

Nothing To Give But My Heart Chapter 115

Shen Qi lowered her gaze without noticing Ye Moxuan's expression. The only thing she was aware of was the anger in his tone.

He must be blaming me.

After all, who would want their assistant to fight with other company staff, causing a commotion in the canteen?

She heard the wheels moving, and a pair of long legs came within Shen Qi's sight. Before she could respond, someone pulled against her waist, and she fell into an embrace.

Shen Qi couldn't help but stare wide-eyed in shock.

Ye Moxuan actually rolled his wheelchair to her front and pulled her into his arms.

Just as she was stunned to silence, Ye Moxuan pinched her chin upward to force her to look up into his cold and intimidating eyes.

"Do you know the reason I am angry?"

His masculine and intoxicating scent overwhelmed her, effectively rendering her unable to think, and so she shook her head.

"I am well aware of what happened."

"What? You knew all about it? In that case, why did you..." Ask me...?

"I just wanted to listen to your version of the story. Ha, who would have thought you would focus on unimportant things while circumventing the important parts? Do you think that you have not been wronged enough? Don't you know how to complain when it hurts?"

With that, Ye Moxuan flicked her forehead with his fingers swiftly.

Shen Qi cried out in pain and surprise, and she rubbed her forehead immediately.

"It appears that you can feel pain," Ye Moxuan commented coldly with a scoff.

Shen Qi covered her forehead before asking, "What do you mean?"

"Don't fight with others in the future," instructed Ye Moxuan, and he regarded her face with a cold stare.

There were a few scratches on Shen Qi's fair face, and from Ye Moxuan's point of view, it felt as if he was stabbed in his heart.

"Mm-hmm."

She did not plan to fight with others; in fact, she just lost her temper.

She heard him sigh, and his hand which was pinching her chin shifted and held the back of her head before pressing it against his chest. Then Shen Qi leaned against Ye Moxuan's chest in bewilderment.

Why do I feel as if... Ye Moxuan is concerned about me?

Am I mistaken?

Just when she was pondering, Ye Moxuan's chest rumbled while he started speaking. "I will—"

Knock-knock-knock...

At that moment, someone knocked on the office door.

"Young Master Ye, the doctor is here!"

Xiao Su's voice came from outside of the office.

Shen Qi looked up at Ye Moxuan the moment she heard that, and his complicated gaze met her eyes. "Get up. Let the doctor check if you've sustained any injuries."

With that, he helped her up gently.

Shen Qi stood up naturally with his help.

"Come in."

Xiao Su then opened the door and led the doctor in.

It was a female doctor, and Ye Moxuan allowed both of them to enter the lounge.

Shen Qi entered the lounge next door with the female doctor, who was a woman in her forties. She appeared rather gentle, and she had a smiling and kind face. "Miss Shen, please take your clothes off and allow me to check on your injuries."

Shen Qi nodded obediently, but just as she was about to take off her clothes, she seemed to have thought of something and froze mid-air.

I can't...

There are marks all over my body, thanks to Ye Moxuan. If the doctor sees that, wouldn't it be super embarrassing?

Shen Qi stopped immediately when she thought of that. "Doctor, my body is fine. Please just help me with the wound on my face."

There is a scalded patch of skin on my shoulder. But I'll just visit the pharmacy later after work and apply some medicine for burns once I get home.

The doctor smiled faintly. "Young lady, you're not being honest with me. I am a doctor, so there's nothing for you to feel embarrassed about. Just take your clothes off now."

In the end, Shen Qi had no choice but to shed her clothes off with her back facing the doctor, and she exposed only her shoulder for the examination.

The female doctor inhaled sharply when she noticed the burn wound on Shen Qi's shoulder. "The wound is quite bad. Why did you still try to act tough?"

Shen Qi remained silent, and her cheeks blushed deeply.

When the female doctor started cleaning her wound, she continued with her advice. "I heard that you're pregnant, so it's best that you take care when it comes to things like these. You are lucky that you were not badly wounded this time, but it might not be the same the next time. It's best for you to avoid direct contact with others and just take it like you're doing it for your child. You should protect yourself and avoid conflicts with others."

Shen Qi was shocked to her core when she heard that.

This was her first time being a mother, and ever since she divorced Lin Jiang and remarried Ye Moxuan, she felt as if she was living in a daze after the incident during the rainy night. More often than not, she wasn't sure of her place and her identity, and she had no idea what she was doing.

She felt as if she was doing everything on autopilot.

"A-Alright," promised Shen Qi with a nod.

The female doctor smiled at her faintly before moving away. "Alright, now. Your wounds are attended, and this is some ointment for the burn. Remember to apply it twice a day. Then use this after the wound is healed."

Shen Qi accepted two different ointments.

"What is this other one?"

"It's to lighten the scar. It's not nice to have scars on girls, since it's so ugly."

"Thank you."

After that, Shen Qi was deep in her thoughts while holding onto the two ointments in her hands.

If Xiao Su hadn't knocked on the door earlier, he wouldn't have cut Ye Moxuan off mid-sentence when she was in his arms.

Shen Qi had a feeling that he was about to say, "I will be heartbroken..."

But he was cut off, and so I will never know what he wanted to say earlier.

Shen Qi felt rather sorry that she wouldn't get to hear what he wanted to say, but she regained her composure and walked out of the lounge with the doctor.

The female took off her mask once she was out and announced, "It's sorted."

Ye Moxuan looked at her, and he replied with a rare tender and calm tone, "Thank you, Aunty."

Shen Qi, who was following behind the female doctor, was astonished. She's Ye Moxuan's aunt?

Shen Qi's cheeks blushed furiously in that instant. If she is Ye Moxuan's aunt, wouldn't it mean that she would relate the marks she saw all over my body to...

Shen Qi's ears and face reddened and became hot to the touch when she thought about that.

"Visit me more often if you want to thank me. Don't be always cooped up in the company." The woman, who had just taken her mask off, was Ye Moxuan's aunt—she was his mother's younger sister, Song An.

Song An was eight years younger than Ye Moxuan's mother, and she was about forty years old this year. However, she maintained her youthfulness, which made her appear as if she was in her thirties.

Furthermore, her smile and eyes were very kind, which made others feel that she was very approachable.

Earlier, Shen Qi felt a kinship with her when she was helping her with her wound, but never did she expect that... she was Ye Moxuan's aunt.

Song An turned around to look at Shen Qi and gave her a meaningful look.

"I heard about you from Moxuan, and although it was a marriage to unite two families, you are now husband and wife after all. In the future, you have to protect the child well."

Shen Qi's lips moved, as if she was about to explain something when she heard that, but Ye Moxuan answered promptly, "Aunty, we know that."

"You are another one to blame. As a man, you should protect your woman well. Why did you allow her to sustain such a serious injury? There's a large burnt patch on her back, and if you hadn't called for me to tend to the wound in time, it would have left a huge scar. Did you know that?"

Ye Moxuan scowled lightly. "Aunty, it was an accident this time."

He did not expect that Shen Qi would fight with other women in the company.

It was something impossible, not even in his wildest imaginations.

"So what if it was an accident? Isn't it your fault that you didn't stop the accident from happening?" Song An asked with a frown.

Ye Moxuan paused before muttering, "It's my fault."

Song An nodded in satisfaction. "It's fine as long as you improve in the future. I have other matters to attend to, so I'll be leaving now."

After Song An left, Shen Qi gave Ye Moxuan a complicated stare.

"Did you not tell your aunt that the child is...?"
