

Nothing to Give but My Heart Chapter 355-360

Chapter 355

Her shy appearance made Stella couldn't help but want to tease her a few more words, but as soon as the words came to her lips, there was a cell phone ringing.

At first, the two looked at each other in confusion. After a while, Jessica seemed to react suddenly: "Oops, didn't I have an appointment to measure the body of the client? I guess it's a phone call now."

Thinking of this, Jessica's face changed drastically, and she turned around and rushed upstairs, regardless of the others.

Stella glanced at the time, there were still hours left before the appointment time.

It is said that the actress will come to Sioux City today, and it will take them about 20 minutes to get there.

Well, time should still be sufficient.

Stella muttered the time silently in her heart. Five minutes later, Jessica had finished wearing her clothes and went downstairs. She put her mobile phone into Stella's hand and ran to the shoe cabinet to put on shoes.

"Time is running out, get me a car."

Stella had no choice but to accept the phone, enter the password, and then ask her for a car.

“All right.”

Jessica took the phone and rushed out, saying: “You have no conscience, you know that you have a job today, you didn’t remind me last night, which made me so drunk...”

Snapped!

After the door was closed, Jessica continued with a depressed look: “It also made me lose face in front of the male god, oooo! I’m going to be late!”

After Jessica left, Stella went upstairs and asked Levi to get up.

When she entered the house, Levi was still sleeping, his small body hugged a big pillow, which looked very funny.

“Levi, get up.” Stella sat down on the edge of the bed while calling his name.

“Um...” Levi responded, but his small body remained motionless, still sleeping soundly with her pillow.

Stella glanced at the time, “It’s almost noon, can’t get up?”

Levi opened his eyes and gave her a sleepy look.

With just this look, Stella was shocked by the look in his eyes.

so similar...

When Stella gave birth to him, and then watched him grow up day by day, when he was very young, Stella felt that this child’s features were similar to Walter’s, because of this idea she was still laughing at herself in her heart.

Why did she still remember that person for so much time, so she felt that this child looked like Walter.

But... Later, Jessica also accidentally raised a mouth, which made Stella slightly startled.

So she thought, Levi would look like Walter because Walter and Curtis Ye are brothers? That's why there is this gene?

Otherwise... how could it look like this?

Later, the child became bigger and bigger, and the outline gradually grew. His appearance was actually carved out of the same mold as Walter.

However, this is a Q version.

Regarding this question, Stella didn't quite understand it all the time, and then she stopped thinking about it. Anyway, thinking more than her is useless.

In the future, she only needs to live her own day and raise Levi to grow up.

"Don't get up yet?" Stella was not angry, calling him softly.

Levi could see that it was Stella, so he stretched out his hand and rubbed his eyes and sat up obediently. "Well, Mommy, I seem to have overslept today."

"You also know that you overslept, why did you go last night? Can't sleep?"

Levi looked confused, "Mommy, I couldn't sleep last night... My uncle told me a long story."

Hearing, Stella's heart moved. He seemed to be in good spirits when she spoke to Victor Han earlier, but she didn't expect him to...

This person is really too good at hiding himself.

Especially in front of his sister, he always didn't take his body seriously when he was an older brother.

Thinking of this, Stella patted Levi's cheeks: "Alright, get up, your Aunt Jessica has a job today. Mommy will take you out for dinner. We will also go to the nearby supermarket to see if there is anything. Something that needs to be purchased."

As soon as he heard that he was going to the supermarket, Levi got up from the bed immediately: "Good mom, you wait for me for ten minutes!"

The little guy is quite fast, and he got up.

Stella also went back to the room to change clothes and make-up.

After she finished cleaning up, she looked at herself in the mirror in a daze.

Once upon a time, she had become...cannot go out without makeup.

Sure enough, time is a weapon, no matter who it is, it will change silently in time.

"Beich lives well, why didn't you move to Suzhou?"

In front of a floor-to-ceiling window, a man stood with his hand in hand, and his slender figure pulled down a long shadow in front of the floor-to-ceiling window. The dark, dark suit was worn on him but he was not mature, on the contrary, he had the charm of a mature man. Although the man's figure looks thin, he can be seen through his suit.

His deep eyes narrowed slightly like a fierce eagle, overlooking the city, and the man's thin lips spoke again: "It doesn't matter if you move here, when you start to like living in high-rise buildings?"

A middle-aged woman in house clothes walked out of the kitchen. Her hair was half-pulled. On the surface, she looked like a middle-aged woman. But when she look closely at the corner of her eyes, she can see many eye patterns, which can be seen. It's a little old.

The woman put a plate of fruit on the table and took a bite of grapes.

"Then you stayed in the North City well, why did you come to me? Su City is an outstanding city, so I just like the air here?"

The man did not answer, still standing there still.

The woman glanced at his back, took another grape to her mouth, and said, "Could it be that the lonely and widow is too injured and came to your aunt to find warmth? Then I can tell you Walter, Auntie doesn't have the kind of warmth you want here, and you can see that your auntie and I are alone in this room."

"Is it?"

The man's voice was faint, "Why is my sister still alone? You are so old."

"Boy, how do you talk about you? So rude?" After speaking, the woman sighed, "You think I want to be alone. It's really your mother's affairs that gave me too much shadow. I was so impolite. I saw it with my own eyes, besides... I have checked it, I am not fertile, and in this life... I will live it by myself. Your mother entrusted you to me, and I will treat you as my son."

Hearing, the man turned around and frowned.

“You?”

“What? Are you not convinced?” The woman slapped the table with anger.

She is Walter’s aunt, Song An.

Song An got up and tried to pull the man’s ears, but was avoided by the man without a trace.

“Anyway, I don’t care. If I am too old to walk in the future, your kid will have to support me.”

Walter glanced at her faintly, grabbing the car key and going out.

“Why are you going? Seeing that you are so idle all day, why not go to the supermarket downstairs and buy me something to come back.”

Chapter 356

Hearing, Walter frowned: “I came to the neighboring city to go to the supermarket for you?”

“What happened to the last supermarket? I always came to see your aunt. Is there a problem with doing filial piety for your aunt?”

Having said that, Song An squinted at Walter.

“Don’t go.” Walter refused directly, “Go by yourself.”

“Sure.” Song An stood up directly: “Then you send me over.”

Walter was a little unhappy, pursing his thin lips in silence.

“What? What’s wrong with filial piety?”

“Isn’t it downstairs? Still giving it away?”

“It’s always good to go to the supermarket multiple times. Go ahead.”

Even though Walter frowned, he finally went down with Song An.

“Let me tell you that the air in Suzhou City is much better than that in North City. North City is overcrowded. Did you know that your aunt sometimes can’t make the journey to work? This time the hospital is transferred. I can be transferred to Suzhou City. It’s not easy either.”

After entering the supermarket, Song An sighed and said, and then she asked Walter to push a shopping cart. Although Walter was impatient, his body was honest.

Basically, Song An does what he says.

The appearance of Walter made many girls in the supermarket excited and gathered to stare at him.

“My God, that man is so handsome, is that his girlfriend next to him?”

“You are blind, is that woman his mother at first sight?”

“At first glance, they are the children of the nobles. They are well maintained. If you look closely, their outlines are actually a little bit similar. Alas, I want to ask him if he has a girlfriend, can I add a WeChat or something.”

“Think too much, this kind of man won’t look at you. There must be a lot of women waiting for him to choose, and you have no characteristics. Why do people look at you?”

Several waitresses looked at Walter and Song An with regret.

Walter has been frowning tightly, seeming to have heard those words, and it seems that he has not heard those words.

Song An listened, and smiled and asked Walter.

“It seems that my nephew’s charm is undiminished, and girls are favored everywhere.”

Hearing, Walter seemed a little unhappy, “Auntie.”

“Okay, okay, let’s not tease you, I know you are a casual person.” After Song An finished speaking, she sighed inexplicably, and said helplessly: “Since Ana Shen left, you have...”

“Auntie!” The name seemed to touch Walter’s inverse scales, and he frowned in dissatisfaction and stopped walking.

Song An raised her eyebrows and curled her lips. “When the auntie said nothing, let’s go.”

The two quickly went up to the second floor.

Not long after Walter and Song An went up to the second floor.

Stella took her own Levi to the supermarket. After entering, Levi raised his head: “Mummy, can I take off my hat?”

Hearing that Stella looked around, it may be that it was earlier today and no one followed them.

Moreover, it was probably because she had just returned to China yesterday that a reporter followed up. It would be meaningless to follow up today, so she should be relieved in the future.

Thinking of this, Stella nodded and said, "Yes, you can take off your hat."

When Levi heard this, he took off his hat with joy, "Thank you Mommy."

Stella reached out and rubbed his little head: "Let's go, let's push a shopping cart, and then go to the fresh food area first."

"Mummy, I'll push it!" Levi immediately volunteered and stepped on his short legs to push the shopping cart.

The girls who had just discussed Walter and the others didn't really care when they saw Levi coming over, but after a cursory glance, their eyes widened in terror, and they pulled each other's sleeves.

"What I said is right, high-quality men are out of our turn. I thought he just has a girlfriend. I didn't expect that even his son is already this old!"

"Son? What the hell are you talking about?"

"Look at that kid, is it exactly the same as the man from the past?"

The girl's little sister looked in the direction she was pointing, and instantly: "Fuck, is this Nima carved out of a mold? How come it looks like this? I'm still thinking about asking for WeChat with a cheeky Are there any children? I have suffered ten thousand points!"

“People must have come to the supermarket together. It’s cold. The handsome guy either has a girlfriend or a family. Forget it, don’t think about it next time.”

One of them couldn’t help calling Levi: “Little guy, your daddy went upstairs.”

Levi snorted, and pointed to her cutely, “Does Miss Sister call me?”

“Wow, it’s so cute! It’s totally different from the man with cold body!”

Several women couldn’t help but walked up to Levi, pulled out a shopping cart for him, and nodded and said: “Yes, just call you, your daddy went to the second floor.”

She thought she kindly reminded her.

Levi blinked his clear eyes. Although he didn’t understand what the young lady was saying, she seemed to be kind, so he nodded, “Thank you beautiful young lady, I know.”

“So cute... can I... squeeze your face?”

One of them was really uncontrollable and made a rude request.

Levi was stunned for a moment, and then stretched out a finger. Just when the girl thought he could only pinch, he shook his little white finger seriously: “No way.”

The girl was a little disappointed, and the girls around him were also a bit regretful.

Knocking——

There was a sound of high heels.

Stella appeared in front of a few people with a bag on her shoulders, smiling, “Hello, what happened?”

“Mummy~” Levi walked back to Stella and held her hand.

When Levi called Mommy, the faces of several girls were a little embarrassed: “I’m sorry, this lady, your child is so cute, so we... just say hello to him.”

Stella is almost used to this situation, but out of politeness she would still ask first.

“It turns out that this is the case. Millet says goodbye to all my sisters. Let’s go shopping.”

“Goodbye sisters.”

After Stella smiled and greeted them, she took Levi and left.

As soon as she left, several girls got together and chatted again.

“Have you seen? There are so many temperament and auras in their wives, which are not comparable to those of us.”

“...Also, don’t be delusional, go back and continue to move bricks.”

“Hey, you see that they went separately, the one in front went to the second floor, and this one went to the fresh food area, what’s the matter?”

“What else, buy things separately, didn’t you see that they came in at different times?”

Chapter 357

“That’s what I said.”

“Work, work!”

Stella took the Levi to the fresh food area. The Levi had a small figure but had to push the shopping cart. He took the initiative to walk in front of Stella, saying: “Mummy, Aunt Jessica does it. The braised fish is the best. We will buy a fish later and put it in the refrigerator. Will it be done when Aunt Jessica comes back at night?”

“Okay, let’s go take a look.”

“Ok!”

The mother and son went to the stall and watched for a long time, finally chose a very fat fish, and then went to choose some beef.

Don’t look at Levi with only round cheeks and thin body, but he is a veritable snack food. He likes to pester Jessica to make delicious food for him, and he can be happy when he goes to the supermarket.

In just a while, Levi has added a lot of things to the shopping cart.

When in foreign countries, most of them are Jessica taking millet beans to the supermarket, so Stella rarely set foot, even if she does, she almost buys daily necessities, so she doesn’t know much about these fresh things. .

On the contrary, Levi can quickly distinguish which is good and which is bad, and then put it in the shopping cart when it is right.

When they came out of the fresh food area, the shopping cart was already full.

“I said baby, did you all learn from Aunt Jessica?”

Levi nodded: “Yes, Mommy. When you were looking for inspiration, Aunt Jessica and I would go to the supermarket to buy things. Aunt Jessica taught me what to buy.”

After speaking, Levi raised his chin, asking for praise.

Stella reached out and touched his little head, and praised him without hesitation: “That’s great, my Levi, do you want to be a chef when you grow up?”

Hearing, Levi immediately shook his head: “No more!”

“Why?”

“Aunt Jessica said, I won’t waste resources if I want to be a celebrity with this beautiful face.”

Stella: “...”

What did this girl transmit to Levi?

She smiled faintly, and asked in a hurry, “Does Levi want to be a star?”

Levi shook his head again: “I don’t like it.”

Stella’s smile widened again: “Then what does Levi want to do?”

Levi suddenly waved his fist in the air: “Mummy, Levi will be a soldier in the future and serve the country!”

Hearing, Stella's steps suddenly stopped, and Levi raised his head: "What's wrong, Mommy?"

"No." Stella stopped, bowed her head and squeezed the flesh on Levi's cheeks: "This dream is very good. As long as Levi likes it, Mommy will not stop you."

"Thank you Mommy! I knew Mommy would definitely support Levi!"

At the beginning, Levi held Stella's face and rubbed it, and then kissed her on the cheek with a tap. The smile in Stella's eyes deepened: "You... let's go. , Let's go to the second floor to have a look and prepare some daily necessities."

"But Mommy, this shopping cart may not fit in, let's check out this first before going to the second floor~"

"it is good."

So Stella took Levi to the front desk to check out, then put the things aside first, and the mother and son went to the second floor together.

After going up to the second floor, Stella happened to see the clothes there, and found that there was a very unique design, so she couldn't help but walk over and take a closer look.

Levi looked around and suddenly said: "Mommy, wait for me here, I will push another shopping cart~"

"Okay, be careful."

Probably Levi's autonomy was too strong, so Stella was very relieved to him, and let him go when he said he wanted to.

Levi ran to push the shopping cart with brisk steps.

“Walter, help me take the one above and put it in the shopping cart.” Song An was pointing to the cup on the top of the shelf, Walter Gao, almost just reached out and took it down, “Is it enough?”

Song An glanced at him: “Why are you so anxious? Finally come to Suzhou City, eat here at noon today? Auntie cooks herself, there is nothing to buy here, go to the fresh food area downstairs have a look.”

After that, Song An turned around and prepared to walk in the direction she had come. When she walked to the front, she found a cute little Douding pushing a shopping cart with her back facing her, and he was alone. His small body looked very pleasing. .

At that moment, Song An felt like something was bound, and almost wanted to take a step forward.

“The elevator to the first floor is here.”

An indifferent voice came from behind, calling Song An back to her senses. She turned her head back and replied: “I know, I’ll be here soon.”

Then she looked back and found that the little Douding who was pushing the shopping cart just now disappeared.

Hey, he was still here just now?

Song An couldn’t help catching up to check it out, but she never saw the figure of Xiao Douding.

And Walter over there was probably impatiently waiting, pushing the shopping cart over, and asked coldly: “What’s wrong?”

“It’s nothing.” Song An shook her head: “I just saw a child who looks so cute, and the back of his head makes people feel cute. I didn’t expect that it would disappear after a while.”

Hearing, Walter couldn’t help frowning and said, “If you like, you can have one.”

Song An glared at him: “What nonsense? I still have a child at my age, wouldn’t it make people laugh?”

After speaking, Song An turned and left, and Walter followed without expression.

Song An in front said coldly: “I think you should hurry up to marry a wife and have a baby. This way my aunt will also be upgraded. Anyway, I am not busy at work now, and I can help when the time comes. Your husband and wife will take care of your children.”

Hearing the child, the expression on Walter’s face became gloomy.

It suddenly occurred to... five years ago when Ana begged him to keep the child.

If... If she hadn’t left then, would the child be five years old now?

Thinking of this, Walter couldn’t help but smile.

Is he crazy? That child is not his kid, and he is expecting this child? Walter closed his eyes and stretched out his hand to pinch his aching temple.

“Don’t mention these things again, bother.”

Song An turned her head and glared at him, “Do you think I want to mention it? It’s a lot of age, and I want to learn from your aunt. I’ve been lonely and die? That’s not okay. If you are really lonely and die, I will never see you in Huangquan. Damn you.”

“...Don’t mention this.” Walter snorted unhappily when he heard her say Huangquan.

Song Anjie said, “Don’t let me mention anything, you really have a lot of requests, people like you...you really have nothing except handsome and I’m still a rich. I wonder if bachelor.”

Have nothing but handsome and rich?

Walter: “...”

“Go, go to the fresh food area downstairs to buy some fresh food!”

Chapter 358

“Mummy, I’m back.” When Levi came back with the shopping cart, Stella just finished studying the design of the costume, and turned around and bent over and hugged Levi.

“Thank you, Levi, next you sit in the shopping cart and Mommy will push you away.”

“Can you?!” Levi seemed to be a little excited, poking his fingers together, and his eyes turned skeletal: “But that doesn’t seem to have any image...”

“Sneer.” Stella couldn’t help laughing out loud, “What image do you have as a child?”

After speaking, put the Levi directly into the shopping cart, and then Levi grabbed the shopping cart and sat down: “Okay then~”

Downstairs

When Walter and Song An went to the fresh food area to buy some food and went to the front desk to check out, the few little girls stared at Walter with bright eyes. When they thought that his wife and son had them, the light in their eyes was again. It dimmed in an instant.

After receiving the money, the girls who received the money suddenly found that the things they bought seemed a bit repetitive. They felt strange at the same time, but they still said with an enthusiastic attitude: “Sir, do you want to take away your wife’s things? It’s already settled.”

Walter didn’t seem to hear her, and picked up the bag, his face expressionless.

“Mr?”

Song An heard something and narrowed her eyes: “Are you talking to him?”

The girl was a little surprised, and nodded: “Yes.”

“You just said his wife?”

The girl looked a little confused by Song An’s suspicious eyes, and after a long time she faltered, she said, “Just now...a very beautiful lady brought a child in behind you, and she went upstairs just now. I still...think you are a couple.”

Hearing, Walter frowned displeasably, and stared at the female cashier.

Under his fierce gaze, the female cashier felt a chill in her back, and an invisible pressure slammed her shoulders hard, causing her to bend her back instantly.

“That one...”

Song An saw that Walter’s emotions were not right, and smiled embarrassedly: “We came in together, we didn’t come in with anyone at all, are you the one who admitted the wrong person?”

The person next to her saw it, and hurried up to clear the female cashier.

“I’m sorry you two, my friend is a little short-sighted. Just now a lady put things here and said that she would give it to her husband. They are indeed two people like you, so they misunderstood. I’m really sorry. .”

“It’s okay.” Song An shook her head: “Since it’s a misunderstanding, just untie it. It’s not a big deal. Okay, Walter, seeing your broken face, do you want to scare the little girl? Go away. Up.”

After speaking, Song An dragged Walter out of the supermarket.

After they left, the female cashier stood there, her eyes flushed with fright, and the person next to her comforted her.

“Is it all right?”

The female cashier shook her head and hugged her arm: “I’m fine, it’s just...he looked so fierce and scary just now.”

“Yeah, I also think... that look is too horrible, this kind of man, although he looks good, but he is a block of ice, I guess he won’t be hot enough to cover it.”

“Yeah.” The girl who was scared with red eyes nodded: “But... the kid looked so much like him just now, they...”

“Hey, I don’t know. What is going on? But according to what he was just now, it is really not. Let’s stop talking nonsense in the future. Just do what others say.”

“Hmm.”

Stella and Levi had been shopping upstairs for a long time, and finally came downstairs. When checking out, Stella found that she had bought too many things. She and Levi should not be able to move out. .

Thinking of this, Stella was a little upset.

It’s all because she doesn’t go to the supermarket too often. When she buys, she only takes what she needs, without considering whether their mother and son can get it.

In desperation, Stella had to call the car, and then contacted the driver to help her pick up something and add money to him.

The driver rushed over as soon as he heard of the increase. So Stella and Levi waited for a while. While waiting, Stella found a little girl with red eyes staring at them, her eyes seemed to be there is a little worry.

Although Stella was a little surprised at what was going on, she didn’t ask more, and left together when the driver came to help them pick up things.

After they left, the girls got together and started chatting again.

“What, I thought they were a pair before, but I didn’t expect it to be?”

“Even if it’s not, we don’t dare to provoke that kind of man.”

Not long after Stella and Levi got in the car, Jessica called.

At this point in time... Has she settled her work?

“Mom, let me pick it up! I want to talk to Aunt Jessica!”

Stella handed the mobile phone to Levi. After receiving the mobile phone, Levi was directly connected, and then said with a voice, “Aunt Jessica.”

“Millet beans? Why are you?”

“Aunt Jessica, Mommy and I bought a lot of ingredients in the supermarket. Can we make braised fish tonight?”

Normally Jessica would definitely discuss food with him, but today it felt like burning eyebrows. Not only did she not answer the question of Levi, she also said directly: “Levi, I don’t have time to talk about this now. Is your mommy next to you? Give your mommy the phone, I have something to tell her.”

Levi heard the anxiety in her tone, so he handed her phone to Stella, “Mommy, Aunt Jessica seems to be looking for you in a hurry.”

Hearing, Stella picked up the phone and said, “Hey, Jessica, what happened?”

“Oh, Stella, help! You are still in the mood to go shopping in the supermarket after burning your eyebrows!”

Stella raised her eyebrows: “What is burning eyebrows, you didn’t tell me.”

“You tell you, didn’t I come to measure the body of that Miss Zhao? Do you know the result? She actually left me next to me for an hour because I was one minute late!”

Stella raised her eyes and looked out the window, and just saw a bus passing by. The poster on it happened to be the Erika that Jessica said.

As the more Yirui, the current very appealing traffic star in the country has become famous for appearing in the traversing drama of the prosperous world. When the TV series was broadcast, it was sought after by many fans. Later, it was connected to several TV series and they were very popular. There are countless directors in the circle who want to ask her to make a TV series, but she is rumored to be very arrogant. She especially chooses the script. The general directors and scripts are not accepted.

When her agent found her and said that she hoped that she could design a dress specifically for her, Jessica thought about rejecting it, but for Stella.

Big business has come, how can there be any reason not to do it?

Chapter 359

Although she is lazy, she has to support her family.

Jessica also relies on her to eat, plus she wants to create superior living conditions for Levi, so she still works very hard. When you are lazy, it is based on the absence of pressure.

So she was next.

“What then?” Stella asked softly.

“Then, I waited for her to film the film. After that, she is now finished filming. Do you know what she said when I was going to measure her? She actually said that she was tired and wanted to rest, so she left me aside.”

Stella: “...”

Jessica was bitter: “That’s all right. After she took a break for ten minutes, when I measured her, she actually said that I hurt her! She said that I was unprofessional, and now she is not allowed to approach her.”

Stella stretched out her hand and twisted her eyebrows, “So?”

“She asked you to come over in person, saying that you picked up this list, and you must come over and measure her. Who does she think she is? Is it amazing to be a red star? I’m just one minute late, one minute! I’ll give She apologized for a long time. After saying good things for so long, she actually... didn’t step on me. I was pissed off. Stella, let me tell you that I really got on with her today. You come here to help her measure, why doesn’t she think about it, does she have that qualification?”

Stella said faintly: “But if you call me, don’t you just let me go over and measure her in person?”

“Damn, I didn’t mean that, I’m really angry, no one here can listen to me spit out, you know? Don’t come over here! I’m here to fight with her today.”

Hearing this, Stella couldn’t help but chuckle and whispered softly: “Speaking of which, you just let me pass.”

“Stella!”

“Okay, you send the address to my mobile phone, and I will come and look for you after I send Levi home.”

“Well, then, I will send the address to your phone immediately, Stella, please come and save me, I’m going crazy.”

Jessica, who said just now that she would die with Zhao Yiru to the end, immediately changed direction, and it was very fast.

Stella: “...”

After hanging up the phone, Stella put the phone away, and just about to lower her head to explain to Levi, Levi took the initiative to speak: “Mommy, is Aunt Jessica in trouble? Mommy, go and help her. I can do it at home.”

Although Levi is young, he is very sensible, perhaps because of a single-parent family. Although such Levi is very considerate, Stella loves him even more.

She stretched out her hand to touch Levi’s head: “Levi is so good, Mommy will help Aunt Jessica, and I will bring her back later to make you braised fish.”

Hearing the braised fish, Levi’s eyes immediately became bright, and he nodded: “Good mom!”

The driver was very happy when he took the money. After sending them to the community, he helped to move everything to the door. He didn’t enter the door very politely. Because Stella wanted to find Jessica, she still asked him to go downstairs and wait for her for five minutes. .

The driver happily agreed and took the elevator down.

After that, Stella took a bit of effort to drag things into the house with Levi, and put them in the refrigerator. After finishing the arrangement, she said: “Then Mommy will go first. The drive back and forth, plus working hours, Mommy should be back in the afternoon. If you are hungry, can you eat some bread to cushion your stomach?”

Levi nodded: "Good mommy."

When Stella went out, she turned halfway around but couldn't bear to turn around: "Levi, or...you go out with Mommy? When work is over, Aunt Jessica and Mommy will take you out to eat? "

"No, Mommy, it's a bit troublesome to take my words, Mommy will help Aunt Jessica first, Levi can take care of the lunch by himself!"

After speaking, Levi stepped forward and kissed Stella on the cheek, then waved to her, beckoning her to go and return.

Helpless, Stella had to leave by herself.

In many cases, she wants to accompany Levi more.

After all, he doesn't have a father, so he can't even let his maternal love be so scarce.

But... many things are not proportional.

She wants to create good living conditions for Levi, so she must work hard to earn money. Once she goes into work, she will often ignore or even neglect Levi.

Fortunately... Fortunately, Jessica has been by her side over the years, and Jessica has shown too much care for her.

Millet, waiting for Mommy, Mommy will be back soon.

Stella got into the car, and after telling the driver the address, the driver turned around and left Ruixin community.

After driving for a while, the uncle driver enthusiastically chatted with her.

“Is that little Douding your son just now? He looks so good-looking. I have rarely seen such a cute child after driving for so long.”

Stella nodded with a smile on her face when she heard him complimenting her millet beans.

“Well, it’s my son.”

“The genes are really good, and they are so well-behaved and obedient, but... how come you are a female streamer with a child alone?”

Hearing this, Stella lowered her eyes, let her slender eyelashes cover her emotions, and whispered: “The child’s father happened to be on a business trip today and will be back tonight.”

Not everyone is bad, but she must remain vigilant if she is a woman with a child. The driver just asked her about this because she had to take precautions.

“It turned out to be like this, that’s good.” The driver’s uncle laughed, and didn’t think there was any problem.

The speed of the car was not bad, and it reached the destination quickly.

“In this area, I have brought a lot of people here, all of them are small actors and stars, but... don’t you look at your outfit for filming?”

“Well, I’m not here to film, I’m here to find someone.” Stella nodded at him, and after paying for the car, she opened the door and got out of the car.

After Stella got off the car, she sent a message to Jessica that she had arrived, and asked her to come and pick her up.

Jessica asked her to wait, and then appeared in front of her within two minutes.

“Stella, here and here!”

Stella looked at her and saw Jessica standing at the entrance. She put away her phone and walked over.

Seeing Stella, Jessica felt as if she had seen the savior, and was so moved that she almost cried.

After she walked over, Jessica even stretched out her hand to hug her.

“Stella! Great! You are finally here! If you don’t come, I feel that I will be tossed to death by that vicious woman. The sun is so big, she actually made me wait outside here for so long.”

When she hugged her, Stella happened to see the beads of sweat behind her ears and the back of her collar was wet.

The eyes under her eyes darkened a bit, Stella pursed her red lips, and then said coldly: “Quick battle, take me over.”

Chapter 360

“Okay, then you come with me.” Jessica took Stella’s hand and walked inside.

There were a lot of people on the set. Because this time she was shooting a costume drama, Stella saw many actors in costumes as soon as he walked in, but because it was summer, most of them were too hot.

Each prepared a small fan to blow, and some even took off their jackets and put them aside, wearing only a vest and shorts, but they wore a heavy hair crown on their heads, which looked funny.

Stella glanced over all this, then followed Jessica in.

Seeing Stella and Jessica, the assistant director of the studio stepped forward and stopped them both: "What do you two do? We are filming here, and fans are not allowed to enter. What about the field control? What are you eating? How can you let people in? "

The field controller who was named by the name rushed over and saw Jessica and explained: "Assistant director, they are not fans, they are here to find Zhao Yiru."

"Zhao Yiru? What do you want her for?" The assistant director asked inexplicably, then his eyes fell on Jessica, and then looked at Stella.

When he saw Stella, his eyes lit up.

Stella raised her hand and pressed down the sunglasses on her face, covering the small face with the palm of her hand.

This kind of her is full of aura.

He does not know, he thought she was an international star.

"You, are you...?" The assistant director looked at Stella and asked.

Jessica subconsciously blocked Stella's, and then softly explained: "Hello, assistant director, we are here to see Ms. Zhao. There are some work matters to deal with. It only takes a short while. "

“Such...”

The assistant director stared at Jessica suspiciously, but finally his eyes fell on Stella’s body and couldn’t do without.

It just so happened that Zhao Yiru’s agent came over, and when he saw Stella, his eyes lit up, and then he quickly walked over to make a relief.

“Assistant director, assistant director, this Miss Stella is our intended guest.”

Then the agent pulled the assistant director aside and whispered something, the assistant director’s gaze kept looking in Stella’s direction, and after a while he nodded and left.

Zhao Yiru’s agent stepped forward and nodded to Stella: “Miss Stella is here, come with me.”

Stella nodded to follow his steps, Jessica snorted behind him, and muttered in a low voice, “It’s really a dog’s eyes that look down on people. His attitude to me just now was not so good.”

Listening to this, Stella couldn’t help but laugh in a low voice: “What do you care about with these people.”

“You’re not me, how do you know my upset, hey... I really feel sorry for myself, why don’t I have your talent? If I can design well, I don’t need to look at the faces of these people.”

“You?” Stella smiled, “I think it’s a pity that you don’t become a gourmet with your craft.”

“Make fun of me again, I don’t want to be a gourmet, that way I will become a fat man! You know, I can’t help seeing what I eat!”

The agent quickly took them to a rest room on the set. After pushing the door open, a cool breeze rushed in. Stella realized that the air conditioner was turned on and there were only a few people inside.

She looked back at the people who were sweating on the set but could only find some shade.

As expected in this world, the treatment of those with flow and those without flow is completely different.

No wonder everyone wants to climb up.

Thinking of this, Stella walked in with his agent.

“Yiru, Miss Stella is here.” The agent walked to a beautifully dressed girl and said softly.

The makeup on her face was extremely delicate, and she used top-quality products. After hearing the words of the agent, she rotated the chair, then turned to look at Stella.

Zhao Yiru is a very beautiful woman.

In terms of face value, she is very high, otherwise how could she climb to where she is today in the face-seeking society? After all, she doesn't have any acting skills. If she doesn't have any good looks, then she won't get so many fans.

It's just... Zhao Yiru is not only beautiful, but also hostile to other beautiful women.

Especially... a woman she thinks is more beautiful than her.

Zhao Yiru originally thought that a well-known designer must be an elderly woman, even if she is not elderly, she should not look good.

But he didn't expect Stella to be... so young and beautiful, and... Still very aura.

Just a simple costume and standing there wearing sunglasses made her feel pressure.

"She's... Shelly, a well-known designer overseas? It doesn't look like...what's the difference." After speaking, he curled up his lips and laughed.

The expression on the agent's face was a bit embarrassing, he glanced at the calm Stella, and then explained: "Shelly is Chinese, and her Chinese name is Stella."

"Oh? Stella? I haven't heard of it. Are you really a well-known designer? Aren't you a fake?"

"What nonsense are you talking about?" Before Stella had any reaction, Jessica jumped her feet, gritted her teeth and glared at Zhao Yiru: "Who can pretend to be a well-known designer overseas? I'm just one minute late. Are you always embarrassing me? You even embarrass us Stella!"

"Oh? So in your opinion, one minute is not late? Shouldn't be punished for being late? Miss, do you know how precious and valuable my time is to my Zhao Yiru? How much will my job change in a minute after you? Do you know how much I lose?"

"I..." Jessica was speechless when she said.

Stella held Jessica's arm and stepped forward a few steps on high heels, with a clear voice: "Miss Zhao, when signing the contract, you made it clear that you have to cooperate with our staff, especially during the design period. Now it seems that Miss Zhao's time is really precious, so precious that even a minute of time is unwilling to cooperate. Of course, my assistant is late. This is a mistake she made, but if she has a bad attitude and did not apologize to you, then naturally you will punish her. But my assistant not only apologized to you, but also waited for you two hours longer, didn't she? Let's do this, how much does Ms. Zhao wait for an extra minute? My assistant's salary is monthly According to the commission ratio, the two hours she waited for you should have been offset?"

"You!" Zhao Yiru didn't expect her to have such sharp teeth, nor did she even dare to touch the client's mouth, and her beautiful face was suddenly full of anger: "What are you talking about? How dare you compare her to me?"

Stella smiled slightly, "They are all people, why can't they compare? Is it possible that Miss Zhao is a different kind?"

"! Pooh!" Zhao Yiru yelled out in anger: "I am a popular international actress. She is a little designer assistant who dares to compare with me? Don't say she is unworthy, even you... are only worthy of me. Shoe."
