Chapter 61: Disobedient Women

In one inch ink city, in a specially designed room, Dongfang Mo was deep in thought as he looked at the form Xi Muru had arranged.

Because Xi Muru's work efficiency was much higher than he had imagined.

He had originally only wanted to find out the huge sum of 30 million, but he had never thought that Xi Muru would actually find out an even deeper hidden company for him, Mq Company.

A sum of no more than one million a month but more than 900,000 was neither too big nor too small, so it did not attract his attention. Thus, it quietly circulated like this. In a year, it would be 10 million.

Of course, if Xi Muru had not found out, it was estimated that it would continue to be transferred quietly in the future.

Such a small sum of money did not seem to have much effect on Dongfang Corporation. However, he knew very well that this person had a deep understanding of the principle of cutting wood with a rope, cutting water with a stone, and at the same time, he also understood the business philosophy of adding up the small to make the big.

If Dongfang Corporation was a big tree, then this Mq company was a worm hiding in the big tree.

At first, when the worm drilled into the big tree, the big tree did not feel it. However, over time, the big tree would eventually be penetrated by the worm, or even fall down and be destroyed.

It seemed like it was time for the Dongfang Corporation to thoroughly clean up. Of course, before that, some people would have to prepare themselves.

There was a knock on the door. He quickly threw the form into the shredder and pressed the button. The form that Mu ru had spent a week organizing turned into a pile of waste paper.

He reached out and pressed the button on the wall. The door opened naturally. Uncle Liu walked in and stood in front of him

"Young Master, the security just reported on the walkie-talkie that the young madam has run out of one inch mo city. She said she's going back to the XI family."

"got it."

Dongfang Mo's face was still cold and gloomy. Because his face was covered with things that looked like leeches, no expression could be seen on his face. He only asked in a low voice,

"What's the situation with the XI family now?"

"The XI family was forced into a marriage by the Nangong family half a month ago. Their goal was to get Xi Yuancheng to take the young Madam back from you. Xi Yuancheng probably doesn't have the guts, so he's been dealing with Nangong Xun. Of course, he can't win. Nangong Xun wants Xi Yuancheng to compensate him for the 500 million yuan loss of breaking off the marriage. With this, the Xi family probably won't be able to gather enough money even if they sell everything. ”

“selling iron after breaking the pot? ”

Dongfang Mo could not help but grunt

“Does the Xi family have pots and iron? Nangong Xun is now the CEO of Singapore's Ng Company. I heard that his identity and background are extremely complicated? ”

“Yes, Nangong Xun was once Qin Xun. In fact, the Qin family almost went bankrupt in Binhai four years ago. At that time, his uncle, Nangong Jue, passed away due to illness. His uncle had no children, so his grandfather, Nangong Jiancheng, only remembered this grandson of his. Thus, Qin Xun had the opportunity to return to the Nangong family and change his surname to Nangong following his mother. Then, he naturally became the heir of the Nangong family. ”

“I don't think it's that simple. ”

Dongfang Mo didn't want to continue the discussion with Liu Shu on this issue. He then said faintly,

“It's already noon. Let's go eat first. ”

“Yes. ” Uncle Liu immediately came over and pushed his wheelchair towards the restaurant on the first floor of Dragon Garden.

Chapter 62 there was no reason for him to give his things away

Dongfang Mo sat in his wheelchair, his cap still lowered. No one could really see his expression, not even uncle Liu, who was pushing his wheelchair.

Thinking about Xi Yuancheng's current situation, a cruel smile unconsciously appeared on his face.

Xi Yuancheng, he dared to challenge him, he dared to cheat on him, he dared to use the game of swapping the crown prince. Wasn't that too arrogant and arrogant.

He, Dongfang Mo, was crippled, but so what?

He sincerely proposed the marriage to the Xi family and sincerely wanted to marry Xi Muxue. This was not only because six years ago, Xi Muxue had used a small handkerchief to bandage his bleeding calf, but also because when he was hospitalized a year ago due to his injury She came to the hospital every day to see him, every day to bring him soup, and every day to read to him in front of the hospital bed.

He originally thought that the marriage would go smoothly, and he even held a grand wedding for her.

Thinking about the Dongfang Family and the Xi family's partnership, he had to at least make his father-in-law look good.

However, his good intentions and consideration for the Xi family, what did he get in return?

Was it a conspiracy or a lie? Did he think that Dongfang Mo was a big fool and used a jinx that he despised when he was born to replace his princess-like daughter? Did he think that Dongfang Mo was so easy to bully?

As he thought about this, the smile on his face gradually faded, and his hands clenched into fists.

He would not let go of Xi Yuancheng. Of course, he would not let Nangong Xun get what he wanted either.

Xi Muru was already his wife. This was an indisputable fact. Even if he did not like Dongfang Mo's things, even if he put them aside, there was no reason for him to give them away.

However, he would still let the Xi family send the person he wanted to the Dongfang family obediently.

Wasn't that woman so vain that she liked her appearance? Then, he would satisfy her once!

It was already afternoon when Mu Ru returned to the Xi family. She calmed down a little at the courtyard entrance before walking into the courtyard as usual.

Mother Wang was washing clothes in the courtyard. The Xi family was very picky. They had a washing machine, but the washing machine was only suitable for dehydration. The clothes had to be washed by hand. When she was not married, she usually washed the clothes with mother Wang.

When mother Wang saw her walk in, her expression changed. She did not care about the white bubbles in her hands. She ran over and used her hand to push her out of the courtyard.

"Xiao Ru, why are you still coming back at this time? Hurry up and leave. This is not the place for you to come back. Hurry up and leave."

"Mother Wang, I can't leave."

Mu Ru used her hand to grab the door frame of the far door. She looked at mother Wang, who was so anxious that tears were about to fall from her eyes, and said in a slightly uncomfortable tone, "mother Wang, what are you doing here?"

"My mother called me and said that the Xi family is going to fall apart. She asked me to come back, but I can't just ignore my mother, can I? After all, she gave birth to me. After all, she didn't really throw me into the river to drown, right?"

When mother Wang heard this, she stopped pushing Mu Ru. Instead, she used her hand to wipe away her tears and said sadly,

"Xiao Ru, animals like them abandoned you and made you like a wild grass. They're not worth it..."

"Mother Wang, why are you standing at the door?"

Lin Xinyue walked out of the House. Before mother Wang could answer, she saw mu ru again and shouted happily, "Mu Ru, you're back!"

"Mu Ru, you're back?"

Chapter 63 was all about you, the jinx

Mu Ru nodded and looked at mother Wang. Then, she walked over to her mother and asked calmly, "mother, are you okay? "

"Mother, I'm back. Is Everything Okay at home? "

Before Lin Xinyue could answer, she heard Xi Yuancheng's grumbling voice from the living room

"How can it be okay after something like this happened "It's all because of you, the jinx. If you hadn't gone to save him back then, he wouldn't have come to our house to propose marriage. Without him coming to our house to propose marriage, today's series of events wouldn't have happened. Xi Muru, you're already married, but you still want to harm our XI family. I really regret not drowning you back then. "

When Mu ru heard her father's words, she felt extremely uncomfortable.

Five years ago, she only saw the pitiful person lying on the roadside. She did not think about whether he was a good person or a bad person. She just instinctively extended a helping hand to him, but who would have thought that such a thing would happen?

Now, looking at his angry father and his worried mother, he did not refute his father's insults. He only asked softly,

"that... does Nangong Xun really want our family to accompany him for 300 million? "

"Of course, do you think I'm lying? "

Xi Yuancheng said angrily, then looked at Mu ru and said,

"Mu Ru, now that you're the first lady of the Dongfang family, and Dongfang Mo has admitted that you're his wife, why don't you go talk to Dongfang Mo and ask him to lend me 300 million? "

"Lend me 300 million? "

Mu Ru was so shocked that she took two steps back. She looked at Xi Yuancheng with an incredulous gaze, then shook her head and said,

"You don't have to go back and ask Dongfang Mo about this. I'm sure that he won't agree. He was originally unhappy because I was a substitute. He was originally unhappy because you asked me to be Mu Xue's substitute to marry him, so how could he lend you 300 million "Let's not talk about 300 million. I think 30 million is enough. "

Xi Yuancheng was stunned when he heard Mu Ru's words. Then, he roared angrily out of embarrassment

"What's the use of me giving birth to you? Other than bringing trouble to the family, there's no other use. Now, the trouble at home is all because of you, and you can't help at all. I've been supporting you for 19 years in vain. "

"It's useless. "

Mu Ru coldly took over Xi Yuancheng's words. Then, she said indifferently and distantly,

"But, dad, ask yourself, have you been raising me for 19 years "When I was born, you despised me and called me a jinx. You wanted to throw me into the river and drown me. Fortunately, my mother, who gave birth to me, still had a trace of humanity. Thinking that I was a piece of meat that fell from her body, she didn't throw me into the river but instead threw me into the servants' home... "... "

Mu Ru paused for a moment. Without waiting for Xi Yuancheng to speak, she continued

"Alright, how did I grow up? How much money did you spend to raise me to go to school? These aren't very complicated numbers. You don't even need a computer to calculate them verbally. For the past 19 years, I've been working as a servant in the Xi family. I've been working for mother Wang since I was five years old. Have you ever given me a penny's salary? "

Xi Yuancheng and Lin Xinyue were stunned by Mu Ru's question and were speechless. They lowered their heads and could not say a word because what Mu Ru said was the truth, the indisputable truth.

They had indeed mistreated her, but how could they be blamed?

Who asked her to be born with an ugly birthmark Who asked her to be a jinx?

Chapter 64. She was not only a jinx

Mu Ru did not wait for their reply and continued

"Okay, Dad, mom, let's not talk about this. Even if I am a Free Servant of the Xi family and even if I spent some money on my studies, how much would that be "from elementary school to high school, it's only 12 years. The average tuition fee for 12 years is 10,000 a year, so it's only 120,000. At most, it's 200,000. But after you married me to Dongfang Mo and returned to Ning, Dongfang Mo gave you a cheque for 10 million. You've already taken it back with interest. Now, you're saying that I'm useless? Then, your precious daughter, Mu Xue, is worth at least 300 million. Let her think of a way to get it back for you. "

"What are you... "

Xi Yuancheng was so angry that he almost vomited blood when he heard Mu Ru's words. He could not help but raise his hand and yell at Mu Ru

"Xi Muru, are you trying to rebel? "

Mu Ru looked at the high slap and did not dodge it. Instead, she sneered and said,

"fight. Anyway, I'm almost dead now. Since I was born, you wanted to drown me in the river. Now, it's still not too late even if you beat me to death. I'm afraid that if I die, not only will you have to deal with Nangong Xun, but Dongfang Mo will probably ask you for a wife again. When that time comes, can you still find someone to replace your beautiful princess-like daughter as a substitute? "

Xi Yuancheng was stunned. His hand froze in mid-air, but he did not let it fall.

Even though this daughter's words were harsh, it also reminded him that Xi Muru was not only his ugly daughter, but she was also Dongfang Mo's wife.

Even though she was a jinx and a vile spawn, she was the one who brought such a disaster to the Xi family.

In the end, she was no longer a member of the Xi family, but the first lady of one inch Mo city of the Dongfang family.

Dongfang Mo's things could not be touched. Even if Dongfang Mo did not like Mu Ru, of course he would not like her. This did not need to be guessed, but he definitely would not allow anyone to bully mu ru because bullying mu ru was bullying him, Dongfang Mo..

Now that he had provoked Nangong Xun, he was already in big trouble. If he provoked Dongfang Mo again, his Xi family would probably really go bankrupt.

He slowly put his stiff palm back and lowered his tone as he said softly,

"Mu Ru, I'm sorry. I was muddled with anger just now. I've let you down in the past, but I won't treat you like that anymore. I'll apologize to you. You're now the eldest young madam of Dongfang. You're a magnanimous person, so please don't argue with me, okay?"

Mu Ru was a classic example of being soft but not hard. Just now, Xi Yuancheng's harsh and unyielding tone had not only scolded her harshly, but he also wanted to resort to domestic violence. That was why she had refuted her father with so much anger.

Now, Xi Yuancheng's attitude had softened. His tone had softened, and his posture had lowered. He even used his begging posture to talk to her. Her unyielding heart instantly softened again.

She sighed softly and looked at her mother, who was looking at her with tears in her eyes, and said in a low voice,

"Father, I really can't be of much help with this matter. Besides, 300 million isn't a small sum. Dongfang Mo definitely won't be willing to lend it."

"Then, can the Xi family really only wait for bankruptcy like this?"

Lin Xinyue started crying helplessly.

Then, as she cried, she complained to Xi Yuancheng

"It's all your fault back then. You always relied on Mu Xue. She was spoiled by you since she was young. If you hadn't listened to Mu Xue and let mu ru marry Dongfang mo in her place, how would the Xi family have encountered such a thing Mu Xue marrying Dongfang Mo and Mu ru marrying Nangong Xun were supposed to make the Xi family prosperous, but now... "..."

Chapter 65. Didn't Mu Xue like Dongfang Yu

"ENOUGH!"

Xi Yuancheng obviously didn't like to hear his wife complain so much, so he couldn't help but growl

“What’s the point of saying all this now? Ah? If it didn’t happen, it would have happened already. It’s too late to go back on your word. Now, we should think of a way to raise money to accompany Nangong Xun and settle the current matter.”

“Nangong Xun insisted on three hundred million?”

Mu Ru looked at her parents in confusion

“Is there no room for negotiation?”

“I talked to him for three hours yesterday. He said at least 200 million.”

Xi Yuancheng looked at his daughter weakly. He was so regretful that his intestines were turning green

“actually, Nangong Xun said that he doesn’t want 200 million at all. He just wants you to marry him. 200 million is just icing on the cake for him...”

“At least 200 million?”

Mu Ru frowned as she looked at her father

“Don’t tell me the Xi family doesn’t even have 200 million?”

“Mu Ru, since you’ve said so much, father won’t lie to you.”

Xi Yuancheng sighed with a bitter smile

“Xi Empire may look impressive on the surface, but in reality, it’s just a bag of chaff. 35% of our Xi empire’s shares are in the oriental group, and 45% of our shares are held outside. Our real shares are only 20. It’s true that Xi Empire is worth a billion, but our real value is only 200 million. However, if we sell our own shares, it might cause a huge drop, so even if we go bankrupt, we might not be able to get 200 million... “. “... “...”

Mu Ru knew that her father would definitely not reveal everything to her. The Xi family’s assets were probably not as little as 200 million. However, she also knew that the Xi family’s assets were at most 300 million.

A selfish person like Xi Yuancheng would never force himself into a desperate situation. That was why he asked his mother to call her. In fact, he was staring at Dongfang Mo..

Xi Yuancheng was too embarrassed to ask Dongfang Mo for money because Xi Yuancheng had already completely offended Dongfang Mo by asking her to marry him instead of Xi Muxue. Hence, he turned his gaze to her.

However, she knew her own limits. Dongfang Mo would never lend money to the Xi family for her sake. Moreover, she did not have any face in front of Dongfang Mo at all.

Seeing that Xi Yuancheng and Lin Xinyue did not speak, she thought for a moment and then said calmly, “Don’t you want to borrow money from Dongfang Yu?”

“Doesn’t Mu Xue like Dongfang Yu? Father can consider marrying another daughter to the Dongfang family and see if he can exchange it for 200 million for you. After all, Mu Xue is so beautiful. She should be worth a lot more than me, right?”

Xi Yuancheng was startled by her words. Then, he clapped his hands and gave mu ru a thumbs up. He looked at her with admiration

“You’re so smart. Why have I been so confused for the past half a month? Why didn’t I think of this method? Mu Ru, you’re the smart one. You’re the best in the market after all.”

Before Mu ru could say anything, she heard a cold snort from behind her

“What smart idea? She just thought of this method, but I already thought of it, and...”

Mu Xue started to keep them in suspense. Then, she looked at everyone with a smug expression.

“And what?”

Lin Xinyue was obviously a little anxious, so she rolled her eyes at her daughter and said,

“Mu Xue, hurry up and say it. Your father is dying of anxiety.”

Chapter 66. The saying, “the green surpasses the blue.”

“And what?”

Lin Xinyue was obviously a little anxious, so she rolled her eyes at her daughter and said,

“Mu Xue, hurry up and tell me. Your father is worried to death.”

“Also, I told Kuang Yingying that Dongfang Yu is a prodigal who only knows how to eat, drink, and gamble. He has no culture, knowledge, knowledge, ability, and ability. Her father, Mayor Kuang, will definitely not agree to their marriage. Tell her not to fall into Dongfang Yu’s trap.”

Mu Xue said proudly, looking like she was very smart.

“And then?”

Xi Yuancheng was not happy when he heard his daughter’s words, so he quickly asked

“Then, did Kuang Yingying believe your words? Did she break up with Dongfang Yu?”

“Of course she wouldn’t believe my words. She said that I was just jealous of her, so I took her to that underground casino, which is our family’s underground casino. Then, she saw that Dongfang Yu was carrying a three-point beauty in his arms, and he was so engrossed in gambling that he went up to slap Dongfang Yu, then he turned around and ran away.”

Xi muxue paused for a moment, then she said with certainty,

“It’s definitely over between them. I saw Dongfang Yu abandon the beauty in his arms and chased after Kuang Yingying, but Kuang Yingying hailed a taxi and left. She ignored Dongfang Yu.”

“Even if Dongfang Yu and Kuang Yingying broke up, what if he doesn’t want to marry you?”

Lin Xinyue felt that what Xi Muxue said had nothing to do with her marrying Dongfang Yu.

“What do you know?”

Xi Yuancheng glared at his wife, then pondered for a moment before he continued

“Mu Xue, you made Kuang Yingying see that Dongfang Yu was gambling with a woman. You let her know that there’s an underground casino in Binhai, right? You’re really smart, little girl.”

Xi muxue smiled smugly, then deliberately mimicked her father’s usual tone

“Didn’t father say that we have to rely on the Dongfang family now? But that Bastard Dongfang Mo refused to save us. He was obviously the one who married Nangong Xun’s fiancée, but he let the Xi family bear all of this disaster. How can that be “Therefore, no matter what, we have to let him know that we are like ants tied to a rope. Other than joining forces to fight Nangong Xun, there is no other way.”

“Great, this move is really great!”

Xi Yuancheng could not help but give his youngest daughter a thumbs up. Then, he sighed

“Aiyo, this is really better than the blue. It would be great if our Mu Xue was a boy.”

Chapter 67: How about marrying Dongfang Yu

“Father, even if I’m a daughter, I’m not any worse than a man, right?”

Xi muxue heard her father’s words and yelled a little unhappily

“How about, father, you go and discuss with Dongfang Mo and ask Dongfang Yu to marry me? Otherwise, if the Xi family suffers, the Dongfang family will also be implicated. Tell him not to forget that his shares in the underground casino are more than the Xi family’s. Now that Kuang Yingying knows about it, Mayor Kuang will probably find out soon, right?”

“Mu Xue, do you think it’s a good idea to marry Dongfang Yu? I heard that he’s a loafer.”

Lin Xinyue was a woman after all. At the crucial moment, she was not thinking about the Xi family’s future but her daughter’s lifelong happiness.

Xi Muxue’s face was filled with infatuation when she mentioned Dongfang Yu

“He’s handsome, handsome, and handsome, just like a prince. Even though he has some bad habits, that’s because no one cares about him. I believe that after marrying him, he’ll soon restrain himself under my guidance and slowly enter the Dongfang Corporation. The large amount of property in the Dongfang Corporation will belong to him sooner or later, and it can’t possibly belong to that good-for-nothing Dongfang Mo. . Moreover, I’ve heard that Dongfang Mo has extensive burns all over his body and is said to suffer from skin cancer. He won’t have two years to live. There’s also that Dongfang Jun.

although he takes his mother's surname, Dongfang, he's not a child of the Dongfang family after all... ".

"Aiyo, my Mu Xue is really smart and bold. She has already asked around and thought of everything. "

Xi Yuancheng quickly took over the younger daughter's words because he did not want her to continue. Then, he turned to look at his wife and said,

"See, the fortune teller isn't wrong, right? Mu Xue is our family's lucky star. Not only can she bring fortune to our family, she can also think of ways to turn the situation around when the outside world encounters such a disaster, unlike that jinx..." "

Mu Ru had quietly walked out the door when Xi Yuancheng was praising his precious daughter. Since the Xi family's difficulties had already turned for the better, and since Xi Yuancheng had already confirmed Xi Muxue's plan.. Then, there was no point in her standing here anymore.

When mother Wang saw her walk out, she immediately came over to see her off.

She pulled mother Wang's hand and forced her to give her a check for 500,000 yuan. This was the red packet that Xi Yuancheng had given her when she returned to the Xi family. She had brought it over today because she originally wanted to give it to Xi Yuancheng, but now, it seemed like it was no longer necessary.

"Mother Wang, I might not return to the Xi family in the future. "

Mu Ru's voice was a little choked up. She held mother Wang's hand tightly in her palm and said in a trembling voice, "mother Wang, I don't want to return to the Xi family anymore. "

"Mother Wang, you should go too. Take this money and open a small supermarket or dry cleaning shop. I'll come to your place to see you then. "

"Mu Ru..." "

Mother Wang was so emotional that her eyes were brimming with tears. After a while, she finally choked up again

"Okay, I understand. I'll resign in a few days. When everything is done, I'll call you..." "

After bidding farewell to mother Wang, Mu Ru left the Xi family home. She walked for a long distance until she turned a corner. There was a slightly short figure watching her at the entrance of the courtyard. She knew that it was mother Wang who truly loved her.

It was already night when she returned to the Dongfang family home. Dongfang Mo was not around, but Dongfang Yu, who she had not seen for a long time, appeared in the living room. When he saw her return, he was slightly stunned. Then, he smiled and shouted, "sister-in-law, are you... back from school?" "

"sister-in-law, are you... back from school?" "

Chapter 68 was a jinx

Dongfang Yu, who had not seen her for a long time, appeared in the living room. When he saw her return, he was slightly stunned. Then, he smiled and called out,

“sister-in-law, are you... back from school?”

Mu Ru was slightly stunned. Just as she was about to answer Dongfang Yu’s question, she saw Dongfang Yingcai on the Sofa, so she immediately greeted him politely,

“Hello, second uncle!”

“First Young Madam.”

Dongfang Yingwu nodded lightly, then asked casually,

“I heard from Mei that your husband’s family came looking for you in the past? They even wanted to take you back. Aren’t they looking down on our Dongfang family? Who is that man? Tell me his name?”

“that man is the CEO of Singapore’s Nangong Group, Nangong Xun.”

The person who answered was obviously not Mu Ru, but Dongfang Yu. There was a trace of mockery at the corner of her mouth

“second uncle, don’t tell me you want to stand up for my brother, stand up for my sister-in-law’s family, and teach Nangong Xun a lesson?”

Dongfang Yingwu was slightly stunned when he heard Dongfang Yu’s words. Then, he growled angrily out of embarrassment

“What’s there to be afraid of about Nangong Xun? Ah? Don’t tell me our Dongfang family wants to return the woman we’ve already obtained? Ah Mo, he can’t be so useless, right? If that’s the case, it would be a disgrace to the Dongfang family...”

“My brother didn’t say that he wanted to... Send Mu Ru back.”

Dongfang Jun just happened to walk in from outside the door. When he heard Dongfang Yingwu’s words, he said unhappily,

“My brother said half a month ago that mu ru ru’s wife, Nangong Xun, is looking for his fiancée, Xi Yuancheng, not him.”

“Yes, ah Mo, what you did was very right. This is the backbone that our Dongfang Family should have.”

Dongfang Yingwu immediately praised Dongfang Mo, then looked at Dongfang Jun and said,

“And you, Ah Jun, not only have to study hard, you also have to learn from your brother. The face of the Dongfang family is very important...”

Mu Ru quietly went upstairs while Dongfang Yingcai was teaching Dongfang Jun..

The things they were discussing had nothing to do with her, and they didn’t care about her. Most of the time, they treated her like she didn’t exist.

At Dinner, Dongfang Yu was already gone, and Dongfang Mo didn't come out either. They didn't know if he was in one inch ink city, but he was very mysterious.

Dongfang Mei's face was dark as she grumbled to Dongfang Jun at the dining table

"The XI family didn't keep their engagement and married the jinx's daughter to the Dongfang family. Now that they're in trouble, they have the nerve to come to the Dongfang family and even want to marry his youngest daughter to Ah Yu. This is simply wishful thinking. Do they think that the Dongfang Family is the XI family "whatever they want. "

Mu Ru lowered her head and ate her meal silently. She actually knew that Dongfang Mei had said this on purpose to tell her that she was a jinx. Look, the Dongfang family had married her, and now they were in trouble, right?

Even the big client, Nangong Xun, had cut ties with the Dongfang Group, and it was said that the money from last year was being delayed.

"Mother, if you say the Xi family, then say the XI family. Don't drag mu ru into this. What does this have to do with Mu Ru? "

Dongfang Jun was filled with his mother's words, and he couldn't help but defend mu ru.

"Ah Jun, did I tell you that Mu ru is sister-in-law? "

Dongfang Mei's tone immediately became stern and serious

"Only your big brother and I can call mu ru by her name. Both you and Ah Yu have to call her sister-in-law. "

Chapter 69 Dongfang Yu and Xi Muxue got married

"I... "

Dongfang Jun had just raised his head and said the word "I" when he saw Dongfang Mo coming over from the elevator with his wheelchair.

Dongfang Mo still had the same old calloused tree bark face that looked like it had been deeply cut by a sharp blade. However, Mu Ru was already used to it, so she was no longer afraid of him now. She just quietly moved her chair Dongfang Mo's seat was vacated.

"Ah Mo, has Xi Yuancheng left? "

"Yes, he has left. "

Dongfang Mo's voice was old and Hoarse. There was no emotion in it. Then, he said plainly, "he has left. "

"Xi Yuancheng is an old fox. Ah Yu, I think we'll have to sacrifice a little. Aunt Gu, tomorrow, get the servants to clean up the room next to mine and make ah Yu a new house. He's been loafing around outside all day. After so long, he can't even get Kuang Yingying. Our marriage plan with the Kuang family has been ruined. I think it's better for him to get married as soon as possible and let that woman Xi Muxue take care of him."

"Ah Mo, it's not wrong for you to let ah Yu get married. It's true that he should let women control him, but there are so many girls in this world. Why must he marry another Xi family woman?"

Dongfang Mei looked at Dongfang Mo in confusion, then she mumbled without a trace,

"Ah Mo, why are you doing this? Aren't you making things difficult for yourself? That Xi Muxue was originally..."

Dongfang Mo obviously did not like what Dongfang Mei said. He only heard him say coldly,

"Aunt Gu, whether or not I'm making things difficult for myself is my own business. The key now is that our underground casino has been targeted by Mayor Kuang. If the Xi family is in trouble, our Dongfang family will definitely be implicated."

Dongfang Mei did not speak anymore, and Mu ru naturally did not dare to say anything else. She had always remembered Dongfang Mo's warning to her, so she did not ask what she should not ask.

Even though she knew that Dongfang Yu was going to marry Xi Muxue, Mu Ru did not know when they would get married. The next day, Dongfang Mei arranged for a Min and another servant to clean up the empty room next to hers.

In the past, Dongfang Yu lived in the bamboo garden and lived in the same building as Dongfang Jun. However, Dongfang Mo said that once a man of the Dongfang family got married, he should live in the main garden. This was the rule of the Dongfang family.

Originally, Dongfang Yu's new house should have been arranged for the third floor. However, the room on the third floor was used to store some sundries and had not been renovated. Now, it was too late to renovate. Hence, Dongfang Yu's new house was temporarily arranged to be next to Mu Ru's on the second floor.

It was only three days later that they heard that Dongfang Yu was going to marry Xi Muxue. At that time, she was in the garden taking out scissors to trim the flowers and plants. A Min, the maid, ran over to her.

"First Young Madam, aunt Gu wants you to hurry back to the hall. She said that the newlyweds are arriving soon."

A Min was panting as she ran, and her voice was a little hurried.

"newlyweds?"

Mu Ru was stunned for a moment before she reacted. She frowned and asked with some confusion,

"Is the second young master getting married today? But there's not even a bit of celebration in one inch Mo city?"

Indeed, there wasn't any. This was very different from the situation when she married Dongfang Mo more than twenty days ago. At that time, one inch Mo city was decorated with lanterns and streamers. There were roses and lilies everywhere, and it was obvious that there was a wedding at home.

But now, there was no movement at all in one inch Mo city. Moreover, it was already evening. Could it be that Dongfang Yu's wedding didn't even have a wedding banquet?

This was a little against the rules of large families, wasn't it?

Chapter 70 the two sisters were still sisters-in-law

Mu Ru was still puzzled when she heard a min say softly, "a Min?"

"First Young Madam, you still don't know, right? The second young master married your twin sister, Xi Muxue. I heard that the first young master was very angry, but for some reason, he promised the second young Master and the Xi family to get married, but he didn't allow them to hold the wedding. He only let the second young master drive himself to pick her up."

A Min had just finished speaking when she heard the sound of a car horn coming from one inch mo city. Mu Ru turned around and saw Dongfang Yu driving his STR sports car back. On the passenger seat of the car was Xi Muxue in a white wedding dress.

The corners of her mouth curled into a mocking smile. Although she and Xi Muxue were twins, because of the injustice of fate, even though they lived under the same roof, the treatment they received was like the difference between heaven and earth.

Once, in the Xi family, she was only a shadow of Xi muxue. She was the one who cleaned up her mess. Whenever she made a mistake or something, she was always the one who was punished.

When she was young, under mother Wang's guidance, what she yearned for the most was to have her own home. She wanted to get married and from then on, she would no longer have to take the blame for Xi Muxue.

However, who would have thought that such a reversal would happen? She and Xi Muxue, the twin sisters, would actually marry Dongfang Mo and Dongfang Yu, the twin brothers?

In the future, would Xi Muxue do something wrong and push the blame onto her again, making her take the blame?

"First Young Madam, First Young Madam!"

A Min saw that she was in a daze and called out twice.

"Oh, I'll go over now."

Mu Ru finally came back to her senses and quickly walked towards the hall on the first floor of Dragon Garden.

As soon as she entered the hall, Dongfang Yu had already walked in with Xi Muxue in her white wedding dress. Although Dongfang Yu was also dressed in white, he was wearing casual clothes, which did not match Xi Muxue's white wedding dress at all. It made people feel that this was not marriage at all, but playing house.

Dongfang Jun and Dongfang Mei were in the hall, as well as second uncle Dongfang Yingcai. Dongfang Mo was not around, so he must be very unhappy. Xi Muxue should have been his wife, but now she was married to his younger brother and became his sister-in-law. No one would be happy if this matter fell on anyone's head.

Dongfang Yu probably knew that Dongfang Mei did not like him, so he just pointed at Dongfang Yingcai and Dongfang Mei and introduced them. He said that this was second uncle and this was aunt Gu, then he brought Xi Muxue upstairs.

There was no grand wedding, no festive scenes, not even a wedding banquet. The dinner was a home-cooked meal cooked by mother Liu.

Dongfang Mei had not come out when it was time for dinner. Needless to say, Dongfang Mo probably would not come to have dinner with them tonight. He must be hiding in some corner feeling sad and sad, so only she and Dongfang Jun were still at home.

Mother Liu and her brought the food to the dining table. Seeing that Dongfang Yu and Xi Muxue had yet to come downstairs, she frowned and called out to Dongfang Jun, "Third Young Master!"

"Third Young Master, go upstairs and ask second young master and second young Madam to come down for dinner, right?"

"I'm not going. They won't come down themselves if they want to eat, right?"

Dongfang Jun snapped, then very naturally walked over to the dining table. He picked up his chopsticks and was ready to eat.
