Chapter 711 true or false Dongfang Mo Jiu

October 21st, the weather was fine

My cousin Dongfang Yingwu helped me build a small wooden house between two trees and let me live in it. He said that he would first return to Binhai to appease the people of the Dongfang Group and at the same time bring the eldest young master back from America to accept the Dongfang Group. Once the people of the Dongfang Group had calmed down, he would bring the eldest young master to bring me back.

I agreed to his idea because it was useless for us to stay here. Since he was in good health, he could put on a life jacket and swim dozens of nautical miles or even hundreds of nautical miles to see if he could stop a cruise ship or yacht or something. As for me, I had a broken leg and several injured women on my body. If I followed him, it would only drag him down. Perhaps both of them wouldn't be able to return to Binhai and would die at the bottom of the sea.

Because Binhai's Dongfang Group had encountered a financial storm, we had suffered heavy losses in cash and Stock Exchange. Right now, everyone was in a state of panic. There were already a few who didn't pay their workers. I asked my cousin to immediately track down the money we transferred back through the underground bank after he returned. I asked him to quickly hand it over to AH MO after receiving the money. I also asked Ah Mo to quickly pay the workers of the Dongfang Group. It was the most important thing to stabilize the people's hearts.

When Dongfang Mo saw this, his eyes were already filled with anger. He still remembered that he had returned from the United States ten years ago. At that time, because he had only received the news on October 27th, it was already the end of January when he returned to Binhai.

Dongfang Yingwu told him with a heavy heart that his parents had been killed on the high seas near Naples. The reason for the death was that the cruise ship had collided with something. Because it was foggy that day, and the cruise ship his parents were on was a Mafia cruise ship, he didn't dare to call the police. However, he had informed the mafia to rescue them, but he had stayed there for a few days. His parents' bodies had not been recovered.

Dongfang Yingwu said that his parents had taken the Mafia cruise ship because they had lost all their money investing in the oil wells in Italy. They were in deep debt, so they had been hiding everywhere. Even when they returned to their country, they did not dare to go through the proper channels. Because they did not have a mining permit, the Italian police were hunting them down.

At that time, he had just returned from the United States. Because his parents had never told him about the company when he was studying, he did not know anything. He did not even know that his parents were investing in the oil wells in Italy.

At that time, Dongfang Group was in a crisis because of the Asian financial crisis. He was the one who brought money back from the United States. At that time, when he was studying in the United States, he was playing stocks with a fellow trader. At that time, the stocks of various Asian countries plummeted. Even Hong Kong was the same. Hence, he earned a large sum of money at that time.

It was precisely because of his money that Dongfang Group survived the crisis. At that time, Dongfang Yingwu saw that he was able to bring money back from abroad at such a young age. He held him in high esteem and was even more devoted to Dongfang Group.

However, he never dreamed that before his parents died, there was actually a large sum of money that was transferred from Italy to Binhai via the underground bank. It went without saying that the money was definitely taken by Dongfang Yingwu alone.

When he thought of this, his hands were clenched into fists. He only began to suspect Dongfang Yingwu after his own car accident seven years ago. Otherwise, he wouldn't have appeared in Binhai alone.

However, he didn't expect Dongfang Yingwu to have already made a move against Dongfang group when his parents were still alive. It was very likely that Dongfang Yingwu had personally made a move against his parents.

Chapter 712 true and false: Dongfang Mo X

Dongfang Mo calmed himself down a little, then slowly read down. Because the words were written with the juice of some kind of plant, some of them were blurred and needed to be carefully identified.

October 29th, the weather was foggy

My cousin had been gone for a week. I didn't know if he had successfully returned to Binhai or if my ah Mo had returned from America to take over the Dongfang Group.

For the past week, I had been dragging my broken leg down from this wooden house every day. Then, I used my hands to crawl to the beach. I had been crawling around the beach all day, looking for some crabs, fish, and prawns to satisfy my hunger. In addition, I wanted to see if ah Xiong would come out of the water.

Ah Xiong's death made me very sad, but there was nothing I could do. I wanted to build a grave for him on this isolated island, but even his body could not be found.

November 30th, the weather was clear

It was very cold today. I hid in the wooden house and did not dare to go out. My broken leg could no longer exert any strength. The most unfortunate thing was that my other leg was bitten by a poisonous snake yesterday.

My cousin had been gone for more than a month, but he still had not come. I was gradually beginning to be disappointed. He had not come for so long. Did he not return to Binhai at all? It was possible that he had already died on the high seas.

If my cousin had died, then what would the eastern group look like now Brother Liu was honest, but his ability was limited. Ah Mei was also a woman. Moreover, she had never been involved in the matters of the group.

And my ah Mo, ah Mo, who was studying in the United States, did you know about our accident Did you rush back to Binhai?

December 7th, the weather was cloudy

I hadn't gone down the tree for a week, and my leg, which had been bitten by a poisonous snake, was all swollen and swollen. The leaves around the Wooden House had been plucked and eaten up by me, and the juice had been smeared on the place where the snake had bitten, but it had no effect at all And the shadow of my cousin, Dongfang Yingwu, still hadn't appeared.

December 8th, the weather was cloudy

My cousin still hadn't come. I started to feel thirsty, but I had plucked all the leaves outside the Wooden House, and now I couldn't even drink dew.

When Dongfang Mo saw this, tears started to fall from his eyes. His mother was on that isolated island. Her final days were actually so miserable. One of her legs was broken and the other was bitten by a poisonous snake.

And that damned Dongfang Yingwu actually didn't tell him that his mother was still alive. He actually lied to him. His goal was to swallow the Dongfang family's large amount of wealth.

The words below were no longer written with plant juice, but with blood. It was obvious that his mother no longer had the ability to pick any plants.

December 11th, the weather was clear

I felt like I was about to die. My entire body was so weak that I didn't have any strength left. Moreover, my blood was about to run dry. At this moment, I no longer had any hope that my cousin Dongfang Yingwu would still be alive and bring ah Mo to save me. I only hoped that my ah Mo would be a little smarter I would be able to discover the changes in Dongfang Group and rush back.

December 13th, the weather was foggy

Last night, I dreamt of Ah Mo. he had returned to Binhai from America. My cousin Dongfang Yingwu took out the money and gave it to him. He paid the workers' wages. The situation in Dongfang Group had stabilized. I was very happy, even though it was just a dream.

When Dongfang Mo saw this, his hands clenched into fists. The veins on the back of his hands were violent. This was the diary that his mother had written the day before she died. She wasn't dreaming. It was clearly an illusion before she died.

His mother died on December 14,1997. Before she died, she didn't write anything in the diary. She only wrote his and ah Yu's names. She must have read their names and left.

Chapter 713: real or fake Dongfang Mo.

After Dongfang Mo finished reading the diary, he immediately found Ahao and asked him to return to the nameless island.

“What?” Ahao was shocked and couldn’t help but shout, “boss, we’ve already gotten the five boxes. What’s the point of going back now? Besides, we’ve already traveled 150 nautical miles, a full six hours...”

“I must go back,” Dongfang MO quickly interrupted Ahao’s words, his thick eyebrows knitted together into a rope.

“There’s no problem if we go back, but it’ll take us 12 hours to go back and forth. I think by the time we get to the isolated island, Dongfang Yingwu and Ronnie will have finished fighting long ago...”

“My return has nothing to do with Dongfang Yingwu and Ronnie’s war,” Dongfang Mo quickly cut off Ahao’s words and waved his hand. “Don’t ask so many questions. In short, I have to go back. There can’t be any delay.”

“Yes,” Ahao saw that Dongfang Mo insisted and stopped persuading him. In fact, he didn’t want him to go back. One reason was because he was worried about the time it would take to go back and forth, and the other was because he was worried that the cruise ship would run out of oil.

AHAO’s estimation was actually wrong. Because they would be heading in the opposite direction, the speed would be slower. So when they arrived at this nameless island, it was already 14 hours later.

Dongfang Yingwu’s cruise ship and Ronnie’s cruise ship were gone, and there were no gunshots on the island. The two of them must have fought to the death after they left. Of course, who won the five empty boxes in the end.. Only they themselves knew that Dongfang Mo did not care about that.

It was noon when they walked onto the island again. The weather today was very good. It was a sunny day. Although the temperature was still a little low, about three degrees, because of the sun, they did not feel cold walking forward.

It was a sunny day. There were not many buildings on the isolated island, so his field of vision was relatively wide. It did not take Dongfang Mo long to find the wooden house that was built between two trees.

He had not seen the appearance of the wooden house clearly in the early morning fog that day, but he did see it clearly today. In fact, this wooden house was probably repaired by Dongfang Yingwu later because some of the trees and branches did not seem to have been there for more than ten years.

He wanted to find his mother’s bones. His mother died in this wooden house. Of course, the bones were definitely not in the wooden house anymore, but where exactly was Dongfang Yingwu buried?

He climbed up the wooden house again. It was empty inside. There was nothing. Even his mother’s breath, perhaps because it had been ten years, he could no longer smell it.

Ahao led people to search around the wooden house, hoping to find something similar to a tomb. However, the result of the search was very disappointing, because the place was filled with rocks, such as short thorns or some trees There was no place that looked like a tomb.

“could it be that Dongfang Yingwu did not use a tomb at all? He just casually dug a hole and buried it?” Ahao said carefully to Dongfang Mo. .

It was completely possible. Dongfang Yingwu seemed to be a kind and amiable person, but in reality, he was extremely cruel. What kind of thing could he not do?

Dongfang Mo nodded and said in a low voice, “get someone to search this island carefully. Dig Out anything that seems suspicious. I hope I can bring my mother home...”

Dongfang Mo paused for a moment, then swallowed a mouthful of saliva and said, “of course, if you really can’t find it, then forget it.”

Chapter 714 real and fake Dongfang MO B

Binhai, Dongfang Group.

Che Qixuan drove to work like he was heading to the sky. Because he looked exactly like Dongfang Mo and he was wearing Dongfang Mo’s clothes, he didn’t have to worry about being recognized by others.

In fact, what he was most worried about right now was the review of documents and meetings. There were also those unknown high-ranking officials who came to talk about this and that. He didn’t know what to do at all.

Just like yesterday, a handsome man suddenly came to him and told him about the bid. He even said that this was a chance for Dongfang group to come back to life. The company’s former designer was taken away by Dongfang Yingwu He left behind an incomplete design draft and asked what he should do now Should he hire another designer with a high salary or go abroad and hire a designer back?

How would he know this question He was not in this line of work. Moreover, that person even said that the bid was for a piece of land, like the Old City renovation of Binhai’s Old City district or something. He was completely clueless about these things.

Therefore, he said that this question needed to be considered again, which made that person anxious. He said that the CEO was on the brink of a fire. Time was money. There were only a few months left, and the planning team did not have the design drawings in place Right now, they did not know how to make a plan... ..

In short, that person said a lot of things, and they all sounded very reasonable. Logically speaking, he should have made a decision. However, he was not Dongfang Mo, so he did not know which aspect to make a decision on. Thus, he could only bite the bullet and say that this matter needed to be discussed in a meeting Let him go down and do his work first.

Of course, having a meeting to discuss was one thing, but when to have a meeting was another matter. He would not be so foolish as to invite everyone to have a meeting to discuss this issue in these two days. He had to arrange these work schedules after Dongfang Mo returned.

The day before yesterday, he had not reviewed a single document. The day before yesterday, he had not held a meeting. He had even asked his secretary to cancel the row meeting that his secretary had mentioned, saying that it would be held another day.

Today, however, the car had just arrived at the company and had stopped. Before he could even get out of the car, the secretary who had been waiting for him ran over to inform him that a group of debt collectors had come. He did not know who was the one who spread the rumor that Dongfang Group's CEO, Dongfang Mo, had already run away. Therefore, everyone was gambling at the entrance and was in a deadlock with the security guards. They told him to drive away quickly and not to appear. Otherwise, those creditors would probably not be able to get rid of him.

Dongfang Group did not have any money at the moment. This was a situation that all the higher-ups knew. Dongfang Mei and her son had withdrawn their shares. Dongfang Group had used Rodger's debt to pay them off.

Che Qixuan frowned. The company had come to collect debts. Under such circumstances, he should have avoided them because he did not know how much external debt Dongfang Group had and whether the thirty he brought back would be enough to repay the debts.

However, before he could start the car, the company's finance director had already run over. Seeing him, he said anxiously, "president, it's not good. It's time for the company to go to work today, but the employees below the supervisor level haven't come to work yet. We just received the latest news. They went to the entrance of the city government to cause a strike. They said that we're four months behind on our wages and they're starving to death. Just now, the director of labor personally called... .."

When Che Qixuan heard this, he knew that he definitely couldn't avoid it today. He was going to ignore the debt of asking for money for the time being, but he definitely had to take care of the workers' strike. Otherwise, the Oriental Group might really be shut down.

Chapter 715 true or false Dongfang Mo C

Che Qixuan originally thought that paying the workers' wages was a simple matter because the employees all had time cards, so they could just calculate their wages according to the time cards.

Moreover, the employees' wages from three months ago had already been calculated by the finance department. As long as they were paid according to that amount, it would be fine. Therefore, when he spoke to the director of the Bureau of Labor, he agreed very quickly and said that he had just returned from a business trip. It was true that the turnover of funds in recent months had been somewhat difficult, but now that a portion of the funds had been recovered, it was possible to pay the employees' wages for the first three months.

Thus, under Che Qixuan's promise and the adjustment of the Bureau of Labor, Dongfang Group's striking employees returned to work in the afternoon. Of course, the first thing they did when they went to work was to receive their salaries.

Regarding the issue of salary payment, Dongfang Mo, Che Qixuan, had no choice but to hold an impromptu meeting in the morning. Fortunately, he did not need to say too much about this matter, and it was only for everyone to discuss it.

The finance department was very surprised by Dongfang Mo's promise to the Bureau of Labor to give them three months' salary in one go, because the money they currently had was almost not enough for a month's salary. It was not enough for Dongfang Mo, but Che Qixuan clearly informed them that he had received some money back So three months's salary was enough.

The Finance Department of Dongfang Group didn't know that Dongfang Mo could receive so much money after a business trip. Of course, it wasn't much, because Che Qixuan had just taken out 100 million USD.

Of course, there were still a bunch of creditors waiting for money. Che Qixuan didn't know what to do, because once he let go of the payment door frame, he didn't know if the money was enough. Moreover, the bidding was still waiting for investment.

Of course, the finance department had experience. They said that delaying the payment was the decision of any big company. In fact, Dongfang Group had only paid three months ago. Now, they could learn from foreign companies and delay the payment until half a year later.

This suggestion was approved by Che Qixuan on the spot. He asked the Finance Department to issue a notice to all the merchants. He asked the sales department and the purchasing department to inform all the merchants that the bills would be settled after half a year. The bills would be reconciled in less than half a year However, the payment would be made after half a year.

This method quickly resolved those companies that wanted to collect debts. At the same time, because Dongfang Mo, Che Qixuan, had personally promised everyone, although those companies did not receive much payment, it could be seen that the salaries of Dongfang Group's employees had been paid The payment was also slowly being made. It could be considered as a reassurance that no one would cause trouble again.

Che Qixuan was secretly happy. He felt that it was not as difficult as he had imagined to be Dongfang Mo's substitute. Especially after he had appeased the employees and the debt collection companies, he could be considered to be able to rest easy for a few days As for the document review and decision-making meetings, he could adopt a delaying policy and wait for Dongfang Mo to come back to finish it.

However, the imagination was very full, but the reality was very bony. These four days, he had just arrived at the company. Before the coffee made by his secretary was served, a middle-aged woman came knocking on his door.

To be honest, he did not recognize this middle-aged woman at first glance because he had not seen Dongfang Mei for 15 years. Fifteen years ago, Dongfang Mei was only 35 years old, and now, Dongfang Mei was already 51 years old.

In his mind, Dongfang Mei was still a young woman with a first-rate figure, but now, Dongfang Mei, who came to look for him, was already a little Chubby. Her face looked a little stiff because she had undergone plastic surgery.

Chapter 716 true and false Dongfang Mo D

When Che Qixuan saw Dongfang Mei, he was obviously stunned for a moment. However, when Dongfang Mei saw him, she cried out in surprise, "Ah Mo, you're really back. I thought the rumors outside were false?"

This time, Che Qixuan remembered her safely. This was because a person's appearance changed with the passage of time. However, if one's voice was not hoarse, it would not change.

"Oh, aunt Gu, I'm only going on a business trip for a few days." Che Qixuan quickly reacted and said indifferently, "what rumors? Why don't I know about it?"

"Hehe, actually, it's not a rumor." Dongfang Mei said a little awkwardly, "I only heard that Dongfang Group owed their employees a few months' wages, and some of the debts were also paid. But I know the actual situation of Dongfang Group, so I mistakenly thought it was a rumor."

When Dongfang Mei said this, the expression on her face became more and more stiff. Then, she laughed self-mockingly and said, "but now, it looks like it's all true. Ah Mo, you're still the one with the ability. After taking over Dongfang Group for a month and a half, Dongfang Group has gotten out of its predicament."

Che Qixuan didn't say anything after hearing Dongfang Mei's words. In fact, he didn't know what to say because he hadn't interacted with Dongfang Mei for 15 years. Moreover, he wasn't sure what was going on between Dongfang Mei and Dongfang Mo right now.

In his memories, Dongfang Mei had been very good to him and Dongfang Mo 15 years ago. At that time, Dongfang Mo had gone abroad to study at Harvard, while he had stayed in Binhai. Because he had stayed a year behind in high school, he had to enter university a year later than Dongfang Mo.

At that time, Dongfang Mei's child, Dongfang Jun, was only twelve years old. He was in the sixth grade of primary school, and he was called second brother and second brother every day. Dongfang Jun and Dongfang Mo both liked this third brother very much, and they had never treated him as an outsider. In their minds, Dongfang Jun was a member of the Dongfang family, and was their biological younger brother.

But the situation now was that Dongfang Mei and her son had gotten together with Dongfang Yingwu. No matter what their relationship was with him, at least the person who stood beside Dongfang Yingwu was Dongfang Mo's opponent. In other words, Dongfang Mei and Dongfang Mo had shed all pretense of cordiality.

When Dongfang Mei saw that Dongfang Mo did not speak, she thought that he was angry. Of course, Dongfang Mo had sufficient reason to be angry. After all, she had forced him during his most difficult time and had even taken away three billion of his outstanding shares. Therefore, it was indeed impossible for Dongfang Mo to treat her well.

Therefore, when Che Qixuan was silent and only had a cold expression on his face, Dongfang Mei immediately stood up. Then, she said in a low voice, "AH MO, Aunty may be a little selfish, but no matter what, your third brother was in a car accident, and I am a woman."

Dongfang Mei looked at Che Qixuan helplessly and said, "in short, ah Mo, Aunty knows that I have indeed let you down over the years, but Aunty also knows that you have always been magnanimous and won't argue with Aunty, right. Ah Jun may be starting his own company, and I hope that you can take care of him a little more in the future."

Che Qixuan's face was still cold and silent. It was not that he was unwilling to pay attention to Dongfang Mei, but he simply did not know how to say it, afraid that he would be exposed if he said the wrong thing.

However, Che Qixuan didn't know that his silence made an angry Dongfang Mo look alive. This perfectly illustrated Dongfang Mo's disregard for Dongfang Mei.

Chapter 717 true and false Dongfang Mo.

Binhai, Juntao court.

Dongfang Yingwu, who had just rushed back, looked travel-worn. After listening to Dongfang Mei's narration, his entire face was so shocked that it twisted. "You just said that Dongfang Mo went on a business trip and received money. Dongfang Group has already walked out of their predicament in the past two days. How is this possible?"

"How is it impossible?" Dongfang Mei rolled her eyes at him and said, "now the entire Binhai knows. Moreover, the matter of the employees of Binhai striking at the city government's main entrance has been exposed on television. Dongfang Mo personally stepped in to resolve this matter."

"Then what exactly is going on?" Dongfang Yingwu furrowed his brows tightly. Then, he looked at Dongfang Mei and said, "could it be that my estimation is wrong? Rodger isn't Dongfang Mo?"

Dongfang Mei glared at him and said, "you're always so paranoid. In the past, you suspected that Ah Mo and ah Yu were the same person. Later, ah Yu died, and you suspected that Rodger was Ah Mo. now, you've personally gone to Rodger to collect the money. Furthermore, you haven't returned yet. Ah Mo is already handling the matters of the Dongfang Group. Now, you won't be suspicious again, right?"

Dongfang Yingwu was at a loss for words. According to the information he received, the person who was suspected to be Rodger had disguised himself and boarded the island after he left the island with his men. This meant that Rodger had left the island before him.

According to this deduction, if Rodger was Dongfang Mo, then he should not have returned to Binhai. However, Dongfang Mo was clearly handling the affairs in Binhai's Dongfang Group, and he was handling them in an orderly manner. He forced the Dongfang Group to take a difficult step.

"Oh right, you received Rodger's debt this time, right?" Dongfang Mei saw that Dongfang Yingwu was deep in thought, so she hurriedly asked. Without waiting for him to answer, she said, "three billion. How big is our prosperous group? Ah, Junkai will be able to take charge of the matters when he returns this year. I think we have to hurry..."

"What hurry?" Dongfang Yingwu glared at Dongfang Mei in annoyance, then said with a dark expression, "we received the money, and the debt was also given to Rodger, but the money was stolen by an unknown person?"

"What?" Dongfang Mei was really shocked. She looked at Dongfang Yingwu with a puzzled look and asked after a long while, "do you know who stole it?"

Dongfang Yingwu shook his head and said, "I don't know. Because at that time, on the international sea closest to Naples, two forces came to snatch my box. One of them was Hei Sen's men, but he didn't succeed and was defeated by me. The other group should be Rodger's men disguised, but he didn't have the chance to succeed, but... ". "... "..."

Dongfang Yingwu remembered that he had beaten that Damn Ronnie back and brought his few remaining subordinates back to his impregnable cruise ship. Then, he went to the bottom of the cabin to check his three billion dollars proudly.

However, only when he reached the bottom of the cabin did he realize that his most capable subordinate, who had been used to guard the three billion dollars, was tied to a pillar, while his three billion dollar box had disappeared without a trace.

His subordinate told him that a man in a diving suit had attacked him and stolen the five boxes. As for how he had moved them, he didn't know. Because he only found out that the man was wearing a black diving suit the moment he was knocked out. He did not know anything else.

A man, just a man, had stolen three billion of his money without a sound. How powerful was this man?

Moreover, that was on the International Sea, where the sea was the deepest. A person needed to carry five boxes to dive. How far could he dive. Moreover, who was this man?

Chapter 718: real or fake Dongfang Mo.

Dongfang Mo?

He shook his head. He had never heard of Dongfang Mo being able to dive because in his impression, Dongfang Mo had been a sensible and obedient child since he was young. His energy was mainly used to study, otherwise.. He wouldn't have directly entered Harvard when he graduated from high school at the age of 18.

Dongfang Mo was quite good at driving, which he knew. He seemed to know how to swim. Of course, when he was at Harvard, he had a girlfriend in California. The two of them often went to the beach, so it was impossible for him not to know how to swim.

However, he had never heard that Dongfang Mo knew how to swim. Moreover, Dongfang Mo had returned to take over Dongfang group ten years ago. Seven years ago, he had been in a car accident and was paralyzed from the bottom half of his body. After that, he had been in a wheelchair. He did not even have the chance to go swimming. Let alone diving.

In the past five years, Dongfang Mo had been treating his eyes and legs for two years, and then for the next three years, he had been cultivating in Binhai. Because he had lost his position as the CEO of Dongfang Group, he seemed to be addicted to fishing all day long.

Such a person definitely could not be the person who wore a diving suit to rob him of three billion!

But if it wasn't Dongfang Mo, then who could it be?

Could it be that Dongfang Mo had invited someone from somewhere Someone who specialized in diving?

In short, Dongfang Mo's sudden wealth made people suspicious, but he did not have enough reason to prove that Dongfang Mo was the one who had robbed him of three billion.

Dongfang Mei looked at Dongfang Yingwu and her heart immediately skipped a beat. After all, three billion was not a small amount, and Dongfang Yingwu said that he had received the money, but now he said that the money had been stolen.

Dongfang Yingwu saw Dongfang Mei's expression He said a little unhappily, "am I lying to you? Ah Jun is our son and all my money is his. I am trying to find a way to investigate. I will definitely not let this go. If he dares to steal my money, Dongfang Yingwu is courting death. "

When Dongfang Mei heard his words, she sighed and said, "I'm not saying that you're lying to me. I'm just worried that without these three billion, then our ability to compete with Dongfang Group for that piece of land would obviously not be enough. Although Dongfang Group is currently having a hard time, ah Mo, that child, you know. Ten years ago, my brother and sister-in-law died. Dongfang group was in turmoil. He was able to bring back funds from the United States. I feel that these five years have definitely not been wasted... ". ..."

"Of course he hasn't been idle for nothing, " Dongfang yingwu interrupted Dongfang Mei unhappily. "Alright, even if he has earned some money from trading stocks overseas in the past five years, I don't believe that he can completely revive a dying Dongfang Group. Giving the employees three months' salary and paying the suppliers half a year ago doesn't mean that Dongfang Group is out of trouble. It can only mean that Dongfang Mo is struggling before his death. "

Dongfang Mei did not say anything after hearing Dongfang Yingwu's words. In fact, she felt that the current Dongfang Mo did not look like he was struggling before he died. When she went to see him this morning.. His cold and dark face and completely ignoring attitude showed that he had completely seen through her.

"Alright, let's not talk about the Dongfang Group anymore. " Dongfang Yingwu quickly changed the topic and then asked faintly, "Oh right, how is ah Jun now? Is the surgery alright? Has He not transferred overseas yet? "

"Ah Jun himself doesn't want to go overseas, " Dongfang Mei explained in a low voice. "Ah Jun said that going overseas is just a waste of money. He wants to use this time to read more management books and at the same time, make plans for Xingwang Group after the New Year... "

Chapter 719 true or false: Dongfang Mo G

Che Qixuan had been the CEO of Dongfang Group for ten days. The documents he didn't review and the delayed meetings gave him a headache. He found different excuses every day, which made Ning Sicheng and his secretary feel that he was unbelievable They even began to wonder if he had been hit in the head by someone on a business trip?

Just when he could no longer pretend, Dongfang Mo finally came back.

When Dongfang Mo came back, he didn't go to Dongfang Group, nor did he return to one inch Mo city. Instead, he went directly to a cemetery by the mountains and rivers in Binhai. Then, he called Che Qixuan.

Che Qixuan Remembered Dongfang Mo's phone number when he was about to get off work. After hanging up the phone, he went straight to the cemetery. He didn't even bring a bodyguard with him. Of course, with his skills, he didn't need a bodyguard at all.

When he rushed to the cemetery, he found Dongfang Mo standing there in black clothes. In front of him were a few weathered bones and a thick notebook.

He felt that the notebook looked familiar. It seemed like he had seen it somewhere before, but he couldn't remember it for a while. After all, he had been in a vegetative state in bed for eight years.

"This is..." Dongfang Mo pointed at the weathered bones and notebook on the black cloth and looked at Dongfang Mo. ...

"This is the diary our mother... wrote with her..." Dongfang Mo's voice was choked with sobs as it trembled slightly in the night wind.

"What?" Che Qixuan was shocked and asked involuntarily, "where did you find it? Mother, she... didn't you say that she and father were both killed at sea?"

Che Qixuan still remembered that eight years ago, when he woke up from his coma, the first person who came to see him was his twin brother, Dongfang Mo, but his parents didn't come to see him.

At that time, he asked his father, where was mom Dongfang Mo told him that two years ago, his parents were killed at sea. The cruise ship exploded and sank, but none of his parents escaped.

"My parents were indeed killed at sea..." Dongfang Mo briefly explained the situation and then said with a pained tone, "but our mom didn't die at that time. Dongfang Yingwu threw her on an isolated island..."

Dongfang Mo searched for a long time on that isolated island and almost turned the entire island upside down. In the end, it was under the tree of that small wooden house that his mother's remains were dug out.

Actually, he was already prepared to leave at that time. Before he left, he decided to take a last look at the best place his mother had stayed, which was that small wooden house.

He climbed up the small wooden house again and carefully checked every corner of the small wooden house again. He wanted to see if he could find any clues or what his mother left behind in the end.

Of course, there was no trace. Even if there was, it was probably destroyed by Dongfang Yingwu. He stayed in the cabin for a while and finally slid down from the tree in disappointment.

Because he forgot to jump backward, he landed directly under the tree and stepped on a small uneven rock. He almost fell, so he kicked the small rock with his foot.

The small rock was kicked away, and there was sand in it. There was a shiny thing in the sand. He thought it was the shell of a sea clam, so he kicked it again.

He realized that it was not the shell of a sea clam, but a small ring. The ring was a little black, but he could still see the bright spot.

He bent down instinctively and picked up the small ring. Then he realized it was a ring. It seemed to be a silver ring.

Chapter 720 true and false Dongfang Mo H

Dongfang Mo's heart was locked tightly in an instant. He had a feeling that this ring belonged to his mother. Therefore, in order to verify whether it was a silver ring, he immediately asked Ahao to fetch toothpaste from the cruise ship.

After wiping it clean with toothpaste, the ring finally sparkled. It was indeed a silver ring. Moreover, the internal test of the silver ring had the word "Hui," which was his mother's name.

If his mother's silver ring was here, then his mother must be here. In almost an instant, he had made this realization, so he hurriedly asked a Hao to come over and dig along the tree.

Sure enough, after a few excavations, the bones were dug out. Although it was a little weathered, he was sure that this was his mother, because there couldn't be a second person on this island.

His mother's calf was fractured, and the bones in the calf of the dug-out remains were also broken, which was consistent with what was recorded in her diary.

Presumably, when Dongfang Yingwu buried her, he must have thought that a silver ring was worthless, so he didn't take it off his mother's finger, right?

And it was this silver ring that helped him find his mother, so that he could take his mother home to his motherland in this place far away from China.

Che Qixuan listened to Dongfang Mo's narration and held his mother's diary tightly with both hands. He had once vowed not to ask about anything in the Dongfang family. The old him.. He had thought that he could treat himself as a stranger who had nothing to do with the Dongfang family.

But now, facing his mother's remains, facing his mother's diary written in blood, facing the last page, and his mother using the last bit of blood to write down his name, he realized that he could no longer exclude himself from the Dongfang family.

He would definitely interfere in the Dongfang family's affairs, and he would definitely not let go of the enemy who killed his parents. Even if he did not have the qualifications to be a man, even if he could only be a woman, he would still be a member of the Dongfang family.

Mu Ru made noodles again at night. Because Che Qixuan loved noodles, and little feather loved noodles, she had been cooking noodles almost every two days for the past ten days.

Aunt Liu smiled and said, "now that I'm here, I don't have to work much anymore. It's just that I didn't know ah Mo loved noodles so much, and the chefs have had a lot of free time these few days. "

Mu Ru felt ashamed when she heard this. She was only concerned about Che Qixuan's stomach and had forgotten that the real Dongfang Mo didn't really like noodles. In the past, when he was at home, the dining table was often filled with all kinds of delicious dishes.

Well, it was probably already suspicious that she would make such a dinner for Che Qixuan. She secretly regretted it, so she thought that she would definitely not make noodles for him tomorrow. Otherwise, the servants in one inch ink city would probably suspect his identity.

"Mommy, what are you daydreaming about?" Little feather ran in from outside the door and saw mu ru sitting in the living room in a daze. He couldn't help but call out mischievously, "Mommy, you were lazy again today. Didn't you go to paint?"

"Yes, Mommy isn't in the mood today," Mu Ru said truthfully, then quickly changed the topic. "Oh right, little feather, if you're hungry, eat first. Your father... he might have worked overtime again."

"A big liar always has to work overtime." Little Feather pouted her pink lips unhappily, then wiggled her little butt as she walked towards the dining room. As she walked, she said, "then I'll eat first. When the big liar comes back, the noodles will be all smudged. Let's see how he eats."

"Who said I have to come back so late?" Dongfang Mo's voice sounded at the entrance of the Mo Garden's main hall. Mu Ru could not help but look up and was shocked to find Dongfang Mo walking towards her.
