

Obsessed CEO Throws Himself at Me Chapter 1848

Chapter 1848 Going Into Labor

Susanne went to visit Arielle a week after the wedding when she saw neither of them making plans for a honeymoon.

“Sannie, why haven’t you and Vinson gone on your honeymoon yet?” Don’t young couples love going on honeymoons? Why haven’t they even made plans for it?

Arielle was a little surprised when she found out Susanne had come to see her because of that. She shook her head and said with a chuckle, “We’d just be sleeping in a different bedroom if we go on a honeymoon. I might as well stay home where it’s a lot more comfortable.”

For some reason, Arielle felt extremely tired after getting pregnant and would spend almost the entire day sleeping. She even started yawning as she spoke to Susanne about it. “I’m really tired, Mom. I’m going to bed, okay?”

Seeing as Arielle looked very sleepy, Susanne motioned for her to go ahead and get some rest.

for pregnant women to go up and down the stairs so often. As such, she had the two of them move into a room downstairs. She her head helplessly and smiled as she watched Arielle enter the bedroom. She then whipped out a dictionary of its gender. Naturally, lot more difficult than she had imagined. Even after scribbling down a long list of names and their respective meanings, Susanne was unable to came home and saw that her to Susanne's room and asked, "Hey, Mom. Has Sannie taken her dinner to sleep immediately after having dinner," Susanne replied should get some sleep too, Mom," Vinson said as he went upstairs to he over to the bed and climbed under the covers. Arielle instinctively nuzzled against his chest in response. Vinson gave her an affectionate kiss on the forehead and rested his hands on her