

Now And Forever 421

Chapter 421 If I Die, You Won't Live,...

Emily stared at the woman standing in front of her.

Wendy had snatched her phone and turned it off, then she casually threw it in an unknown corner.

“Emily, you are really stupid. Are you still expecting Hunter to save you now?”

Wendy smiled coldly and looked down on Emily. She disdained her.

“You said that you have taken your hair and the old man's hair for a DNA test, right?”

Emily still hadn't figured it out? What an idiot!

“Hunter was the one who cheated you. Don't you know that?”

The man Emily longed for was not sincere to her at all!

“He doesn't want you—a trash woman—to be the granddaughter of Patriarch Gale, because you are useless to him!”

Emily was so stupid that there was simply no way to save her from stupidity!

Emily met Wendy's gaze. The look on Emily's face was stubborn, and fearless.

“Where is my grandfather?” she asked calmly.

“You finally admit that he is your grandfather?” Had the show begun? Would Emily start to cry for Patriarch Gale now?

“Wendy, you are not a Gale. If you ask Grandpa to sign a share transfer for you, you will commit a crime of fraud!”

“Is that so?” Wendy didn’t take it seriously at all.

Joseph had gone to the high seas to look for Patriarch Gale, and Sasha was also with Patriarch Gale. Perhaps they had already died in the high seas.

Who would prove that she was not Patriarch Gale’s granddaughter?

Joseph would not come back so easily until he found Patriarch Gale.

There was only Lottie left in the Gale Group.

On Monday, she would convene the board of directors and remove Lottie from her post. By doing so, the Gale Group would be hers completely.

“Wendy, you’re breaking the law!”

Emily clenched her palm tightly and glared at her, “When Grandpa comes back, you must...”

“Then tell me, where is he? Can he really come back?”

These words made Emily tremble with fear.

Before she came here, she had already thought that Grandpa might still be in the high seas.

But she didn’t dare to take any risks. Although the chance was really small, what if her grandfather was really under Wendy’s control?

Now, hearing what Wendy said, Emily was almost certain that Grandpa was not with Wendy.

“Wendy, why on earth did you ask me to come here?”

Her hand landed on her waist in the night.

No one noticed such a subtle movement.

Moreover, Wendy had a few tough guys on her side, so she was quite off her guard. She didn't care what Emily was doing.

“We are sisters. Do we need ant reason to meet?”

She took a step forward and looked at Emily, who was alone and helpless.

Wendy laughed wantonly, like a demon in the night.

A detestable demon!

“Cut the crap. If there's nothing else, I'll go. I don't have time for this!”

Emily turned around and wanted to walk away, but the two men with Wendy immediately stepped forward and blocked her way.

Emily was forced to retreat. Behind her, Wendy was still laughing impudently. Her laughter was especially scary this time of the day!

“You came here so foolishly. Do you still want to leave unscathed? You're really stupid!”

Wendy crossed her arms, showing the posture of a victor.

“Such a stupid woman! Why is Hunter not sick of you?! Inconceivable!”

“You asked me to come here, so that you can insult me?” Emily’s hand was still on her waist.

It looked like she was afraid of the people around her and that she was trying to protect herself.

But in Wendy’s eyes, Emily’s action was a joke.

Could Emily protect herself with just her hands?

“Of course, I don’t want just to humiliate you with words. I...”

She paused, pointed at Emily and sneered, “I want them to humiliate you with their actions!”

Emily knew that once she came here, she would definitely end up like this!

Wendy even had the guts to plot against the Gale family. Why would she pity a woman like Emily?

With a panicked expression on her face, Emily turned around to look at the men beside Wendy. She retreated again.

“What do you want? Hey, stay still!”

The men stared at Emily’s fully developed shape with obvious lust in their eyes.

Seeing that Emily was already in a panic, they couldn’t control their most primitive impulse anymore.

This little Emily was even more beautiful than Wendy. They could tell at a glance that she was delicious!

Wendy really hated the way these men look at Emily.

It was as if they had seen a goddess!

Was this bitch so tempting?

Wendy suppressed her displeasure and took out her phone.

“Guess what I want to do?” She lowered her head and turned on the camera.

“Aren’t you good-looking? Aren’t you sexy? You want men, right?”

Young Master Hunter and Young Master Henry were both noble people. Why would Emily have the guts to seduce them?

“If they see your video on the Internet, what will they think of you?”

Wendy sneered. Emily was still retreating towards her.

Without the slightest bit of precaution, Wendy was pleasantly surprised by Emily’s frightened appearance.

“Emily, just enjoy yourself. These men will definitely satisfy... You!”

The trembling girl actually turned around and rushed to Wendy in a second.

Under the moonlight, Wendy saw a silver light. Suddenly, a sharp knife pressed down on her neck.

Emily put forth her strength. Wendy felt a sharp pain in her neck! She was bleeding!

“Emily, what are you doing? Don’t touch me! Let go of me!”

Wendy screamed in fright. Her fingers loosened, and her phone fell to the ground. With a banging sound, the scene became even more frightening!

“Emily, you have to pay for killing me. I don’t believe you have the guts to touch me!”

“If you don’t believe me, just wait for the consequences!”

Emily’s eyes sank as she put forth her strength again.

Wendy felt that the pain in her neck was instantly magnified. Something slipped down her neck. It was blood!

“No! Don’t do this! Emily, calm down! Don’t kill me!”

The fear of death made her panic like a clown. She was so proud, but she had to beg Emily for mercy now.

Emily glared at the men who wanted to get close to her and ordered in a low voice, “Don’t come over. If you do, I’ll kill her. You won’t get paid! Nothing!”

The men paused and looked at the two girls, not knowing if they should go over.

Emily tightened her grip again. Wendy panicked so much that she immediately let out a cry, “Don’t come over! Don’t come over!

Go away! Go away!”

She wanted to see Emily, but there was no way to see her!

She could only raise her hands. Panic and pain filled her heart as tears rolled down her cheeks.

“Emily, I’ll let you go. I’ll let you go now! Don’t hurt me. If I die, you won’t live, either!”

Chapter 422 Were They in Cahoots

“Tell them to go away!” Emily shouted.

For the sake of her own life, Wendy could only do as Emily said, “Go away! All of you, go away! No one is allowed to come over!”

Seeing this, those men and the bodyguards could only retreat one after another.

Even though they weren't Wendy's people, they couldn't let anything happen to her right now. She was still useful.

If anything happened to her, their plan would be very difficult to implement afterwards.

Emily hijacked Wendy and walked in the direction of her car.

For the sake of Wendy's safety, those men could only follow from afar. They didn't have the guts to come near Emily.

Finally, Emily returned to her car.

Just as she was about to open the door, Wendy suddenly sank her face. She swung her elbow towards Emily's belly.

Seeing this, Emily panicked. She subconsciously reached out to block Wendy's elbow.

She was already pregnant. She couldn't let anyone hurt her child!

Emily reacted fast. Otherwise, Wendy's heavy blow would have landed on her belly.

With a “bang”, the knife in Emily's hand landed on the ground.

Wendy, taking the chance, hurriedly fled.

“Capture her! Kill her!” Seeing that Emily have opened the car door, Wendy roared, “Whoever kills her will get a million!”

One million! That was a large sum of money!

Money talks. A few men immediately got on the car and chased after Emily, who had just stepped on the accelerator.

Emily was not excellent at driving. After all, she had not received any professional training.

Very quickly, she could see the two cars clearly in the rear-view mirrors.

She was heading towards an abandoned dock. In the early hours of the morning, there would be no cars passing by.

In other words, no one would help her at this time. She could only rely on herself!

Emily tightly gripped the steering wheel and stepped on the accelerator.

The luxury car from the Gale family had excellent performance.

Those men behind Emily were simply unable to catch up with her.

Emily looked through the rearview mirror and saw that those men were thrown far away. She breathed a sigh of relief.

She turned around and looked ahead. Suddenly, a beam of light shone over!

A car came across the road!

Emily was shocked. In fact, the two cars could not collide on their own roads.

However, Emily was shocked. She panicked as she moved the steering wheel.

After realizing that she had made a mistake, she quickly turned the steering wheel back.

She also stepped on the brakes.

With a squeak, the car stopped. Her head bumped into the steering wheel.

When the other cars stopped beside her, the drivers were dumbfounded.

Was it true that women could not drive at all?

“Hunter, what exactly are you bringing me here for?”

The old man walking behind Hunter was exactly Sawyer, who had made everyone anxious lately.

It had been two days since he came to the island. Today was Monday.

Time passed quickly!

He wanted to go back, but Hunter was only willing to help him here. Hunter didn't mention a bit about when he was going to send him back.

As for Sawyer, his phone was gone, and he couldn't use any communication equipment, so he couldn't contact anyone at all!

He signed the share transfer letter. What exactly was Wendy doing with the letter now?

Sawyer didn't ask Hunter whether he and Wendy were in cahoots or not.

Even if he asked, there were chances that Hunter would lie to him. If Hunter chose to lie, what was the point of asking him?

However, as long as he was acknowledged, Sawyer felt that it was unlikely that Hunter and Wendy would work together.

However, what did Hunter mean by letting him stay here all the time?

“Hunter...”

“More than 40 years ago, did you know a girl called Maia?”

“What ... did you say?”

Maia! The name frightened Sawyer. Suddenly, his legs went limp. He almost lost his balance.

Hunter stared at Sawyer’s expression. Indeed, there was no need to ask this question anymore.

“Maybe you also know that Maia was my grandfather’s first wife. She was my grandmother, the last Mrs. Jackson.”

“Hunter, what exactly do you want to say?”

Sawyer subconsciously took two steps back. He became alert.

‘I found a picture of you. The day before my grandmother’s accident, you—’

Hunter, who was walking in front, suddenly turned around and locked his cold gaze on Sawyer’s face.

“At that time, you were with her. Could you please tell me what you did to my grandmother? Why were you with her when the accident happened?”

Hunter was quite patient. He was waiting for Sawyer’s answer.

However, in the end, Patriarch Gale remained silent.

Finally, Hunter turned around and walked to the other side of the beach.

Sawyer caught up with him and said anxiously, "Hunter, no matter what happened back then, it was all on me. Please have mercy towards the Gales."

This matter has nothing to do with my daughter or my granddaughter, Hunter..."

"But it has a lot to do with the younger generation of the Jackson family."

Hunter stopped, but he did not look back at Sawyer.

"Some of them lost their mothers, and some of them lost their grandmothers at birth."

He might not have any feelings for Matriarch Jackson, but after all, she was his grandmother!

They were bound by blood!

"Hunter, please show mercy to my family..."

"Keep these words for the Jacksons."

Hunter left for real this time. The speedboat was on the beach. Sawyer could also leave if he wanted. However, no one knew where this place was.

Moreover, Sawyer couldn't sail. He didn't have the guts to operate these speedboats any more. Meanwhile, his physical condition seemed to be getting worse and worse ...

He coughed against the sea breeze.

On the beach ahead, Sasha was searching everywhere.

Seeing Sawyer alone at the seaside, Sasha's heart tightened and she quickly walked over.

"Dad, why are you here alone? Where's Hunter? Is he still here?"

"No. He's gone." Sawyer looked in the direction of the sea.

Sasha followed his gaze. Sure enough, she could see a speedboat rapidly moving away on the sea. He was gone. What about them?

"Dad, was he with you just now? What did he say? Why did he save us and leave us here?"

There was not only a house, but also everything they needed in the kitchen here.

Even if they lived here for a month and a half, they wouldn't starve to death!

However, why did Hunter leave them here?

Today was Monday. Wendy had already got the share transfer letter...

"Could it be that Hunter is with Wendy?"

Chapter 423 Nothing Matters Anymore

Wendy would definitely do something today with the share transfer in her hand.

Didn't Hunter try to prevent them from stopping Wendy by not sending them back in time?

In addition, Wendy already had a close relationship with Hunter before!

"Dad, could it be that the person behind Wendy is Hunter?"

If it weren't for a powerful person offering advice behind the scenes, Wendy wouldn't have been able to do this alone with her modest background.

There must be someone behind her.

However, they didn't know who that person was now.

"Hunter ..."

Sawyer looked at the sea with mixed feelings.

After a while, he said, "He doesn't look like a person who would seek benefits by this means."

"Dad, you should know that cats hide their claws. People can't be judged by their exterior!"

Sasha also didn't want to admit that such an outstanding man would collude with a despicable and shameless person like

Wendy.

But, if not so, why would he send them here?

Hunter indeed saved them on the high seas.

But why couldn't he help them again by sending them back directly?

Sawyer got a lot going on in his mind, with his feelings remaining mixed.

There was something in his heart he couldn't say.

He didn't even want to mention a single word.

"Don't worry, even if Wendy has my share transfer, she can't do anything with Joseph in the company!"

Even though Sasha hated to admit what her father said was true, she had to.

Joseph was indeed capable, and could be relied and trusted.

Her son definitely couldn't compare with him in this aspect.

However, jealousy was inevitable.

That was why she had felt being treated unfairly over the years.

However, when something serious really happened, people would always turn to a man of ability.

Sawyer handed over the company to Joseph, which was, in fact, a wise move, but she couldn't accept it without any complaint.

"Dad, it's windy outside. You go back to your room and rest first."

Sawyer fainted for no reason in the cockpit of the yacht, which scared her a lot.

If Hunter hadn't brought the doctor over, no one could have known what would happen to her father.

On the island, besides doctors, nurses, and a few bodyguards, there were some other people.

It didn't seem like they were watching them. Moreover, Hunter had also said that if they could sail on their own, his people would immediately escort them back.

This meant that they could sail on their own. His people would only escort them for fear that something unexpected would happen to them halfway.

At that time, at the very least, Hunter's people would be able to save them in time.

But if you lost your way on the sea without knowing how to drive the speedboat, they wouldn't give a hand.

In short, Hunter didn't restrict their freedom. They could leave if they could sail off the place.

If they couldn't, it would be their own problem.

'Ill go and study how to operate the speedboat," Sasha said.

Patriarch Gale shook his head, "Forget it, don't bother. Just trust Joseph!"

Joseph would find them, definitely.

It was already Monday. What should have happened would have happened long ago.

Sawyer looked thoughtful. He actually wasn't so eager to go back.

"As long as my children are safe, I have nothing to worry about. I can even live on this desolate island for the rest of my life if I have to."

The only precondition was that Hunter wouldn't do anything to them.

In that case, Sawyer would live here forever as an atonement.

"It hurts." Emily groaned and sat up from the bed.

Her forehead hurt so much that she reached out to touch it. Sure enough, she got quite a lump there.

Fortunately, however, it didn't bleed.

Where was she now?

She looked up and found herself in an unfamiliar room. Could it be that after she crashed into the car, she was caught by Wendy's people?

However, they didn't restrict her movements by tying her up.

Even though this room wasn't very big, it was exquisitely decorated and absolutely comfortable.

If Emily were in Wendy's hands, how could that woman be so nice to her?

Wendy couldn't wait to kill her at any time!

Where exactly was this place? Who brought her back?

Also, how long had she slept here?

Someone had obviously treated the lump on her forehead and also applied medicine to it.

Emily felt a little dizzy, but it wasn't very serious.

She got out of bed and saw a water dispenser beside her.

After hesitating for a moment, she walked over, poured a glass of water, and downed it.

After that, she put down the glass and walked to the door, listening for a while.

Outside, there was only wind wuthering.

There was also a faint smell of seawater in the room. Where exactly was she?

She tried to pull the door with caution, only to find that the room was unlocked. With a pull, the door directly opened.

The beach!

She was indeed on the beach.

It was very clean with fine sand. No garbage could be seen here, so it didn't look like a tourist attraction, nor a place many people had visited.

Could someone tell her where she was?

Emily walked out of the room. Outside, it was completely different from what she had imagined.

There were a few houses in the surroundings that some people should resided in, but no one was watching her?

Wasn't she too free?

As she walked further, she saw two figures in the distance.

Emily narrowed her eyes. After adapting to the sunlight outside, she carefully looked at the two people walking on the beach.

Suddenly, she held her breath. Her eyes lit up and she ran over right away.

"Grandpa Gale!" No! Not Grandpa Gale! He was her grandfather!

Even if it hadn't proved to be true, or everything was just her speculation, she firmly believed that he was her grandfather!

"Grandfather!"

Emily suddenly felt like crying and almost shed tears.

The person they had been constantly thinking of and searching for so long without any news, was actually right in front of her!

"Grandfather, grandfather!"

Emily's legs were a little weak when running on the beach. The smooth, fine sand made it difficult for her to run quickly.

She only ran about ten steps and accidentally fell into the sand.

But she immediately got up, and continued to run towards the two people by the sea without even brushing the sand off her clothes.

Sawyer and Sasha were alive, safe and sound!

What could be happier than this?

Perhaps, Wendy had cheated Sawyer out of many things.

Or maybe there were truly some hidden secrets between Hunter and Wendy!

It could even be that the hair samples of her and Sawyer were taken away and switched by Hunter's people!

But now, all of this wasn't so important!

The most important thing was that her grandpa was alive. Nothing had happened to him!

Emily rushed over and hugged Sawyer tightly.

"Grandfather, thank goodness you're fine. Thank god!"

She choked with sobs!

"Everyone is worried about you. I'm glad that you're fine!"

Chapter 424 He Said Someone in the Fa...

Sawyer could hardly believe that he would actually meet the person he wanted to see the most on this island.

That person was Emily, his true granddaughter.

They hugged each other tightly for a long time before something seemed to strike Sawyer's mind.

"Emily, why are you here? Why ... Did Hunter bring you here? Are you fine? Did they bully you? Did you get hurt?"

Seeing the lump on Emily's forehead, Sawyer was quite worried.

"What's going on? Who hurt you? Is it Hunter?"

Emily remained an innocent and pure girl, but Hunter actually vented his anger on her. He crossed the line!

Emily shook her head and sniffed, managing to stop her tears.

"It's not him. I didn't drive carefully and slammed on the brakes. After bumping into the steering wheel, I was knocked unconscious."

She rubbed her eyes and finally calmed down.

"Grandfather, Sasha, why are you here?"

Hearing this, Sasha felt extremely guilty and sad.

"Milady, have you also known who you are?"

"Actually, I'm not sure yet, but I'm also pretty sure at the same time."

Emily held Sawyer's hands tightly. "Previously I took my own hair and Grandfather's hair for DNA testing. But the result is I am not your granddaughter."

"How can that be?" Both Sawyer and Sasha were shocked.

Sasha hurried to say, "However, we clearly heard Wendy admit that she used your blood sample to have a DNA test with Dad in Bentson City. The result is that you are indeed related to each other."

"That's why I suspect that someone did something to our hair samples. The only possibility is ..."

Emily bit her lip. Until now, she didn't want to doubt that person.

However, it was no longer a question of doubt. That was obviously the truth and she had to face it.

"Probably, Hunter didn't want me to get reunited with you so quickly. I believe he asked someone to change our hair samples."

"It's Hunter again!" Sasha clenched her fists with her eyes filled with anger.

"What happened? Did Hunter also ... do something to you? Was he involved in this matter?"

Emily felt something clutching her heart, making her heartbroken!

The last thing she wanted to see was for Hunter to make members of the Gale family in trouble.

But now ...

"He didn't do anything to us. Instead, he rescued us from the high seas."

Sawyer held her hand and sighed helplessly.

"However, I think I can understand Hunter's feelings. He didn't want to join hands with Wendy, but he also hated to see me live comfortably. That's why he left us here."

"Since he isn't in partnership with Wendy, why couldn't he make things easier for our Gale family?"

Sasha couldn't understand this. Could it be that what Sawyer said to her today had something to do with this matter?

Sasha looked at Sawyer, feeling more and more suspicious, "Dad, is there an enmity ... between you and him? Did the Gale Group offend the Jackson Group before?"

However, normal business competition was inevitable wherever it was.

If Hunter took a revenge because of this, weren't there a large number of companies that had competed with the Jackson Group in the marketplace?

How many people could Hunter retaliate against?

When it came to his relationship with Hunter, Sawyer always wouldn't say more.

Sasha knew that there must be an historic enmity between her father and the Jackson family.

However, he was unwilling to say anything about it. Now that things had been like this, nobody could do anything about it.

"Milady, accompany your grandpa back to his room for a rest. I'll go and study how to steer the speedboat."

Sasha was also very worried right now. What she was most concerned about was the Gale Group's future.

"I hope Joseph can try his best to save the situation and not let Wendy do anything she wants."

"Joseph ..." Emily didn't want to dash their hopes, but there was something she had to tell them.

"Milady, what's wrong? Did something happen to Joseph?"

Sawyer and Sasha stared at her anxiously at the same time.

“Before I fainted, his people received the information that Wendy had taken you to the high seas, so ...

Emily hesitated for a moment and continued, “He went to the high seas to find you with his men.”

“What?” If what Emily said was true and Joseph couldn’t return today, wouldn’t the Gale group ...

Darkness came over Sawyer’s eyes and he almost fainted.

Sasha and Emily were startled and supported him in time.

“Grandfather, don’t think about anything. Go back and rest first.”

“There’re doctors on the island. Hurry up, send him over and see the doctor!”

Today, there was indeed an upheaval in the Gale Group.

Joseph hadn’t returned yet, and no one could contact him.

And now, the meeting room was filled with directors of the Gale Group.

Today the board meeting was held to dismiss Joseph from his post as president.

Wendy would be designated as the new president.

‘It’s impossible for my father to appoint you as president without informing us.’ Lottie was the first to stand up.

“That’s right, we can’t accept this either, unless the chairman comes back and explains it to us personally.”

A group of old employees also owned a small stake in the company, and they were all on Lottie's side.

'Lottie, it's Grandpa who appointed me as president. I also have the share transfer he gave me.'

Wendy sat in the main seat. The person sitting next to her wasn't a core employee, but an old shareholder of the Gale Group!

The one with the longest seniority was Carl Gale, Sawyer's half-brother and Lottie's uncle.

"We've already asked the lawyer to authenticate this transfer. It's true and effective. From now on, Wendy will take over Sawyer's shares."

"Uncle! She is not Dad's granddaughter, nor an heir to our Gale Group. She is an imposter!"

Lottie glared at Wendy, "Also, she asked someone to take Dad and Sasha away. Right now, we don't know their whereabouts yet!"

'I've already called the police. They will soon find out what she had done!'

"Sorry, I don't know what you're talking about."

Wendy was unafraid and smiled disapprovingly, "The police had taken a statement from me. If they suspected me, why didn't they arrest me?"

"Actually, this transfer was signed on Thursday. Take a look at the time yourself."

Wendy looked sideways at Lottie without fear.

"I remember clearly that on Friday morning, Grandfather and Sasha appeared in front of the media. At that time, I was with Hunter. If you don't believe me, you can send someone to investigate."

She had alibis for not being involved in the disappearance of Sawyer and Sasha.

It was Sasha who tricked Sawyer into going out to sea. What did it have to do with her?

Now that both of them had disappeared after going out to sea, no matter how the police investigated, they couldn't suspect her.

"Lottie, now I have every reason to doubt that you are scheming against Grandpa. Otherwise, he wouldn't transfer the shares to me in advance. He even told me that someone in the family wanted to take his life!

Chapter 425 The Gale Group Cannot Fal...

"What are you talking about?" Lottie couldn't believe that Wendy would be so meticulous at such a young age!

When Sawyer signed this transfer, he definitely didn't see the date clearly.

The date was actually Thursday!

"Wendy, what exactly did you mean by saying this? You have to explain it clearly."

A few old shareholders looked at her in astonishment.

Wendy glanced around at everyone, and then her gaze fell on Carl. She had a serious expression on her face.

"Grandpa told me earlier about his suspicion that Lottie colluded with Joseph to gain absolute control over the Gale Group."

"Wendy, you're slinging mud at me!" Lottie was so angry that she almost picked up the cup on the table and threw it at her.

How could the girl be so vicious at such a young age!

She even dared to slander people without any sense of guilt!

“I’m not slinging mud at you? Lottie, you know it yourself.”

Wendy, a girl in her twenties, didn’t show any sense of inferiority when facing Lottie.

She indeed had the bearing that the granddaughter of Patriarch Gale should have, which surprised everyone.

Lottie was speechless with rage.

Wendy continued, “Now the shares have been transferred to me. I’ve also discussed with Great-Uncle, who agreed to dismiss Joseph from his post as president.”

“You ...”

“Lottie, Joseph doesn’t belong to the Gale family after all. You are planning to change his surname after getting the Gale Group.

You want to take full control of the company!”

“How can that be?”

Upon hearing that Joseph was going to change his surname, everyone disagreed.

The Gale Group always belonged to the Gale family. How could an outsider be in charge?

“Wendy, Joseph and I have never thought about it!”

“Only you know it yourselves, but I can’t put the entire Gale Group at risk!”

Wendy looked at everyone without giving Lottie the chance to speak. She continued to announce, "Next, I'll serve as president of the Gale Group. As for the position of vice president, I hope that David, the grandson of Great-Uncle, will take over. I wonder if everyone has any objections."

"Wendy, it's not up to you to decide for the company!"

Lottie pointed at her and angrily said, "You clearly want to take charge of the Gale Group through such an arrangement!"

Wendy had already colluded with Carl. No wonder he was speaking up for her all the time today!

Lottie glared at Carl. "She is just an imposter. If she takes charge of the Gale Group, the company won't belong to the Gale family sooner or later."

'If she were an imposter, why would Sawyer give her the shares? Lottie, I don't want to ask about how you and your son feel anymore. Now, I agree with Wendy's decision," Carl said expressionlessly.

Wendy smiled and said again, "There is another good news that I want to tell everyone."

All the directors, who are yet to make up their minds, could only look at Wendy and wait for her to continue.

Wendy said with a smile, "When I take over the position, I will sign an agreement of main lines from City L to Bentson City with the Jackson family. Everyone should have heard about the five-year project. As long as I become the president of the Gale Group, I'll definitely be able to land this project."

"The Shinkansen network from City L to Bentson City!"

Someone exclaimed and stood up excitedly, "Really ... can you do that?"

They had assessed the project long ago. If they were able to undertake it, the Gale Group would definitely undergo a qualitative leap forward in the next five years.

However, there were several candidates for cooperation with the Jackson family in this project, who hadn't decided who to work with yet!

"But, Miss Gale, how can you be sure that we can land this project?"

Someone questioned, so everyone's gaze fell on Wendy.

Even Lottie forgot to retort and just stared at her, "Why should we believe what you said?"

"I've got the agreement. As long as I become the president, I can immediately sign with the Jackson family."

Wendy motioned to her assistant by lifting her chin, who immediately handed the agreement to Carl.

He was so excited that his fingers were trembling. "It's true. The Jackson family has signed it in advance!"

"Signed it in advance? How is this possible? Could it be that you ... you and the Jackson family ..."

"I wonder if everyone knows about my relationship with Young Master Hunter of the Jackson family."

Speaking of this, Wendy smiled as if she was a young girl passionately in love.

It turned out that their future president had such an intimate relationship with Young Master Hunter!

Didn't this mean that the Jackson family and the Gale family would be connected by marriage?

If that was the case, there would be no problem with any cooperation.

This would undoubtedly enhance the already impressive strength of the Gale Group!

“Miss Gale, you are the granddaughter of Patriarch Gale. If you can’t be the president of the Gale Group, how can an outsider?”

Everyone knew how much each of them could earn from the Shinkansen project.

Therefore, several people immediately stood up and expressed support for Wendy.

Who could remain rational when it came to profit?

Many people, who had been neutral from the beginning, began to support Wendy.

However, there were still several shareholders in the Gale Group who unswervingly backed Joseph up.

However, Sawyer had given Wendy too many shares.

Coupled with the support of Carl and several shareholders, Wendy was elected as president by an absolute advantage in the board meeting.

“Lottie, they will hold a press conference in the afternoon to announce Wendy’s appointment as president. Where exactly is Joseph now?”

After the meeting ended, a few old shareholders entered Lottie’s office with worried looks on their faces.

Even if Joseph came back now, he might not be able to save the situation.

There was even no chance of him changing what happened now.

After all, Wendy had convinced many shareholders with the Shinkansen project in her hand.

However, at such a crucial moment, it was impossible for Joseph not to come back.

'I've checked the president's previous schedule. He didn't have plans for a business trip in the past few days. Where exactly is he now?'

"By the way, Lottie, I heard that something happened to Patriarch Gale. Is that true? How is he now? Is he alright?"

Currently, it seemed that there were some problems in the Gale family.

Actually, what they were most worried about was that if something happened to the Gale family, would it be detrimental to the Gale Group?

What if the company's stock was affected ...

"Everyone, don't panic. Joseph just went out on an urgent matter and will be back soon."

In fact, Lottie was also at a loss as to what to do. She couldn't reach Joseph at all!

If that was always the case, it wouldn't be easy to settle the matter.

Also, where did Dad go?

The most terrifying thing was that even Emily had disappeared!

She had lost contact with everyone in the family. It was all because of her years of experience in the business circles that she was able to remain calm until now!

“Don’t worry, nothing will happen. Joseph and Dad will be back soon. They’ll stop Wendy from her crazy behavior!”

Chapter 426 He is Finally Here

Sawyer was in an extremely bad condition this time.

The doctor had examined him and found that he didn’t have a heart attack, but a stroke!

It was very dangerous for a person in his seventies to have a stroke.

“Doctor, you can contact Hunter, can’t you? Help me give him a call. I have something to say to him!”

Emily didn’t know what she could do now if she couldn’t get in touch with Hunter!

“My grandfather cannot continue to stay here with his current condition. He has to go back to a big hospital for treatment. Please do me a favor. Or why don’t you have someone ship us back?”

“Miss Gale, Patriarch Gale’s condition isn’t critical. Calm down.”

The doctor had absolute confidence in his medical skills.

“At this time, we can’t contact Young Master Hunter either. Miss Gale, I can’t help you, sorry.”

Emily didn’t believe that they couldn’t contact Hunter.

However, the doctor insisted on not helping her, so she could do nothing.

“Milady, don’t panic. Dad will be fine.”

In fact, Sasha was so anxious that her face turned pale. She was more helpless than Emily. Sawyer used to be in good health, but he had fainted twice in the past few days.

Sasha was quite worried that something would happen to her father ...

It was all because of her.

If it weren't for her greed, how could things have turned out like this?

"It's all my fault. Milady, you can scold me. I am to blame for what happened."

After the doctor left, Sasha, who tried to keep composure in front of outsiders, completely fell apart! Emily didn't know what to say.

In fact, she knew very well that Sasha was also involved in this matter.

Sasha was supposed to be Wendy's accomplice.

But now, because of what had happened, Wendy had obviously kicked her out.

She had suffered a pang of conscience, so what if Emily scolded her?

"Sasha, don't be like this. We're family, so I won't scold you."

"No, Milady, you don't know what happened. It's all my fault!"

Sasha now felt a terrible sense of blame!

"I know. You made Grandpa tell you things between Joseph and me. Wendy wanted to scheme against us, but you just thought if Joseph and Grandpa planned to take revenge on you in the future, at least you had bargaining chips.”

Sasha held her breath in shock, “Milady, you ...”

‘That’s my guess.’”

Previously, Emily wasn’t sure if she guessed right, but now, it seemed that she was right.

“Sasha, are you doing this for your son?”

Sasha clenched her fists. It took a while for her to calm down.

She sat beside the hospital bed and looked at her father who remained unconscious. She was completely dispirited, just like a withered flower.

Sasha said nothing and also didn’t want to explain more, because there was no such need at this moment.

Since things had reached this point, what was the use of making an explanation?

Moreover, Sasha knew clearly that she made a mistake.

“I’m sorry ...”

Sasha suddenly looked down, tears filling her eyes.

“Im sorry, Milady. I am too selfish ...”

“Sasha ...”

“I’m sorry! The person who drugged you and Joseph was me.”

“Milady, I’m so sorry!”

Sasha suddenly stood up and ran out quickly.

She couldn’t forgive herself, because things had been out of control. She could no longer atone for the heinous crime she had committed!

It was Monday today. According to Wendy’s plan, Joseph should be on the high seas now.

Sasha cannot turn back. She ... was also an accomplice!

Even if the case was reversed in the future, she would be found guilty of fraud!

Even if she wasn’t the mastermind, she would also be imprisoned.

Sasha had been suppressing her emotions for several days, but now she had a complete breakdown in front of Emily!

“Sasha!” Emily was startled, standing up quickly and chasing after her.

Sasha ran towards the stone forest in the distance.

Emily wasn’t fast enough. By the time she arrived at the stone forest, Sasha had disappeared from her sight.

“Sasha! Come out, don’t scare me!”

As long as Grandpa was fine and everyone was alive, there would be a remedy for everything.

“Sasha, I don’t blame you. Joseph and I didn’t do anything to damage the reputation of the Gale family. Sasha, things haven’t completely gone out of control!”

“Come out. Don’t hide yourself. This is a desert island. It’s very dangerous! Sasha!”

However, nothing could be heard in the stone forest, nor was there any response from Sasha.

“Sasha, listen to me. Come out, and we won’t blame you for whatever you have done.”

“Sasha, we’re family!”

“Sasha ...”

No matter how Emily shouted, there was no response.

She feared that Sasha would kill herself.

Suddenly, the sound of an engine came from the sea.

Emily turned around and saw a speedboat approaching from the sea.

Could it be Hunter?

Right now, she was quite anxious to meet Hunter, because she needed to send her grandfather back for treatment!

Emily stopped chasing after Sasha, and ran towards the beach first.

The speedboat quickly stopped on the beach. When seeing who the person was on the speedboat, Emily was suddenly overwhelmed by sadness and almost cried.

She rushed over. As the person got off the speedboat and walked quickly towards her, she ran into his arms.

He was here. He was finally here!

Everyone was waiting for him!

He was the hope of all of them!

“Joseph,” Emily called him in a hoarse and strangled voice.

“Don’t cry, I’m here now, don’t cry!”

Joseph also felt grieved. Knowing that she must have suffered a lot, he hugged her tightly.

“Don’t be afraid. I’m here in front of you. Don’t be afraid.”

Emily took a deep breath. She wasn’t that vulnerable, but too excited just now.

“Joseph, Sasha entered the dense forest. I couldn’t find her. Can you ask someone to look for her? I’m afraid she’ll hurt herself.”

Joseph immediately waved to people behind him without asking anything, “Go look for Sasha. You must bring her back.”

“Yes!” Those people rushed towards the dense forest at once and quickly disappeared from sight.

“Where’s Grandfather? Is he also on this island?” Joseph asked.

“Yes, I’ll take you to see Grandpa.”

Now Emily could call Sawyer Grandpa in a very natural way.

Undoubtedly, they were a family.

After all this, even if Emily wasn't Sawyer's granddaughter, in the minds of Joseph and Sawyer, she was already their family.

Emily held Joseph's hand and quickly walked towards the wooden house with him.

"Slow down, be careful ..." Joseph was a little worried that Emily would hurt the baby in her belly.

"It's fine. I'm very strong now."

How could she be so delicate at such a critical moment?

"Grandpa remains unconscious. Joseph, quickly get him out of here and send him to hospital for treatment!"

Chapter 427 It was All for You

They hadn't found Sasha yet.

Joseph had no choice but to take Sawyer back for treatment.

"Joseph, you take Grandpa back first. I'll stay and look for Sasha."

Emily was deeply apprehensive that something would happen to Sasha.

In her current state, she was very likely to hurt herself at any time. Emily wouldn't feel easy about leaving her here.

"No, with your current state of health, I can't have you stay here."

Joseph finally found Emily and his grandfather with great effort, so it was impossible for him to leave her here.

“No, Joseph, listen to me. Sasha ... made some serious mistakes. Even if your people find her, if they can’t persuade her, she won’t go back.”

‘I said no...’

“Joseph, I can persuade her. Of course, if you can find another person for me, things might be much easier.”

That day, after escorting Sawyer back, Joseph immediately gathered the shareholders in the company who were willing to join hands with them.

The person Emily wanted arrived at the island in the evening.

“You ...” This wasn’t the first time Francis had seen Emily, but he only caught several glimpses of her before without even greeting her.

Strictly speaking, he wasn’t familiar with Emily at all.

But that didn’t matter right now. The most important thing was ... “Where’s my mom?”

“Everyone is looking for her.” Emily stayed here only to wait for him.

“After Sasha entered the dense forest, we haven’t found her yet. I wonder if she hid herself.”

Emily grabbed his sleeve and said, "Francis, come with me and look for your mother."

Francis immediately followed her and walked into the dense forest.

Emily called his name familiarly just now, which surprised him a little.

Joseph told him that this girl was the true granddaughter of his grandfather, and his uncle's daughter.

Francis couldn't get familiar with her quickly, but compared with Wendy, he felt that Emily was lovelier.

"What exactly is going on?"

The dense forest covered a large area. Everyone had searched the place in front of them.

Right now, everyone's focus was the area behind them, deep in the forest.

That area was overgrown with weeds, which made it much more difficult for them to find Sasha there.

Francis had just come back, so he was unclear about what happened in the company.

However, he had obtained the general information.

Wendy made Sawyer transfer all his shares to her by some means.

Afterwards, she joint hands with Carl. Now she forced the board of directors to recognize her as president and dismissed

Joseph.

However, Joseph said that it was unknown whether this share transfer was authentic or not.

He decided to sue Wendy, but the key person, Grandfather, remained unconscious.

It was unclear how things would go forward, but what exactly happened to Francis' mother?

"She colluded with Wendy ..."

"Impossible, my mother won't do such a thing!" Francis immediately retorted as his face darkened.

Emily turned her head to look at him, understanding what he was thinking.

If it were her, she also wouldn't believe it.

"Actually, that's true. Sasha made a confession to me."

Francis wanted to say something, but in the end, he said nothing.

Emily continued, "I think she was only greedy for a moment, but now she regrets it."

Just because she regretted it and felt sorry about doing something like that to her father and the Gale family, she chose to hide herself and didn't want to face anything.

She was one of the main culprits behind the Gale Group's current chaos.

Perhaps Francis could gradually understand how his mother felt.

"But my mother isn't that kind of person. Power doesn't matter a lot to her."

He had been with his mother for so many years, so he knew better than anyone what kind of person his mother was.

His mother truly loved and cared about her elderly father.

How could his mother do such a foolish thing?

“If Sasha herself has no greed, then the only reason she would do that is because of you.”

“Me?” Francis was about to refute what she said, because he was even less interested in the Gale Group than his mother.

“It’s not what you want, but what Sasha wants you to have!” Emily said first.

Francis was so stunned that he remained silent, standing still where he was.

If everything his mother had done was only for him ...

“But she doesn’t know that I don’t want anything. That’s not what I want!”

Francis had made it clear to his grandfather that he had no interest in anything of the Gale Group.

However, his mother didn’t know about it at all.

Francis suddenly quickened his pace and rushed into the deep forest.

“Mom, I’m Francis. Can you hear me? Mom, come out. I’m Francis. I’m here looking for you!”

Deep in the forest, insects and birds could be heard occasionally, but no one responded.

“Young Master Francis, it’s very dangerous in the forest at night. Be careful!”

The bodyguards walking beside them warned.

However, Francis couldn't think too much.

If his mother really did something to let the Gale family down for him, she would definitely feel extremely guilty when seeing his grandpa in a poor state of health!

What if his mother really hurt herself...

No! He couldn't let her be in any danger!

"Mom, listen to me. Come out first and go home with me. Everything can be settled!"

Francis had been calling Sasha in the dense forest for a long time, but she didn't respond at all.

"Mom, you ..."

Suddenly, Emily gently tugged at his sleeve, stood on tiptoe and whispered something into his ear.

After thinking for a moment, Francis nodded and continued walking forward.

However, he seemed to miss his step, and suddenly slipped all the way down.

"Francis!" Emily was startled and quickly ran towards him. "Francis, are you okay?"

"Young Master Francis!"

The bodyguards also ran over and shouted, "Young Master Francis, are you alright? Young Master Francis!"

However, nothing could be heard down the slope.

Emily was so anxious that she almost stamped her foot. "Sasha, something happened to Francis. Sasha!"

Just now, she indeed advised Francis to pretend to have an accident.

But she didn't expect that he actually missed his step and slipped down the slope.

Without receiving Francis' reply, Emily was extremely worried and hurried to say, "You two, see if there is a path to go down."

"Yes, Miss Gale!"

The two bodyguards immediately started their search.

Emily squatted on the slope and continued to call, "Francis, are you okay? Please say something to me! Francis!"

Why was there no sound at all? Could it be that something really happened to him?

Just as Emily didn't know what to do with great anxiety, on the other side of the forest, someone rushed out from behind the bushes.

"Francis! Francis, where are you? Don't scare me!"

Emily looked back.

In the moonlight, who else could that anxious woman be but Sasha?

Chapter 428 Face It Together

"Sasha!" Emily faked Francis's accident, but she didn't expect Sasha to really take the bait.

However, although Sasha had showed up, Francis still made no response.

What happened down there?

“Francis! How are you? Where are you? Answer me!”

Standing by the slope, Sasha could see nothing but pure darkness from up here.

She was so worried but there was no way to get down there.

Desperate, Sasha tried to slide down the slope as the last resort, only to find Francis.

“Sasha! Are you out of your mind?”

Emily immediately grabbed her hand before she could do anything stupid.

“We have no idea what it’s like down there. If it’s too deep ...”

‘If it’s too deep, then my Francis ...’

That very possibility made Sasha even more worried.

So she broke free from Emily’s hand and was about to slide down the slope.

At this moment, Francis’s hearty voice came from below.

“Mom, I’m fine. It’s just a joke!”

With that, he climbed up the vine and got back there in two twos.

“Francis! Are you okay? Injured?”

Scared to death, Sasha examined her son for a long time, and only after she confirmed that he was fine did she heave a sigh of relief.

But then, something seemed to have occurred to her. Her expression suddenly changed and she turned around immediately, escaping.

Francis had long expected this. So, the moment she turned around, he caught her by her hand.

“Francis, let go of me! I don’t want to go back. I don’t deserve to go back. And I don’t want to face them!”

“But Mom, if you don’t come back, what about me? Are you gonna abandon me?”

“You still have your grandpa, your aunt and Joseph. They will take good care of you!”

If she went back, Francis would definitely get into trouble because of her.

For she had made mistakes, and he would be condemned for being the son of such a vicious and greedy woman.

She couldn’t get him involved in this, nor did she want him to look down on her!

“Mom, how much longer do you wanna hide? Don’t tell me you won’t come back forever and won’t see me anymore.”

Francis didn’t let go no matter what.

The weeds around here were basically all taller than her. As long as she was determined to hide, it would be really difficult to find her again.

“Mom, let’s go home first, and we’ll talk about it seriously, okay?”

“No, I really don’t know how to face them. And I... I don’t want to face your grandfather, either!”

“Mom, are you still feeling wronged for me? You think Grandpa doesn’t treat me well?”

Francis pulled her back. In her stunned gaze, he softened his voice.

“Mom, you really misunderstood Grandpa. It’s not that he doesn’t want to put me in an important position; it’s because I don’t want to stay in the Gale Group.”

“You don’t have to lie to me. I know what’s going on.”

Sawyer had always deemed Francis inferior to Joseph.

She admitted that her son was indeed not as shrewd a businessman as Joseph.

But her son was also a young talent. She had always believed that he was capable and competent!

“No, you don’t. You really don’t understand it this time.”

Francis held onto her wrist tightly, but his tone was so gentle.

“Mom, at that time, Grandpa offered me the position of Vice President at the Gale Group, and Joseph would be the only one of a higher rank to me.”

“What?” Sasha suddenly turned around and stared at him in shock.

Vice president? Was he serious?

She really wanted to leave that position to her son, but she knew that he was not cut out for it.

Literally.

But had Sawyer really ever promised Francis such an imperative position?

‘It’s true, Mom. It was two years ago.’

“Impossible!” That was ridiculous! Francis was merely a rookie two years ago!

“Joseph was able to take charge of the Gale Group long ago, thus Grandpa wanted to give me a nudge. He hoped all of us Gale kids to be outstanding.

But I failed him. I told Grandpa that I don’t wanna stay in the Gale Group.”

“Son...”

“Mom, I’m not lying. I don’t like business at all.”

Sasha only bit her lips and didn’t say anything.

Emily stood at the side and didn’t interrupt their conversation.

Francis continued, “I told Grandpa that I like adventure and traveling around. I don’t like to sit in the company at all.

But Grandpa told me that I must consider your feelings. Because if I failed, you will be the most disappointed person.”

‘...’ Sasha looked down.

Yes, Sawyer was right. She would be the most disappointed person should her son fail.

In fact, the very reason of her fighting for him was precisely because she didn't like his current state.

She was not so much dissatisfied with Sawyer's arrangement as with her son's incompetence.

But how could she tell him this? It would discourage him and make him lose confidence in himself.

"But I'm really not interested in these things at all. The last thing I would do was to go to work at the Gale Group. So, Grandpa offered me a way out..."

"What do you mean?" Sasha interrupted.

Francis smiled, "Mom, have you noticed a travel agency in City L that has developed exponentially in the past two years?"

"The Voyager Group?" She was the general manager of the Gale Group, of course she had always kept an eye on the start-ups in the business world.

"You ..." Suddenly, Sasha stared at her son in disbelief, her eyes wide open.

"You mean ... you mean the mysterious boss of the Voyager Group is ... is ..."

"Yes, it's me!"

Although he had previously thought that he was not interested in business, Francis didn't expect that he would be so successful in this other area.

"Two years ago, Grandpa lent me two billion yuan to start a small company. I don't know how either; it just grows like this."

Back then, he was quite afraid that he would squander away this money.

Grandpa had even said that he would not give him any advice or help.

It was precisely because his grandfather had granted him so much freedom that he could keep working in high spirits for the Voyager Group in the past two years.

There was no feeling of being shackled, nor were there any rules and regulations. Everything was developing wildly!

However, because of this wildness, the Voyager Group had managed to become one of City L's top 3 travel agencies in just two years.

Even Francis himself found the rapidity of its development incredulous.

"Son, don't ... don't lie to me."

Sasha choked. She had always thought her son as incompetent, but she didn't know that he was doing better than anyone else in another field!

It turned out that her son was really so outstanding, while she had always thought that he was ... incompetent.

"Son..."

"Mom, it's my bad. I didn't grow up in the way that you hoped."

Francis loosened his grip and gently hugged her.

"But Mom, please, trust me. You can rely on me. When you are old, you can rely on me, completely. I will make you proud. I promise."

Sasha nodded, choking even harder.

The Voyager Group had already proven to her that she could indeed rely on him.

And she would never need to worry about anyone criticizing her son anymore!

Her son was the best!

Emily let out a sigh of relief. She didn't expect to see such a U-turn.

But now, instead of keeping crying here, it was better to go back first.

"Sasha," she walked over and took Sasha's hand gently. "Grandpa is still in a coma. I'm afraid that he would be worried if he didn't see us when he wakes up."

"Yes, mom, the Gales is in trouble now. We can't stay out of this."

Francis also held her hand and said firmly, "We are a family. So now we have to go back and face it together!"

Chapter 429 Most Important to Stay To...

Sasha also returned.

Finally, all the Gales were present.

"Emily is the real Miss Gale. This is the test report and I personally oversaw the whole process."

Joseph put the report on the table.

In the hall, everyone but Sawyer, who was still in a coma, was present.

Even Milo, the old butler who had served Sawyer for so many years, was there too.

Actually, there wasn't really any doubt about the fact that Emily was indeed Sawyer's granddaughter. The test report was more or less unnecessary.

"No matter what, we're finally here, all of us."

The fact that Harley wouldn't be back seemed to be a certainty, but at least, his real daughter was here. Lottie held Emily's hand and was already in tears before she could say anything.

"Kid, you must have suffered a lot these years, living with someone like Wendy."

Everyone resonated with Lottie's words.

For a moment, the atmosphere in the hall was very gloomy.

Emily only smiled and comforted her, "I'm fine. Haven't I survived? Don't worry. Wendy is indeed quite vicious, but I can handle it."

"But this time, I'm afraid it won't be that easy."

Sasha was very guilty. She looked at Joseph and said, "Even if we wanna sue Wendy, with father's situation, we don't really stand a chance."

Sawyer was still unconscious, so the lawsuit had to be filed by his families instead.

Sasha was there when Sawyer signed the share transfer letter, so she could appear in court as a witness.

However, Sasha was the one who trick the old man out to the sea. Thus, her testimony wasn't very trustworthy to the public.

Therefore, the case might not be opened until Sawyer woke up.

'It's fine. We can at least ask the court to freeze these shares first so that Wendy wouldn't be able to sell them.'

The worst case scenario was Wendy selling her shares to people who harbored ill intentions. And that person might purchase a large number of shares from other holders.

In that case, the Gale Group was very likely to change hands one day.

'But Wendy now holds so many shares in her hands, plus, several major holders are following her. The Gale Group has already fallen into her hands, as a matter of fact.'

Although Francis didn't work at the Gale Group, he still had 3% of its shares.

So, he was supposed to be invited to the shareholders' meeting.

Obviously, Wendy was trying to override the power of the Gales in the Gale Group completely.

'Now that we're filing a lawsuit, Wendy shouldn't make any big moves at this time.'

Joseph's words could always comfort the Gales.

'I will contact the other shareholders privately. Just leave it to me. Don't worry.'

He looked at Sasha and Lottie, "You still have important positions in the company, so keep calm for the time being. Please go back and do your job."

"If we go back now, wouldn't we be living at Wendy's mercy?"

Knowing that Wendy was not the real Miss Gale but still working for her, how could Sasha be willing to do that?

Lottie looked at his son, sighed and nodded, "I see. I won't act on impulse."

"Sister..."

'It is precisely because the company has fallen into Wendy's hands and Joseph is not the president anymore that we can't afford making any mistake."

Right now, Wendy could call a shareholders' meeting at any time to remove them from their posts if something went wrong or their attitudes were not okay to her.

Then, there would be no Gale in the Gale Group.

"Sasha, it's not the time to act on impulse. You have to learn to endure, understand?"

For all these years, Sasha was good at nearly everything but enduring.

She had a bad temper and would do things in a hurry sometimes.

So this was actually a good opportunity for Sasha to refine her temperament.

"Promise me that you won't provoke Wendy or cause trouble until Joseph comes up with a better solution."

Lottie stared at her sister with a serious face.

“You cannot give her any chance to find faults with you, okay?”

Facing her sister’s stern gaze, no matter how angry Sasha was, she could only calm down.

Finally, she nodded.

‘I see. I won’t let her have any opportunity!’

“Now, that is my good sister!”

Lottie smiled and let out a sigh of relief.

Joseph looked at everyone and smiled, “Actually, the most important thing is that we are together now. As long as our family is united, nothing will be truly difficult.”

Nothing was more important than the family being united.

Emily had been thinking about Joseph’s words for the whole night. They lingered in her mind.

Family is only complete when they are together!

The Gales were together now, but the father of her child...

It was inevitable for her to think about those things when she was alone.

She touched her belly, fantasizing that her baby was asleep inside, sound and quiet.

She was so absorbed in her thoughts that she didn't even notice that someone else had come in.
"Still thinking about him?" Joseph pulled out a chair and sat down opposite her.

His gaze also fell on her belly.

A baby was in there, but not many people knew about it.

"Joseph, what happened between you and me..."

"Don't worry. As long as you don't go on the Internet and read the news, everything would be fine."
He was afraid that if she took a look, she would suffer from cyber-attacks.

Wendy had hired people to hype up their affairs, and now, it was getting more and more exaggerated.
There were still things that Emily did not know and Joseph did not want her to know.

"In short, you just stay at home now and take good care of yourself. Don't think about anything else."
"You mean ... there's still a huge storm on the Internet?"

Emily almost couldn't help but pick up her phone to check it.

However, Joseph's gaze calmed her down.

"Listen to me. Don't look, don't ask, and don't think. I will settle it down."

He held her hand and said, "Take care of yourself, okay?"

Emily bit her lips and finally nodded.

She could not be a burden to Joseph now, nor could she drag him down.

Like he said, the most important thing right now was to take good care of herself.

They still have to take care of Grandpa!

Only when she recovered could she have more energy to do that.

“Joseph, I know what to do. I won’t let you worry about me. You have my words.”

Joseph nodded, “Have a good night. I’ll take you to grandpa tomorrow.”

“That won’t be necessary. You must have a lot of things to do. Just do your things. It’s fine.”

Emily sent him out of the room, “I will go with Milo. He’ll take care of me.”

Chapter 430 Are You Keeping Something...

Joseph walked into his room and just as he closed the door, the assistant called.

Joseph walked to the side of the bed and took a closer look, yet found no trace of a camera.

“Master, I’m afraid the evidence has already been destroyed. It must be one of our own guys; outsiders can’t succeed so easily.”

The assistant was a little helpless, “It is pointless to look for the source of the photos now. More importantly, the photos have already been spread out.”

"I know." Joseph turned on his laptop.

He took a look at the social media; the photos of him sleeping with Emily were all over there. And there were even some videos.

Fortunately, someone had come in and interrupted them before it was too late.

Otherwise, if something did happen, Emily's whole life would be totally ruined!

How malicious was the person who posted the photos!

And who would that be except Wendy?

It was really surprising that this time, even he was defeated.

"Master, these photos are spread so widely now that the public seems to be certain about their version of your relationship with Miss Emily."

The assistant was a little hesitant, but he had to say it.

"Master, with these photos online, it's definitely not the time to reveal Miss Emily's real identity."

'I know!"

This was what Wendy was up to.

Even if Emily was the real Miss Gale, the public mustn't know it right now.

Otherwise, their affair would make the Gales a mere joke.

And such a joke — such a stain — would never be cleared.

So they couldn't reveal Emily's identity at will.

Wendy wanted to use the public opinion to threaten them.

As long as they tell the public that she was the fake Miss Gale, she would immediately admit that Emily was the real Miss Gale.

At that time, though it wouldn't hurt Joseph very much, Emily would be sure to bear the brunt and suffer like hell.

"Do some digging on the celebrities and cover this up completely."

"Yes, I'll try my best."

The key was that their opponent was stirring up the ruckus at the same time.

In City L, the affair of Joseph, the master of the Gales and the last president of the Gale Group, was probably not something that would be covered up by celebrity affairs.

So he could only say that he would try his best.

Joseph didn't say anything else. Hanging up the phone, he scanned through the articles and photos on the Internet again.

He was thinking about several people.

Who would be the person behind Wendy?

Could it really be Hunter?

Emily was his woman, but didn't he care about his own woman at all? Really?

If this were to be leaked, the rest of Emily's life would be, most likely, totally ruined.

Hunter, if it was really you who was behind all this, would you regret it in the future?

Emily got up early in the morning and tidied herself up.

Seeing that her complexion was a little pale, she even put on some powder today to make herself look better.

If Grandpa could wake up, he would definitely be worried when he saw her pale face.

"Milo, let's go." She went downstairs with her handbag.

Milo felt a little complicated when he saw her.

After hesitating for a while, he said, "Miss Emily, there isn't really any news from the hospital. How about you just stay at home today? Don't go out."

"Why? I want to see Grandpa." Emily blinked and walked over to him, a little puzzled. "Didn't we have a deal?"

"No, but the Old Master is still the same today. If he doesn't wake up, it would only be a waste of time for you to visit him."

“That is different. I have to go to the hospital to take care of Grandpa. How could I be at ease to leave him completely to other people?”

Emily tilted her head and stared at his face, “Milo, you seem to be really troubled. Are you keeping something from me?”

“Of course not!”

Milo responded too fast and appeared to be somewhat guilty instead.

Emily frowned, and her doubts grew even heavier.

“Milo, are you ... really hiding something from me?”

“How can an old man like me hide anything from you?”

“Okay, then let’s go.” The more he delayed, the more Emily was worried.

However, Milo had received a mission today, and that was to try his best to keep her home.

What if they run into the reporters when they go out ...

Milo was really worried that without Joseph being here, he would not be able to handle these things on his own.

.. Well, Miss Emily, I... Since the hospital said that the Old Master is fine, why don’t we... why don’t we go see him tomorrow...”

“Milo, just tell me honestly, did something happen to Grandpa?”

Emily's heart skipped a beat. The more she thought about it, the more she was sure that this was the case.

She turned anxious, "Milo, if you don't take me, I'll go myself. I can drive myself!"

Something must have happened to Grandpa, or Milo wouldn't be so hesitant.

What exactly happened? Did the situation get worse?

Emily turned around to leave without further thinking.

"No, no. The Old Master is perfectly fine. Miss Emily, listen to me. He's really fine."

Joseph had gone out early this morning and looked very busy. He must have to deal with a lot of things.

Both Lottie and Sasha had gone to the company. So, he was the only one who could accompany Emily in the family.

Joseph had said that Miss Emily was in poor health, so how could he let her go out on her own?

"Miss Emily, I'll go with you. I'll go with you now. Don't panic."

Although Emily was pregnant, she was still young and walked much faster than Milo.

Chasing after her, Milo was nearly out of breath.

"Miss Emily, I'll go with you. Don't worry, don't ... I can't do it. My stomach!"

Milo suddenly covered his stomach and screamed, "Miss Emily, my stomach hurts; it hurts so much!"

Emily was stunned. She stopped and quickly turned back.

"Milo, how are you? Are you alright?"

'L... I'm out of breath!'

Milo was clearly short of breath as his old face flushed red.

"Miss Emily, my stomach hurts when I walk too fast. Please don't let me chase after you so hard."

Seeing that his face was really red, Emily felt a little guilty.

"I'm sorry, Milo. I just..."

'It's fine, it's fine. I know. You're just worried about the Old Master.'

Milo had no choice but to go with her right now.

"Don't panic. He is really alright. I'll go with you to the hospital right now."
