

Nothing To Give But My Heart Chapter 104

At a balcony.

Lu Xunchang's assistant, who was always with him, couldn't help but ask, "President Lu, would it really be fine for us to do this? After all, we are in North City, and it wouldn't end well for us if we were to offend the Ye Family."

"Hmph, he's just a cripple who is hiding behind the name of the Ye Family. Meanwhile, I am a self-made man, who has years of experience, so why would I be afraid of someone like him, who was born with a silver spoon?" Lu Xunchang sneered in contempt.

In all honesty, as an experienced active participant in his social circle, Lu Xunchang had bedded countless celebrities from his social circle, and so he never expected himself to get himself into trouble, all thanks to a mere assistant.

He was not an irrational man, and he was well aware of the Ye Family's status and influence in North City. Under normal circumstances, Lu Xunchang wouldn't offend someone superior to him no matter how angry he was.

However, to Lu Xunchang, Ye Moxuan was just a cripple; in fact, he regarded Ye Moxuan as a disabled person, who did not possess the most basic quality as a man.

As a self-made man, Lu Xunchang looked down upon those who were born with a silver spoon, and if it weren't for the Ye Family's status and power, Ye Moxuan would have been no one. Hence, Lu Xunchang was determined to teach him a lesson this time.

Lu Xunchang found out about Old Master Ye, and he was well aware that Old Master Ye did not want to offend him. Furthermore, Old Master Ye was the one who appointed Ye Moxuan as the President, and if trouble were to arise, he would most probably be able to transfer the position to Ye Linhan instead.

By then, Lu Xunchang would like to see what a cripple like Ye Moxuan could possibly do.

"President Lu, although Young Master Ye relies on a wheelchair, he has all the necessary capabilities."

"Tsk, he doesn't even have the basic ability of a man, and here you are, claiming that he has all the necessary capabilities? Let me tell you, Ye Moxuan is an impotent eunuch!"

Simultaneously, Mo Yexuan, who was regarded as impotent, was burning with lust. He maintained his unwavering willpower, but it wasn't until today that Ye Moxuan learned how soft a woman's body could be.

She was as soft as a snake, which wrapped around his body and hugged his neck.

It was both a foreign and exciting feeling for him.

Subconsciously, Ye Moxuan thought that Shen Qi's fragrance seemed somehow familiar, as though he had smelled it somewhere before.

He was already soaked with sweat, but he just couldn't carry Shen Qi out at the moment.

"Xiao Su!"

Ye Moxuan thundered finally, and his voice was almost breaking.

Xiao Su had been waiting at the door for the longest time, and although he wasn't drugged at all, seeing as he was on the other side of the door, his entire body was still covered with sweat because he could hear the conversation between Ye Moxuan and Shen Qi clearly. This also meant that he could clearly imagine what was going on in there.

However, the doctor was nowhere to be seen!

Xiao Su shuddered involuntarily when he heard Ye Moxuan yell for his name, but he didn't dare to barge into the room.

"Young Master Ye, just hang in there. I'll rush the doctor."

With that, Xiao Su whipped his phone out to urge the doctor, but unfortunately, he said that there was some problem on the way here, and he would be rushing over once that was settled.

After hanging up on the phone call, Xiao Su bellowed, "Hang in there for about ten minutes! He'll be here in another ten minutes, tops!"

In the room, the vein against Ye Moxuan's temple throbbed with his heartbeat.

Every second felt as though he was being burned alive, and he was quite sure that he wouldn't make it out alive in another ten minutes.

Besides... even if I can resist and hang in there for another ten minutes, how about this woman in my arms?

Initially, she was hugging him and groping him all over, but in the end, she was most probably clueless of how to proceed. Furthermore, with the intense effect of the drug, she no longer had the energy to touch him, and so she was rendered motionless in his arms while panting heavily.

However, Shen Qi's breaths were hot to the touch, and she was huffing and puffing against his chest.

"Miss Second-marriage?"

Ye Moxuan called out for her.

But Shen Qi did not respond to him.

Ye Moxuan scowled, and he reached out to lift her head by hooking her chin up. "Shen Qi?"

This was most probably the first time Ye Moxuan called Shen Qi's name out in front of her, but she couldn't even respond to him. Her fair skin was already burning up to a pinkish flush, and her face was as red as an apple.

When Shen Qi heard someone calling out her name, her eyelids fluttered slightly, and her eyes were unfocused when she gazed up at Ye Moxuan.

Ye Moxuan scowled at her. "Are you alright?"

Shen Qi's face scrunched up while tears started rolling from the corner of her eyes. "It's so horrible. I feel horrible."

Earlier, she felt weak as her body was burning up, and now, the feeling was agonizing. But the man before her couldn't ease the burning lust within her body. Previously, she thought that she might gain some relief by hugging him, but eventually, that proved to be useless as well.

I need cold water...

Yes.

Shen Qi snapped back to her senses when she thought of that, and so she pushed away Ye Moxuan's hand to raise herself from his lap before walking unsteadily to the bathroom.

Ye Moxuan's eyes gleamed dangerously, and he grabbed her wrist. "Where are you going?"

"I need water..." mumbled Shen Qi, and she sounded upset. "It's fine if you don't want to help me. I'll just get myself some water..."

Ye Moxuan inhaled sharply. She wants cold water?

"Are you kidding me? You will catch a cold!"

Besides, she is pregnant now!

This was the most troublesome part. Shen Qi moaned in agony, and her body started twitching. A burning sensation started from her lower abdomen, which radiated throughout her body. The lust was overwhelming for her, and she felt so tortured that she thought she might drop dead any second.

The next moment, Ye Moxuan pulled her into an embrace by hooking his large, burning arm around her waist.

His eyes were pitch-black, and they seemed as deep as the ocean. Ye Moxuan held her steady with a palm behind her head while speaking to her in a husky voice. "If I save you, how will you repay me?"

Shen Qi's eyelids fluttered again when she heard that, and she looked up innocently at him.

"S-Save me..."

Ye Moxuan was already drugged with ecstasy incense the moment he entered the room. In fact, he had already inhaled large quantities of the incense since he remained in the room for such a long duration, and so his body had reacted to it long ago.

If I can solve her suffering with this method, I... will not object to it.

However...

Ye Moxuan hooked her chin up while asking in a rumbling voice, "Are you sure you want me to save you?"

After asking that, he leaned in even closer to whisper into her ear, "Once you become my woman, I don't care whom you've been with before. From then on, you can only miss and think about me in the future. Are you sure?"

It was impossible for Shen Qi to digest what he said at that moment, and the only thing she could do was to bob her head in a haze. She clung onto his collar helplessly like a little kitten while answering, "I promise... as long as you save me."

"Don't regret it!" Ye Moxuan warned her before yelling for Xiao Su again.

Xiao Su heard their conversation, and he figured having such a keen hearing wasn't such a good thing after all. He responded swiftly and closed the door when he heard Ye Moxuan calling for him.

After that, Xiao Su instructed his men, who were guarding outside of the room door, "You all had better pretend to not hear anything coming from the room. You will guard the room tonight with your lives, and no one is allowed in. Do you hear me?"

These subordinates were very professional, for they were well-trained after all. They could hear what was going on in the room, but they remained indifferent and unfazed.

"Yes!"

In the room, Ye Moxuan started unbuttoning his clothes, one button at a time.
