

Nothing To Give But My Heart Chapter 152

'Left the company with me in his arms after you fainted—'

Shen Qi's pretty eyebrows furrowed. Ye Moxuan sent me to the hospital?

The relationship between them during the past few days was beyond terrible. The way he looked at her was even full of disgust. Why would he send me to the hospital?

Shen Qi didn't speak, but it was as if her heart had been bitten by something.

Her heart was numb.

Shen Qi closed her eyes in despair. She seemed to be unable to control her emotions anymore.

"What's the matter?" When Yan saw that Shen Qi didn't speak and that her expression was not good, she thought that Shen Qi was uncomfortable.

Shen Qi shook her head and said softly, "I'm fine. Where is he?"

"He's gone," Yan cupped her cheeks as she said softly. "After sending you to the hospital and hearing that the doctor say you're fine, he left me here to look after you."

"Well, thank you for everything today."

"Don't worry about it! Do you think I am here to help you? Sorry to burst your bubble, but that's not the case. I just want to get closer to see Young Master Ye who is elegant and heroic!" Yan gushed as she began to recall. "Do you know how handsome he was when he took you from me? At that moment, I felt as if he was the main protagonist of a Korean idol drama. Shen Qi, you are so damn lucky to have Young Master Ye falling for you. Sigh. Look at your figure and appearance—you're way below me!"

Shen Qi was speechless upon hearing that.

She said that Ye Moxuan took me from her arms?

"But honestly though, what is the relationship between Young Master Ye and you? Why is he so nervous about you? If you're just his lover, there is no reason for him to do this, right?"

Was he nervous about me?

"Maybe you're mistaken. I don't have any special relationship with Young Master Ye—we just have a normal business-like relationship."

"Hmph, I don't believe you at all! The way he looks at you is clearly possessive. Maybe he likes you!"

With just this sentence, a raging sea of emotions was set off in Shen Qi's heart.

H-He likes me?

Impossible!

Shen Qi felt her heart beat faster as Yan muttered to herself, "When you become the president's wife in the future, don't forget that I saved you today. Remember to promote me and give me a raise."

Yan stayed in the hospital to take care of her until the evening. When Shen Qi felt that she was fine, she wanted to be discharged.

Yan held her down. "You can't be discharged now. You are too weak."

Shen Qi frowned slightly. "I should be fine now. It's not something serious after all. I can't possibly keep staying here in the hospital!"

"No way, Young Master Ye has ordered me to look after you. You are not allowed to leave until he comes back."

When Shen Qi got up and wanted to get down from the bed, the door of the ward was pushed open.

Ye Moxuan appeared in the ward with an indifferent expression.

"Young Master Ye!" When Yan saw him, she jumped up as if she saw a savior. Then, she pointed at Shen Qi. "Shen Qi wants to be discharged, but I didn't agree to her request. I've tried my best to stop her desperately!"

Shen Qi was speechless upon seeing that.

Ye Moxuan's cold eyes looked at her sharply and deeply.

"You want to be discharged?"

Shen Qi froze.

Ye Moxuan's thin lips parted again. "In your dreams."

Shen Qi argued, "But I don't think I'm in any danger. Why can't I leave the hospital and rest at home?"

Ye Moxuan didn't say anything, but Xiao Su, who was behind him, smiled and beckoned to Yan. "Thanks for your hard work today. You should go home and rest early."

Yan agreed and looked at Ye Moxuan reluctantly. Oh, he's so handsome! I still want to stay and look at him for a little while more.

It was probably due to the fact that she was fangirling over Ye Moxuan too obviously that his deep eyes glanced in her direction warningly. When Yan felt the pressure, she immediately said, "Got it. I will leave immediately."

"Shen Qi, I'll visit you tomorrow!"

With that, Yan disappeared without a trace.

Shen Qi wanted to laugh out loud upon seeing that. Yan obviously wanted to stay just now, but she disappeared without a trace at the next second. Shen Qi actually really liked Yan's personality.

Although she was straightforward, and her hurtful words were sometimes unbearable, it showed that she didn't try to put on an act.

Having a friend like her was pretty nice.

Xiao Su coughed lightly. "I'll see her off."

Then, he turned and left the ward, leaving Ye Moxuan and Shen Qi alone in the ward.

The silence between them was a little awkward. Shen Qi was looking at him, but Ye Moxuan obviously didn't want to look at her. Instead, he pushed his wheelchair to the table next to him where Xiao Su left his briefcase.

Then, he took out his laptop and some documents with his slender fingers and started working in the quiet ward.

Shen Qi didn't know what to do in this current situation.

Is he here to work?

How long is he going to work? Shen Qi stared at him dazedly, lost in her thoughts.

Looking at him, Shen Qi thought of Ye Linhan again and touched her lower abdomen unconsciously.

Xueyou is my best friend, so she will never lie to me.

If Ye Linhan is really the father of the child, what should I do in the future?

"If you feel unwell, close your eyes and rest."

Ye Moxuan's voice rang suddenly. When Shen Qi came to her senses, she found that Ye Moxuan was staring at her hostilely.

When Shen Qi met his eyes, she said after a moment, "You can go back now."

Hearing that, Ye Moxuan's eyes suddenly narrowed dangerously.

"It's not suitable for you to work here," Shen Qi explained.

However, the truth was that she actually didn't want to see Ye Moxuan for the time being as her thoughts were a mess now.

However, Ye Moxuan sneered, "You're so used to seeing other men's faces that you don't even want to see mine now?"

Shen Qi's expression changed drastically.

Here he goes again!

"Shen Qi, I can absolutely find that person now and punish him, you know?"

"You've misunderstood me!" Shen Qi explained to him as she bit her lower lip. "I just don't think this place is suitable for you to work."

"Is that so?" Ye Moxuan put down the things in his hands and pushed the wheelchair toward her, leaning into her when he was close enough. Upon seeing this, Shen Qi covered subconsciously.

Is he about to show me that he's in charge again?

Ye Moxuan quickly stopped in front of Shen Qi and pinched her chin with his slender fingers. Then, he lowered his head and pressed his lips around hers fiercely.

Shen Qi's eyes widened.

This kiss came without any warning. When Shen Qi clenched her teeth, Ye Moxuan pried it open and stuck his soft tongue in.

Shen Qi's lips were a little dry, but Ye Moxuan's lips were quite moist and cold. He pressed the back of her head and kissed her hard, enveloping Shen Qi's petite figure with his masculine, domineering aura.

Shen Qi was forced to raise her head as she was kissed by him. Her fair neck looked more slender, and her eyes were closed as her eyelashes quivered slightly. Looking at the affectionate expression on her face at that moment, it was obvious that she was falling.

Ye Moxuan withdrew his lips and tongue quickly, but he didn't pull away for a while.

His thin lips still pressed against hers as he asked hoarsely, "Do you like me kissing you like this?"

Shen Qi nodded confusedly.

A pleasant look flashed across Ye Moxuan's black irises. The corners of his thin lips were turned upward, and his large hand groped her everywhere.

"What about me? Do you like me?"
