

Stay Around You Now And Forever - Chapter 11 Not even a glance

Hunter actually came! Emily never expected that her attempt to calm the situation actually materialized. But, it's 2 am, why is he here at this hour?

When the Gale family heard that Master Jackson is here, everyone became excited and anxious.

Charles and Kate immediately wentt out to receive him. Wendy quickly checked her makeup and rushed out.

Only Emily felt an inexplicable unease and retreated quietly to her room as everyone was out to welcome Hunter.

When Hunter emerged from the car, every Gale family member was shocked. They could see that his body was damp and the shirt and trousers were creased. It was obvious that they were wet and dried soon after. His hair was out of place and looked like it was wet from a downpour. What happened to Master Jackson?

But the important thing was, even though in this state, he still exuded an irresistible attraction to the ladies. Not only was his image unaffected but his roughed-up looks emitted a unique magnetism. Even when a man sees him, theyll be floored by his superiority and not dare to look directly at him. But what caused this to Master Jackson?

Furthermore, after being wet to this extent, he didn't change and came directly to their house?

“Master Jackson, why didn’t you inform us before coming?”

Master Jackson didn’t express any unhappiness but Charles was very nervous and worried.

Don’t tell me that Master Jackson was here because Emily failed to turn up at the engagement ceremony. The more he thought, the possibility of that became higher. All because of that Emily!

Kate didn’t even dare to speak. She always felt that she wasn’t worthy of speaking in front of Master Jackson. But she kept pushing Wendy forward so that her daughter has a chance to interact with Hunter.

Wendy was pretending to have a reserved manner, but with a push from her mother, she said softly, “Master Jackson, how are yOu?”

“I’m Wendy, the second daughter of Gale family.”

She presented her best side to Hunter but he didn’t even take a glance at her!

Wendy was shocked. Don’t tell me there is a man in Bentson City who doesn’t know that she’s the most popular socialite?

“Master Jackson...”

“Excuse me, is Emily home?” Hunter looked at Charles and said authoritatively. But even that soft tone was unable to ease the anxiety and tension that everyone felt.

“Yes, Emily, she’s home, she’s at the hall.” Charles had a bad feeling coming over him, thinking that Hunter is here to pursue tonight’s incident!

“Master Jackson, please, please come in for a seat.”

Hunter nodded and went in with him. Liam was with Hunter and did not give Wendy a chance to get close to the Master. Master hates women who get too close to him. To him, Wendy was the same as those idiotic women.

Emily could not be seen anywhere in the hall. How dare that damn woman escape!

Charles suppressed his anger and commanded, “Get Emily down!”

As the servant quickly ran upstairs, Charles nervously smiled to Hunter, Master Jackson, please have a seat.”

Even as his trousers were still damp, Hunter calmly sat down without any expression.

Seeing the legendary Master Jackson in close proximity and exuding superiority, Wendy was even more mesmerized. But her several advances didn’t earn once a gaze from Hunter. She felt very disappointed.

“Master, future Mistress is here.” Liam announced while standing beside him.

Hunter squinted as he looked at the lady coming down the stairs. Everyone’s attention was on Emily now. However, Wendy felt ease at the first sight of her.
