

Nothing To Give But My Heart Chapter 125

Time flew in the blink of an eye. The first thing Shen Qi did when she arrived at the company the next day was to apply for a reimbursement from the finance department of the company.

However, the staff in the finance department didn't want to meet her at first, and she even looked impatient upon seeing Shen Qi.

"How can you apply if you don't submit any receipts? Besides, you need to follow proper procedures, and it needs time to process."

Shen Qi asked blankly, "I thought that's not needed?"

The employee in the finance department rolled her eyes at her directly. "Who told you that? Didn't you know the rules when you first joined the company? Or do you think you can do whatever you want just because you have a strong background?"

Hearing that, Shen Qi's face turned pale, and she bit her lower lip.

Ye Moxuan clearly told her that she could apply for reimbursement beforehand at this department, but now, the staff of the finance department clearly stated that they did not operate this way. What is going on? Is it because the people in the finance department do not like me or, or did Ye Moxuan lie to me?

Thinking about that, Shen Qi thought for a while before asking again, "Well, could it be that you made a mistake? Is it really not possible to apply in advance?"

Ad by Valueimpression

The person gave Shen Qi a cold smirk and looked at her as if she was an idiot. "It's the answer even if you ask ten times. N-O, no!"

Shen Qi could only return to her office disappointedly. After thinking for a long time, she went to Ye Moxuan, who couldn't help frowning when he heard about this.

Oh, no.

He originally planned to ask Xiao Su to notify the finance department in advance, but he forgot about it. This was the reason why she was rejected.

"Is it against the company law to apply for reimbursement beforehand? Should I—"

"I've told you already—you can do that. Do you believe that woman or me?"

Shen Qi hesitated before she replied, "You."

Unconsciously, she answered Ye Moxuan this way, making him smile slightly. "In that case, go to the finance department again."

"What? Again?" Shen Qi interlocked her fingers together, looking quite reluctant. It was quite disgraceful for her last time, seeing that she was almost chased out, so Shen Qi felt that she didn't want to go back again.

"Go," Ye Moxuan ordered firmly.

Shen Qi paused. "Alright."

Well, she was indeed short of money. Hence, Shen Qi went out again to take the elevator to the fifth floor.

Ye Moxuan quickly took out his mobile phone and called Xiao Su. "Notify the finance department to allow Assistant Shen to apply for reimbursement in advance."

Although Xiao Su didn't understand what was going on, this was the first time that such a special case was allowed. But it was no surprise for Xiao Su, seeing that this was for Assistant Shen. After all, he had seen how Ye Moxuan treated Shen Qi during this period.

"Got it. I'll tell them immediately."

...

Shen Qi had been standing outside the finance department for a long time before entering, wondering if she should go back and talk to Ye Moxuan. After all, the staff working there told her that she must have the receipt and follow the procedures. Perhaps Ye Moxuan didn't know about this because he was the boss who sat in the president's office most of his time.

After thinking about it, Shen Qi decided to go back, but right then, a bald middle-aged man in the finance department suddenly walked out and stopped her hurriedly when he saw her. "Assistant Shen."

Hearing that, Shen Qi stopped and gave him a puzzled look. "You're calling for me?"

The middle-aged man smiled. "You're Assistant Shen, right? Why are you standing outside? Come in quickly."

Shen Qi was puzzled, but he was too enthusiastic for her to reject, so she followed him.

"I heard from Yan that you just applied for reimbursement in advance, right?"

Shen Qi nodded awkwardly. "But you guys said that I have to follow the procedures, and you need a receipt, so I—"

"Oh, there's no need for that—she remembered it wrongly!" The middle-aged man quickly waved his hand airily. "There is no such thing. Let's see how much you are applying for, and I will type out a report immediately."

Shen Qi paused before she asked, "Is it really possible?"

She glanced inside, and sure enough, she saw the girl named Yan standing there, looking furious while glaring at her hostilely.

"Of course. Why wouldn't it be possible? Come in."

The middle-aged man growled at Yan, "What are you doing, standing here? Hurry up and print a report for Assistant Shen. Don't you want to keep your job?"

Then, Yan turned around and took the form angrily before handing it to Shen Qi. "Fill this in and write down the amount you want to apply."

"Thank you." Shen Qi stretched out her hands and took it politely, and she took five minutes to fill out the form carefully.

Yan stared at her grumpily, and when she saw Shen Qi filling it up seriously, she muttered angrily, "She's just using her connections, so why are we making an exception for her this time?"

Shen Qi didn't hear her clearly and raised her eyes to glance at her with an extremely innocent look. Yan only shot her a look, yet she suddenly felt guilty for what she had just said. Then, she asked Shen Qi viciously, "What? Did I say anything wrong?"

Shen Qi didn't utter a word. Instead, she just handed in the form she had just filled out. "I would like to apply for 5,000 first. May I?"

"So much? Why don't you rob the bank instead?" Yan still murmured in annoyance.

The middle-aged man patted Yan's head, almost unable to keep the smile on his face. "Do you really want to lose this job? Would you like to pack your things and go home now?"

Yan snorted and looked at the middle-aged man angrily while clutching her head. Shen Qi noticed that although the middle-aged man looked quite fierce, he also looked a little doting but helpless. The feeling that the pair of them exuded was like... they were father and daughter.

"Assistant Shen, would 5,000 be too little? After all, you are President Ye's personal assistant; 5,000 may not be enough for you. Why don't I add another 20,000 for you?"

When Shen Qi heard that, her expression changed immediately. "20,000, you say? I think that's too much!"

Sure enough, Yan exclaimed, "Dad, are you crazy? We are working at the company's finance department. If you give her 20,000, what if President Ye blames us for that?"

"Who is your dad? Get out of here, you brat." The middle-aged man motioned for her to get out. Then, he smiled at Shen Qi. "I'll just increase the amount to 20,000 for you. Yan, hurry up and handle this matter. Don't let Assistant Shen wait for too long."

Shen Qi stood there, waiting for them to process this request as she wondered about the reason behind the huge change of attitude. Could it be that Yan doesn't like me? While thinking about it, the man's voice rang again. "I'm really sorry about Yan—she is a bit short-tempered, but she definitely does not have any ill intentions toward you. Can you let this matter slide, seeing that she is still a young woman?"

"You are too polite. I appreciate it a lot that you're letting me apply in advance." Shen Qi smiled slightly.

She could tell that the middle-aged man was very careful when facing her, as if he was afraid of offending her, and he looked as if he was being pressured. For instance, when he talked to her, a large amount of sweat broke out on his forehead.

After listening to her, he heaved an obvious sigh once more.

Shen Qi couldn't help asking, "Yan said that I have to follow the protocol in the beginning, but now, I suddenly don't have to do that. Did someone call you up about this?"