

Obsessed CEO Throws Himself at Me Chapter 1832

Chapter 1832 Emotional

Learning that Arielle would be the one operating on her made Susanne happy, especially since she knew how good her daughter-in-law was.

Arielle stayed by Susanne's side until nighttime. During the day, she taught the latter how to play poker with her phone as she was afraid that the older woman would get bored. Susanne had a wonderful time playing the game for the whole afternoon.

"Look at this guy, Sannie. Is he a robot? How can he play the cards so randomly? It's making me angry..."

"It's possible that a child who doesn't know the rules is playing with you right now."

Just as Vinson arrived at the ward's entrance, he heard voices coming from inside. With a smile, he opened the door and saw the two women staring at a phone close to each other. It was a heartwarming sight.

she gently hit the back of her neck with her hand as she raised her head. Then she saw him standing at the entrance with a silly smile. "Why are

After the rambling in his mind ended, he closed

Susanne pointed at strawberries and grapes. "I want these two.

She immediately grabbed the fruit plate more he felt something wasn't

“Mom, you should rest—”

he was interrupted by Susanne. She was gazing at Arielle with a gentle look as she uttered softly, “You should go home with Vinson him staring at her with a look of resentment.

there for almost half an hour by that point. She’s even eating the fruit I bought and Vinson was rather speechless.

Vinson sleep there. It’s better for me to sleep with you tonight instead of going back and forth between the hospital and our house since the