

NINE STAR HEGEMON BODY ARTS Chapter 965

“Xiaoqian!”

Although she wore a white veil, that pair of beautiful eyes could steal a person’s soul. With that lithe figure that seemed to have come out of a painting, who else could it be but Yue Xiaoqian? Long Chen was delighted and surprised.

“Long Chen, this is aunt Yu.” Yue Xiaoqian was also delighted to see Long Chen. But she first politely introduced a woman beside her.

This woman appeared to be in her late twenties. Tall and with a high bun, she wore majestic robes that gave her an indescribable grace.

“Junior Long Chen greets aunt Yu.” Long Chen hastily bowed. It seemed this was Yue Xiaoqian’s family elder, so he had to be careful.

“You are Long Chen? As expected, you have some skills. No wonder my family’s sacred daughter would be seduced...” Aunt Yu laughed without the slightest arrogance, seeming extremely satisfied with Long Chen.

“Aunt Yu, you...” Yue Xiaoqian turned red, clearly not having expected her to be so direct.

“Hehe, aunt Yu overpraises me. Junior... I dare not accept such praise.” In Long Chen’s excitement, he almost called himself junior brother. That would be too embarrassing.

Aunt Yu said, “There’s no need to be embarrassed. I’m not going to butt into the affairs of youngsters. Long Chen, Yue Xiaoqian praised you into the heavens within the clan. I’m just here to help her seal the deal.”

“Aunt Yu, if you don’t stop, I’ll...!” Yue Xiaoqian’s face was too thin compared to Long Chen. She couldn’t bear it.

“Alright, fine. Then let’s get to the point.” Aunt Yu stopped teasing Yue Xiaoqian. She waved her hand, and Long Chen felt heaven and earth twist. An unknown energy separated them from the rest of the world.

Long Chen was shocked. Just what level of expert was this aunt Yu? How could she be so terrifying? Just what energy was this?

It wasn’t teleportation. They seemed to be within the chaotic flow of space, and he was unable to see anything outside. It was just the three of them within this strange space.

“Long Chen, I represent the original devil race in expressing our sincere thanks.” Aunt Yu bowed deeply toward him.

Long Chen hastily bowed back, saying, “Aunt Yu, I can’t accept such a thing.”

"You can. Our original devil race owes you far too much. To tell you the truth, the original devil race has currently been forced to the brink of death. If there still wasn't a change, we really might have ended up exterminated," sighed aunt Yu.

Long chen shook his head. "The only reason I did what I did was for myself. Our cooperation is mutually beneficial, so there's no debt to owe."

Aunt Yu smiled slightly. "Xiaoqian has told me about your matters. I came over this time to see if you needed any help with anything. If you have any troubles you can't resolve, I can help you."

Long Chen's heart shook. He knew she meant that if he had any opponents he couldn't handle, she could help him.

"I don't have any right now, but I definitely will in the future. I'm very confident in my ability to cause trouble." Long Chen patted his chest confidently. "Did you bring the list?"

"We did, but... there's a lot on it," said Yue Xiaoqian awkwardly.

The Skyscraping World's resources were limited, and they were lacking a great deal. Although this list only contained the things they urgently needed, there were hundreds of them on it. That made Yue Xiaoqian feel uneasy.

Long Chen looked over the list and saw the majority of them were medicinal pills. He couldn't help but ask, "The original devil race doesn't have any medicinal pills?"

"Yes. That's why medicinal pills are the things we need urgently. Many people have been stuck at bottlenecks for too long without being able to break through. There are also some who ended up with problems while advancing and left flaws on their foundations. If those flaws aren't repaired, it will gravely affect their future advancements," said Yue Xiaoqian worriedly. This matter was incredibly important to the original devil race.

Medicinal pills in general were extremely important to cultivators. Otherwise, Pill Valley wouldn't possess such a high position. The entire cultivation world depended on them.

"Long Chen, although it's a bit much..." Yue Xiaoqian sobbed. Only once she had gone back to get this list did she learn a few secrets.

The original devil race had too many people, and because they didn't have medicinal pills to assist them, problems would occasionally occur in people's cultivation. Those people would be tormented by pain all day, and some even became bedeviled and needed to be sealed.

She hadn't known about that last time, but when she brought back quite a few medicinal pills, the entire original devil race had celebrated. Only then had she known how much pain the original devil race had been in.

"Leave it to me. Medicinal pills aren't a problem for me," said Long Chen.

“Thank you.” Yue Xiaoqian couldn't help being surprised by how confident he was. Hearing his promise, she was relieved. Right now, she understood what kind of person Long Chen was. He never promised anything he wasn't assured of.

“However, the quantity is too great. I'll need some time,” said Long Chen.

“No problem, no problem. We'll just wait,” said Yue Xiaoqian hastily.

Long Chen pondered it for a moment. “How about this? Let's first handle the urgent cases. Right now, the Xuantian Dao Sect has had a falling out with Pill Valley, so buying medicinal pills from them would be difficult. But I have some back channels.”

Yue Xiaoqian and aunt Yu's expressions changed slightly upon hearing that the Xuantian Dao Sect had had a falling out with Pill Valley. They both knew medicinal pills were provided by Pill Valley.

“What back channels?” asked Yue Xiaoqian.

“I'll go get some healing medicinal pills from the Huayun Sect and buy a few more from other sects. Those pills will be for those with the worst problems. Then I'll cooperate with the Huayun Sect. I'll give them pill formulas and have them refine a huge amount of healing pills. Once all your people are better, they can then refine other pills for you, such as those for cultivation. The Eastern Wasteland is basically dominated by the Xuantian Dao Sect now. The Corrupt path is heavily injured, and the ancient races don't dare to make a move.

“During this time, you can establish a secret base. On the surface, you'll be engaging in some minor business, but in reality, I'll have the Xuantian Dao Sect and Huayun Sect open back channels for you. With the two of them supporting you, no one will dare to provoke you. It would be best if your business involves rare things that few others are involved in. The fewer your customers, the better. It would also be best if your business is the kind that only reveals itself every few years. You understand what I'm saying, right?” said Long Chen.

“I understand.” Aunt Yu nodded. Before coming, she and Yue Xiaoqian had been a bit nervous, as this matter involved the future of the entire original devil race. But this quick analysis of Long Chen's easily resolved the problems that had been crushing down upon her like a mountain.

They were both delighted. Furthermore, Long Chen talked like they were one family, making them feel even closer.

“We shouldn't delay things. Let's split up. I'll go notify the Huayun Sect, and on the way, I'll use the sect master's name to gather medicinal pills. Aunt Yu, you go and find a suitable city. Buy a plot of land and establish a stronghold. Also have a few of your race's clever people come to manage it. If you don't have anything to do, you should also temporarily oversee it just to be safe,” said Long Chen.

Aunt Yu was surprised by how completely Long Chen handled things. She couldn't help but feel a kind of admiration. With him present, she no longer had to worry about anything.

“I'll accompany Long Chen here. Aunt Yu, you can go first,” said Yue Xiaoqian. But looking at aunt Yu's teasing smile, she blushed. “I'm just trying to support Long Chen.”

Even once aunt Yu left, Yue Xiaoqian continued blushing. Long Chen took a deep breath and brought her into the mountain cave. It was time to face what he had to face.

“This must be junior sister Xiaoqian, right? Long Chen always talks about you.” When he returned to the cave, he saw that Meng Qi and Tang Wan-er were already awake and guarding the entrance for everyone else. Meng Qi was the first to speak.

“I... I’m Xiaoqian. Greetings, big sisters,” said Yue Xiaoqian nervously. She hastily bowed toward the two of them.

“Good sister. Let’s sit and talk. Long Chen, there’s nothing here for you, so you can scam. Don’t eavesdrop on us sisters.” Tang Wan-er glared at Long Chen.

Being glared at by Tang Wan-er, Long Chen’s worried heart instantly relaxed. He felt incredibly grateful to Meng Qi. He knew that Meng Qi had long since explained things to Tang Wan-er. Tang Wan-er was naturally a jealous person, but as long as she didn’t explode at the start, it meant things were going very smoothly. Thinking of when they could all finally be together, his expression became absent-minded.

“Wipe away your saliva and go. We sisters have important things to discuss,” said Meng Qi. She understood Long Chen far too well, and she pushed him off.

Long Chen was incredibly excited. A weight that had been resting on him was finally lifted, and he felt full of energy. He gathered all the workers’ sect leaders and gave them a list of medicinal pills he urgently needed.

Seeing Long Chen converse with them, those sect leaders were incredibly excited. They all ordered disciples to go back to their sects and bring all their stores of those medicinal pills.

Their enthusiasm was at a level that shocked Long Chen, and their efficiency made him speechless. On the very next day, countless pills appeared in front of him.

Long Chen directly gave them three times the money that Pill Valley would sell them at. Although quite a few said that they didn’t want his money, Long Chen still gave it to them. He didn’t like owing favors.

Half a day later, aunt Yu returned here. She was also extremely efficient. The stronghold was already established and only required her to send some people to run it.

When Long Chen gave her a huge pile of medicinal pills, she was indescribably grateful. She directly left for the Skyscraping World. Saving her people was the most pressing thing.

After sending off aunt Yu, Long Chen once more had a meeting with Zheng Wenlong. When he mentioned he wanted to cooperate in terms of alchemy, Zheng Wenlong became ecstatic. The profit from medicinal pills was the greatest in this world.

Long Chen gave Zheng Wenlong over ten medicinal pill formulas in one go. They were all pills that didn’t exist in the outside world. Pill Valley had never sold them, and their medicinal effect was extremely great. Zheng Wenlong almost fainted from joy.

Last time he had cooperated with Long Chen like this, he had earned a hefty sum. Even now, money was flowing into his pockets.

Armed with these new medicinal pills, Zheng Wenlong promised to properly use them and give a fierce slap to Pill Valley's face.
