want to tremble if it’s anything else. In any case, Xi Muxue owes me 40 million yuan. Now that Xi Muxue has escaped, it’s the same for me to capture her sister Xi Muru. If the Dongfang family is willing to return this 40 million yuan to me, I’ll return it to you along with the chain. If you’re not willing to return it to me, then I’m sorry. I’ll just keep this person here for now. In any case, she can’t eat much. I can still afford to feed her with leftovers. At least, I won’t let her starve to death.”

Dongfang Jun was stunned when he heard this. Before he came, Dongfang Mo had told him that it would be best if he could get Xi Muru and the chain back without spending a single cent.

Of course, if he really couldn’t get it back, then it would be better to give Leng Leiting, who had nothing but money in his eyes, 40 million. In short, it would be good if he could get her back safely.

Chapter 240 Xi Muru ran away

On the way here, he was still thinking that this was the first time that big brother had placed me in such an important position. He had sent me out to do a single task. No matter what, I had to complete the task in a more glorious manner. Otherwise, I would have to spend a single cent to get mu ru and the chain back.. To let big brother think more highly of me.

However, he did not know that after just a few words with Leng Leiting, he did not know what to do. This was because Leng Leiting actually did not have the slightest intention of being afraid of the Dongfang family.

“Then, does CEO Leng mean that you have to get the Dongfang family to give you 40 million?” Dongfang Jun was a little frustrated in his heart. He thought to himself, Leng Leiting, you are so arrogant. You dare to take the Dongfang family’s money. Let’s see how my brother will deal with you in the future.

“I didn’t really want the Dongfang family to give me 40 million yuan,” Leng Leiting shrugged. He acted as if Dongfang Jun had misunderstood him. “I only said that Xi Muxue owes me 40 million yuan. Of course, anyone can give it to me. As long as I get 40 million yuan, I’ll naturally release Xi Muxue’s sister, Xi Muru.”

Dongfang Jun was so angry that he almost vomited blood when he heard Leng Leiting’s words. This guy had grabbed Xi Muru and called the Dongfang family. He even said that he didn’t want the Dongfang family to give it to him. This was really taking advantage of him and acting like a good boy.

However, when he thought of Dongfang Mo’s instructions to not cause conflict for Leng Leiting, he finally calmed down. He said impatiently, “alright, Leng Leiting, today is the 30th of the Lunar New Year. I don’t want to quarrel with you. It’s just 40 million. Quickly bring the person and the chain up. We’ll hand over the money and the person.”

“Third Young Master, were you so straightforward earlier?” Leng Leiting immediately put on a smile. Then, he waved his hand and shouted towards the door, “bring the person up!”

There was no movement outside the door. Leng Leiting was slightly stunned, then he shouted towards the door, “did you hear that? QUICKLY BRING THE PERSON UP!”

Soon, a man in black ran in from outside the door. He looked at Dongfang Jun who was not far away, then ran to Leng Leiting’s ear and whispered, “boss, it’s bad. Xi Muru ran away!”

“What?” Leng Leiting was so shocked that he was sweating. He looked at his palm and wondered if his ears were listening. “Is there a mistake? How can a girl like her run away?”

“There’s no mistake. The brothers over there have been searching everywhere, but we don’t know when she ran away. Because there are no surveillance cameras in the Old City, we can’t find anything...”

Dongfang Jun had been looking at Leng Leiting the whole time. When he saw the surprise on his face turn red and white, he immediately guessed that the situation might have changed, so he couldn’t help but ask, “CEO Leng, I’ve already prepared the money. Where is she? Where’s the goods?”

“Third Young Master Dongfang, this chain is for you. I don’t want the money,” Leng Leiting stood up and handed the chain to him first. Then, he said in a hurry, “well, we locked Xi Muru in a room last night, but the brothers just said that she broke the wall and ran away last night, so...”

“What?” Dongfang Jun was shocked. Then, he slammed the table and growled, “Leng Leiting, are you playing with us? Are the Dongfang family people playing with you like this? If you don’t hand her over today, I’ll raze your casino to the ground!”

“If she really ran away, there’s nothing I can do,” Leng Leiting yelled anxiously. Then, he looked at Dongfang Jun and said, “If you don’t believe me, I’ll drive you to see the scene. I also didn’t expect that a girl, unarmed, could actually smash through the wall and run away. If I had known, I would have tied her hands and feet last night and sent two people to guard her.”
