

Noble Husband At the Door Chapter 154

"If Sir Du is in a hard position, then I will not ask," Yvonne said.

Du Hong responded and also stated, "Miss Sue, if you have any inquiries, go ask your pal. I actually can't inform you."

According to the contract, Du Hong assured to lend it to Yvonne as soon as possible, so Yvonne left.

" There will certainly be numerous business that are disappointed with me this time around." Du Hong can visualize that he would certainly be turned down by those companies in the future. He had no option but to concur to this.

" Brother Du, we have such a big consumer in our hands, and also the development of the Sue Household in the future is not simple. Those little fish and shrimps, why do you care?" the supervisor stated.

Du Hong smiled as well as stated, "That holds true. That is this individual? Is there such a rich person in our Cloud City?"

" Bro Du, his name is Samuel. Do you want to check it out?" the supervisor stated.

Du Hong's brows furrowed. All of a sudden, he claimed in surprise, "Samuel, the well known loser son-in-law of the Sue family.

The supervisor was stunned. Although she had actually currently known Samuel's name, she did not consider it at all. How could a male who possessed tens of billions of cash be the son-in-law of the Sue household?

" Du ... Sibling Du, it can't be. He, he is a good-for-nothing, isn't he?" The manager claimed incredulously.

Du Hong trembled his head with a sigh and claimed, "I do not understand. Possibly they are not the very same people. After all, the Sue family never ever takes that good-for-nothing son-in-law seriously. If it were truly the same individual, how could Samuel help the Sue family members?"

The manager likewise agreed with this statement and nodded.

Yvonne did not return to the firm, yet returned to Hill Suite. She intended to share the good news with Samuel, but when she came to eviction of the villa, she understood that Samuel had actually already recognized the result. There was absolutely nothing to show to him.

Yvonne still desired to ask why Du Hong would do such a huge favor.

" Yvonne, why did you return so very early today?" Lydia was really stunned to see Yvonne coming home.

" Mom, where is Samuel?" Yvonne asked.

Lydia pulled Yvonne to sit down on the sofa as well as stated, "I have actually talked to Samuel. He agrees to change the name of the suite to your own. You should hurry and do it with him."

Yvonne's face fell when she heard that. "Mommy, is this why you left Samuel in the house?"

" Exactly how is it? Am I excellent?" Lydia stated happily.

" Mama, I won't approve it," Yvonne claimed coldly.

It took me a great deal of initiative to make him agree. Lydia placed her hands on her waist and claimed discontentedly. She thought that if she intimidated Yvonne in this method, Yvonne would absolutely compromise.

Samuel's significance to this family was self-evident. Without him, Yvonne might not have actually been the person in charge of the project in the west of the city, let alone get a finance of one billion today. Whether it was a suite or a separation, Yvonne could not have done it.

In addition, even if these points had not taken place, Yvonne had actually already faced her innermost sensations and wouldn't have separated Samuel.

" Okay," Yvonne stated without hesitation, stood, and also walked towards the room.

Lydia was shocked. She endangered Yvonne by doing this, however she didn't jeopardize.

"Yvonne, stop right there." Lydia claimed in a loud voice, "Do you turn nose up at me currently?"

"Mommy, you're being unreasonable. Do I have to keep you business? I have actually already made myself clear. I hope you do not believe excessive regarding it. Why do not you simply leave?" Yvonne stated indifferently.

"You ..." Lydia pointed at Yvonne as well as was so mad that she could not speak.
