

Nothing To Give But My Heart Chapter 53

"That's enough!" Ye Moxuan grabbed her wrists and moved to push her away. Unexpectedly, Shen Qi refused and forced herself closer to him. "You haven't given me your answer yet."

The veins on Ye Moxuan's forehead popped up. He clasped her waist to pull her apart from his body but she clung tight to him. All the actions of her intoxicated self were influenced by the alcohol. Noticing that Ye Moxuan wanted to push her away, she directly put her arms around his neck and sat on his legs instead.

Everyone who looked at the scene unfolding in front of them were left speechless.

The subordinates of Ye Moxuan saw the situation and asked softly, "Young Master Ye, do you need help?"

As soon as they asked, two subordinates went forward and moved to grab Shen Qi's fair arms.

Looking at that, Ye Moxuan's gaze turned sharp and yelled, "Hands off!"

The two men stopped at once, their muscular arms hanging in the air.

Xiao Su was observing everything at the side and could only sigh to himself. What foolish men they are. Can't they tell that Young Master Ye is worried about her?

Ye Moxuan was in deep trouble now. Shen Qi was now sitting on him, her arms around his neck. The sweet scent of her body and her soft breath engulfed him, mixing well with the glacial, strong aura that he had.

Ye Moxuan clutched her tiny waist with his big palm and said in a husky voice, "Do you really want to know?"

Shen Qi pouted her red lips and suddenly bent forward to place her head on his shoulder. "I'm sleepy," she mumbled.

Ye Moxuan was speechless. Did she say that she's sleepy after flirting with me?

"Hah. Woman, you lost your chance."

Ye Moxuan moved his wheelchair with his other hand. When Xiao Su saw this, he immediately ordered, "Get the car ready. We'll leave here now."

After saying that, Xiao Su quickly abandoned the man and chased after Ye Moxuan.

On the way home, Shen Qi remained in Ye Moxuan's arms. She was so drunk that she didn't stop touching him; she hugged his neck, played with his earlobes, traced his skin with her nails and couldn't stop all the little actions which aroused Ye Moxuan's desire.

Ye Moxuan also wondered why he would react that easily just from being teased by a woman.

He seized her hands and stopped her from moving.

Shen Qi refused to comply and mumbled, "Let me go!"

Ye Moxuan's expression turned icy as he looked at the front seat and said, "Speed up!"

This mad woman! She would dare to do anything here if I don't send her home quickly.

If she continued being like this, his restraint would have depleted before they could reach their house.

Xiao Su stepped on the accelerator. He looked at the two sitting at the back through the rearview mirror helplessly.

Well, their position is so flirty and dangerous. How can Young Master Ye still hold himself back with a drunk woman in his arms?

"Like what you see?" Xiao Su felt a chill down his spine as he heard a glacial voice coming from behind. He immediately straightened his back and fixed his eyes in front, not daring to look at them anymore.

What a joke! How would I dare to watch what they are doing at the back?

Shen Qi began struggling and tried to get the pressure of Ye Moxuan's hands off her. Unconsciously, her tiny body squirmed in his arms and rubbed against his body. Ye Moxuan's eyes got darker and used one hand to seize her shoulder. "Damn it! Stop moving!"

After struggling for a few more moments, Shen Qi gave in and looked at Ye Moxuan, grudgingly remaining in her position. Her eyes were full of grief as if she was complaining. Ye Moxuan actually felt his heart soften; he quickly shifted his eyes away from her. "Behave if you don't want to be thrown out of the car."

Listening to that, Shen Qi's eyes widened for a second and immediately closed her eyes after that. She seemed to be frightened by his words and fell into his arms, no longer making a fuss.

Ye Moxuan finally let out a breath and let go of her hands. After getting her hands free from him, Shen Qi quickly stretched her arms to cuddle his body again and lean into his embrace.

Ye Moxuan's whole body stiffened and cold sweat streamed down his forehead.

Fortunately, after hugging him, Shen Qi didn't move anymore; instead she shut her eyes and fell asleep.

Listening to her even breaths, Ye Moxuan lowered his gaze to stare at this woman in his arms.

She was a completely different person when drunk compared to when she was sober.

This woman has such a different side!

Her behavior was like a child when she was drunk, so flirty and dependent on others. On the contrary, she would always submit to all his criticism when she was sober. There were times when she was burning in fury from being insulted by him but would just turn around in silence without explaining or defending herself.

"Mom..." Her pinkish lips moved a little while her eyelashes quivered, an inaudible murmur escaping her mouth.

Fifteen minutes later, they finally arrived at the Ye residence. As the car door opened, Xiao Su quickly pushed Ye Moxuan's wheelchair down along with the tiny figure clinging on to Ye Moxuan's body like an octopus.

All the servants and maids who waited for Ye Moxuan's arrival at the entrance could not help but gape in shock.

What's going on? Second Young Lady is actually... clinging onto the Second Young Master's body in front of everyone and he didn't even push her away! I thought they said that the Second Young Master doesn't like her! Why...

The maids exchanged their eyes. It seems that the case in which a maid was dismissed directly for offending the Second Young Lady is actually real!

As Xiao Su was pushing Ye Moxuan's wheelchair into the elevator, someone called him. "Moxuan."

Xiao Su stopped and turned his head to the direction of the voice, where he saw Ye Linhan walking toward them.

Ye Linhan stopped in front of them and fixed his gaze on Shen Qi. "Moxuan, what happened?"

Ye Moxuan's expression remained neutral as he replied coldly. "Just as what you see."

Ye Linhan could sense a strong alcohol smell in the air and immediately curled his lips. "Is she drunk?"

"Yes."

Listening to that, Ye Linhan went forward. "Moxuan, it's not convenient for you to carry her in your wheelchair. Let me help you."

After saying that, he reached his arms to lift Shen Qi down from Ye Moxuan's body. But before he could touch her, Ye Moxuan raised his arm to block Ye Linhan and glared at him coldly.

"Thank you for your kindness. I can do it by myself."

Ye Linhan looked at his own hands and was stunned for a while. His thin lips moved a little. "Moxuan, I'm worried about your legs. Although Shen Qi is a girl and she's not that heavy, I'm still afraid that your legs..."

"She's my wife. I don't need anyone to take care of her on my behalf."

Ye Linhan's expression changed slightly. "Moxuan, I didn't have any other intention. It's just that..."

"Let's go."

Xiao Su felt extremely awkward. But since he was working under Ye Moxuan, he nodded his head and pushed Ye Moxuan into the elevator.

As they were entering the elevator, Shen Qi was shaken awake. She opened her sleepy eyes and wanted to lift her head up. However, Ye Moxuan quickly put his hand behind her head and pressed her head against his chest instinctively.

He didn't want Ye Linhan to see her drunken side.

Ye Moxuan wanted to keep her drunken side exclusively to himself.

"Hmm..." Shen Qi struggled hard after being buried in his arms.

Ding! As the door of the elevator was closed, Ye Moxuan released her hands and she was finally free. Just when she was about to speak, everything in front of her turned dark and a kiss fell on her lips.
