

Nothing To Give But My Heart Chapter 151

Ye Linhan seemed to come to this breakfast restaurant often, seeing that the person-in-charge took the initiative to greet him as soon as he walked in.

"This breakfast restaurant is quite famous around here because the ingredients they use are fresh. On top of that, there are many varieties too. Here's the menu. Take a look at it, and order anything you like."

Ye Linhan took her to the spot where he would usually sit and handed the menu to Shen Qi after sitting down.

Shen Qi didn't feel like eating breakfast, so she just glanced at the menu randomly and ordered a bowl of noodle soup.

Although he saw her dazed expression, he didn't comment on it. After passing the menu to the waiter, he ordered a few more dishes. Puzzled by her actions, Ye Linhan got out of the car to catch up to her after being stunned for about three seconds.

"Shen Qi?"

Ye Linhan blocked her way and looked at her in confusion. "What's wrong?"

Shen Qi said with an awkward expression on her face, "Linhan, we are not far from the company, so I can just walk there myself. And I'm not going to the hospital anymore. Thank you for everything today."

With that, Shen Qi didn't say anything else and directly walked past Ye Linhan.

Ye Linhan did not chase after her this time. Instead, he just stood there watching Shen Qi walk away.

Shen Qi had walked for quite a long time. When she reached the company, there was no one there, so she went to the roof alone.

The documents on the table were still piled up in a tall stack like yesterday, but some places had been vacated. When she wanted to move them, she found that her hands were covered with the ointment, making it inconvenient for her.

She could only stand and sort out the documents with one hand until the heat in her other hand disappeared. Then, she got up and went to the restroom to wash it off.

Fortunately, she was not severely scalded by the hot porridge, so the injury was not serious. After more than an hour of putting on the ointment, her hand already felt much better.

When Shen Qi returned to work, she happened to bump into Ye Moxuan who had come to work.

Just like yesterday, he was indifferent and did not look at her.

Xiao Su quickly pushed him into the office.

Shen Qi returned to her desk to continue to sort out the documents. Maybe it was because she was too tired for the last two days and didn't have a good rest, so she quickly fell asleep on the table.

Not knowing how long she slept, Shen Qi heard someone nudging her shoulder and calling her name.

"Shen Qi, why are you still asleep? Get up. It's lunch time." The person nudging her was Yan. She waited in the cafeteria downstairs for a long time and didn't see Shen Qi, so she went upstairs to find her, not knowing that she had fallen asleep on her desk.

When Shen Qi faintly heard someone calling her name, she opened her eyes with difficulty and glanced at Yan. "Yan?"

"Why are you sleeping here? Let's go downstairs for lunch. If you go to the cafeteria later, the food will be all gone," Yan said. Without asking for her consent, she just held her arm and pulled her up.

"All right." Shen Qi was about to have lunch anyway, so she stood up after being tugged by Yan.

However, after taking two steps, she suddenly felt the world spinning around her, and everything suddenly went dark as she fell onto the ground.

Yan immediately exclaimed, "Oh my God! What's happening all of a sudden? Don't fall on me, and don't fall onto the ground! Oh, never mind! It's better if you fall on me."

Yan was quite strong, so she attempted to pull Shen Qi up several times. In the end, Shen Qi lay against Yan, who looked at her speechlessly for half a second, before she lowered her head to find that Shen Qi's eyes were closed.

"Shen Qi?"

"My goodness, did you actually pass out? Why all of a sudden? You looked fine just now! Now that you're unconscious, am I the one who has to bring you to the hospital?"

Yan looked around and found that there was no one here, so she could only sigh helplessly.

She took Shen Qi's hand and carried her on her back. Then, she strode forward laboriously.

When she got to the elevator, there was a sudden commotion behind her.

It seemed that the door of the office had opened. Yan looked back and saw Xiao Su pushing Ye Moxuan out of his office.

Their gazes met, and when Ye Moxuan saw Shen Qi lying on her back, his handsome brows furrowed.

Yan remembered the rumors that were spread around the company, so she explained, "Y-Young Master Ye, I came to have lunch together with Shen Qi, but she suddenly fainted after taking a few steps. I'm about to send her to the hospital."

Xiao Su's eyes widened. "Fainted? Why did she suddenly faint?"

Yan coughed lightly and explained, "I have no idea, but she doesn't look good at all, and her hands are cold."

When she said those words, she looked at Ye Moxuan pointedly as if she was telling him on purpose.

Sure enough, Ye Moxuan's frown deepened. After a while, he said coldly, "Give her to me."

Yan asked, "Huh?"

"Young Master Ye is going to take Assistant Shen to the hospital personally."

Only then did Yan understand what was going on and dragged Shen Qi toward Ye Moxuan. He was probably impatient, so he rolled the wheelchair forward by himself. Before Yan could react, his large hands had already reached out as he directly grabbed Shen Qi's waist and pulled her into his arms.

When Yan came to her senses, Shen Qi was already lying in Ye Moxuan's arms.

As a result, Yan stood rooted to the ground and stared at the scene in front of her in amazement.

Although Ye Moxuan was disabled and was in a wheelchair, he exuded an aura of coldness and apathy. When Shen Qi's delicate figure was held in his arms, the coldness aura around him had actually encompassed and masked her frail body.

Yan blinked and thought of a phrase—'Sometimes, gentleness can triumph over toughness.'

"Y-Young Master Ye, do you mean that Shen Qi will be sent to the hospital by you?"

Ye Moxuan ignored her—he didn't even shoot her a glance—and left with Shen Qi in his arms.

Xiao Su was stunned for a few seconds before following him quickly. "Thank you for today. We'll take our leave first."

After thinking for a while, Yan caught up to them before the elevator closed. "Well, can I follow you? I can help out too if you need me to."

Xiao Su looked at Ye Moxuan for his approval. Ye Moxuan's face was still cold, but he didn't show any objection. Hence, Xiao Su nodded. "Yes, you can come with us."

Then, Yan followed them into the elevator, feeling elated.

So, there really is something going on with Shen Qi and Young Master Ye!

Look at his distressed look! Tsk, tsk!

Who said she was not favored? He obviously cares about her!

Tee-hee, I wonder if Shen Qi can become the wife of the president of Ye Group in the future, Yan thought happily.

...

Not knowing how long she had been out, Shen Qi finally woke up, albeit slowly. What caught her eyes was a room that was completely white as a waft of disinfectant drifted into her nostrils, making her frown, and her hands couldn't help but twitch

"You're up!" A cheerful female voice rang from her left, and Shen Qi turned her head to see Yan's cute face.

"Yan?" she said in a hoarse voice.

"Oh, I'll pour you a glass of water first." Yan quickly got up and poured her a glass of water. Then, she gave it to Shen Qi. After drinking, Shen Qi asked out loud, "Why am I here?"

Yan winked mischievously. "You fainted. The doctor said that you are too weak, and that your body is not in a good condition. They are pumping you water and nutrients through the intravenous drip now. Shen Qi, you are actually malnourished. Don't you eat every day?"

Shen Qi was at a loss for words.

Yan suddenly leaned closer to her and asked, "What is the relationship between you and Young Master Ye actually?"

Upon hearing that, Shen Qi raised her eyebrows slightly. "What's the matter?"

"I'm just asking for fun. Didn't everyone in the company say that you are Young Master Ye's lover? But they said that he dumped you recently, so everyone was gloating at this fact. But what happened today proved them wrong again. As everyone watched, Young Master Ye left the company with you in his arms after you fainted—"
