Chapter 651 the person he cared about the most

Dongfang Mo had only sent Yan ru to Korea for one day before he took a plane back. Of course, he had also brought little feather back.

When they were in the Korean hospital, little feather had once suggested going to Incheon to look for her father. Of course, he had rejected her immediately. Then, he said impatiently, "Your father, I am right in front of you. Who else are you going to look for?"

Of course, little feather did not acknowledge him as her father. Hence, he shouted and hit him, "you're not a daddy. You're a big liar. You're a bad person. You're the one who harmed mommy. If it wasn't because you wanted to get engaged to that Bullsh * t Miss Fang, if it wasn't because you wanted mommy to go to that Bullsh * t dress shop, mommy wouldn't have been kidnapped by bad people and wouldn't have been disfigured by bad people. It's all because of you. You're a big liar and a devil. You're a big bad person. You're the one who harmed my mommy... ". . .

Dongfang Mo held little feather tightly in his arms when she was shouting, crying, and making a scene. He knew that little feather was very sad, especially when Yan ru's entire face was disfigured. Little feather could not accept it at all.

In any child's heart, their mother was the most beautiful in the world, and Yan ru's face had already been fixed in little feather's heart, so little feather could not accept the change in Yan ru's face at all.

Although little feather was still a child, every word she said just now was like a sharp blade piercing into his heart. The pain was so painful that he could not breathe.

He was the one who had harmed Yan ru and Xi Muru. From the beginning to the end, he had never properly cherished her. When she married him as his wife, in fact, she had wholeheartedly treated him well at that time, and at that time, his face was still so terrifying. His legs could not walk, and he even had to sit in a wheelchair.

He recalled that time when he had played Dongfang Yu to fetch her back from school. On the way, he had probed her, saying that if it was really difficult to guard an empty room or something.

At that time, she had righteously told him that she could defend it. Even though her husband, Dongfang Mo, was a eunuch, she could defend it and did not need Dongfang Yu's help.

Now, six years had passed in the blink of an eye. He did believe that she could defend it, but he had never dreamed that six years later, there would be an exchange between him and her. His face was completely fine, but hers was truly disfigured.

"eldest young master, we are taking the noon flight." Ahao watched Dongfang Mo, who was hugging little feather, close his eyes and doze off. The little feather in his arms fell asleep after making a lot of noise. He could not help but whisper in his ear to remind him.

Dongfang Mo opened his eyes and nodded. He handed little feather, who was sleeping in his arms, to Ahao. Then, he got up and walked to the door of the ward. After taking two steps, he turned around and whispered to a Hao, "I'll go give her a call and then come out. "

After saying this, he quickly walked to the ward. They had arrived in Seoul, South Korea, yesterday afternoon. They had been admitted to this top plastic surgery hospital last night and had undergone plastic surgery overnight. Of course, this was only the first surgery Because the experts said that the cuts on the entire face were too deep, a few cuts had even injured the nerves of the skin. It was estimated that it would be very difficult for the skin to be transplanted. It might take three to four operations before the skin could be restored to 80-90% of its original appearance.

The Ward was very quiet. Dongfang Mo gently pushed the door open and entered. Yan Ru, who was on the hospital bed, was very startled. She turned her head when she heard the sound. He quickly spoke and comforted her in a low voice, "it's me. Don't be afraid. I'm Dongfang Mo. "

Chapter 652: The person he cared about the most

Yan Ru had suffered severe damage to her brain due to her disfigurement and disfigurement. Hence, she was extremely sensitive now. Whenever she heard footsteps, She would scream. Her mouth would not stop shouting, "Don't let the bad guys come over! "

Therefore, Dongfang Mo quickly introduced himself as soon as he entered the room. This was because Yan ru would calm down when she heard his voice and stop screaming.

"Ah Mo, " Xi Muxue, whose face was covered in bandages, saw that it was indeed Dongfang mo through the two holes on the bandages. She finally stopped screaming. However, she called out to him timidly and reached out her hand towards him.

"Don't think too much. " Dongfang Mo held her hand and comforted her softly, "don't worry, I'll do my best to help you recover your looks. You just need to stay here quietly. "

Xi muxue nodded excitedly, then sobbed, "Ah Mo, you're so good to me. Now that I'm like this, I'm... not clean again... you... "

"This isn't your fault, " Dongfang Mo immediately took over her words and comforted her softly, "Yan ru, I'm not a person who would be so calculative. What happened this time wasn't your original intention. Moreover, you're a victim, how could I... "

Dongfang Mo paused when he said this. His heart skipped a beat instinctively. How could Yan ru discuss such a problem with him?

Moreover, Yan ru was bent on leaving him, so why would she care if he would still want her What was even more unbelievable was that the first thing she asked wasn't her daughter, little feather? "Ah Mo, you can treat me like this. In the past... I'm really ashamed... "

Xi Muxue couldn't help but get excited after hearing Dongfang Mo's words. She never dreamed that she would actually benefit from a disaster. Dongfang Mo now completely treated her as Yan ru and even chartered a private jet to send her to Korea for plastic surgery He did not even mind that she had been raped by three men.

“Didn’t you once tell me the story of forrest GUMP and Jenny?” Dongfang Mo replied to her in a low voice. “Don’t worry, I’ll learn from forrest gump.”

“Forrest gump?” Xi Muxue, who was on the hospital bed, obviously did not understand what Dongfang Mo meant, so she could not help but ask curiously, “What does forrest gump do?”

What does forrest gump do This time, it was Dongfang Mo’s turn to be shocked. He looked at Yan ru on the hospital bed, frowned, and then asked without batting an eyelid, “you really can’t remember?”

Xi muxue shook her head and reacted quickly. Then, she said in an extremely apologetic voice, “I’m sorry, ah Mo. I might have been confused. I really didn’t remember who AH GAN was.”

He smiled bitterly Then, he said plainly, “it’s okay. You might have been frightened. Then, I’ll go back first. The matters over at Binhai haven’t been settled yet. I definitely won’t let go of those bad guys who framed you. And their mastermind.”

Dongfang Mo released Xi Muxue’s hand when he said this. Then, he got up and looked at her and said plainly, “Yan Ru, you stay here and recuperate well. I’ll deal with the matters at Binhai and come over to see you.”

Then, he immediately turned around and walked towards the door. He didn’t have the patience to sit with the woman on the bed any longer.

Xi Muxue, who was lying on the bed, had a bad premonition. When she saw Dongfang Mo’s back walking towards the door, she couldn’t help but ask, “then... How long will it take for you to come and see me? I’m afraid to be here alone.”

“I don’t know... I’ll come when I’m free after I’m done.” Dongfang Mo didn’t even turn around. He opened the door and walked out ...

Chapter 653 the people he cared about the most 9

Dongfang Mo sat on the plane, still thinking about Yan ru’s reaction when she mentioned forrest gump in the ward. She didn’t even know who forrest gump was. This was truly unbelievable.

He still remembered six years ago, when Xi Muru first married him. At that time, because she was often locked up and grounded by him, she rarely went to school, so she spent most of her time in one inch ink city.

He remembered that one afternoon, he suddenly had a whim. He wanted to see what his newly married little wife was doing in her room every day when she couldn’t go to school Could it be that other than sleeping every day, she could not get enough of it?

That day, he had suddenly pushed the door open and entered. At that time, he was still wearing that piece of leather and sitting in a wheelchair, so Xi Muru, who was originally sitting on the SOFA, was shocked. Her whole body rolled down from the SOFA Then, the thing that she was originally holding in her hand rolled to his feet.

He bent down to pick it up and took a look. It was actually a novel. On the cover was written: "Ah Gan Zheng Zhuan. "

"You like reading this book?" He frowned for a moment and asked in a low and hoarse voice. Of course, his old bark face must have been even more terrifying because of his frown.

At that time, Xi Muru got up from the ground and tried her best to suppress her fear of him. She nodded and said in a low voice, "yes, it's very nice. I'm almost done reading it. "

She lowered her head when she said this. Although her voice was calm and trembling, there was also a hint of resentment in it. It meant that if he did not come in to disturb her, she could finish reading it today.

"Do you like men like Ah Gan?" He still asked without batting an eyelid.

"I do," she answered directly without thinking. After answering, she added, "I think any woman would like a man like ah Gan. He..."

"He's a fool," he quickly interrupted her. Without waiting for her to defend herself, he continued, "you're not allowed to read such books in the future. You women are just brainless. You even like fools. "

"He's not a fool," Xi muru quickly tried to differentiate between them. Then, she said hurriedly, "even though Ah Gan's Iq is less than 80, he's not a fool. Especially since his feelings for Jenny have never changed since the beginning..."

Thinking of this, Dongfang Mo could not help but rub his temples. The incident from that afternoon six years ago was still vivid in his mind, but now, Yan ru did not even know who ah Gan was.

"Big Liar, where are you taking me?" Little feather, who was sleeping on the bed, jumped down from the bed and ran to the window. When she saw the vast expanse of whiteness outside, she immediately understood that they were in the sky She was in Dongfang Mo's plane again.

"I'm taking you back to Binhai," Dongfang Mo answered truthfully.

"I don't want to go back to Binhai," little feather shouted again She couldn't help but come over and pull Dongfang Mo's arm, shouting, "big liar, I don't want to go back to Binhai with you. I want to stay with Mommy in Korea. I want to stay with Mommy. I want to take care of Mommy..."

"enough, how can you take care of someone at such a young age?" Dongfang Mo couldn't help but stop her. He said a little irritably, "can you stop arguing? You're only making trouble for her here. You can't help her at all. "

"WHO said that?" Little feather immediately put her hands on her waist. She glared at Dongfang Mo angrily and shouted, "I can take care of people. I've been taking care of Mommy since I was young. I can even cook..."

Chapter 654: The people she cared about the most

Mu Ru thought that she would have to wait at Binhai for ten days to half a month before she could see Dongfang Mo because Dongfang Mo had sent Xi Muxue to Korea for plastic surgery. She guessed that he might be there to accompany Xi Muru for a period of time.

But who knew that on the third night, when she was still eating at the hotel, her phone rang again. Of course, it was Xi Muxue's phone.

She had originally planned not to answer it because she thought that it was very likely Xi Yuancheng calling, and she only went to see Xi Yuancheng in the afternoon. She did not leave money for Xi Yuancheng, and of course, she did not know if Xi Yuancheng needed money.

However, her phone kept ringing non-stop, which made Pu Zhihui, who was playing online games, angry. She could not help but yell at her, "Yan Ru, do you want to pick up this stupid call? If you don't pick up, throw it into the trash can outside. Do you want this noise to burst my eardrums?"

Of course not, so she was forced to pick up the phone helplessly. She pressed the answer button and was about to speak, but the other party was clearly more anxious than her. She had just opened her mouth when.. The other party's voice was already heard. "Xi Muru, where the hell have you been? Why is there no one at home?"

Dongfang Mo's voice, and he was even calling out to Xi Muru?

Mu Ru only reacted after a while. In the past, Xi muxue lived in one inch Mo city under her name, and she had been pretending to be her for five whole years. And now, Dongfang Mo still did not know that the Xi muxue in one inch Mo city was actually Xi Muxue.

"I'm shopping outside," she answered carefully, but she did not know what to say next.

"shopping?" Dongfang Mo's voice became colder. Before she could answer, another voice sounded.

"Hurry up and come back with me, do you hear me?"

"Yes," Mu ru replied quickly. She was about to ask if little feather had followed him back, but Dongfang Mo had already hung up the phone.

She could not help but curse in her heart. He really was a man of few words, and he did not even give others a chance to speak.

Mu Ru put down the fast food she had just eaten and quickly changed into Xi Muxue's clothes from the other day. She waved goodbye to Pu Zhihui and walked towards the door.

"learn to be smarter and try to bring little feather back so that I don't have to appear," Pu Zhihui said with her back to her. Her eyes had been staring at the computer screen the whole time, and her game had reached a crucial point.

Mu Ru glared at her and pretended not to hear her. Of course, she wanted to bring little feather back, but the problem was that she had to have the ability and opportunity to do so.

Mu Ru was worried that Dongfang Mo would be anxious to wait, so she took a taxi to one inch mo city. However, the security guard still stopped her this time.

“Dongfang Mo asked me to come back,” Yan ru said unhappily to the security guard who stopped her.

“Mr. Dongfang hasn’t come back from Korea yet,” the security guard replied politely.

Mu Ru was stunned when she heard this. Then, she took out her phone and said to the security guard, “how is that possible? Half an hour ago, he called me to hurry home and said that he didn’t see me at home.”

The security guard glanced at her phone. Then, he reminded her calmly, “Miss Xi, did you go shopping today? It’s been a month since you moved out of one inch ink city. This is no longer your home. Your home should be where you live now.”

Chapter 655: I’ve always known who you are

Mu Ru only reacted when she heard the security guard say that. That’s right, Dongfang Mo had long chased Xi muxue out. At this moment, Dongfang Mo must be at Xi Muxue’s place, but the key was.. She had no idea where Xi muxue would be staying after she moved out of one inch Mo city.

Mu Ru only felt a headache coming on. Dongfang Mo was clearly a man of few words. He only told her to hurry back, but did not tell her exactly where to go.

Right, Dongfang Mo thought that she was the fake Xi Muru, so he thought that she knew where she lived. However, she was now real, so he could not even find the address of the fake Xi Muru after she was chased out of one inch Mo city by Dongfang Mo..

She mocked herself in her heart. She was indeed stupid. Xi muxue had been pretending to be her all these years and living in one inch Mo city, yet she did not reveal any flaws.

However, she had only pretended to be Xi Muxue for a few days, yet she could not pretend anymore.

What should she do? She could not possibly not look for Dongfang Mo, right?

At the thought of this, she had no choice but to turn back, as she was already ten meters away from one inch Mo city. Then, with a smile, she said to the security guard, “Um, do you know where my home is outside, that is, where I will be staying after I move out of one inch Mo city?”

The security guard immediately looked at her as if she was a monster. He sized her up from head to toe, then said seriously, “how would I know that? You don’t even know where you live, how would we know?”

Mu Ru was so ashamed that she wished she could find a hole to hide in. The security guard’s gaze just now was clearly thinking that she was a lunatic, or that she was deliberately teasing him.

She had no choice but to turn around listlessly. She thought that she should get Pu Zhihui to help investigate where Xi muxue lived after she moved out of one inch mo city, but when she took out her phone, she thought that when Pu Zhihui found out, it would probably be a few hours later.

Therefore, she gritted her teeth and finally took out the phone that Xi Muxue left behind. She found the phone that she had just picked up and called back, but in her heart, she was thinking about how to ask Dongfang Mo later.

The call was quickly picked up. Before she could say anything, Dongfang Mo's voice sounded again. "Xi Muru, where the hell have you been? I told you to get your ass back home. It's been half a day, and I still haven't seen your shadow?"

"that... I'm at the entrance of one inch mo city," Mu ru said carefully ...

"Why did you run to one inch Mo city for no reason?" Dongfang Mo was furious when he heard her words. He then added, "is that your home?"

Of course not, Mu Ru answered in her heart, but her words were like this. "I used to live here for a few years, but in my heart, I've already considered this place as my home."

Dongfang Mo scoffed at her words. "I didn't ask you to go back to one inch Mo city. I asked you to go back to where you live now and get your ass back here."

"where do I live now?" Mu Ru finally asked honestly. Honestly, she really didn't know where Xi muxue would live after she moved out of one inch Mo city. Moreover, Binhai was so big It was really difficult to find a person's place.

The phone was dead silent. She didn't know how angry Dongfang Mo was at her, but she probably had the urge to strangle her to death.

Mu Ru was wondering if she should explain further when Dongfang Mo's deep and hoarse voice came from the phone again. "then wait for me in one inch Mo city. I'll be back soon."

Chapter 656: I always know who you are

Mu Ru felt that the saddest thing in her life was not that she had been abandoned by her parents since she was young, or that she had a birthmark on her forehead and had always been an ugly freak, because she had already endured all these things.

She felt that the saddest thing in her life was that she had married Dongfang Mo, and the saddest thing was that ever since she had met Dongfang Mo, she had never been able to escape from his clutches.

Dongfang Mo had asked her to wait for him at the entrance of one inch ink city, so she could only wait obediently. Because little feather was in Dongfang Mo's hands, and she could not ignore little feather.

She did not wait for long at the entrance of one inch ink city. About half an hour later, Dongfang Mo's car drove in. When he saw her standing at the entrance, he rolled down the car window and said to her indifferently, "come in."

She was slightly stunned and quickly walked forward. Unfortunately, before she could walk to Dongfang Mo's car, Dongfang Mo's car had already driven into one inch ink city. It was obvious that he wanted her to walk in.

She could not help but silently criticize him in her heart. He was a bast * Rd after all. Everything he did was so bast * Rd.

Even though she cursed him in her heart, she still walked into one inch ink city obediently. This time, the security guards did not stop her, but the two security guards looked at her strangely.

Of course, she could not care less about the security guards' stares. All she wanted was to find her little feather as soon as possible. She did not care about anything else, and she did not care about the stares of strangers.

Dongfang Mo's car was parked outside Mo Garden. It was obvious that this guy had already entered Mo Garden. Mu Ru walked straight into Mo Garden and met a min in the living room. A Min greeted her in a friendly manner. "Miss Xi, you're back?"

She nodded and did not bother to talk to a min anymore. She just continued to walk up to the second floor because in her mind, since Dongfang Mo had returned home, he should have returned to his room first.

However, when she walked up to the second floor, she realized that Dongfang Mo's room door was tightly shut. She was slightly stunned. She reached out to grab the handle and twisted it. The door opened and she called out instinctively, "little feather? Are you in there?"

There was no sound in the room. She frowned and finally stepped in. The room was empty. Not to mention little feather, even Dongfang Mo was nowhere to be seen.

"F * Ck," she could not help but curse. She had never seen anyone more F * Cking than Dongfang Mo. since he was back, where did he go?

Dongfang Mo was not in the room, so she could only turn around and walk out the door. She regretted not asking a min earlier. Otherwise, she would not have come all this way for nothing.

However, just as she reached the door, she was stopped by Dongfang Mo who walked in. Seeing the anger on her face, she could not help but tease, "are you angry?"

"where's little feather?" Mu Ru completely ignored his question and directly asked the thing that she was most concerned about.

"little feather?" Dongfang Mo was obviously more surprised than her. He looked at her with a puzzled gaze. "Why are you looking for little feather? Why did you ask her?"

"because she's..." because she was my daughter, the second half of Mu Ru's sentence was stuck in her throat, but she said, "because she's my nephew."

"nephew?" Dongfang Mo's lips curled into a mocking smile as he replied coldly, "Xi Muru, do you think I'm Gan? A fool?"

Chapter 657: I've always known who you are

"If only you were Gan," Mu ru could not help but curse back. "I don't think you're even Dan Dongwei. You're just..."

Mu Ru did not have the chance to finish her sentence because Dongfang Mo's thin lips quickly covered her lips while she was chattering non-stop. He gambled the rest of her words into her stomach.

"Wu..." Mu ru was hit. A painful sound came out of her nose and her body could not help but struggle.

However, her past experience told her that fighting against Dongfang Mo in this aspect was no different from throwing an egg at a stone. She could not break free from Dongfang Mo's control at all.

Thus. She quickly gave up struggling and chose to pretend to be obedient. Her hands took the initiative to hang around his neck, pulling his head down and down again. She looked like she was enjoying his kiss very much.

Dongfang Mo obviously stopped for a moment because this kind of action and reaction should not have been done by Xi Muru. However, with Xi Muru taking the initiative, he quickly fell into her tender and sweet feelings.

Xi Muru had fiercely dropped her teeth when Dongfang Mo was tossing and turning. This time, because she had put in enough effort and preparation, it was done in one step. It immediately caused Dongfang Mo to Groan in pain Then, she had no choice but to quickly let go of her mouth.

However, Mu Ru quickly realized that the tongue in her mouth was also in terrible pain. D * MN It, when she dropped her teeth, she was too fast, so her tongue was not spared.

Dongfang Mo looked at the blood flowing out of the corner of her mouth and could not help but laugh in heartache. He reached out his hand and used his rough fingertips to wipe away the blood that had been diluted by the saliva on the corner of her mouth He said in a low voice, "how can you be so stupid? Killing 800 enemies will cost you 1,000. Do you think it's worth it?"

Mu Ru was so angry that she fiercely pushed his hand away. Then, she raised the back of her hand to wipe the corner of her mouth. When she removed the back of her hand, it was indeed a pale red color. She had really hurt herself.

"where's little feather?" Mu Ru said in a bad mood, "Dongfang Mo, where did you hide little feather?"

"Now tell me, is little feather my daughter?" Dongfang Mo completely ignored her question. Instead, he used his hand to lift her Chin and looked at the corner of her mouth that was still dripping with Pale red blood He reminded her lightly, "you better tell me the truth. Otherwise, I'm afraid I'll make you hurt yourself."

Mu Ru could not help but curse in her heart again. She twisted her head forcefully to the side and shook off his finger that was lifting her chin Then, she said coldly, "Dongfang Mo, are you confused? I'm Xi Muru, not Yan ru. How do I know if little feather is your child? Moreover, can you give birth?"

"Xi Muru, you mean, let me use my actions to tell you if I can make you pregnant and give birth Or, do you want me to get you pregnant with my child so that you won't deny it all the time?" Dongfang Mo's lips curled into a smug smile Then, he took a step towards mu ru.

Mu Ru instinctively stepped back, cursing this damned pervert in her heart. He even claimed to be a eunuch, a fucking eunuch. He was clearly a wolf who could be aroused at any time, alright?

“Dongfang Mo, what exactly do you want to do?” Mu Ru finally had nowhere to run, so she couldn’t help but growl. “Who do you think I am to you?”

Chapter 658 I always know who you are 4

“I want you to help me take a bath,” Dongfang Mo replied shamelessly, then added, “I will return to Korea and Binhai in two days. I am tired and travel-worn. Now, I just want to take a bath and climb into bed to sleep.”

“Why should I help you take a bath?” Mu Ru was furious after hearing his words. “I am not your servant.”

“You are my wife.” Dongfang Mo still insisted on his shamelessness, ignoring the anger on Mu Ru’s face. He continued to speak loudly, “a wife’s duty is to serve her husband. It’s a wife’s duty to make her husband comfortable.”

“Bullsh * T duty,” Mu ru could not help but swear, then quickly argued, “I’m not your wife, you and I both know that.”

Dongfang Mo frowned, then said calmly, “then you mean... you’re willing to be my mistress for the rest of your life, but you’re not willing to be my wife?”

A mistress for the rest of her life?

Mu Ru stood there stunned for a moment before she reacted. She was now pretending to be Xi Muxue, but in fact, Xi Muxue was originally pretending to be her. In short, her current identity was Xi Muru, her original identity.

And Xi Muru’s identity, to Dongfang Mo, was a mistress for the rest of her life. In other words, she would never be able to separate from Dongfang Mo for the rest of her life.

Dongfang Mo saw that she was not going to say anything. Then, he said plainly, “Xi Muru, think about it yourself. Do you want to follow the instructions I gave you when I captured you back in Paris and let you marry me and be my wife, or continue to fulfill the 100-year mistress agreement that you signed with me?”

Dongfang Mo paused for a moment, then he said nonchalantly, “because to me, it’s actually not that much of a loss, but to you...”

“I’M NOT XI MURU!” Mu Ru blurted out instinctively, then she swallowed hard and said, “I’m... I’m Yan ru... in other words...”

“I know you’re Yan ru,” Dongfang Mo answered her very calmly, then he used his hand to scratch her cheek. Then, he continued, “but you’re not Xi Muxue, and you’re not the Xi Muru that I’ve been pretending to be in this one inch Mo city all these years. You’re the Real Xi Muru. You’re also the Yan ru that I captured from Paris.”

Mu Ru leaned against the wall. She did not know if it was because the wall was too cold or because the soles of her feet were too cold. At that moment, looking at Dongfang Mo's half-smiling face, she felt a chill down her spine.

"You mean..." Mu ru stuck out the tip of her tongue to lick the corner of her mouth. She sucked in all the diluted blood that had just flowed out from the corner of her mouth ...

However, she did not know that this unintentional action of hers had made Dongfang Mo's heart itch. Dongfang mo could not help but swallow his saliva as his throat slid rapidly. In an instant, his body seemed to be crawling with countless crabs.

How selfish. Xi Muru was such a selfish woman. Even when she licked the corner of her mouth, she only licked her own. His mouth was less than three centimeters away from hers, and there was light red blood seeping out from the corner of his mouth. Why couldn't she lick it for him?

"Xi Muru, don't waste your breath on me here. I'm very tired. I just want to rest early," Dongfang Mo said as he reached out to grab her wrist. "Come, follow me to the bathroom. Help me shower. I haven't showered in a long time."

Chapter 659 I've always known who you are

Mu Ru was so angry that she wanted to vomit blood. She could not help but retort, "I won't help a man bathe."

Unfortunately, just as she finished her sentence, Dongfang Mo continued, "then I'll help you bathe. I'll help a woman bathe."

This time, Mu Ru wished she could just faint. Of course, Dongfang Mo did not give her such a chance, so she was forcefully dragged into the bathroom by Dongfang Mo..

Mu Ru had stayed in this room before, and Dongfang Mo was obviously very lazy. He had not renovated over the years, so when she walked in, she immediately felt a sense of familiarity.

"Why are you still standing there? Come and help me take off my clothes." Dongfang Mo saw that Mu ru was standing there motionlessly and couldn't help but urge her, "HURRY UP!"

"Don't you have hands?" Mu Ru retorted impatiently. Then, she turned around and threw a sentence over, "I'll help you put on the bath water."

Dongfang Mo didn't know whether to laugh or cry when he heard her words. She was clearly avoiding helping him take off his clothes, alright?

Originally, it wasn't bad for her to help him put on the bath water. However, at this moment, he was so tired that he could fall asleep anywhere, so how could he have time to take a bath?

Seeing her bend down to adjust the temperature switch in the bathtub, she could not help but stop her, "I'm taking a shower. Stop Messing around."

Mu Ru was stunned. Her hand immediately stopped and she slowly turned around. Only then did she realize that Dongfang Mo was already taking off his clothes.

She gritted her teeth and turned her face away, determined not to help him. This time, Dongfang Mo did not seem to be in the mood to continue wasting time with her. He did not ask her to help him. He just swiftly took off all the clothes on his body.

“stop standing there and quickly come over and help me scrub my back.” As Dongfang Mo spoke, he had already taken a step into the shower. At the same time, he turned on the shower switch with a ‘PA’ sound.

“Hey, I’m still wearing my clothes,” Mu ru rebutted unhappily. The shower shower was so big, and it was installed on top of his head. Dongfang Mo had turned it on to the maximum, just like it was raining. How could she go over and help him scrub his back? Wouldn’t she get wet if she walked over?

“You can take off your clothes,” Dongfang Mo suggested to her without turning his head back. Then, he said humorously, “when you walk into the shower, how can you not get wet? Do you think you’re wearing a raincoat?”

Mu Ru could not laugh at his sarcastic joke. However, she did not take off her clothes. She was not as bad as Dongfang Mo..

Thus, she only took off her coat and faxed her undershirt into the shower. Dongfang Mo’s back was facing her. She did not know if he had eyes behind his back, but just as she stepped in.. He handed her a brush. “Help me brush my back, quickly!”

Mu Ru took the brush angrily and started to brush his back. Although Dongfang Mo was a man, he was not a rough person who worked hard. The flesh on his body could not be considered tender It was still not considered rough and thick.

Therefore, under Mu Ru’s effort to brush his back, red blood marks quickly appeared on his back.

“Xi Muru, why are you using so much strength?” Although Dongfang Mo did not turn around, he could feel mu Ru’s dissatisfaction from her increased strength. “My back is not an OX’s back. Is it worth you using so much strength to brush it?”

Your back is not an ox’s back, but the skin on your body is thicker than an OX’s skin. Mu Ru could not help but curse in her heart.

Chapter 660 I’ve always known who you are

However, what she said was, “Sigh, how can young master Dongfang compare himself to a beast?”

However, what she was thinking in her heart was, in fact, you’re even worse than a beast.

“Are you silently criticizing me?” Dongfang Mo suddenly blurted out another sentence.

Mu Ru instinctively jumped in fright. After all, Dongfang Mo was not an ordinary b * stard. Even the words in her heart could be seen.

“No. ” She could not help but deny it. Then, she forcefully brushed his back. “What am I silently criticizing you for? Besides, do you think you have the potential to be silently criticized by others? ”

Damn it, Dongfang Mo, you’re like a b * Tch and a devil. You’re covered in areas that people criticize you for. It would be weird if she didn’t criticize you for that.

“I originally didn’t have anything that people criticize me for, ” Dongfang Mo answered seriously. “Of course, I’m usually referring to magnanimous people who don’t criticize me for that. Of course, some people are narrow-minded, except for that. ”

Mu Ru was so angry that she almost slipped. What did Dongfang Mo say She criticized him for being narrow-minded?

“Hey, Xi Muru, don’t just brush on the back. ” Dongfang Mo was displeased with how she kept applying force on his back like she was venting her anger, so he couldn’t help but shout, “come to the front, I want to brush in front too. ”

“Brush in front yourself. ” Mu Ru threw the brush to him as she spoke. “You don’t have eyes behind you, so you’re afraid that you won’t be able to see if it’s clean or not. Don’t you have eyes in front? Why do you have a pair of long hands? ”

Dongfang Mo was stunned. He immediately turned around and looked at the woman who was standing there with an angry face. Because of her anger and because the hot water kept pouring down, her face was red in the mist, like a red apple that had just been drenched in water, exceptionally alluring It made him want to immediately open his mouth and take a bite.

The undershirt she was wearing was tightly pressed against her body because it was soaked in the warm water. However, it revealed her curvaceous figure at a glance.

Some people said that women were really ugly. What was truly beautiful was this kind of half-hidden beauty. Otherwise, why would Bai Juyi have that famous saying of holding a lute and half-hiding his face?

Especially at this moment, because Mu Ru’s body was soaked by someone and she was standing in front of the shower door in a daze, her body was slightly trembling. It made people feel pity for her in an instant, and they had the urge to hug her into their arms.

“since you’re drenched and you’re not willing to help me brush the front, why are you still standing there? ” Dongfang Mo saw a layer of pink rash on her neck He could not help but cry out in heartache, “why aren’t you changing into your pajamas in the wardrobe? Hurry up and roll onto the bed to wrap yourself up. You’re thinking of catching a cold, aren’t you? ”

Just as Dongfang Mo said this, Mu Ru had already quickly turned around and ran out of the bathroom door. It was obvious that she had long wanted to leave the place that was so embarrassing that she did not even dare to raise her head.

Dongfang Mo saw her like this and felt both angry and amused. He could not help but curse in his heart, Xi Muru, this damn woman, when has she ever acted so clumsy and immature? He and she have been here several times already.. But she still did not even dare to look at him.

She shook her head gently and threw the brush aside. Without her in the shower, it was exceptionally quiet. He did not have the mood to brush himself, so he quickly took a shower and went to sleep.

He was really tired. He had not rested for two days and two nights. Even the machine would probably not be able to operate, let alone his physical body?
