

Now And Forever 431

Chapter 431 He Wasn't Behind This

“Master.” Just as Joseph got out of the car, the assistant walked over with a stack of documents in his hands.

“What is it?” His assistant had always been calm and rarely so anxious.

“Master, take a look. This is the plan for the Shinkansen project.”

It took the assistant a lot of effort to ask someone to get the plan in secret.

Of course, given that Joseph was not the president anymore, he had to take an informal approach to get it.

But the situation was so urgent that even if it was informal, he couldn't care so much.

“Master, I have studied it. This project absolutely cannot be started. Once it is started, the Gale Group will suffer heavy losses.”

Joseph's eyes narrowed, “Go ahead.”

His phone rang up, but his assistant's stern face was telling him that he had to take the matter seriously.

As for the phone, he just casually pressed the mute button and threw it to the side, without checking who it was.

The assistant said immediately after the door was closed, “I have got news that there is a new high-speed rail plan in City L that will be implemented by the end of next year.”

“They are in conflict?”

“Yes, the two projects are in conflict. This contract would only benefit the Jacksons of Bentson City. However, for us, we will suffer heavy losses when the high-speed rail of the government is completed.”

The Gales had been a pharmaceutical producer for generations, and almost all of their previous businesses were related to medicine or cosmetology.

The new projects were still in their infancy.

Many people in the company, even Lottie and Sasha, were still only exploring the new project.

However, Joseph had analyzed it for a long time.

The reason why the project was put on hold was precisely because it was unclear what plans the government had.

Many directors in the company were blaming him for not following up, but not everything could be said in public.

“The Jackson Group has steeped in similar projects for so many years, so whatever news we can get, it’s impossible that they couldn’t.”

Joseph looked down and flipped through the documents page by page.

In the end, his face became even darker, “Who in the Jackson Group is cooperating with Wendy on this project?”

“The fifth young master.”

“Porter Jackson?”

Joseph had thought that Hunter would be the one who was working together with Wendy on this project.

After all, Hunter had taken over several similar projects before.

There would be no accident if such projects fell into the hands of Hunter.

He hadn't expected that Wendy's partner this time wasn't Hunter.

“I had thought that it must be Mr. Porter. He has experience in this field.”

Joseph did not say anything and fell into deep thought.

It wasn't Hunter. But the agreement on this project was signed immediately after Wendy obtained the equity.

Judging from the time span, the people from the Jackson Group and Wendy had definitely colluded in advance.

If it wasn't Hunter, then could it be that the person behind Wendy was Porter?

“Mr. Porter is really good at hiding!”

He wasn't very eye-catching before. Joseph didn't expect that at the critical moment, he would take so hard a bite of them!

“Contact the board of directors of the Gale Group. I’m gonna return to the company to hold a meeting of the board of directors.”

He was afraid that this project would really be implemented if he didn’t go back.

“Master, we have already signed the agreement. Unless the people from the Jackson Group are willing to cancel it together with us, we will breach the contract no matter what.

And the penalty for breach of contract is 30 billion!”

30 billion! Such a high penalty was completely unreasonable!

Before Joseph could say anything, the assistant explained, “They didn’t just sign this new high-speed rail plan. They also signed the plan for the line between City L and the distant sea area of Bentson City.”

“Nonsense!” How could these people do it so recklessly when they knew nothing about it?

No, it was not that Wendy knew nothing; she only followed Porter!

“Master, the directors of the company are all following Wendy. Furthermore, it is everyone’s wish to cooperate with the Jackson

Group of Bentson City.”

“At this time, even if you go back to reason with them, no one will listen to you.”

Most importantly, the master also knew another point, right?

“This plan was obtained by informal means. If you take it to the board of directors to argue with them, Wendy might lose control and call the police ...”

Joseph waved his hand and the assistant stopped talking.

This thing couldn't be discussed above board, indeed.

He had already been dismissed from his post and was no longer the president of the Gale Group. It was indeed inconvenient for him to do a lot of things.

He took out a cigarette from nowhere and lit it for himself.

The assistant didn't dare to speak. It seemed that the master was also deeply troubled this time.

Recently, he had always been very troubled.

He hadn't been a smoker.

After a long time, Joseph took out his phone and found that Milo had called several times.

Joseph called him back, but he didn't answer the phone — maybe his phone wasn't by his side, or whatever.

Joseph didn't call again. Instead, he dialed another number.

After a few seconds, a guy picked up the phone.

"Mr. Gale, to what do I owe this pleasure?" The man said in a low and pleasant voice.

"Have you heard of the project that Wendy and Porter are working on, Mr. Jackson?"

Neither of them was idle, so Joseph didn't intend to waste any time and went straight to the point.

Hunter smiled and said, "I've just heard of it, and it seems to be two projects."

Joseph touched his lower lip and said in a deep voice, "I wonder if Mr. Jackson is free now? Can we have a dinner together?"

"I'm free right now. How about you come by at the café?"

Hunter seemed to be in a good mood and agreed straightforwardly.

"But I only have one hour. There's a video link in an hour and a half, and I have to go back to the hotel."

Joseph had no doubt that he was busy.

But he was quite surprised that Hunter was willing to see him, and it went so smoothly.

At least now he would have a chance to talk with Hunter.

"Alright, where are you? I'm coming over now."

Hanging up the phone, he received an address from Hunter.

Joseph then sent the location to his assistant, "Let's go there, now."

The assistant immediately started the car without the slightest pause.

Both Joseph and Hunter were busy people, and their time was invaluable.

Just as they set off, Joseph's phone rang again. It was still Milo.

Joseph picked up the phone. Milo sounded a little anxious, "Master Joseph, do you have time to come over now?"

“No, I’m on my way to see Hunter. Is there something urgent?”

Hearing that he was going to see Hunter, Milo could only swallow the words back into his stomach.

“No, it’s fine. You go see Master Hunter first. I can handle these things here.”

Chapter 432 Give Her to Me with Your...

Emily had never expected that there would be so many reporters waiting for her in the hospital.

Yes, they were waiting for her!

And today, she was the key role in the eyes of all the reporters!

“Miss Gale, what do you want to say about the photos of you and Mr. Joseph online?”

“Miss Gale, there are rumors that you are actually the real Miss Gale while Miss Wendy is only a fake. Is that true?”

“What nonsense are you talking about? Miss Emily ... she’s just here as a guest!”

Milo and the bodyguards protected Emily behind them, but they didn’t expect that more and more reporters would rush over.

“Miss Gale, are you the real Miss Gale or not? Are those rumors true or false?”

‘If you are the real Miss Gale, how would you explain the affair between you and Mr. Joseph? Could it be that your cousins ...’

“Shut up!” Milo was so angry that he nearly kicked the bucket on the spot.

Pointing at the reporter who asked the question, his fingers were trembling.

“If you keep talking nonsense, I will sue you for slander!”

The reporter was kind of frightened and withheld the question.

However, he was still unwilling to back down and continued to ask, “Then Miss Gale, have you confirmed your relationship with

Mr. Joseph? As you know, there are so many photos of you and ... How do you explain this?”

“Are the two Gales really gonna unite by marriage?”

“Miss Gale, there are rumors that you are already pregnant. Is it Mr. Joseph’s child?”

“Miss Gale, there is news from Bentson City that you are in a relationship with Hunter Jackson. Is that true?”

“Miss Gale, are you dating both of them now?”

“Miss Gale, could you please explain ...”

“Get out of the way! Get out of the way!” Milo and the bodyguards finally managed to break through the crowd of reporters and went into the hospital.

After entering the inpatient department, with the security guards there and the bodyguards hired by the Gales, the reporters were finally stopped outside.

“Miss Emily, are you alright?”

Seeing Emily clutching her stomach and frowning, Milo looked nervous.

He had already warned her not to come. And Joseph had especially told him not to let her go out today.

However, he didn't expect that this still happened.

Emily's face was extremely pale. She was covering her belly, not because she was uncomfortable, but because she was afraid that her baby inside might get hurt.

"Photos ..." She finally came to think of it. She took out her phone and checked.

All of a sudden, Emily felt like she was dealt a blow.

No wonder Joseph asked her to stay away from the Internet. It turned out that everyone now knew that she was "dating both men at the same time".

What was worse was that her so called sex photos with Joseph were spread everywhere!

How could her identity as the real Miss Gale be revealed at this point?

There was evidence, and it was not an empty groundless rumor. Once her identity as the real Miss Gale was unveiled to the public, the reputation of the Gales would be completely ruined!

Did that mean she could never return to and become a member of the Gales justifiably?

The feeling of powerlessness almost engulfed her!

"Miss Emily, don't worry. Master Joseph will definitely find a way to settle this. He always will."

Of course, Milo knew what she was worried about. In fact, he was haunted by the same specter, too.

The real Miss Gale was back, so when Sawyer woke up, he would definitely acknowledge her identity and welcome her home.

But now, this path of home coming was simply too rough!

Even if they could get it off the trend and cool it down now, when Sawyer woke up and claim to the public that Emily was his real grand-daughter, this affair would definitely be brought up again.

Public opinion was a terrifying force.

Especially in this era of the Internet, the damage of this could be absolutely unimaginable.

“I’m fine, Milo, don’t worry about me.”

Emily calmed down and comforted him instead, “As long as Grandpa can wake up and I can stay by his side, I’m satisfied. As for the future ...”

No one knew what would happen and where she would be in the future.

Besides, she still had a baby in her belly. If she didn’t want to disappoint her grandpa, she had to leave him as her belly grew larger and larger.

Therefore, for her, the word “future” was beyond her reach.

‘I’m really fine. This is why you didn’t want me to come out? You are afraid that I might be hurt and couldn’t bear the pressure?’

Emily smiled and said helplessly, “Milo, you and Joseph have both looked down on me.”

“That’s not what I meant, it’s just that ...” He didn’t want her to get hurt anyway!

“I’m really fine.”

Emily took a deep breath and cheered up, “Let’s go to see Grandpa.”

Sawyer’s condition was fairly stable, but he still couldn’t wake up.

However, he was not in the intensive care unit now but had been transferred to the special care unit.

So the family members can visit him at any time.

Emily pulled out a chair and sat down by the bed. Then she held her grandfather’s hand.

She had so many words that she wanted to say, but didn’t know where to start.

If she had known that he was her grandfather in the first place, she should have stayed by his side and accompanied him all along.

Grandpa was already so old, and his days were literally numbered ...

A trace of sadness flashed through her eyes.

She didn’t know how much time he had left; she only hated herself for not being able to stay by his side earlier and take good care of him!

“Grandpa,” Emily choked.

So many words were stuck in her throat and just couldn't get out.

In the end, she wiped her tears and squeezed out a smile, "Grandpa, now that we're together as a family, please get better soon.

No matter what is going on and how rough it is, as long as you get better, we'll definitely get through this."

"You want Emily?"

Joseph didn't expect that Hunter would raise such a condition.

Hunter and Emily had been together for a long time. In fact, if they were happy with each other, the Gales had no reason to separate them.

Moreover, as far as he knew, Emily indeed had feelings for Hunter.

Or she wouldn't be willing to bear his child.

Even though she was forced to at that time, she had never thought of having an abortion. Therefore, Joseph could tell that she must be in love with the father of the child, too.

But why would Hunter raise this as a condition now?

Joseph thought for a moment before his face suddenly darkened.

"Mr. Jackson, why do you have to humiliate Emily in such a disrespectful way? She's merely a little girl. How could she possibly offend you?"

"As you said, she's just a little girl. So what do you think is the meaning for me to humiliate her?"

Hunter lit a cigarette for himself and casually had a whiff of it.

Behind the smoke, his face was filled with wildness.

He was like a cheetah so dangerous that people would put themselves on guard instinctively.

He looked at Joseph and smiled, "I want the Gales to give her to me with your own hands."

Chapter 433 It Could Not Be Long a Se...

Hunter wanted the Gale family send Emily to him!

Hunter didn't want to humiliate Emily. He wanted to humiliate the whole Gale family!

"Why?" Joseph clenched his fists tightly, and he felt his anger rising!

"When did our Gale family offend you? Why do you hate us so much?" Joseph asked.

If grandpa knew about such a humiliation, he would definitely be so angry that he would be in the depths of despair.

What benefits could Hunter get from this?

"You don't need to know my grudge against your family. And this is my only request."

Joseph got mad, while Hunter was calm.

"Furthermore, my request may change at any time. If you don't want the Gale Group to be in a difficult situation, I advise you to make a decision earlier, Young Master Joseph."

“Young Master Hunter...”

“For the time being, I don’t have much time to think about these things.”

Hunter stood up. He just stayed for a few minutes, and he was leaving now.

Joseph knew that Hunter was busy and the latter didn’t intentionally leave him alone.

However, Joseph could not agree to his request.

“Since I can’t meet your requirement, please forget it, Young Master Hunter.”

Joseph took his briefcase and turned around to leave.

However, Hunter stared at his back and said slowly, “You knew that she was my woman. You don’t need to refuse me so thoroughly.”

Joseph stopped and turned to look at him, pursing his thin lips tightly.

“I don’t know why you want to take revenge on the Gale family, but you hurt her as you made this request. Have you ever thought of that?”

“She’s your woman, but she’s not your doll!” Joseph added.

After that, Joseph left with anger.

And he slammed the door behind him.

However, Hunter just smoked, and he showed no emotion to what Joseph said.

Hurt?

Did they consider his feelings when they joined forces to hurt him?

Everyone had to pay for what they had done!

“Young Master Hunter, it seems that Wendy’s backer is Young Master Porter. So...”

“Is it necessary to hold him to account?” Hunter sneered and interrupted Liam.

“Since what they did didn’t harm the Gale Group’s interests, I don’t need to interfere.”

However, Liam was still worried.

“Young Master Hunter, why... why must you hurt Miss Emily? Back then...”

“Don’t mention what happened back then!”

Hunter fiercely put his cigarette out on an ashtray.

His face was so cold as if he was from the hell.

His child was dead, and his woman left him. Even if Emily came back to him, she was not the one he once loved.

He just took her as a toy!

“Tell her the condition I negotiated with Joseph. Let her make a decision!”

“Young Master Hunter...” Liam was in a dilemma.

This was truly too hurtful for Emily!

“What? Do you think I am merciless?” Hunter sneered and gave Liam a sidelong glance.

His eyes were actually chill to the bone.

However, Liam knew that this chill was not directed at him.

Hunter hated the Gale family, especially Sawyer!

For an old man in his seventies, he might not be able to endure such a humiliation.

However, Hunter wouldn't consider it.

“Joseph isn't stressed enough. Give him more pressure.”

“Young Master Hunter...”

“If you don't want to do that, you can leave at any time. If you don't leave, do your best!”

Liam followed behind Hunter and sighed helplessly as he looked at Hunter's cold back.

He wouldn't leave Hunter! No matter what happened, he would not leave!

He was just... afraid that Hunter would regret it in the future.

If Hunter insisted to do so, it would not only hurt Emily but also hurt himself, wouldn't it?

Would he really be happy?

Sawyer finally began to pick up.

That day, Emily accompanied him in the hospital all day.

In the afternoon, she was rubbing his hands. She didn't expect that he moved his fingers slightly.

Emily was afraid that it was her illusion, so she didn't call the doctor. She continued to rub his hands. About ten seconds later, he actually moved his fingers again.

This time, it was absolutely no longer an illusion!

The doctor was here, and the whole Gale family was here. Everyone heaved a sigh of relief at the doctor's announcement. The doctor said that Sawyer would wake up in a few days. "Thank heavens!" Lottie began to be superstitious.

She made phone calls to asked servants to pray for Sawyer.

Sasha stayed with Sawyer and refused to leave the hospital whatever others said.

Francis and Joseph also stayed in the ward for more than two hours before they left.

"Look, Dad's hand is starting to have strength. He even held my hand lightly just now!" Sasha sobbed. She almost burst into tears with joy and turned to look at Lottie.

Lottie just called the servants and instructed them to prepare something for worship.

Seeing Sasha's appearance, Lottie was also moved.

"He'll be fine. Dad is a good person. Good people will live a long life. He will wake up soon and get better."

Sasha nodded and turned to look at Emily standing beside. She said, "Emi, thank you for staying with Dad and taking good care of him every day.”

“It’s my duty to take care of grandpa. Besides, I...”

Emily suddenly stopped in the middle of her speech. Her face changed as she covered her mouth.

“Emi?” Sasha frowned.

Lottie also noticed that Emily was strange. She was about to go over, and she asked, “What’s wrong?”

“Nothing.” Emily managed to hold back the nausea.

However, she still felt nauseous. She was afraid that she would vomit up, so she said, “Perhaps I have stayed in the ward for too long and I feel a little uncomfortable. I’m going out for a walk.”

“Don’t go far. Your grandpa may wake up at any moment.”

“Aunt Lottie, don’t be so anxious. The doctor said that grandpa wouldn’t wake up until the day after tomorrow.”

Lottie nodded and smiled.

Indeed, she was too anxious.

After that, Emily hurried out of the ward, and quickly walked towards the end of the corridor.

There was a bathroom.

She was going to retch!

Recently, the frequency of her retching was increasing. Her morning sickness was getting more obvious.

If it continued, how long could she keep it a secret?

Grandpa was getting better, but Emily was afraid that he would be ill again in anger if he knew her secret. She was pregnant without a husband, and the baby's father did not like them.

What should she do?

Emily rested in the bathroom for a long time until she was sure that she wouldn't vomit again. Then, she washed her face and came out of the bathroom.

Just as she walked to the corner of the corridor and was about to return to the ward, she suddenly heard a familiar voice.

The man was clearly in anger and he asked, "Did you say that Hunter wanted Emi?"

Chapter 434 I Was with Him

That was Francis's voice, which was indignant.

Emily was astounded. Young Master Hunter... Were they talking about Hunter?

Why did Hunter want her? She had been his woman already!

Joseph was also very angry, but his anger wasn't as clear as Francis'.

"Yes," said Joseph. When he thought of that Hunter spoke with unconcern, Joseph felt an urge to smoke.

“No! He’s a bastard. We can’t send Emi to him!” Francis punched the wall in anger.

The Gale family would never sell a family member for glory!

Joseph turned around and looked at the distant horizon. “I didn’t agree,” he said indifferently.

Francis knew that Joseph would definitely not agree to such a thing.

However, Joseph was tired out in the past few days. Although Francis did not participate in it, he could tell that Joseph was tired.

Standing behind Joseph, Francis could clearly feel the former was overwhelmed.

Joseph was carrying the burden of the entire Gale family.

Francis finally hated himself a little. In the past, he was unwilling to work in the Gale Group. Now, he wanted to help but he could do nothing.

“Joseph, when grandpa asked you to work in the Gale Group, did you... resist?”

Actually, Francis still remembered one thing very clearly. He knew that Joseph liked painting since they were little kids.

Joseph once dreamed to be a painter.

As for Francis, he was used to living a carefree life. When he grew up, there were many things he wanted to do, but he was unwilling to be in business.

Thus, he directly told his grandfather that he did not like to work in the Gale Group.

What about Joseph?

Francis had never heard Joseph talking about his dream since they were adults.

“Why should I resist?” Joseph looked back at Francis as if looking at a little kid.

In fact, Joseph was only a year older than Francis.

“But...”

“Besides, you had resisted. I couldn’t resist either.”

Joseph smiled. However, he had a lot on his mind in these days, thus he smiled with a heavy heart.

“There are only two children who can take over grandpa’s business in the family, you and me. You’re gone. If I leave too, grandpa may die of anger...”

In the current situation, the word ‘die’ seemed a little unlucky.

Joseph stopped. He looked at the time and said, “If you have nothing else to do, you can stay and look after them for a few days.

I have to leave now.”

Francis knew that Joseph had endless work to do.

He nodded, “Don’t worry. I’ll take good care of the women at home.”

“OK.”

Joseph did not show the slightest bit of pretentiousness. He could be at ease if Francis took good care of the women at home.

“Keep an eye on Emi. You have to take good care of her.”

Although Francis didn't think that Emily needed to be taken care of since she was healthy, he thought that Joseph must have a reason.

He nodded and said, “OK. Don't worry.”

Joseph glanced at the door in the distance again. Although he was still a little worried, he really had to leave.

Now that Hunter was unwilling to help them, Joseph could only have a talk with the company's senior directors.

However, recently, it was clear that someone was purchasing the Gale Group's shares outside.

He had already had someone rush to buy the shares, even in a high price. But they were not as fast as that person.

Someone wanted to take down the Gale Group. It seemed to be Hunter, but Wendy's partner was not him.

Joseph was confused.

He only knew that this person was really powerful!

After Joseph left, Francis was about to go back to the ward to see his grandfather.

Unexpectedly, he turned around and saw a slender figure standing at the corner.

“Emi?” Francis was stunned. He looked at her and then at the direction where Joseph left.

Suddenly, Francis was nervous and he asked, “Emi, when did you come? Just now...”

"I heard everything I should hear." Emily was expressionless. She had processed all the shock and confusion.

"Hunter said he wanted me, right?"

"No... no, you misheard. How is that possible?"

Francis forced a smile.

Joseph had told him that they must hide it from the women in the family, especially Emily.

But he didn't expect that Emily was actually here and heard their conversation.

Francis smiled at her and lied, "Just now, Joseph only said that you knew Hunter before. You are all from the Bentson City."

"Francis, what's the point of lying to me at this time?"

Emily walked over and stared at Francis' awkward smile. She said, "I heard everything. Hunter said that he wanted to get me in return."

She was so calm and showed no emotion on her face. That was not for her age.

"Emi..."

"What did Joseph talk to Hunter about? What do they want to exchange?"

It was all her fault. These days, she was only focus on finding grandpa.

After she found grandpa, she only stayed by grandpa's side.

She had never put much attention on the business of Gale Group.

She thought that she didn't know anything, and as long as Joseph was there, he would definitely solve all the problems.

However, she didn't notice that Hunter might be one of Joseph's opponents.

No matter how powerful Joseph was, he would probably lose to Hunter.

In both her previous life and this life, Emily had never seen that Hunter suffered a single defeat in the business!

Moreover, apart from Hunter, there was also the power behind Wendy!

Francis hesitated, not knowing whether to tell her or not.

Joseph didn't want him to say more, but it seemed that Emily wouldn't give up until she got an answer.

He sighed and looked at Emily. He asked, "You and Hunter..."

"I have been with him. We were together before, then we separated, and later..."

She bit her lower lip. It was a humiliation for her.

However, at this point, she didn't need to care about that humiliation.

"Later, for some reason, I was still with him... No, exactly, I am a toy for him."

"Emi!" Francis's face darkened. How could she say such words to humiliate herself?

However, Emily was calm.

Looking at Francis's eyes, she smiled lightly, "This is the truth. I don't need to hide it from you at this point. Francis, tell me, what exactly did Joseph want to talk to Hunter about? What does he want Hunter to agree to?"

Chapter 435 He Couldn't See Through Her

Sawyer's condition was more stable. The doctor concluded that he would definitely wake up tomorrow night at the earliest, and the morning after tomorrow at the latest.

Emily felt relieved.

That night, she made an excuse and left the hospital. But she didn't go back to the Gale's house.

She went to another place.

The door of the room was actually no different from a normal top-grade suite.

However, it seemed to be chilling, perhaps because it was his room.

Emily knocked on the door. It was Liam who opened the door.

Liam didn't seem to be surprised at all.

Emily had to suppose that they knew her whereabouts well all the time.

Liam's expression was unacceptable for Emily.

She wondered if they knew she was coming.

Emily felt a stronger bitterness, but there was nothing she could do about it.

“Miss Emily, you are here.” Sure enough, Liam didn’t hide that he knew she would come.

“Why do you know I would come here?” Emily frowned, still unhappy.

She believed that her two cousins, Francis and Joseph, would never expose her whereabouts.

Moreover, they had no idea that she would come here.

If they knew, they would definitely stop her.

“Nothing. Young Master Hunter guessed that you would come.”

Liam smiled and opened the door.

Emily took a deep breath and walked in.

Liam did not say a word and left.

The moment the door was closed behind her, for some reason, she suddenly felt that she returned to the gilded cage.

Emily stood behind the door, staring at the man and clenching her fists tightly. He was sitting on the sofa and drinking wine.

Hunter didn’t even look up as he poured himself a glass of wine while reading some files.

Emily did not know how long she had been looking at him. Both of them kept silence, and the air in the room became even gloomier.

After a long while, Emily took a deep breath and walked towards him.

“Young Master Hunter, can I have a talk with you?”

“Do you think you can enter my room if I don’t agree to talk with you?”

Hunter still did not look up. He finished reading the files and threw them aside, and then he poured himself a glass of wine.

When he was drinking, he leaned against the sofa and glanced at her indifferently.

He was indifferent, but at the very least, he gave her the chance to speak.

After all, he “agreed” to let her in, didn’t he?

“Why did you tell Joseph that you want me in exchange?”

Hunter’s indifference suddenly diverted Emily from what she was thinking before entering the room.

Hunter picked up the glass and looked at her indifferently.

This kind of gaze sank Emily into slight unease.

She never was able to see through this man’s thoughts. She never was able to guess what he was thinking.

When she thought that she knew him well enough, maybe she was just cheating herself.

“Young Master Hunter, what exactly do you want?”

"I want you." Hunter's indifference almost drove Emily crazy.

He smiled, "Didn't I say it clearly?"

Emily did not know if he was serious.

'I don't think I deserve this."

After all, their agreement hadn't come to an end. If he really wanted her, she couldn't resist.

What was the point of him doing this?

"I said I want you." Hunter was not joking at all.

However, his next words made Emily felt chill to the bone.

"I have only one request. The Gale family should send you to me personally."

"Hunter Jackson!" Emily clenched her fists tightly and immediately understood his intention. "You want to humiliate the Gale family!"

"Looks like you're not stupid." In front of her, Hunter had no intention of hiding anything.

His smile chilled Emily.

She clenched her fists and trembled. She asked, "Why?"

"You don't need to know the reason."

“So, even if I tell you that I will be back with you, you won’t give the Gale family a helping hand, right?”

It wasn’t that she didn’t want her self-esteem, but she knew that Joseph had really done his best.

The Gale family was in a dangerous situation under Wendy’s leadership.

In any case, Emily thought that she was already defeated enough, so it didn’t matter if she was sent to Hunter to be humiliated.

However, what he wanted to humiliate now was not her, but the whole Gale family.

She wouldn’t allow it!

“I won’t make the Gale family get into such a state. I won’t give you the satisfaction!”

If grandpa was humiliated, he would probably not be able to survive in his condition.

She didn’t know the deep hatred between Hunter and the Gale family, but the most important thing for her now was that her grandpa got better!

Emily turned around and was about to leave.

Unexpectedly, before she could leave the room in the hotel, a strong and tall figure flashed in front of her, and then Hunter stood between her and the door. She even didn’t have the chance to touch the door handle.

“Get away!” Emily’s face darkened.

Hunter snorted coldly, “What do you want to do?”

'It's none of your business.' No matter what she wanted to do, her purpose was to make sure that nothing would happen to the Gale Group and grandpa!

As for her, she no longer cared about the so-called future!

"What exactly do you want to do?" Hunter narrowed his eyes and suddenly grabbed her wrist.

"Do you want to fight me?" Hunter asked coldly.

'I don't have the guts,' Emily sneered, looking up at his cold eyes.

"I'm not in the position to fight you, do I?"

"Since you know that, don't try to do anything to anger me!"

He didn't know why her despondent appearance made him somewhat flustered.

However, Emily had despaired of him.

'I didn't want to anger you.' Her voice was very calm. It wasn't that cold, but it just had no emotion.

She didn't even show any signs of disappointment.

When you had no hope on him, you had no disappointment.

Disappointment didn't exist.

"Excuse me, Young Master Hunter, I have to leave now."

Hunter did not say anything, but he stared coldly at her face.

At this moment, he couldn't see through her at all.

He didn't like this feeling, and he had to see through her! He had to know what exactly she wanted to do.

"Young Master Hunter, you've pushed me away since you asked someone to change the hair samples of me and my grandpa.

Right now, all I want to do is my own business. I don't think it has anything to do with you."

"I won't let you go, unless you tell me what exactly you want to do"

The uneasiness that came from the depths of his heart irritated Him.

However, Emily was still as peaceful as quiet water.

She shook her head and smiled, "Since it's useless to beg you, I can only find a way by myself. Don't worry. I won't involve you in everything I do."

Chapter 436 I Can't Stand Being with You

Emily was serious. Hunter also believed that she would not do anything in his name.

However, this was not what he cared about right now!

He wanted to know why she was despondent.

"Young Master Hunter, please get out of the way." Emily wanted to push him away.

However, he grasped her wrist.

“Since you’re here, you can’t leave so simply before you satisfy me”

He couldn’t see through her, so he couldn’t let her go!

He didn’t know why he was uneasy, but he felt that if he let her go now, he... would be regretful.

However, he had never been regretful for more than twenty years.

He wouldn’t be regretful. All of this was in his grasp.

Joseph had no way out. Hunter was just waiting for Sawyer to wake up and to face this mess that he was powerless to clean up!

Sawyer was such a worldly-wise man. Even if he was killed, he would not in much pain.

Moreover, Hunter did not intend to kill him!

Only when Sawyer saw that his years of hard work, the Gale Group, was going to be destroyed.

Only when he saw that his descendants were suffering endless pain for the mistakes he had made back then.

This kind of revenge was the most painful for Sawyer!

No one could get away with hurting anyone of the Jackson family!

Hunter had given Sawyer a chance to explain, but the latter could not say a single word of explanation.

Sawyer admitted what he had done back then, in silence!

And now, why did Hunter start to feel uneasy, even worried, because of a little girl?

Hunter didn't think that he was so easily swayed.

"Our agreement hasn't come to an end, right?" Hunter sneered.

His sneer frightened Emily, and she subconsciously wanted to retreat.

However, she was in his grasp, and she had no room to retreat!

"What are you going to do?" She frowned. She thought that she was dead inside.

Unexpectedly, she was still afraid easily in front of him.

However, what was she afraid of?

At this time, she didn't need to be afraid at all.

"Do you want me to fulfill the terms of the agreement?"

She smiled indifferently and gently shook her hands, but failed to get rid of him.

Emily looked up at him and said, "If you want me to fulfill my promise, you have to let me go first. Otherwise, how can I take off my clothes?"

Her hopeless appearance made Hunter very unhappy!

"Are you in such a hurry to satisfy me?"

"No, I don't want to satisfy you at all. But I owe you, right?"

This woman!

Couldn't she just say something nice?

What she said made Hunter even more irritated.

He suddenly carried her on his shoulder.

Emily's face changed in fear, and she subconsciously reached out to protect her stomach.

However, her lower abdomen was on his shoulder. She couldn't touch her stomach in this position at all!

She was scared and in a muddle. After being thrown onto the bed by Hunter, she immediately got up to protect her stomach.

However, his tall and strong body suddenly moved down and he trapped her beneath his arms.

"No..." She panicked, her eyes revealing fear.

Hunter narrowed his eyes and suddenly smiled coldly, "Where is your disdain and calmness? You are so pretentious!"

She was not pretentious! She just thought of that her current condition was simply unable to withstand his terrifying strength.

Hunter was really terrifying in the bed!

Especially he was enraged.

Just now, she shouldn't have enraged him.

“I’m sorry, Young Master Hunter. I was wrong. Please forgive me.”

For the sake of the baby, she didn’t want her pride or her calmness anymore.

However, her submission only made Hunter felt more furious.

Since she chose to be arrogant, why didn’t she hold on to the last?

What was her purpose of being so submissive now?

He couldn’t understand. He couldn’t figure out what she was thinking at all!

Emily did not know how she angered him.

Hunter couldn’t see through her, and she also never saw through him.

There seemed to be an invisible mountain forever between them.

In the past, she really wanted to cross over the mountain. But now, she suddenly realized that even if she crossed over it, she would still be thrown back by him.

She had given up on this man who might have a deep grudge against the Gale family.

She also didn’t hope to know from him that what the Gale family owed him.

Even if you put a knife on his neck, he wouldn’t say anything he didn’t want to say.

“Young Master Hunter, I was wrong. I...”

He didn’t want her to say that if she didn’t mean it. The only way he could stopped her was to shut her mouth by a kiss!

Emily gave up struggling from the beginning, and struggling was useless in front of Hunter.

However, when he kissed her on the lips and she breathed with difficulty, she suddenly felt sick.

She tried to push him away.

It was getting even harder to breathe and the morning sickness made her wanted to leave as soon as possible.

She struggled harder and harder.

However, Hunter trapped her slender body tightly. The more she struggled, the more he wanted to conquer her.

His thin lips finally moved away from her lips. Just as he was about to kiss her neck, Emily suddenly cried out and turned her head to retch.

Hunter frowned tightly. In such a lustful moment, Emily actually... Hunter was very unhappy.

However, Emily did not seem to be intentionally provoking him.

She could not spit anything out, but her face immediately turned pale.

“How are you?” Hunter supported her.

Emily, however, pushed him away, got off the bed and rushed to the bathroom.

She ran so fast staggeringly. Hunter was shocked that he jumped out of bed and quickly walked behind her.

“Slow down!”

Emily supposed that she misheard. She didn't think that Hunter would care about her.

But right now, she didn't have any extra energy to think about this.

Her stomach was really uncomfortable, and she couldn't stop retching at all.

Hunter stood by the door and watched her retching at the toilet. He wanted to help, but he didn't know what to do.

Retching?

After a long while, Emily finally caught her breath.

She finally felt better. She walked to the sink, held a handful of water, and washed her face.

In the mirror, the man behind her was frowning and staring at her thoughtfully.

“You...”

Emily was nervous. If a woman retched, the others might think she was pregnant.

It was said in novels and in dramas.

She was afraid. She was afraid that Hunter would do something to her if he found out her pregnancy.

Judging from his grudge with the Gale family, her baby was simply not coming at the right time!

In Hunter's puzzled gazes, Emily's face darkened as she coldly said, “Sorry, Young Master Hunter. I... I can't stand being with you.”

Chapter 437 Only if You Stay Here

She couldn't stand being with him, so... she wanted to vomit?

Hunter's face had never been so gloomy.

This was the first time in his life that a woman disliked him, and she actually wanted to vomit!

As soon as Emily stood still, she suddenly felt her wrist was gripped.

“Young Master Hunter...”

She was pulled out of the bathroom and thrown onto the bed heavily.

Before she could struggle, he pressed her down. She lay on her stomach.

“Since you are sick of me, then don't look at me!”

He suddenly tore off a large piece of cloth from her clothes.

Her fair skin instantly caught his eyes.

“Young Master Hunter...”

His movements were not so rough, but she could feel an aura of a beast in him.

He was like a wild wolf!

This time, she really crossed his bottom line, completely angering him!

“Hunter, don’t touch me! No!”

She didn’t care how dirty her body was, but she must care about the baby in her belly!

“Hunter, let go! Let...!”

Her clothes were torn apart by him!

Hunter saw her trembling.

His eyes were scarlet with cruelty. Just as he was about to do something, someone knocked on the door rapidly.

“Young Master Hunter, please open the door!” Joseph shouted outside the door.

Liam rushed over and said anxiously, “Young Master Joseph, Young Master Hunter is having a rest. Please...”

“Emi, are you inside? Emi! Come out!”

Joseph’s voice was anxious. Behind him, Francis also shouted, “Emi, come out! Come out now!”

After that, they had a quarrel outside. It was obvious that Liam was stopping Joseph and Francis.

However, Liam alone couldn’t handle the two people at the same time.

Joseph kicked the door heavily.

The thick door was almost kicked open.

Hunter was angrier. He got up and covered Emily with a blanket.

When Joseph kicked the door for the second time, Hunter had already adjusted his clothes and he looked at the door coldly.

The heavy door was finally kicked open by Joseph.

Joseph barged in, and Francis followed him.

Liam was helpless and could only look at Hunter with apology.

Hunter ignored Liam and looked indifferently at Joseph and Francis.

Emily was sitting on the bed, covered with a blanket. Joseph noticed her exposed shoulders and torn clothes. He was angry and his eyes turned red.

'I told you. I don't need you to do this!'

He walked over, took off his coat and covered Emily's shoulder.

"Let's go home!"

Emily put on the coat and got up without looking at Hunter.

She walked towards Joseph and looked down without a word.

Francis wished he could slap himself to death.

It was all his fault. If he didn't say those words to Emi, this girl wouldn't come here.

He glared at Hunter and said in anger, "You are so despicable to take advantage of our situation! You are a not a gentleman!"

"When did I say that I am a gentleman?"

Hunter sneered.

And he looked at Emily's small face.

He suddenly smiled. That smile made Emily felt crazy as well as chilled.

'I didn't do anything outrageous. Emily took the initiative to come over to satisfy me.'

"Hunter Jackson!" Joseph clenched his fists tightly, cracking his knuckles.

Emily tugged at the corner of his clothes and whispered, "I took the initiative to come here. It had nothing to do with him."

They probably couldn't make an agreement.

She was helpless and there was nothing she could do.

"Joseph, let's go home."

She didn't want to stay in this place anymore. And she didn't want to see this man anymore.

Ever since he said that she came to satisfy him, she knew that her last hope for him had completely disappeared.

Joseph gritted his teeth. He finally took a deep breath, held Emily in his arms and turned around to leave.

"Do you really think that he can solve the Gale Group's problem?"

Behind them, Hunter said coldly.

He looked at Emily and said, "He has no way to deal with the Gale Group's problems."

Emily stopped and bit her lips, clenching her fists.

She did not understand why this man would say such sarcastic words since he did not intend to help the Gale family.

It didn't seem to be something he did.

Perhaps, even Hunter did not understand what he wanted to do now.

However, the moment he saw Emily leaving with Joseph, he suddenly felt his heart aching.

He seemed to sense that once she left, she might never come back to him in this life.

Hunter did not admit that he cared about her. Perhaps, he was just not tired of playing this woman.

"I changed my mind."

He casually lit a cigarette for himself.

In fact, Liam knew very well that Hunter was trying to hide his emotions by smoking.

But he didn't know what emotion Hunter was hiding.

Emily turned around and looked at Hunter. Although he didn't say anything, Emily didn't know why she seemed to understand what he meant.

Hunter smiled lightly, but Emily found a little unease in his smile.

She supposed that she was mistaken.

“If you stay, I will help the Gale Group solve the problems.”

He flicked the ashes from his cigarette, but there weren't much ashes.

It was because he had already flicked it several times.

This wasn't something he would do. Emily had never seen him be so uneasy.

Emily was about to walk towards Hunter, but in the next second, Joseph pulled her back.

“Are you crazy?” This girl actually wanted to stay here, was she stupid?

“We don't need grandpa to personally agree to send me here. Isn't that the best result?”

As long as they didn't tell grandpa, he wouldn't know about this.

Emily really didn't know what else they could do about the Gale Group's problem, unless Hunter gave them a helping hand.

Or someone exposed that Wendy was not Patriarch Gale's granddaughter and started an investigation.

In that case, Wendy would be charged with fraud. And the agreement she signed on behalf of Gale Group might be invalidated.

But if that was the case, Wendy would definitely expose the fact that Emily was Patriarch Gale's granddaughter.

And the matter between Emily and Joseph would be further fermented.

At that time, the Gale Group's problem might be solved.

However, Emily's life might be ruined.

Joseph gently held her in his arms. He said in a low voice sincerely.

"As long as we are together as a family, it doesn't matter if we lose the Gale Group."

Chapter 438 Wind Is Cold and She Is D...

Francis also walked over.

Unlike Joseph, he was not so familiar with Emily.

But as Emily's older brother, he also needed to protect his cousin.

"Since we lost the Gale Group, we can start all over. It's not a big deal!"

He held Emily's hand and smiled sincerely. "It's fine. It is impossible for us to lose everything."

That's right! They could start the business again. What were they afraid of?

Although they lost the Gale Group, his company was here.

Even without his company, they could make the living in other ways.

They might not be able to lead a rich and noble life, but at least, he wouldn't let his family suffer.

He believed that with his and Joseph's abilities, they would definitely be able to accomplish this.

Joseph hugged Emily's shoulder and said softly, "Let's go! Don't be afraid, we are here."

Emily felt a little sad.

She only nodded and walked out with them.

Hunter did not stop them. He couldn't do this.

After they left, Liam was a little hesitated. He walked to the door and closed it.

At that moment, Hunter had already walked to the desk to pour himself a glass of red wine.

The cigarette in his hand was almost burnt out, but Hunter still took a long pull on it.

Liam hesitated for a while and said softly, "Young Master Hunter, don't we help Mr. Porter?"

With the status of the Gale family, it was hard for Joseph to solve this problem on the contract signed by Wendy and Porter.

Once the project started, if one broke the contract, it would be bad for both of them.

Most importantly, although he could feel the resentment that Hunter had on the Patriarch Gale, he also noticed how much Hunter was concerned about Emily.

Hunter was moving forth and back between the hatred and love. It was hard for him to make a choice. If he made the wrong decision, he could not choose again.

"Young Master Hunter..."

“Get out,” Hunter said coldly.

Liam could only follow his orders and turned to leave.

Before he left, he couldn't help taking the risk of angering the young master and reminded Hunter, “I hope Young Master Hunter, you can think about it seriously and you will never regret.”

Hunter snorted coldly and he completely didn't want to reply him.

Regret?

He would never regret for the decisions he made.

It was impossible!

He had already given Emily a chance. He even thought that as long as she stayed here, he would no longer pursue the matter.

He chose to ignore the awful mess.

At that time, he even wanted to be blind to anything else to take Emily away.

As long as he took her away and they came back to the Bentson City, he would report the things to the police and he would let go of the past.

Now that he thought about it again, it was really just an impulse.

He would never let go of it.

Sawyer would have to pay for it ten times more than his grandmother had suffered.

Not only did he want to bankrupt the Gale Group, he also wanted to ruthlessly humiliate Sawyer! Finally, he would send him to prison!

He would not let go of anyone who had hurt his grandmother.

Never!

Suddenly, Emily fiercely shivered.

She didn't feel cold but she was uncomfortable.

"What's the matter?" Seeing that she was trembling, Francis, who was sitting next to her, immediately took off his coat to her.

Seeing that the clothes she wore inside had been torn to shreds, Francis felt guilty.

"I'm sorry. I shouldn't have told you this."

"Yes, you shouldn't. Is it necessary to make the women worry about this?" Joseph was angry.

Francis knew that he had made a mistake, so he didn't dare to say anything more.

Emily looked at Joseph, who was driving in front of her, and asked softly, "Joseph, do you have a better idea now?"

"I'll continue to contact with the shareholders and see if they can help us for our grandfather's sake."

Emily did not ask anything else. In fact, Joseph had no choice.

For this matter, what he needed to deal with were not only Porter and Wendy, these two persons.

Porter represented the Jackson Group, but the president was Hunter.

As long as Hunter had the intention to deal with them and terminated the contract, the Gale Group would be unable to recover.

“Grandpa will wake up soon.” Emily lowered her head and grabbed her coat.

“Don’t tell Grandpa about this matter. I’m afraid he can’t take it.”

“Don’t worry! Once grandpa wakes up, we will officially sue Wendy.” Francis snorted. He was simmering with resentment towards Wendy.

Hearing this, Joseph didn’t say anything.

He hasn’t thought of a way to appease the matter of Emily and him.

At this time, if Wendy was provoked again, she might reveal everything.

What Joseph was worried about was that Emily would not be able to withstand the pressure of the public opinion.

Emily looked out of the window silently.

Outside the window, the night scenery flashed by.

The wind was very cold, and she was disappointed.

The next night, Sawyer really woke up.

But even though he woke up, he was semiconscious.

He couldn’t even recognize the person beside him.

The doctor said it was the sequela of stroke and he would recover slowly.

Therefore, he was unable to sue Wendy under this state.

“Don’t force him. Let Grandpa rest first.”

To Emily, nothing would be more important than her grandfather’s health.

She fed her grandfather some porridge and said to Joseph, “Let’s talk about these things later.”

Joseph did not say anything. Although Lottie and Sasha were anxious, they could only remain silent now.

They could talk about these things when their father got better.

It was late at night. Lottie and Sasha returned home. Francis returned to his company to work overtime.

Joseph lived in a nearby

ward and he was also working overtime.

Only Emily was still staying by her grandfather’s side, taking care of him.

“Grandpa, I don’t know what you’re thinking now, but I know that you can hear what we’re saying, can’t you?”

Sawyer didn’t reply, but his expression was a little stiff.

“Grandpa, don’t be anxious. As long as we are together, it’s better than anything else.”

“We won’t let you suffer any grievances or fear.”

She lowered her head, and held back the tears.

“Grandpa, believe me, everything will be fine. You will get better and everything will be fine.”

Sawyer tightened his fingers and held Emily’s hand.

Emily hurriedly wiped away the tears and looked at him. She smiled and said, “Grandfather, you have to work hard to get better.

Once you are well, everything will be fine. Trust me!”

Chapter 439 Believe Everything She Te...

It got to be after 1 a.m., in the ward next to Sawyer’s, Emily was busying doing something.

She closed the curtains so that no one could see what she was doing.

The notebook was on the table, and she was typing.

If you walk forward, you would see she was making a business proposal.

She was still typing on the keyboard with her slender fingers. It was early in the morning, but Emily didn’t go to sleep.

Suddenly, her phone rang.

On such a quiet night and in such a quiet room, Emily was really scared by the sudden ring.

It was so late, who would call her?

Emily hurriedly took her phone over and saw that it was Lois.

Recently, Emily had less contact with them.

They were busy, so they didn't have much time.

Basically, except their work, they had nothing to talk with.

It was so late that Lois called her. Emily felt a little nervous. She was afraid that something happened.

"Hello, Lois."

Lois, who was on the other end of the phone, was so anxious that she couldn't speak clearly, "Emi, Emi..."

Emily felt even more nervous that she was trembling.

"Lois, calm down! Tell me what happened."

Her voice was very stiff. Her entire body was trembling. She was scared!

Sally was still in the hospital. Why did Lois call her? Did she want to tell her that Sally was dead?

No!

Sally was still so young. Her future was bright. How could she lose her life now?

No, absolutely not!

"Lois..."

"Emi, Sally is..." Lois choked with sobs.

Emily's eyes dulled and she almost fainted.

The phone slid down from his fingers and landed on the ground with a thud.

She could not regain her senses. She felt her entire world got rocked.

She couldn't even breathe!

"Emi, what are you doing? Emi, I haven't finished speaking yet, Eri..." Lois was still saying on the phone.

However, Emily didn't seem to be able to hear anything. She didn't want to hear the bad news!

She was crying with her head in her hands.

Sally...

Lois finally calmed down, "Emi, are you still listening to me? Sally is awake, Emi, Sally is awake!"

Emily suddenly raised her head. She couldn't believe what she heard just now.

Emily hurriedly picked up the phone from the ground, and her usual gentleness completely disappeared.

She was extremely irritable!

"Lois, tell me, is Sally awake?"

"Yes, Sally wakes up. Her condition is getting better. She is conscious but she is still a little weak."

Lois was really too excited to hold her phone well just now. She couldn't speak clearly.

Before she could finish her sentence, Emily was scared that she dropped her phone to the ground.

“Lois, you bastard! Do you still know how to speak?”

She was scared! She was really scared by Lois.

Emily sat on the ground and she was unable to get up for a while.

“I’m sorry, I’m sorry. I didn’t mean to do it. I’m just too excited.”

When Lois heard that Emily was choking, she immediately felt guilty.

“Don’t worry! The doctor said that Sally’s condition would be better soon.”

“Emi, don’t be sad. Sally is fine. I went to see her just now. She is conscious. She wants to speak with you, but she is still very weak. I will let her contact you later.”

“Thanks! Let her take good care of herself.”

Emily felt relieved. When she stood up, she felt she had no strength.

She stood up with the support of chair.

Walking back to the desk and sitting down, she wiped the sweat on her forehead.

She broke out in a cold sweat.

She was really scared by Lois.

“I still have to deal with the things here. I can’t come back now. Please take good care of Sally.”

“OK, I will be here to take care of her. Everything will be definitely fine.”

Although Lois did not know what Emily was busy with, she could also feel that what she was doing was important.

Emily did not say anything else. After hanging up the phone, she was about to continue working when the phone suddenly rang again.

She immediately picked up, “Hello, Terry.”

“Sally is...”

“Lois told me but she didn’t say it clearly that she almost scared me to death.”

Thinking about it, Emily still felt a little scared. She had a lingering fear.

But now, she really felt relieved.

“Why do you sleep so late?” her voice was clear and it didn’t seem like she had been woken up in the middle of the night.

Terry’s brows knitted. Originally, he didn’t intend to call her, but he couldn’t help telling her the good news as soon as possible.

When he called just now, her phone had been busy. He knew that someone must have told her the good news.

“I was woken up by Lois. I really don’t stay up late.”

She looked at the screen of her laptop. If Terry knew that she was still working, he would definitely nag her for a long time and complain that she was not taking good care of herself.

Although Terry wasn't usually very talkative, when it came to her, Terry would become different.

Terry did not say anything but nodded, "OK, since you have known it, you could be at ease. Good night!"

"Wait a moment."

"OK! Anything else?" Terry would wait whenever Emily asked.

Emily thought for a while and said, "Terry, do you still have any relatives the Bentson City that you remembered?"

Terry was a little stunned. "Don't you know that I am an orphan?"

"I just thought of it, so I take this opportunity to ask you."

Terry wanted to ask her something else, but Emily stopped him and said, "It's too late. I really need to go to sleep. I have to get up early tomorrow morning to take care of my grandfather."

"You and the people from the Gale family..." Actually, Terry really wanted to ask what was going on between her and Joseph.

Wasn't she with Hunter?

But he didn't know how to ask her.

As long as she was fine, he didn't care who she was with.

If she was happy to be with Joseph, Terry would think that Joseph was the more suitable one.

After all, Hunter was indeed a deep one.

Emily knew what he wanted to ask. She smiled and said, "Joseph and I do not have the special relationship. Well, something happened at that night, but the photos were taken by someone on purpose."

"OK!" Terry really didn't ask one more question. Anything Emily told him, he would believe.

He believed her.

Chapter 440 Stamp out the Source of T...

After hanging up the phone, Emily put her phone down and continued to work.

This proposal she wrote was very detailed and clear.

Under the dim light of the room, she looked even thinner.

It wasn't until dawn that she saved her document, closed the computer, and lay down on the bed.

For several days, everyone was very busy.

Joseph was indeed a little anxious. Mr. Francis who had always disliked to work in the Gale Group, had even been in the Gale

Group almost every day during this period of time.

It was said that both parties were very satisfied with the project.

Although Joseph had been explaining to the elders that this project was very likely to cause heavy losses to the Gale Group.

When they saw that Mr. Porter came here from the Bentson City, they were free from all inhibitions.

The Jackson Group was sincere. Otherwise, Mr. Porter would not have been here personally.

In particular, they heard that the Young Master Hunter was also in the City L.

Although he didn't know if it was related to this project, as the president of the Jackson Group, Hunter was even photographed with Wendy in the City L.

Based on their relationship, who would suspect that there was something wrong with Wendy's project?

As for the policy issue that Joseph had mentioned, in fact, no one informed them.

No one knew whether this policy was true.

These shareholders were all from rich and powerful families. They had been familiar with this kind of struggle.

Now Joseph was not the president, he was naturally hostile towards Miss Wendy, from the Gale family.

Joseph kept saying that the contract was with some issues. Perhaps it was all for the sake of competing with Wendy for the Gale family's property.

They knew that Wendy was the one who Sawyer trusted the most because he had given all of his shares to Wendy.

Sawyer couldn't even speak now, and the shareholders didn't know if Joseph had the emperor in his power and ordered the dukes about in his name.

So, they didn't know if they didn't cooperate with Miss Wendy, what if the Gale Group really gets by someone who is not a Gale?

No one had forgotten that Joseph was not a Gale before.

“Mr. Porter, I am surprised that you will be here.”

After the dinner with the shareholders, Wendy walked into Porter’s room.

The person who had been giving her orders secretly was actually Porter. This was truly beyond her expectations.

She had met Porter in the Jackson’s several times before.

Of course, Wendy didn’t know that he had so many connections with her, but Porter knew.

He had never told her. His was an exceptional actor.

Porter did not say anything. He picked up a glass of wine and took a sip.

Wendy walked forward and leaned against the chair, showing her gracefully slender figure.

She casually swung her long hair. It made her more charming.

“Stroking your hair is useless. You could never be comparable with Emily.”

“You...” Wendy’s face was changed immediately.

They had a cooperative relationship. What he said was too sharp.

She was no longer the Wendy he knew before. Couldn’t he look at her with quite different eyes?

Why was his attitude towards her the same as before?

Wendy’s face was ghastly pale. She raised her chin for her pride to show she was disaffected.

“Porter, I have all the shares of Sawyer. I am the richest woman in the City L now.”

She said this with extreme pride!

“Is this money really yours?” Porter smiled lightly and he said disapprovingly.

“Are you worried that my grandfather will sue me when he wakes up?”

Wendy sneered, not caring at all.

‘If he really doesn’t care about Emily, then let him sue me!’

She didn’t believe that Sawyer really didn’t care about Emily.

Once the public knew that Emily dared to do such things with her cousin, she would be ruined for the rest of her life.

Didn’t the Patriarch Gale always say that family was the most important? Did he dare?

“You’re really confident.” Porter smiled coldly.

“Of course, I’m confident.” If the Gale Group really intended to announce Emily’s identity, it would have been made public.

Everyone in the Gale Group thought that they were truly great. For the sake of their family, they could endure anything.

Those people, even they themselves were about to be touched!

In order to protect Emily, they could even bear to lose the Gale Group. It was truly touching.

“Mr. Porter, you don’t need to worry about me.”

Anyway, she was still the richest woman in City L. Compared with him, her status was not lower.

Unfortunately, Porter thought she was the same as before.

She was arrogant and stupid to be shoved about by others.

'I advise you to keep a low profile. Don't show off. Also...'

He thought for a while. He placed the cup to the desk and tightened his fingers slightly.

"If you want to keep your high status, you should stamp out the source of trouble."

"What do you mean? The source of trouble? Do you mean that I should kill my grandfather?" Wendy was stunned and felt a little afraid.

"This is your own business. I didn't ask you to do anything."

Porter shrugged her shoulders as if he was afraid that he would be implicated in the crime. "Anyway, if your grandfather sues you after he recovers, then you may pay for it."

Their Jackson Group would not suffer any losses. The agreement was signed, and they did not have any responsibility for any problems.

Probably, the compensation would be paid.

The penal sum was quite a lot.

“You!” Wendy glared at him fiercely.

Wasn't he gone too far? He was hiding his responsibilities.

When she could be taken advantage of, she was one of them.

Or she was herself, all of the things were done by herself.

“So? Do you still want to blame me?”

Porter suddenly laughed out. He leaned back to the chair and looked sideways at her.

It looked he amused herself by watching her.

“Wendy, you know how much time and effort I spent to help you win these. Do you think you can be as a Gale without my help?”

Wendy clenched her fists and didn't say anything.

What he said was correct, she would never be able to get all of these without the help of him.

She had already stepped on this road, so she could not leave halfway.

“Mr. Porter.” Wendy calmed down and said softly, “I know. I will always be under your command. I will do whatever you ask me to do and never complain.”

She paused for a moment before continuing, “Then, it was late now, why do you ask me here? Do you have any instructions?”
