Chapter 691 president of DFM Company 7

On the international waters closest to Naples, Italy, the Mafia Tyson's cruise ship approached a nameless island. The beach on the island was as white as salt, and it was extremely delicate to step on.

Rodger and Tyson walked down from the cruise ship while chatting and laughing. His overly white skin made him look extremely unhealthy. The wide-brimmed sunglasses covered most of his face, and one of his legs looked a little lame because he had been seriously injured before.

As soon as he stepped on the beach, he saw Dongfang Yingwu walking towards him. Obviously, the former financial director of the Dongfang Group had already known of his whereabouts and chased him here.

"Rodger, you've been looking for me so hard," Dongfang Yingwu said bluntly. "I thought I would never see you again?"

"Is that so?" It was pure American language. He did not take off his sunglasses. He extended his gloved hand and shook Dongfang Yingwu's hand. Then, he said indifferently, "Mr. Dongfang, look at what you said. No matter what, my DFM company in the United States is still there, right? What are you worried about?"

"DFM company won't pay me." Dongfang Yingwu shook his head and said, "Rodger, you are too cunning. You let our company do so much business for you, but in the end, you owe our Dongfang group money in a private name. Moreover, every time you owe us, you owe US billions. Our Dongfang Group almost can't afford to delay it."

"Is that true?" Rodger was obviously surprised by Dongfang Yingwu's words. He couldn't help but ask, "Isn't Dongfang Group under Third Young Master Dongfang's control? Didn't I hear that he was quite capable two years ago? He let Dongfang Group earn a lot of money?"

"Not in the past two years." Dongfang Yingwu shook his head. It was obvious that he was unwilling to continue discussing Dongfang Group's matters with Rodger. He quickly changed the topic, "Rodger, I brought the bill. Look, pay the money you owe Dongfang Group to me. I heard that you have earned quite a lot of money from oil production in the past two years."

"I did earn some money." Rodger's lips curled into a smile. His deep gaze passed through his black sunglasses and landed on Dongfang Yingwu's face. Then, he said faintly, "but the money I owe is from Dongfang Group. I plan to pay Dongfang Group personally."

"then there's no need." Dongfang Yingwu immediately took Rodger's words and patted himself, saying, "the debt of the Dongfang Group is with me. It's useless for you to go to the Dongfang Group. Give me the money, and I'll give you the debt, and we'll be even."

"But the key is... What if the Dongfang Group asks me for money again?" Rodger still shook his head, "I don't think that's appropriate. I've also heard that Dongfang Mo, the CEO of the Dongfang Group, is not easy to deal with. If he asks me for money.. "... "..."

“He won’t ask you for money,” Dongfang Yingwu quickly guaranteed. Then, he added, “Dongfang Group is at the end of the road. We want to withdraw our shares, but they don’t have the funds to return it to me, so they gave me your bill to offset the shares.”

“Oh, so that’s how it is.” Rodger looked like he suddenly realized something. Then, he pondered for a moment and nodded. “That’s fine, but I don’t have my money with me. How about this, I’ll get someone to transport the money over. We’ll make an appointment and find a middleman to testify. Of course, it’ll be someone you trust and I trust. You give me the bill, and I’ll pay you the money in one go. How about it?”

Chapter 692 president of DFM Company 8

“okay,” Dongfang Yingwu answered straightforwardly, and then he said, “then let’s find Tyson. He’s the leader of the Mafia and a leading figure in the underworld. I trust him.”

“okay, then three days later, on Tyson’s cruise ship.” Rodger’s overly pale face revealed a smile, and the corners of his mouth curled up. “We won’t leave until we see each other!”

It was a dark night, a night without the moon and stars, and the sea was pitch black.

A light speedboat silently tore through the quiet surface of the sea and sped away. On the deck, a man took off his disguise and stood quietly. His deep, pool-like eyes emitted a cold light as he stared at a certain direction that he just found out about.

“boss, I’ve already figured it out. Dongfang Yingwu brought a total of 12 bodyguards this time. All of them are experts. They are probably his trusted aides that he usually raises in private.” A respectful voice sounded behind the man.

“got it.” The man’s voice was low-key and steady. His ten fingers grabbed the guardrail and he could not help but clench his fists. “Is it bad enough for the background of that HY company? It’s said that they are going to invest two billion in the soon-to-be-established prosperous company.”

“Not yet.” There was a trace of apology in his respectful voice. “Hy company is a mysterious company. I’ve never heard of it before. According to the latest news, it’s just a company that has just been established. It’s said that the boss behind it is mysterious and unpredictable. No one has seen its true face.”

“No one has seen its true face?” The man’s lips held a hint of a smile. He probably didn’t want to reveal its true face. To openly invest in Dongfang Yingwu’s company at this time was to openly challenge Dongfang Group. This person could only be an enemy of Dongfang group, not a friend of Dongfang Group.

“Wait until they leave Tyson’s cruise ship before acting,” the man’s voice was still low-key and steady. “Don’t cause trouble for Tyson. Tyson is both good and evil. We can’t be friends or enemies...”

“Yes,” it was still a respectful voice, followed by the sound of footsteps that quickly turned around and left. It was obvious that they were going to make a new round of arrangements.

At this moment, in one inch ink city, Binhai city

Little feather was supporting her chin with both hands as she looked out of the window in a daze. She had no reaction to mu ru calling her to eat.

“Yu Yu, what’s wrong?” Mu Ru walked forward and found her daughter sitting there motionlessly. She could not help but ask with concern, “why aren’t you downstairs for lunch? You didn’t eat lunch today either. Are you preparing to cultivate immortality?”

“Mommy, I have a headache.” Yu Yu reached out her small hand to stroke her own head. Then, she had a pained expression on her face. “The pain is severe. It’s as if this room is turning.”

“Headache?” Mu Ru hesitated for a moment. She reached out to touch little feather’s forehead and immediately felt a burning sensation.

“Yu Yu, you’re running a fever.” Mu Ru panicked and could not help but scream, “Yu Yu, why are you running a fever? Do you have a cold? But you haven’t worn much clothes these two days?”

“I took a cold shower last night,” little feather answered honestly. “I read on the Internet that people in the northeast swim in winter, so I wanted to try the feeling of taking a cold shower in winter. I didn’t expect to have a headache today...”

“take a cold shower?” Mu Ru was so angry that she blew her beard and glared at her. She wanted to whip her hard. “Don’t you think it’s winter? Can you take a cold shower? Do you want to die?”

“Mommy, I don’t want to die.” Little feather immediately cried and wiped her tears with her small hands. Then, she sobbed and shouted, “but, Mommy, if you continue to scold me instead of taking me to the hospital, I might really die.”

Mu Ru rushed to send little feather to a hospital near one inch ink city. Of course, uncle Liu didn’t want to send her out initially, saying that he wanted to find the Dongfang family’s family doctor, Liu Hao.

However, Uncle Liu called and found that Liu Hao wasn’t in Binhai today. He seemed to have gone to the suburbs to do some business, so uncle Liu had no choice but to send little feather out. After all, the child had a fever and couldn’t afford to be delayed.

Little feather had a high fever. Because Mu ru discovered it late, her fever actually turned into pneumonia and she had to be hospitalized. The doctor said that she would be hospitalized for at least a week, so mu ru was sad while little feather was secretly happy.

“Why aren’t you sleeping yet? You’re getting an IV drip. What are you so excited about?” Mu Ru glared at her daughter who was lying on the bed. “I’ve never seen you so happy when you’re hospitalized.”

“I’m so happy.” Little feather laughed so hard that she couldn’t close her mouth. Her little body, which was lying on the bed, suddenly turned over and sat up. She said excitedly, “I’ve finally crawled out of the cage in one inch ink city. How can I not be excited?”

Mu Ru couldn't help but roll her eyes at her words. She said unhappily, "Yu Yu, what's wrong with your brain? No matter how bad the cage in one inch ink city is, it's still better than this ward, right? The Palm of this ward is so big. Don't you think it's more like a cage?"

"Does this place look like a cage?" Little feather looked at mu ru meaningfully, then deliberately yawned and said, "okay, Mommy, I'm hungry. Can you ask Uncle Liu to go back and get me some food?"

"You're hungry?" Mu Ru frowned slightly and touched her forehead with her hand. "It's still hot. The fever hasn't subsided..."

"Doesn't mean I'm not hungry?" Little feather was unhappy and glared at Mu Ru. "Mommy, you don't want me to eat? I haven't eaten all day. My stomach is growling."

"You deserve it. Who told you to take a cold shower last night?" Mu Ru glared at her angrily. She turned around and walked out of the high-class Ward to look for Uncle Liu.

Uncle Liu had been standing guard outside the door. When he saw mu ru coming out, he quickly asked how the child was doing. It shouldn't be a big problem, right? Should he transfer to a big hospital in the city center or something?

Mu Ru quickly said that there was no need. The child had already been put on an IV drip. Moreover, pneumonia was not a serious serious illness. It would be enough to put on an IV drip for a few days. Now that little feather said that she was hungry, he should go back to one inch Mo city and get her some food. It would be best if aunt Liu cooked some porridge or something like that.

Uncle Liu nodded. He looked at the hospital and then looked at the ward. He did not feel that there was anything wrong, so he quickly turned around and left. After taking a few steps, he immediately took out his phone and arranged for people to pay attention to the entrance of the hospital. He had to keep an eye on all suspicious people. This little feather's identity was special. He could not let anything happen to her.

Mu Ru did not know about uncle Liu's secret arrangements. She only knew that little feather was complaining that he was hungry. When uncle Liu returned to one inch Mo city and brought the porridge over, it would probably take one to two hours.

Hence, she turned around and went to the hospital's Social Welfare Service Center. This place was open 24 hours a day. She bought a carton of milk and a piece of cake for little feather. She was prepared to let her eat some to satisfy her hunger. At least she would not feel so hungry. After all, she had not eaten anything all day.

When Mu ru finished buying these things and walked back to the inpatient department, she pushed open little feather's ward door. However, she was instantly stunned. This was because little feather was currently sitting beside Dongfang Mo's bed.

Dongfang Mo?

Mu Ru was slightly stunned. She realized that the person had raised his head and smiled at her. Only then did she realize that it was not Dongfang Mo. It was che Qi Xuan, also known as Dongfang Yu.

Chapter 694 real and fake Dongfang Mo 2

“Why are you here?” Yan Ru handed the cake and milk she had just bought to Feather and the ones she had bought for herself to him. “You haven’t eaten anything, right? Eat something to fill your stomach first.”

Che Qixuan smiled and took the food from her and started to eat it without hesitation. As she ate, she asked casually, “what’s going on? Feather said that Dongfang Mo locked you and your mother in one inch Mo city and didn’t allow you to go out. She said that it was like going to jail, so she called me...”

“Oh, so it was the two of you who agreed to let her get sick?” Mu Ru immediately became angry and couldn’t help but shout, “Che Qixuan, you’re wrong! Although you want to help Yu Yu, you can’t teach her this method? If she gets sick after taking a cold shower, what if...”

“What? Taking a cold shower?” Che Qixuan’s habit of delivering milk cartons to his mouth stopped abruptly. Then he glared at little Feather and said fiercely, “I only asked you to pretend to be sick, not to take a cold shower. Are you really sick? Aren’t you joking with your own body?”

“Aiyo, stop talking about it.” Little Feather shouted a little anxiously, “let’s hurry up and eat something. After we eat, we’ll leave. Otherwise, when that uncle Liu comes later, we won’t be able to escape.”

“Why are you still running?” Mu Ru shouted unhappily, “you’ve just been hospitalized, your fever hasn’t subsided, and you have pneumonia. No matter what, you have to cure your body first. Nothing is more important than your body.”

“Right.” Che Qixuan echoed Mu Ru at the side, then he also pulled a long face and lectured little Feather, “in the future, if you use such a method to deceive me, I won’t come to see you anymore.”

“What do you mean by harming others and harming yourself?” Mu Ru immediately corrected him. “He’s harming himself and himself, alright?”

Che Qixuan smiled slightly, and then quickly changed the topic. “Alright, let’s not argue about this anymore. Oh Right, tell me, why did Dongfang Mo Lock you two up again? Did you two offend him again?”

“The two of us didn’t offend him, but someone else did.” Mu Ru said with a slight headache. “In short, recently, something happened in Dongfang Group. Dongfang Mo accepted Dongfang Group again, and then that Fang Zining...”

“Fang Zining is very bad,” little Feather took over Mu Ru’s words and quickly said to Che Qixuan, “It was that Fang Zining. On the day she got engaged to that big liar, she actually got someone to kidnap my mommy and disfigure her...”

“What?” Che Qixuan was shocked. Then, he widened his eyes and looked at Mu Ru from head to toe. He couldn’t help but ask in a trembling voice, “Yan Ru, your face was disfigured? But why can’t I see your face? Who gave you plastic surgery? Don’t tell me it’ll be fine in a few days?”

“I’m not the one who’s disfigured,” Mu Ru explained to Che Qixuan. “That’s Xi Muxue, the fake Xi Muru who used to be in one inch ink city. At that time, in order to get into Dongfang Mo and Fang Zining’s engagement party, she forcefully changed her dress and identity with me. She wanted to pretend to be me and go in, but she didn't expect... "..."

Mu Ru briefly recounted the incident Finally, she said, "it's precisely because of this matter that Dongfang Mo is worried about Yu Yu and me. That's why when he left, he specifically told Uncle Liu not to let us leave one inch ink city."

Three days later

On the ocean closest to Naples, on Tyson's cruise ship.

Compared to three days ago, tonight was slightly different. There were stars in the sky, and a new moon emerged from the clouds. Therefore, the sea was no longer as pitch black as it was three days ago. Instead, it was hazy with a little bit of light.

The transaction between Rodger and Dongfang Yingwu was carried out in the most luxurious and private private room in the basement of Tyson's cruise ship.

Dongfang Yingwu took out Rodger's signed bills and handed them to Tyson and his professional forger to identify the authenticity. This was an inevitable procedure.

The forger was also the most famous and authoritative wells in the underworld. After carefully identifying the bills, he nodded and then pushed the bills to Rodger. "these are all real. None of them are fake."

Rodger nodded and then picked up the bills and carefully checked them. After confirming that they were all real, he got up and opened the window He pointed at a small cruise ship beside the cruise ship and said, "there are 10 boxes on it. Each box costs 50 million yuan. Ten boxes cost 500 million yuan, which is equivalent to 3 billion yuan. Mr. Dongfang Yingwu, get someone to count them."

Dongfang Yingwu nodded and took out a remote control. Soon, a speedboat came from the side. Then, more than a dozen people quickly jumped onto the cruise ship.

Tyson laughed and patted Rodger's shoulder. "You've really made money in the past two years. Is Oil that easy to get? Why don't we work together and torture the oil?"

Rodger had a meaningful smile on the corner of his mouth. He said faintly, "sure, let me and Mr. Dongfang Yingwu clear these accounts. When we're free, let's talk."

"okay, Rodger is a straightforward person." Tyson looked very happy. Then he asked Dongfang Yingwu, who was standing at the side, "what are you going to do now, Mr. Dongfang? I heard that you're not going to torture Dongfang Group anymore?"

"Hehe, what can I do?" Dongfang Yingwu was still cunning and hid himself well "I was born to be a slave. If I don't work for the Dongfang Group, I will also work for other companies. I'm just an errand boy. I'm afraid I won't run errands when I retire."

“Hehe, Mr. Dongfang is really humble.” Tyson secretly signaled to his men. Then he beckoned to Dongfang Yingwu and Rodger. “Come, come, let the three of us have a drink. I also congratulate the two of you for finally getting rid of the trouble of the past two years.”

Rodger nodded and took the cup from Tyson. He clinked glasses with Dongfang Yingwu and Tyson respectively. Then, the three of them drank the wine with smiles on their faces.

As soon as they drank the wine, the communicator on Dongfang Yingwu’s body rang. It was obvious that it was sent to him by the people who had accepted the US dollars. As expected, Dongfang Yingwu took a look. Then, he extended his hand to Rodger with a smile on his face. “We have a happy cooperation. I hope there will be opportunities for cooperation in the future.”

Rodger’s deep gaze was hidden under his sunglasses. He extended his pale hand and shook Dongfang Yingwu’s hand. He replied in pure American words, “there is no problem with cooperation. Just don’t be in such a hurry to rush the payment. It is normal for the turnover to not be effective occasionally.”

“No, no, definitely not in the future.” Dongfang Yingwu laughed and then walked upstairs happily. It was obvious that he was preparing to return triumphantly with his 500 million USD.

Rodger still shook hands with Tyson very politely and then slowly walked upstairs. He knew that Tyson behind him was even more anxious than him. No, he was not anxious!

Chapter 696 true or false Dongfang Mo 4

On the high seas, the dim light could not be seen far. Even the searchlight of the yacht could not be seen far. In the early morning, for some reason, a thick fog suddenly appeared. The fog was too thick, and the visibility of the searchlight was less than ten meters.

“boss, what should we do?” A Hao came to Rodger’s side anxiously. “The yacht in front is about to disappear.”

“then speed up a little bit.” Rodger’s voice was very calm. At the same time, he pulled off the human skin mask on his face and quickly ordered, “tell everyone not to be anxious. Remember, wait for Tyson to make a move first, then we’ll make a move.”

“Yes,” Ahaos replied, then quickly turned around and left. He knew that there would be a big battle tonight, and as for the outcome, he was really not confident at the moment.

He had gone through life and death in the underworld with Dongfang Mo no less than ten times. Every time, he could remain calm and composed. Looking at tonight, he did not know why, but he felt that things were not as easy as he thought.

Dongfang Mo had already quickly walked out of the cabin. Rodger had already disappeared on the sea. He took the binoculars from Ahaos and looked forward. Sure enough, he could not see anything.

“Damn it,” he couldn’t help but curse in his heart. Actually, he had checked the weather forecast three days ago and knew that there would be fog in this area, but he didn’t expect it to be so serious.

“Boss, look!” Ahao suddenly pointed at a place beside him. Then, he said in surprise, “that’s not right. We’ve already sped up, but we still can’t catch up with Dongfang Yingwu’s yacht. But there seems to be a faint light on that island over there. Should we go over?”

“either Dongfang Yingwu has found our yacht or Tyson’s yacht.” Dongfang Mo’s thick eyebrows were tightly knitted together. He held the railing tightly with both hands and quickly said, “go over there.”

“It’s very dangerous to go over there.” Ahao reminded Dongfang Mo from the side, “we’re not familiar with that island. At the same time, we can’t guarantee that Dongfang Yingwu hasn’t set up an ambush on it. What if…”

Dongfang Mo quickly used his hand to stop Ahao from continuing. He just stared at the island and calmly said, “we’re just going over there. We won’t go ashore for now. We’ll talk about it after Tyson’s people have gone ashore.”

Ahao nodded to show that he understood Dongfang Mo’s meaning. Then, he quickly gave the order. Thus, the cruise ship turned around and headed towards the unknown island at the side.

Just as they were about to approach the island, a yacht suddenly appeared from under the water. This gave Ahao a big fright. He quickly ran over to report to Dongfang Mo, “boss, something bad has happened. An unknown third party has arrived. I reckon that they’re also here for the 500 million USD in Dongfang Yingwu’s hands.”

“An unknown third party?” Dongfang Mo was also shocked. He quickly walked up from the cabin and took Ahao’s binoculars to look forward. Indeed, he saw an unfamiliar yacht approaching the island.

What was going on? He immediately became suspicious. Logically speaking, he had to pay Dongfang Yingwu. First of all, Dongfang Yingwu would definitely not release the news. After all, this was a long journey. It would not be easy for him to bring the 500 million back safely. One more person would mean one more danger?

Could it be Tyson? That was not right. Tyson liked to eat alone. If he told others, wouldn’t that mean he had one more competitor?

If Dongfang Yingwu and Tyson did not release the news, then who was it? Wells? But wasn’t Wells Tyson’s man? Did he secretly betray Tyson?

Chapter 697 true and false Dongfang Mo 5

Just as Dongfang Mo was feeling extremely puzzled, the sound of gunshots rang out from the jungle-covered island. Ahao was greatly startled. He could not help but say to Dongfang Mo, “boss, Tyson is really awesome. He probably cut across from the other side. He has already caught up with Dongfang Yingwu so quickly. It seems like he is determined to win.”

“A mantis pounces on the cicada, but the oriole is behind.” Dongfang Mo snorted coldly. His gaze was still on the unknown yacht, but he was shocked to discover that the yacht was heading towards his yacht.

He was greatly shocked. Could it be that someone had seen through his identity? But that was not right. In the underworld, everyone knew that there was a Rodger. Moreover, when he made the deal with Dongfang Yingwu, it could be said that it was watertight. Dongfang Yingwu probably did not even suspect a thing.

Just as he was puzzled, he suddenly heard a sound behind him. Meng turned her head and only then did she realize that a person had quietly climbed onto his deck.

When he saw the person clearly, he relaxed his vigilance and could not help but ask in a low voice, "why are you here? Is that yacht yours?"

"nonsense." Che Qixuan's voice was hoarse, probably because he had caught a cold. He said to him in a low voice, "Dongfang Yingwu's yacht is parked under a tree over there. I estimate that he left the 500 million on the yacht and did not take it with him. What he took with him is probably five fake chests. The purpose is to lure away the people who want to rob his money."

"I understand." Dongfang Mo quickly nodded and said, "then I'll hurry up and deal with that yacht. I won't wait for the Oriole to come after me. Thank you!"

"You go. Can you go?" Che Qixuan rolled his eyes and said, "your cruise ship will be within Dongfang Yingwu's shooting range after traveling for another three kilometers. His yacht is full of deadly enzymes. Do you really think he only brought 12 people with him?"

"Then I'll wait for him to finish fighting with Tyson before landing on the island." Dongfang Mo quickly changed his decision. "I must go to this nameless island to take a look. I don't think Dongfang Yingwu will find an island to land on at the last minute. His island might be hiding some secrets."

This time, the reason he chose to trade with Dongfang Yingwu in this area of the sea was because his parents had died in this area of the sea ten years ago. They were buried at the bottom of the sea with no bones left.

For the past ten years, he had been secretly investigating the incident of his parents' death. Although it was said that the cruise ship had been set on fire and exploded, why did it have to be his parents who did not run out while others could run out?

"leave the matters of landing on the island to me," Che Qixuan quickly said. "What you need to do now is to use the fastest speed to hijack the 500 million US dollars, because that was originally the money of the Dongfang Group. Then, you need to rush back to Binhai as fast as possible. And I will delay Dongfang Yingwu on this island for a few days. That way, he won't suspect that you are Rodger."

Dongfang Mo was shocked. He stared at Che Qixuan and could not help but ask in a low voice, "how did you know..."

"Don't ask so many questions. Hurry up and follow me." Che Qixuan quickly threw him a diving suit. "quickly put it on. Don't delay any longer. It's best to take advantage of the time when Dongfang Yingwu and Tyson are having a heated fight."

Dongfang Mo was slightly stunned. He quickly put on the diving suit and followed Che Qixuan to his yacht. Just as he was wondering how his yacht approached Dongfang Yingwu's yacht, he found that Che Qixuan's yacht had naturally closed. Then, it slowly sank to the surface of the sea.

Dongfang Mo instantly understood. No wonder a Hao said that a yacht suddenly appeared from the water. It turned out that this was not an ordinary yacht, but a submarine.

Chapter 698: real or fake Dongfang Mo 6

“You learned how to dive?” Dongfang Mo frowned and looked at the person who looked exactly like him. “When did this happen?” “It happened a long time ago.”

Che Qixuan’s voice was very low and indifferent. “In short, I don’t drive anymore. Fortunately, the seabed is very spacious, so I don’t need to compete with others. I also don’t race yachts with others, so you don’t have to worry about these things for me.”

“You can go back to Binhai later. Anyway, you look exactly like me. Just go to Dongfang Group and sit in my office. I have to go to the island to take a look myself.”

Dongfang Mo looked outside and saw that the submarine was moving among all kinds of sea creatures, and those sea creatures seemed to be crashing directly toward the submarine.

He was shocked. This Che Qixuan said that he would not fight with people for the road. Indeed, he would not fight with people for the road, but he would fight with sea creatures for the road. What was the difference between this and driving a car?

Just as he was about to ask Che Qixuan, he found that the submarine had slowed down and was showing an upward trend. He was slightly stunned and quickly went to Che Qixuan’s side. Only then did he realize that he had parked the submarine at a certain location.

“It’s right here. Let’s go up.” Che Qixuan turned his head around He handed him a chain and said, “right, I’ll go in front to draw people’s attention away. You go in the back and act quickly. Connect the five boxes together and pull them directly to the surface of the sea.”

Dongfang Mo nodded. Seeing that he had entered a black tunnel, he followed suit. When he came out, he found that he was already on the surface of the sea, and Che Qixuan had already taken off his diving suit Then, he revealed his black clothes and swam forward quickly, as if he wanted to board the yacht forcefully.

Dongfang Mo quickly dived into the water and slowly came to the bottom of the cruise ship. He touched the bottom edge of the cruise ship and slowly poked his head up.

As expected, everyone had been lured away by Che Qixuan. He quickly climbed up and took out his portable detector. He quickly determined the target of the five boxes. They were actually at the bottom of the cruise ship.

Dongfang Yingwu was indeed a cunning Fox. He could not help but curse in his heart. He quickly searched for the bottom and ran to the most hidden corner. As expected, he found five black alleys, but they were not his five boxes.

He was stunned. He was wondering if the five boxes contained the 500 million yuan Or perhaps, this was just something Dongfang Yingwu used to numb people’s eyes. Perhaps, the 500 million yuan had already been taken to the island by Dongfang Yingwu and the others.

Just as he was hesitating, he suddenly heard the sound of someone coming down the stairs, followed by the voices of two people.

One person whispered, “It seems that our boss was not wrong. Dongfang Mo is indeed here. It seems that Dongfang Mo is not willing to give our boss 3 billion to exchange for his shares.”

“Aren’t you talking nonsense? 3 billion?” The other person choked and said, “our boss plus Miss Dongfang and third young master Dongfang’s shares are only less than 1 billion. Not to mention Dongfang Mo, even I am not willing.”

“But is it easy to receive this money?” The other person quickly said, “Dongfang Mo grew up in a honey pot and doesn’t know how hard it is. Is this selling his life for money? He is good, he can’t receive Rodge’s money. Now that we finally received it, he actually came to rob US openly. How despicable.”

“What? Didn’t you hear what boss said? He already suspected that Rodge was Dongfang Mo.” this person glanced at the other person with disdain. Then, he stepped on the best step and said, “otherwise, how could it be so coincidental? Our boss just went out, and Dongfang Mo from the Dongfang Group also went on a business trip.”

“It can’t be?” The other person was shocked. He couldn’t help but say, “I followed boss to see that Rodge. His face is pale, but in fact, it’s sickly pale. Just like that famous singer Michael Jackson, it’s a little scary. It’s very different from Dongfang Mo’s image.”

“Sigh, I don’t know about that.” This person didn’t argue with his colleagues about this issue. He only said lightly, “in short, our boss only suspected and didn’t confirm that Rodge was Dongfang Mo. After all, Rodge was born in the Jianghu for nearly ten years. Moreover, he has a formal company in the United States. I think boss might be too cautious.”

“Alright, these five boxes are lying quietly here. I’m relieved,” another person quickly added. Then, as he ran up the stairs, he said, “Dongfang Mo definitely has more than one person coming over. I think I saw a Hao’s cruise ship approaching. It’s probably going to fight us head-on. Boss has personally led ah Huo and the others to the island to fight Tyson. I’ll go up first. You’re in charge of keeping an eye on these five boxes. If it really doesn’t work out, follow boss’s instructions and sink these five boxes to the bottom.”

“got it. Hurry up and go.” This person was a little impatient as he waved at that person. “I’m more familiar with the matter of keeping money than you are, okay?”

The man quickly went upstairs. The man kicked the black boxes with his foot and then said to himself with a smile, “boss is too careful. This cruise ship is built like an iron wall. Anyone can...”

Unfortunately, before he could finish talking to himself, his mouth was covered by a hand from behind. The speed was so fast that he did not even have a chance to make a sound.

Of course, he still wanted to turn his head to see who it was. Unfortunately, Dongfang Mo did not give him such a chance. He quickly pulled off one of his sleeves and covered his eyes.

Then, he kicked off his shoes, took off his socks and stuffed them into his mouth. Then, he tied him to the pillar behind the steps. Only then did he find the so-called key on his body.

Actually, the key was remote-controlled and could not open the boxes. However, the moment he pressed it, a door immediately opened behind the boxes. He understood Dongfang Yingwu was prepared to use it to push the boxes out and throw them into the sea when he could not take them away at the crucial moment. This was the so-called bottom of the sea.

He couldn't help but smile. It seemed that Dongfang Yingwu had really helped him a lot. He didn't even need to bring the five boxes to the window.

He directly used the chain that Che Qixuan had given him to connect the five boxes together. Then, he pulled the chain in front of him and jumped into the sea first. The five boxes followed him and sank into the sea.

Just as Dongfang Mo was gradually sinking into the submarine with the five boxes, Che Qixuan had already signaled to a Hao to retreat quickly. Obviously, he had already judged that Dongfang Mo had succeeded based on the waves on the other side.

Only the people on the cruise ship were still happy to see Che Qixuan and Ahaos retreat quickly. One of the leaders could not help but say, "in terms of strategy and courage, our boss is still slightly better than Dongfang Mo."

Chapter 700 true or false Dongfang Mo 8

Meanwhile, in the submarine, Dongfang Mo tidied up his diving suit and said to Che Qixuan, "hurry up and take these five boxes away to Binhai. I have to go to that island, otherwise..."

"No, you have to take the boxes back," Che Qixuan quickly interrupted him and said in a bad mood, "I don't know how to manage that Bullsh * T company at all. I only know my own business, and staying here..."

"It's very dangerous to stay here. You don't have the experience to fight with people from the underworld," Dongfang Mo interrupted Che Qixuan. He quickly said, "alright, this matter is decided. You go back to Binhai. If anything happens to me, you take over Dongfang Group. You don't have to worry about the funding problem. My DFM company in America has plenty of funds..."

"I'm not worried about the funding problem at all," Che Qixuan quickly interrupted Dongfang Mo. Then, he raised his voice by two decibels and shouted, "I'm worried about whether the Dongfang family will have a successor. What's the use of me keeping it? Can I let the Dongfang family give birth to a successor?"

"Our Dongfang family already has a little feather. She will be the Dongfang family's successor," Dongfang Mo said snappily. "Why are you thinking so far ahead?"

“Can I not think so far ahead?” Che Qixuan rolled his eyes at him, then said, “alright, it’s settled then. You take these five boxes back, I...”

Unfortunately, before Che Qixuan could finish his words, Dongfang Mo had already flashed out of the black hole. Che Qixuan wanted to pull him back, but in an instant, he saw a seahorse swimming towards his yacht. He quickly turned the steering wheel, but lost the chance to pull Dongfang Mo back.

Dongfang Mo wore a diving suit and quickly swam towards Ahao’s yacht. Fortunately, Ahao had already returned to a safe zone. He was probably waiting for him or Che Qixuan.

“boss, weren’t you the one who brought the five boxes back?” Ahao recognized Dongfang Mo at a glance. Although Che Qixuan looked exactly like Dongfang Mo, he had followed Dongfang Mo for many years, so he could still tell from his expression.

“I don’t know how to drive that submarine,” Dongfang Mo explained calmly. However, this was also the truth. He had never driven that thing before, and at the same time, he would not fight with the sea creatures in the water.

Ahao immediately stopped talking. He knew what Dongfang Mo was thinking, so without waiting for Dongfang Mo to speak, he immediately ordered his subordinates to quickly drive towards the island. At this time, the gunshots on the island had gradually faded away. It was estimated that Dongfang Yingwu and Tyson were almost done fighting.

Dongfang Yingwu and Tyson on the island were indeed almost done fighting, but the current situation was that Dongfang Yingwu occupied the commanding point and did not give these masked men any chance at all.

Tyson was a smart man. Of course, he didn’t brazenly rob Dongfang Yingwu of the 500 million dollars. Therefore, his men were all masked and the identity of the unknown pirates appeared on the island.

However, Dongfang Yingwu was also very smart. Of course, he knew who was chasing after him. At first, he thought that Rodge had sent someone to chase after him. After all, Rodge was a very shameless person. He didn’t want to pay the debt.

Therefore, he brought the few boxes that Rodge gave him to the island that he was familiar with. Of course, the boxes were already empty. The dollars in the boxes had been exchanged for the safer boxes that he carried with him.
