

Nothing to Give but My Heart Chapter 331-336

Chapter 331

“Excuse me again, does that car have other characteristics besides its beauty? For example... the license plate number...” Although he no longer has hope for the memory of the old lady in front of him, Curtis Ye actually still asked.

He still hopes to get more clues.

The woman took a close look at him, and suddenly smiled and said: “Why are you asking so much? I think that girl got in the car voluntarily! What do you want to do?”

Voluntarily get in the car? Curtis Ye had a meal, and that should be someone Ana knew.

It’s just... who else does she know?

“Thank you, I am her friend. We were all anxious when we suddenly couldn’t contact her. We have been looking around here for a long time.”

“It turned out to be like this... I don’t remember the license plate number, but I remember that the car was black...”

Curtis Ye sighed softly in his heart. He really shouldn’t have hope for the old lady in front of him. There are countless black cars in Beich.

“Thank you, I’m leaving now.”

He had to call to tell Jessica about this, and by the way, to ask if she knew other people, so that he could find clues among them.

After hearing the news, Jessica felt a little relieved, but immediately became puzzled: "The black car? Can the night deputy be sure that she got in the car voluntarily?"

"Not sure." Curtis said with a cold expression: "If the old lady's statement is correct, as long as she is not mistaken, Ana shouldn't be forced to get in the car."

Hearing, Jessica was silent for a while, and nodded in agreement: "This is also true. If you are forced to get in the car, you will definitely struggle, but since the old lady said that she got in the car voluntarily, it shouldn't happen for the time being. Dangerous. But I still don't worry if I didn't find her. She looked a little scary before, Vice President, please, I want to see her safe and sound."

"You go back today. I will send someone to look for it. I will notify you immediately if there is news."

"Okay then."

After Jessica put down her cell phone, she was still not at ease. She dialed Ana's phone but found that the other party's cell phone could not be reached at all. In desperation, she had to send a text message to Ana, asking her to contact her if she was okay. Then put the phone away and went home.

Ana leaned on the soft sofa, and the servant brought a cup of hot tea to her: "Miss, let's have a cup of hot tea first."

Ana leaned there unwilling to move, let alone reach out to pick it up, but she still shook her head politely at the maid, and then whispered, "Thank you, I don't need it."

The servant stayed for a while, and then took out the tea, and just happened to run into Su Jiu who was about to come in. Su Jiu saw the cup full of tea and smiled: “She doesn’t want to drink it?”

The servant nodded: “The young lady looked in a bad mood, so...”

“I see, you go ahead.” Su Jiu smiled and signaled that she could leave first. The servant breathed a sigh of relief and quickly left. She was really afraid that Su Jiu would let her continue to handle Ana, although she looks harmless and polite, but she can’t handle this kind of depressed person.

Su Jiu stepped in and walked in front of Ana. Seeing that her mood was still as low as when she came, she couldn’t help but smile: “What is it that makes Ms. Shen so depressed?”

Hearing the familiar voice, Ana raised her head and looked at Su Jiu.

“I’m fine.”

After Jessica went to call, she got up in a daze and wanted to leave, and then she didn’t know how long she had walked before she realized that she had walked to the side of the main road, and when she saw the lanes full of streets, she actually wanted to die.

But she was stunned when she got up with this thought.

She is still pregnant, even if she doesn’t think about herself, she must think about the baby.

So she didn’t move, squatting on the side of the road watching the traffic.

Then a car stopped in front of her and the door opened.

When Ana raised her head, she just hit a pair of calm and deep eyes, it was Victor Han.

“Miss Shen, why are you here?”

When she raised her head, Su Jiu was shocked by her red eye sockets and tear marks on her face. Her mouth was open for a long time, and she couldn't say a word.

Victor Han looked at her with complicated eyes, and the two of them stared at each other. After a while...Victor Han handed her his hand.

The weight of his words was like a stern brother, and the concerned eyes made Ana feel warm. She bit her lower lip lightly, did not get up, but dropped her eyes again.

“Look up.” Who knew that her head was half lowered, and Victor Han would suddenly scold her.

Ana was taken aback and raised her head again blankly.

“Didn't you hear me? Get up.”

Ana: “...”

She bit her lower lip and couldn't help but say: “Mr. Victor, although Karla Han and I are good friends,... doesn't mean you can take care of my business, right?”

She was really in a bad mood today, plus... She felt that she and Karla Han were no longer good sisters.

She would see Victor Han less frequently in the future. She originally wanted to treat each other with courtesy, because after all, it was a matter between her and Karla Han, so it's not hard to blame others.

But if Victor Han wanted to take care of her affairs, she would have to talk about it.

Hearing this, Victor Han frowned, "What did you say?"

Ana Shen bit her lower lip, don't open her face and stop looking at him.

In the next second, Victor Han suddenly stretched out his hand to hold her shoulders and lifted her up. His movements were extremely relaxed, and Ana was stunned.

"Do you think I want to take care of your nostalgia? It's because you are here to affect your image too much, and you will block others' way."

Victor Han's tone was cold, but his eyes tightened her.

Unexpectedly... even the angry and self-willed look is so similar.

This is... Is he looking for his sister for more than 20 years?

Damn it, why didn't he find out before, how did those people find Karla Han on her head? Was it the secret he had stolen after learning about Ana?

But...why does Ana herself know something that everyone else knows?

Ugh.

Thinking of this, Victor Han sighed inexplicably.

“Leave here first, you are too embarrassed now.”

Ana Shen was taken aback. Of course she knew that she was embarrassed like this, but she was in a bad mood now, so she didn't mind being so embarrassed.

“You go first.”

“Su Jiu, get her in the car.” Victor Han commanded coldly.

Su Jiu couldn't help smiling, then walked to Ana, and rarely held her hand affectionately: “Miss Shen, the people here are really dangerous. I don't think you have any friends by your side for the time being, please follow us. Get out of here.”

After that, Su Jiu pulled her into the car. Although the actions seemed polite, the attitude was still very tough.

Chapter 332

Looking back now...Why did Ana follow her in the car?

She still has Jessica with her, even if she wants to leave, she should go to Jessica's house, not... in this Han's house.

“Mr. Victor's company has something to deal with temporarily. He will be back in about an hour. Miss Shen can take a good rest in this hour.”

“No, I have to go.” Ana stood up, now Karla Han is not at home, she and Karla Han are no longer good sisters, she will be very uncomfortable staying here any longer.

After speaking, Ana bends over to Su Jiu: “Thank you Secretary Su for today, thank you Mr. Victor, I will leave, my friend may still be waiting for me.”

Seeing her like this, Su Jiu smiled faintly.

“Are you sure you really want to leave? Miss Shen, Mr. Victor might have something to tell you.”

Hearing, Ana had a meal: “Some words?”

“Yes, some...very important words.” Su Jiu didn’t know if she wanted to remind her now, would it be too soon? Who knows that Victor Han suddenly has something important to go out, and originally wanted to wait for her to feel better. Talk to her.

“Important words...” Ana lowered her head to think for a moment, then raised her head as if to understand something, “I should know what you are going to say.”

“Eh?” Su Jiu was a little surprised: “Miss Shen actually knows what we are going to say?”

Ana looked indifferent, “Although Karla Han and I were sisters before, but... our relationship has now been broken, and in the future...”

“Broken?” Su Jiu was surprised: “Well, how come you suddenly broke? Did you find something?”

Hearing, Ana raised her head suddenly and looked at her in shock.

Did they also find out something? So Victor Han wanted to talk to her about it this time. Without thinking about it, Ana could guess that Victor Han would be on Karla Han’s side.

Even if Karla Han did something wrong, they are a family after all, Victor Han...is he trying to persuade her to leave?

Thinking of this, Ana bit her lower lip forcefully: "Thank you very much today, Mr. Victor, for helping me and taking me home to entertain me, but I don't think you have anything to say. I will not give in on this matter. "

Su Jiu was a little baffled. She thought that Ana had discovered the secret of her own life experience, but now she hears that... it seems to be something else.

Could it be that in addition to the matter of life experience, Ana and Karla Han have other bigger conflicts? That led to the breakdown of their friendship?

"I don't know...Can I take the liberty to ask, Miss Shen and her friendship broke down because of what?"

Hearing that, Ana was taken aback, she looked at her in an incredible way: "Don't you know?"

"Miss Shen joked, how could I know these things..."

"Then you just said that Mr. Victor had something to tell me, I thought..."

"Miss Shen may have misunderstood. What Mr. Victor said to Miss Shen may not be the same thing that Miss Shen thought. But... it is also based on you and Karla Han."

Hearing this, Ana was confused. It was based on her and Karla Han, but it was not the one thing she was thinking about. What was it?

Ana couldn't think of it, but she... didn't seem to want to know that much.

Anyway, it would be impossible for her to be good with Karla Han in the future.

Thinking of this, Ana said again: “Forget it, no matter what it is, I’m not so interested anymore, Secretary Su, thank you so much today, but I have to leave.”

After saying that Ana really planned to leave, Su Jiu saw that she had no intention of staying, and she was a little worried. It’s rare to call her home once, if she would come out next time?

So Su Jiu couldn’t help but said: “Miss Shen, you have been in Shen’s house for such a long time, haven’t you ever doubted your life experience?”

In a word, success gave Ana a single step.

She looked back at Su Jiu, “Secretary Su, what do you mean by...?”

Seeing that she had successfully been attracted by her own words, the next step was her home game, Su Jiu directly said, “Shen’s family has never been favored for so many years. Your mother will always favor your sister, and you must also play the role of your sister. Even if your sister doesn’t want to marry, your mother will let you marry for you. Didn’t these unfair treatments make you doubt your life experience?”

Ana: “...”

It’s not that she didn’t wonder if she was born to her mother.

After her mother had done those things, she asked her mother again. At that time, her face changed and she scolded her.

But she just thought that way, but didn’t delve into this matter seriously.

After all, she was also brought up by her parents since she was a child, although the treatment is sometimes unfair, but more often, they give themselves the warmth of the family, and she is the older sister... so she must take care of her younger sister.

Of course, she also thought countless times, if she was not a sister or a younger sister, her mother would definitely let Erika Shen treat her like she did to Erika Shen.

After thinking about it this way, Ana felt much better.

So she never goes deep into this matter.

Now that Su Jiu said it, she suddenly realized that...things might be more terrifying than she thought...?

“Miss Shen, haven’t you really thought about it? Is it possible...you are not the biological daughter of the Shen family at all?”

Ana’s steps stopped, and her body stepped back two steps uncontrollably. There was a table next to her, and her back was leaning right there.

Upon seeing this, Su Jiu couldn’t help but walked over and pulled her over: “Come here and sit down. There may be a lot more to talk about.”

Ana walked forward with her like a puppet controlled by a wire. After sitting down, Ana suddenly remembered the strange words that Victor Han had said to her after Zhu Yun and Uncle Jin were in the restaurant not long ago.

He said he was looking for someone, but he never found one.

She also showed her the baby’s picture and the wishful safety button.

Coupled with the many hesitations he had later stopped, Ana always felt... aftertaste something.

“Ms. Shen is okay? This matter is relatively important. Originally... I wanted to wait for Mr. Victor to tell you personally. After all... Miss Shen and he are relatives. This matter is more appropriate for him.”

Relatives...

Hearing this word, Ana suddenly raised her head.

Are she and Victor Han relatives?

“But Ms. Shen insists on leaving, so I have no choice but to inform you in advance, and save that Mr. Victor doesn’t know how to say these things to you later. Ms. Shen, I’ll just say it. You are not the Shen family. You are the daughter born to Mrs. Han more than 20 years ago.”

Chapter 333

“...” Ana stared at Su Jiu blankly. When the words came out of Su Jiu’s mouth and reached her ears, her body seemed to be unable to accept the words and had a huge reaction. Like rejection, she didn’t react for a long time.

After a while, Ana’s face paled a little.

“You, what did you say...”

“I know whoever it is, at this time, things about life experience may be unacceptable, but the facts are like this, Miss Shen... you are indeed Mrs. Han’s biological daughter. That is to say, our Han family has always been there. The daughter of the Han family that I was looking for.”

Ana: "Then...what about Karla Han? You weren't..."

"Speaking of this, we have to contact another matter. Karla Han probably accidentally knew about this, so she kept getting these news after she approached you, and then faked some incidents. Mr. Victor was anxious to find his sister. After searching for so many years, the people under his staff knew that he was anxious, maybe everyone was anxious and made a mistake."

Hearing this, the only trace of blood left on Ana's lips also disappeared.

At the beginning... Jessica was saying something in her ear.

That woman might be a good friend with you when she was in college, is it also purposeful?

Originally, she was still thinking about a relationship she cherished so much, but...has it been mixed with so many things?

No...Probably not.

Ana shook her head pale, and said with difficulty: "You...can't you make a mistake? After all, I have been friend with Karla Han for so many years. If you make a mistake, you should know it at first."

"Unfortunately, we really don't know. But I can tell you clearly now that there is absolutely no problem with your life experience, Madam Shen has already admitted personally."

Boom!

Something seemed to hit Ana's heart hard.

Has the mother admitted in person? Admit what? Admit that she is not the biological daughter of the Shen family? So... That's why she has always treated her differently from Erika Shen. Is this the reason for the unfairness?

"In fact, since Mr. Victor found Karla Han, he has always had a relatively indifferent attitude towards Karla Han, although all the conditions are met, but... you know that family affection is sensitive. After all, if you are relatives, you It's the same blood, and some things are so evil. Mr. Victor doesn't feel like a relative to Karla Han, but because she meets all the conditions, Mr. Victor did not investigate this matter again. Until... last time I saw Miss Shen in the restaurant."

"Speaking of this, I'm going to take Ms. Shen to see something." After speaking, Su Jiu got up directly: "Ms. Shen, came with me, maybe you will understand after reading it."

Ana followed her forward vainly. The two of them took the escalator. The extravagance they experienced along the way made her feel unreal. Su Jiu stopped until she stopped in front of a room.

She took the key from the bag and opened the room.

This room has been locked. Today, Victor Han specially handed over the key to Su Jiu in order to prevent accidents, and she could use it when necessary.

Unexpectedly, it really came in handy. After Su Jiu opened the house and went in, Ana also followed in.

The room is cleaned by a special person, so there is no accumulation of dust inside, but it is bright everywhere, and the things are arranged extremely neatly, and the whole room looks orderly.

But... the dry smell in the air declares that this room has not been occupied for a long time.

Very strange breath...

Ana walked in, and when she accidentally saw the huge poster on the wall, she froze in place.

Above the poster is a woman wearing a blue dress, with a waist-length green silk draped softly on her shoulders without any modernization. The blue mopping floor dress sets off her original soft figure extremely slender. Behind her was the blue sea surface illuminated by the moon. The moonlight sprinkled silver powder on the sea surface, and at the same time she outlined her facial features extremely three-dimensionally and deeply.

The woman was laughing, but the smile was subtle, especially the eyes, which were cold.

It was the same as the sea behind her, although it was beautiful, it was still deserted, as if it had no feelings.

Inexplicably, Ana thought of something when she looked in the mirror on weekdays.

Those eyes...to her...like...

"This is the place where Madam Han lived." Su Jiu said suddenly.

Hearing, Ana had a meal, and then she bit her lower lip.

"Looking at that photo, does it feel like seeing yourself for a moment?" Su Jiu suddenly laughed softly: "To be honest, when I saw you at the airport for the first time, you wore a blue skirt. Mrs. Han liked blue the most during her lifetime, so almost all of her clothes were blue, and she also yearned for the sea. I had not seen a picture of Mrs. Han at that time, so... I don't know why Mr. Victor met Miss Shen then there will be that reaction. Later... after I knew the truth, I saw Madam Han and found that you are really similar to Madam Han. Especially your eyes, and your temperament, these... It is the most direct evidence.”

Ana didn't answer the conversation. She had never met Victor Han before because she had never had a chance.

Even if she and Karla Han proposed to thank her elder brother for inviting her eldest brother to dinner, she responded to her in a panic, and Victor Han was very busy.

Later, by chance, she unexpectedly had the opportunity to meet Victor Han and talk about work with him.

Presumably... Karla Han had seen Mrs. Han's photo, so I felt it.

Is this the reason why she never wanted her to see Victor Han?

Before, she couldn't understand a lot of things, but when the truth came to light, she now thought about it carefully and realized that many things were all right.

It was really terrifying to think carefully. She didn't expect Karla Han to have been doing these unexpected things, and she was foolishly kept in the dark.

“Miss Shen, I know it is difficult for you to accept this matter. But in fact, it is the case. You are indeed the person the Han family has been looking for. I have said these words on behalf of Mr. Victor first. I will wait...”

“Can I go back?” Ana suddenly asked.

Su Jiu was stunned.

“Forget it, can I ask to stay here quietly for a while?”

There are too many things today, her mind is now like a bird's nest, she can't calm down at all, and she can't figure out what happened, why the situation suddenly became like this...

She had to be quiet and sort out her current thoughts.

Su Jiu naturally understood her feelings and nodded: "Of course, you can stay quiet here for a while. I will go downstairs first. Mr. Victor will come over later, and I will bring Mr. Victor over to find Miss Shen."

"Thank you." Ana thanked her, and Su Jiu left soon.

Chapter 334

After Su Jiu went out, only Ana was left in the room alone.

Su Jiu took the door especially considerately, as if she was not worried that she would destroy the things in the house at all. It was the first time she came, but she was so relieved of herself.

The things in this room are precious, but she...

Could it be... Is she really the daughter of the Han family they have been looking for?

But how can she believe this? For a long time, although she has not been favored by her parents like Erika Shen, but in her heart, she has always regarded the Shen family as her relatives, even if she is always subjected to the harshness of her mother, she will wonder if she will It wasn't the mother's birth at all, but she soon denied this idea herself.

She even think how she can think so, no matter how she is the mother who gave birth to her.

And at that time, instead of Erika Shen marrying to Yejia, Ana could understand that Shen's mother did not want her two daughters to be ruined, so she felt that she was divorced anyway, but Erika Shen was still in a good time, instead of letting her marry one. The lame, it's better to let Ana, a divorced one, marry, so...and you won't lose money.

How could Ana not understand their thoughts, so even if she felt discouraged, she still married?

It's just that what happened since then has left her in despair many times.

Even if she did all this in place of Erika Shen, her parents still didn't take everything she did in their eyes. They even felt that she had clung to the dignitaries and could begin to benefit from her, instead of caring about her. Is it good to get the bottom line?

Now someone really tells her that she is not the biological daughter of the Shen family.

And Su Jiu also said that Shen's mother confessed.

But Ana always felt that this was not true, and she couldn't accept this kind of life experience.

She thought... she wanted to go back and ask her mother if it was true. She wanted to believe it after hearing her confession in person.

In addition, there are too many things today. Walter broke up just now, and her life experience was exposed here again. All the world seemed to be swept over crazily together, and she didn't even have time to breathe.

Thinking of this, Ana couldn't help but smile. Who would give her time to breathe?

She got up and looked around, and finally her eyes fell on the woman on the poster.

Is this person really her mother? Even if the eyes are so similar to her, it is a poster after all. After all, it is a photo. In addition, after so many years, she didn't have much time with her. At this moment... I really don't feel it when I see her. At all.

If possible, she still hopes... that she is the daughter of the Shen family.

She hope the Han family made a mistake, she is not the daughter of the Han family.

Thinking of this, Ana got up and walked outside.

No, she has to go home.

Even if she breaks with Walter, she absolutely can't be so decadent, she wants to cheer up and be strong.

When she walked out of the room, she didn't expect that Su Jiu would be guarded not far from the door. Seeing her coming out, she smiled and went forward: "Miss Shen, have you figured it out?"

"I want to go home." Ana begged directly.

Hearing, Su Jiu was slightly surprised, then nodded after a moment: "Then I will send you a car to take you back."

Ana was a little surprised. She thought she would leave, but she did not expect that she would agree to let her go. Ana gave her a grateful look: "Thank you, but I just need to go back."

“That won’t work, you are in this state, I can’t watch you leave by yourself. Where Ms. Shen is going, I will ask the driver to take you there. If you refuse, you can’t leave. I just told Mr. Victor. Now, Mr. Victor told me not to trap Miss Shen.”

It turned out to be Victor Han...Ana nodded: “Okay, please, trouble you.”

Su Jiu smiled faintly: “Don’t be so polite, or I will accompany Miss Shen.”

“No, I just want to go home to make sure, you don’t have to follow it specially.”

“Okay then.”

After Ana left, Su Jiu called Victor Han directly, “Mr. Victor, Miss Shen has already left.”

“Yeah.” Victor Han’s voice was low and cold, and could not hear any mood swings.

Su Jiu hesitated for a moment, and then asked, “Do you want to...”

“No need. She already knows the whole story and wants to verify that it is normal.”

“Then... do you want to take her back.”

“Don’t worry, look at her.” After a pause, Victor Han said again: “Don’t force her.”

“I know Mr. Victor, what about Miss Stella Karla? She is still living in the hospital, and now...”

“She was injured, keep a secret for now, and tell her when she is discharged.”

“Okay, I know.”

After hanging up the phone, Su Jiu was a little touched. Although Victor Han looked cold and ruthless on the surface, he was actually a thoughtful man. Although Karla Han deceived him, he could still remain calm at this time, because Karla Han received she was injured, so he didn't want to go to her for a showdown now because he was afraid of her accident.

This saves her a lot of trouble, and her mind is really overwhelming.

In the dead of night, a long-length car stopped at the intersection. Ana thanked the driver and then opened the door and got out of the car. The driver poked his head out: “Miss, I'll be waiting for you here.”

Hearing, Ana paused and met the driver's eyes hesitantly: “Thank you, uncle, but...no, you go back.”

After speaking, she turned and walked forward. After a long walk, Ana turned around and found that the car hadn't left. She couldn't help but sighed, but didn't look back, and then went straight into Shen's house.

The door was unlocked, and the light was on in the room. When Ana pushed the door in, the Shens and his wife were sitting on the sofa. They both stood up at the same time when they heard the voice: “Yueyue, you go back...”

Halfway through the conversation, after seeing Ana, the two of them stopped talking.

Mother Shen thought it was Erika Shen who came back, but she didn't expect to see Ana coming in. After taking a look at Ana, she couldn't help but said, “Why are you?”

Hearing, Ana's action of closing the door froze a little, and after a while she smiled: “Why can't it be me, can't I go back to this house?”

Hearing this, Mother Shen squinted suspiciously: “What do you mean by this?”

Everyone from the Han family came to the door, and Ana came here too strangely today. She is afraid they all colluded and knew about this.

Thinking of this, Mother Shen snorted, and then sneered: “Can you go back to this home? I never said anything about you, but now you still want to go back to this home? Are you willing to leave your jeweled place?”

Ana’s eyes moved slightly, “So, do you admit it?”

“What did you admit or not? What do you want to say? What are you doing now?”

Chapter 335

Ana lowered her eyes and stared at her toes in a daze.

“Ana, our Shen family has always been dissatisfied with you, even if you are not my own, but I have given you a lot since you were young? Now people from the Han family have come to our door, and you have become the eldest of the Han family. No, you don’t want to leave our Shen family alone? Of course, it’s okay if you want to leave it alone. It’s a big expense for me to raise you up. You have to pay me.”

Ana looked up at her in amazement.

When she was still hesitating, she didn’t expect Mother Shen to tell her the truth so quickly.

Her eyes trembled: “So...I really am not your biological daughter?”

Mother Shen was a little strange to see her like this, why was she upset and excited? Father Shen stood aside, looking at Ana with complicated eyes, and sighed: “Ana, are you sure... it was not my mother and me. Back then... you were the child we adopted from the orphanage.”

Father Shen’s tone was always gentle. Ana Shen glanced at him and realized that her father seemed to be much older than before. Her cloudy eyes looked at him with a touch of love and distress, but what he said was stinging. It hurt her heart.

She lowered her eyes and said with a low smile: “I didn’t expect all of this to be true. I always thought that I was your biological daughter. What Secretary Su told me was false, but I didn’t expect... all of this. It’s all true.”

“Are you okay?” Mother Shen couldn’t help but look at her strangely when she heard her say this: “Isn’t it our biological daughter, isn’t it okay? That’s the Han family in Beich, I asked it specifically, and told Ye Family.” It’s not inferior. What’s wrong with being the daughter of the Han family? Ana, you should be sober, and you will be the eldest girl of the Han family in the future. Your adoptive parents can also follow Zhanguan, don’t forget your sister, She is your sister.”

Having said that, Mother Shen came over and held Ana’s shoulder: “Did you hear what Mom said to you? Your sister has always liked your sister the most, and she has always known that your sister loves her very much. If there is anything...Do you have to help her know? Or, do you think the Han family should recognize a goddaughter, you just bring your sister in?”

Ana: “...”

“I’ll ask one last time, I really... isn’t your biological daughter? My mother lied to me for prosperity, right? I have lived together for so many years, I don’t believe...”

“What nonsense are you talking about? Why do I lie to you for the sake of prosperity and wealth? Is this kind of life experience false? Besides...you are indeed the daughter of the Han family. Even if you are not the daughter of the Han family, you are not our Shen My daughter, your father is right, you are the child we adopted in the orphanage.”

“Why?” Ana smiled bitterly: “Why... did you want to raise me?”

Mother Shen don't overdo it: “Don't ask, anyway...this is how things are.”

Father Shen sighed and told Ana the truth.

“At the beginning, I married your mother for many years and never gave birth. The fortune teller asked me and your mother to adopt one in the orphanage. Unexpectedly, I met you after I went there. Seeing that you were very cute, your mother and I loved you. So I took you back.”

Having said that, Ana could probably guess what happened next.

“But you didn't expect that not long after you adopted me, you would have your own daughters, right?”

Father Shen nodded: “Yes, this is all we didn't expect.”

“So, after you had your own biological daughter, you began to snub my adoption from the orphanage?”

Thinking of this, Ana couldn't help but laugh: “Actually, I always thought that you were kind to Erika Shen because she was still young, and she was a younger sister, and I always persuaded myself that I am an elder sister, and it is reasonable to treat my younger sister. It's just me. Never thought that I was not your biological daughter.”

She still can't accept it.

“Ana, what the hell are you doing today? You are now Miss Stella, what do you say about these things in the past? Is it possible that you want to settle accounts with me?” Mother Shen said angrily, and Father Shen hurriedly stopped seeing this. She: “Don’t talk nonsense, do you think this girl looks like she is here to settle accounts? She probably can’t stand this kind of stimulation...”

“Is there anything I can’t bear? My Yueyue ran away after knowing the news. What can’t she do with Ana? She can fly to the branch immediately, and the poor Yueyue still has to stay under this condition. The good family continues to suffer, ooh... our family is really suffering.”

Speaking of this, Mother began to howl and cry.

Father Shen was upset when he heard: “Don’t make trouble! What does it look like to cry? Although Ana is not our biological daughter, she is the child raised by us. Don’t you know her mind? She is not that at all. A person who likes to climb dragons and attach phoenixes!”

Hearing, Mother Shen suddenly stopped crying as if thinking of something, and then rushed towards Ana, directly holding her shoulders, her eyes widened, and her facial features looked a bit hideous.

“That’s right, Ana, you are not the kind of person who likes to climb dragons and attach phoenixes... Then...you give up the position of the daughter of the Han family to your sister, okay? Let’s talk to the Han family, actually Yueyue only It’s the person they’ve been looking for, but you are not! Mom swears to you that as long as Yueyue enters the Han family and becomes the daughter, Mom will never treat you badly in the future.”

Mother Shen was mad, talking nonsense.

Originally, Ana just came to verify her identity, but she didn't expect to hear the words that pierced her heart even more. She stared at Mother Shen blankly, her white lips moved.

"In my mother's eyes, do you think...As long as Erika Shen wants everything I have, I will give?"

Mother Shen was stunned for a moment, and then shook her head: "It's not like that, but...you are a sister, shouldn't it be right to let your own sister? Ana, just treat you like your mother, so you just use this identity give it to Yueyue, Yueyue will repay her as grace, and you will have a good future in the future."

Ana couldn't help laughing, her laughter was so bitter that she couldn't stop.

Mother Shen looked at her because she was unknown.

When the laughter finally stopped, Ana's face had already turned into an indifferent expression, and even her voice became colder: "What if I don't want it?"

"What?"

"If I don't want to give her my identity, and I will be the Han family eldest, how will my mother treat me?"

"...Don't you like glory and wealth? How can you give this to your sister? Ana, I have the credit for raising you for more than 20 years!"

"So, can my mother always do whatever she wants to me and take everything away from me? If this is the case..."

Chapter 336

“I would rather I have never been adopted by you!”

After saying this, Ana pulled away the hands of Mother Shen on her shoulders, stepped back a few steps, and kept a distance from Mother Shen.

“It’s ridiculous. Before stepping into this house, I still have a little hope left. I hope my mother will say something to keep me. Even if it deceives me, I will feel very warm, but... not only did my mother not say those words to keep me. , And even... let me give my identity to my sister. Yes, I don’t like these glory and wealth. What I pay more attention to... is family love. Otherwise, I would not listen to my mother’s words to replace Yueyue and marry until the night. Home is gone. Mother, you are right. You have brought me up and you have taken credit for it, but...you have also exploited me a lot at the same time, haven’t you?”

Ana was full of tears, the crystal tears had filled her eyes, but she had been stubborn and did not let the tears fall, biting her lower lip to hold back these.

“I didn’t have a greeting after my divorce, and a cold command sent me to Yejia. You thought I became Yejia’s young lady and lived a good life. If you really think it’s a good day, why didn’t you let Shen? Go by yourself? Don’t you think that the target of the marriage is a disabled person for fear of your biological daughter? It’s a fire pit if you step into it! So, you pushed me down. If that’s the case, will I repay my mother’s kindness for nurturing me? Got it?”

“No!” Mother Shen shook her head vigorously: “No, Ana, you don’t want to get rid of the Shen family. No matter what, you are my raised child. It is your duty to do what I ask you to do! What happened to your sister who was married in the past? You are a second-married woman who would want you? If it weren’t for the Shen family, you would be nothing, and if you didn’t marry for Erika Shen, you wouldn’t be Ye family’s young lady!”

“Then I don’t want the title of Young Lady Yejia!!”

Erika Shen also replied loudly, “Do you think I want it?? Why do you think that title is good, I have to think he is good too? After I got married to Yejia, have you ever asked me a question? Okay? For so many years, I have really regarded myself as the daughter of the Shen family. Everything I have done... is because I regard you as my biological mother, so I will endure all the grievances no matter how unfair it is. Go and promise to do it!”

“But I finally understand today... My mother is still using me up to now. You just want to squeeze those unclean benefits from me. When I have no use anymore, you will kick me. Open without hesitation!”

“Isn’t it something you don’t want to use? Since you don’t want this splendor and wealth, what can’t you give it to your sister?”

Does she have to give it to others?

“Who said I don’t want it?” Ana suddenly sneered, “As you said, that is the identity of Miss Stella’s family, and... That’s something that really belongs to me, and I deserve it. “

Hearing, Mother Shen was taken aback, “You...you want it?”

Ana didn’t speak any more, but her eyes became much colder, and the temperament on her body was no longer the same as before.

Originally, she came with hope, but now the little hope she only deposited has disappeared. There is no need to stay here anymore.

Thinking of this, Ana turned and walked outside.

Seeing that she was leaving, Mother Shen’s expression changed, and she became anxious in her heart. She stepped forward and grabbed her wrist: “Where are you going?”

Hearing, Ana's heart moved. Before she could say anything, she heard Mother Shen say: "Even if you want to leave, you have to remember my kindness to nurture you, right? I tell you the truth, I owe a lot of gambling debts. Now that you are the eldest of the Han family, even if you look at your past merits, you still have to give Mom some compensation, right?"

Well, this time is really completely discouraged.

Ana smiled faintly, there was no light in her eyes.

"I know, don't worry, I will never forget...this kindness."

When Mother Shen heard it, she smiled and said, "That's right, after all, Mom has raised you for so many years, so you should go back early and be careful on the road."

She didn't see the expression on Ana's face and didn't know what Ana was thinking.

Or maybe she doesn't care what Ana thinks at all.

In short, when Ana walked out the door, she felt cold. The cold night wind blew her long hair, and the blue silk was blowing in the air. Ana stopped and stretched out her arms to hug herself.

It's so cold.

Before winter this year, she already felt so cold.

Its cold everywhere, no...a little warmth at all.

When she reached the intersection, Ana found that the Han's car was still parked there. She stood still and watched. After a while, the car door opened and the driver's uncle ran up to her.

"Miss, you are out, I'll take you back."

"Where are you going back?" Ana asked subconsciously.

The driver smiled gently: "Mr. ordered, as long as the lady wants to go home, he can do it anytime. If the lady is not willing, then I can also send the lady to where she wants to go."

Where does she want to go?

Where can she go besides Jessica now?

It's so ridiculous, she is a married woman, no matter it is in her husband's family or her mother's family, she can't go back to either.

No... She is no longer married. Walter has given her the divorce contract. From now on... She will be a woman who has been divorced twice.

She was really...so naive.

When Walter regarded her as second-hand goods, she should see her own status, but unfortunately she still had an impossible dream, thinking that she could be in love with Walter.

Who knew it would still be a big dream.

Where to?

Ana raised her eyes and shook her head.

“I don’t know...where to go...”

The driver uncle looked at her for a moment, and suddenly said: “Miss, let’s get in the car first, I will see you off.”

Ana stood there for a long time before following him into the car.

After getting in the car, Ana suddenly said, “Send me to the hotel.”

She didn’t want to disturb Jessica anymore, the Han family...now it’s not where she wants to go. She has not yet accepted the truth in her heart, she needs to find a quiet place to stay by herself.

The driver hesitated, and finally listened to her and sent Ana to the hotel.

Ana brought her ID card, but no clothes. After apologizing to the driver, she went to open the hotel alone.

The driver watched her enter the elevator, then went to the door to call Victor Han.

“Sir, the lady asked me to send her to the hotel.”

“I know, I will send someone to follow her to ensure her safety.”

“Okay sir, I will send the location to your phone.”
