

Obsessed CEO Throws Himself at Me Chapter 1841

Chapter 1841 Birthday Party

“What? Arielle’s your daughter-in-law?” The woman’s jaw hung in astonishment. Susanne chuckled inwardly when she registered the expression on the other woman’s face. “That’s right. Isn’t she a match made in heaven with my son?”

My, I was thinking of getting my daughter to marry Vinson before asking Susanne to help out with Arielle marrying my son. Yet, Susanne’s own son had gotten to her first. I’ve lost a son-in-law and a daughter-in-law! The woman was immensely remorseful. I should have seen how unique Arielle was so that I could tell my son to marry Arielle. Ah, but it’s too late now.

The woman then nodded and said, “Yes, she’s great with Mr. Nightshire.”

woman’s heart was aching. Not only was Arielle a match with Vinson, but she was people had brought along their children to Susanne’s birthday party and how most were not truly here to celebrate the occasion, she leaned closer to Susanne and whispered, “Then you’d better keep a close eye on your son she said that, Arielle appeared. After a quick smile at Arielle, the woman hastily moved to the side. At that, Arielle gave Susanne a confused look. “Mom, familiar face around.” Right then, Arielle did not invite any hosts to the party because she wanted a microphone in her hand, Arielle walked to the front. After clearing her throat, party last year, but due to several reasons, we ended up postponing it until now. Today, we've gathered here with smiles on our faces and congratulatory greetings on the