

Noble Husband At the Door Chapter 131

He Ting was evacuating her things in the room. When she saw Samuel coming back, she said, "Samuel, I don't wish to make it challenging for you. Thank you for assisting me so much."

" Auntie He, did you forget what happened in the human market today? If you do not refute what you did refrain, who can help you? As well as where can you go? Where can you locate your little girl's living costs? Exists anyone in the human market that will hire you?" Samuel claimed. Her face was additionally injured, and also it was inflamed. It was difficult for a woman to do that with her toughness. It needs to be Godfrey that defeated her.

Her daughter's living expenditures had struck the nail on the head. What she feared the most was that she wouldn't have the ability to hand over a single cent when her little girl called.

" I do not understand what's taking place either. She had an injury on her face when she got house," He Ting claimed.

" Follow me out." Samuel stated.

He Ting complied with Samuel to the living room.

" Auntie He said that when you came back, you had an injury on your face. Samuel's face was bleak to the extreme. He brought He Ting back.

" Samuel, how attempt you call my name?" Lydia instantly stood as well as pointed angrily at Samuel.

Yvonne considered Samuel's gloomy face as well as felt scared for the very first time. She understood that he was truly angry.

" Mother, that hit you as well as you must look for him for revenge. Why do you want to wrong Auntie He? Have you become so unreasonable currently?" Yvonne stated.

No matter just how bold He Ting was, she could not have actually defeated Lydia. With Lydia's mood, if she had actually truly been beaten by He Ting, she would have currently beaten her.

" Lydia, tell me swiftly, that beat you up?" Godfrey asked.

" What's wrong? Are you doubting me now and also trusting an outsider?" Lydia wondered about the three of them in a sanctimonious manner.

" It doesn't matter if you do not wish to state it. I'll ask the Ministry of Internal Matters to monitor it and also see if your injury goes to residence or revived from outside," Samuel stated as well as secured the phone.

As quickly as she listened to that he required to look at the surveillance video clip, she recognized that it would certainly be exposed. Lydia started to panic.

Muffling the ground, Lydia used her last resort, which was to sob as well as humiliate herself.

" I don't want to live anymore. Just how can you rely on outsiders and also do not trust me? I'm from this household, and she's simply a servant. Do you still have a principles?" Lydia sobbed and complained.

Samuel looked at her coldly as well as stayed unmoved.

" You still have an opportunity to tell the truth. If you insist on bringing difficulty to the property management division, you will lose face a lot more," Samuel claimed coldly.

" Yes, I was defeated outside, not by her. What? Do you want to defeat me? Just kill me, and also I'll get the knife for you." Lydia resembled a rogue, almost rolling on the ground.

" You ..." Godfrey was so mad that his scalp was numb. It didn't matter if he mistreated He Ting, yet he still put He Ting in the face. What should he do?

Lydia had experienced the whole thing, yet she did not stop him. Had not been that placing him in an unjustified position?

Are you my guy or not? Lydia roared.

Samuel said, "You two, say sorry to Auntie He."

" Bullshit. Why should I ask forgiveness to a servant? Samuel, do you understand what benefits you? I'm your mom," Lydia stated.

Samuel eyed Yvonne. In the past, in order to look after Yvonne's sensations, he could have let it go. But if Lydia continued to be arrogant, Samuel would not be able to do it.

" It's alright if you do not apologize. Leave this home today. It's my house!"
