Chapter 891 love is a superstition of the right place at the right time

Although the ultrasound doctor was a woman, she was his wife. How could he let outsiders see her stomach Even if she was a woman, he could not accept it.

The ultrasound doctor obviously did not know that Dongfang Mo, who was sitting at the side, had a strange and slightly bitchy mentality. He just naturally took the lubricant used for the ultrasound and sprinkled it on Mu Ru's stomach Then, he placed the probe on Mu Ru's stomach and slid it.

Dongfang Mo grabbed Mu Ru's hand with one hand and clenched his other hand involuntarily. His eyes were fixed on the monitor, watching two black DOTS appear in a circle of light.

His heart could not help but tighten. Why were there two black dots Could it be that her uterus had malfunctioned?

Just as he was about to ask, the ultrasound doctor had already congratulated them with a smile on his face. "congratulations, they are twins."

Twins Mu Ru and Dongfang Mo could not help but look at each other in the air. Then, they asked almost at the same time, "are they really twins?"

"Yes, could it be that I'm lying to you?" The obstetrician smiled when he saw their expressions. "This is not unusual. The chances of twins marrying twins are higher."

"Oh, so that's how it is?" Dongfang Mo felt relieved when he heard that. Then, he quickly asked, "how are the two children developing? Are they healthy?"

The obstetrician's head slowly slid across Mu Ru's stomach. After a while, he seemed to have seen everything Then, he nodded at Dongfang Mo and said, "yes, the children are developing well in all aspects, but they are a little small. Of course, this is because of the twins. At the same time, it may be caused by insufficient nutrition. When we go back, we have to strengthen nutrition... ". ..."

Insufficient nutrition. Dongfang Mo's face could not hold it anymore. His wife, Dongfang Mo's wife, was actually suffering from malnutrition?

This, could it be that she had not eaten anything during the entire day at home Or could it be that the people in the kitchen were gluttonous with nutritious food, so they gave her some unnutritious food to eat?

Of course, the ultrasound doctor did not know that her statement of insufficient nutrition had caused Dongfang Mo to be dissatisfied with the kitchen maid. He still smiled and said, "come, listen to the heartbeat of the child."

Very soon, the sound of the child's heartbeat in Mu Ru's stomach could be heard through the loudspeaker in the quiet ultrasound room. The sound was like the sound of a horse's hooves running on the grassland.

Dongfang Mo's heart was so excited that his hand that was holding onto mu ru could not help but tremble. He had never thought that the heartbeat of the child would be so strong. It was actually like two fine horses galloping happily!

His child, her child, him and her child. At this moment, in her small, soft abdomen, it was like two fine horses galloping happily. The sound of the heartbeat through the loudspeaker seemed to convey their tenacious vitality to him!

"okay, that's enough. " The ultrasound doctor turned off the loudspeaker and removed the probe from Mu Ru's abdomen. Then, he took a few tissues from the side and gave them to her, indicating that she could wipe her stomach clean and get up.

Mu Ru was about to reach out to take the tissues, but Dongfang Mo took the tissues from the ultrasound doctor before her. Then, he carefully helped her to slowly wipe off the lubricant used for ultrasound on her abdomen.

Mu Ru's face immediately turned red from embarrassment. Although she and Dongfang Mo were husband and wife and there was nothing wrong with their intimacy, the key point was that there was also a ultrasound doctor here.

This Dongfang Mo was really too careless!

After Mu ru finished her ultrasound examination, she went to get the blood test results. However, she was told that there were two items that could only be obtained in the afternoon, so she asked them to come and get them in the afternoon.

Thus, they were a little helpless. It happened to be noon, and Dongfang Mo wanted to drive home, but mu ru refused. She said that she would go back at noon and would not come back in the afternoon. So, they might as well have lunch outside. After lunch, they would go shopping. She wanted to buy something.

Dongfang Mo was slightly stunned when he heard her words. He asked Sullenly, "what do you want to eat? The food outside is not hygienic. "

"I want to eat a mouthful of fresh crab roe shrimp, Dayun Tun. " Xi Muru carefully looked at his expression. As expected, it was not good, so she quickly changed her words. "The two babies in my stomach want to eat crab roe shrimp Dayun Tun. "

Dongfang Mo lost his temper when he heard this. He stood beside her, hugged her, and planted a kiss on her forehead He said in a low voice, "Mu Ru, if you want to eat a mouthful of fresh crab Roe Dayun Tun, it's no problem. I'll get uncle Liu to poach their chef from Dayun Tun and work directly in one inch ink city. When that time comes, you can eat whenever you want, okay? "

"Then it'll be meaningless. " Mu Ru broke away from his embrace She rolled her eyes at him and said, "besides, a mouthful of fresh crab roe is the boss himself, and a mouthful of fresh crab roe is a hundred-year-old restaurant that has been passed down for generations. Do you really think that money is omnipotent? ”

Dongfang Mo’s face darkened slightly. He rarely ate outside, even if he did eat occasionally. It was either a high-class hotel, a large-scale restaurant, or a high-class Western restaurant, like the small eateries that Mu ru mentioned.. He had never patronized them before.

“Besides, even if the owner of that fresh-tasting restaurant is really willing to give up his ancestral family business and become a chef in your house, I still want to eat da Yun Tun now. Perhaps after you move him to one inch Mo city, I won’t have the mood and appetite to do so? ” Mu Ru continued to persuade him on the side.

“However, the kind of restaurant that makes snacks is usually very small. There are many people, so the air is naturally not very good. The hygienic conditions are also not up to standard. ” Dongfang Mo shook his head He did not agree with her idea. “You’re a pregnant woman now. Pregnant women have to go to places where there are few people, and... ”

“Dongfang Mo, it’s only 11 o’clock now. How can there be many people? Many factories and companies have not even gotten off work yet. ” Mu Ru rolled her eyes at him Then, she pushed him with her hand. “Hurry up and leave. Don’t stand here and delay any longer. If you delay any longer, I reckon that after 12 o’clock, there will really be many people. ”

Dongfang Mo was a little helpless from her words. Looking at her slanderous expression, he shook his head helplessly and could only compromise. Thus, he held her hand and the two of them walked towards the elevator next to them.

Mu Ru could not help but feel happy. She turned her head to look at him and said with a smile, “Dongfang Mo, you’re really nice. I thank you on behalf of the two babies for taking care of their appetites. ”

Dongfang Mo smiled helplessly. Coincidentally, the elevator had arrived, so he and mu ru entered the elevator with their fingers tightly clasped together. Coincidentally, the elevator was empty at this moment Dongfang Mo could not help but whisper in his ear, “you’re only thanking me on behalf of the two babies. Don’t you want to eat that big Wonton at all? ”

Mu Ru hummed and hummed a few times. She did not answer his question directly, and the elevator just happened to reach the first floor. Dongfang Mo did not ask any more questions and held her hand as they walked out of the elevator.

A bite of fresh century old restaurant was opened by the people of Shaxian county in Fujian Province. It mainly dealt with pasta dishes. Of course, it mainly dealt with stewed Yuntun soup and supplemented with noodles and rice. However, it would never cook rice and stir-fried vegetables.

As it was a century old restaurant, the decoration style of the bite of fresh food was antique. The dining chairs and tables inside were all retro-styled. The wooden stools and tables still looked ancient.

Dongfang Mo and Mu Ru walked in. Although there were very few people at the moment and there were only three to five people scattered around, he still chose the most remote seat by the window and sat down.

There was a simple plastic menu on the dining table, and it was obvious at a glance. Mu Ru was very proactive and sat down to read the menu. Dongfang Mo watched her quietly at the side, waiting for her to slowly choose the dishes she liked.

A waiter wearing a light pink uniform brought a pot of tea over with a smile on his face. Just as he was about to pour some water, Dongfang Mo immediately stopped him and said softly, "we don't drink tea. Could you please give us a pot of boiled water?"

"Okay." The waiter was very polite. He immediately turned around and brought a pot of boiling water over.

Mu Ru finally picked her favorite dish and began to order. "Crab Roe Shrimp Wonton, Corn Roll, boiled Green Edamame, Soba Wotou, miscellaneous grains buns, Ginseng stewed black chicken soup..."

Mu Ru ordered a lot in one go. The waiter reminded her, "enough. It's just two people. We can't eat much. It's a waste to order too much."

Dongfang Mo smiled and said, "it's okay. Hurry up and ask the kitchen to prepare the food and bring it here. If we can't eat it, we'll pack it up and leave. We definitely won't waste it."

The waiter ordered the food and left, asking them to wait for a while. While they were waiting for the food, Dongfang Mo looked at Mu Ru. He said carefully, "Mu Ru, that day was the day your father died. Your sister, no, it's Xi Muxue. Did she say something to you again?"

Mu Ru bit her lip. On the day her father was buried, she and Xi Muxue were naturally there. During the burial, the URN was put in. When it was time to fill up the soil, Xi Muxue cried very sadly, but she just stood there indifferently.

At that time, the sun was setting, and the old crow was chirping. It also seemed a little desolate. She just stared blankly at Xi Muxue and cried, watching the workers fill up Xi Yuancheng's pit.

Later, when the tombstone was set up, she only bowed slightly as a token. Then, she turned to leave, but was stopped by Xi Muxue who was still kneeling there. Then, she said something that made her very conflicted and melancholic.

However, after Dongfang Mo treated her well for the past two days, and after learning that she was pregnant with the twins today, Xi Muxue's words actually did not cause any ripples in her heart. She threw them into the wind.

When she thought of this, Mu Ru raised her head and looked into his eyes. Looking at the slightly nervous expression in his eyes, she decided to tease him, so she said seriously, "mmm, she told me a lot. Which one do you want to know?"

Dongfang Mo immediately felt his forehead break out in cold sweat. Which one? Could it be that Xi Muxue had made up a lot of things in front of Mu Ru? As for him, he really did not know what she had made up?

Looking at Mu Ru, he only felt that his hands and feet were a little cold. He reached out and grabbed Mu Ru's hand, then held it tightly in his own palm. He said a little nervously, "Mu Ru, don't believe Xi Muxue's words. Her words are all fake. They won't stand up to scrutiny."

"Is that so?" Mu Ru laughed softly. She did not break free from his grip and let him hold her. She just looked at him and asked softly, "then, does that include Sui'er?"

"Sui'er?" Dongfang Mo's thick brows raised instinctively. He could not help but ask curiously, "she told you about Sui'er? What does she mean by that?"

Mu Ru saw his puzzled expression and was a little puzzled. Hence, she said plainly, "actually, it's nothing much. She told me that the reason why Uncle Liu and aunt Liu have been living in one inch ink city is because it's their son-in-law's home. And you were originally uncle Liu and aunt Liu's son-in-law because their daughter, Sui'er, was supposed to marry you... ". "..."

Dongfang Mo could not help but laugh when he heard Mu Ru's words. Then, he shook his head and said, "Mu Ru, Xi Muxue's imagination is too rich. She probably found a photo of Sui'er in the lounge upstairs and made wild guesses."

"Wild guesses?" Mu Ru could not help but be stunned. "A photo of you and Sui'er side by side, face to face. Furthermore, at the back of the photo, it's written that they are in love and will be together forever. Does she need to make wild guesses?"

"The person in the photo isn't me." Dongfang Mo looked at him honestly and said, "actually, that person is ah Yu. Sui'er didn't like playing with me since she was young and liked to be with ah Yu. Ah Yu also likes her, but..."

Dongfang Mo stopped at this point. Mu Ru was lost in her thoughts as she listened, so she couldn't help but ask, "but what?"

Dongfang Mo sighed lightly and said, "It's just that ah Yu is a crazy person who likes to play and has a wild personality. When he was young, he was willing to bring Sui'er wherever he went to play. Later on, when he was older, he seemed to be around seventeen or eighteen years old. He refused to bring Sui'er out, and then..."

Dongfang Mo paused at this point and took a sip of the still slightly hot water. He continued, "then, Tian Sui'er followed him and found out that he was with another girl outside. The two of them got into an argument."

"Of course, the argument was huge. Sui'er was so angry that she went to a bar to get drunk. In the end, she met a bad guy. Luckily, ah Yu arrived later and beat the bad guy away. However, Sui'er was drugged. Ah Yu was only 18 years old. He was too busy at the time and didn't know how to send Sui'er to the hospital. Perhaps he was afraid that his parents would criticize him if he sent her to the hospital, so he foolishly used his own body to detoxify Sui'er. Just like that, they had sex."

“What happened after that?” Mu Ru was captivated by his words. Seeing that Dongfang Mo had stopped again, she quickly asked.

“after that, of course, it didn’t take long for Sui’er’s body to react abnormally. First, aunt Liu found out that her period had stopped, and then she found out that she was nauseous, so she quickly brought her to the hospital for a check-up. In the end, she was pregnant. From then on, the matter between the two of them was exposed. In order to give uncle and aunt Liu an explanation, my parents had ah Yu and Sui’er settle their marriage. They even said that ah Yu would marry Sui’er after he turned 20, but who knew...”

Dongfang Mo had a pained expression on his face when he said this. He lowered his voice and said, “who knew that a month later, ah Yu rolled down the cliff because she was participating in a race for the underworld. At that time, she announced that her car had been destroyed and she was dead.”

“Sui’er could not take such a blow. She went crazy and went to the cliff where Ah Yu and her car rolled down. I don’t know if it was because she was dizzy or because she was too sad, but it was raining at that time. In short, she rolled down the cliff, and then — one corpse, two lives!”

When Mu ru heard such a story, her heart instantly shrank. Actually, Xi Muxue told her a completely different story.

Xi Muxue told her about how Dongfang Mo once fell in love with uncle Liu and aunt Liu’s daughter. They were childhood sweethearts. Dongfang Mo had always loved Sui’er alone in his heart. Everyone was a substitute, Xi Muru Don’t think that now Dongfang Mo knows that the person he first met was you. He knows that the person who guarded his bedside was you, so she really loves you.

However, after hearing Dongfang Mo tell such a tragic love story, she really regretted that she shouldn’t have teased Dongfang Mo. now that the scar from back then was exposed, his heart would definitely be in pain.

Although he didn’t have that kind of feeling towards Sui’er, Sui’er was after all the daughter of Uncle Liu and aunt Liu. She had grown up with them in one inch ink city since young. In Dongfang Mo’s heart, Sui’er should be treated as an older sister or younger sister.

“I’m sorry.” Mu Ru hurriedly apologized to Dongfang Mo. her voice was filled with guilt. “I didn’t know that things were like this. I’m really confused. In the future, I will never believe a single word of Mu Xue’s.”

“It’s okay.” Dongfang Mo gently patted the back of Mu Ru’s hand Then, he said in a low voice, “however, you must never mention Sui’er in front of Ah Yu in the future. At that time, he woke up from his vegetative state and was unwilling to return to the Dongfang family to insist on becoming a monk. I’m guessing that it was mostly because of Sui’er, because he didn’t have the face to face uncle Liu and aunt Liu.”

Mu Ru nodded. Only then did she remember that Che Qixuan had pretended to be Dongfang Mo for a few days in one inch ink city. However, whenever he faced uncle Liu and aunt Liu, his expression was slightly unnatural. In fact, he did his best to avoid meeting them.

At that time, she thought that he was afraid that uncle Liu and aunt Liu would recognize him. After all, uncle Liu and aunt Liu were very familiar with Dongfang Mo. only now did she realize that it was not just that.

At this moment, the waiter had already brought a plate of food up. Dongfang Mo immediately turned sideways and helped the waiter put the steaming hot crab Roe shrimp dumpling in front of Mu Ru.

Mu Ru used a porcelain spoon to stir the large bowl of Crab Roe shrimp dumpling. The skin of the dumpling was very thin, and the Crab Roe and shrimp inside could be seen through the skin. It was yellow and pink and very beautiful.

She stared blankly at the dumpling. The steam from the bowl rose up and entered her nostrils. It carried the unique sweetness of Crab Roe and the unique fishy smell of shrimp and seafood... .. Her stomach was stirring ...

When she heard Dongfang Mo mention that Sui'er rolled down from where Dongfang Yu rolled over, and that Sui'er was dead and two people were dead, she could not help but feel uncomfortable. She could not help but think of the incident six years ago, when Dongfang Mo went to race with Nangong Xun to save her.

That time, it was said that Dongfang Mo was also in a car accident. His legs were broken and he was blind. He only recovered after staying abroad for two years. Dongfang Mo did not tell her all of this. It was only when Liu Hao came to check on her for a cold that he told her.

"What, you don't want to eat anymore?" Dongfang Mo saw that she was only staring at Yun Tun, so he immediately handed her a tissue.

"I want to eat, why don't I want to eat?" Mu Ru immediately came back to her senses. She picked up a big Yun Tun and stuffed it into her mouth. The steam in the bowl with a sweet and fishy smell instantly made her eyes misty.

The Crab Roe shrimp big Yun Tun was bitten by her teeth until its skin was torn. Therefore, the sweet and fishy smell immediately spread in her mouth. She stopped chewing and forcefully endured the sour and astringent taste that stirred in her stomach.

Mu Ru paused for a long time before she finally calmed down. Slowly, she swallowed the Crab Roe shrimp in her mouth one bite at a time... ..

It was uncomfortable, really uncomfortable. Actually, it was not appropriate to talk while eating. Most importantly, it was not appropriate to listen to such a sad story.

"Mu Ru." Dongfang Mo could not help but hold her hand tightly in his palm when he saw her like that. He said gently, "Mu Ru, as twins, although I'm not as miserable as you and was despised by my parents when I was born, when it comes to relationships, I'm just like you. I'm very slow-witted and unenlightened. That's why I don't have many women. As for real women, other than having Fang Zining in America before you, there's no one else."

Mu Ru raised her head when she heard this. She picked up another crab Roe shrimp dumpling and slowly put it into her mouth. She bit the skin lightly with her teeth and the fishy smell quickly entered her mouth. However, her stomach didn't churn out any more sour taste.

Dongfang Mo saw that she was eating quietly, so he did not say anything else. Coincidentally, the waiter served all the other dishes that they had ordered, so he also picked up his chopsticks and started eating.

After eating a mouthful of fresh food for nearly an hour, Mu Ru ate six big wontons, a Soba Wotou, and a corn roll. Then, she drank the Ginseng black chicken soup while peeling the water and boiling edamame to eat.

Dongfang Mo saw that she had a good appetite, so he also ate a lot. However, they did order a little too much. In the end, they asked the waiter to pack it up and said that they would bring it back to eat in the car when they were hungry.

After eating, it was still early. Dongfang Mo wanted to bring her back to the hospital and let her lie down in the car to take an afternoon nap. However, Mu Ru refused. She said that she would take advantage of her free time in the afternoon to go shopping and find a mother and baby shop to buy something for her baby.

Go shopping This word was extremely new to Dongfang Mo because it seemed like he had never gone shopping before. Usually, he would go directly to a brand shop to buy anything.

Mu Ru looked at Dongfang Mo. although they were husband and wife and had been married for seven years, they had never gone shopping together. Of course, seven years ago, he had sent her back to her hometown as Dongfang Yu and brought her to Wanxiang city to buy a bag However, that was not considered shopping at all. In fact, he had directly ordered her to buy it and leave.

A real shopping spree was like any other husband and wife. The two of them walked hand in hand through the crowded commercial streets or the spacious, bright, and dazzling shopping malls. They would bicker over the color of the SACHEL and argue about the style of the clothes... ..

Alright, it seemed that these things had never existed before.

She and he were husband and wife. However, the only things that could prove that they were husband and wife were probably the marriage certificate and a small feather that were their children.

There seemed to be no other place that could prove that they were husband and wife. For example, shopping like an ordinary couple did not exist in the past.

However, now, she was a little tempted. She wanted to go shopping with him and experience the simple pleasures of an ordinary couple with him. She wanted to experience what a real couple was like?

Perhaps, he was still unwilling?

As expected, he was unwilling. Dongfang Mo frowned and looked at the woman in front of him. He said gently, "Mu Ru, what do you want to buy? I asked mother and baby to bring some things to our one inch ink city for you to slowly choose. There's no need for you to waste your energy."

Chapter 897 love is a superstition of the right place at the right time

It wasn't that he wasn't willing to compensate her, he even brought her to the bookstore to buy books. It was just that it was noon now, the sun was high, and there were too many people in the business street. Her current physical condition was not suitable for that kind of environment.

Hearing his words, Mu Ru was obviously angry. She turned around and walked forward. When she passed by his car, she didn't even stop for a moment.

Dongfang Mo quickly caught up and grabbed her hand in his big palm. Then, he compromised a little and said, "that's fine, but we can't go to the shops on both sides of the Commercial Street. There are indeed too many people on the commercial street. Let's go to the exclusive shop in the mall. There will be fewer people there anyway. The environment of the big mall is good, and the air conditioning is also moderate."

"Alright then, let's go to the exclusive shop in the Big Mall?" Mu Ru saw that he had already compromised, so she also compromised. It was better to go to the mall than not go.

Therefore, Dongfang Mo held mu Ru's hand and went directly to a large comprehensive mall at the entrance of the Commercial Street. They took the elevator and went directly to the mother and child supplies area on the fourth floor according to the instructions posted on the wall in the elevator.

The mother and child supplies area took up one-third of the entire floor. Mu Ru directly entered a large-scale specialized shop. Dongfang Mo followed behind her and walked in together.

This shop was decorated with pink, green, and light yellow clothes. When people walked in, they were immediately surrounded by a warm atmosphere. Mu Ru had an excited expression on her face as she happily picked up the supplies on the shelves and looked at them.

"Excuse me, did you buy them for your own use or to give them away?" The waiter walked over with a smile and spoke to Mu Ru very politely. Because Mu Ru was only 13 weeks pregnant, her stomach was very flat. It was impossible to tell that she was pregnant.

"I bought it for my baby," Mu Ru answered with a smile. Then, she gestured to Dongfang Mo to quickly push a shopping cart over because the things she had chosen would be placed in the shopping cart later.

Dongfang Mo hesitated for a moment, then obediently went to the escalator not far away and pushed a shopping cart over. When he reached her side, he saw that she was holding a pair of small shoes in her hands and gesturing.

"So small? Can the child's feet fit inside?" Dongfang Mo could not help but raise his eyebrows. The shoes were so small, wouldn't the child's feet have to be smaller than these shoes to fit inside?

"How big can a newborn baby's feet be?" Mu Ru rolled her eyes at him. Seriously, her daughter was already more than five years old, yet she did not even know how big the newborn baby's feet were.

“Hehe, the two of you are the father-to-be and mother-to-be, right?” The waitress asked with a smile.

Father-to-be and mother-to-be Dongfang Mo was stunned by instinct. Thinking about it carefully, wasn't he and Xi Muru preparing to be parents again?

When the waitress saw that he was silent, she thought that her guess was right. Hence, she said enthusiastically, “this is the first time that a father-to-be and mother-to-be have seen such small shoes. Their reactions are like this. They don't believe that their child's feet are so small. I guess in your hearts, you must think that the fetus is so big.”

When he heard the waitress' words, Dongfang Mo's face turned slightly red and he could not help but laugh again. It was true. In his eyes, it was as if the child was not much smaller than a feather when it was born?

When mu ru heard the waitress' words, she could not help but put down the small shoes in her hands again. She turned to look at Dongfang Mo and realized that he was actually daydreaming about the baby picture on the wall.

As if sensing that Mu ru was looking at him, Dongfang Mo looked away and saw that she was reaching for another pair of shoes of a different style. He then looked around at the things in this mother and baby brand shop.

He had never thought that there would be so many mother and baby products in a shop. There were so many of them that he could not cope with them all at once. If he had to slowly and carefully choose every single one of them, how long would he have to wait?

Thinking of this, he looked at his shopping cart again. There was actually nothing in it. Even the small shoes that she had looked at just now were not put in. She probably did not like them.

He could not help but raise his hand to rub the space between his eyebrows. He said to the waiter, “alright, give us two sets of everything in this shop. We won't be choosing anymore.”

Mu Ru froze when she heard Dongfang Mo's words. Her hands were tightly clutching a pair of pink and beautiful small cloth shoes. She could not help but shout angrily, “Dongfang Mo.”

“choosing one thing at a time, how much time will this waste?” Dongfang Mo quickly looked at her and explained in a low voice, “besides, these are all useful anyway. I'll buy them all at once so that I don't have to come shopping again in the future.”

Actually, he was worried that she would feel dizzy after standing like this for a long time. He did not forget that her dizziness had never been good. Today, the obstetrician said that it might be due to pregnancy anemia, but whether she was really anemic.. The blood test list was not out yet.

Seeing that she was standing there angrily with the baby shoes in her hands, he walked to her side in two steps and took the pair of shoes from her hands and put them in the shopping cart. “What's there to choose? They're all pretty, aren't they? I think they're all pretty.”

“What do you mean by pretty much?” Mu Ru rolled her eyes at him angrily “babies grow very fast, especially before they’re half a year old. They look almost the same every day, and they’re not adults. They’re so tall this year and so tall next year. This year’s clothes can only be worn next year if they’re not rotten, but babies have to be bought separately. From one to three months, from three to six months, from six to one year old... “. ...”

Mu Ru paused at this point, then glared at him fiercely and said, “what do you know?”

Dongfang Mo could not help but laugh at her scolding. Looking at her angry face, he felt that she was especially cute. So, he stopped chewing and pushed the shopping cart to follow behind her obediently.

Because they were pregnant with twins, they had to buy two sets of each item. Mu Ru took them one by one and studied them. After studying them, she handed them to Dongfang Mo. Dongfang Mo studied them again. Actually, he could not do much with them, so he put them in the shopping cart. They had to be neatly packed.

However, when mu ru handed him two cotton bath towels, Dongfang Mo finally could not help but frown. He protested in a low voice, “Mu Ru, why are you choosing the pink ones? If you’re carrying a baby girl, you have to buy the pink ones.”

“Pink, pink, pink. They’re all the same. What’s the difference?” Mu Ru didn’t care and looked at the two towels in her hands again. She folded them and put them into the shopping cart.

What’s the difference? Dongfang Mo stared at the pink towels in the shopping cart and looked at her flat stomach. He couldn’t help but think that if two girls were standing in front of her, the pink ones would still look better than the pink ones, right?

Mu Ru could not help but laugh when she saw his staring expression. She turned around to pick out a pair of socks for her baby. This time, she took two pairs of pink and pink socks.

Chapter 899 love is a superstition that is at the right place at the right time

Dongfang Mo finally stopped staring at her. He took the socks that she had chosen and placed them in the shopping basket. Then, he told her that yellow was not bad as well. There was also pink and green that were quite good-looking. The light purple ones also looked very beautiful. The red ones also looked happy. Both the boy and the girl looked good in red.

Thus, the two of them continued to choose. Pink and green, pink and blue, light yellow and light purple... .. They bought two sets of each. Not long after, their shopping cart was filled to the brim.

Finally, they chose the milk bottles. Dongfang Mo felt that these milk bottles were more or less the same. They were transparent, but some of them had straws and some did not have straws.

Thus, he suggested that those with straws buy two straws and those without straws. As for the material, there was no need to bother studying it. In any case, they could just buy the expensive ones. After all, money knew goods, and good things were expensive.

After hearing his words, Mu Ru was so angry that she glared at him again. She could not help but teach him a lesson. Not all good things were expensive. Similarly, not all expensive things were good. Otherwise, where did the idiom 'quality is good and price is low' come from?

When the waitress heard Mu Ru's words, she agreed. Everyone liked the material of the milk bottle. Some people liked the PV while others liked the glass bottle. The PV and the glass bottle did not seem to be any different, but the difference was actually quite big.

Dongfang Mo immediately fell silent when he heard the two women's words. Alright, although his eldest daughter, Yu Yu, was already over five years old, this was definitely the first time he had bought baby supplies. His knowledge of babies was definitely just beginning here.

Thus, he patiently accompanied Mu Ru and watched her pick up and put down the bottles. Every time he picked up the bottles that she put down, he would study them again.

Finally, after she picked up six bottles, that's right, six bottles. Dongfang Mo could not help but ask in puzzlement, "Mu Ru, why are you buying so many bottles?"

"For the children," Mu ru explained naturally, "these are the bottles that the children use within half a year. They haven't bought the ones after half a year. We'll buy them after the children have given birth."

"Does the baby need to use three milk bottles at six months of age?" Dongfang Mo was even more puzzled. "change one milk bottle every two months?"

"What? Not all of these are used for drinking milk." Mu Ru was really convinced by him. She picked up three milk bottles of different sizes and said, "the bigger one is for drinking milk, the medium-sized one is for drinking water, and the smallest one is for drinking fruit juice. Milk, water, and fruit juice can not all be used in one milk bottle. They have to be separated."

Dongfang Mo's face turned slightly red. He had never thought that a single child's milk bottle would have so much attention to detail. Thinking about how she had given birth to Yu Yu alone in Korea and went to buy these things alone, he could not help but feel a trace of guilt in his heart.

Finally, he had chosen enough. Xi Muru indicated that she would not buy anymore, so Dongfang Mo pushed the full cart to the cashier. The waitress smiled and asked if they wanted shopping bags. She said that they did not need shopping bags. They could use the shopping cart to push them directly to the side of their car.

Dongfang Mo still asked for shopping bags because his car was still at the entrance of the restaurant. He had bought a lot of things, so he had to use four big shopping bags to completely fill them up.

When he was done with the shopping, Dongfang Mo pointed at a picture of twins stuck on the wall and asked, "this, is it for sale?"

“Oh, that’s a promotional poster. Let me see if there’s any more in the warehouse. ” The waitress smiled as she collected the money. “The brother and sister in our store’s promotional poster are very likable. Many people even bring their cameras to take pictures of them. ”

Dongfang Mo nodded, but the waitress instructed her colleagues to go to the warehouse to take a look. She said that if there were any, she would bring one over for this gentleman to give to them.

When they had finished paying, the other waitress had already brought over a rolled up promotional poster. When she handed it to Dongfang Mo, she even patiently told him to tear off the layer of slippery paper at the back and stick it on directly. It was very simple.

The four shopping bags were filled to the brim. Dongfang Mo carried two in each hand. Mu Ru smiled and wanted to help carry two, but Dongfang Mo did not let her.

“Your task is to take good care of the baby in your belly. Just leave the hard work to me. ” Dongfang Mo carried the four shopping bags and gestured for mu ru to follow him with his eyes. They took the elevator downstairs together.

On the way back to the Yikou fresh parking lot, they passed by a toy store. Mu Ru could not help but stop in her tracks. Dongfang Mo could not help but glare at her. “It’s getting late. We still have to go back to the hospital to get the results and look for the OB / gyn Doctor. Let’s talk about the toys next time. ”

Alright, Dongfang Mo was telling the truth. Although he glared at her, didn’t he also promise to accompany her to go shopping next time?

Hehe, it seemed that she had to write down this promise in a notebook. When she wanted to go shopping one day, someone would be shameless and refused to do so, she would use this to remind him to keep his word.

The business street was not far from a bite of fresh food, and it only took about ten minutes to walk there. Dongfang Mo put the four shopping bags he had just bought into the trunk, then came over to help mu ru open the car door. When she got in, he even bent down carefully and came in. He pulled the seatbelt and helped her fasten it.

He walked around the front of the car and got into the car. He sat down, but he was not in a hurry to drive. Instead, he leaned over and helped her lower the seat a little so that she could write and lie down. Then, he picked out a long light music disc and put it into the DVD. Very soon.. Chopin’s piano music slowly flowed in the car... ..

On the way back to the hospital, Dongfang Mo’s car was driving a little slowly. It was evening, and the sea breeze blew gently. Mu Ru was lying on the seat without sleeping. Her eyes were slightly closed, and she was talking to Dongfang Mo casually.

She asked, “Dongfang Mo, do you think the baby in my stomach is a boy or a girl? ”

Dongfang Mo said, “both boys and girls are the same, but I hope it’s a girl. ”

“Why? ” Mu Ru frowned slightly and was a little puzzled. “We already have a little feather, don’t we? Why do we still want a girl? ”

“There aren’t too many beautiful daughters,” he explained with a smile. “Besides, daughters usually look like their mothers. Look at little feather, she really misses you. It’s just that little feather doesn’t put me first. Of course, it’s not her fault, because I haven’t been by her side since I was young. So this time, I hope to accompany these two daughters well and not leave any regrets for my daughters.”

“Oh,” Mu ru replied faintly, then said in a low voice, “but I hope it’s a boy.”

“Why?” Dongfang Mo raised his eyebrows.

“because you’ve bullied me a lot in the past,” Mu Ru said righteously.

Dongfang Mo’s face immediately turned red to the root of his neck, and he couldn’t help but say in a low voice, “it won’t happen in the future, never again.”
