

Obsessed CEO Throws Himself at Me Chapter 1851

Chapter 1851 False Alarm

It'd be even better if we can get a boy this time! I can then spoil my precious daughter all I want while my son inherits the company!

The two of them had just gotten into the car after leaving the movie theater when Vinson's phone started ringing. He quickly answered the phone when he saw that it was Susanne calling.

"Vinson, Jasmine has gone missing!" Susanne shouted anxiously. The look on Vinson's face changed instantly. "What? Jasmine has gone missing? When did this happen?"

Arielle, too, began to panic when she heard that. How did Jasmine go missing?

"Got it. We're heading back right now!" Vinson hung up the phone after saying that and drove Arielle home as quickly as possible. Upon arriving home, Arielle went to check the surveillance camera footage in the study while Vinson asked Susanne what Jasmine was doing before she went missing.

Vinson install surveillance cameras around the mansion long before Jasmine was born. Hence, through them, she would be able to see where Jasmine was hiding or which direction

Vinson when Arielle came down

Her uncle came by and took when she heard that. "Which uncle? Pat or Aaron? Honestly, why would this child just leave without telling without informing us?” Susanne was a little mad at when she was coming down the stairs just now. Apparently, Aaron had texted her much earlier in the day that he would come

“It was Aaron.”

did. “Jasmine got mad because you since the latter was born, she couldn’t stand being separated from the

Mom. Sannie and I will head over to Turlen tomorrow. You’ll have to take charge of things at work while we’re gone, okay?” Vinson said. Susanne was about to say

next day, the two of them took the earliest available flight