Chapter 941 love is a superstition of the right place at the right time

When he was a child, his mother bound all the pictures into a book, which seemed to be kept in the study. Later, when his parents passed away, he was also busy, so he did not have time to look at the pictures of his childhood. It was as if he had put them in a box and placed them on a shelf in the corner.

When he walked into the study, he found that the top of the shelf in the corner was piled with things that were usually not used. There were several boxes of different sizes. He reached out to pull the box in his memory, but because he had used too much force, he actually pulled down the boxes next to him.

The boxes of different sizes rolled all over the floor, and the things inside also rolled out sporadically. He couldn't help but kick them, and only then did he realize that there were pictures rolling out.

Of course, it wasn't a picture of him and Yu when he was young, but a picture of him and Xi Muxue. That was eight years ago, no, to be precise, it was a picture of him and Xi Muxue when they were together before he got into a car accident nine years ago.

In the picture, he had a dazed look on his face, and he was leaning against Xi Muxue, who had an incomparably bright and happy smile on her face. It actually looked so discordant.

Well, people said that couples should look like husband and wife, but he and Xi Muxue did not look like they were from the same family. It was no wonder that they could not become husband and wife.

However, these photos made him feel uncomfortable, so he quickly kicked them aside, thinking that he would ask uncle Liu to burn them in the yard later. This was simply sarcasm.

After disposing of this box, he turned around and saw another box. There was a thick stack of photo albums inside. He let out a long sigh. This was the photo that his mother had taken for the two brothers back then. It seemed to have been taken from the day they were born until they were six years old when they went to primary school.

According to the code that his mother had written before, he took the two smallest photo albums. In fact, they were photos of people who were less than one year old. With so many photos, they should be able to cover the entire wall.

He took the photo album and turned around to leave. However, the moment he turned around, he accidentally kicked a small box. Because of his kick, the small box rolled on the ground. Then, it spread out and a shiny object rolled out.

He instinctively stopped and looked at the shiny thing. Then, he slowly squatted down and picked up the shiny thing. It was actually a diamond ring.

He closed his eyes slightly and held the diamond ring tightly in his palm. However, he did not want to throw it out anymore.

The ring, his wedding ring. Eight years ago, Mu Ru personally helped him put on the ring.

On the day of his wedding, in St. Paul's Cathedral, he personally helped Mu ru put on the wedding ring. Mu Ru also personally helped him put on the wedding ring. Under the witness of the priest, they swore to be husband and wife and never leave each other!

This ring had been thrown away angrily when he had returned to the study room on the night of their wedding when he had found out that she was Xi Muru. He had never looked for it ever since, thinking that the maid who was in charge of cleaning had accidentally swept it away as trash.

However, never in his wildest dreams would he have thought that this ring, which had been lying quietly here for eight years, would actually appear in front of him after eight years.

In these eight years, his ring finger had been empty and he had never worn a ring again.

As for Xi Muru, she did not seem to have any ring on her finger either.

His wedding ring had been lying there quietly. What about hers? What about the ring that he had personally helped her put on back then? Where did she throw it?

Chapter 942 love is a superstition of the right place at the right time

After capturing mu ru from France and then using little feather to lure her over from Korea, they went through all kinds of things. In the end, they became a real husband and wife.

However, it seemed that he and she did not wear rings anymore. He did not have any on his hand, and neither did she.

He threw away the wedding ring that year, but what about hers? He had never asked her where her ring was, just like she had never asked him.

He clenched the ring tightly in his hand. The hard metal and cadmium made his hand hurt. It was so painful that it felt like it was going to pierce through his skin, into his flesh, and into his heart.

Dongfang Mo went to look for photos of him when he was young. Mu Ru was writing a diary in the temporary bedroom on the first floor. Today, because she was in a good mood, the diary was a little long.

Because Dongfang Mo was certain that there were two brats in her stomach, she gradually used Yun Heng and Yun Zai to write the diary.

Heng Heng and Zai Zai, you two are already 33 weeks old today and are already eight months old. Mommy has been very happy these few days and daddy is also very happy because we are all looking forward to your arrival.

Because Daddy said that the two of you are brats, Mommy will often picture the two of you in her mind. However, no matter how she does it, it will still be your daddy's appearance.

Heng Heng and Zai Zai, it is fine as long as the two of you look like Daddy. However, don't be like him in character. He has many bad habits. If you have so many bad habits like him, it will probably be very difficult for you to get a wife in the future... ..

Just as Mu ru finished writing, the phone rang. She frowned slightly but did not get up. She just called out naturally, "Dongfang, there's a call."

After waiting for a while, the phone was still ringing. She was a little annoyed and could not help but turn around. Only then did she realize that there was no Dongfang Mo in the room. She then remembered that Dongfang Mo had gone to look for the baby's photo for her.

She stood up as a last resort. Fortunately, the phone was on the small coffee table beside the Armrest of the SOFA. She reached out to pick it up and said very naturally, "hello, this is one inch Mo city of the Dongfang family. May I know who you're looking for?"

"I'm looking for Xi Muru," Cheng Feier's voice came from the phone There was a cheerful laugh. "Mu Ru, I have good news for you. I'm getting married. Oh right, have you had your baby yet? I still have two months to get married. I was thinking of asking you to be my bridesmaid..."

Mu Ru could not help but laugh when she heard this She replied softly, "then the date of your wedding might be a little unfortunate. I'm currently 33 weeks pregnant with twins. I don't know if I'll have them ahead of time, but you're getting married in two months. I'm guessing that you'll be sitting there for the next month..."

"Then I'll change the date of the wedding to three months or three days later." Cheng feier shouted on the other side of the phone, "no matter what, I want you to be my maid of honor..."

Mu Ru quickly reminded her carefully, "Fei'er, if you change the date to three months later, I don't have any objections. However, if you change it to three days later, I think it's better to forget about it. With my big belly, it's very difficult for me to walk, let alone be a maid of honor... ". ..."

After chatting with Cheng Feier for ten minutes, she hung up the phone. Knowing that she was going to get married and that she had found someone she liked, she couldn't help but feel happy for her. In her lifetime, she would be able to find someone she liked and also liked her to get married It was indeed very difficult.

Dongfang Mo went to look for the photos, but it took him three hours. By the time he returned, Mu Ru had already woken up from her afternoon nap.

Seeing her walk in, Mu ru asked impatiently, "Dongfang Mo, did you and ah Yu go to the bottom of the hidden sea to look for the photos of you and Ah Yu when you were young? You let che Qi Xuan drive a submarine to look for them in the afternoon, right?"

Dongfang Mo smiled and said, "how could I trouble him? I forgot the exact location of my photos, so I rummaged through them. Of course, it took me some time."

Mu Ru glared at him and couldn't be bothered with him. Coincidentally, aunt Liu sent lunch in, so Mu Ru sat on the sofa and enjoyed the lunch in peace. Dongfang Mo watched her from the side and casually shared with her. He even said that he shared his blessings with her.

Mu Ru's mouth was stuffed with food. When she heard his words, she nodded and mumbled, "yes, yes. Husband and wife are birds in the same forest. Of course, we have to share our blessings together. However, when disaster strikes, I guess we will have to fly separately."

Dongfang Mo smiled when he heard her words. He did not argue with her. When he saw that she was full, he immediately asked Aunt Liu to take it down. Then, he opened his childhood photo album and took out photos of him and Ah Yu.

Although he and Ah Yu were twins, there were not many photos of the two of them together. Most of the time, it was photos of the two of them alone. When Mu Ru saw these photos, perhaps it was because she was too familiar with the Dongfang brothers. She could actually tell at a glance.

"Just stick it to me alone." Dongfang Mo threw the photos of Dongfang Yu aside as he spoke. "Ah Yu's photos are not nice. They are not cute at all."

Mu Ru couldn't help but frown when she heard his shameless words. He looked exactly the same as Dongfang Yu, okay?

Moreover, those childhood photos clearly showed that Dongfang Yu liked to smile more than him, making him look much more lively and cute than him, okay?

She had known that Dongfang Mo was thick-skinned, but she had never known that he was so thick-skinned that he was actually narcissistic?

Heavens, if even her father was like this, could it be that the two brats in her stomach were also this narcissistic? Were they also this narcissistic?

"How is it? Isn't it very cute?" A certain man who did not know his own limits asked shamelessly as he pasted his own baby photo on the wall.

Mu Ru looked up and then nodded seriously. "Yes, it's indeed a little cute, but it's not pretty." She deliberately attacked him.

"Hehehe, I'm a boy. What do I need to be pretty for? Pretty is a derogatory term for a boy," Dongfang Mo said nonchalantly. "However, there are a few pretty photos in the small bag next to it. You can take them out and have a look."

There are beautiful photos. Mu Ru was slightly stunned. Then, she reached out to take a small plastic bag next to her and poured it out on the coffee table. However, when she saw these photos, she was completely stunned. Where did he get these?

"Dongfang Mo, where did you get these?" Mu Ru could not help but exclaim in shock. She held a photo in each hand. The photos of the two- or three-year-old girls were all without bangs. The birthmark on their foreheads was so obvious that it was so clear in the photos.

"Of course I got them from mother Wang," Dongfang Mo said as he turned around and hugged her from behind. His thin lips exhaled a warm breath beside her ear. "How is it? These photos are pretty enough, right?"

"Dongfang Mo, you did it on purpose, didn't you?" Mu Ru shouted angrily. She reached out her hand and was about to tear up these photos.

Chapter 944 love is a superstition of the right place at the right time

Seriously, there were only a few photos of her when she was young. Moreover, she was so young back then, and she did not know how to cover her forehead with her bangs. Therefore, the photos were as ugly as they could be. Yet, he said that she was beautiful. Wasn't this mocking her?

Dongfang Mo quickly reached out and grabbed her hand. He immediately snatched the photos from her hand and protected them like a treasure. Then, he smiled and said, "honey, there are only a few photos of you in total. How can you tear them up? Where can you find them after you tear them up?"

Mu Ru glared at him angrily. "You're even worse than me. I can't even see her photos anymore. I've finally regained some confidence these few years, but you still dare to take out the old photos to attack her confidence."

Dongfang Mo couldn't help but laugh when he heard this. He raised the photo in his hand and said, "how is this photo ugly? I don't see how ugly it is at all. I just think it's very beautiful. Look at how happy this little girl is with her smile. Although there's still mud on her face that hasn't been washed clean and there's a birthmark on her forehead, her smile is as bright as the sun. She doesn't feel inferior because of that birthmark at all. Instead, she's full of confidence."

When Mu Ru heard his words, her heart trembled slightly. Then, her eyes gradually turned misty. She pondered for a long time before she asked softly, "Dongfang Mo, if I'm talking about if Henghe has inherited me since he was born. He has a birthmark on his forehead. Will you despise them?"

Dongfang Mo was stunned when he heard her words. The hand that was originally clasped in front of her chest gradually slid down to her abdomen. Then, he said softly, "Yun Heng, Yun Heng, you two brats better listen carefully. You must not have a birthmark on your forehead. Otherwise, your mommy will despise you."

"Hey, Dongfang Mo, what do you mean by this?" Mu Ru was so angry that she cried out, "I asked if you would despise them, and you actually said that I would despise them. Who would do such a thing?"

"HMPH," Dongfang Mo snorted twice and rolled his eyes at her. "I don't even dislike my own wife, yet I despise my own child? Do you think that's possible?"

Mu Ru pouted, but tears welled up in her eyes. She had been despised and thrown away by Xi Yuancheng since she was young, which was why she was so worried. She was afraid that her child would repeat her mistakes.

"Mu Ru," Dongfang Mo hugged her tightly and reached out to take a tissue to gently wipe her eyes. His thin lips whispered into her ear, "don't worry. People like your father who would abandon his own child are Weirdos. There are very few Weirdos in this world, and I definitely can't be a Weirido. At the very most, I can only be a mortal who loves his wife and child."

Dongfang Mo paused for a moment. Then, he whispered, "wife, not to mention the birthmark on their foreheads, even if they have limbs that aren't whole or if their brains are faulty or if they're idiots, I won't dislike them because they're my children, our children!"

Mu Ru nodded. Actually, she had asked this question purely as a joke, but looking at Dongfang Mo's serious expression, it was clear that he took this topic very seriously.

Seeing that she had calmed down, Dongfang Mo went to paste the pictures of the babies again. He even put the picture with the mud and birthmark in the middle of the most eye-catching spot. It was obvious that he was deliberately going against her.

Chapter 945 love is a superstition that is at the right place at the right time

Mu Ru was so angry that she cried out loud. She stood up and moved her fat, thick legs and her round, ball-like belly to tear down the photo. However, Dongfang Mo was shocked.

"Alright, alright, I'll tear it down, alright?" Dongfang Mo quickly tore down the photo and obediently took the 100-day photo that she picked out from his childhood and stuck it in the middle.

This photo was taken by Dongfang Mo's mother when he was 100 days old. At that time, he was sitting naked in the red bathtub. Because of the clear water, the small thing between his thighs could be clearly seen.

Mu Ru sat on the SOFA and leaned against the wall as she watched Dongfang Mo paste the photos onto the wall. There were only a few photos of her, but they became decorations in a pile of his baby photos.

Dongfang Mo pasted the Empty Front Wall with photos of him and her when they were young. He even smiled and said that this was a wall of baby photos, comparable to the Berlin Wall in Germany.

Mu Ru pouted and mocked him, saying that the Germans knew that he would be dragged out and beaten to death. Dongfang Mo smiled and did not say anything. Then, he came to her side and sat down. He reached out and took her ring.

Of course, there was no wedding ring on her ring finger. There was not even a trace of a ring on it.

His heart suddenly felt uncomfortable. It seemed that he did not have much weight in her heart because he did not leave any trace on her.

Mu Ru was holding Dongfang Mo's hand so tightly that she pulled her hand back. Only then did she realize that there was blood on his palm. She could not help but open her palm to see that there was actually a mark. She could not help but ask, "what happened to your palm?"

"nothing," Dongfang Mo replied nonchalantly. Then, he used his hand to caress her ring finger and asked in a low voice, "Mu Ru, eight years ago, when we got married... At that time, we wore each other's wedding rings... Where's your... Ring?"

Wedding ring Ring Mu Ru was instantly stunned.

Eight years ago, when she had married Dongfang Mo on behalf of Mu Xue, she had indeed worn each other's rings at the wedding.

However, after her identity was exposed, she didn't wear it anymore. Where did she put the ring?

She remembered now. At that time, she thought that the ring did not belong to her, so she took it off and put it in the bedside table in the bedroom. She thought that it was Dongfang Mo's thing and he did not give it to her sincerely, so there was no need for her to wear it.

Now, Dongfang Mo asked about the wedding ring from eight years ago. She remembered that he did not wear it after their wedding. She thought that he should be angry because she was a substitute and would not want the ring.

Now, Dongfang Mo actually came to ask about the wedding ring from eight years ago. Could it be that he still kept it?

"Mu Ru," Dongfang Mo could not help but call her softly when he saw that she had been silent for a long time.

"Dongfang, that ring..." Mu ru looked at him, wanting to say something but stopping herself ...

"You threw it away?" Dongfang Mo's heart could not help but tighten up, as if there was an invisible pain from being tied up by a rope.

Mu Ru shook her head and said softly, "No, I put it in the bottom drawer of the bedside table in the bedroom..."

Before Mu ru could finish her words, Dongfang Mo had already turned around and ran out of the room. In a few minutes, he ran back again, but there was already a ring with diamonds on his hand.

Dongfang Mo took out his ring and placed it together with Mu Ru's ring. The diamonds on it were as clear and bright as two crystal clear teardrops, shining with a dazzling light.

Chapter 946 love is a superstition of the right place at the right time

After Mu ru was eight months pregnant, Dongfang Mo did not need to work at the company anymore. Instead, he changed his office to one inch ink city. Every day, Ahao would go to the company to send important documents to him for his approval.

Mu Ru felt that he was making a big deal out of nothing. He said that there was aunt Liu, mother Wang, and a min at home, as well as the two professional baby-sitters that he had hired in advance. He did not need to stay at home to take care of her at all.

However, Dongfang Mo said in all seriousness, "how can their care for you compare to my care for you?" "How can they be outsiders? I'm your husband, right?"

"I can lie on the bed with you and do prenatal education with you, can they?" "Can I put my ear to your stomach and listen to the sounds of the children moving in your stomach?"

"I can even help you do pregnancy exercises, can they?"

Mu Ru immediately fell silent. It seemed that other than him, no one else could help her with what Dongfang Mo said. Especially at night, she would tell stories about children to her stomach and teach those two brats who always fought and tortured her a lesson.

Also, the most important thing was, of course, to help her with the pregnancy exercises.

The fetus position of the two children had always been abnormal. When she went for a prenatal checkup last week, director Zeng asked her to do the pregnancy exercises and said that the pregnancy exercises could correct the child in her belly.

At first, Mu Ru thought that doing the exercises was a very simple thing. However, after she learned about the pregnancy exercises, she realized how difficult it was. In particular, she was already eight months pregnant, especially since she was pregnant with twins.

Every morning and evening, Dongfang Mo would help her with the exercises. She looked as if she was suffering. He could not help but say with heartache, "honey, don't do it. You're pregnant with twins anyway. When the time comes for a c-section, it doesn't matter if the fetus is in the right position or not. It's carried out anyway."

Mu Ru shook her head and shouted, "I don't want a c-section. I don't want a c-section. I have a perfectly healthy belly. Why would I have to go up there and pull a knife? When I gave birth to Yu Yu, I didn't even have a c-section."

Dongfang Mo really had to give in to her. Wasn't she pregnant with Yu Yu? It might be easier to give birth to one. Weren't they twins now? If the twins wanted to come out, her door was so small, how could the two children come out?

Mu Ru insisted on giving birth naturally, so this pregnant woman did a lot of exercises. However, it was so hard. When she went to the hospital for a check-up at 35 weeks, director Zeng still said that the position of the fetus was still not correct. He also said that she should not do the exercises because she was about to enter the perinatal period. It would probably be very difficult to do it. If she could not give birth naturally, then she would have to give birth by Caesarean section.

Mu Ru was very depressed when she heard this. She thought about having a knife pull on her stomach and felt very uncomfortable. She could not help but mutter under her breath, "I used to have a birthmark on my face. Later, when I went to the hospital to remove the birthmark, I had to pull a knife on my stomach. Now, I... Could it be that I was born with a knife on my stomach?"

Dongfang Mo could not help but laugh when he heard her words. He then comforted her in a low voice, "wife, seeing that you might have to suffer a knife in order to give birth to two babies, I have decided to make it up to you."

"make it up to you?" Mu Ru raised her head, her eyes shining with a golden light. "How are you going to make it up to me? Did you promise me to remove the diamonds on the wedding rings?"

They had found their wedding rings, but Mu Ru said that she didn't like the diamonds on them. They were too dazzling. She said that real life was plain and simple, so she strongly requested Dongfang Mo to remove the diamonds from the rings and only wear the Rings.

However, Dongfang Mo refused. He said that it was their wedding ring and that it should be the same as before. Besides, what's wrong with diamonds. Diamonds were the hardest material, many times harder than gold.

Why did they put diamonds on the gold ring. It was to describe a person's feelings as harder and more solid than gold. This was the symbol of 'love is stronger than gold'.

Mu Ru immediately mocked back without hesitation. She said, "Dongfang Mo, the person you married back then was Xi Muxue. The person you want to put on this ring is also Xi Muxue. If you insist on keeping the diamond on this ring..." "If you want the symbol of love being stronger than gold, then you'd better wear it with Xi Muxue. I'm just a substitute."

"Besides, my love might not even be as strong as gold, so it's even stronger than saying that love is stronger than gold. If you don't treat me well, I might very soon fall in love with someone else. So, I won't wear a wedding ring that's stronger than gold. My Love isn't that strong."

Dongfang Mo immediately stopped chewing and quietly put away the wedding rings. He did not ask her to wear a wedding ring anymore.

At this moment, Mu Ru asked him if he had removed the diamond from the wedding ring, but he did not say anything. He just took out a newspaper from behind and handed it to her. "There's a meteor shower next Wednesday. It's said to be a waterfall meteor shower that can only be seen once in 60 years. Do you want to go and see it?"

Meteor shower. Mu Ru couldn't help but think back to when she was young. Whenever there was a meteor shower, Xi Muxue would always ask her mother to bring her to the top of the tallest building in Binhai. However, she had never been there once.

Later, in Korea, there was also a meteor shower. At that time, Che Qixuan even bought high-powered binoculars and said that he would bring her and Little Feather to see it. However, on the night of the meteor shower, Little Feather got sick, so when there was a meteor shower in the sky.. She had brought Little Feather to the hospital for an IV drip, so she naturally missed it.

She had thought that she would never have the chance to see a meteor shower in her life, so she had automatically blocked the word meteor shower in recent years. She did not expect that Dongfang Mo would talk about meteor showers to her now.

Therefore, she nodded without hesitation. "Yes, of course I want to. In my life, my greatest wish is to see a meteor shower, my greatest wish..."

Mu Ru did not continue speaking until this point, but in her heart, she quietly said, "my greatest wish is to be able to see a meteor shower with the person I love."

Seeing that she had stopped, Dongfang Mo did not ask any further questions. Instead, he reached out and pulled her into his embrace. He lowered his head slightly and pressed his face against hers. He whispered in her ear, "Mu Ru, my greatest wish in my life is to watch a meteor shower that is hard to come by in 60 years with the woman I love."

Mu Ru's face could not help but turn red. She could not help but feel hot. She was about to say that he was being pretentious, but before she could open her mouth, she heard Dongfang Mo ask in a low voice, "wife, it is said that wishes made under a meteor shower can be fulfilled, right?"

Mu Ru was touched by his gentleness at this moment and could not help but nod her head. "Yes, it is said that this is the case, but I have never experienced it personally."

"I have never experienced it personally either," Dongfang Mo immediately said happily. "Why don't we take advantage of this waterfall meteor shower that is hard to come by in 60 years to experience it personally?"

Experience it personally Mu Ru looked at her bulging belly and raised her head slightly to look at him. She could not help but remind him in a low voice, "Dongfang Mo, next Wednesday, I am already 36 weeks pregnant, and I will be entering the perinatal period at 37 weeks. With my big belly, will it work?"

"Of course," Dongfang Mo answered with certainty.

"But there are many people watching the meteor shower," Mu ru reminded a certain man who was dreaming again. "especially on the high mountains and the tallest buildings, it's usually crowded."

"I'm only going to experience it with you." Dongfang Mo smiled and pinched her chubby face. "I'm not willing to experience it with everyone."

Mu Ru's eyes widened when she heard his words. She could not help but touch his forehead with her hand and asked in a low voice, "Dongfang Mo, you don't have a fever, right?"

Dongfang Mo smiled and removed her hand from his forehead. Then, he said to her gently, "wife, just wait patiently and watch the meteor shower with me. You don't have to worry about anything else."

Mu Ru immediately fell silent. She thought to herself, I'm 36 weeks pregnant. Even if I want to worry about it, I probably won't be able to. Forget it, I'll just wait patiently for the waterfall meteor shower.

At the beginning of December, snowflakes were dancing in the north. However, the winter in the south was similar to the autumn in the north. However, there were only golden fallen leaves and brilliant sunlight. All kinds of autumn and winter flowers were still competing to bloom.

In fact, there had been meteor showers in the past few days, but they were not very big. According to astronomical predictions, tonight's meteor shower would be the largest waterfall meteor shower. It was estimated that the peak of the hourly flow would reach thousands of meteors. If they missed it, they would have to wait another 60 years Therefore, tonight was anticipated by many astronomy enthusiasts.

Of course, Dongfang Mo and Xi Muru were not astronomy enthusiasts. They were real meteor shower enthusiasts. Therefore, Dongfang Mo was naturally well-prepared for tonight.

Actually, Dongfang Mo's preparations did not start just a week ago. As far as two months ago, he had already planned in secret. At that time, he wanted to plan a unique but rather unique proposal.

He owed Xi Muru a marriage proposal. He had never forgotten this. Although he and Xi Muru had held an unprecedented wedding before, of course, Xi Muru was still wearing Xi Muxue's name at that wedding.

Xi Muru wasn't willing to hold another wedding with him. She said that once was enough. Moreover, they already had three children, so why would they hold a wedding? Even if they did, it would probably look like a second wedding.

Alright, it was fine if she wasn't willing to hold a wedding, but he had to make up for her proposal. He had to get her to agree to marry him willingly.

Ning Sicheng said that the scene where Qiao Feifan and Tan Xiaosu proposed to each other was very novel. They used anime to recreate the scene where they met, met, fell in love, and eventually became husband and wife. It touched everyone. Of course, it also touched Tan Xiaosu.

Dongfang Mo immediately said that this method was good, but Qiao Feifan had already used it. If he used it again, it would be suspected of plagiarism. He had to find another way.

Finding another way was easy to say, but it was extraordinarily difficult to do. The whole city was filled with roses, cruise ship proposals, light balloon proposals, and so on.

Everyone had come up with many ideas, but none of them were in line with Dongfang Mo's wishes. Every one of them sounded vulgar to him, and they were all things that everyone could think of. What he wanted was not something common, but something different.

The reason why he wanted to be different was because he felt that his wife, Xi Muru, was originally different from the rest, and the marriage proposal that he gave her had to be extraordinary as well.

Chapter 949 love is a superstition of the right time and place

The best place to see a meteor shower in Binhai was not the top floor of a 75-story commercial building. This was because the commercial building was located in the middle of the downtown area, surrounded by all kinds of tall buildings. Although it was less than 73 stories, it was not much different from standing on it. It was no different from standing in a forest of steel and cement.

Therefore, the top floor of the commercial building was first destroyed by Dongfang Mo. Then, he looked at a higher place, which was the highest mountain in Binhai, Mount Wutong.

Actually, it was not a difficult task to go up Mount Wutong to watch the meteor shower. One only needed to start climbing the mountain in the afternoon. Normally, it would take four to five hours to reach the top of the mountain.

However, Xi Muru was pregnant, and she was pregnant with twins. She was already 36 weeks pregnant. Not to mention climbing the mountain, it was already very difficult for her to even walk on the level road.

Therefore, two months ago, Dongfang Mo had ordered people to build a cable car on Mount Wutong for him and Xi Muru to watch the waterfall meteor shower that was hard to come by in 60 years.

The News of the cable car being built on Mount Wutong had been kept a secret until this morning when it was published in all the major newspapers. A group of children who were waiting to watch the meteor shower were overjoyed. Everyone said that they would go to Mount Wutong to watch the meteor shower tonight. Moreover, they would no longer have to climb the mountain for a few hours like they did in previous years.

This news spread throughout Binhai in just a day, but it did not reach Xi Muru's ears because the pregnant woman had not read the newspapers in the past few days. Moreover, there were no newspapers delivered from one inch ink city today.

In the evening, Dongfang Mo brought Xi Muru out and drove straight to the foot of Wutong Mountain. Mu Ru could not help but shout in a low voice, "Dongfang Mo, where are you going? Didn't you say you were going to watch the waterfall meteor shower?"

"Yes," Dongfang Mo answered naturally as he drove. He turned to look at her and said, "Isn't the best place to watch the meteor shower in Binhai the peak of Wutong Mountain?"

"The best place to watch the meteor shower in Binhai is indeed the peak of Wutong Mountain," Mu ru nodded and admitted. Then, she carefully reminded him, "Dongfang Mo, even if I'm not pregnant and can't climb up the mountain, if we only go out at this time, the meteor shower will probably be over by the time we reach the peak."

"..." Dongfang Mo silently smiled. He reached out and gently patted the back of her hand. "Don't worry, honey. I'll definitely have a way to get you to the peak. I'll definitely be able to experience the feeling of making a wish under the meteor shower with you."

When their car stopped at the foot of Wutong Mountain, the foot of Wutong Mountain was already filled with people. A Hao and his men had been waiting here for a long time. When they saw the two of them coming, they immediately had people separate a wide sidewalk from the crowd.

Dongfang Mo held mu Ru's hand and walked slowly through the human wall that was separated by the two men in black holding hands. At that moment, the originally noisy surroundings instantly became silent. Everyone looked at the plump woman with Envy and Jealousy. It was a plump pregnant woman with many pregnancy spots on her face.

The cable car was waiting there quietly. Of course, the tickets for the cable car had already been sold out. However, the cable car did not open immediately because it was waiting for Dongfang Mo and Xi Muru to move in first.

Mu Ru looked at the cable car and could not help but exclaim, "heavens, there's actually a cable car on Mount Wutong. Is this place going to be developed into a tourist attraction? WHO's so smart? They actually came all the way to Mount Wutong?"

Chapter 950 love was the reincarnation of three lives and three lifetimes

Three black lines immediately appeared on Dongfang Mo's forehead. He could not help but snort in his heart. Developing Mount Wutong into a tourist attraction seemed like a good idea, but —

He had decided to build a cable car here two months ago, but it was not to develop tourist attractions here. He just wanted to bring his beloved woman to the top of Mount Wutong to watch a meteor shower that was hard to come by in 60 years.

The cable car that had been quiet all this time finally met its first two guests. The staff quickly opened the cable car. Dongfang held Mu Ru's hand, and with the help of the staff, the two of them smoothly sat in the meaningful cable car No. 19.

Because Xi Muru was pregnant, the cable car drove extremely slowly. Sitting in the air was like sitting in a ferris wheel, and it did not have the feeling of a ferris wheel spinning. It just quietly moved upward.

Mu Ru looked out of the window. Actually, because it was already night, the surroundings of Wutong Mountain were very dark. It was almost impossible to see anything. However, as the cable car rose higher, the tall buildings in the city center became clearer.

Finally, they reached the top of the mountain. There were already people waiting there. When they saw their car, they immediately came to open the car door for them and reached out to help mu ru.

The empty area on the top of the mountain had already been tidied up. In front of a Beige Round Tea table, two similarly beige chairs were placed side by side. On the table, there were many blue enchantresses scattered about The Blue Petals were still dripping with dew, emitting a charming fragrance in the evening wind.

Beside the blue enchantress, a Juglar champagne was awakened at the right time. Two Crystal Goblets were quietly leaning against the champagne side by side, waiting for the red liquid to be injected into their bodies.

Mu Ru looked at this scene and was slightly stunned. She vaguely guessed something, so the corner of her mouth could not help but pull up a smile. She slowly walked over and sat down on the White Chair.

Just as she sat down, Dongfang Mo had already come over to open the bottle and pour the wine. Mu Ru looked at the brown liquid slowly pouring into the originally crystal clear glass, and a warm current seemed to flow slowly in her heart A strange feeling overflowed from the bottom of her heart, and the corner of her mouth unconsciously curved to both sides.

And at this time, behind them, the once popular song about the meteor shower suddenly rang out:

The gentle starry sky / should make you moved / I am by your side / setting up a sky for you

Don't allow you to be sad / help you settle your loneliness / The weight of Your Dreams / leave it all to me

Hold your hand / follow me / So what if the wind is strong / You have me / you will never lose your way again

Accompany you to see the meteor shower fall on this earth / let your tears fall on my shoulder / I want you to believe that my love is only willing to be brave for you / you will see where happiness lies... ..

Amidst the beautiful and moving song, Mu Ru took the champagne Dongfang Mo handed over and took a sip in satisfaction Then, she laughed softly, "Don't tell me you want to take out your diamonds later to compete with the meteor shower If that's the case, I think it's better for you to take them out earlier.

Otherwise, when the meteor shower comes later, I probably won't have the time to look at your diamonds."

The corners of Dongfang Mo's mouth curved slightly and he smiled a little embarrassedly. He said softly, "what diamonds do I have? Aren't my diamonds in the sky? I'll share them with you later?"
