Chapter 781 who was the person he loved

Mu Ru woke up late once again. Of course, this was not her fault. The only one to blame was that B * Stard, the inhumane Dongfang Mo..

Last night, he brought her to the charity gala and bought that piece of broken stone for a high price of 10 million yuan. However, he gave it to her in front of everyone and announced to the world that she was his wife, Xi Muru!

At that moment, she realized that all the women in the venue were looking at her with envy, jealousy, and hatred, as if they wished that she would immediately disappear from the venue.

At such a blissful moment, most women would probably faint from happiness. However, perhaps she was born with a lack of experience, so she didn't get too excited. Instead, she accepted this piece of broken rock that was worth ten million yuan with some confusion.

Of course, when she returned home last night, little feather had long since been unable to wait for them to fall asleep. However, Dongfang Mo wasn't willing to let her off just like that. When she was so tired that she was taking a bath in the bathtub, he shamelessly squeezed into the bathtub again and pressed her down. He rolled into the bathtub with her again.

Dongfang Mo was strong-willed. Last night, when she was under him, she was pressured by him and forced to sign a disgraceful agreement. It was that no contraception would be allowed at any time in the future.

The so-called "no contraception" that Dongfang Mo said was that he would not allow her to take birth control pills. He had always been bad-tempered. When he was with her, he had never worn a condom.

Last night, when the stinky man was angry, he did not use less to torture her. Moreover, her body seemed to be getting more and more unstable. After being tortured by him, she could not get up on time.

It was already noon when Mu ru woke up. She was saddened to find that Dongfang Mo didn't have any manners at all. He actually left his wolf mark on her neck. On such a hot day, was he going to make her wear a turtleneck or tie a silk scarf around her neck?

Mu Ru was extremely melancholic. In the end, she chose to wear a turtleneck Qipao to barely cover the wolf mark on her neck. However, before she could walk to the dining table, the security guard outside the door called the internal line. He informed her that there was a lady outside who claimed to be her friend requesting to see her.

Her friend Mu Ru was slightly stunned. Then, she assumed that it was Cheng Feier. Because she had just met Cheng feier yesterday, only Cheng Feier could be considered her true friend. For example, Xiao Yun and AH MEI could only be said to know each other. Moreover, they did not know her true identity and exactly where she lived.

However, the person who was brought in by the security guard was not Cheng Feier. Instead, it was the woman who was in Dongfang Mo's office yesterday. Mu Ru felt a little surprised because she did not know this woman and did not have any impression of her.

Since it was a woman she did not know, this woman probably did not know her either, but why did she claim to be her friend?

"Miss Xi, it seems like you're in a good mood." The person who came naturally sat down on the SOFA and said with a provocative expression, "you might not have seen me before, but you must have heard of my name. I'm Tang Lili!"

Tang Lili Mu Ru remembered now. She had indeed heard of this woman's name, and it was very familiar.

Seven years ago, when she had just married Dongfang Mo, there was still Dongfang Yu in one inch ink city. At that time, Dongfang Yu was a playboy, and it was said that he had been raising women outside for a long time, and Tang Lili was the one he doted on the most.

Tang Lili was the woman that Dongfang Yu had once doted on the most. To put it bluntly, she was the woman that Dongfang Mo doted on the most, because at that time, Dongfang Yu was played by Dongfang Mo. .

Chapter 782 who was the person he loved

"Miss Tang, we don't seem to be familiar with each other," Mu ru said indifferently and distantly. She sat down on the Sofa beside her and took a sip of the coffee that Amin had brought over. "Why did you specially come to visit me today?"

Tang Lili, who was originally sizing up the luxurious Mo Yuan Hall with a greedy Gaze, only regained her senses when she heard Mu Ru's indifferent and distancing question.

"Hehehe, actually, it's not a big deal. It's just that I heard some of the arguments between you and President Dongfang in the office." Tang Lili suddenly brought up the incident from yesterday afternoon.

Mu Ru was stunned in her heart, but she didn't show it on the surface. She was just a little dissatisfied with Tang Lili's self-righteous way of doing things, so she didn't respond to Tang Lili's words.

"Do you know why President Dongfang was so angry when he saw the birth control pills you bought?" Tang Lili asked again when she saw that Mu ru didn't say anything.

Mu Ru shook her head. How would she know why Dongfang Mo was angry Besides, Dongfang Mo had always been a bit bitchy and unpredictable. Moreover, she also thought that Dongfang Mo's anger was more because she interrupted his good relationship with Tang Lili. Later on, he was just using her birth control pills to show off.

Tang Lili saw that Mu ru was silent, and a smile appeared on her face. Obviously, Mu Ru's reaction was within her expectations, so.. She laughed dryly and said, "Hehehe, Xi Muru, actually, your life is a tragedy. You're a pitiful worm. To be honest, I really sympathize with you."

Mu Ru's face immediately darkened. She knew what it meant to add insult to injury. Although she was a stupid person, Tang Lili could not break her heart at all. Hence, she said coldly, "I'm sorry, Miss Tang, I might have wasted your sympathy. I don't know what's good for me, and I don't need anyone to sympathize with me. So, if there's nothing else, I'd better hurry back. I have other things to do."

"Um, aren't you going to ask Dongfang CEO why he wants you to give birth to his child so badly?" Tang Lili quickly brought up the topic of her visit today. She didn't expect Xi Muru to chase her away so soon.

"Who knows? Maybe he's just hot-headed?" Mu Ru did not care much and answered.

In fact, she really wanted to know the reason, but she would definitely not let Tang Lili see through it.

"You'll understand once you see this." Tang Lili took out a paper bag as she spoke, then poured out a few photos and placed them in front of Mu Ru.

The date of the photos was from the new year. In the first photo, Dongfang Mo and little feather were boarding a helicopter together, while the people beside them carried Xi Muxue. Little feather was crying and opened his mouth, probably calling for mommy at the time.

In the second photo, it was probably in Korea. From the photo, it was probably at the entrance of the operating theater of the hospital. Feather was lying on Xi Muxue's body and crying. Dongfang Mo was hugging feather and did not say a word. However, from the look on his face, he seemed very angry. There was a strong sense of anger between his brows.

In the third photo, Dongfang Mo and feather were guarding Xi Muxue's bedside while Xi Muxue was lying on the bed. Her head was wrapped by gauze and only two of her eyes were exposed.

Mu Ru did not expect that feather, who had accompanied Dongfang Mo to send Xi Muxue to Korea, would be so sad. At that time, Dongfang Mo probably did not tell her that the one who was injured was not her mommy but Xi Muxue.

"Why are you showing me this?" Although Mu Ru was surprised, her face remained calm as she asked.

Chapter 783: Who is the Person He loves

Tang Lili quickly put away the photo and paper bag, then looked up at Mu Ru proudly and said, "you should know by now. Actually, Dongfang Mo and Xi Muxue had a child a long time ago, and you are just a child-bearing tool."

"A child-bearing tool?" Mu Ru raised her eyebrows. "Why do you say that?"

"Hehehe, this is the key to Dongfang CEO wanting you to have a child." Tang Lili saw that Mu Ru was finally pulled into the topic. Hence, she smiled and quickly recounted, "didn't you see it from the photo?" "This child's face was so pale that it was abnormal. In fact, she wasn't healthy when she was born. It was said that she had leukemia. In the past few years, Dongfang's CEO had been searching for bone marrow, but he had never found a suitable one. Hence, the doctor suggested using umbilical cord blood for a transplant."

Mu Ru was stunned when she heard Tang Lili's words. Little feather was her daughter and her body was extremely healthy. How could she have leukemia Tang Lili was simply someone who opened her eyes and lied.

However, she did not expose Tang Lili's fabricated lie to her face, so she still asked calmly, "if that's the case, then Dongfang CEO and Xi Muxue can have another child. They are still young, aren't they?"

"Hehehe, they do want to have another child, but Xi Muxue probably can't have one now even if she wants to." Tang Lili smiled smugly when she said this, and she could not help but show a gloating expression.

"What do you mean you can't have a child even if you want to?" Mu Ru was confused. Why couldn't Xi Muxue have a child when she was fine?

"because not only was her face disfigured, she was even raped," Tang Lili said as if she knew everything Then, she continued, "Aiyo, Xi Muru, you probably don't know yet. Xi Muxue is pregnant. She doesn't even know whose child she's pregnant with. The doctor said that if she has an abortion, she won't be able to have another child for the rest of her life. If she doesn't have an abortion, then she won't be able to have another child after giving birth to this bastard child."

Tang Lili paused for a moment Then, she looked at mu ru and said, "now, do you understand why President Dongfang wanted you to have a child? He actually wanted to save the daughter he had with Xi Muxue. His goal was just to get the cord blood."

Mu Ru was indeed confused when she heard this. This Tang Lili had probably read too many melodramatic novels. She could even think of melodramatic plots like cord blood?

Thus, she still didn't know what to say and asked, "Miss Tang, did you hear the story of Qiao Feifan and Tan Xiaosu, so you think that all the children of rich men in this world need cord blood?"

Tang Lili blushed, but she quickly recovered. After all, she had come prepared So, she pretended not to know and said, "what story between Qiao Feifan and Tan Xiaosu? I have all the information firsthand. If you don't believe me, you can go to the hospital in Korea and ask if Xi Muxue is pregnant."

Mu Ru sneered when she heard this, and then said plainly, "I'm afraid I'll have to disappoint Miss Tang. I'm Xi Muxue."

Tang Lili was immediately stunned. She looked at mu ru for a while, then asked in a puzzled voice, "you're Xi Muxue? How is that possible?"

"How is that not possible?" Mu Ru's voice was still calm and steady Without even looking at her, she said, "everyone in the outside world knows that the person who was disfigured was Yan ru, and many people also know that Yan ru is actually the former Xi Muru, and I'm Xi Muxue. It's just that I've been acting as Xi Muru for a few years in one inch ink city."

Chapter 784 who was the person he loved

Mu Ru paused for a moment, then said in a low voice, "I'm sorry, for so many years, I and Dongfang CEO haven't had a chance to get pregnant, let alone have a child."

Tang Lili's face alternated between red and white. In fact, these information and stories were told to her by others. She added her own processing and imagination, so she came to tell mu ru. Her purpose was to hope that Mu ru could get into a fight with Dongfang Mo..

After sending off Tang Lili, who was making up nonsense, Mu Ru had lunch and wanted to go to the plum garden to draw a real-life picture that Dongfang Mo had taken for her in Nim. However, before she could rush to the Plum Garden, her phone rang.

It was Xiao Yun who called to tell her the good news. She said that the paintings that she was selling at Jingxuan Gallery had all been bought by an important client. Moreover, that important client had asked her to meet him and said that he wanted to customize her paintings for a long time.

He wanted to customize her paintings for a long time This was indeed an important client, so mu ru did not think too much about it. She took her bag and went out. Aunt Liu asked her to wait for a while. She said that Uncle Liu had gone out on an errand and would be back soon. She would drive her there.

Mu Ru said that she was going to the oil painting village and that the journey was not far. Moreover, there were important clients waiting there. She could just hail a taxi and go there.

Aunt Liu did not need to persuade her further. Moreover, the current Mu ru was different from the previous Mu Ru. The current Mu Ru was already Mrs. Dongfang, and little feather was also Miss Dongfang. One inch ink city was already their home Therefore, there was no need to guard against them escaping.

In fact, Mu Ru had long given up on the idea of escaping. After all, she and Dongfang Mo had become a real husband and wife. Even if Dongfang Mo treated her as a substitute, in the end, he was very good to little feather. Now, little feather was calling Dongfang Mo Daddy.

Every night, she saw little feather acting coquettishly in front of Dongfang Mo. she saw Dongfang Mo's once staid and cold face reveal a smile. In fact, she was somewhat satisfied. No matter what, Dongfang Mo was treating little feather.. He was truly paying the love of a father to his daughter.

The taxi arrived at the oil painting village very quickly. It took more than ten minutes. On the way, Mu Ru was still wondering who would like her paintings so much. She had actually bought several paintings. It was probably a sentimental lady.

This was because her paintings always carried a certain melancholy. The owners of the two galleries that had sold her paintings in Korea in the past had said that most of the people who bought her paintings were girls between the ages of 18 and 30. They liked to be sentimental.

When she reached the entrance of Jingxuan Gallery, Xiao Yun was already waiting there Seeing her, she said excitedly, "Mu Ru, you've struck it rich this time. You've bought all five paintings, and they didn't even say the price. What a big deal. How high is the price of your paintings? Oh my God, you've earned 500,000 yuan this time. "

Mu Ru smiled faintly. Her paintings were considered to be the most expensive in the entire Jingxuan gallery. At that time, Xiao Yun had even said that she didn't know if she could sell even one of such expensive paintings a year. Couldn't she lower the price a little?

No This was certain because she was selling quality, not quantity. She didn't care if she could sell a few paintings a year or not because she didn't want to live on the money from selling paintings.

"where is the boss who wants to order my paintings?" Mu Ru couldn't help but ask when she walked into the lobby of the Jingxuan gallery and didn't see any strangers.

Chapter 785 who was the person he loved

"He's upstairs. The boss is having tea with him," Xiao Yun said as she took out her phone. It was obvious that she was making an internal call upstairs.

While Xiao Yun was on the phone, Mu Ru was looking at other paintings in the hall. Most of the paintings in Jingxuan gallery were by the boss, but his paintings were much better than they were six years ago.

After a few minutes, she heard footsteps coming down the stairs. Before Mu ru turned around, she heard the boss shouting, "Miss Xi is here. Mr. Zheng just bought five of your paintings. He says he wants to meet you."

Mu Ru slowly turned around and saw the man standing beside the boss. He had a handsome face, a young face, and a familiar smile. He was walking towards her step by step.

Zheng Yifan Never in her wildest dreams would she have thought that the person who had bought five of her paintings was Zheng Yifan!

The dividing line

Dongfang Mo was very busy today because the Dongfang Group was facing a bidding problem. Although the designers hired from abroad were very reliable, there were sometimes many unstable factors involved in bidding.

On the first day of the New Year, Xingwang Group, with Dongfang Jun as the president, seemed to be developing rapidly. Perhaps its foundation was indeed solid, and its momentum could be said to be soaring. Several of Dongfang Group's big clients had been pulled over.

It was said that the internal slogan of Xingwang Group was to catch up with Dongfang Group and create a new leading enterprise in Binhai!

In just four months, his former third brother had already stood on the opposite side of him. Moreover, from last night's charity gala, Dongfang Jun had competed with him for a stone. This was clearly a competition between them.

He admitted that Dongfang Jun could not be like Dongfang Yingwu who did evil things, but Dongfang Jun could be considered a talent if he wanted to do a proper business. Therefore, the word 'formidable' definitely made sense.

Dongfang Mo was considering whether to treat the mayor or the city party secretary to a meal when the secretary's internal line called.

He pressed the speakerphone and the secretary's voice came in. "President Dongfang, there's a miss called Xi muxue outside. She says she wants to meet you. What do you think?"

"bring her to the conference room. I'll go over after I'm done," Dongfang Mo quickly instructed. Then, he pressed the end button and continued to research on the network.

This network was given to him by Ning Sicheng. According to Ning Sicheng, it was actually enough to settle mayor Wang Mingxin because the bidding for the land this time was under the responsibility of mayor Wang Mingxin.

However, he also received another piece of news. Dongfang Jun was already very close to Mayor Wang. Furthermore, Ah Biao had also heard that Dongfang Jun and the mayor's daughter, Wang Yunchuan, were very close recently. It was likely that Dongfang Jun was chasing Wang Yunchuan.

Since Dongfang Jun was close to the mayor, then if he went to look for the mayor again, he probably wouldn't gain anything. Although the mayor would definitely give him some face and come out to have a meal with him, he probably wouldn't side with him.

Xi Muxue sat in the reception room and felt a little uncomfortable. When she came back from Korea to look for Dongfang Mo, she originally thought that she could enter his office, but she didn't expect that she would actually be arranged to be in the reception room.

She was a little unwilling as she played with a broken diamond bracelet. This was given to her by Dongfang Mo before he got into a car accident. After Dongfang Mo got into a car accident, she threw it aside. However, two days ago, when she came back.. She actually found it in the suitcase that she had moved to her father's place. As if she had found a treasure, she quickly took it out and put it on her hand.

Chapter 786 who was the person he loved

Looking at the broken diamond bracelet, she felt indignant again. Dongfang Mo should have been hers to begin with. Before he got into a car accident, before he became a so-called Eunuch, the person he loved was her, and the person he wanted to marry was also her.

Even though she still did not understand why Dongfang Mo would come to her house to propose marriage when she was 13 years old, she had fallen in love with Dongfang Mo when she first met him, even though she was not even 13 years old at the time.

Since Dongfang Mo had initially decided on her, and since she was the one he wanted to marry in the first place, then she could not just admit defeat like this. She could not just give Dongfang Mo to that ugly pig, Xi Muru.

Dongfang Mo was hers, and she had read today's newspaper. She knew that he had won a stone worth tens of millions last night, and today was such a special day. Did he think of her Did he think of giving that stone to the girl in his heart?

She had already returned from Korea for a week. Thanks to Dongfang Mo's care, her cosmetic surgery in Korea for nearly four months had been very successful.

Dongfang Mo had hired the best cosmetic surgeon in Korea for her. Her face had almost recovered to more than 95% . If one did not look closely, one would not be able to see any difference between her and the original.

Dongfang Mo cared about her. She was certain of this in her heart because if he did not care about her, he would not have hired such a good specialist to perform cosmetic surgery on her. He would not even care about whether she had miscarried or not.

And this week, she heard that Dongfang Mo and Xi Muru didn't seem to have a very good relationship. According to Dongfang Mo's secretary, yesterday, Dongfang Mo had been pulling and pulling with Tang Lili's office, and Xi Muru had even caught him red-handed.

From this, it could be seen that Dongfang Mo didn't really care about Xi Muru. The reason he kept Xi Muru by his side was probably because of little feather.

Of course, Xi Muru probably hated Dongfang Mo to death in her heart. After all, in the past, Dongfang Mo had hurt Xi Muru deeply, and Xi Muru was about to marry Zheng Yifan. Dongfang Mo had used a trick to destroy the two of them Xi Muru probably wouldn't forgive Dongfang Mo..

Dongfang Mo, the man she fell in love with when she was 13 years old, the man who had made a marriage agreement with her when she was 13 years old. In this life, she couldn't just give up. She wouldn't admit defeat until the last moment.

"Why aren't you at home taking care of the fetus? What are you doing here for no reason?" Dongfang Mo walked into the reception room naturally and asked in an indifferent and distant tone.

He knew that Xi Muxue had returned to Binhai a week ago. In fact, she had called him before she came back. She probably wanted him to arrange a helicopter to pick her up, but he ignored her and told her to take care of the fetus in Korea. In the future, it would be fine as long as she settled down in Korea and didn't come back to Binhai.

However, Xi Muxue didn't listen and insisted on coming back, so he didn't bother with her anymore. She probably took a plane back to Binhai by herself. As for where she lived now, he didn't know. She probably lived with Xi Yuancheng.

"after I returned to Binhai, I've been quietly nursing my fetus." Xi muxue looked at Dongfang Mo, then secretly reminded him, "it's just... today... Today's Day..."

"Today's Day?" Dongfang mo raised his eyebrows, then asked indifferently, "what's wrong with today's Day?"

Chapter 787 who was the person he loved

"Ah Mo, today is the date of our engagement for 13 years. I don't know if you still remember it?" Xi muxue finally mustered up the courage to say it because he did not know if he had really forgotten it or if he had purposely forgotten it.

“The date of our engagement for 13 years?” Dongfang Mo frowned instinctively. He had really forgotten about it because when he went to the Xi family for the engagement 13 years ago, he had only met Xi muxue once.

At that time, he was almost 22 years old and was already a big boy. She was only less than 13 years old and was a little girl. When he went to the Xi family that day, it happened to be a Saturday. She was wearing a pink dress and looked like a princess. When she saw him, she had a shy smile on her face.

That day, when he left the Xi family with his mother, he walked past the Xi family’s courtyard. Just then, a little girl dressed in old clothes walked out from the kitchen in a hurry and went to the living room to clean up the dishes.

The little girl left in a hurry with her head lowered. She looked very similar to her, so he couldn’t help but ask, “who is this? Your sister?”

“No, that’s the maid’s daughter. She’s about my age,” she answered naturally.

The maid’s child. When he thought of this, a pain that was hard to notice flashed through his heart. The Xi Muru of the past had the identity of a maid in the Xi family, and she was a maid.

“Yes, ah Mo, thirteen years ago, you came to my house personally to propose marriage to my parents...” Xi Muxue’s face was already showing a happy smile when she talked about thirteen years ago. She looked at Dongfang Mo and said softly, “have you forgotten all about it?”

“Of course I haven’t forgotten,” Dongfang Mo replied indifferently. Then, he asked, “Xi Muxue, what do you want to remind me of?”

“Ah Mo, the person you first loved was me, wasn’t it?” Xi Muxue saw that he remembered Hence, she could not help but get excited. “Ah Mo, we fell in love a long time ago, right? Even though I was young at the time, I also knew that you were my fiancé. I used to be proud of you...”

“enough,” Dongfang quickly interrupted her Then, she said a little impatiently, “I don’t want to talk about the past anymore. If you want to use the fact that I came to the Xi family 13 years ago to propose a marriage to you to move me, then you’re very wrong. I can’t...”

“Ah Mo, I know I was wrong seven years ago,” Xi muxue quickly confessed. “seven years ago, I shouldn’t have refused to marry you because of your disfigurement and the rumors. I know...”

“Don’t mention these things anymore,” Dongfang Mo interrupted her very unhappily Then, he said a little impatiently, “Xi Muxue, I already have no feelings for you at all. If you’re delusional enough to use your past feelings to awaken something, then let me tell you, it’s a waste of effort. I’ve already seen clearly what kind of person you are.”

When Xi Muxue heard Dongfang Mo’s words, her heart filled with hope instantly fell to the bottom, but she was unwilling to accept it, so she couldn’t help but ask faintly, “then... this time, why are you so good to me?”

“I wasn’t supposed to be so good to you,” Dongfang Mo explained truthfully. “To be honest, when I saw you being disfigured and disfigured, I didn’t know it was you. I thought...”

Chapter 788, who was the person he loved

“Do you think I’m Mu Ru?” Xi muxue continued Then, she smiled bitterly and said, “but, you already knew it was me after that, so why did you still treat me so well? You hired the best plastic surgeon for me, and even got me pregnant, and even hired the best gynecologist for me?”

“because you were kidnapped, raped, and even disfigured in place of Mu Ru,” Dongfang Mo said plainly He said emotionlessly, “because of all the suffering you’ve suffered, mu ru should have suffered, but because you’ve swapped identities with Mu Ru, it became you who suffered. I just didn’t want to make mu Ru’s conscience uneasy.”

Yes, he did all this because of Mu Ru. It had nothing to do with her, Xi Muxue. If it weren’t for her impersonating mu ru and suffering such a disaster, if she had suffered such harm elsewhere.. He probably would not be easy to reason with.

Xi Muxue could not help but cry when she heard this. Then, she asked in a trembling voice, “Ah Mo, do you really have no feelings for me at all now?”

Dongfang Mo was silent for a moment when he heard this. Then, he said plainly, “do you still remember the story that you told yourself?”

“The story that I told myself?” This time, it was Xi Muxue’s turn to be surprised, so she could not help but ask, “what story?”

“The girl who lost her fish eyes,” Dongfang Mo said plainly.

“The girl who lost her fish eye?” Xi muxue tilted her head and thought for a long time, but she still could not remember. Then, she said Awkwardly, “Ah Mo, I can’t remember what story this is. Is this story very similar to the situation between you and me?”

Dongfang Mo smiled when he heard her words, then he said softly, “this story is something that you brought me soup to read to me every day after I was hospitalized from a car accident eight years ago. It seems to be a small story from a magazine.”

Dongfang Mo paused at this point, then he said softly, “actually, I used to suspect that the girl who brought me soup, the girl who read to me every day, is it really Xi Muxue?”

Xi Muxue’s face immediately flushed red, then she couldn’t help but shout softly, “Ah Mo, of course it’s me. It’s just that my memory isn’t good, and eight years have passed, so it’s natural that I don’t remember it for a while.”

“It’s you?” Dongfang Mo’s voice obviously became cold Then, he snorted coldly and said, “if it’s really you, it’s impossible that you don’t remember the story you read, right? Alright, it’s fine if you don’t remember this little story. Then, you once read ‘Jane Eyre’ to me. Now, tell me, what is the name of the male and female lead in ‘Jane Eyre’ What did they go through How did they end up together What was the male lead like in the end?”

“I. . . I still... don’t remember.” Xi Muxue’s face immediately turned Pale, and countless beads of sweat appeared on her forehead.

She had always disliked reading books and newspapers. Moreover, eight years ago, she was already seventeen or eighteen years old. At that time, after Dongfang Mo's car accident, she was busy making a new boyfriend. How could she still have the mood to study, let alone a famous foreign one?

When Dongfang Mo heard this, he was not surprised. He just felt a surge of inexplicable emotion in his heart. He looked at Xi muxue whose expression had changed. He then comforted her, "don't worry. I didn't blame you for not sending me soup and not reading to me. Actually, I'm very grateful to you. I'm grateful for your selfishness and for letting mu ru come to my side at that time. I'm grateful..."

Chapter 789: Who is WHO's Robbery 1

Dongfang Mo paused for a moment. Then he said in a low voice, "especially when you asked Mu Ru to marry me in your place. You don't know, but I'm very grateful to you. If anything happens to you in the future and I can still lend you a helping hand, it must be because of the fact that you once sent mu ru to me."

After saying this, Dongfang Mo turned around and walked out of the door. It was only today that he realized that the girl who waited by his bedside eight years ago, the girl who read inspirational books to him every day and those touching little stories to him.. It was actually his little wife, Xi Muru.

That woman, the woman who kept everything in her heart. After so many years, she had never mentioned this matter in front of him.

If Xi Muxue had not come to him today to talk about his engagement 13 years ago, he probably would not have known that the person who had come to accompany him every day eight years ago was Xi Muru.

During the five years that Xi Muru had gone missing, the reason why he had allowed Xi Muxue to stay in his one inch mo city was purely because she had saved him back then. He had watched her come to his bedside to accompany him eight years ago.

The person who had accompanied him at the hospital bed eight years ago was Xi Muru. Then, could the little girl who had saved him 13 years ago be Xi Muru as well?

When he thought of this, his heart skipped a beat. Then, he instinctively took out the silk scarf that he had always brought with him. The corner of the Silk Scarf had the words Xi Muxue embroidered on it.

He massaged his forehead with his hand and remembered that he had met Xi Muxue a few times after he had made the engagement with her. At that time, she had a silk scarf on her at all times, and the silk scarf that she had always brought with her had the words Xi Muxue embroidered on it.

To know if the person who saved him was Xi Muxue, all he had to do was ask if Xi Muxue knew how to embroider. Thinking of this, he quickly got off the car and rushed to the VIP elevator, going straight to the top floor.

However, when he returned to the reception room, Xi Muxue had already left. Presumably, she saw that he had left, so she tactfully left.

The dividing line

On this side, at Binhai revolving restaurant, the best viewing spot by the window, Zheng Yifan and mu ru were already sitting in the booth. The two of them were drinking coffee like old friends.

Compared to Mu Ru's shock, Zheng Yifan was exceptionally calm. He looked at her with a smile and asked in a low voice, "Mu Ru, are you okay?"

Are you okay Six years have passed. I have been working hard to come back and see you. I have worked hard to be with you. Are you okay?

Mu Ru's heart trembled slightly. Then, a smile quickly appeared on her face. She said in a low voice, "I'm fine. Now, I've realized my dream. I'm drawing."

I'm fine. Even if there's something wrong with me, I can't tell you because I don't want you to worry about me. You, on the other hand, already have someone you should be worried about.

Zheng Yifan heard her words and thought about the beautiful paintings that he couldn't take his eyes off. His heart couldn't help but twitch. It seemed that Dongfang Mo treated her really well.

If Dongfang Mo only treated her as his mistress, he definitely wouldn't allow her to become an artist, let alone allow her to freely enter one inch ink city

"Yifan, didn't you bring your wife with you when you came to Binhai this time?" Mu Ru used her hand to stir the coffee in the cup and asked naturally.

"Wife?" This time, it was Zheng Yifan's turn to be puzzled. "I haven't even gotten married. Where did you get a wife?"

Chapter 790-who is who

"Oh, that should be your girlfriend or fiancée or something." Mu Ru was a little embarrassed, and then she quickly explained, "I thought you two were married."

"You thought?" Zheng Yifan was more and more confused, and couldn't help but ask, "did you hear something from someone? Did Aunt Gu tell you? I told you, my aunt that person..."

"It wasn't aunt Gu who said it," Mu ru smiled and cut him off, and then said faintly, "last year in Paris, I was going to eat at an old Beijing restaurant, and then I saw you and a woman..."

"What? You also went to Paris last year?" Zheng Yifan was shocked He couldn't help but shout in dissatisfaction, "since you saw me, why didn't you come and greet me? Were you at the Old Beijing restaurant at that time? Where did you sit? Why didn't I see you?"

After hearing his series of questions, Mu Ru was slightly stunned, and then she explained faintly, "No, at that time, I hadn't walked into the old Beijing restaurant..."

Mu Ru briefly recounted the scene where she met him and a woman outside the old Beijing restaurant in Paris last year. Finally, she smiled and said, "when I saw you and that woman being so intimate, I thought you were husband and wife or a couple..."

“No, I don’t have that kind of relationship with her.” Zheng Yifan’s heart tightened when he heard Mu Ru’s words. He quickly explained, “she’s only the cousin of the Saudi Prince. She’s from Singapore. The Saudi prince and I were friends when we were studying in the United States. Later, I went to the United States and got in touch with him again...”

Three years ago, Zheng Yifan helped the Saudi king with an operation and successfully saved the Saudi king who was on the verge of death. Therefore, the Saudi King gave him a large sum of money, and he took this money to open a hospital in Singapore.

Of course, in the past six years, he had been paying attention to his own unjust case all the time. He knew that it was an unjust case, but because the video had been tampered with, he had been unable to overturn the case, and he had also been unable to save mu Ru from one inch ink city.

During the Spring Festival, it just so happened that he had once worked as a doctor in a hospital in Binhai to travel to Singapore and met him. When his old colleagues and old friends saw him, they could not help but have a meal together and chat.

During the chat, the doctor told him that he had evidence to help him overturn the case, because at that time, the surveillance officer in the hospital’s surveillance center was his cousin, and his cousin had kept a copy of the original video of his surgery.

Zheng Yifan never dreamed that there would be such a thing, so he quickly arranged his work in Singapore and returned to Binhai ten days ago. He had already gotten the original video and found a lawyer.

Now, not only was he not afraid of Dongfang Mo, but he also wanted to sue Dongfang Mo for deliberately framing him and making him lose his reputation. Not only did he want Dongfang Mo to compensate him for his financial losses, but most importantly, he wanted to send Dongfang Mo to prison.

Mu Ru was shocked when she heard Zheng Yifan’s words. She stared at him with wide eyes and said in a trembling voice, “you said you have evidence that can send Dongfang Mo to prison?”

“Yes,” Zheng Yifan answered with certainty. Then, he took a sip of coffee confidently and said, “moreover, the Saudi prince also helped me hire the best lawyer in America. This time, I don’t believe that I can’t take him down.”
