

Now And Forever 351

Chapter 351 Why Is This Person Here

The interaction between Emily and Henry was not too intimate, nor was there any inappropriate behavior.

However, the two people were clearly lovers.

Henry supported Emily and sat aside, sitting with Lois.

After Emily sat down, her hand and Lois's hand were held together tightly.

It had been more than two hours, the door of the operating room was still tightly closed, and no doctor came in halfway.

No one knew what was going on inside, everyone's heart had been hanging on a rope.

But Sally's parents were still thinking about how they could get acquainted with Henry.

This was a very rare opportunity, not only could they meet Henry, but they could also talk to him.

They didn't want to miss the opportunity.

It was not easy to meet such a powerful person like Henry.

Blair and Rosalie looked at each other, and after pondering for a while, Rosalie quietly pushed Blair again.

Blair plucked up the courage and walked to Henry, and he made a flattering smile.

"Mr. Henry, in order to thank you for helping our Sally, we hope that we can invite you to dinner. Tonight will be a good time..."

“Your daughter is still here in danger. And you want to invite me to dinner now?”

Henry did not expect that there were such shameless parents in this world!

Sally usually looked carefree; she was always a very optimistic and very sunny girl.

Unexpectedly, she grew up in such an environment.

It was hard to associate her optimism and cheerfulness with such a family.

“I... am also very anxious, but we can't control this matter...”

“Oh, of course we are worried about Sally.” Rosalie immediately grabbed Blair.

It seemed that Henry and Sally had a good relationship; it was probably because of Emily.

Now, they were afraid that they had to establish a good relationship with Emily before they could win over Henry's heart.

Rosalie wanted to sit down beside Emily, but there were other girls beside Emily.

For a while, she couldn't talk to Emily at all, so she could only pull Blair aside and keep quiet.

They had to wait to see what would happen to Sally before making a decision.

After another hour, the lights in the operating room suddenly dimmed.

Emily breathed nervously and stood up abruptly.

She didn't know if it was because of sitting for too long. When she got up, her legs were numb and she almost couldn't stand firrnly.

Henry helped her and walked quickly to the doctor.

"Who is Sally's family member?"

"I am. I am her father!" Blair went over immediately.

After all, she was his own daughter, and his daughter was so dangerous now that he was actually really worried.

The doctor said, "The patient's condition is not optimistic. Although the operation was successful, her brain was severely injured.

She is currently going to the ICU and I don't know when she will wake up."

"In other words, even if you transfer her to the ICU, you are not sure she can wake up?"

When Rosalie thought about it, she suddenly hesitated.

"This...how long does it take to stay in the ICU?"

"It's still not certain, maybe she will wake up in a few days, maybe half a month, even a month..."

"Could she always be unable to wake up?" Rosalie felt cold.

This was the second best hospital in Bentson City. The cost of staying in the ICU for a day was not low.

Although the Cox family could afford the money, their business was really not so good recently.

If she couldn't wake up in a month, then they would lose a lot of money.

Emily looked at Rosalie's expression, and the desolation in her heart became more profound.

Her parents might do the same if she was injured.

If they had to spend a lot of money, they would not necessarily save her. Maybe the people in her family wouldn't be willing to give her the only chance of survival, either.

Her lips trembled a little, and her heart trembled.

Money didn't seem to be so important at usual.

But when something critical occurred, it was all about money.

"Doctors..."

"Then transfer her to the ICU, as long as it is good for the patient, any method can be used."

Henry glanced at Ashton, and Ashton immediately said, "I'll arrange the treatment fee, and the doctor must use the best way to make the patient get better."

"We can only do our best." The doctor nodded and went in again.

After a while, a few people directly pushed Sally into the ICU from inside.

They were outside of the operation room and couldn't even see Sally.

Henry held Emily's hand, only to realize that her hands were so cold.

Rosalie and Blair had nothing to say, Sally had been transferred to the ICU, and the situation had been stabilized.

Since she was sent to the ICU, it was useless for them to stay, and there was no way to see the patient.

So... Rosalie pushed Blair again.

Blair walked over and brought up the old topic again, "Mr. Henry..."

"Fk off"

Henry really didn't want to see these two people again!

Their daughter was sent to the ICU. Even the doctor didn't know whether she could wake up or not,

What were these two people thinking?

Blair was taken aback and blushed suddenly.

Rosalie held her breath in her chest.

Although they were nobody, but Henry was being too rude!

And wasn't Emily a classmate of Sally?

Now she was Henry, and she was so disrespectful to them. She was so shameless!

"Mr. Henry, we have to remind you that Emily has been with Mr. Hunter before, you..."

Ashton came over immediately and stood in front of Henry and Emily.

“If you don’t have anything to do, please go away!”

“You... who are you? This is not your place!”

After being driven away twice in a row, Rosalie was pissed off.

“Henry, I’m telling the truth. She has been with Young Master Hunter. Everybody knows it. What are you going to do with this kind of woman?”

Emily was expressionless, and Lois’s eyes turned red with anger!

She couldn’t help but pointed at Rosalie, “Sally was still in a comma, you guys...you guys are so shameless!”

Joe was by the side, always holding his notebook to do things, and gradually a trace of disbelief appeared on that pale face.

There was a problem with the security cam of the mall, and Ashton’s people couldn’t get the footage, but he could!

Although it didn’t show everything that had happened up there, a little bit of the picture was enough to help him capture something.

That person... that person...

“Emily, Lois, she...”

Emily glanced over and saw the freeze frame on the screen.

Kate! Today, Kate was in the mall!

The most important thing was that she had actually been to the seventh floor and appeared near the place where Sally's accident happened!

Why did Sally go to the seventh floor for no reason?

Why did Kate go to the seventh floor where almost all the facades were closed today?

Could it be that Sally's accident had something to do with her?

Chapter 352 She Was Clearly Hiding So...

"Ashton, ask someone to investigate immediately where Kate is now."

Henry knew this person; she was Emily's father's current wife.

Henry knew about her family better than anyone else.

After a short while, Ashton put down his phone, frowned and said, "Master, Kate has gone abroad."

"Abroad?" But if she really had something to do with it, then it would explain why she had gone abroad.

"Yes, she left this afternoon."

Ashton would tell them what he had received.

"She went to City L in the afternoon, and then left directly from City L. The record showed that she went to City Z, but they did not have her entry record at City Z."

In other words, her trace was completely hidden.

As for where she was hidden, they hadn't been able to find out yet.

It was definitely not an ordinary person who could help her do all this.

"She is clearly hiding something!" Lois stood up abruptly, feeling anxious, "Sally's accident must have something to do with her.

Henry, should we call the police?"

"The case has been placed on file at the police station, and they will investigate it."

Ashton knew that they were anxious, but now, they had no evidence to deal with Kate.

Things had to be done step by step.

After all, the picture that Joe had restored couldn't prove that the matter was definitely related to Kate.

Kate and Sally were not the only people who had been to the seventh floor.

Many people also went up because they wanted to see the layout on the seventh floor.

In short, they didn't have enough evidence to prove that Kate was the one who did it.

But Kate went abroad at that time. She was clearly hiding something.

Emily squeezed her fist, stood up suddenly, and walked to the elevator.

Henry chased her and tried to pull her back, "Are you going to find Wendy?"

Kate was Wendy's mother. Kate's stuff was probably related to Wendy.

“There isn’t any bad history between her and Sally at all. It is impossible for her to attack Sally for no reason.”

Emily looked at him and bit her lip, “If it is really her who hurt Sally , it is definitely related to Wendy.”

After Sally’s accident, she had been suppressing her emotions.

But at this moment, she could no longer hold it back.

Sally was an innocent little girl who had nothing to do with them. What impact could she have on Wendy?

But in her past life, Sally was kidnapped, raped and killed. It was definitely related to Wendy.

In this life, something happened to Sally, and Wendy’s mother was on the scene.

Emily knew that there was no proof to all her speculations.

However, she just believed that it must have something to do with Wendy!

She needed to find out exactly where Kate went. She wanted to find Kate and ask what she did to Sally.

“Emily, don’t be impulsive.”

“No, she was not being impulsive. We must find out who did this!” Lois clenched her fist.

No matter what, they must find Kate first.

Henry knew that it would not be easy to stop them this time.

They were good friends, and Sally’s condition was not clear yet. If Kate really did that, they would even have the urge to kill Kate!

If it were him, he would probably be more impulsive than them!

They hurriedly left in anger.

Blair and Rosalie who stayed behind had no idea what had happened.

“Look, Emily said that we don’t care about Sally, but what about her?”

Rosalie looked at the empty elevator entrance with a look of disdain.

“Isn’t she running away now? It is so shameless of to blame others. Is she really your daughter’s friend?”

Blair had no idea. He just knew that he couldn’t stop them if they wanted to go!

“Anyway, they are just a bunch of unscrupulous people. And you thought they really cared about Sally.

In fact, they don’t give a damn! Bah!”

Rosalie thought for a while, and suddenly remembered something, “What did they just say? They are going to find Wendy? Is that Wendy who is with Master Hunter now?”

“How would I know?” Blair didn’t care about the gossip of those celebrities.

But Rosalie usually paid attention to it. The fight between the Gale sisters for Hunter caused such a fuss in Bentson City, how could she not hear it?

She suddenly curled her lips and smiled: “To put it bluntly, although Henry is great, he is still not as powerful as Hunter.”

“Since we can’t be friends with Henry, it’s good to get close to Hunter.”

She took out the phone and searched for a long time before finding out a useful number.

“What are you going to do?” Blair frowned.

In fact, Sally was still in the ICU and he was really in a bad mood.

“Of course I’m doing useful things. I’m nothing like you. You always sit around doing nothing.”

Rosalie always looked down on her husband; she hummed and put on the phone, “Hello, Mrs. Young, do you know Miss Wendy from the Gale family?”

“Oh, nothing, I just have something about Emily that I want to tell Miss Wendy, um, that’s good...”

When Emily found Wendy, Wendy was shopping in another mall.

Patriarch Gale was in the lounge, and Wendy was trying on clothes in the store alone.

“Where is Kate?” Emily’s eyes turned red out of anger.

Sally’s accident had completely made her lose her mind.

Wendy didn’t seem to be surprised by her appearance.

Glancing sideways at the man behind her, she lifted her lips and smiled and said, “Why do you bring a group of people here?

Does this mean you want to fight?”

“Where is Kate?” Lois also wanted to rush over, but she was stopped by a bodyguard in black suits.

Wendy was here alone, but Hunter’s men were protecting her in the dark.

Ewan was also there, and he stopped Henry: “Henry, let the two sisters speak for themselves.”

When a woman talked to another, the worst circumstance was that there would be a quarrel. Even if they really got into a fight, it would not lead to serious injuries.

And they still had time to stop them if they began to fight.

As for men, they shouldn’t have been involved in it.

Henry looked at the two girls. Although he did not participate, the people on Ewan’s side did not come closer, either. It was rather fair.

But now Emily was too impulsive, he was still a little worried.

“Emily!” Lois thought about getting closer , but she was always stopped.

Terry wanted to do something, but more bodyguards rushed out in an instant.

Joe gave him a hand and said in a low voice, “Terry, don’t be impulsive. We will suffer losses if we get into a fight under this circumstance.”

No one knew what Wendy and her mother had done to Sally.

But now, if they hit them first, they were hurting people in the public.

If the police came, they would also have to take responsibilities.

If they did it now, they would be fooled.

Chapter 353 Emily, Go to Hell

“Emily, you have brought so many people here. They look furious. You can’t be trying to talk about the old days with me, right?”

Different from Emily who was excited, Wendy was elegant and at ease.

Wendy took her clothes to the fitting room.

Emily immediately chased after her, blocking Wendy’s way in front of her.

“Where is Kate? Tell me!”

“Why are you looking for my mother? She did something fun today. She is in a good mood and has gone abroad for travelling.”

Wendy smiled as she looked at Emily’s pale face.

“That is really fun. It’s like bungee jumping. Don’t you understand?”

“You!” Emily felt nervous as she rushed over and grabbed Wendy’s collar.

The salespeople were shocked and wanted to stop Emily.

No one had expected that Wendy would act in a different manner. She waved her hand, not caring about Emily’s threats.

“Get out of the way. I’m talking to my sister. It has nothing to do with you. Go away!”

Everyone was a little shocked. Seeing that their distinguished guest was bullied, they wanted to offer help and show their loyalty.

If the honored guest was offended and stopped visiting the store, the salespeople would lose their bonus.

However, Wendy said that they were sisters...

“What’s wrong? Cannot we talk with each other?” Wendy frowned.

“Yes... Of course ...” The salespeople looked at each other in embarrassment.

Wendy had an angry look and said, “Then go away!”

The salespeople hurried to walk away.

Henry wanted to go over, but Ewan stood in front to stop him.

From Henry’s position, he could see Emily and Wendy.

Now, it seemed that Emily gained the upper hand. However, if Emily wanted to make a scene and hit Wendy, Henry would go over immediately.

But Wendy did not need help. This was beyond their expectation.

Even the salespeople had gone far away. There was no one who could help Wendy.

However, Emily’s skills were much better than Wendy, who had been spoiled.

Henry and Ewan were standing in the distance. And Wendy and Emily weren’t shouting. As a result, what the girls were talking couldn’t be heard clearly.

Wendy had a smile on her face as she said calmly, “Emily, this is a public place. If you really want to hit me, you will suffer.”

Emily was grabbing Wendy's collar, with her fingers trembling.

She was controlling her anger. She came here today to ask where Kate was.

Even though Emily knew that Wendy wouldn't tell her, she just couldn't suppress her impulse.

"What exactly do you want? Why did you treat Sally in that way? Why do you hate her so much?"

"Why should I hate Sally?" Wendy shrugged her shoulders and said with disapproval, "You are the one that I always hate."

Wendy sneered and said, "To be straightforward, Sally was dragged down by you. Don't you know that?"

"Did you do that? It was Kate, wasn't it?"

Emily's hand trembled. In fact, Emily had been doubtful because Kate had appeared on the seventh floor, and now she was abroad. She preferred to read it as a coincidence.

After all, Sally was not on bad terms with them.

But now, what did Wendy mean? Wendy admitted it, didn't she?

"Yes, we did. What do you want?"

"Wendy!" With a thud, Emily pressed Wendy against the wall of the fitting room.

Emily's eyes were scarlet, her face was pale, and her hands were trembling. However, Emily kept pressing Wendy hard!

Emily used all her strength and wished she could tear Wendy into pieces!

“Why? If you hate me, just come to me. Why did you do that to Sally?”

Wendy swept over Emily and found that she didn't bring her bag today, so Emily shouldn't be recording their talks.

Moreover, Wendy was already well prepared.

What she said today would make Emily lose control because of anger.

However, she never admitted that Kate had done anything to Sally.

She didn't mention anything about Sally's falling from the building.

Even if Emily played a trick and wanted to make a recording, it was impossible for her to get any evidence.

Being pressed by Emily in front of the fitting room, Wendy could hardly breathe.

Emily's strength was greater than Wendy had imagined!

However, Wendy's expression did not change. She was even more satisfactory with a smile.

“You're tough. Emily, I've been wanting to teach you a lesson for a long time, but always fail. Left with no choice, I can only go for your friends.”

“Actually, I did not go extreme with her this time. A long time ago, I wanted to hire the gangsters to humiliate her.”

“How dare you!” Emily was almost out of control.

Wendy did not know that her words had reminded Emil of the weakest and most delicate part in her life!

In Wendy's previous life, Sally had been raped by a few gangsters and her corpse had been dumped by the seaside.

That was the eternal pain for Emily!

Emily didn't think that Wendy had happened to have such an idea!

This vicious woman, how could she be so cruel and malicious!

"If Sally doesn't die this time, I would do so in the future. Do you want to give it a try?"

"Wendy!"

"Unless you kill me; otherwise, I will definitely ask the gangsters to humiliate your friends one by one."

"You have a very good friend called Lois, don't you? Although she is ugly, the gangsters would not refuse to 'play' with her."

"Wendy! How dare you! I will definitely kill you!"

Wendy wasn't afraid of Emily's anger at all today. Although they were arguing and Wendy didn't have any helpers at all, Wendy was still very calm.

Emily could not see through Wendy's intentions because she had gone completely irrational.

Emily didn't give a thought on the reason why Wendy was so abnormal.

After confirming that they had arrived at the entrance of the fitting room where there was no surveillance camera, Wendy stopped smiling.

Her gaze was cold, and her expression was ferocious.

Wendy took out a knife from her bag.

She glared at Emily with a gloomy expression and gritted her teeth. "Not only do I want them to die, I want you to die as well!

Emily, go to the hell!"

That knife went towards Emily...

Henry could no longer see Emily and Wendy.

He pushed Ewan and was about to go over.

When he couldn't see Emily, he always felt uneasy.

Ewan didn't expect that Henry would suddenly make a move. He didn't pay attention and was pushed back several steps.

However, Ewan quickly caught up with and stopped Henry again.

"Wendy doesn't have any helpers. Henry, I promise you."

Ewan was the one who was responsible for arranging the people. Ewan wouldn't lie to Henry.

"They are sisters. Let them make things straight themselves. Henry, get out of their business."

"Move aside! Don't blame me if you don't let me go!" Henry looked serious as he said.

If it was another girl talking to Emily, Henry would stay away.

But Wendy was different. She was ruthless!

Moreover, Emily was too impulsive today. He was not sure whether Emily would do anything on impulse.

“Henry ... you!”

With a thump, a fist landed on Ewan’s face. Ewan was knocked back several steps on the spot.

Ewan was staggering and fell to his knees.

No one had expected that Henry, who had always been gentle, would punch others so heavily!

Ewan, the best bodyguard of Hunter, had tried to dodge when he noticed Henry’s attack!

However, Henry acted so fast that Ewan failed to dodge the punch!

Chapter 354 Reluctant to Make Things...

It was silent for a moment in the store.

Henry attacked and injured Ewan.

The bodyguards on Ewan’s side rushed forward, and Ashton also came in with his men.

They gathered, but neither of them attacked the other party first.

Henry quickly walked towards the fitting room. Behind him, a chilly and careless voice sounded.

“What’s wrong? Is it worth Henry’s effort to hit my staff?”

Hunter!

At such a place at this time! Why was Hunter there?

Henry didn’t look well. Just as Henry turned around, he heard another voice, “Henry, why are you here?”

Henry looked beyond Hunter and noticed the man walking over not far behind.

He frowned, “Joseph?”

“What’s going on?” Joseph and the Sawyer came together.

They had been waiting in the resting area. After their subordinates reported the situation here, they hurried to come to Henry.

Henry had an appointment with a very good friend for dinner today. This person was Joseph, the eldest son of the Gales.

They had known each other for many years. Every time when Joseph came to Bentson City or Henry went to City L, they would meet.

If it weren’t for Sally’s incident today, they would have already met each other.

Henry later said that he couldn’t attend their appointment, so Joseph could only continue to follow Sawyer and go shopping with

Wendy.

Originally, it was boring enough, but Joseph didn't expect that he would meet Henry who refused their appointment here.

"Hunter, you are also here?" This world is small.

Originally, Joseph had planned to pay a visit to Hunter with Sawyer after meeting Henry.

When they went to the WongRiver Pavilion, Hunter was absent. Therefore, they explained things to Wendy and took Wendy to the hospital for the appraisal.

After all, Wendy had always lived in Hunter's house. Sawyer meant that no matter what relationship Wendy had with Hunter, they had to visit her.

Unexpectedly, they happened to gather.

Sawyer looked at Hunter. This young man was imposing. It was hard to describe his charm. It could be identified that Hunter was not an ordinary person immediately.

Even this old man, who had dominated the business circle for so many years, couldn't help but look at Hunter and wanted to cheer for him!

The eldest son of the Jacksons was indeed better than what he was described. He was simply too outstanding!

However, were Wendy and Hunter dating?

They didn't seem to have the similar temperament.

Did Hunter like their Wendy?

The old man had been meeting different people for decades. Thus, Sawyer was good at judging people.

Based on the temperament of Hunter and Wendy, they could hardly be suitable. No matter how Sawyer looked at Hunter, he couldn't figure out how they could make a couple.

"Hunter, this is Sawyer." Joseph introduced.

Hunter had business with the Gales City L, but the person he contacted with had been Joseph.

It was rare to meet Sawyer.

He nodded and stretched out his hand. He was neither humble nor arrogant, and was indifferent as usual.

"Mr. Sawyer, nice to meet you."

Sawyer immediately reached out and shook hands with him, "Nice to meet you. Hunter is indeed a talent. Not bad."

Hunter smiled and accepted Sawyer's praise in a generous manner.

Joseph looked at Henry and introduced him to Sawyer, "Grandfather, this is the good friend that I have mentioned to you, the second son of the Sharps."

"We've met, young man. How have you been lately?" The old man looked at Henry with a smile.

Henry was caring about Emily and replied with a gentle smile, "I'm fine. How's your health?"

'I'm fine."

However, what was the situation?

Why did Hunter and Henry people confront each other?

Henry did not have time to explain further. He hurried to say, "My friend has something urgent. Let me..."

However, before he could finish his sentence, a woman's scream suddenly sounded from the other side.

Henry was nervous and he ran quickly.

He didn't want anyone to be faster than him. However, a black figure instantly passed him and arrived in front of the fitting room.

"Groan." Wendy said, "It hurts!"

In front of the fitting room, Emily held a knife in her hand. The tip of the knife was covered with blood.

As for Wendy, her arm was injured. Blood oozed out from her sleeves of the dress and dripped onto the ground.

She furrowed as she saw Hunter coming over. She didn't think about it and move into his embrace.

"Hunter, save me! She ... she wants to kill me!"

Wendy stumbled and was about to fall into Hunter's embrace.

Hunter supported her with both his hands, supporting her shoulders steadily.

Wendy was upset. Hunter was still unwilling to let her lean against his shoulders.

This man avoided women, never letting them get close to him!

However, why could Emily not only be hugged by him, but also be suppressed by him and loved gently?

This man was too biased!

But now, Wendy's face had turned pale because of the pain.

Wendy didn't dare to show her jealousy and resentment at all. Currently, she was very fragile.

"Hunter, she wants to kill me, and it hurts, crying..."

Hunter swept across Emily coldly before finally focusing at her eyes that were red with anger.

Her hands were still trembling. She was indeed holding the tip of the knife in her hand. The tip of the knife was dripping with blood.

She really stabbed Wendy!

"Emily, it's dangerous. Put down the knife." Henry rushed over. He was afraid that she would hurt herself, so he quickly snatched the knife from her hand.

"Emily!" Lois and Terry both came there.

The originally spacious store suddenly became crowded.

"Emily, what ... what's going on?" When Lois saw the injury on Wendy's arm, she was shocked.

However, no matter how impulsive Emily was, it was impossible for her to do such a thing.

It must be Wendy! She must have said something to Emily!

“She admitted it...”

Emily grabbed Henry’s sleeve with red eyes, “She admitted that Sally was hurt by them!”

“You...” Lois clenched her fists and wished she could punch Wendy in the face.

However, Wendy was protected by many people. They had no chance at all!

“I don’t know what you’re talking about!”

Wendy’s face was pale from pain. She cried with a shaking voice, “Emily said that I stole her man from her the moment she came, but ... but I didn’t. Hunter and I truly loved each other.”

She looked at Hunter, but Hunter remained calm without any expression.

Wendy gave up crying to him and turned to look at Sawyer, who had an anxious expression.

“Grandpa, she hurt me for no reason. Grandpa, I feel so painful ...”

The old man was in a dilemma for some reason.

Since his granddaughter was injured, she should be taken to the hospital immediately. The person who injured Wendy should have been put into prison.

However, Emily was the one that injured Wendy!

Sawyer, for some reason, was reluctant to make things difficult for her at all.

“Go to the hospital to bandage it first.”

Hunter's voice was as cold as usual.

"Liam, call the police."

Chapter 355 Are You Going to Beg Me

Call the police?

Hunter wanted to call the police?

Was he joking? How could he make Liam call the police?

Emily was ... his ex-fiancée, the girl he ... bullied not long ago?

However, how could Hunter be joking? He was never fond of doing that!

He wanted Liam to call the police. He wanted the police to deal with Emily. It was true!

After Hunter left, Liam looked at Emily, feeling a little confused.

Henry wouldn't joke, but was it so that he wanted to call the police and send Emily to the police station?

Wendy was injured. Sawyer loves his granddaughter. Although he felt pitiful for Emily, he couldn't let go of her granddaughter.

After hesitating for a moment, Sawyer and Hunter also sent Wendy to the hospital to treat her wounds.

"Henry, this..." Joseph glanced at Emily in Henry's embrace and couldn't even hate her.

He didn't know what kind of stimulation Emily had received, but she looked like she was about to lose control.

'Ill contact you later." Henry glanced at him.

Joseph nodded and caught up with Sawyer.

Liam was truly embarrassed, but before he could make a final decision, someone had already called the police.

It was Ewan.

Liam knew that Ewan supported Wendy. No matter how others judged Wendy, Ewan believed that Wendy was kind and elegant.

Hunter asked them to call the police. As Liam didn't do it, Ewan would do that himself.

Emily was brought back to the police station.

Even if Henry wanted to bail on her, he couldn't do so for the time being. It would take at least twenty-four hours.

As for how Wendy was going to prosecute Emily, Henry had no idea because Wendy was with Hunter.

He could only wait.

Henry waited for nearly one night.

He was worried because Emily was in the police office alone, so he didn't know what was going on.

A few people appeared outside the police station at around four in the morning.

No one knew why Hunter had suddenly appeared, and he didn't seem to have come alone.

There was also a girl with disheveled hair. Although one couldn't tell whether she was injured, it was clear that she was in a bad mental state.

They and Henry were in different places, so they did not meet.

As for Emily, she sat quietly until four o'clock when she was taken to another room.

“The person who filed the complaint has said that if your attitude is good and you sincerely change your mind, he can withdraw the charge.”

Emily did not know if she understood she was told.

When the staff member saw that her eyes were dull, and she did not seem to understand his words at all, he didn't want to say too much to her.

When they brought Emily to the door of the room, the staff looked at her.

Seeing her pale complexion, they thought that she wasn't a vicious person.

He advised, “You are still a student, right? You still have a good future ahead. You should know how to seize the opportunity.”

“Whatever can be settled peacefully, try to settle it in that way. Otherwise, once you leave a bad record on the file, it will have a great impact on your future. Do you understand?”

Emily was still with no expression and did not react.

The staff sighed, not knowing what the girl had experienced.

She seemed to be in a desperate state of mind.

Finally, the door was opened and Emily was gently pushed in.

She thought the person she would see inside would be Wendy.

Emily was even prepared to die together with her.

However, she never expected that the person sitting in the room was Hunter.

Emily was pushed by the staff to the side of the chair, and pressed down. She felt as a loss.

“You can communicate. If there’s any problem, immediately inform us.”

Hunter did not speak. The staff member nodded at him and left.

The door was closed, leaving only Emily and Hunter in the room.

Hunter stared at her face.

Her face was as pale as paper. Although Hunter had seen her several times in the past few days, she seemed to have lost much weight after they were separate for a month.

In the past, Emily was already slim. Now, it seemed that Emily was even thinner and more fragile.

She was with Henry. Didn’t Henry give her enough to eat?

Hunter wanted to smoke, so he moved his index finger slightly, but this was a non-smoking area.

“Are you going to beg me?” Hunter’s thin lips moved and his voice was cold.

Emily didn’t say anything and just looked at him indifferently.

She rarely acted so quietly in front of him.

But today, she seemed to be exhausted.

“Well, you plan to never speak. Is that so?”

Hunter raised his eyebrows, “Aren’t you afraid of going to jail?”

Emily pursed her lips but remained silent.

Normally, Hunter would have lost his patience and slammed the door before he left.

But tonight, Hunter was extremely patient.

It was unexpected.

He leaned against his chair and suddenly smiled. He asked, “Even if you don’t care about your future, shouldn’t you care about your friends?”

“What’s that girl’s name? Lois?”

“What did you do to Lois?” Emily leapt forward and pounced on the table.

Only then did Hunter see clearly that her hands were handcuffed.

Her pale and powerless hands were restrained by the ice-cold handcuffs. Emily looked pitiful.

The coldness in his eyes became more intense. However, he wouldn’t have a bit of pity for Emily.

“She deliberately harmed Wendy. She’s staying in the police station like you.”

Emily felt cold. Emily realized that Lois was impulsive because Lois had listened to her words.

Wendy admitted that it was her fault.

Emily would be impulsive, so would Lois!

Sally was their friend! When Emily had been away, Sally and Lois were together every day, so they were like sisters!

“Wendy is a murderer. Like her mother, she is a murderer!”

Emily held her hands tightly and glared at Hunter. She was breathing rapidly!

“You are blind! You are all blind!”

Hunter didn’t care at all. No matter how Emily scolded him with hatred, he had been indifferent.

“What exactly do you want to do by looking for me?”

Emily was not stupid. If Hunter wanted to sue her, he didn’t need to come personally.

What exactly was he trying to do?

“What do you want to do?”

Hunter narrowed his eyes slightly and looked at her with a smile.

'Little cutie, you seem to like this question very much. However, isn't the answer I give you every time not direct enough?'

Emily immediately flinched.

She remembered the treatment she had received in his car twice in the past!

"Do you remember?" Hunter's smile made her freezing cold.

Hunter suddenly leaned over and approached her.

However, Emily was scared to retreat by the coldness brought by him as Hunter suddenly approached.

Hunter said indifferently, "If you retreat, you won't be able to hear anything about your classmates."

Emily clenched her fists tightly, trying her best to suppress her fear. Emily forced herself to face him.

'This has nothing to do with Lois. She only listened to my words. I instigated her. I will bear all the charges.'

Chapter 356 You Only Have Ten Seconds

"Bear all the charges?" Hunter seemed to have heard a particularly funny joke.

He laughed in disapproval, "If you hurt someone, regardless of whether you are instigated or not, you'll have the criminal record."

"Hunter!"

"Come here." Hunter narrowed his eyes and stared at the marks on her neck.

He didn't know if the traces were left behind by him or another man.

The marks were vague. They were not particularly clear, but it couldn't be completely concealed.

The scene of Emil crying beneath him once again came to Hunter's mind.

The man's breathing became heavier. Hunter realized that his sexual desire for Emily as if he had been poisoned.

However, he quickly suppressed his impulse. He said in a calm tone made it impossible for others to tell what exciting things he had just thought of.

Emily clenched her fingers tightly and finally moved closer to him for the sake of Lois.

"That's good." He stretched out his hand and touched her face with his long fingers.

Just as Emily was about to flee, far away from him.

Emily heard Hunter's indifferent words, "I can withdraw the charge against Lois."

She was shocked and looked at him, wondering if she should believe this man.

Hunter looked at Emily with displeasure and arrogance. This woman dared to doubt him!

However, his mood quickly recovered.

He stared at her earlobes and said in a voice that only they could hear, "Be my woman for three months."

"I won't!" Emily was so frightened that she fled abruptly and sat back on her chair with a thud.

She was frightened. Her fingertips trembled when she thought of those two nights when she was on the verge of death.

How could he be so shameless? How did he end up like this!

“My patience is limited. You only have ten seconds to consider.”

“Hunter...”

The girl became quiet at once and held her hands tightly. She could not calm down, but she had no choice but to manage to calm down.

Hunter did not continue to speak. However, the second hand of the clock on the wall was moving. Eight, seven, six, five, four, three, two...

Hunter stood up and was about to leave!

Emily bit her lips and looked at his back.

He was no longer the Hunter he used to be, and he would no longer have any pity on her.

If he helped Emily in some way, then Emily had to pay the price.

She cared nothing about her future, but what about Lois?

Just as Hunter was about to open the door, the girl behind trembled and whispered, “I ... promise you.”

Emily could be bailed in 24 hours.

After 24 hours, Henry immediately sent someone to deal with it, wanting to bail Emily out.

Unexpectedly, before Ashton could finish handing over to the staff, Emily followed another staff member out.

“Emily!” Henry quickly walked over and held her fragile shoulders, “What’s going on? You...”

“The charge has been withdrawn. She can leave now.” The staff member who brought Emily out said with no expression.

“Did Wendy withdraw the charge?” Henry didn’t know who was suing Emily as the documents were kept secret by the police.

However, Henry had never expected the charge would be withdrawn.

He had already found the best lawyer and got all the surveillance videos in the store.

Now, Emily was acquitted.

In another room not far away, a girl with disheveled hair walked out.

“Lois!” Emily quickly walked over and grabbed her hand, “You...”

She wanted to ask a lot of questions, but it was not convenient to ask there.

Lois’s lawsuit had also been withdrawn. Ashton had a simple handover before could finally leave this place.

When they left the police station, there was a faint whiteness in the east.

It’s almost dawn.

“I was too impulsive. I am sorry for getting you into trouble.”

Emily said to Lois and held her hands, which were very cold. There was almost no warmth in her hands. "It's my fault. I didn't watch Lois closely." Joe blamed himself.

At that time, he was with Lois. Terry and the others followed Henry, seeking for ways to get Emily out.

Lois didn't expect that Lois would be in trouble before Emily was out.

No one noticed that Lois followed Sally to the hospital after hearing Emily's words and knowing that Wendy admitted her injury to Sally.

Fortunately, although Lois wanted to kill Wendy, she failed because Wendy was accompanied by many people. Wendy didn't suffer any harm as well.

Lois was escorted to the police station.

Now that they were both safe and sound, it could be considered the greatest relief for everyone.

"Sorry, I won't do it again. At that time, my mind went blank. I only know that Wendy and her mother admitted that they hurt Sally."

Lois fell into Emily's embrace and started crying softly.

"Emily, what should we do? I am worried about Sally. Can Sally wake up? I'm really panicked!"

Emily felt sad as she patted her back. Emily's eyes were red, but she still had to hold back her tears.

"Don't worry. Sally will wake up. Right now, we can't be impulsive anymore. We need to calm down."

After being given such a lesson, Emily knew that she was wrong.

However, at that time, she was stimulated by Wendy's words and recalled the tragedy of Sally in her previous life, so Emily couldn't control her emotions.

"Let's not be impulsive in the future, okay?"

Emily took a deep breath and hugged Lois. Her gaze was fixed on the dawn outside the car window. She could no longer be impulsive. Otherwise, it would be exactly what Wendy wanted.

That woman was too bad. Wendy was worse than Emily had imagined!

Even if Emily didn't fight over many things, Wendy wouldn't let her go easily.

Since that was the case, why didn't Emily fight back?

The car stopped in front of the apartment building. Emily looked at Joe and said, "Send Lois back. I still have something to say to Henry."

"Alright." Joe gently pushed Terry's arm.

Although Terry wanted to stay with Emily, he knew that Emily didn't need him at this time.

After others left, Henry looked at Emily and said softly, "Let's go home first."

Emily thought for a moment before nodding.

However, the first thing she did after she went up was to take out her luggage bag and pack up her things.

Henry grabbed her busy hand and said anxiously, "Emily, are you angry with me?"

"Why should I be angry?" Emily looked at him, feeling puzzled.

"Are you angry because I can't bail you out immediately?"

Emily looked at him for a long time before she smiled.

"I know you are very kind to me. I also know that you won't be able to bail me out after 24 hours."

Not to mention he waited outside when she stayed inside. Henry didn't leave for a second.

How could she not understand his feelings?

However, at this moment, understanding was useless.

"Henry, I don't want to be with you anymore. Let's break up."

Chapter 357 All of a sudden, He Was L...

Henry had a premonition.

Although he didn't know why he had such thoughts, when Emily came out and could return home innocently, Henry had a strange feeling of unease.

"He went for you, didn't he?" Henry should have thought of that.

Apart from Hunter, who else could let Wendy withdraw the charges? Who else could make her leave the police office and return to her own place?

“What did you promise him? He wants you to return to him?”

“Isn’t that what I’ve always wanted?”

Emily gently pushed him and smiled.

“Actually, I was his woman. When we were on the island, I pretended to be with you and left him. That was also for the sake of Hunter.”

“Now, we’ve settled our differences. He’s willing to be with me again. Isn’t that a perfect ending?”

Henry couldn’t refute Emily’s words.

It was originally the perfect result for them to be together again.

There was nothing wrong.

But why was Henry so uncomfortable and uneasy?

“Are you sure that he really wants to be with you again?”

Henry didn’t know what he was thinking. He wanted her to say yes because he wanted to see her happy.

However, he also hoped that Emily could say no. In that way, Henry at least had a chance!

Emily did not answer this question directly. She just looked at him and gently pushed away his hand that was holding her shoulder.

“Henry, we are friends. You are my best friend.”

“Just friends?” Henry felt a little disappointed.

“Didn’t you want to help Hunter and me from the beginning?”

She knew that these words were very annoying. But in the relationship among three people, there would always be someone who would get hurt.

Hunter would not let himself be injured. If he was injured, he would hurt the others.

Hunter would let everyone go to hell and die with him!

So, Emily chose to hurt Henry?

“Sorry, I thought you were helping me.”

Emily’s expression became a little cold, as if she was very disappointed.

The disappointed look in Emily’s eyes was like a sharp knife that fiercely stabbed into Henry’s heart.

“I ... [want to help you.” He suddenly wanted to laugh, but he couldn’t because he felt bitter.

“Thank you.” Emily didn’t seem to see the pain in his eyes.

After smiling gently at him, Emily continued to pack her things.

“He will come to pick me up soon. I still have to go back to my apartment to clean up.”

“Henry, thank you. If it weren’t for you, I wouldn’t have survived these days.”

“But now, we finally see rainbows after the rain. Hunter has forgiven me and made up with me. We will be fine in the future. You don't need to worry."

Emily turned her face away and walked out with her luggage bag. Her eyes were dry and she was suffering.

Henry looked at her slender figure. Emily walked towards the door step by step.

He even forgot to help her carry the luggage.

He had also forgotten to open the door for her so that she could walk freely.

Henry had forgotten everything. His heart was broken from the moment she decided to leave him. Emily's hand landed on the handle of the door. Her breathing was very irregular and wanted to cry. "I'm leaving. I'll contact you later."

She decided not to look back. If she did so, her tears might fall and her voice might become hoarse. She couldn't turn around.

She twisted the handle of the door.

The man rushed over and hugged her tightly from behind before she opened the door.

"Don't leave me ... please? Can you stay?"

Emily was standing still. She did not say a word, nor did she turn around to look at Henry.

Henry buried his face on her neck. Her neck was chilly, just like his face.

"I'm sorry. I know I shouldn't have stopped you. This is all you wanted."

They made up. They cleared up their past grudges and became together.

They would be happy again. This time, nothing would separate them.

In the future, their lives would only be more satisfying!

He shouldn't have stopped her. If so, he would have been a bad person!

However, he was reluctant to part with his heart being torn away from his body.

Emily was his heart.

Without Emily, Henry would suffer as he lost his heart!

"I'm sorry..." Henry's voice was a little deep.

He hugged her tightly and buried his face in her neck with great strength.

"I'm sorry ... but don't leave me alone. Emily, don't leave me. I'm sorry! Don't leave me, please!"

Emily's hands trembled. The door handle bounced back and the door was locked again.

Emily knew that she should leave, but his voice was so hoarse, and he was trembled badly. Henry... he was loving her so desperately.

She bit her lip and raised her head.

If Emily lowered her head, tears would roll down her face.

“Don’t leave, Emily!”

He didn’t want to give up! After compromising for so long, he could no longer do so anymore!

“Don’t leave me. I love you. I really do. I beg you to stay with me!”

Emily suddenly trembled.

She was turned around by him, and with a thud, Emily was pressed against the door.

His hot lips pressed down on hers forcefully. She turned away her face, avoiding the kiss with great difficulty, but his kiss landed on her neck.

Emily could vaguely see the flickering water in Henry’s eyes.

Those were tears of a proud man.

Emily was completely shocked. She did not know what she should do. She did not know that her departure would cause such great harm to Henry!

But ... but if she stayed, the harm she would bring to everyone would only be greater!

Moreover, she still had many things to do!

She still wanted revenge!

Emily’s eyes became fierce. Suddenly, she pushed him hard!

Henry was astonished with disbelief. Emily did ... push him away.

“You know that the person I like is Hunter. Why are you doing this?”

Emily glared at him with resentment, “You’re forcing me. You want to make things difficult for me! Why?”

..” Her indifferent accusation made him unable to make any response.

Henry didn’t know that he had been forcing her and making things difficult for her.

He didn’t know anything. Henry just wanted to be with her...

“I owe you, Henry. I know I owe you too much, but stop kidnapping me with kindness and guilt! The person I like is Hunter, not you!”

With a cracking sound, Emily opened the door. Then, the door was slammed and closed fiercely.

What was left for Henry was a cold door and desperate space without warmth.

Emily left without hesitation and affection!

After Henry took the courage to confess his love to her.

He leaned against the door with no expression, staying silent.

After some time, he walked to the balcony blankly and looked down at the parking lot in front of the apartment.

It was as if he would be able to see the person he wanted to see.

He lowered his head and saw the low-key Maybach parked in the plaza below.

As for that girl, she quietly handed her luggage to Liam. Emily quietly got into the car.

After a burst of engine noise, the car drove out of the square and disappeared without a trace in the blink of an eye.

She really left and finally returned to Hunter.

At the beginning and in the end, they made it to be together.

All of a sudden, he was left alone...

Chapter 358 Maybe It's Just Revenge

Liam was the only one who went to the Sharp Group to pick up Emily.

Today, Hunter was not at home, and the WongRiver Pavilion had no guests.

When the servants saw Liam bringing Emily back, they were all dumbfounded, completely unaware of what had happened.

After all, Emily came back with her luggage. It looked like she was going to stay here for a long time.

Emily nodded and smiled at the servants as usual.

After that, with Liam's help, the servants moved her luggage to the second floor.

She still lived in her original room.

She thought that after leaving there for so long, this room was probably occupied by Wendy.

However, Emily did not ask them about this.

It was as if she had only returned to live for a period of time. As for Wendy, it seemed that it had nothing to do with her.

“Miss Emily, Young Master has gone to the Jackson Group today. He may return very late.”

“You’re not going to help him?” Emily put the laptop on the table and opened it. She didn’t look back at Liam.

“I’m going now. Miss Emily, I’ve already told the servants that you can just go find them if you need anything.”

Liam was afraid that after Wendy had been here for so long, the servants had already favored Wendy.

He wondered if Emily would suffer.

Therefore, he had specifically told everyone that Emily was Young Master’s distinguished guest, and no one was allowed to give her any face.

The servants were temporarily intimidated by him. But in the WongRiver Pavilion, whoever could win the favor of Young Master was the person everyone wanted to please.

Therefore, it was up to Young Master to decide what kind of life Emily would live in the WongRiver Pavilion in the future.

“I know. I am very well.”

Emily finally turned around to look at him. “Liam, thank you.”

What Emily said was sincere.

Liam treated her with utmost benevolence.

When Hunter asked him to call the police, he hesitated.

In fact, in the end, he didn't call the police.

Liam nodded. After greeting her, he turned around and walked out of the door.

Today, Liam looked a little haggard, as if he hadn't slept all night, and his black eyes had already appeared.

The moment he left, Emily said indifferently, "She is not in any danger for the time being, but the doctor said that he does not know when she will wake up."

Liam was shocked and suddenly turned around to look at her.

Emily had already looked at her laptop. Her slender fingers lightly tapped on the keyboard.

"In the future, you can go to the hospital to inquire about her situation yourself. Just say that you're her friend. There's no need to secretly inquire about her."

"Yes." Liam nodded without saying anything else.

When Emily and the others went to look for Wendy, he found out that Sally jumped off a building.

When he thought of that stupid little fellow who was still lying on the bed in the intensive care unit, it seemed as if his heart was being pulled by something, and he felt uncomfortable.

When he reached the door and was about to close it, Liam couldn't help but look back at Emily.

Emily's back was very thin. She used to be very thin. But now, not only was she thin, she also looked very fragile.

He said calmly, "Wendy was with Patriarch Gale all day yesterday. Her mother did not go abroad, but we still do not know where she is."

"Liam!" Emily's breathing was in disorder. She looked back at him with astonishment.

"You are Milady in my heart, even though you are unwilling to admit it."

Liam looked a little upset and helpless.

Ever since he knew that something had happened to Sally, he had never smiled sincerely again.

"I can't guess what Young Master Hunter is thinking right now. I don't think anyone else can."

At the very least, the current Young Master Hunter was too deep to be seen through.

He didn't dare to say that it was all because of Emily, but at least, it was mostly because of her.

In the past, Young Master Hunter really liked Emily. Liam knew this clearly.

But now, even he didn't know.

This was because it was very likely that it was just a way for Young Master Hunter to retaliate Emily.

Perhaps, it was just because of hatred.

Who knew?

“I’m working for Young Master Hunter. It’s not good for me to do things he doesn’t like.”

“I know.” Emily stood up and stared at him. “I’m already very happy that you can tell me this. Liam, thank you. Thank you sincerely.”

Liam nodded. As he said, he was Young Master Hunter’s person. He could not do many things.

Kate’s whereabouts ended in a foreign country, so everyone thought that she must have thought of a way to go somewhere else when she was abroad.

However, according to the information he had, Kate did not leave the country.

As for whether she was in Bentson City or not, Liam wasn’t sure.

And then Liam left, leaving Emily alone in the room.

She sat back in her chair and stared at the laptop screen. After a while, she logged into the communication tool and sent a message to Joe.

After nine o’clock, Emily had breakfast delivered by the servant and immediately sent the latest script file to the workgroup.

The people in the group suddenly became serious but active again.

Actually, they didn’t say anything. It was just because Emily had returned to work.

The people in the workgroup were senior executives. Emily typed a paragraph of text: Although Sally was temporarily not here, we must continue to work.

After that, she assigned tasks and rescheduled her work for the next three months.

Because of Sally's situation, Emily reallocated her work to others.

And then, she gave Lois new tasks.

Apart from taking over most of Sally's affairs, Lois also needed to train new backbones.

With such a heavy workload, Lois definitely didn't even have the time to be sad.

If Lois messed up Sally's work, Sally would definitely be very disappointed when she returned.

Therefore, apart from working desperately, Lois did not have time to think about other things.

She wouldn't have the energy to find trouble with Wendy again.

With Lois's current strength, there was no way she could contend against Wendy.

Not to mention fighting against the mysterious forces behind Wendy.

It was not her turn to do such a thing.

All day, Emily was busy.

At night, Hunter still hadn't returned.

After having dinner in her room, Emily had the servants clean it up. And then she opened the wardrobe door in her room.

The clothes were still the same as when she left. They were all hers.

She picked out a nightgown that had been pushed to the corner.

It was the kind that Liam had prepared for her not long after she came there. It was very pink and tender, but it was also very

SEXY.

She took nightgown into the bathroom.

Half an hour later, a girl in pink pajamas came out of the bathroom.

Her long hair was still dripping with water. Her entire body was refreshing. She did not have any makeup at all, but she was as beautiful as a prynne.

After drying her long hair, she sat on a chair and read a book carefully while waiting for Hunter.

Yeah, she was waiting.

After what happened yesterday, Hunter was definitely not the only one who came back tonight.

So, she waited.

Finally, around nine o'clock in the evening, the sound of an engine came from the courtyard outside ...

Chapter 359 This Man Is Mine

Maybach stopped outside the parlor of the WongRiver Pavilion.

Liam got out of the car and opened the door for the two people in the back seat.

Hunter's long legs stepped forward, and his tall figure immediately appeared in front of everyone.

Wendy also elegantly stepped down from the left side of the car.

However, Wendy looked very fragile today. Her arms were still wrapped in gauze, and she walked unsteadily.

It was as if she was so fragile that she could be blown down by a gust of wind at any moment.

“Miss Wendy, is the wound still painful?” Seeing her frown, Ewan was a little worried.

“Yes ...” Wendy glanced at Hunter.

Young Master Hunter, however, had already walked towards the parlor, as if he didn't care how badly she was injured.

Wendy was a little unhappy, but today, Young Master Hunter had made an exception to allow her to rest in his office for a whole day. For Wendy, it could be considered an improvement.

Originally, she planned to return to City L with Patriarch after having dinner with Charles.

But now that she was injured, she wanted to stay by Young Master Hunter's side for a few more days and enjoy the feeling of being spoiled.

“Prepare tea for Young Master and Miss Wendy,” Liam said when he entered.

The servant immediately made two cups of tea and brought them over to Hunter and Wendy.

Hunter had the habit of drinking tea in the parlor after returning home.

But tonight, he wanted to go upstairs immediately.

However, he suppressed his impulse to go upstairs and sat on the sofa, casually sipping tea.

Liam wanted to say something. But since Wendy was here, it didn't seem good to mention this matter.

He didn't want Emily to suffer any grievances here, but now, it was clear that Young Master was more willing to stand on Wendy's side.

Emily was alone and weak in the WongRiver Pavilion.

He hoped that Emily would be able to live a more relaxed life during this period of time.

"Young Master, if there's nothing else ..."

Before Liam could finish his words, he saw a slender figure slowly walking down from the corner of the stairs.

She wore a pink nightgown with a low V-neck.

The white neck was sexy and fragile, as if it would break with a pinch. It was so fragile that a man wished he could hug it in his arms and protect it well.

Her collarbone was faintly visible in the gauze nightgown. The nightgown opened slightly as she walked, and large areas of skin below her neck could be seen.

Emily ... Why was she wearing such a sexy nightgown?

Liam was almost dumbfounded. When realized something, he immediately withdrew his gaze.

He quietly glanced at Hunter. Fortunately, Young Master had lost his mind and hadn't realized that Liam was also looking.

"Young Master, I ... I'll go back and rest first."

Emily was dressed like this. Liam felt that if he didn't leave quickly, his eyeballs would fall to the ground.

Hunter did not say anything. Liam hurriedly lowered his head and went upstairs.

When he met Emily, he still didn't even dare to raise his head. He whispered, "Miss Emily, I'll go up first."

"Okay." Emily nodded.

After Liam went upstairs, he immediately called the butler and told him to let all the male maids to leave the hall quickly, including the butler himself.

Soon, there were only two female maids left in the hall, along with Emily, Hunter, and Wendy.

Wendy was shocked for a few seconds before she suddenly realized something.

She stood up and pointed at Emily, her fingers trembling. "She ... Why is she here? What's going on?"
Wasn't Emily brought to the police station? And she couldn't come out for a long time?

Why was she out now?

And why was she still in the WongRiver Pavilion after she came out?

What exactly was going on? This ...

Suddenly, her face clouded over. And she quickly walked towards Emily.

“What are you doing here? Who else do you want to do harm to? You want to hurt me again, don’t you?”

Emily looked at her calmly.

Wendy quickly walked up to her and grabbed her hand.

Actually, Wendy had little strength, but she was furious and grabbed Emily’s hand quickly.

Emily’s feet slipped. She almost slipped down the stairs.

She grabbed the wooden handle of the stairs tightly, preventing herself from rolling down.

However, the nightgown on her body was torn off by Wendy.

Suddenly, everyone there saw her thin shoulders, which was indescribably beautiful.

There was also the matching sling nightgown inside. The sling moved, which made her white skin expose. There were even hickeys on her body!

Wendy was so jealous that she was going crazy. Were these hickeys left behind by Hunter?

She was so angry that she raised her hand and wanted to slap Emily!

However, she immediately retrieved her hand.

She had forgotten that Hunter was still here.

She could not be rude and irritable in front of him.

“I just ... wanted to come down and find something to eat.”

Emily looked at her indifferently, then at Hunter, but she quickly withdrew her gaze.

Everyone could tell that she was so afraid of Young Master that she even didn't want to appear in front of him.

Wendy was so angry that she stamped her feet. Did Emily show her weakness on purpose?

Young Master Hunter was such a shrewd person. Couldn't he not tell?

“Stop pretending here. What are you doing here?” Emily should not come here.

She had already been kicked out by Hunter. Why did she still have the face to return?

Emily gently pushed her. In order to show her weakness, Wendy naturally couldn't hold onto her forever.

However, Emily's strength was so small that she couldn't even pretend to be pushed down by Emily!

After all, Hunter was not that fool.

She thought that Emily would arrogantly quarrel with her like before, but she didn't expect that after secretly glancing at Hunter,

Emily would immediately turn around and go upstairs as if she was frightened.

Wendy grabbed her and said, "You can't leave. Tell me clearly! What are you doing here?"

Emily bit her lip and did not answer. Her indifferent gaze fell on the figure sitting on the sofa in the distance.

"Come here."

Hunter's voice sounded even colder as he swept his gaze over her messy nightgown.

The stunning expression had already been completely concealed by him.

"She came here as a maid," he said expressionlessly.

Maid?

Wendy looked at Emily. And Emily lowered her head and slowly walked towards Hunter.

Maid? She, Wendy, was the first to not believe it!

Would a maid dress up like this and wander around in front of her master?

This was clearly trying to hook Hunter!

And why didn't the maid work? Why could she go up to the second floor?

Emily was definitely not here as a maid!

Emily walked over to Hunter and clenched her fists tightly. She was clearly very nervous.

"Young Master Hunter, what can I do for you?"

Hunter looked at her.

Her lips were rosy. Her teeth were white. Her skin was so fair that she was like a baby!

It seemed that water would come out of her fair skin with a single pinch!

This girl was dressed like this in order to hook him up!

He wanted to pretend that he couldn't see her, but his gaze couldn't help but lock onto her.

Emily sensed the burning heat in his eyes and subconsciously pulled the gauze nightgown that had slipped down.

The man's body tightened. And his throat became dry when Emily retreated slightly to escape!

This girl! She still wanted to escape!

He suddenly stood up!

Before Wendy came to sense, she turned around and saw Hunter carrying Emily on his shoulder and striding upstairs.

As for Emily, she was as gentle as a lamb on Hunter's shoulder.

When Hunter went upstairs, Emily suddenly raised her head and looked at Wendy.

She smiled coldly. Her thin lips were slightly open, clearly declaring war on Wendy silently. She seemed to show that this man was hers!

Chapter 360 He Took the Bait Even If...

Wendy was so angry that she almost puked blood!

What did this woman say? What was she saying?

She actually said that Young Master Hunter was hers!

Shameless! She was a woman who had been abandoned and kicked out. Why did she say that?

“Hunter... “She wanted to catch up.

However, Hunter walked so fast even if he carried a person.

When Wendy followed them to the second floor, Hunter had already carried Emily into the room.

The door was shut down. The interior and exterior of the room were completely divided into two worlds.

Wendy did not give up. She wanted to knock on the door, but she did not have the courage.

Most of the time, Young Master Hunter was lenient towards her. She knew that it was all because of the Matriarch who had left her to him.

But sometimes, there were things that she couldn't do.

For example, now!

Wendy could clearly feel that if she interrupted, Young Master Hunter would definitely be very angry, and even hate her!

She stood outside the door. Unfortunately, the room blocked out so much noise.

As long as the people inside did not speak loudly, she had no idea what they had said or done.

“Miss Wendy, can I help you?” Liam came out of nowhere.

Wendy really hated this man!

Liam would appear like a ghost at any time every time she stood at the door of Hunter’s room.

The only reason he came out was to drive her away!

This damn bastard! He was clearly Emily’s lackey!

Wendy bit her lips and clenched her fists tightly. Her anger had nowhere to be vented.

In the end, when she passed by Liam, she couldn’t help but punch him.

She really couldn’t stand it! Why? Why would it become like this?

She had lived in Hunter’s room for two months. And she hardly went there.

Not long after she entered in, Hunter would let her out.

She had never stayed long in his room, not to mention staying there overnight!

Never!

Liam didn’t care about what she did just now at all.

But Wendy accidentally hit the wound on her arm.

A heart-wrenching pain came from her arm, causing her to grimace in pain and almost burst into tears.

Liam shrugged at her and spread out his hands with an innocent expression.

“Miss Wendy, I haven’t touched you before. Don’t frame me.”

How could Wendy not know what he meant?

This bastard didn’t believe that Emily would hurt her at all. He was implying that she had framed Emily!

Sure enough, he was sent by Emily. He was a useless dog!

She left and slammed the door not far away.

Liam did not dare to stay outside Young Master’s room for too long. Just as Wendy left, he immediately returned to his room.

Hear no evil.

In Hunter’s room.

Emily was thrown on the bed by him.

The slender little body slightly bounced up on the strong mattress and quietly landed on the blankets.

She looked at the man standing beside the bed. The panic in her eyes was not disguised.

When she was in the parlor just now, she was deliberately trying to snatch him from Wendy.

Now, facing Hunter alone, her relaxation and disguise had completely disappeared.

The little girl fell into the dark-colored bedding. Her fair skin looked especially tender.

She grabbed the blanket and lay half on the bed, looking at him.

Hunter stared at her face, his posture extremely resembling that of a mighty king.

“Where’s the courage to hook me up just now? Now, you don’t have it anymore?”

He tugged at his gold- inlaid tie, which was then moved to the side.

He also casually pulled a few buttons off his collar.

He was evil, wild, frightening, yet fatally attractive.

Emily knew that no method she used in front of him could escape his eyes.

She bit her lower lip. She was still a little stubborn. “Since you know I did it on purpose, why do you take the bait?”

The desire in his eyes for her was not fake.

Hunter’s gaze fell on her chest. And his sexy Adam’s apple rolled down.

“Bringing you back was originally for fun. What’s the difference whether I take the bait or not?”

Emily clenched her palm tightly. These words were truly hurtful!

However, she seemed to have gotten used to his mockery.

Since she was here, what was dignity?

In front of him, what was self-esteem?

She lay under the blanket and looked at him. Her thin lips slightly opened. Her voice was soft. It seemed as if she had no bones.

“Can you ... be gentle?”

Hunter was a little depressed.

He had never been so easy to lose control, but this girl's words made it.

For more than an hour, he couldn't control himself at all.

After that, the angry Hunter went into the bathroom and directly took a cold bath.

The sound of water came from the bathroom.

Emily fell on the bed and was still gasping for breath.

Her entire strength was completely drained by him. She didn't know why this man was so strong. It seemed that his stamina would never run out.

She was so tired that she couldn't even lift his hand.

She clearly didn't do anything. Why was she the one who was tired?

Long time passed before the bathroom door was opened and Hunter, who was wet all over, came out.

A cold aura filled the entire room as he came out.

He walked to the wine cabinet and poured himself a glass of red wine.

His voice that was so cold that it didn't even have the slightest bit of warmth spilled out from between his teeth. It was heartless and cold.

“This isn’t your room.”

Emily knew that he was trying to drive her away.

But she didn’t care.

Ever since he said that he would play with her for three months without any warmth, she knew that she must be humiliated by him in these three months.

Anyway, Wendy got angry tonight. That was enough.

Emily stretched out her trembling hand to pick up the torn nightgown.

After putting it on herself finally, she lifted the quilt and wanted to get out of bed.

Her legs were really painful and uncomfortable!

Even getting out of bed was very difficult for her now.

When Hunter heard the sound behind him, he turned around and saw her slowly sliding down the bed.

Her legs were straight and slender, which were still trembling slightly.

When she landed, she almost fell to the ground.

Hunter’s fingers, which were holding the goblet, suddenly tightened as he stepped out.

However, when he saw her kneeling on the ground, he slowly withdrew his hand.

He leaned against the table and stared at her moving difficultly. His sexy Adam's apple couldn't help but roll again.

This time, Emily definitely didn't do it on purpose!

She supported the bed and slowly stood up. Just as she was about to turn around and leave, Hunter's tall body blocked her way.

"Young Master Hunter ... "She subconsciously retreated.

She crashed into the bed and accidentally fell down.
